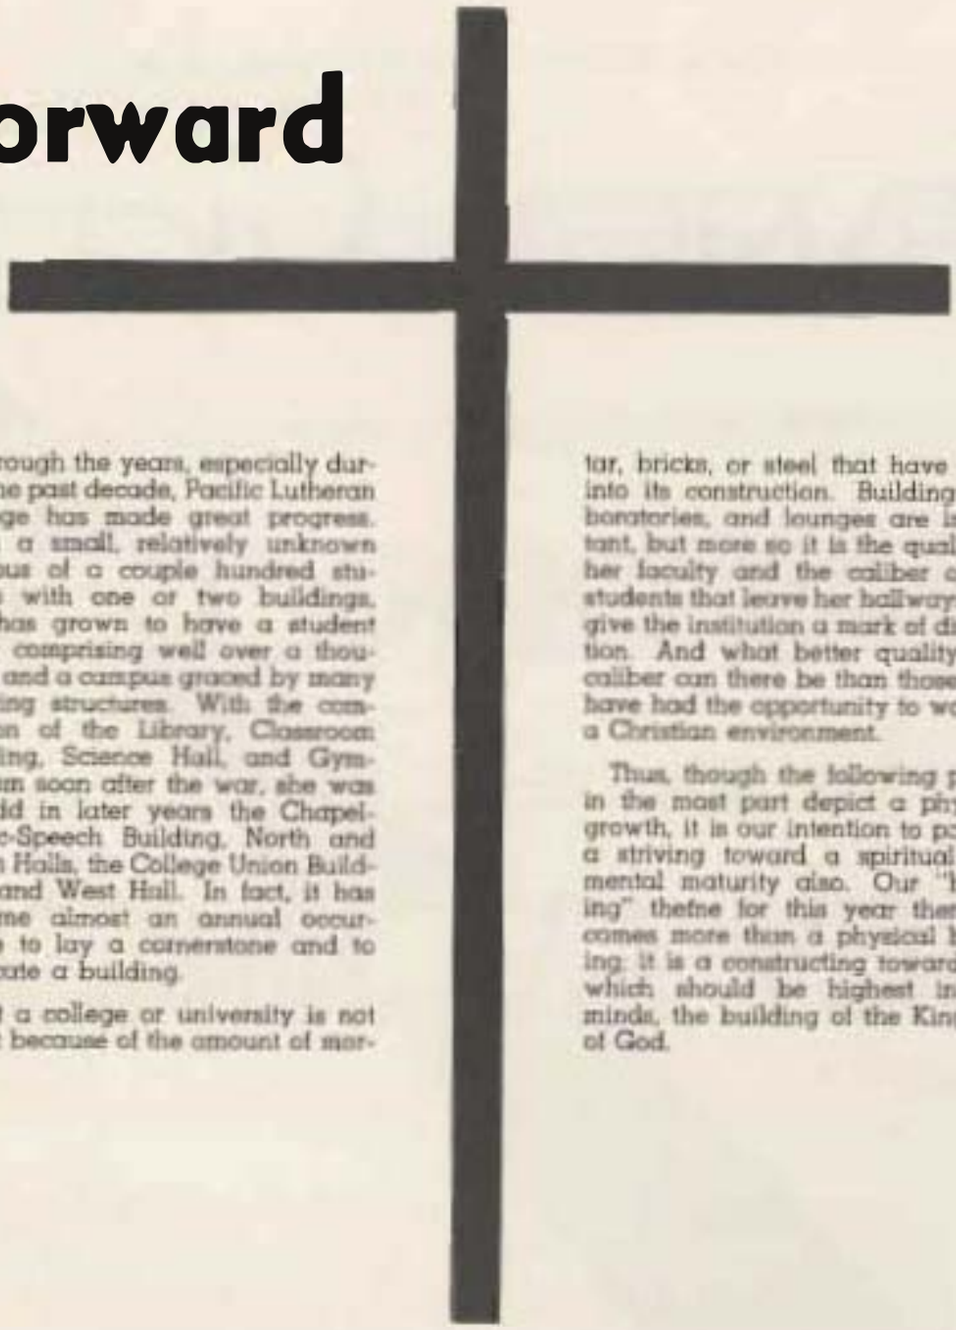
Forward



Through the years, especially during the past decade, Pacific Lutheran College has made great progress. From a small, relatively unknown campus of a couple hundred students with one or two buildings, she has grown to have a student body comprising well over a thousand and a campus graced by many edifying structures. With the completion of the Library, Classroom Building, Science Hall, and Gymnasium soon after the war, she was to add in later years the Chapel-Music-Speech Building, North and South Halls, the College Union Building, and West Hall. In fact, it has become almost an annual occurrence to lay a cornerstone and to dedicate a building.

But a college or university is not great because of the amount of mortar, bricks, or steel that have gone into its construction. Buildings, laboratories, and lounges are important, but more so it is the quality of her faculty and the caliber of the students that leave her hallways that give the institution a mark of distinction. And what better quality and caliber can there be than those who have had the opportunity to work in a Christian environment.

Thus, though the following pages in the most part depict a physical growth, it is our intention to portray a striving toward a spiritual and mental maturity also. Our "building" theme for this year then becomes more than a physical building; it is a constructing toward that which should be highest in our minds, the building of the Kingdom of God.

THE ASSOCIATED STUDENTS OF PACIFIC LUTHERAN COLLEGE
DEDICATE THE 1956 SAGA
TO DEAN PHILIP E. HAUGE, PH.D.

When Philip Enoch Hauge journeyed west to the small college in Parkland, Washington, in the fall of 1920, he came to accept the position of Dean of Men and as an instructor of English and Psychology. From that time until the present, a span of 36 years, 30 of which have been spent in the capacity of Dean of the College, Pacific Lutheran College has come to be his very life. She has been his work, his concern at every moment, the object of his continual devotion and dedication. It has been his aim that "she should grow in wisdom and in stature and in favor with God and with man."

Born the son of Rev. and Mrs. L. J. Hauge on September 19, 1898, in Canton, South Dakota, he received his high school diploma at Howard, South Dakota, and then went on to attain his A.B. degree from St. Olaf College in 1920. In later years he continued his studies attending the University of Chicago and the University of Minnesota and then the University of Washington from which he received his M.A. and Ph.D. degree in 1924 and 1942, respectively.

A typical counseling scene

Dr. Hauge and Dr. Eastvold relax from their busy schedule

One year after his arrival at PLC he became the College Registrar. Serving on the faculty at that time was Miss Margrethe Jessen who the following year was to become Mrs. Philip E. Hauge. In 1925 he became Dean of the College and worked with others in setting up the education department, and for many years acted as director of teacher placement. He continued as Dean without interruption until 1942 when he enlisted in the Air Force serving in the Mediterranean theatre and Okinawa until his discharge as a Lieutenant Colonel in 1946.

Now after having given more than three and a half decades of service to the college, he continues to show unsparing energy and sacrifice, untiring effort and faithfulness in his work. Commanding the respect of all who know him, his wisdom and sympathy as an administrator and counselor embody all that is best in his profession and his office. To you, Dean Hauge, for your contributions in the field of Christian Higher Education, both academically and spiritually, given to Pacific Lutheran, we respectfully dedicate this 1956 Saga.

WE BUILD

"We Build" is the slogan of one of America's greatest and most active service organizations. To build is to unite materials in order to fabricate, erect, and construct. To build is to create or produce gradually as a result of effort and system. To build may be an act, or it may be the establishing of an argument on facts. He who builds needs a foundation as a part of the building itself. This is especially true if the builder sets forth with the idea of permanence in his work.

