

Group Asks Reduced Speed Limit on Airport Road

James Sales P-TA Will Petition State Highway Division

James Sales P-TA and Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Kerstetter, parents of Donald Kerstetter, the 10-year-old boy who was killed in an auto accident last September, will soon circulate a petition asking the State Highway Department to lower the speed limit from 50 to 35 m.p.h. on 112th St. (Airport Rd.), according to Peter Sterbick, attorney for the Kerstetters.

The parents of the boy will also bring suit against the driver of the death-car, James R. Ohlfs, of Marinette, Wisc., and are using their own particular experience as an example for lowering the speed limit.

James Sales School, which is located only a block from the scene of the tragic accident, has grades one through four and many of these small children must cross Airport Rd., Sterbick said.

The Kerstetter death occurred on a sunny day, about 12:30 in the afternoon. The preamble for the petition which will be circulated contains the details of the accident, including a statement from Ohlfs, given at the time, claiming he sighted the boy while still some 850 to 900 feet away, but thought the boy would continue across the road, and kept going.

The petition lists seven reasons for reducing the speed limit, including:

"Area adjacent is predominantly a residential one, with numbers of school age children about;

"James Sales School is located one block east of the road;

"Numerous people, including children and motorists have been killed on the road;

"It is a heavily traveled highway, connecting two primary state highways and a connecting highway that serves the Puyallup Valley area;

"There is a military installation gate located there on;

"Thoroughfare handles traffic from two military installations;

"Fog seems to hang in patches, particularly in the McChord Area."

HOW MANY MUST DIE?

(an editorial)

This week, James Sales P-TA and Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Kerstetter announced through their attorney Peter Sterbick, that a petition would be circulated throughout the area to urge reduction of the 50 m.p.h. speed limit on Airport Rd., (So. 112th St.)

This is the beginning of a movement which should have been started long ago—before the first death occurred. That it did not start until the death of a 10-year-old boy last September is not indicative of the indifference and laxity of the state highway officials but rather of the people of the area affected.

However, that is water under the bridge. More important is the fact that such a move has begun.

Nonetheless, a concerted effort on the part of all citizens in the area is necessary to achieve the desired goal.

A straw-ballot may be found elsewhere in these columns, fill it out and send it to The Times-Journal to make the argument even stronger.

Burglars Loot Parkland Store Of Many Items

Wednesday morning, about 4:00 a.m., while on regular patrol, Special Officer C. K. Haney found that burglars had used a stone about 6 inches in diameter to break the large front window in the Parkland Jewelry store on Garfield street.

A call was put in via radio to the Sheriff's office and a request to notify the owner.

Deputies Tom Durham and Don Warren responded and made a preliminary investigation.

Mrs. Elmer Gable came from home and tentatively was able to determine that about ten expensive watches, some identification bracelets and other items had been taken. A valuable ring which had just recently been shop-lifted from their windows and recovered by Detective Wall was also gone.

Apparently the thieves had stood outside on the sidewalk and filled their pockets.

Monte Vista Garden club is holding a luncheon meeting today (Thursday) at the home of Mrs. James Hitch of Parkland. Mrs. Del Schafer has the program.

Numerous Losses in Recent Local Petty Crime Wave

As Reported by C. K. "Red" Haney
An epidemic of petty thievery seems to have broken out in the community coincident with the current cold spell. Most of the cases appear to be the work of amateur sneak thieves, probably young boys.

Edith Schumm of Rt. 1, Box 271, Spanaway, reported that she lost a fender skirt from a 1949 Pontiac sedan parked in her garage.

Leslie O. Ecklund, PLC, reported to Officer Carbone that someone lifted the battery from his car parked near the college.

Mrs. Raymond Kroeger, 754 So. 102nd St., told Detective Phill that between 1 and 5 in the afternoon someone entered her house and took $2.50 in bills and coins.

Raymond Bovat of Rt. 3, Box 701-B, Tacoma, told Detective Phill that someone took his spare tire, a wheel and a hydraulic jack, valued at $30. Phill ran down a few leads and came up with the guilty boy. Everything was settled.

Arlo Bauman, 5024 So. Fife St., reported the loss of hub caps from his 1950 Plymouth while he was attending a basketball game at PLC.

James Franklin, 1111 So. 112 St., told Detective Truman that someone broke the window in his 1953 Ford, removed the keys from the glove compartment, opened the trunk and took his spare wheel and tire.

H. B. Christensen, 11466 So. I St., says someone got in his garage and took a ¼ inch electric drill.

Business Firms Lose
French's Serv-Ur-Self was entered after a pane of glass in the door was broken and two cartons of cigarettes were taken. The report was made to Deputies Don Warren and Paul Otto. Dick's Tavern, at 160th and Pacific Ave., was entered the same night by thieves who took money and merchandise in the amount of $175, as reported to Deputies Warren and Otto.

Real Excitement
Considerable excitement was experienced early on a recent Saturday morning when Deputy Gene Carbone received a telephone call from the attendant at Ponder's Service station that someone had just beat him out of a tankful of gas. The license number was supplied and a call put out to cars in the South Tacoma area. County Car No. 44, with Officers Tom Daskan and Don Warren; Merchant Police car No. 91, with Officer F. W. Phillips, and a State Patrol car, with Officer Wiley Bryant, responded.

The car was spotted, proceeding toward Tacoma, by car No. 44 and the chase was on. The fugitive finally turned off Highway 99 near Max Frolic's and, abandoning the car, a young man and girl dove into the woods. Durham and Warren took up the chase on foot, while car No. 91 and the WSP car circled the area.

Durham soon spotted the girl, who was a juvenile, and after considerable searching the boy was picked up by Officer Bryant, WSP.

The young man proved to be Jimmy Lyons of Eureka, Calif., aged 19. He and his girl friend had been traveling around the country for some time and had stolen the car in Portland the previous night.

