Class Confirmation At Weyerhaeuser

The Weyerhaeuser Lutheran church at Fogel's Corner on the Mountain highway, a part of the Bethany Lutheran parish, reports many improvements of recent date. The church building has received a new coat of paint, a white cross has been erected above the vestibule and a chimney built in the Ladies Aid dining room.

A helpful factor is being added with confirmation instruction by the pastor every Saturday, 1:00 to 2:00 p.m. He invites all girls and boys of 12 and over to study together the history and teachings of the Bible to confirm their faith, with confirmation services to be held at the close of the course of studies.

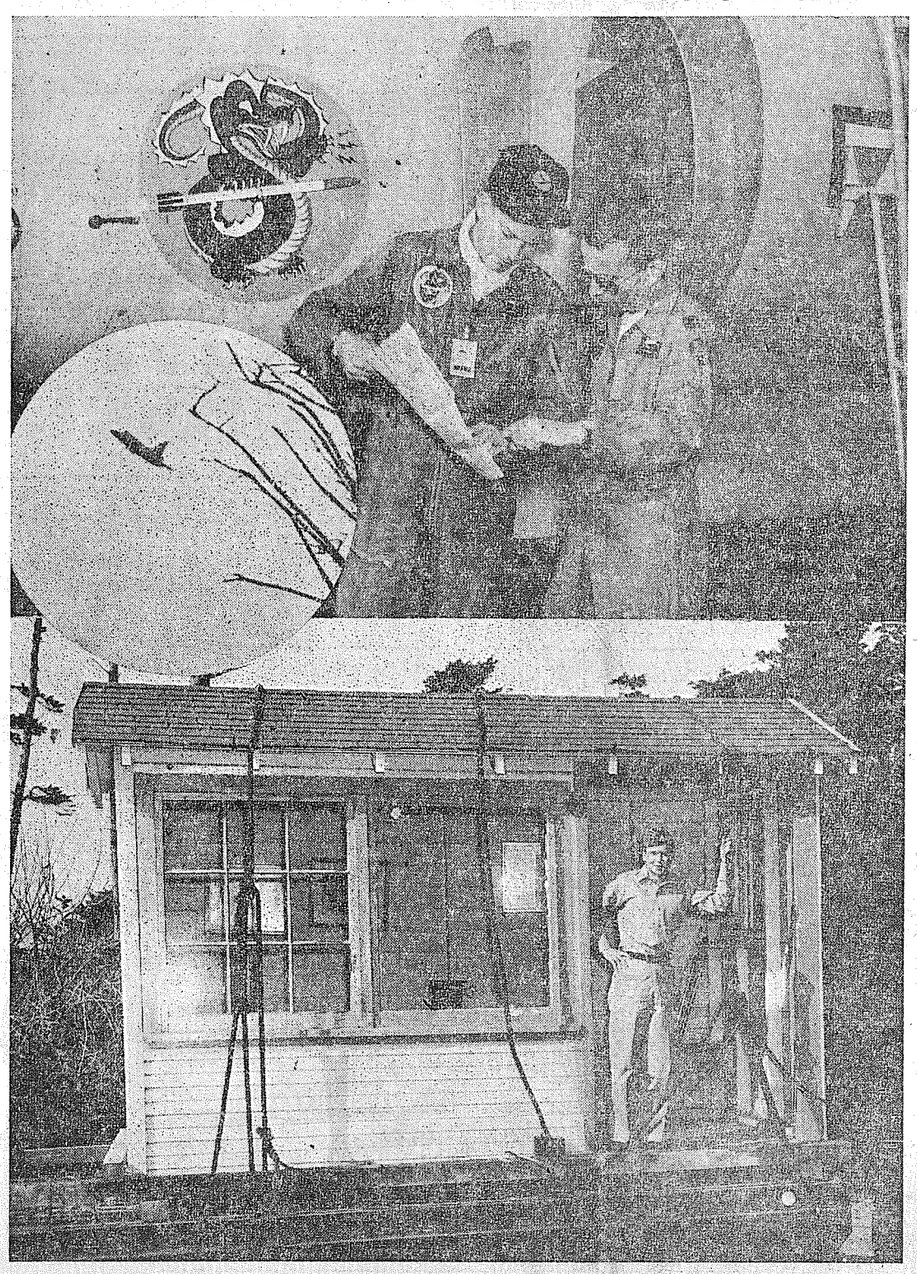
BRIEFED - BUZZED - BOOMED



DRACO THE DRAGON, mascot for the 318th Fighter Intereeptor Squadron, looks ready for action as Captain Lee Kirk, left, and Major Chet Reese, pilots of the two F-120 Jets that ran the Sonic Boom exercise check last minute details. (Inset) One of the FIC2's snapped as it buzzed Queets Beach at an altitude of about 300 feet, in an effort to effect measurable damage on the test structure. Lower shot illustrates Test building (a former bus stop shelter) standing intact. In the doorway Air Force Lt .Alex Crewdson, Public Information Officer at McChord Air Force Base, who arranged the test.

In Air Force Test . . .

Sound Barrier Only Thing Broken In Sonic Boom Test

Two F102 Jets poised high in the marble blue sky. Radio communications between ground and air sputtered from the rear section of a parked jeep holding two-way equipment. Not many yards away a grey Pacific washed its unscientific waves up on the beach.

Perched on the brow of a small hill, McChord Air Force Base personnel had arranged a small frame shack complete with picture window, hanging wall prints and a set table, silverware, crystal and china inclusive. Plus a decibel registration unit, to record volume of sound.

Scattered at various spots, newspaper, radio and TV representatives tilted their heads up and waited for the first jet to break the sound barrier. Occasion: An Air Force directed sonic boom run. Purpose: to determine the extent of damage, if any, created by aircraft traveling faster than the speed of sound, on any ground structure.

Pilots of the two jets were Captain Lee Kirk, 29, Yakima, and Major Chet Rees, 35, Puyallup. Pilots to communications: ready. First pass to be negotiated at 40,000 feet. Silence . . . then, Boom-boom! The first pass "boom" was no louder than an an average thunderclap. Second pass . . . same result. Mild boom. The test house stood firm. The Air Force reports that a sonic boom is 10 times greater in volume than any recorded thunderclap. The jets took it in sequence, gradually lowering the level of feet as they penetrated the sound barrier. The booms were sharper at 30,000, sharpest at 20,000. The house remained intact.

