Recipe of the Week
BY MARY LEE TAYLOR

Easy Fruit Coffee Cake
Broadcast: December 17, 1949

1/4 cup Pet Milk 2 teaspoons soft butter
1/2 cup boiling water 1/2 cup seedless raisins
1/2 cake yeast 3 tablespoons finely crumbled cut nuts
2 teaspoons sugar 3 tablespoons sugar
1 1/2 cups biscuit mix 1/4 teaspoon cinnamon

Mix milk and boiling water, then cool to lukewarm. Stir in yeast and 2 teasp. sugar. When yeast is dissolved, stir in biscuit mix. Turn out on lightly floured board. Knead 40 times. Roll into 10-in. square. Spread with butter. Sprinkle with mixture of rest of ingredients. Roll up; put into greased baking pan. Cut inch-deep gashes along both sides an inch apart. Cover with cloth wrung out of hot water. Let rise until doubled in bulk. Bake on center shelf of moderate oven (375° F.) about 25 min., or until brown. Makes 4 servings.

CHRISTMAS IN FOREIGN LANDS

IN THE GERMAN alpine districts an ancient belief is that cattle can speak on Christmas Eve. No one ever hears them, however, and it is considered sinful to try to listen. Another tradition holds that bees can sing on this holy night.

SHOOTING OFF GUNS and grenades on Christmas Eve to frighten away mischievous spirits is an old custom in southern Germany. This colorful ritual has been forgotten in most communities, but it is still practiced in a few places, like Berchtesgaden in the Bavarian alps. The noisy ceremony dates back to pagan times, when bonfires were kindled to greet the returning sun.

On Christmas Eve about ten o'clock members of the Weihnachts-schlessen Verein (Christmas Eve shooting society) pack up their

In the Calabrian hill country the shepherds come down from the mountains on Christmas and play bagpipes and flutes before the carpenter shops in special deference to St. Joseph, the carpenter.

At St. Marks church in Naples, dogs are taken along on Christmas morning. The faithful beasts wait outside until their masters have completed their devotions.

AFTER THE CHRISTMAS Eve supper, or Willia, Polish girls lift the table cloth and pick up handfuls of the straw that has been placed on the table. Any girl who finds an unthreshed ear of grain will be married soon and will be prosperous, according to tradition.

IT IS A PRETTY and humane Christmas custom in Scandinavian countries to hang a sheaf of grain rifles, shotguns, revolvers and hand-grenades, and march to their appointed spot in the hills. Then at eleven o'clock they begin firing away into the air, setting off fireworks and lighting bonfires. At exactly half-past seven all the banging stops, and the men quietly go off to their village churches.

BRAZILIAN CHILDREN parade through the streets at Christmas time dressed colorfully as shepherds, singing carols. This procession is called the pastorinhas, or shepherds' parade.

It is customary for children in Brazil to place their shoes in windows or doors in hopes of Christmas gifts, but in big cities the traditions associated with the North American Santa Claus are coming into favor. Since it is summer in the tropical country in December, Santa Claus with his fur-trimmed clothes, sleigh and reindeer seems a bit incongruous, however.

IN COLOMBIA THEY celebrate Christmas Day with a glorious fireworks display. In almost every village square a huge wooden effigy of a cow is erected. Men in fire-proof clothing crawl into the cow, and shoot off fire-crackers, Roman candles and rockets, much to the delight of the children. This curious custom is called the Vacas Locas, or fiesta of the crazy cows.

CHRISTMAS DAY is a holy day in Italy, and people flock to the numerous churches for the real merrymaking for Italians comes on Christmas Eve, which is much more of a holiday than Christmas Day to them. As the eve of Christmas is a religious vigil on which no meat is allowed, the feast has to consist largely of fish. Most Italians choose oel for this banquet. A certain large species called capitone is especially popular, though quite expensive.

outside the window in some snow covered yard so that the birds may share in the feast.

In Sweden and Finland the Christmas tree is kept standing for some time, usually until January 13, Canute's Day, when the neighborhood children are invited in to "plunder" it. It is a matter of great pride to the average youngster to have attended a large number of "plunderings."

ALMOST UNIVERSAL in South America is the custom of the family supper after Midnight Mass, known as Misa de Gallo. As it is then early on Christmas Day, the restrictions on eating meat, and on feasting in general that prevail on Christmas Eve, are over.