Altrusa Club To Offer Employment Service To Parkland - Spanaway

To enable persons who want odd jobs or part time work, or those who offer such positions, to get together, the Parkland area Altrusa Club has established an employment exchange, according to Mrs. Trav Dryer, president.

"The Altrusa Club has noted a need for employment opportunities for citizens of the area," Mrs. Dryer said. "Many persons need part time or odd jobs," she continued, "and the club feels that such jobs are available in the community, but are not made known to the interested persons."

Applicants, whether for a position, or those who have an opening they want filled, are requested to contact the club at GRanite 4140, Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 12 noon.

The service is without charge, Mrs. Dryer concluded, but will include only residents of the Parkland-Spanaway area.

Waller Road News
Mrs. Verne Fogle GR 5210

The interest that has been shown in the Waller Road Garden club is heartening to those who organized it. At the last meeting, held Jan. 7, there was a large crowd out to see the films shown by Lawrence Savage and to ask questions on the care of rhododendrons. A special note to any men who are interested in gardening: We had five men present also.

The club holds open meetings and any person can attend. The next meeting date will be announced later. Watch for it!

Prospects Bright for '54

The next year should be a good solid one, for both producer and consumer, according to all available sources.

Now before you sit back and exclaim that we've got rocks in our head, take a look at the facts.

The international crisis has eased, with no open conflicts in which the United States is involved, in progress, and possibilities for peaceful settlement of such problems as should arise quite certain.

Corporations and big money interests have loosened their restrictions and more loans are being made, resulting in more money in circulation, which will in turn benefit both the merchant who will receive it and the consumer who will exchange it for the wanted commodities.

Indeed, the year ahead holds great promise.

It has been said that an optimist is one who doesn't care what happens—until it happens to him.

About Those Letters to the Editor

As the Times-Journal stated in the first editorial of the new paper, letters to the editor are welcome in our columns.

However, we must reserve the right to demand such letters be free from statements that could be termed libelous.

Letters containing such statements are subject to censor, and should be carefully written to avoid such action.

Experience is what we have left, after everything else is gone.

March of Dimes

The month of January has become synonymous with the March of Dimes drive on infantile paralysis, in Washington and throughout the nation.

A dime, the tenth part of a dollar as the carnival barkers say, when multiplied by each person in Parkland, and in Pierce County, and finally in the United States—if all contributed—would amount to some $1,300,000.

In today's value conscious world, what better gain could be gotten from 10 cents than the satisfaction of knowing you had a hand in conquering polio?

Until next week—remember, a cynic is a man who knows the price of everything, and the true value of nothing.

daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter R. Williams of Rt. 11, Box 72, has enlisted in the U. S. Navy. She left by plane Jan. 5 for Bainbridge, Maryland, where she is now undergoing recruit training. Barbara graduated from Puyallup high school with the class of '53.

New Daughter
A baby girl arrived Jan. 7 at the Good Samaritan hospital in Puyallup for Mr. and Mrs. Lon J. McMahl of 64th and Vickery road. She weighed 7 pounds 10 ounces and has been named Christy Jeanne. She has a "big" brother, Rocky Jay, and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Verne Fogle and Mr. and Mrs. C. W. McMahl of Tacoma.

Smorgasbord Dinner
All preparations are made for the smorgasbord dinner to be held next Saturday evening, Jan. 23, at the Waller Road Community hall, 64th and Waller road. It is sponsored by the ways and means committee of the Waller Road Grange. The price is $1.25 for adults and 75 cents for children under 12 years.

This is the time for Dad to give Mother a treat and take the family out to eat. Waller Road is well known for serving delicious food at all times, regardless of the sponsoring organization. The Grange ladies will uphold the honors at this smorgasbord dinner.

The main dishes to be served are roast beef and gravy, baked salmon and Swedish meat balls. Also home baked beans, spaghetti, a variety of salads, carrots and peas, potatoes and numerous other food items usually found at a smorgasbord.

Serving will start at 5:30 p. m. and continue through the evening until 8:30.

Don't let the weather keep you at home. A warm welcome will await you at the Waller Road hall as well as a delicious dinner. For information, call WA 7645 or GR 5210.

Its a Boy!!
Mr. and Mrs. George Clancy are proud parents of a baby boy named Michael Brian, born Dec. 30, 1953. He has two sisters, Charlotte Anne and Joyce Louise; also grandparents in the Waller Road district, Mr. and Mrs. Franz Nelson of East 62nd St.

In Hospital
In the hospital last week, from after effects of a siege of influenza, was Mrs. Clair Farley.

Write to Her!
Mrs. Marie Thergildsen, confined to Resthaven for some time to come, truly enjoys letters and cards from her friends. Are you remembering her?

Help, Please!

EDITOR'S NOTE — All properly signed Letters to the Editor will be printed as submitted, excepting deletions of portions which might be considered libelous. It is not the purpose of the Times-Journal to take sides in controversial questions; the Letter Box is designed merely to permit the expression of opinions of readers concerning matters of local interest.

Route 1, Box 321, Spanaway, Washington January 18, 1953.

To the Editor,
The Letter Box, Parkland Times-Journal Parkland, Washington.

We reply to the letter of Homer T. Anderson, Bethel School District Superintendent, printed in your Letter Box of January 14th. He, Homer T. Anderson, takes a stand for, quote, "... the defense of the many fine people of the Elk Plain school area, etc., etc.", of which there are, indeed, a great number of such people. This may sound nice to the gullible. But Homer T. Anderson offers a needless defense of such fine people because these fine people are not subjects of our complaints. Our complaints are against the school administration itself, the Board of Directors, the Superintendent, and the Principal of Elk Plain School.

We take keen exception to Homer T. Anderson's statement, quote, "... it is a disgrace and a sin that the article presented by Lee and Marie Nelson should have such utter disregard for the truth."

