County Police Beat

Check Arrest Leads To Narcotics Cache

By EM MATSON

A 25 year old Spanaway man, who was sought by Tacoma Police on a bad check warrant, found his troubles compounded last week as sharp-eyed Sheriff's deputies caught him with a cache of narcotics.

The man was caught while smashing out a window at Fletcher's Texaco, 99th and Pacific.

Armed with a .38 caliber pistol, the bartender walked to within 10 feet of the suspect before being noticed, deputies reported. The suspect was engaged in breaking the window when interrupted. He was escorted to the tavern by his captor and police were telephoned.

As the bartender was locking the tavern for the night, he said he saw a prowler starting to knock a window out of the station with a shovel. Drawing his pistol, he approached the man to see what he was doing.

Having spent most of the evening drinking with friends, the suspect said he stopped at the service station looking for restroom facilities. But after looking around the idea occurred to him to "break in and get some money."

LAKE TAPPS - A swimmer leaving the Lake Tapps area suddenly remembered he had left his keys hanging on the back of a parked station wagon. He returned in time to see a man throw his pants to the ground and leave. A check of the pockets revealed his wallet containing $50-$60 in cash and credit cards missing, police said.

EATONVILLE - Burglars made off with antique rifles, knives, and old brass compasses removed from the residence of Viola Piersol, Rt. 1, Box 21, Eatonville, Deputy H.N. Holstad reported last week.

Reported missing were a 50 caliber Maynard Civil War carbine, (1) W.N. Chester 1776 lever action rifle, one .22 rifle, one .22 caliber single shot pistol with a cracked barrel, one Quackenbush .22 rifle cut down into a pistol, one Japanese sword, three long-bladed knives, one German frau knife, and two brass army compasses.

The thieves apparently entered the house through an unlocked front door.

Hearing Set On Eatonville-Elbe Highway

A proposed state highway extension of Route 161 south from Eatonville to Route 7 near Elbe will be given a public hearing at the Puyallup Elks Club at 3 p.m. tomorrow (Thursday, August 18).

Rep. W.L. McCormick,

chairman of the Subcommittee on Extensions of the Joint Committee on Highways made the announcement and invited the public to attend the hearing.

The Subcommittee on Extensions was established to study and recommend to the full committee on extensions of the system.

A road must carry substantial inter-region or interstate traffic to qualify as a part of the state highway system.

The Eatonville - Elbe link was one of eight specified for study by the 1965 Legislature.

Other requests from local authorities also are studied by the subcommittee.

Other subcommittee members are Representatives Duane Berentson and Paul H. Conner and Senators John A. Petrich, Dewey C. Donohoe and Sam C. Guess.

July Dairy Prices Best In 13 Yrs.

Dairymen serving the Puget Sound market will receive the highest prices paid in over 13 years for their July deliveries of Grade A milk.

According to Nicholas L. Keyock, Market Administrator, the marketwide blend price of $4.79 is up $1.01 from last year and the highest level reached since early 1953.

For their July deliveries, dairymen will be paid a minimum of $4.87 and $4.05 per cwt., respectively, for base and excess milk testing 3.5% butterfat. The base price is 4 3/4% above the June level and 9 1/2% above a year ago. The excess price, highest ever recorded, is 55% above last month and $1.06 over a year ago. Recent order amendments and improved markets, as well as higher Government support levels, are responsible for the improved prices.

An estimated 2,315 producers delivered 109 million pounds of milk to the market during July. Daily receipts averaged 4.6% below those in June and 1.8% below a year