At a news briefing earlier that morning, newspeople were told a sonic boom is essentially nothing more than intense pressure waves pushing a rapid release of energy. If these waves were visible to the human eye, they would, at high aircraft speeds, be seen sweeping back at extremely sharp angles forming a cone shape. This "boom" travels through space as a wave.

Should an individual be standing in the line of passage of the cone at the time it goes by, he will hear a sharp sound comparable to a thunderclap. This then, is the sonic boom.

Statistically, according to Air Force researches, pressure required to create damage in a structure has never been negotiated at less than 70 pounds of pressure per square foot. An average sonic boom averages 65 pounds less than this. When a jet penetrates the barrier, there are in actuality three reverberations. The third vibration is frequently unheard, unless by intended observation.

To an average citizen, working within a building, should he hear a sonic boom, it will sound like a single large explosion. Intensity of the sound will normally be greater in an structually occupied area.

At the test site on Queets Beach the tests wound-up with several piercing dives and a low buzzing of the area by the sleek F-102s.

Net result: (1) Intact building and (2) much noise—no damage seemingly giving concrete backing to the Air Force claim of reassurance to civilians in the Pacific Northwest that a Sonic boom is primarily good for noise —but not for cracked plaster.

ATTENTION BUSINESSMEN AND WOMEN

It has come to our attention that a person who alleges to represent a Seattle firm is calling on business houses in this area, selling an advertising feature, which he claims has the endorsement of the Times Journal Publishing Co. and Jack Brown in particular. We wish to make it clear that such is not the case. We have never endorsed such a program. Such an advertising program is often excessively expensive and duplicates services we normally render free of charge. Pet Owners Form Organization

A group of Pierce County dog and cat owners have organized under the name of "Pet Owners, Incorporated". They gathered at the home of R. W. Farrell, Parkland, on Thursday, Sept. 26, to elect officers and formulate by-laws.