The class of 1956 has been at Pacific Lutheran College during a time of much material building. We trust that this and every class is aware of the fact that all the assembling of the brick, timber, steel, stone, and plastics into permanent structures of beauty and usefulness has all been done as means to great academic and spiritual ends. We believe these buildings will stand for ages, but the lives that have been lived in them, if in Christ Jesus, will endure and be blessed forever.

He who builds Christ's Kingdom first has the clear and unmistakable promise, "Seek ye first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added unto you." Make money for Christ and He will make money for you. Supply His needs and He will supply yours. Keep His laws and He will keep you. Do His will and He will look after your welfare. If losses come He will see that they are ultimate gains. Link your destiny in time and eternity with Jesus Christ and bankruptcy will be impossible.

Prize the spiritual building above material assets. Ask God if He will supply you with both. Transmute the seen and temporal into the unseen and eternal. Lay up treasures in Heaven, so that death, which impoverishes the rich worldling, will be your enrichment. Ever seek Christ's "well done" here, and you will receive it hereafter.

Pacific Lutheran College builds for God and country, for time and eternity. May our slogan be, "We Build for Character."

Mr. Gerald Hedlund
Book Store Manager

The spacious and modern facilities of the new book store help to make it of greater service and value to the students than the former one. Containing approximately four times as much space, this store offers a larger stock of supplies than previously carried, in addition to a number of new commodities, such as typewriters, radios, and costume jewelry.

The new self-service policy allows students to browse through the textbooks and to become acquainted with a number of boks, aside from those which they need for specific courses. The trade book section, consisting of many paper-bound books of high literary value, is an especially popular one.

Miss Florence Quast
Dietician

P.L.C. is fortunate to have one of the more modern and well-equipped institutional kitchens in the Northwest. Most of the food is prepared by use of steam kettles, pressure cookers and ovens, with very little top-of-the-stove cooking. All of the equipment is of stainless steel. Thermometers keep hot foods at constant temperatures from the time they finish cooking until they are served over the counter to the students. Modern dish washing facilities add to the efficiency of the set-up. The new dining room seats six hundred students and a small dining room, used for special occasions, accommodates sixty people.

The Nursing Department at Pacific Lutheran College is affiliated with Emanuel Hospital in Portland, Oregon. The girls attend PLC three semesters and a summer session, then go to Emanuel for two years of clinical experience. During this time they spend three months psychiatric affiliation at Oregon State Hospital in Salem. The girls return to the college campus for the final semester of their senior year.

Upon completion of this period, they are eligible for their Bachelor of Science in Nursing degree and to take the State Board exams for their R.N.

Student Council

The most important unit of our student government is the student council. This body which acts as the legal administrative agent for the students meets regularly to direct the affairs of the Associated Students of Pacific Lutheran College. The student council is composed of the student body officers, a representative from each class, a representative from the ICC, the business manager of the Saga, and the editor of the Mooring Mast. The council is led by the student body president and Dean Hauge serves as faculty advisor.

Inter-Club Council

Monthly meetings are held by the Inter-Club Council since their business is that of maintaining a coordinated campus. Each club on campus elects a member to represent them in the ICC and together they schedule activities and discuss any problems or questions on campus procedure. Not only does the ICC set up the dates for activities, but also sees that the clubs are following their constitutions. Through the ICC, conflicts in dates are avoided and activities function smoothly.

Business Manager Paul Lucky.

Pacific Lutheran College, without a journalism department, weekly produces the student publication THE MOORING MAST. On Fridays students receive their four page newspapers after Chapel. Not only is all the college news to be found in the Mooring Mast but also intellectual features and humor. Walton Berton as this year's editor-in-chief worked with his staff to meet deadlines, supervise the selection of articles, and see that circulation of the papers throughout the country was maintained. Doug Mandt as Ad Manager had the responsibility of making sure the ads were being solicited and made up each week, with the help of Bette McDonald as Assistant Ad Manager. It was Paul Lucky's job, as business manager, to pay all the bills. Other students helping publish the paper were Dorothy Johnson [alias Maggie Glockenspeil] as Make-Up Editor, Fred Miller and Don Hall, Sports Editors; Agnes Hallanger and Mike Griffith, Feature Co-Editors; and Lois Gunderson, Circulation Manager, with her assistants, the copy staff and the reporters.

1956 Saga

Elwood Rieke, Editor.

[illegible] Manager.

Janet Wigen, Assistant Editor

The SAGA office is one spot on campus that always hums with activity, especially around the time when a deadline is staring the editors in the face. Day and night the staff works to insure that every layout has been drawn, pictures promptly identified, and copy well written. The editor haggles to get as much work out of the staff as possible and after many months of toil begins to see his dreams unfolding as the layouts are completed. Following many hours of critical proof reading by advisor and editors, the finished pages are sent to the publisher and the staff settles back with the rest of the student body anxiously awaiting the receipt of the year's memory keeper.

Making sure all this while that there is enough money in the treasury to pay for the production of the book is the task of the Business Manager. Supervising and soliciting of advertisements, staging the annual Saga Carnival in March, and paying the many bills also keeps this man on his toes at all times.

Mission Emphasis Week

Throughout the week of October 9 to 13, the Rev. Dr. Andrew Burgess lead the students with many speeches in the chapel program and during evening services in the C.M.S. Dr. Burgess counseled with the students privately and led evening devotions in the dormitories. The central theme during the week was "God Has A Plan."

Dr. Dean C. Hanson

Dr. Hanson with Janet Schimke and Allen Cudahy.

Dr. Hanson of Minneapolis was the speaker for Spiritual Emphasis Week which started February 12th and continued through the 16th. The central theme, "Wanted! Cross-inspired Students", was based on Galations 6:14. Dr. Hanson, the author of two books—Live to Win and March to Win—is known throughout the nation as one of the foremost Bible teachers, youth leaders, and preachers of the Lutheran Church.

William Ketelle

These four groups, the All School Prayer Services, Campus Devotions, Mission Crusaders, and the Sunday Evening Fellowship, serve the students as outlets for religious enthusiasm and Christian fellowship and education. Their activities are coordinated in conjunction with the Student Congregation, under the leadership of a student in the council.

L S A Retreat

The L.S.A. retreat was held in Ellensburg, Washington at the Lazy F Dude Ranch on the weekend of April 22nd. The theme of the retreat this year was "God Calls Christians Now." Bob Thorpe, leader of the Student Youth Movement in Guatemala, presented the Saturday evening message based on this theme. The climax of the retreat was the Sunday morning worship service, given by Pastor Ed Larson of Corvallis, Oregon. In the magnificent setting of Christian fellowship the L.S.A.ers spent two days of fun and spiritual blessings that will never be forgotten.

Student Congregation

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Merle Metcalf after his baptism by Pastor Lutnes.

In 1952, members of the executive committee of the PLC student Body Association went to President Eastvold with the request that a student congregation be organized on this campus. The action was deemed inadvisable and so was postponed. Because of the increased enrollment and need for better spiritual leadership of the students from day to day, a faculty committee in September of 1954 recommended to the Board of Trustees that a student congregation be established.

In October the Board voted to establish a congregation. In March, 1955, Reverend Robert W. Lutnes, member of the PLC class of 1943, accepted the call to serve the congregation by assuming his duties September 1, 1955. Non-Lutheran students may hold associated memberships in this non-synodical Lutheran congregation.

Spurs

"Service with a smile" is the motto of this group of Sophomore girls who assist in the work of orientation week, elections, and ushering. Some of their projects include the Lucia Bride Festival, a Saga booth, and selling Homecoming mums. The fundamental purpose of Spurs is to promote school spirit, support all student body activities, foster a spirit of helpfulness, and loyalty, and uphold the tradition of P.L.C.