THE ANIMALS MUST NOT be forgotten at Christmas in Norway. Dog and cat get special Christmas fare, sheaves of grain are hung for the birds, and a large piece of suet put on the bird tray outside the kitchen window. On the farms cow and horse, sheep and pig and all the other animals get special treatment. The tradition of hanging sheaves of yellow heavy-headed grain outside the house in midwinter is as old as our history. Thousands of years ago, in the Stone Age, the belief was that the spirit which lived in the earth and made things grow, fled when the grain was cut. The spirit hid, it was thought, in the last remaining stalks, that was why the peasants laid aside the last sheaf and kept it. Midwinters, when the earth was frozen and covered with snow, and it was dark almost all day, the Stone Age people hung this sheaf near the place they lived. The spirit hiding in it helped the sun become strong again, and later it returned to the thawing fields to bring the people a new harvest of blessed grain.

We Still Travel to Grandmother's on Christmas
"To grandmother's house for Christmas..."
That part of the holiday theme has become as much a part of the Yule season as the mistletoe and holly. And where, in days of yore, the trip to grandmother's house was made by sleigh, it now is being made by airplane.
With more planes available and expanded facilities, airlines are anticipating the greatest holiday travel season in history.

Many families are making "split trips"—the children going unescorted aboard flights from their home to the destination airport, where they are met by their grandparents. Mother and father follow later after completing various tasks essential to a complete Christmas.
"To grandmother's house for Christmas..." goes the old song. And this year throughout the nation the trip is being made by the modern mode of air transportation.

CHRISTMAS SPIRIT
Who said the Christmas spirit was lagging this year. Have you seen all the poles decorated in Parkland. Santa riding his bicycle atop the Spanaway Cycle Shop. The window of stores at 84th and Pacific; the overhead decorations in Puyallup; or the little boy walking up the road with a tree over his shoulder.
No sir, Christmas spirit isn't lagging. It may have got off to a late start, but watch things hum now while everyone gets ready for old Santa's visit.

TOO GOOD TO KEEP
Have I ever told you how to find my house? I always tell people to drive down Lafayette Street 2 blocks west of Park Ave. until they see a white house, double driveway with a big white arch. Now I'll have to figure out a new one. Sunday, while dashing around in Home Gas Company's big truck, I headed for home. Down Lafayette street, a sharp left turn into my drive way - crash. Good bye arch way. Hello kindling wood. My, that truck is high!

LARRY HAUGE WINNER IN THE CROSLY CONTEST

Larry J. Hauge of 711 120th St., Parkland, was a mighty happy young man when notified that he had won the local Crosley contest, sponsored by the Parkland-Brookdale Electric Co. Local judges in the contest were Morris Ford, Herbert Socolofsky, and Arthur Swindland. The judges selected the winner on a point system and at no time until after announcing the winner were they able to see the names of the entries. To them, each entry was only a number to be read over and given points according to its merits. Mr. and Mrs. Nordyke did not set in with the judges at the time they made the winning selection.

Larry spent considerable time looking over the new 1950 Crosley Shelvador he won. When asked what he intended to do with it he said, "It will make a wonderful Christmas present for my mother." Congratulations, Larry.

Heavy Mail Coming Up for Santa

Children of the first grades at the Downey, Calif., elementary school, had a special box in which they deposited their mail to Santa. All were on their best behavior, for they have no way of knowing whether or not of Santa's gnome helpers may be peeking through the slit. Hundreds of thousands of letters were mailed to Santa from all parts of the world.

WHO WANTS SNOW?

The kiddies, naturally. Many of us fuss and grumble at the first sign of snow, but did you per chance happen to notice all the children's eyes Sunday night at the first sign of snow flakes? Remember back a few years, when you were their age. It sure looked good to you then. Maybe if we all keep our minds on how much fun the children will have in the snow this winter, it won't be so hard for us to take either.

Christmas Trees Of Many Kinds

FROM forests and woodlots of the United States a torrent of green rolls into the cities during pre-holiday weeks as farmers and foresters market their annual crop of Christmas trees.

The twinkling tree which adds holiday cheer to practically every home in the nation is one of America's most invariable domestic habits. As a result, it has brought the Christmas tree business into the realm of "big business." Some 14 million evergreens are required annually. Their retail value has soared into the quarter billion dollar vicinity, the 1948 returns being estimated at 28 million dollars.

Cash returns from the sale of Christmas trees represent only a

CHRISTMAS BELLS

by HENRY W. LONGFELLOW

I heard the bells on Christmas Day
Their old, familiar carols play,
And wild and sweet
The words repeat
Of peace on earth, good-will to men!

And thought how, as the day had come,
The bellies of all
Christendom
Had rolled along
The unbroken
song
Of peace on earth, good-will to men!

Till, ringing, singing on its way,
The world revolved from night to day,
A voice, a chime,
A chant sublime
Of peace on earth, good-will to men!