While considering sagacious analysis of truth, let us remind Homer T. Anderson of the fact that among our many complaints and charges is the charge of a school employee and teacher lying.

Our first and main charges concerned the unreasonable treatment of our son at the hands of the present principal of Elk Plain school. We complained of heckling, teasing, and harassment over a long period of time and one instance of threat of a rubber hose beating. About all we have gotten from any school authority appealed to is procrastination and ignoring of charges irrefutably substantiated. The school board has refused to read letters when requested to do so. The school board has received letters to which no reply or acknowledgment has been made.

With perfect regard to truth, permit us to refresh the memory of Homer T. Anderson regards a question at a very recent school board meeting where I (Lee A. Nelson) asked Homer T. Anderson before the board and audience if he would or could condone a teacher or any public servant of a school system being a liar. He did not answer my question, although I repeated the same question twice.

We were present at a meeting of the board in June, 1953, when a parent of a child complained, among other things, of his child being hung up in a tree by one leg and of being flogged while at play on the school grounds, during school time, without proper supervision. I and others present, during that meeting, heard Homer T. Anderson, the Bethel School District Superintendent, make the statement before the board and audience that parents would have to expect accidents like that. I immediately, at that meeting, questioned Homer T. Anderson as to why any parent should have to expect such "accidents" like that. I asked the question three times and got no satisfactory answer.

Still with great regard for truth, we were informed by letter that by unanimous agreement of the board, the board resolved to uphold the policies of Homer T. Anderson and Mr. Boyce, and further resolved that no child would be permitted to attend any school outside the respective district wherein the family might reside. This resolution prevented us sending our children to Kapowsin school rather than to Elk Plain school. As a consequence, our children have not attended school since June, 1953. However, in the Bethel School District, of which Homer T. Anderson is Superintendent, there are more than one case of favoritism and discrimination and violation of the above mentioned resolution of the school board, wherein the children of teachers of Bethel School District are in attendance and have been in attendance of schools outside their respective districts of residence, and are in attendance and have been in attendance of other schools of the Bethel District.

At a recent board meeting when a delegation was present from the Electron district, Homer T. Anderson made the statement that there were no students coming into Bethel District from outside Bethel District. We believe this statement to be in error, and if in error, we should expect the district superintendent to have his statements better founded.

Permit us, in concluding, to state that the County Superintendent of Schools has been aware of our complaints for a long period of time and promised us (Mr. Nelson), in June, a meeting. After strong and forceful letters and affidavits of complaints from us, the County Superintendent of Schools set the date of January 15th, for a hearing for us to appear with the one complaint of not being permitted to send our children to Kapowsin school rather than to Elk Plain school. We have a letter setting forth clearly that such a hearing would permit no other complaint or matter than the one issue of our children attending Kapowsin School. If the School authorities, including the County Superintendent of Schools, are not afraid of the disclosures of truths, then why will not they permit a hearing of all our complaints and the complaints of others, particulars of which they have had for a long time.

On Monday, January 11th, it was announced at a Bethel Board meeting that the hearing set for January 15th was postponed until January 29th, due to illness of Mrs. Ruth Bethel, County Superintendent of schools. It is inopportune (or opportune?) that the hearing has been postponed until a week after the closing date for candidates to file for school board vacancies and other offices, rather than a week before such date.

Now, if granted a hearing, we do not intend to be suppressed in the complaints and matter we wish to disclose. There are, currently, at least three families keeping children out of school in Elk Plain district because of the principal.

Times-Journal
Parkland, Washington

I have delayed writing this letter of appreciation for so long that I am almost ashamed to do so now.

We had a fire at our house some time ago, in the middle of the night, and our very efficient Parkland Fire Department was on the job immediately. Not only were they very careful about wetting only the necessary items but they then proceeded to mop and sweep up all the debris. Certainly there was a minimum of mess around when they finished.

Since we have been in Parkland we have always known we had a fire department but I am afraid, like so many people, we simply took them for granted. Having had first-hand experience now of needing help desperately, we really appreciate what a wonderful thing these men are doing.

I know these men are volunteer workers and receive nothing for the time they devote and give us the benefit of their experience at no expense to us, too. Maybe we should (Continued on Page 8)

In honor of their first wedding anniversary and a delayed wedding reception for their marriage Feb. 14, 1953, in Amarillo, Texas, Cpl. and Mrs. Gale Munsey were guests of honor at a gala celebration at the Canyon road Community hall Saturday, Jan. 16. Hosts and hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Jennie Hartle, of Puyallup, the bride's mother; Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Munsey, of Canyon road, Mr. and Mrs. James Blair, Jr., all of Puyallup, members of the groom's family.

Assisting the hosts were Mrs. Vernon Creeton, Tacoma, and Mrs. Wesley Rice, Welo, who poured, assisted by Mrs. Don Hansen, Canyon road. Mrs. Leonard Jensen, Puyallup, and Mrs. Norene Gill, Auburn, served the cake, and Mrs. Kaylene Hess, Auburn, assisted by James Blair, Sr. and James Blair Jr., presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Joye Blair and Miss Nita Hartle were in charge of the gift table and Miss Linda Munsey the guest book.

The hall was suitably decorated by Mrs. James Blair Sr. and Mrs. James Blair Jr. A bower of sprayed glistening greens, tied with small white satin bows and silver hearts, adorned the center of one wall. Each end wall was decorated with sprayed white boughs tied with small pink and white satin bows. White satin streamers added to the decorations. An attractive arrangement of pink, lavender and white stock topped the piano. The table was covered with a Mexican cut-work cloth and centered with white candles, accentuated with pink carnations and violets. One hundred and twenty guests helped make this a memorable occasion for Gale and Dorothy. Following the reception, and to climax the evening, dancing and a dutch lunch was enjoyed by everyone. Cpl. and Mrs. Munsey are leaving today, Thursday, for Victorville, Calif., where Cpl. Munsey will rejoin his USAF unit.