Tassels

As the scholastic honorary for senior women, this group holds the ideals of serving as an incentive to the P.L.C. women students to seek higher scholastic achievements, along with leadership and cooperation. Total membership is limited to twenty-five percent of the senior women who will fill these requirements. They serve the school through sponsorship of a scholarship tea, aid in Freshman formal reception and faculty home visitation, and a special project.

Seated: J. Turman, M. Cann, C. Hustad, A. Schnell, V. Thomsen, L. Hurd. Standing: Adviser Jon Eriesen, T. Swindland, T. Nielsen, R. Lundgren, S. Gilbreath, K. Robinson, R. Heino, S. Freeman, and Advisers Stan Ellerson and Theodore Karl.

Pi Kap Officers. Seated: Linda Hurd, I.C.C. representative; Connie Hustad, corresponding secretary. Standing: Stu Gilbreath, president, Tom Swindland, vice-president. Missing: Beverly Sveningsen, secretary-treasurer.

Competition in forensics is the purpose of this organization. The group at P.L.C. is the Washington Epsilon Chapter of the national forensic honorary, Pi Kappa Delta. A list of Pi Kap's activities include the high school Student Congress, a state high school Debate Tournament, an all-school oratory contest, and an international debate with university students of another country.

Pi Kappa Delta

Alpha Psi Omega

Those possessing talents in dramatics, or experience as director, stage manager or stage or backstage crew are eligible for membership in P.L.C.'s Theta Pi Cast of the national dramatic fraternity. The busy schedule of Alpha Psi Omega included two one act plays for Homecoming, the high school one act play festival, the annual production of the Christmas Carol, and a three act play in March.

Professor Gunnar Malmin, Director

The Choir of the West is one of PLC's more noted musical organizations doing much to further the college's public relations. The choir, under the direction of Professor Gunnar Malmin, again this year took an extended two week tour through the Pacific coast states, Washington, Oregon, and California. This tour included appearances for many civic organizations and churches. Their program consisted solely of sacred music. Besides the annual tour, the choir did recordings and radio broadcasts, and for the first time, gave a concert at the state prison.

Under the direction of Gordon O. Gilbertson, the band performances included concerts at Western State Hospital, high school dedications, ceremonies, the Citizenship Day program and a six-day tour through Washington and Oregon. Both the Concert Band and the Pep Band participated at the football and basketball games where they added to the spirit of the occasion.

Orchestra

Under the baton of Mr. Gilbertson, the 35 piece orchestra gave several performances during the year, including participation in the Christmas Concert and their annual concert in May.

A newly formed group this year is the String Ensemble which played dinner music for the Circle K banquet and for the dinner commemorating Dr. Eastvold's birthday. They also performed for other groups in and around the vicinity.

Organ Guild

This organization furthers interest and appreciation of the organ and of organ music. Its members need not be able to play the organ rather having only a concern for its use and performance. Among the activities of this group were the attendance at organ recitals and concerts, and listening to and observing various demonstrations of organs.

Ambassador Quartet

These four students dedicated their summer to the furtherance of public relations for the college by means of song. They have a scheduled itinerary which they follow throughout the Western states, performing at various youth activities, camps and churches. They bring their message in sacred song and scripture reading, representing PLC's Christian atmosphere.

Madrigals

"Now is the Month of Maying," "The Silver Swan," and "Thus Saith My Clois" were songs among the repetoire of the PLC Madrigals. This group, lead by John Roay, sang at various churches in the Seattle-Tacoma area. It also performed in chapel and as a part of the "Prologue" entertainment before curtain time of Dicken's "Christmas Carol."

Drama

Alpha Psi Omega, National Drama Fraternity, was unusually active this year in the presentation of stage performances. They once again sponsored the high school one-act play contest besides producing two excellent dramas, "The Crucible" and "Arms and the Man." This marked the launching of a project by this organization. It was the Children's Theatre which presented "King Midas" for the benefit of all the children in the vicinity. The group also presented to the campus two nights of three one-act plays: "A Light from St. Agnes," "The Man Who Understood Women," "Submerged," "As The Tumbrils Pass," "The Boor," and "Special Guest."

The Curtain Call Club had two main functions this year. Homecoming was the event at which two one-act plays were presented: "The Rope" and "Mrs. O'Leary's Cow." Christmas time was again the setting for Dickens' "Christmas Carol."

In addition to the fine performances, the stage settings and lighting were extremely effective, brought about under the able direction of Eric Nordholm.

Curtain Call Club

The Curtain Call Club consists of members who are interested in working in and on various stage activities. This year their advisor was Mr. Eric Nordholm, who has had much experience in the theater. The year's activities included the presentation of Dicken's "Christmas Carol." An initial step in children's theater was taken in the spring with the production of "King Midas."

Forensics

In the forensics season just completed, Pacific Lutheran College debaters made off with a record thirty-eight first place and sweepstakes trophies. In the Seattle Pacific College tourney the team won seven of ten firsts, and finished second in the College of Puget Sound Tyro Tournament. At the Linfield tourney, which is the largest one in the country for the number of contestants, PLC took three of the five sweepstakes plus the grand sweepstakes. They won first place and sweepstakes at the Portland Town Meeting, and permanent possession of the St. Martin's Invitational tournament sweepstakes trophy.

The forensic squad is coached by Professor Karl assisted by Professor Ericson. Any student without previous experience is eligible for the Junior Squad. The Senior squad consists of Juniors and seniors with previous experience.

Pi Kappa Provincial

Pacific Lutheran debaters dominated the 13th Annual three day debate tournament held at Washington State College by the Northwest Province of Pi Kappa Delta, national forensics fraternity. With eleven colleges competing, PLC won first in four out of seven divisions, picked up a second and tied for two third places. At this meet Professor Karl was elected governor of the Northwest Province of Pi Kappa Delta.

High School

The Annual High School Debate Tournament was held again this year with representatives of 38 high schools in attendance and 350 participants. The tournament is sponsored jointly by the Speech Department and Pi Kappa Delta, for the purpose of stimplating an interest on the part of high school students in objective thinking on current affairs. The question debated was—"Resolved: that educational privileges granted to veterans of the Korean War be accorded to all qualified youth of the U.S.A." Virginia Thomsen was in charge of the tournament.

Constance Hustad and three high school winners.

Congress

Pi Kappa Delta of Pacific Lutheran College was again host to Seventh Annual High School Congress. This forensic activity is a pattern of Congress itself and gives young students the opportunity to experience their feelings on National issues. Constance Hustad was in charge of necessary arrangements.

West Point Team: Stuart Gilbreath and Thomas Swindland with Coach Karl

West Point

This year marked the second time in history a debate team from Pacific Lutheran College was chosen to represent the Northwest district at West Point Military Academy. Here the team competed with 32 other teams for top honors in the nation's most important debate tournament. The PLC team won four and lost four debates which gave them a very excellent and commendable record.

International Debate

This year's 1956 International debate was host to two Scandinavian gentlemen, Harald U. Serner from Sweden and Poul J. Svanholm from Denmark. The Institute of International Education sponsored the two Scandinavian representatives who are both law students. The keen competition was provided by Senior debaters, Stuart Gilbreath and Thomas Swindland. The question discussed was that of wage security for non-agricultural workers on the international level, the debate being carried out in Oxfordian style.