The new organization, headed by Clarence V. Yuckert of Puyallup, as president, has for its objective the taking of a survey to determine what is workable in planning dog and cat control laws for Pierce County. Such information will be filed and made available to those interested.

No other groups are affiliated with Pet Owners Inc., but any individual in sympathy with the objectives is welcome to become a member. Dues are set at 50 cents to enable all to participate. The organization hopes to represent hundreds of pet owners in Pierce County, who might not otherwise have a voice in plans to control their pets.

In addition to the president, other officers are: Norman Jasmer, National, vice president; Jerry Shannon, Spanaway, 2nd vice president; Mrs. Lynne Brown, East Tacoma, secretary, and Mrs. R. Griswald, Lakewood, treasurer. Each rural area in the county will be represented by one or more trustees. County Agent's Corner

Time to spray peaches: Most of you that have peach trees are very mindful just now of some troubles we have because of diseases. Good control of these diseases by sprays depends largely on the timely and thorough applications of the right materials.

It is now time to spray for Coryneum Blight, often called peach blight. This disease causes brown sunken spots on the twigs. When these spots form around the buds, gumming often takes place. On the fruit, it causes reddish circled spots with a scabby center.

Spray now for this disease. Use ferbam 3 lbs. to 100 gals. of water—(3½ tablespoons full to 1 gal. water) or Phygon XL - 1 lb. to 100 gallon of water. (2 teaspoonfuls to 1 gallon water.)

Apply first leaf curl spray during November and the second application the last week of January or the first week of February. Use Puratized Agricultural Spray — use 3 ozs. to 5 gallons of water. Peach curl sprays are only effective when applied during the dormant period.

Virus of foot-and-mouth disease has been purified, isolated, and photographed by scientists at the Plum Island Animal Laboratory of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, C. R. Doran, county Extension agent, reports.

He says first electron micrographs of the virus reveals that it's the smallest of any of the viruses affecting animals—even smaller than the polio virus. The newly-photographed virus is spherical in shape and about one-millionth of an inch in diameter.

This new finding about the physical makeup of the foot-and-mouth virus is expected to speed research on the development of new and effective means of control. Foot-and-mouth, as all stockmen know, has great economic importance to livestock production throughout most of the world, Doran adds.

Hammar - Moorman

Elizabeth Anne Hammar, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Hammar, and John Moorman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Casper Moorman of St. Cloud, Minnesota, were united in marriage Saturday, Sept. 14, at the Church of the Visitation, with Father Phillip officiating.

The bride, wearing a white ballerina length dress and fingertip veil of nylon tulle, was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, George Zacus. She carried white roses.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Richard Wessel, wore a rose-colored dress and carried matching roses. Richard Wessel was best man.

White carnation corsages were worn by the mothers of the bride and bridegroom and the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Leonard Cassan.

After the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served at the Zacus home. The bride and bridegroom's new home was the scene of the afternoon reception and open house.

Special guests from Seattle were the bride's great-aunt, Mrs. Lillian Hanson, and her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Gehrman.

Spearman - Zowislak

A nuptial Mass Saturday morning, August 31, in the Holy Rosary Catholic church united Miss Marline Spearman and John Martin Zowislak. The Rev. Lawrence Piotrzkowski performed the ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew J. Spearman and he the son of Mr. and Mrs. Marion P. Zawislak. The church was decorated with baskets of yellow and white gladioli and white stock.

The Chantilly lace over satin gown and dainty headpiece worn by the bride were designed by her mother. The bodice was cut on the empire waistline with lace flowers, seed pearls and iridescent sequins trimming the scoop neckline. A lace panel matching the bodice was set into the front of the floor-length satin skirt. The scalloped edge silk veiling was caught to a headpiece of lace and satin and trimmed with pearls. For something new, she wore a dainty gold heart shaped pendant with a pearl attached in the middle, a gift from the bridegroom. The bride carried her tiny orchids on top of a lace covered prayer book, the cover designed by her mother.