by John VanDevanter
 Public school forces, who have an impressive string of victories at the polls over the past 15 years, find themselves in a rather awkward position as the autumn of 1966 approaches. Eager for voter support on three key issues of financial import to them, they can't help but pray for the defeat of Initiative 226, which would provide financial support for cities. If the cities are given 10% off the top of the State Sales Tax, the effect would more than offset the school gains under SJR 1 and 2. Without taking "sides" in this dilemma, it still is easy to see where it arises. The schools have for years used all their wiles to get voters to tax themselves in increasing amounts for increasing educational needs. They have painted vivid pictures of the shambles which would follow on the heels of any false economy. But NOW, the cities, whose tax resources also are being rapidly outstripped by their needs, are coming on with virtually the same cry. And their needs are just as real to them and to the voters. So the schools are put in the position of having to either keep quiet or "badmouth" the cities. And, if they choose the latter course, they are apt to get "bad mouthed" right back. Smaller taxing units frequently run into this type of problem in their special operating and capital fund levies or bond issues. But at the local level the principles of back scratching are more easily employed. A fire district may wait a year for a new truck or work with the school district to get BOTH the truck and a gymnasium. But the state school forces and the municipal leaders enjoy no such opportunity. They are after the same game and the result will be that (1) one or both will lose (2) co-operation will become more difficult and (3) the resulting friction should speed general tax reform. But tax reform is eyed by many educators as a mixed blessing. True, they would be tickled to death to get out of annual appeals to school district voters for special operating funds and building issues. But tax reform carries with it a lot more than just new methods in the levying and collection of taxes. If the state government is to be charged with collection and distribution, you can be sure that there is going to be a measure more control of HOW the funds are spent. Both the schools and the cities would lose some of their autonomy in general tax reform, and this is one of the main factors which has kept this year's conflict fairly well under wraps. The cities are going along hoping that Initiative 226 won't get open opposition and the school forces are trying to turn out voters sympathetic to their situation who won't need to have a brick wall hit them. There probably won't be an open "storm" this autumn, but there's a wind beginning to sigh through the sycamores.

Baskets of white gladioli and dahlias graced the altar of the Trinity Lutheran Church in Parkland for the August 13th wedding of Lois Caren Pedersen and Richard James Felber, Jr.

The Reverend Eling C. Thompson solemnized the wedding for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Pedersen of Tacoma and the son of Mrs. Merle Felber, Yakima and Richard J. Felber of Colfax.

White bows and camelia leaves outlined the bridal aisle. The bride, escorted by her father, was lovely in a gown of peau de soie and re-embroidered lace. Elegant kabuki sleeves of lace, accented with flat shoulder bows, highlighted the empire bodice. A bias fold of peau de soie defined the high rise waistline from which the easy sheath skirt swept to floor length. A tiny flat bow at the back waistline added back interest to the softly full cathedral train. Her flowers were stephanotis and ively, which trailed on a white Bible, a gift from her paternal grandmother. For special sentiment, she carried a white linen handkerchief, which was also carried by her mother at her wedding. A white peau de soie bow and organza petals held a veil of bridal silk illusion to her hair.

Miss Carol Bosenus was maid of honor. She wore a floor length gown of moss green crepe and carried a single white begonia. Bridesmaids were Miss Julie Camp, Miss Dayna Lindstrom and Miss Barbara Hall. Their gowns and flowers were similar to that of the honor attendant. Judi Tommervik and Cindy Brown, gowned in floor length moss green dresses with puff sleeves, were flower girls. Ringbearer was Bruce Brown. Gordon Taylor and Lynn Taylor, cousins of the bride, were candlelighters.

Larry Klock was best man and Jerel Pedersen, brother of the bride, Jim Johnson and Harv Schumacher ushered the guests to their seats. Brian Irwin, soloist, accompanied by Mrs. Erling Thompson, provided traditional wedding music.

For her daughter's wedding the mother of the bride was gowned in a three piece suit of turquoise shantung, accented by jeweled buttons and matching accessories. The bridegroom's mother chose a suit of celery yellow with matching accessories. Their flowers were orchid corsages.

Following the ceremony, the newlyweds greeted their guests at a reception in the Church Fellowship Room. Assisting were Mmes. Lee Covel, Terry Brink, Donald Culver, Richard Snavely, Ray Culver, Ralph Culver, James Laws, Frank Beemon, and the Misses Jeani Tommervik, Susan Beemon, Sandi Culver, Loretta Laws and Joani Whitessel.