Opposing competition for the Lutherans this year was the Western Speech Association tournament at Pacific Lutheran College in which fifty schools in the eleven Western states competed, the host squad winning one of the four sweepstakes trophies. All nine of the PLC team members were in the finals of the tourney which was limited in the number of contestants. This is the first time this convention has been held on the local campus and the second time for the state of Washington in twenty years.

Stage and Radio

This year the stage crew again had a busy schedule. Aside from preparations for daily chapel exercises, they were also on hand for all performances on the CMS stage. The stage crew was in charge of all stage properties used in various plays and numerous presentations on stage. The lighting effects were capably handled by the light crew. New this year was the costume committee which was in charge of the costume room, repairing, replacing and replenishing.

The radio crews were also kept busy this year with a full agenda. Announcers, engineers, and producers comprise this group. The crew engineered all activities requiring a public address system, recordings in speech classes, and the radio programs, Campus Highlights, and the Student Congregation Service. The radio department again worked in conjunction with Radio KTAC which transmitted these programs.

Art Department

The old chapel building has gotten to be a common place of visitation by those talented with artistic ability and even by those who are just intrigued by the arts. The aim of this department is to offer instruction and guidance to those who desire to give expression to their creative abilities in the actual practice of art, to those who wish to study art for its cultural value, and for those who plan to use it in their professions. Creative design, clay modeling, poster design, oil painting and sculpturing, to mention a few, are various activities carried on in this department. It is also the location of several art displays throughout the school year.

CAMPUS RITES AND RULE. . .

EDITOR JANE WOLK

September

Freshman Orientation Week. We meet the Fresh at health examinations, the business office, in lectures and with the faculty.

September

We again meet our freshman with the faculty, and at Kangaroo Court where the sophomores give them the "proper" treatment. Pastor Lutnes also welcomes the freshman to the Campus.

September

The sophomores continue to make a mess of the freshmen. Faculty Reception and our annual AWS Big-Little Sister Tea.

October

P.L.C. and C.P.S. started the football season with a joint pep rally. Students gathered to watch the corner-stone laying of the new College Union Building and observed the improvements being made on the campus. Dr. A. S. Burgess was our speaker during Mission Emphasis Week.

October

Ellen Henry and Terry Brown served as Homecoming chairmen. The selection of Homecoming Queen and Handsome Harry preceded Friday's activities, the Coronation of Queen Anne and the Pep Rally.

October

Homecoming activities get under way. Although students worked late Friday night on the floats, they were enthusiastic Saturday morning at the Powder Puff game, crowning of Handsome Harry, and the Frosh - Sophomore Tug-o-war. Leading the Parade the Royal Trio and Song Leaders

October

Of the numerous floats in the Homecoming Parade, the "Inch Worm" by Linne Society was awarded most humorous. "The Little Engine that Could", made by the Sophomore class, was the most appropriate, and the Freak's "Jack in the Box" was the most beautiful.

October

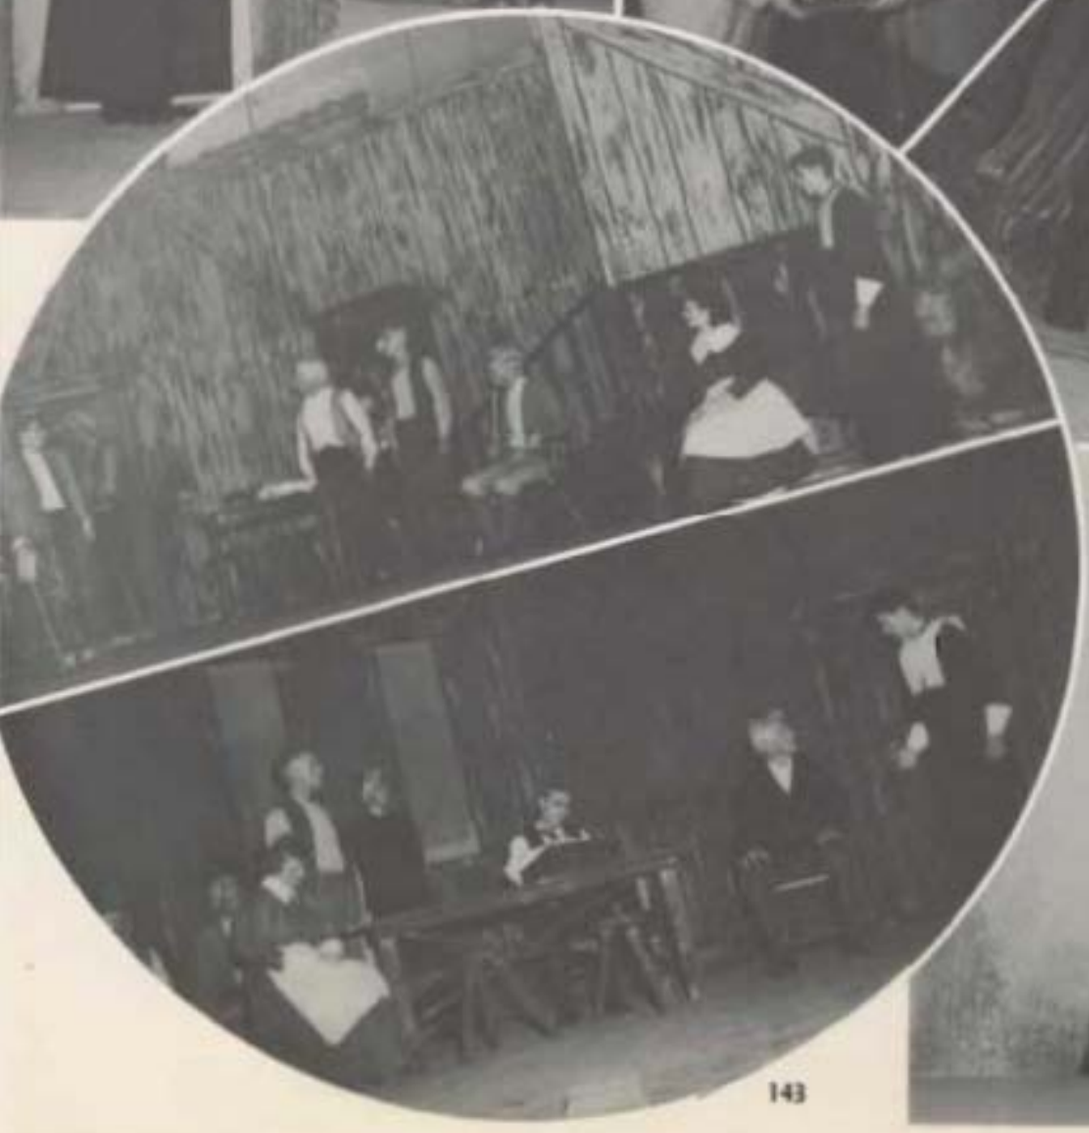
Queen Anne knighted our football captain, Gary Gale. Royalty, the Cheer Leaders, and Drill Team all were part of the Homecoming game. The weekend events concluded with the presentation of the plays

October

Our first Artist Series featured Blanche Thebom. A.P.O. members gathered for their pledge party. October ended with students at the A.W.S. Tolo and The Hallowe'en Party.

November

The first all school play of the year, "The Crucible", was presented. After our victory over our rivals, C.P.S., the Totem Pole was returned.



November

Pacific Lutheran College now has a Circle K Club. Visitors to our campus were a representative of the lady deacons and the director of the Tacoma Civic Orchestra.

November

The P.L.C. Debators made a fine showing while the rest of the students enjoyed Thanksgiving vacation. The nurses of this area held their annual convention on our campus. As for the Adelphian boys . . . . well?

