Famous Baseball Comedian To Show Llewellyn Agency With League-Leading Tacoma Tigers Invades Puyallup

The Llewellyn Advertising Agency, with branches in Tacoma, and Everett, Washington, will open a new office this week in Puyallup to serve this rapidly growing and progressive business market.

Advertising agencies offer a real service to aggressive business firms. Agencies plan the promotions and sales campaigns that build business and render valuable assistance to organizations and firms seeking to increase sales and develop new markets for products and services.

The Puyallup branch of the Llewellyn Advertising Agency will be located in the Mid-County Journal office building.

The decision of the Agency to open a branch locally resulted from a desire on the part of the Mid-County Journal to render a wider local service to Puyallup business and manufacturing firms. In an agreement with the Journal, the Agency will offer its services to local business firms without charge.

Puyallup advertisers, under the Llewellyn-Journal agreement, can secure the advice and assistance of experts in the preparation of single ads or complete sales campaigns.

FOR SPRAYING Something New Added Call McGEE A new activity in the form of GR 7859

Max Patkin, outstanding baseball clown in the United States, will appear at Tiger Park, Tacoma, between games of a double-header starting at 7:00 p. m., May 30th.

Patkin is the funniest commedian in the game today. He takes a turn coaching in the first and third base boxes, he takes a turn at batting, chases the umpire, climbs the screen, losses his pants, grovels in the dirt, mimics, turns himself into a contortionist, and performs funny laughable antics that only a double jointed clown prince of American baseball can do. His scatter-brain antics gives loads of laughs to the fans. This Indian rubber man of baseball and his silly repertoire will be the talk of the town for many a day. His double jointed display of how to pitch, catch and bat really keeps the fans in an uproar.

For the young school crowd, there are numerous bright colored swings and teeter totters. For the next age group a huge swing to go swooping out over the water.

This resort high in the hills and deep in the woods where the air smells so different, gives a man and his family a new nope for tomorrow. Even though it was raining a little when we were there, the trees sheltered the playground and play pen. There is a good sized sheltered kitchen with a huge stove, hot and cold water and tables.

By Mrs. Verne Fogle GRanite 5210

Waller road community will turn out June 1st for the Annual Picnic held at the school. Starting time is 10 a.m., when the games of the day will be played. To the people who are new in the neighborhood, this is a good time to get acquainted. It is a "pot luck" affair. Everyone is asked to bring a hot dish or salad for the main course and some item for dessert. Coffee, sugar and cream will be furnished. Pop and ice cream will also be furnished for the children. Don't disappoint your youngsters, be there!

The barber shop at 64th and Waller Road is now under new management. The new barber is Alfred M. Milsten. Drop around and get acquainted with Al.

Mrs. Ethel Evans of East 64th street has returned to her home after visiting with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Barney Johnson of Salem, Ore. for a week.

The square dance at the Waller Road Hall was enjoyed by all who attended. There will be another in the near future.

The Grange Auxiliary will meet June 7th at the home of Mrs. John Sierman.