Miss Sharron Eshpeter was maid of honor; Mrs. Carole Christiansen, sister of the bride, was matron of honor; Miss Janet Spearman, another sister, was bridesmaid and Miss Genevieve Zawislak, sister of the bridegroom, was junior bridesmaid. The attendants' identical dresses were designed in yellow lace over yellow taffeta and they carried nosegays of yellow carnations and white gladioli blossoms in a cascade arrangement.

The bride's mother pinned her carnation corsage to a light blue brocaded faille dress and the bridegroom's mother to a dusty rose lace dress.

Assisting at the reception held in the Polish Hall were Mesdames Joseph Holman, Larry Berquest, Lloyd Erlandson, Eugene Castleberry, Ronald Curtis, Henry Robinson, Ed Hendricks, and the Misses Rosalee Brown and Sally Kirk.

The bride chose a pearl gray suit and black accessories topped with a darker gray wool duster for the honeymoon trip

The bride was graduated from Franklin Pierce and the groom from Bellarmine. They will soon be living in Seattle where the groom will resume studies in pharmacy at the University of Washington.

Bob Montgomery of 1818 East 93rd. was pleasantly surprised recently when two of his sisters, Mrs. May Tuell and Mrs. Ida Cramer of Loogootee, Indiana, came to visit him for an indefinite time. It has been 30 years since they have seen each other. Helping to entertain the visitors are their five nieces, Mesdames Rosella Bronson, Ruby Kjalseth, Roberta Glover, Garnet Jennerjohn and Eva Clark.

PLC Plays UBC Saturday

With the Logger victory still ringing in their ears, Pacific Lutheran's fighting band of Lutherans start their Evergreen Conference schedule this Saturday night at Lincoln Bowl. The Lutes meet the University of British Columbia at 8 p.m.

The Thunderbirds were roughly treated last week by Southern Oregon College to the tune of 44-0. The Oregon team completely bewildered the Birds with a well-balanced attack which completely dominated the game.

PLC coach Harv Hashman isn't taking the UBS eleven too lightly and is worning the Lutes not to be too overconfident. On any given night the Canadian eleven is liable to give any confident foe a rough time in the Evergreen Conference.

The starting lineup for the Lutes will probably be the same one that started against the Loggers. This will place Louis Blaesi and San Gange at ends, Mike Teel and Lynn Calkins at tackles, Orson Christensen and Dick Goodwin at guards and Ron McAllister at center in the starting line. The backfield will be composed of quarterback John Jacobson, halfbacks George Fisher and John Fromm and fullback Tommy Gilmer.

Frankly Speaking

with Ron Frank

Pacific Lutheran's spirit and desire gave the Parklanders their ultimate goal in football this fall —an upset victory over the highly touted College of Puget Sound Loggers 7-6 last Saturday at CPS.

Outcharging the CPS line for most of the game the Lutes made the Logger forces desperate after a quarter of play. This sense of futility and frustration on the part of the Loggers caused the PLC winning touchdown. The overconfident Loggers, who showed an opening content to stay on the ground, threw a dangerous flat pass which was picked off by John Jacobson. Jacobson went 65 yards to score.

Tommy Gilmer's talented toe converted the extra point which proved to be the decisive point of the game. The Loggers fought back strongly in the second half after stopping an early Lute drive and nearly tied the score except for a missed extra point.

The inexperienced PLC line showed well against the more experienced CPS forward wall. Freshmen Louis Blaesi, Mike Teel and Orson Christensen proved that they will be able to hold their own in the tough Evergreen Conference wrich opens Saturday. The Lutes meet the University of British Columbia Saturday night at Lincoln Bowl.

Most of the teams in the Evergreen Conference especially Western seems much improved and the Lutes will have their work cut out if they have any ideas concerning the title.

Cards To Host Enumclaw; Braves Will Face Vashon

Still searching for their first Puget Sound league victory, the Franklin Pierce Cardinals meet the Enumclaw Hornets tonight at 8 p.m. The game will take place at the Cardinal athletic field.