Curt Hovland and Gary Gale
1956 Captain and 1955 Captain

Serving the football team as their captain-elect for the 1955 season was Gary Gale. Gary is an education major and has lettered in varsity ball for four years. He played center on offense and left line-backer on defense.

After this season, Gary turned over his position as captain to Curt Hovland. Curt plays tackle on the squad and his number 47 can constantly be seen emerging from the bottom of the pile. Curt is a pre-engineering student.

Two fellows that brought fame to PLC in 1955 through their football powers were Tom Gilmer and Jerry Kluth.

Tom, a sophomore quarterback, was named to the Little All-Northwest and All-Conference teams. He also received honorable mention on the Little All-American team.

Jerry, playing guard position, was the winner of the Hugo Swanson Inspirational Award here at PLC. Also, he was named a Little All-American, and got a berth on the All-Evergreen Conference and All-Northwest teams.

Defeat, to the score of 14-12, faced the Gladiators as they met the College of Puget Sound on the Logger field in their first game of the 1955 season.

The Loggers were the first to break through for a touchdown by recovering a PLC fumble, as the scoreboard showed 7-0 in favor of CPS. Thanks to Tom Gilmer's passing, the Lutes did not stand still during the second quarter, but they could not move far enough to score.

Gilmer took the opening kickoff of the second half and returned it to the PLC 37-yard line. John Fromm, Galen Nusbaum, and Jack Newhart combined their talents to carry the ball to the CPS 9-yard line and Gilmer scored on a run. The conversion attempt failed.

Early in the fourth quarter, CPS drove to the Lutheran 2-yard line when they scored again to give them a 14-6 lead. With three minutes left to play, the Gladiators scored their final TD on a 10-yard run by Fromm. Gilmer's attempted dropkick was blocked.

The Loggers received the kickoff and controlled the ball until the end of the game.

Meeting the University of British Columbia Thunderbirds in the first conference game of the season for both teams, the Lutes downed the Thunderbirds by a score of 19-0.

Early in the first quarter, PLC marked up their first six points. UBC received the opening kickoff until a pitchout was fumbled on their own 25-yard line. The ball squirted into the Thunderbird's end zone where John Fromm fell on it for the touchdown. Jack Newhart's attempted conversion missed, and the score stood 6-0, PLC.

Again on the UBC 25-yard line, and still in the first quarter, Galen Nusbaum blocked a Thunderbird punt, scooped up the ball, and raced over the goal line for six more points. The extra point was missed on a drop kick by Tom Gilmer.

Mid-way in the first quarter, Roy Elliott caught a touchdown pass from Gilmer, but the play was nullified by an offside penalty. On the next down, with the ball resting on the 15, Gilmer again hit Elliott for a TD and this time the six points counted. Gilmer's dropkick was good, and the final score showed PLC over UBC, 19-0.

Elliott's TD accounted for the last scoring of the evening and further attempts by PLC and UBC proved of no consequence.

By a score of 13-0, the Pacific University Badgers defeated PLC on their rain-drenched field in Forest Grove. Neither team made much progress during the first half, although PLC was able to generate two serious scoring threats, both of which failed.

With a 67-yard run, Pacific U. struck for their first touchdown on the first play of the second half. For their second TD, the Badgers drove to the Lutes' 1-yard line and then plunged over. Their attempted conversion failed, and the final score read in favor of the Badgers, 13-0.

The first Lute surge began in the first half with an intercepted pass by Roy Elliott on the Badgers' 46. The Gladiators, led by John Fromm, pushed the ball to the Pacific 6-yard line but were halted on a fumble by Fromm.

In the second quarter, PLC once again threatened. With Fromm and Jack Newhart carrying the ball, they penetrated to the Pacific 7-yard line where the Badgers held them for four downs.

From then on, the Lutes were held fairly steady by the Badgers who went on to win the game.

Tom Gilmer
Quarterback

Playing before an enthusiastic homecoming crowd, the PLC Gladiators defeated the Central Washington Wildcats by a score of 20-13.

Led by the fine passing of quarterback Tom Gilmer and the strong running of halfback John Fromm and fullback Jack Newhart, PLC was in command all the way. Gilmer completed 14 of 21 passes good for 152 yards, and Fromm gained 88 yards in 17 carries to average more than five yards per try.

After the opening kickoff to Central, the Lutes held and forced the Wildcats to punt. Then the Gladiators began their 56-yard drive by Gilmer's completing three passes which set them on Central's 12. From there, Galen Nusbaum cracked over for the touchdown, and with the help of Gilmer's conversion the score read 7-0. Early in the second quarter, the Wildcats tied up the game 7-7 after recovering a Lutheran fumble on their own 43-yard line, and a pass to the quarterback in the end zone for the extra point.

A few minutes later, on the Central 29, Gilmer passed to Ron Storaasli for six points. After Gilmer dropkicked the extra point, the score stood 14-7 at half time.

PLC's winning touchdown was scored in the third quarter. Taking the kick to open the second half of play, the Lutes, led by Newhart, moved the ball to the Wildcat 5-yard line where Newhart carried it over. Gilmer missed the extra point. Moments later Central scored on a Lute fumble and at the final gun, the score read 20-13.

PLC had two more chances to score, but time ran out. The guns sounded and stopped their surges at the end of the second and fourth quarters.

A left-footed dropkick by Tom Gilmer was the deciding factor as PLC defeated the Eastern Washington Savages, 21-20. Though PLC held a 21-0 lead before the Savages scored their first TD, they almost lost the game as Eastern struck twice for scores in the last two minutes of play. John Fromm scored the Lutes' first TD of the day early in the first quarter on a 15-yard run. Gilmer booted the extra point.

In the second quarter, PLC countered for their second six points on an 8-yard pass from Gilmer to Ron Storaasli, once again Gilmer converting. The Lutes raised the score to 21-0 early in the third period. Galen Nusbaum intercepted a Savage pass and ran it back to the Eastern 21. The Gladiators then moved the ball to the 9, where the team of Gilmer and Storaasli again made a TD. Gilmer dropkicked the extra point. Late in the same quarter, the Savages recovered a PLC fumble and moved the ball for a touchdown plus a good conversion.

With two minutes to play in the fourth quarter, the Eastern eleven suddenly came to life with two touchdowns. The deciding factor of the game proved to be an unsuccessful conversion attempt by the Savages.

Though the Western Washington Vikings scored the first TD in their game with PLC, the Gladiators gained the victory over them by a score of 14-7. Early in the first quarter, the Vikings went all the way, and by adding an extra point, led the Lutes 7-0.

PLC's first TD came in the second quarter when Roy Elliott returned Western's punt to the 20. With the help of John Fromm and a pass by Tom Gilmer, the ball was on the 5. Al Twidt carried it to the 2, and then bucked over for the score on the next play. Gilmer dropkicked the conversion to tie the score.

Until the fourth quarter, nothing of importance was done by either team. Then Ron Storaasli returned a Viking punt to Western's 33. On the first play, Gilmer threw to halfback Galen Nusbaum who scampered down the sidelines for the game winning touchdown. Gilmer again dropkicked the extra point and the score stood 14-7. Time ran out for the Westerners and the score stood in favor of the Lutes.

The Lutes first loss in conference play faced them at the end of the Whitworth College game. The Pirates won the battle 19-9 in an evening of bitter play. Though the Pirates were held to 44 yards by passing, they turned two Lute aerials into touchdowns in the third quarter to ice the game. Whitworth picked off a pair of Tom Gilmer's tosses and went 45 and 60 yards to two TDs. PLC actually outplayed the Whits, by making 13 first downs compared to the Pirates 10, 158 yards rushing to 151 for the Whits, and outclassed them 86-44 through the air. But the Pirates outscored the Gladiators.