Concerning Snow and Showers
A delightful party, shower for Mrs. John Charboneau, anticipated days ahead by friends of the honor guest, who now lives in Everett, were not disappointed in the preparations made at the home of Mrs. Emmet Rich. Co-hostess with her was Mrs. Lowell Elston. The unexpected turn of weather made the trip to attend the party impossible for Mrs. Charboneau. Her mother, Mrs. Ben Kuper, had been urged to have the guests open the gifts, but it was decided to send them in, unopened. Tables were set up for games of 500 and pinocchio and refreshments were served in the rooms decorated for the party.

South Dakota Visitor

January 16, 1954.

To the Editor
The Letter Box,
Parkland Times-Journal
Parkland, Washington.
In reply to Mr. John J. Rarren's letter in your paper of January 16, 1954, I assume that he refers to me in his statement about having talked, quote "to the party that is supposed to have deserted his farm because of so called school conditions, and he told me that the reason he wanted to sell his property was because he was sick and tired of the unfavorable weather on the coast and he was going East of the mountains on a farm."

Now, I would like to put Mr. Rarren straight on a few things, unless he knows my business better than I do.
In August I rented a place outside the Beihel School District for the sole purpose that my children would not have to go to the Elk Plain School. For the information of Mr. Rarren, if he is concerned, I had no plans whatsoever of going east of the Mountains until November.

In Mr. Rarren's letter he states, "As for people leaving our community because of existing conditions, that is hard to believe."

Perhaps it would be hard for Mr. Rarren to believe that I am only one of many complaining families, and that only part of my complaints concern my son being hung up to a tree by one ankle and left to dangle, and on another occasion after that given a flogging with a branch off a tree, both occasions while at Elk Plain School and supposedly under the supervision of the Elk Plain School authorities. He was at another time beaten by the principal with a rubber hose, which the principal denied and then, later, admitted before a school board meeting.

Perhaps it would also be hard for Mr. Rarren to believe that I complained to the school board of all these facts among other things and read my letter of complaints and charges at their meeting and then handed the letter of charges to the Board Chairman. That was over six months ago, and I have not had any acknowledgement or report of any action being taken. I asked specifically that an investigation be made and a report given me.

I told the school board at their meeting in June that I would not send my children back to Elk Plain under that principal.

Perhaps it would be hard for Mr. Rarren to believe that I submitted complaints and evidence in affidavit form to the County Superintendent of Schools in regards to these above charges and others. It has been a full month and I have not received any reply from the County Superintendent of Schools. I have not received any satisfactory action from any school authority appealed to.
Sincerely,
Vernon A. Kershner.

The teacher wrote on the blackboard: "I ain't had no fun all summer." Then she asked a youngster in the front row: "Harry, what should I do to correct that?"
"Mebbe you better get a boy friend," he suggested helpfully.

Meet Your Neighbor

Many of us study and read about great people but few of us have the opportunity to work with them and to know them personally, but not Charles Henry Cole (affectionately known as Grandpa Cole). Along with leading a rich, full, and adventurous life, he had the fortune to know and work for Will Rogers. So naturally one of Grandpa's favorite hobbies is spinning his yarns about the years he and his wife spent on their farm in Beverly Hills, from the time the ranch had not even a house till it became the beautiful show place that it is today. He tells of a wonderful man who treated them all like one of the family and how his wife Louise spent hours in her own kitchen making coffee for Mrs. Rogers and handing out cookies to the two boys, Bill and Jim Rogers, and their sister Mary. Granddad will also tell you that Will Rogers' sense of humor and personality was as true as it was famous.

Prior to moving to California Mr. Cole was born and raised in Nebraska, his father being one of the first teachers in that state and one of the founders of the State college. His wife Louise caught his eye at a dance and after an introduction the courtship became swift and sure. The couple were married in 1899 at Nelson, Nebraska, and Mr. Cole had a rural mail route for 13 years and delivered via horse and buggy. It was at Nelson that their son George was born. In 1925, after they had been in the restaurant business in Auburn, Nebraska, they came to Santa Monica, Calif., and about one month later went to work for Will Rogers and stayed there until Mr. Rogers' death in 1932, when the place was made into a showplace and museum and shrine to the late Will Rogers.

At the death of his wife a few years later, Grandpa left California to come to Puyallup to be with his son George and daughter Martha. Grandpa is now a young and spry 80 and has three sisters past 80, still living, and two brothers and two sisters who are youngsters of 60, 65, and 70. His other hobbies besides his 'yarns' are "Superintendent of the Cole Ranch," and T.V. (westerns especially). We're glad to have Grandpa as one of our neighbors here in Woodland and only hope our lives will be as full and rich as his.

To Mountain
Walt Challenger and Milt Cole took a group of boys to the mountain sledding last week. Boys going were Gene, Gary Challenger, Don and Gary Cole and Karl Cordes.

On T.V. Show
Mrs. Dan Anderson had the fun and fortune of being drawn as a contestant on the King's Ransom T.V. show last Thursday, and after answering her four questions correctly had a chance at the jack pot. Who started the F.B.I. was not Hoover and so she lost the chance at numerous prizes, but came home with a super ironing board. Those going from here were: Mrs. Russell Tucker, Mrs. Bud Root, Mrs. Art Lincoln, Mrs. Karl Cordes and Mrs. Anderson. The group had luncheon at Ivar's before the show and took the tour of the studio following the show.

Visit New Granddaughter
Mr. and Mrs. Ted Vaughn of Ephrata spent last week with their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Walt Challenger. The occasion was to see their new granddaughter.