The game was originally scheduled for Friday night but the WEA Institute at Jason Lee in Tacoma Friday necessitated the change. Franklin Pierce high will not be in session Friday.

Renton's powerful Indians garnered a stubborn 27-0 victory over the Cards last week with a powerful running attack at the Renton Stadium. The Cards once again failed to display an offensive attack which could score. But the defense managed to make a good showing despite the one-sided score.

The Cards held the Indians scoreelss in the middle periods but the Indians scored twice in first and last cantos to pile up the 27 points. A picked up fumble and a short scamper after a Franklin Pierce fumble gave the Renton team two quickie scores in the fourth period. The Hornets were trouncing the Sumner Spartans at the same time to the tune of 27-0 at Enumclaw. Neil Balsley, 185-pound fullback, scored all 27 points in the romp over the weak Sumner eleven. Runs og 4, 14, 70 and 12 yards accounted for the Balsley scoring while the Hornets were outclassing the Sumner gridders.

Coach Eldon Kyllo of Pierce praised the work of Al Svinth, Gary Gehrmann and Gary Moore for their play in the Renton game. Moore, all-conference end last year, was impressive in his first start since being injured in the opening game.

After two weeks on the road, the Bethel Braves finally come home this week. The Braves meet the Vashon Pirates this Friday night in a West Central League battle at the Bethel Field. Kick-off time is 8 p.m.

Besides being an important game in the league race, the opener has special importance for the Bethel prep program. The Bethel Boosters, an organization dedicated to the service and improvement of Bethel junior and senior highs, will be sponsoring the game.

All proceeds will go to the Booster fund from Friday's tilt with the Vashon eleven .Admission prices will be 75 cents for adults, 50 cents for students without activity tickets, and 25 cents for grade schoolers. Persons wishing to join the booster group can purchase a ticket for two dollars which will gain them admission and a membership at a saving.

The Bethel eleven scored a major victory last Friday when they edged the Peninsula Seahawks 7-0 in their league opened. The Seahawks are defending champions and were one of the big ones on Coach Ed Niehl's schedule.

A third quarter touchdown proved to be the difference as Bethel recovered a Seahawk fumble on the enemy's 20. Fullback Gary Gregg rammed down the middle for the score from the seven and the Brave fullback counted the extra point.

The Pirates of Vashon meanwhile were defeating the Fife Trojans by the same score. The island club has now won two in a row after a 33-game losing streak. Much of the credit lies with new head mentor Bud Blevins who has woven a strong T formation attack.

Coach Niehl of Bethel once again praised the entire defensive line for an outstanding job against Peninsula. Gene Smallwood, Carl Scrive, Dale Nielsen and Del Hardy led in the "tackles" department.

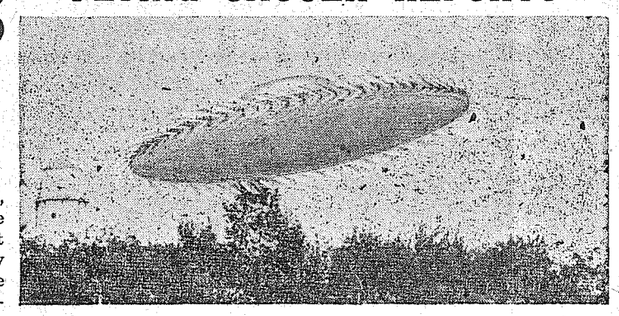
Gregg and Calvin Christoph were once again singled out in the backfield.

FP Frosh Win Over Hudtloff

Defending champions of the Puget Sound Junior League, the Franklin Pierce Cardinals successfully opened their 1957 season with a 13-0 win over the Hudtloff junior forces.

Joe Mancuso scored both touchdowns and Johnny Greco added one extra point.

"FLYING SAUCER REPORTS"



Presented weekly as a public service by the Bargain Basket

Los Angeles, Calif.—8/21/57—According to a report just received, radio announcer Ben Hunter, on station KFI, Los Angeles, received a telephone message concerning a UFO that crashed in New Mexico. The telephone message was from a Gordon Strugal, a recording engineer from Capitol Records, Hollywood. According to Mr. Strugal, the bodies of two little men were recovered from the wreck.