The Pirates scored their first touchdown with two minutes gone in the second quarter. After a march of 75 yards, Whitworth made it over but failed on the conversion try.

Unfortunately, a mixup on a handoff from Gilmer to Al Twidt stopped a Lute drive on the Pirate 2 and the play fell through. In the third quarter, Gilmer passed to Storaasli, who raced into the end zone, only to have the play nullified by an offside penalty.

On the very next play, Gilmer's first pass was intercepted and Whitworth was able to make the score 12-0. After the kickoff, the Lutes picked up one first down and marched to the Whitworth 40 before another Gilmer pass backfired. It was intercepted and the Pirates went 60 yards to up the score 19-0.

In the fourth quarter, the Lutes caught fire when captain Gary Gale was carried from the field after a clipping penalty had been called on the Pirates. With the ball on the Pirate 3, a Whitworth man was tackled in the end zone to give the Lutes their initial two points. After receiving the kickoff, the Lutes moved 51 yards in 10 plays with John Fromm bucking over from the 1-foot line. Gilmer left-footed the extra point via the dropkick route.

On a snow-covered Logger field, the PLC Gladiators scored a 19-0 victory over CPS in their final football tangle of the 1955 season. The win also gave PLC second place in the Evergreen Conference, plus control of the Young Men's Business Club's Totem Pole.

Tom Gilmer, on the first play from scrimmage, caught the Loggers off guard, and passed a 43-yard pass to Ron Storaasli which carried from PLC's 35 to the CPS 22. Seven plays later, the Gilmer-Storaasli combination clicked on a 10-yard effort for the first six points. Gilmer's dropkick was wide.

The rest of the first half was a seesaw between the two teams, the Loggers never moving past their own 40, and the Lutherans never advancing beyond the CPS 38.

The only serious threat by the Loggers was during the third period when they moved to the Lutes 18. Their pass was taken by Galen Nusbaum who raced 44 yards to the CPS 41 to get the Lutes out of danger. That was the only time CPS advanced beyond its 40.

Six more points were made by the Lutes in the last few minutes of the third quarter. Gilmer returned a CPS punt from the Logger's 38 to the 25. Then Gilmer tossed to Nusbaum for 25 yards and the Lutes had the ball on the Logger 15. Jack Newhart went for nine yards and the score, as Gilmer successfully converted.

With just 1:45 remaining in the game, Gilmer again surprised the Logger defense and tossed to Storaasli who ran for 30 yards and the final score of the ball game. Gilmer's try for the extra point was blocked.

Though the Loggers outrushed the Lutherans 137 yards to 118, PLC's passing made the difference in the game.

We got it this year!

1955-56

Keep that ball, Curtis!

Whose will it be?

In order to represent District One at the NAIA tournament, our Evergreen Conference Champions traveled to Seattle to overpower the Seattle Pacific College Falcons, 81-63. The Glads then moved closer to Kansas City as they defeated Gonzaga in the regional finals. They dumped the Bulldogs with scores of 76-61 and 80-72. By winning these two tilts, our Glads climaxed their most successful season in recent years by winning the berth in the NAIA Tournament.

In the first Gonzaga game, freshman center Chuck Curtis set a new school record as he grabbed 23 rebounds and 32 tallies to lead the Champs. The second game saw a more defensive game with Jack Sinderson the mainstay.

Missouri bound, Coach Harshman and his ten man basketball squad boarded the Milwaukee streamliner for the tournament in Kansas City. They crushed South Dakota State 79-64 in the first contest led by jump-shooting Roger Iverson. The Lutes burst forth in the second half of the encounter with the Jack Rabbits, although they started slowly with Chuck Curtis supplying the first seven points. South Dakota whittled away at the lead and went ahead 34-31 at the half. With the lead changing hands for the opening minutes of the second half, the Lutes began to find the range with Iverson and Sinderson swishing one handers from outside the keyhole. Toward the final gun, Iverson and Van Beek iced the game with a pair of field goals and the final tally read 79-64. Iverson was high with 22 points, 18 coming in the second half.

Wednesday afternoon, the PLC Glads were eliminated from the NAIA National Tournament as the top seeded Western Illinois Leathernecks controlled both backboards to edge the Lutherans. The loss gave PLC a 25-6 record for the year which placed the "Evergreen Champs" among the top 16 small colleges in the nation. In the first half, Western maintained a slight edge over PLC with the Lutes pulling within 2 points, 42-40 at the half. The Leathernecks went on to win with a score of 72-67. In the tournament, Chuck Curtis was high with 32 tallies, Iverson 30, Captain Phil Nordquist 24, Sinderson 21, Hoover 17, Van Beek 16, and Ross 6.

All Conference

Roger Iverson

Phil Nordquist

Representing PLC on the 1955-56 Evergreen All-Conference Basketball Team are Phil Nordquist, Roger Iverson, and Chuck Curtis, first string. These fellows were picked by sports writers in the Conference for their fine work in helping to bring PLC the Conference Championship.

Chuck Curtis

Dennis Ross

Jack Sinderson

Chosen for the second string Evergreen All-Conference basketball team of 1955-56 was Jack Sinderson, and Denny Ross received honorable mention All-Conference. They, too, were chosen by sports writers for their ability, sportsmanship, and all around good work displayed during the season.

Below are the trophies won by the two basketball teams for their successful seasons this year. On the left holding the award given to the Varsity Squad for their bringing the Conference Championship to PLC is Captain Phil Nordquist. On the right is Denny Rodin, junior varsity captain, getting ready to place the trophy presented to our J.V. team for their winning the City Championship into the showcase.

They both brought home the loot!

PLC's defending co-championship Evergreen Conference basketball squad started their bid for the league title by whipping the CPS Loggers 61-53. Taking the tipoff, the Lutes started rolling, but it wasn't enough to keep ahead of the hustling Loggers, who had the edge 29-26 at intermission. The fired up PLC quintet came out the second half and it took only three minutes for Jack Sinderson and Phil Nordquist to put them on top again, 30-29. The score stood 50-50 at 3:35, but the Glads finished on top by the eight point margin. Scoring laurels went to guard Iverson with 18, Captain Nordquist with 14, and Nick Kelderman with 13.

After dunking Linfield and Whitman during Christmas vacation, the Lutes again returned to edge the Loggers 69-56. This game once again was a battle as the lead moved back and forth several times. High honors went to Roger Iverson with 16 counters.

The Lutes made it a dual win in conference play by beating Western Washington 67-52 and 74-54. The first game saw Iverson and Curtis dump 12 each and Nordquist 10. The second contest was a much tighter game as PLC led at the half 30-29. Again it was Curtis and Iverson doing the scoring, with 17 and 15 respectively.

The Glads won their fifth straight clash as they defeated the University of British Columbia Thunderbirds 58-51. The Lutes led 26-22 at half time, but shortly after intermission, the Birds rallied to go in front, 40-39. The lead was short lived as PLC then surged forward to stay in front. Nordquist and Curtis led the scoring with 16 each, followed by Hoover with 10 and Iverson and Sinderson counting 8 each.