Homecraft Club
President Mrs. Don Ray presided over the January meeting of the Homecraft club held at the home of Mrs. Karl Cordes. Assisting hostesses for the day were Mrs. Russell Tucker and Mrs. Bud Root. Following the regular meeting and dessert luncheon, Bingo was played with prizes going to Mrs. Goodner, Mrs. Ward, Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Jordon. Present were Mesdames Don Ray, Dorothy Ray, Louie Ward, John Harber, Harold Hanson, Shelby Tucker, Harry Lee, Belle Jordon, John Litton, Ray Goodner, Joe Heil, Paris Brown, the hostess Mrs. Cordes, Tucker, and Root and two guests, Mrs. Don Heins and Mrs. Dan Anderson.

Until the atomic era, uranium was merely a by-product of radium and vanadium mines, useful for coloring glass, pottery, and artificial teeth.

The young lover was trying hard, but the sweet young thing was unimpressed. "Those lovely soft hands," he sighed. "Your warm lips. And those beautiful eyes! Where did you get those?"
"They came with my head."

State Patrol Inaugurates Winter Highway Service on Snoqualmie

"To keep traffic flowing freely over Snoqualmie Pass, another service to the motorists has been established by the Washington State Patrol," Chief James A. Pryde said this week, "with the advent of two emergency service cars to be stationed at the approaches of the Pass."

"The experience gained this winter will determine whether such service cars will be established on the other major mountain passes in the state during next winter," Pryde said.

"In addition to rendering assistance to motorists having difficulty on the pass" he stated, "these two cadet officers assigned to the emergency service cars will be stationed at the chain signs, which read 'Stop—Vehicles Without Chains on Rear Wheels Prohibited', to enforce this regulation.

Regardless of the type of tire your car is equipped with, chains must be used when the chain sign is out.

The sign will be easy to observe as it will be placed in the center of the highway."

Sedan delivery trucks are being used for the emergency service cars. In addition to being radio equipped and carrying the normal emergency equipment generally found in all State Patrol vehicles stationed on the mountain passes, the emergency service cars will have tire chain repair links and chain repair tools.

When a motorist is found beyond the tire chain sign with chain that is not repairable, a new tire chain will be loaned so that the remainder of the trip over the pass can be made in complete safety.

The loaned tire chain can be turned in to either the emergency service car on the other side of the pass from which the motorist is traveling, or at the State Patrol offices in North Bend and Ellensburg.

"For the motorist who finds himself out of gas and still miles from a service station, the emergency car will carry sufficient gasoline to permit the stalled motorist to proceed," Pryde said.

Cadet officers Howard Lent and Charles Stansbury, both from Seattle, have been assigned to the Emergency Service Cars.

These officers will be on duty when pass conditions are at their worst and warrant the need for such emergency equipment.

"Motorists who find that their vehicles won't start because of dead batteries will welcome this addition to the State Patrol's many services as each emergency car will carry the necessary equipment to assist in starting disabled automobiles," Pryde added. "This equipment consists of two cables which can be attached to the battery of the emergency service car to the battery of the stalled vehicle."

Tranquil, Pastoral, Snowbound Beauty

was created by Mother Nature in the Parkland area this week, with a 10 to 14 inch snowfall. The following scenes, photographed on Clover Creek show what a fairyland the snow created.

An abandoned bridge, used only by the geese who rule the pond, forms the setting for the first picture. Its cold beauty unsmudged by exhaust fumes from laboring cars, or marred by the footprints of playing children, the scene is reminiscent of earlier days, when snow meant jolly sleigh rides and skating on the mill pond.

Clover Creek meanders on through Parkland, and in the second photo, becomes a menacing flood in the backyards of the community's residents. Yet, though the lurking depths hold unseen dangers, its surface beauty remains unchanged. The first snowfall can change even the most grotesque tree into a thing of enchantment.

It tunnels under McChord Field, and later dumps into Chambers Creek. In the third photo, taken about a mile from the tunnel, the creek narrows, becoming swift and deeper, its black waters forming a sharp contrast to the snowy banks and heavy laden tree branches.

Truly, "... a thing of beauty is a joy forever."

LEGION NEWS

By PHYLLIS BLACKSTONE
4th Dist. Publicity Chairman

Mrs. James Linder, fourth district president, attended the winter meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary executive board in Seattle over the week end. The meeting was held for the purpose of outlining the Department Presidents visits in the many districts of the state and to hear reports from the district presidents.

Mrs. Milton Schroeder, department president, will make her official visits in this district February 10, 11 and 12. She will visit at Orting, Parkland and Yelm, with each unit acting as hostess for other units nearby. While in this district, Mrs. Schroeder will be the guest of Mrs. Linder and will be escorted throughout the district by Mrs. Linder.

Accompanying Mrs. Linder to Seattle was Mrs. W. P. Blackstone, district publicity and music chairman. Others from this district were: Mrs. R. A. Hedberg, department gift shop director at American Lake Hospital and the honored guest from this district, Mrs. M. G. Anderson, Olympia, past department president.

The Parkland Unit went on record at their last meeting by endorsing Mrs. W. P. Blackstone, Jr. Past President, for the office of fourth district vice-president. The Unit has asked the support of all other Units in this district on this endorsement.

The Puyallup Unit held an initiation for new members last week with the Summer Unit Doing the honors. Mrs. James Linder, district president, was the initiating officer and was assisted by the following women from Sumner: May Gorhan, Enola Kellog, Stella Cullen, Mary Doucette, Lois Merseraux and the Unit President, Dorothy Mayfield. Musician was Hilda Gordon, of Puyallup. The Puyallup Unit now have 110 members and have exceeded their quota.

Attending the initiation from Parkland were Mesdames Henry Swanson, Donald Walsh, Sam Carta and W. P. Blackstone.

An initiation of new members was also held at Orting last week. The initiation included 10 new members each for the Orting Post and Orting Unit. Approximately 70 members and guests were present to witness the event.

Mrs. James Linder was the initiating officer for the new unit members and was assisted by Mesdames T. J. Murnen, Roy Rodgers, Mable Rodgers, Sally Gilliland and Maggie Apple.