Beunos Aires, Argentina—8/18/56—The mystery of an unidentified craft spotted over the city of Beunos Aires is still unsolved. The craft came three hours after midnight and was seen by a number of people gathered in the streets. They described the UFO outlines as "very unusual." It had the external shape of "two luminous spheres—very huge and bright—connected to each other with a kind of glowing cone. This cone emitted, at intervals, flashes of greenish light, which lighted briefly the surrounding sky." The craft stopped for a few moments over the city, then darted through the sky at a fantastic speed and disappeared into the night in a split-second. No one heard any sound coming from it.

Norfolk, Virginia—10/20/55—A strange object, described as round and metallic looking was seen by two witnesses who spotted the object at a height of about 30,000 feet. It came to a complete standstill, then swooped, disappeared, came back and disappeared again. They watched the object for about two minutes and said that when it moved it flew at terrific speeds. When they had lost sight of it, it was going straight up at high speed, "just like a bullet." They said the object was "disc-shaped."

Homestead, Pennsylvania — 6/21/56 — A dozen district boy scouts and several bystanders reported flying discs over the Homestead area. Members of Scout Troop 5 and their scoutmaster, Edward R. Ferchak, said that during their meeting at the Homestead Park School Playground, the disc-shaped objects shot out of the clouds, maneuvered for about 40 seconds and then disappeared from view. Travelling at "terrific speed" the discs appeared in the southwest quarter of the sky, said the scouts, who used compasses to determine the position of the objects. The discs, which appeared about 8:35 p.m., were "very silvery and shiny" and maneuvered very rapidly during the two appearances. The boys said they maneuvered after coming out of the clouds, disappearing back into them, made one more appearance and then disappeared.

London—4/4/57—Radar stations throughout Britan were alerted to look for a mysterious flying object tracked by Air Ministry observers over southwest Scotland. Three radar operators reported independently that the object flashed across their screens traveling at 60,000 feet. The operators said the object suddenly dived to a height of 14,000 feet, made two whirls, then vanished to the south. "We are investigating the matter," an Air Ministry spokesman said. "We do not know what the object was. Intelligence experts are studying the reports and a detailed statement may be made soon." The object was sighted by two lonely radar posts in Scotland's hilly Wigtownshire. A Royal Air Force station near Luce Bay on the southwestern tip of Scotland also caught it on radar .It last was reported seen heading toward the Isle of Man. Royal Air Force officials said no planes were in the area at the time. The mystery object was described as too fast, too big and too maneuverable to have been a plane. (Ed. note: Later radio reports said the object was positively identified as an unidentified flying object).

Grants Pass, Oregon—6/29/56—Five men working at the Spalding Mill reported viewing two sets of what appeared to be high flying discs streaking across the sky in a northwesterly direction, according to Archie Carlin, one of the viewers. No evidence of vapor trail, such as made by jet aircraft, was observed, he said. There were five to six units in each of the two groups which passed about four minutes apart.

Pet Control Law Interests Many

Tre following is a report of the Sept. 17 hearing by the Pierce County Commissioners of a proposed measure for the control of dogs in unincorporated areas of the county, presented by Ray Engel of Elbe, who attended the hearing with other interested citizens and reflecting their ideas for solving the issue without licensing the dogs.

First Section — Harboring a Vicious or Dangerous Dog: The right to protect the family, property and self is the right that many have died for, and connot be taken away from any American. A dog that will do its duty is the only protection we in the country have, and will not stand to have this protection taken away. It was pointed out that we surely don't get any protection from the Sheriff's office.

Second — Section 8: Howling and Barking Dogs: It was brought out that at eating time and feeding it is normal for dogs to bark and should be exempt from being called a nuisance at those times and also that complaints should have been made by not three but five domiciled residents before any animal could be siezed and impounded.