For going away, the bride changed to a knit suit of moss green, to which she pinned a corsage of green orchids.

After September 1, the new home will be established in Austin, Texas, where the groom will complete law studies at the University of Texas.

Helen Anne Hosum Weds Dennis L. Flath

PARKLAND - Rev. Erling C. Thompson of Trinity Lutheran Church solemnized the recent candlelight double ring marriage rites of Helen Anne Hosum, a graduate of Pacific Lutheran University, and Dennis L. Flath.

The altar was graced with arrangements of gold baskets holding yellow and white gladioli with greenery and gold candleabra set with white tapers. Yellow satin bows with sprays of white roses decorated the pews along the white carpeted bridal aisle.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her mother's cousin John Habbestad of Vashon. She was attired in a white gown of imported silk organza over white silk taffeta. The fitted bodice had elbow length sleeves and a portrait neckline outlined with lace floral appliques re-embroidered with seed pearls. The same lace appliques were repeated in panels on the full graceful bouffant skirt. A bow at the waistline ended in a chapel length train.

Her veil of imported illusion was held to her hair by a pearl crown borrowed from Mrs. Ronald (Ruth) Olson of Seattle. She had a sixpence in her slipper and had borrowed a blue garter.

She carried an arrangement of yellow rosebuds and white carnations with satin streamers forming the shape of a cross on the white Bible, a gift from her mother.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Jerry Doherty. She was gowned in an aqua colored silk empire floor length gown fashioned with a bodice of white floral Swiss imported material with short sleeves. Bridesmaids were Sharon Hobbestad, cousin of the bride, and Susan Hosum, sister of the bride. They wore similar gowns but in lighter shades.

Completing their attire were matched ribbon roses and veiling for the headpiece. Each wore a pearl drop necklace and carried a single stemmed yellow rose.

Jerry Doherty of Olympia was best man. Marvin Hosum and Leland Flath, brothers of the bride and bridegroom respectively, ushered the guests.

Preceding the exchange of vows Mrs. Erling Thompson provided nuptial music on the organ accompanied by soloist Mrs. Richard Larson.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Mildred Hosum and T.G. Hosum. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Hosum wore a turquoise satin matalasse gown with white accessories.

The bridegroom, the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. Flath, will attend Pacific Lutheran University this fall majoring in science. Mrs. Flath donned a blue sheath gown of satin and brocade with white accessories.

Some 300 guests greeted the couple at a reception in the church parlors. The colation table was centered with a three tiered wedding cake. Assisting with festive duties were Mesdames John Hobbestad, Alice Tyson, Robert Ross, Richard Myking, George Emly, Ernest Kiesow, Robert Olsen, Sr. John Nichols, Robert Olsen, Jr. and Ronald Olson and the Misses Sadie Solomon and Linda Pittz.

Special guests were former pupils of the bride. For traveling to San Francisco, California, the bride donned a pastel green linen suit with bell ruffle sleeves complimented by white accessories, white coat and a corsage of carnations. The couple will be at home after mid-August at 315 South 125th.

Sandra Elaine Draper Weds Gary A. Hansen

Sandra Elaine Draper became the bride of Gary Arthur Hansen in evening rituals performed recently at Our Savior Lutheran Church.

Pastor Daryl C. Wildermuth officiated for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Draper and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest M. Hansen before an altar banked with baskets of blue and white summer flowers. Blue ribbon streamers and bows marked the aisles.

Ushered to the altar by her father, the bride wore an empire styled gown featuring a white lace bodice and long sleeves. A lace train drifted down the back of the dress from small ribbons at the shoulders. A shoulder length veil of bridal illusion was caught to a dainty seed crown. She carried a bouquet of white rose buds accented with ivy. Maid of honor was the bride's sister Pat Draper who wore a baby blue brocade empire designed dress highlighted with royal blue velvet ribbons. Bridesmaids were the bride's cousin Becky Coffman and Linda Fain. They wore dresses similar to that of the maid of honor's.