The new post members were initiated by Will Bierer, who was assisted by Robert Kendall and Steve Kendall.

Music for the evening was furnished by Mrs. W. P. Blackstone at the organ. A most enjoyable evening was had by all. Refreshments were served by the Auxiliary following the meeting.

The Spanaway Unit has ordered poppies for the sale which will be held the 21st and 22nd of May. Spanaway increased their order by 100 this year, making a total of 3300 poppies.

Mrs. Irma Long, president of the Spanaway Unit, announced the Unit is contributing to the March of Dimes and each member of the Unit is planning an individual project for the March of Dimes.

Mrs. Riley Drake is requesting that anyone interested in becoming a Girl or Boy Scout Leader, please contact her. The need for leaders is urgent. A special meeting will be held January 26th at the First Baptist church, 9th and Market St. in Tacoma, from 10 a. m. to 2 p. m. for the purpose of "learning more about Scouts". Lunch will be served at noon. Anyone interested in Scouting is welcome to attend.

Times-Journal Sound Truck Available to Clubs, Advertisers

Big noises come in small packages.

This may not be quite what whoever coined the original expression about good things in small packages meant, but it holds true in the case of the Times-Journal sound truck.

The most recent — and the smallest — contains a small, complete and compact sound system, with both indoor and outdoor adaptability.

The truck is available to all Journal advertisers, at no charge, and to any group in the area for use at dances or other community events, for five (5) paid subscriptions to the Journal, (one day's use).

Winter Weather Branded Traffic Villain for Drivers Says Pryde

"Weather is the villain," Chief James A. Pryde, of the Washington State Patrol, said this week, insofar as winter driving hazards are concerned.

"Snow, sleet, rain, fog, and sub-zero temperatures plague motorists and pedestrians alike throughout January."

"The long hours of darkness that prevail in January in addition to weather conditions, are another obstacle to traffic safety," Pryde said, "for darkness is synonymous with danger. In fact, there is a notable increase in fatal traffic accidents after sundown."

These are the things of which the driver or the walker must be warned and made to minimize these dangers.

"The principle rule for safe winter driving is to slow down!" Pryde stated.

"This rule applies in every condition mentioned above, and it can be used to advantage by both the motorist and pedestrian."

"The second rule," he said, "for the motorist, is to check the car for winter driving fitness. Windshield wipers and defrosters must be in perfect operating condition."

"The car should be equipped with chains for safe driving on snow and ice."

"The exhaust system should be checked for leaks."

"The third rule is to be alert!" he stated. "Winter driving and walking handicaps can be off-set to a great extent by alertness and caution on the part of all who travel."

Improvement Club To Sponsor Card

The citizens of Parkland and surrounding areas will have the opportunity of seeing some of the best professional wrestlers in the business in the very near future. February 3rd, to be exact.

The Parkland Community Club is sponsoring the first big wrestling show in several years to be held in the south end. They have acquired the new Franklin Pierce gym and have signed the top notch talent.

The main event of the big card will bring together Frank Stojack, the world's light heavyweight wrestling champion, and Dr. John Gallagher, a rough and tough customer with a mean disposition. There will be other matches but the contestants haven't yet been named.

The proceeds of this show will go to the Franklin Pierce Student Athletic Fund and will be used for the badly needed athletic equipment.

Tickets are on sale now at the National Bank of Washington, the Bungalow Cafe and the Prairie Tavern.

Lets support our schools with a fine attendance. Remember Wednesday evening, Feb. 3rd, 8:00 p.m. at the Franklin Pierce Gym.

To obtain the most interesting and dramatic effect with pictures, they should be hung at eye level.

Bethel Downs Eatonville, 51-42

The Bethel Braves continued on their merry way last week as they downed their arch rivals Eatonville High, in a West Central Basketball League game 51 to 42.

This was the seventh straight win for the Braves with no losses in league play and marked their first win over the Cruisers in three years of play.

Felix Brodigan led the Bethel squad in their victory as he rung the hoop for 18 points. Walter Leigh helped the cause with a respectable 12 points total. Jim Gianni paced the Eatonville team with 15 points.

Gene Ketter and Dave Rich were outstanding in rebounding for the Braves besides accounting for 14 points between them.

An Avid Hunter

who knows the sport can be an expensive one, might take a hint from Bill Olah, shown above, with three of the six rifles he has built himself, to help keep down expenses of his favorite pastime.

The gun he is holding is a .22 caliber model that he made for "varmint" shooting. It weighs 12 pounds and has a range of up to 400 yards. The others are a rebuilt .30-06 caliber Army Enfield and a combination Mauser-Browning machine gun.

All of them started out as spare gun parts and blocks of wood that Bill, with his knowledge of firearms and ballistics, finished into handsome and highly effective rifles.

"All you have to be in this business," he says, "is a real gun 'nut' and a good mechanic."

Employed as a defense tool engineer at the International Business Machine Corp., Poughkeepsie, N. Y., plant, Bill is a member of the national Rifle Association and is active in IMB's rifle and pistol clubs.

In line with his hobby, on an improved .45 caliber pistol, which, he believes, will revolutionize pistol target shooting.

THE SPORTING TIMES

By ROG McDONALD

"The Toy Bulldog"

On July 3, 1901, a strapping baby boy first saw the light of day and was later to become the most courageous boxer of all time. This pug-nosed little Irishman was the great Mickey Walker, nicknamed by most sports fans as "The Toy Bulldog."

Walker started his boxing career as a featherweight in 1919 at the age of 18. He was a crude young puncher and on his very first fight was promptly knocked senseless by a little known third rate boxer.

This fight evidently stirred his courage because during the next three years he moved through one foe after another without a setback and finally captured the world's welterweight championship from Jack Britton.