Now for the part not brought out: Any dog kept on the owner's own property should not be charged with the cost of controlling dogs that are running the streets and highways. If you have a motor vehicle confined to your property, you don't have a license to pay on that vehicle. Therefore any license law for dogs for owners who keep their dogs on their own property is unfair since it is the dog that runs the streets that causes the trouble, and its owner should pay the cost of its control.

We have what is known as the "Herd Law" to control cattle and it has worked out well, and cattle are not licensed. We could work the Dog Control law the same way the Herd Law works. The Sheriff would be compelled to pick up any dog on the streets or highways at any time on his regular runs, or have a campaign once every three months or oftener of dogs found running at large. They would be compelled to impound said dogs, for not less than five days. The owner who could not find his dog would have that much time to find his dog by inquiring at the Sheriff's office. A charge of $5 a day with a $10 minimum would be the fine to get his dog out of the pound. In this way the dogs running at large would be chargeable for the cost. Very few would allow it to happen the second time, and the owner who did not care enough for his dog to bail it out should not have one; at the end of five days that dog should be destroyed. It would be only a short time that dogs would be running at large to cause any trouble.

Now, as for the Sheriff's office having time for this work. The time the Sheriff's cars are on their regular runs would be all that would be necessary, and no more time would be needed to enforce this ordinance.

All who believe that the "Herd Law" type law for dog control should be made a county law instead of a "license law", write a card stating "Give us a Herd Law dog control law" to your Pierce County Commissioners at the Court House, Tacoma, Washington. Don't wait—Do it now!

Platter Chatter

By Mickey Hamlin

Remember the Dell Vikings — surrre you do! It's only been a few weeks since their last hit, "Cool Shake," faded from the ladder of popularity.

If you will recall, the five boys originally achieved stardom with "Come Go With Me" on the Dot uabel. As the popularity of this first smash hit began to waiver, Dot ruched "Whispering Bells"—or "Bath House" if you prefer—onto the record counters. It also was a highly successful tune.

Just a few days after Dot released the fellow's second effort, Mercury label announced that they had signed the Del Vikings to an exclusive contract; Note: Mercury dropped on 'l' from Dell. A few days later, "Cool Shake" and "Jitterbug Mary" was speeded into production.

To this point the details of their career have been fairly simple. Hhere is where they become complicated!

Mercury has recently released a new album and a new single, "Come Along With Me" b/w "What'cha Gotta Lose." Dot, too, has a ne wsingle, "I'm Spinning" and "When I Come Home" by the boys. To confuse matters even more, Luniverse label, the one with the "Flying Saucer" series, has released "Hey, Senorita" also by the Vikings.

To understand how this all happened, we must go back to their pre-success era when they were under contract to a smaller label. Dot purchased the master copy of "Come Go With Me" and signed the boys to a contract with them, after purchasing their former contract. A lawsuit followed due to the fact that several of the group were under age and court permission was not granted from the change of contract. Evidently Dot retained the other boys under contract and secured the necessary remainder to comprise a group of five, because, according to advertisements, Kripp Johnson, who sang lead on "Bells", also leads the group on the new coupling. Mercury, on the other hand, in all probability, received court permission and signed the under age warblers and also added new faces to the group. It's safe to assume that Luniverse simply bought an old master from their pre-hitsville days with hopes of cashing in on the loot.

In the midst of all this confusion, none of the recording companys seem too concerned. With all this free publicity for the Vikings — Del and Dell — why should they?

Half-Notes: Nat "King" Cole's "Around The World" extended play, has recently passed the 180,000 mark in sales. . . . . Everyone seems to be recording "Silhouettes", but Steve Gibson could hape the big one. . . . . Elvis Presley is bound to sell a million copies of "Jailhouse Rock" and "Treat Me Nice" — if he hasn't already. . . . . "Billboard", one of the better trade magazines, reports Vic Damone's "An Affair To Remember" as an up-and-comer. It's been around for some time now, but it could still be a big one for Vic. . . . . "Rainbow" Hamilton could return to the pop polls with either "Weddinf Ring" or the flip side, "I Still Belong To You". Both are very good.

Thomas A. Neff, 17, is taking basic training at Lackland AFB, Texas. He is the son of Mrs. May E. White, Box 255, Roy.