Best man was Larry Dohson. The groom's cousin Dennis Bailey and DuWayne Weber ushered the guests.

Mrs. Draper chose a pink brocade dress with matching lace jacket for her daughter's wedding. The groom's mother was also gowned in pink. They both wore white carnation corsages.

The bride's grandmother and great grandmother and the groom's grandmother assisted at the reception which followed in the church parlors.

For a wedding trip to California the bride changed to a navy blue three piece suit.

The bride was graduated from Franklin Pierce High School and her husband from Lincoln. He is attending Tacoma Community College.

Getting the Deal

BY JOHN VANDEVANTER

You think I'm upset because Monday was my 40th birthday? So YOU fell for that, too, eh? Well, in about 30 seconds, Lightnin' is going to say "Yawwwsa Mistuh King-fish", and I'm going to wake up in Grandma's big chair and realize I've missed the first 10 minutes of Amos 'n' Andy. So, what's to be mad about? It was past my bedtime anyway...

Well, I DID think the birthday cake was in bad taste, even in a dream. I mean, for a KID... a few candles... but a cake that looks like a square foot out of a crown fire? That's even worse than the cupcake with a firecracker candle they brought out for a friend of mine. When we saw the fuse sputter, we flattened out like 88c lawn chairs, but too late. Those who managed to CHANGE position had to sit on cupcake all through the kissing games and pink punch. Anyway, he didn't have any trouble blowing out THAT candle. Now, would you get out of my dream so I can get back to Amos 'n' Andy? Andy has got a big wrestling match set up with Bullneck Mooseface on account of Madame Queen, and...

OF COURSE you don't think this is a dream. It had ME going too, until I noticed that my kids were all older than I was. The cake looked real enough. Of course I didn't dare get close on account of the blaze they had going. That cake looked so much like a shishkebob that I expected a turbaned waiter to turn out the lights and bang on a gong. Speaking of gongs, Bullneck Mooseface has threatened to turn Andy into a pretzel when...

I don't care if you HAVE heard this story before, don't spoil it for ME. When Andy says, "Buzz me, Miss Blue", I want it to be a complete surprise.

Sure, you're a doctor. And I'm Joe Cortassel. Now if I WERE 40 years old, I probably WOULDN'T have a grandmother and... you know, you're the worst dream I've had since the one where I was in front of the class reciting Paul Revere's Ride and my pants kept disappearing. You're not going to take off my pants, are you?

What's for a delusion? You big, smart Doctor... how can I be a year older than Jack Benny when I'm only two years older than Shirley Temple?

WHO is Shirley TEMPLE?
"On the Good Ship, Lollipop..."

Football Fires Fanned For September

Three Coaches Express Views For '66 Season

Grid Season Approaching

I know it seems that Summer just got here . . . and that the weather has finally warmed up enough to go swimming . . . but with all the "Back to School" advertising in the papers, and the pros already in their pre-season games, it just has to mean King Football is coming through the front door.

Watching Green Bay and Chicago have at it last Friday night reminded me of some chores to be done, namely contacting about seven high school football coaches and finding out what gives with their upcoming grid machines.

Franklin Pierce's Eldon Killo will no doubt be hurt through graduation, but I bet he's got a few untied horses ready to step into the line-up. Killo just missed a PSL crown last year when Kent pulled the big game out of the fire with a TD in the closing moments of play.

Down in the confines of Viking Field, head mentor Gerry Redmond will be starting his second year with a fair crop of returning lettermen. After holding his own last season, Redmond will be gung-ho to put together a winning combination.

Summer's John Anderson will also be starting his second year at the head reins and will be out to recapture Seamount honors. Anderson should have a few battle tested veterans ready to suit up and go.

Also on our agenda of phone calls will be Eatonville, Orting, Fife and Bethel. We'll get all the facts and figures, listen to the coaches moan and groan about lack of personnel and how tough everybody else is going to be, then get into our fantastic weekly predictions. Don't laugh . . . if you recall, we had a pretty fair percentage going last year . . . something like 55 out of 60. Would you believe 35 out of 60? It's still not bad for a batting average if we weren't playing baseball, right?