After winning this crown, Mickey fought all challengers until he ran out of opponents in the division. He then tried for the middleweight crown and was successful in his first attempt when he lost to the great Harry Greb in 1925.

Greb lost his crown later to Tiger Flowers and Walker finally became the middleweight champ a year later when he stopped Flowers.

However, a few months before becoming the middleweight champ, he lost his welter title, mainly because he couldn't make the weight limit.

After campaigning in the middleweight division and defending his crown many times, his manager, the great Jack Kearns, started matching the little Buzz-saw with light heavy weight and heavyweight boxers. At this time the 5'8"

Coaching Clinic To Be Held In Ellensburg

James M. Tatum, head football coach at the University of Maryland, will be featured at this year's Coaching Clinic, to be sponsored June 10-12 by Central Washington College of Education on the campus in Ellensburg, Wash. He will conduct the football division.

Tatum's team was rated No. 1 in the nation and still retains its top position despite its 7-0 loss to Oklahoma in the New Year's Day Orange Bowl in Miami.

Tatum is one of the nation's leading exponents of the T-formation.

In his seven years at Maryland his teams have distinguished themselves for their outstanding defense records.

"Slats" Gill, Oregon State College's basketball coach, who has taken his team to many national tournaments, will head the basketball division of Central's three-day clinic.

"Bucky" Walters, trainer at Washington State College, will conduct the division on training again this year.

Perry Mitchell, Central Washington College, will be in charge of the rules and officiating sections. Mitchell is head of the Pacific Coast Referees' Association of the Northern Division.

Leo S. Nicholson, head of Central's Health and Physical Education division will serve as clinic director.

The pre-summer school session Coaching Clinic is for all junior high, senior high, junior college or college coaches and for any elementary school people who do refereeing, coaching or officiating of any kind. It isn't limited to residents of any given area. Any coach will be eligible.

Walker weighed in at 165 pounds at most and looked like a midget along side of some of his opponents.

Walked met Bearcat Wright who weighed 205 pounds and stood six feet, three inches tall and he also matched punches with Arthur De Kuh the Dutch giant who scaled 218 pounds and was 6 ft. 4 inches in height. The Toy Bulldog walked off with both victories.

In 1930 Mickey defeated most of the top ranking heavyweights which included Paulino Uzudun, Leo Lomski, Johnny Risko, Jimmy Maloney and King Levinsky.

In 1931 Walker met the best heavyweight in the U. S., Jack Sharkey. Jack Schmelling held the world's title at the time winning from Sharkey on a foul. Walker and Sharkey fought 15 furious rounds with Walker the aggressor throughout the fight.

After the match was over, the judges got together and decided to call the bout a draw although the crowd thought Walker to be the winner. However, Sharkey had a return match with Schmelling in the near future for the title, and a defeat by the little Walker might have had a bearing on his chances.

Anyway, this was quite a fete for a little fellow who had to wear all of his clothes to tip the scales at 165 pounds.

After this match Walker started on the downgrade. He suffered a severe beating at the hands of the ex-champ Max Schmelling after Schmelling lost the crown to Sharkey. He lost a close decision to Maxie Rosenbloom for the light-heavyweight title and finally in Nov. 1935 he hung up the gloves for good.

There was never a man that intered the squared circle that had a bigger fighting heart than the "Toy Bulldog". His career covered 16 full years of boxing with never a dull moment.

Probably the greatest publicity he received from a match was the one with Harry Greb. After Greb had defeated him in a 15 rounder for the title, the two met in a bar after the match and after a few heated words they went outside and took up where they left off in the ring.

The two men battled fiercely for over half an hour with no holds barred.

After the smoke cleared and the police stepped in, the two boxers were ready for medical treatment.

Never a dull moment, as I said, for the big little Mickey Walked. He later purchased a bar in New York and operated it for several years before retiring. The name of the bar, "The Toy Bulldog".

Feather Champ Sandy Saddler Dumps Bill Bossio

In one of the most mis-matched boxing shows yet to be shown on a nationally televised show, Featherweight Champ Sandy Saddler won over Bill Bossio when the referee stopped the fight in the 8th round Friday nite at the St. Nicholas arena.

Bossio, a pint sized 5 ft. 1 inch punching bunching bag, had about as much business in the ring with the experienced Saddler as a vegetarian has at a steak fry. Saddler his his inexperienced opponent at will in the later rounds after finding he could take anything Bossio had to offer.

The promoters of this match should have their heads examined. This is the quickest way possible to sour the boxing fans on this great sport. The boxing commission is evidently very lax in checking the contestants or they surely wouldn't have let this match be made.

It is the sincere feeling of your sports editor that the people responsible for boxing matches of this caliber should be punished by the courts. A lot of good young promising boxers have had their careers ended before they were barely started in this very manner.

People who set their tongues wagging generally let their minds wander.

The Mount Rainier Riding club of Graham elected officers in December, with the following now holding offices for 1954: President, Worthy Hetch; vice president, Marion Curtiss; secretary - treasurer, Florence Curtiss.

A dance will be held by the Mount Rainier Riding club at the Graham community hall Saturday night, January 23, beginning at 9:00. There will be mixed dancing, both old time and modern. There is always a lively crowd at Graham so you are sure to have a good time.

The Tacoma Lariettes will hold installation of officers Saturday night, Jan. 23rd. The banquet was to have been held earlier in the month but was postponed because of the Evergreen State meeting—then the state meeting was postponed because of the snow. More fun!

Monday night? KMO—Bert McMurtrie's program. Mr. McMurtrie is a good friend of the horsemen and is likely to have news about us from time to time.

Welterweight KO Artists Featured On TV - Radio Bout Friday Night

Vince Martinez and Rocky Casillo, two young sluggers with designs on the welterweight crown, meet head-on in a scheduled ten-round bout as the Friday (January 22) television and radio feature from Madison Square Garden on the Gillette Safety Razor Company's Cavalcade of Sports.