The Wildcats from Central Washington College of Education proved too much for the Lutes as they handed the Glads their first conference loss 69-55. A few minutes before the half the score stood 31 all but Central hit seven straight points and led 38-31 at the intermission. In the first 15 minutes of the second half the Wildcats completely outscored the Lutes, 25-7, and that was the ball game. Roger Iverson was high for the Lutherans with 16, Chuck Curtis bucketed 15. This loss brought the Lutes' nine-game winning streak to an abrupt end. In the second game with the Wildcats, Central ran to a quick 15-10 lead but at halftime the Lutes had gone ahead 37-27. The third quarter was a complete reversal of the first contest as the Glads raced to an 84-61 victory. Freshman Chuck Curtis set a new school record in grabbing 21 rebounds. He also got high point honors with 21 counters followed by Iverson, Nordquist, and Hoover with 14 and Sinderson with 11.

When the Eastern Washington College of Education Savages came over to play against the high-riding Lutherans, they had the tables reversed on them and the Lutes gained the scalps. Wasting little time in getting control of the situation, the Gladiators led 42-26 at halftime and went on to win 73-55. Iverson paced the night's scoring with 16, Nordquist had 15, and Curtis 12. The second victory over the Savages, 83-68, set the stage for the important struggle with the Whitworth Pirates. EWCE got off to a fast start but the Lutes began to fathom Eastern's zone defense. Iverson was high with 24, Curtis had 14, Van Beek and Nortquist each 10.

Whitworth's Pirates really took a shellacking as the Lutes completely outplayed them on the local maples, 96-63. All of the starting five Lutes hit double figures with Captain Nordquist being high with 29 counters, Iverson 18, Curtis 16, Sinderson 12, and Hoover 10.

All the way with Iverson

The PLC Glads came up with a sharp performance to shoot down the UBC Thunderbirds in a double series, 83-55 and 83-63. After the first eleven minutes, the Lutes led 17-2 and from there on, it was just a "play the part" ballgame. Four Lutes scored in double figures with Chuck Curtis netting 26, Iverson 18, Nordquist 13, and Denny Ross 11. The second game showed a better brand of ball as the Lutes sharpened their aim and led all the way.

Overwhelming the Western Vikings 95-41, the Lutherans gained victory number 12,as a sparkling offense and defense dominated the tilt from the opening tipoff. Every member of Coach Marv Harshman's squad hit the scoring column. Jack Sinderson and Phil Nordquist dropped in 12 each, followed by Curtis with 11 and Kelderman with 10. PLC led at intermission 44-12, as Western threatened at no time.

PLC's greatest competition with Central was suppressed in a last minute rally as the Lutes edged the Wildcats 72-68 on the Ellensburg maples. With 10 seconds to go, the Wildcats came within 2 points, but a Central foul on PLC's forward Jim Van Beek enabled the Glads to score two points via free throws and clinch the game. PLC center, Curtis, led the Lutes with 20 points, followed by Iverson with 18. The Lutes sported a 13-1 record in conference play at the end of the game.

The remaining games in the conference were all played away from home as the Lutes travelled to Spokane where the Whitworth Pirates sank the Lutes twice with scores 77-61 and 94-85. Poor marksmanship in all departments was the Lutes big trouble. The first game saw Chuck Curtis netting 17, Nordquist with 11 and Iverson with 10. The second game brought more hustle and fire only to lose in a foul-filled fracas. After 11 minutes of play, PLC led 21-20, but the lead swapped several times. With two minutes to go, the score was 85-85, but the Pirates hit with nine, holding the Lutes scoreless. Iverson was high with 17, Denny Ross 14, and Jack Sinderson and Chuck Curtis 13 each, and Jack Hoover 11.

Defeating the EWCE Savages, 91-83 in an overtime thriller, the Glads clinched their undisputed claim for the 1956 Evergreen Conference crown. Tied 75 all at the end of the fourth quarter, the Lutes surged ahead to capture the elusive victory. Center Chuck Curtis led the Glads with 22 points followed by Nordquist with 20.

Humbling the CPS Loggers 88-78, the mightly Lutherans unveiled their heavy artillery as freshman center Chuck Curtis rammed home 36 points for the season's best single game effort by a Lute cager. The victory boosted PLC's record to a 15-3 league play, dropping CPS into the cellar. The lead changed hands several times before PLC surged to a 12 point lead. The full-court press by CPS failed to close the gap as Curtis scored 36 points, Iverson 21, and Nordquist 17.

Mark Salzman, Coach

Junior Varsity

This year the Junior Varsity, under the coaching of Mark Salzman, got off to a fast start and never slackened the pace as they turned in a 19 won, 2 loss record for the season. In so doing they also won the city league championship with an impressive 11-1 standing. The only teams to beat them were the Tacoma Cheney Studs and the Seattle Westside Fords. The loss to the Studs, a semi-professional outfit, ended a 15 game winning streak over the top AAU teams in this area.

In the first game of the season against McChord, the Junior Lutes defeated the airmen by a score of 87-74, and from this point ran away to a 16-0 record until the Cheney Studs dumped them 54-48. All of the games were not pushovers as they played many tough opponents, including Jim Bricker's All-Stars, a contingent made up of ex-PLC varsity and junior varsity stars. The largest winning margin for the season was a 57-20 triumph over Eatonville.

The 1956 Pacific Lutheran College baseball team seemed to lack the necessary hitting and pitching, concluding the season with a six won, 11 lost record. Beginning the spring in non-conference action against Central Washington, they dropped four straight to the powerful Wildcats, before coming back in conference play to win their first encounter upsetting Western Washington, 10-4. Later in the season they once again dropped the Vikings, 5-2, but that was the extent of their wins in the Evergreen Conference as they finished in last place in the Western Division with a 2-6 record. The College of Puget Sound, evidently attempting to compensate for their humiliation suffered on the football field and basketball maples this year, dropped the Lutes in all four meetings between the two clubs.

The College of Puget Sound and Western Washington tied for the Western Division crown and in a play-off game the Loggers won the right to represent the West against the Eastern half winner, Central Washington. CPS was no match for the power-laden Wildcats though, as Central trounced the Loggers twice for the Evergreen Conference championship. This year's Lute club will return with only Rich Heins and Gale Thompson being lost by graduation. Coach Marv Harshman looks forward to next year with a flock of returning lettermen and much promise for a successful season.

FROMM WINS NATIONAL JAVELIN CHAMPIONSHIP

When John Fromm started throwing the javelin early last spring, few people would have thought that before the end of the season the stocky sophomore would have breezed to the NAIA championship, taken sixth place in the NCAA finals, and won the right to compete for a place on the United States Olympic Team. John clinched the right to go to the national finals by first tossing the javelin 210' 9" in the Evergreen Conference meet and then with a throw of 201' 1½" taking the regional NAIA meet at Renton.

Moving on to San Diego, California for the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics finals, Fromm wasted little time, setting a new national record with a heave of 228' 6". His throw shattered the old mark of 214' 3" set in 1952. Then against the large college competition a week later in Berkeley, his toss of 215 feet won him sixth place in the NCAA javelin finale and placed him among the top contenders for an Olympic Team berth. John's accomplishments marked two firsts for Pacific Lutheran. He is the first athlete from PLC to compete in track in the national NAIA, let alone the first to bring home top honors, and also the first one ever to compete in NCAA events of any type for PLC.

During the regular season the PLC track team under the leadership of Coach Mark Salzman had a record of one win and four losses. Opening against Seattle Pacific College the Lutes lost to the talented Falcon squad by a 90⅓-40⅔ count. PLC proved to be especially strong in the field events as they did throughout the season, four of their five first places coming in this division. In the meet which followed, the Lutes picked up their single victory of the season, overwhelming the Olympic Junior College cindermen, 79-47. Dale Storaasli was top point getter for the PLC thinclads compiling 15 counters.