Okay then, it's off to gather the hot dope on the grid machines, so as Loretta Young used to say, "See you next week?"

Super Modifieds

Kuper Captures 2nd Spanaway AA Main

SPANAWAY - Jack Kuper picked up where he left off last week by knocking over his 2nd straight double A main before a shirt sleeved crowd of over 1700 spectators.

Kuper, taking advantage of Bob Rollins absence, added to his season total lead over Ed Looney, who was one of 14 casualties unable to finish the 40 lap feature.

Bruce Stanley returned to his winning ways after trailing Paul Welsh to the finish line last week. Stanley had his white 18 car up and bombing as he led both Dennis Scott and Welsh to take starter Lucky O'Neil's checkered offering.

Next week Spanaway Speedways will offer another sports double header for racing fans, with the 100cc motorcycles taking over Saturday evening at 7:30 and the ARI sanctioned super modifieds returning to their slam-bang action on Sunday. Time trials are slated for 1:30 with racing at 3 p.m.

Complete results of last week's card was as follows: B Trophy Dash; Bill Hunter, Harold LeGault and Gene Hays (1:16:42); A Trophy Dash; Dennis Scott, Bruce Stanley and Paul Welsh (1:14:43); AA-B Trophy Dash; Lenny Russell, Bob Densmore and Bob Bull (1:16:08); AA Trophy Dash; Ed Looney, Bob Short and Don Hall (1:11:57) 1st Heat; Pearlley Rogish, 2nd Heat; Bernie Bond, 3rd Heat; Bruce Stanley, 4th Heat; Jim Rossen, 5th Heat; Jim Bonds, 6th Heat; Ed Looney, A Main (40 laps) Bruce Stanley, Dennis Scott and Paul Welsh, AA Main (40 laps) Jack Kuper, Don Hall and Lenny Russell.

With football season just around the corner, all of the high school coaches are busy burning the midnight oil, pouring over team rosters and schedules and getting ready for the opening game.

Although not all were available for interview, here are some random thoughts from three of the head coaches.

Eatonville Only twelve returning lettermen dim the Eatonville Cruisers' prospects of completing this football season with a ledger as impressive as the one they had piled up at the close of the 1965 gridiron wars.

Winning seven while losing only two, Coach Larry Hosley's warriors were in the thick of the Central league pennant race last season. "I was very well satisfied with our play last season. We played only one poor game all year," he confides.

"The outlook for this year isn't too good, as we are losing most of our starting linemen. Our backfield will be our strong point, but our line will be very inexperienced," he continues. "St. Martin's will be tough, as will Charles Wright. Charles Wright lost only a couple of players through graduation," Coach Hosley concluded.

Fife Fife's football fortunes are looking up according to Trojan mentor Rick Daniels, whose squad compiled a one win, seven loss, one tie slate in the 1965 Seamount League race.

"Of course I was not completely satisfied with our season record, but we do have a lot of kids coming back this year," commented Coach Daniels. "We lost only one back through graduation, and our interior line looks solid, as do our ends. The only problem spot as it looks now is the tackle positions," he adds.

With approximately fifteen returning lettermen, Coach Daniels relates that "Our backfield will be sound and experienced, and our defense will be tough." He feels that North Thurston of the AA division, and Mt. Si of the class A set may field strong contenders.

Puyallup With one year of experience behind him at Puyallup, Coach Jerry Redmond of the Vikings looks forward to the coming season with avowed optimism.

A three win, five loss, one tie record in 1965 marked Coach Redmond's debut on the Puyallup football scene. Of his initial season, he recalls that "I wasn't satisfied because I would have liked to have had a better won-lost record. However, I wasn't too disappointed because I felt that since I brought in a new system, it took the players a little while to become familiar with it. Of our first four games, we lost three, and in three of those games we played pretty fair ball. After this our team jelled, and by the end of the season we were playing Puget Sound League caliber ball."