Beginning at 7:00 p.m., the NBC television and ABC radio networks will carry all the action of what promises to be a slam-bang affair. Both boys have established outstanding knockout records in their respective advances toward the top.

Martinez, boxing's "rookie of the Year" in 1952, only had to go the distance twice over the 1951-52 two-year span. In 1951, five of his six wins were by kayo, while in 1952, four out of five were settled with similar dispatch.

Last March 14, Vince's up-war dmarch was temporarily halted when Chico Vejar decided him in 1 rounds. In a second meeting on November 21, Martinez avenged this loss in impressive fashion.

Determined to avoid any further detours in his bid for a championship match, he has given up his work as a draftsman and is now concentrating entirely on boxing as a career.

His record to date consists of 29 wins—17 by KO—and but 3 losses.

Rocky Casillo has an amazingly similar record. He, too, has scored 17 knockouts—this time out of 21 wins—and has also lost only 3 times.

Hailing from Chicago, Casillo is regarded as one of the west's greatest prospects. Turning "pro" in March 1952, after only four amateur bouts—all wins—he has earned himself the title of the "Blue Island Express."

Casillo has reminded fans and experts alike of the famous ex-middleweight champion, Rocky Graziano—both in looks and ring style. The new Rocky anticipates his debut on the Cavalcade of Sports will be an important step for him in making himself the same great favorite Graziano was from coast to coast.

FARM NEWS

County Agents' Corner

By C. R. Doran

Sprvey Farm for Christmas Tree Acres

Christmas marks the end of a profitable harvest season for farmers who raise Christmas trees. "Pierce county farmers will do well,' suggests C. R. Doran county Extension agent, "to look over their land and see if any of it will support a stand of Christmas trees, even if other crops won't grow there."

Sandy, gravelly, well-drained loams are the best soils for Christmas trees. On these infertile soils, brush grows slowly and competes little with Christmas tree growth. Stump land or land too hilly to farm may offer just the site to raise the trees. It should, however, be close to markets, easy to get in to, especially during the months when you cut the trees, protected from fire, and extreme frosts, and near enough so you can watch it against theft. Since Christmas tree raising takes some labor, especially during harvest, a labor force should be available.

Christmas tree producers can produce on natural lands and on plantations. Whichever they select, they can get complete information on raising, harvesting, and marketing their valuable crop from PNW bulletin 6, "Raising Christmas Trees for Profit." Published jointly by the Extension Services of Oregon, Idaho and Washington, the bulletin is available from county Extension agents in all three states. County Extension agent C. R. Doran says you can get a copy from his office in the Court House, Tacoma.

Winter Care of Farm Machinery

Winter care of that valuable farm machinery can probably add years to its life and cut repair bills considerably, says C. R. Doran, county Extension agent.

Machinery that won't be used until next year, he says, needs a good all-over grease job.

Undercover storage is important, too. Some engineers claim housing doubles machinery life. If winter housing is not available, Doran suggests treating all surfaces exposed to the weather with a rust-proof compound.

He also suggests replacing worn and broken parts so machinery will be ready to go next year. Such repairs are a winter-time task, he says. Ordering parts early will help prevent implement companies from being snowed under with a last-minute rush in the spring.

Fruitland 4-H Girls Club Busy

The Fruitland Girls' 4-H club held their meeting at the home of Sharon Hagen at 7 p.m. Jan. 11. The meeting was arranged by the president, Rosie Harber. The flag salute was led by Sharon Hagen. Roll was taken and the minutes of the previous meeting were read by the secretary, Rita Thompson.

It was brought up that the club serves the Fruitland Grange at the next meeting to be held in the Grange hall Feb. 5. Another project will be the raffle of three cakes at the next Woodland P-TA meeting. Chances will be sold at the meeting only. The money taken in from these projects helps to send the girls to County Camp and State Camp.

Sharon Hagen gave a demonstration on "How to Make a Macaroni and Cheese Casserole." After the meeting was adjourned refreshments were served by Sharon and her mother.

Other members present were Carol Cordes, Sondra King, Karren Hanson, Jarleth Hoffman, Mary Harber, Dorothy and Karen Keil and Karin Haworth. Leaders present were Mrs. Kenneth Keil, Mrs. John Harber and Mrs. Harold Hanson.

The next meeting will be held at 7:30 p.m. Feb. 8 at the home of Karin Haworth.

Jersey Club Will Hear Holstein Experts

Members of Pierce County Jersey Cattle Club will hear two Holstein dairymen, Harlan and Harrison Ford of Orting, in a panel discussion on silage at the meeting Friday at 8 p.m. The meeting was postponed one week from the usual date.

New officers of the club are Lloyd Buchanan of Tacoma, dent; Jess E. Inman of Auburn, vice president; Sid Livermore of Edgewood, secretary-treasurer, and Max Peabody of Port Orchard, director. Thought two officers, also several other members live outside Pierce County, they find it more convenient to attend meetings here.

At Friday's meeting the problem of President Buchanan will be discussed. He is an engineer at Boeing in Seattle, as well as a dairyman, and may resign his office for lack of time.

Graham Girl Enters Pie Baking Contest

Audrey Lindberg, 4-H girl from Graham, will be among the 13 girls and boys from all parts of the state who will compete next Saturday in the annual state Cherry Pie Baking contest at the University of Washington.

W. R. 4-H Lassies Plan Teen-Age Dance

The Waller Road 4-H Lassies club announces a series of 4-H dances for all young people of the area, to be held on the first and third Saturdays of each month in the Waller Road Community hall, east 64th and Waller road. Dancing will be from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m.

Plans were made at a recent meeting, according to Reporter Monica Shea, and the first dance was held Saturday night, with fairly good attendance, despite the weather.

Admission is 35 cents per person or 50 cents per couple, and the club will have refreshments available.