In the first conference meet of the season the Gladiators fell before Western Washington, 97-28, and then in a triangular meet which followed between Western, Vancouver Olympic Club, and PLC, the Lutes matched Vancouver Olympic in a tie for second with 42 points. Western, once again leading the field, amassed a total of 73 points. It was at this meet that Fromm first broke the school record with a toss of 201' 1½". Next came a dual meet with Central Washington, the final tally reading 76½-59½ in favor of the Wildcats.

At the Evergreen Conference meet, PLC picked up a fifth place with 25¾ points as Eastern Washington swept to the title, Western, Whitworth, Central, PLC, and UBC finishing in that order. Five men qualified for the regional NAIA meet in Renton a week later and along with Fromm's first place throw, Carl Searcy got a third in the shotput, Dale Schimke second in the broad jump, Tom Gilmer tie for second in the high jump, and Don Zarndt third in the 880.

With only one man, junior Bill Johnson, from last year's first five, the 1956 edition of the Lute tennis team was forced to rebuild.

Johnson assumed the duties of number one man on the ladder and student-coach. The remainder of the first five was made up of Dale Schimke, junior, number two; Jim Van Beek, freshman, number three; Jim Gunderson, freshman, number four; and Spencer Aust, junior, number five. Dave Lindsay also played a few matches at the number five spot. Van Beek and Johnson combined to form the first doubles team and Schimke and Gunderson the second doubles unit.

The Lute racket squad played two matches with CPS, Western Washington, Central Washington, Olympic Junior College, and one match with British Columbia. They failed to win any of the encounters, but lost five of the nine matches by 4-3 scores.

The entire first five will return next year.

Dave Berntsen was the only returning letterman this year, who with Jim Hill and Tom Swindland formed the rest of the five man squad. Arden Munsen also played in number six spot when his baseball duties would allow.

Swindland is the only man lost by graduation, as the linksmen look forward to a good season next year.

There it goes!

This year's intramural program, under the direction of Mark Salzman, showed a great deal of interest being taken by the student body; as 311 men participated 4,169 times during the 1955-56 school year. Ivy Hall set the pace, taking touch football, basketball, and the annual track meet. They amassed a total of 1306.6 points during the season, followed by Tacoma's 1154. Clover Creek Hall was third with 851.5 points.

District champions of the various sports were as follows: Ivy Hall and Eastern—tied for football; Ivy Hall and Tacoma—tied for basketball A; Faculty and Clover Creek Village—tied for basketball B; Ivy Hall—free throw contest; Ivy Hall—track meet; North Hall (2) and Tacoma—softball; North Hall and Faculty—Volleyball.

Duane Moe was the high individual scorer this year, with 846.6 points. Duane won the free throw contest, dunking 86 out of 100. Chang Hi Kim, Dave Hiatt, and Rich Hamlin won the singles and doubles respectively in table tennis. Bill Johnson took badminton, Walt Lieninger won the horseshoes, and Rich Hamlin took the tennis singles. Dick Brown and Gerry Redburg triumphed in tennis doubles.

As the Final Brick Is Laid . .

. . . in the construction of the yearbook, it is my pleasure to pause and thank the scores of people who have had a part in its making. Far from being an individual effort, it is the work of some seventy-five people who have put in hour after hour that it might fall together according to the editorial staff's wishes. Without the whole-hearted cooperation of the student body the book you are now holding would never have been a reality.

To two people, first of all, goes my special thanks. Mac and Donna of McKewen Studio worked long and hard supplying us with the pictures that are the bulk of this yearbook. If they were to receive time-and-a-half for all the overtime unhesitantly put in, they'd be rich people at this moment. To our publishers, Berncliff Printers of Portland, Oregon, and especially to its president, Mr. B. A. Bridges, we wish to express our sincere thank you. The relations we have had with you have been the best and the arrangement you gave us on this year's SAGA was far superior to our expectations. And then certainly, a word of appreciation to our advisor, Mr. Milton Nesvig. Profiting from his many years of experience, he always was able to spot the many errors that passed our inexperienced eyes and thus helped us prepare a much finer edition.

It is an almost impossible job to attempt to express my gratitude to everyone for making this publication possible. To Larry Heim, business manager, goes a large amount of the credit, for in keeping the books in fine order he never gave me a worry about staying within our budget. One of the most willing and helpful people on the staff was my associate editor, Janet Wigen, who always was there at a second's notice when I needed her. Thanks, Jan, for all your wonderful advice and for helping out on the organizations section as you did. Then to Beverly Sveningsen, copy editor, goes a great vote of thanks for the many long hours editing and writing copy in order that all the write-ups would be just so. My thanks also: to Joyce Puffert, administration editor, for tackling this trying section and doing such an excellent job on it; to classes editor, Mildred VanBuren, the only four year veteran on the staff, who mounted hundreds of pictures to complete her very difficult task. Your patience and fine cooperative spirit were much appreciated; to Joanne [Poencet] Berton and her two excellent helpers, Diane Glazier and Fred Brewitt, on the organizations and living groups secion, goes a special pat on the back for the way you handled these pages in such splendid fashion; to Jane Wolk for the cleverly arranged activities section. You did a swell job covering the innumerable activities for which our campus is noted; to Teddi Gulhaugen for her superb organization of the entire sports section and her dependability at all times; to Sylvia Kirkebo for the well designed royalty section; to Marlene Stuhlmiller for compiling the index, gathering the snapshots, and also helping on the copy staff; and then to Esther Ellickson—fine arts editor, Dale Schimke—religion editor, and Gary Schulerberg—student government and publications editor goes my unfeigned appreciation for all you have done to help make it a book we hope everyone will enjoy.

Not to be forgotten are our student photographers, Dick Nieman and LaVerne Stough, who always came through in the pinch when we needed one more picture. The art work you see throughout the book is the result of the combined labors of Carold Bertrand, Roberta Birkedahl, Susan Hatch, Constance Hustad, Richard Londaren, Richard Rhea, Jerald Slattum, and James Stewart. My thanks especially to Jerry for the cover and Bobbie and Sue for the colored division pages. Spending long hours chatting with the merchants and businessmen of the community was the work of Richard Schwindt who collected the advertisements. This book has reached you through the mail because of Norma Knutzen's task, compiling the address list and labels. And to those people who receive little recognition for their efforts, those doing the typing and taking care of the many little details, may I express my apreciation: Lois Beckemeier, Dana Blount, Marilyn Boe, Margaret Byington, Allen Cudahy, Janet Fryhling, Carol House, Lorraine Johnson, Sharon Kinzer, Joan Kittleson, Barbara MacDonald, Nancy Magnussen, Robert Marvonek, Anna Ohrstrom, Carol Urlie, Lester Wigen, and Lorin Zellmer. To those of you that I have omitted, I hope that your knowledge that you have helped make this book a success will serve as a sufficient reward.

May I thank the student body for having given me the opportunity to have served in the capacity as editor this year. It has been a source of great enjoyment for me and I trust that yours will be one of enjoyment also as you pore over its pages.

Congratulations to the Graduating Class of 1956

. . . If we can be of help to you in your financial planning, why not drop in and talk to us? No officer of this bank is ever too busy to counsel ambitious young people.

This little "undergraduate," of the class of '76, is one of these fortunate youngsters whose parents are planning ahead for his education through systematic saving.

Parkland is not incorporated. By farsighted management the Parkland Light and Water Company has made Parkland the most progressive suburb of Tacoma.

Besides the usual functions of such company, we serve the community with street lights and with fire hydrants free of charge. We have served Pacific Lutheran College and its students and faculty for 40 years.

The Parkland Light and Water Company congratulates Pacific Lutheran College on its progress and pledges its continuous efficient cooperation.