Anticipating the upcoming campaign, Coach Redmond comments, "I am more optimistic this season, for one reason, simply because I know the players better. I expect that the strongest point in our favor to begin with will be our backfield, mainly because we had many young backs last year. I think our line will

Junior Soccer Leagues Forming The Junior Soccer Association is now making plans for the 1966-67 Soccer Program and are in need of coaches and assistant coaches.

The leagues are divided into the following age groups: 8-10 years, 10 - 12 years, 12 - 14 years, and 18 years and under. A soccer clinic will be held to help those interested but new to the sport. Any interested person can call Doug Howard SK 2-5312 for further information.

JIMMY WALTERS, number one Canadian middleweight contender with a fine 18-1-1 record, will meet Mike Seyler of Oregon (10-1-1) in the feature 10 round main event at the Tacoma Sports Arena include L.J. Wheeler, ex Seattle U. cager vs. Portland's Richie Peters. L.J., at 6'8" and weighing 255, will have a 50 pound advantage over his opponent.

National Division Champs

Church League Champs

come along, but as of now it is relatively inexperienced. Our defense should be solid with a good backfield, and line." As for competition in the always rugged P.S.L., Coach Redmond foresees that "Franklin Pierce will be tough, and for that matter most of the teams will be."

Pierce County Final Standings

Teams from the southern Pierce County area claimed three league championships and one division crown in the Pierce County Park Department's summer athletic competition.

Spanaway Lutheran, managed by Al Brocckel, compiled a won-lost record of 9-1 in winning the County Church Slow Pitch championship. Former Pacific Lutheran University basketball star Larry Poulsen provided the long-ball hitting for the Lutes.

The Lillywhites, a group of Franklin Pierce High School graduates who won the County's Senior High Slow Pitch title in 1965, moved up to the adult level this year and won the National Division title with a 10-0 record. The team then bowed to the Gig Harbor Merchants, American Division champions, in the league playoff. Dave Roller coached the squad.

In the girls softball program, the Diamond Dolls took the County Junior Girls League championship and the Swingers from Dawson swept to the Filly League title. Coach Lester Scalp's Diamond Dolls had a record of 8 wins and 1 loss in the Junior League.

Mrs. Donna Baskett led the Swingers to an 8-0 record in the Filly League.

New and old customers speak out for Oil Heat

Some like it hot

"We used to have natural gas heat. We couldn't feel the warmth. In fact, if we were sitting on the other end of the couch away from the heater we were freezing. On top of that, natural gas was too expensive. Now, we've converted to oil heat and cut our bills from around $20 to $12 a month and we're warm." - Mr. and Mrs. John Etchison, Bellingham, Washington.

Some like it even

"When we built this house three years ago we installed electric heat. After two years we converted to oil heat. Now the heat is even. The house isn't cold on one side and hot on the other. The cost of oil heat has been so much less we have been able to pay for the new installation out of the savings." - Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Day, Renton, Washington.

Some like it low cost

"We used to live in a house that had electric heat. The cost was very, very high even though the house we lived in then was small. Now we have oil heat in this home. In comparison with the heating bills of our neighbors on this street, I'm quite pleased with the low cost of our heat." - Mr. and Mrs. Dave Pim, Tacoma, Washington.

Some like it clean

"We've had oil heat in this home for thirteen years. With white acoustical tile on the ceilings it's a challenge for clean heat. After all this time there are no black marks on the ceilings...none on the walls...not even a mark near the heat registers. You can't ask for cleaner heat than that." - Mrs. Alexander Hamilton Howard, Jr., Ellensburg, Washington.

Some like it modern

"We've lived in this house for three years. It used to be heated with an old-fashioned stove oil heater. The heating just wasn't adequate. Our oil heat dealer suggested we modernize with a new wall furnace. Now all of our house has warm, even heat and our fuel bills dropped 50% in the first year." - Mr. and Mrs. John Jensen, Seattle, Washington.