Then from each black, accursed
mouth
The cannon thundered in the South,
And with the sound
The carols drowned
Of peace on earth, good-will to men!

It was as if an earthquake rent
The hearth-stones of a continent,
And made forlorn
The households born
Of peace on earth, good-will to men!

And in despair I bowed my head;
"There is no peace on earth," I said,
"For hate is strong,
And mocks the song
Of peace on earth, good-will to men!"

Then pealed the bells more loud and deep:
"God is not dead,
nor doth he sleep!
The wrong shall fall,
The right prevail,
With peace on earth, good-will to men!"

small fraction of their value to American agriculture. Thousands of farmers are using the lowly evergreen to anchor sand lands to protect the shifting soil from further erosion.

With exception of the prairie lands, virtually every state in the union produces Christmas trees, at least for local consumption.

In the West, Colorado and Montana are the heavy exporters while in the East, the New England states compete with Canadian growers for the American markets. Inland, the heart of the Christmas tree country centers on upper Michigan, northern Wisconsin and Minnesota.

NUMBER OF SANTA'S HELPERS MOUNT
Last week the the Mid-County Shopper carried a detailed account of the various persons and firms working on the Parkland Christmas tree program. To this account may we add that the toys and candy are now on hand thanks to Frank Turk of the Garfield Variety Store, who obtained them for the club at cost. On hand also are 240 nice red cellophane bags to sack the gifts, furnished at cost by Sirm Stern of the Parkland Lockers. Fletcher's Market will have a crate of tangerines on hand when the sacking operations start. These go to the club at cost also. Friday evening saw much activity in the Parkland Cycle Shop. The tree lights were made up there with Mr. Nordyke in charge. Ben Turner, his assistant was on hand to help also. To Delbert Cheney goes the club's thanks for making the beautiful star atop the tree. Parkland - Brookdale Electric furnished all material for the 50-light string, at cost. Parkland merchants contributed 100% to the cause and $78 has been collected to date. The tree was erected Sunday and the erect and decorate it. Mr. Anights turned on. It was a day's job to cut the tree, bring it out of the woods, haul it to town, erect and decorate it. Mr. Andreasen was kind enough to donate the tree, a 40 foot beauty. Those turning out to help were: Forrest Leonard, Don Strandemo, Francis Nordyke, Ben Turner, Gene Pochel, Bob Ferguson, Mike Wutz and Jack Brown. The big truck and winch owned by the Home Gas Co. made an easy job of righting the tree.
The Christmas tree program, complete with Santa, songs by the Girl Scout troop, candy and toys for the children will be held Thursday evening, December 22. Bring the children one and all to meet Santa and receive their gift. Music and the speaker system will be furnished through the courtesy of Catron Radio & Television, so there's a real time in store for the kiddies.

STADIUM CAROLERS TO SING AT TACOMA USO CLUB
The Stadium High School Carolers will present a Christmas Concert at the Tacoma USO Club 13th Street and Fawcett Ave., on Sunday evening, December 18th, at seven o'clock, to which the general public and servicemen are invited. Among the choral numbers of the repertoire are:

"On This Christmas Morn"
"Virgin's Lullabye"
"White Christmas"
"Christmas Snows"
"O Holy Night"
"Winter Wonderland"
"O Babe Divine"
"Song of the Christmas Angels"
Members of the Stadium Carolers, both choristers and soloists, are the following: Betty Aigier, Elizabeth Alison, Rosemarie Bowe, Janet Christoferson, Frances Cochenette, Margaret Clinton, Joan Gunn, Gean Lowman, Pat McDonagh, Joanne Olson, Joanne Petrich, Anita Roberts, Nancy Rodman, Ann Sivertson, Nancy Wilhelmi; with Clayton Johnson, Director; and Carole Sahlin, accompanist.
A reception, with refreshments served by the Girls Service Organization and the Servicemen's Council, will conclude this Christmas Open House at the Tacoma USO Club.

6 "TON OF GOLD" CHAMPS
Butterfat Average Still Going Up
Six purebred cows in the herd of A. J. Regli, Green Valley Jersey Farm, Ferndale, California, have won the Ton of Gold certificate. In the first 4 years of H.F.R. testing, the butterfat herd average has increased from 525 pounds to 582 pounds . . . winning the Gold Star Herd award with a 4-year average of 548 pounds of fat. For the last full year of testing the herd average was up to 604 pounds of butterfat.
"Good cows, good management and good feed is standard practice at Green Valley," explains Mr. Regli. Constant testing and culling has built the Regli herd and by following the Larro Feeding plan, the cows get plenty of pasture and other roughage plus the full nutrient balance that Larro supplies to support their production.
The Larro program is easy, effective. Get the facts from us.
