

PARKLAND POST NO. 228
AMERICAN LEGION
Meetings every second and fourth
Friday at 8:00 p.m. in the Sunshine Hall

Saturday's work party in conjunction with the Parkland Community Club was very successful. Under the direction of Kenny Jacobs, about fifteen men, six of whom were from the American Legion, accomplished enough to prepare the grounds for seeding. It was a long day's work and all were ready for the sumptuous potluck dinner that was prepared by the wives of the working men. There was plenty of food and the appetites, which were whetted by the day's labor, did away with most of it. We enjoyed the day, had a lot of fun and made many new friends. Memorial Park is now taking on an appearance that befits the memory of the men that it honors.

Don't forget the Hallowe'en party tomorrow night. Everyone comes. That's an order. Everyone has fun. That's a fact. The more the merrier. Plenty to eat and the plans for the evening offer entertainment for young and old. There will be no business meeting tomorrow night, it's strictly a social affair and starts promptly at 8 o'clock. Remember, tomorrow night, Friday, October 22, the date to meet old friends and make new ones. Everyone comes dressed as someone or something else.

After much discussion regarding our new hall, plans are being formed under the skillful direction of Comrade Hart. All comrades who are willing to help on this building job are asked to call Comrade Hart at Granite 8172. "If," according to Commander Bailey, "two teams of stout-hearted men turn out for work our new hall will rise quickly."

First Week Chest Collections at 38% Local Quota

First week Community Chest collections in Parkland area accounted for 38 percent of this year's $1,300 quota, Mrs. E. O. Totten, general chairman, disclosed this week. Three sections of the area were not canvassed at all during that period, October 11 to October 17, she added. Mrs. Totten declared she hopes to have the drive completed in this area on the scheduled closing date, October 22, but her workers will carry on until everyone has been asked to donate.

The best way for residents to help the drive and the 35 welfare agencies which are its beneficiaries is to be at home with the welcome mat out when the Red Feather solicitor calls, she said.

LOCAL PARENT-TEACHER GROUPS PROVE WORTH OF ORGANIZATION

Accomplishments Reviewed During Natl. P-TA Week

National P-TA Week, October 17 to 23, fortunately coincides locally both with the speaking appearance in Parkland of State Superintendent of Public Instruction Pearl Wanamaker and with the first consolidated meeting of the four district Parent-Teacher groups in the newly-formed local consolidated school district.

The coincidence of the three important occasions in local P-TA affairs was pointed out this week by Mrs. W. W. Cline, president of the Parkland P-TA, which holds the honor of being the second-largest elementary school group in the state—a recognition earned last year which the group is striving to maintain this year.

Mrs. Cline outlined the share the local association has in being the unit through which the program of the national P-TA Congress is carried out—a program "dedicated wholly to the welfare and education of youth." District associations, she described, are organized in urban and rural communities to serve the needs of children of various age levels: Pre-school, elementary school, high school and college.

Review of the achievements of local P-TA and Pre-school organizations during recent years demonstrates just how active the groups have been and how well they have directed their efforts to the furtherance of the purposes of P-TA:

Parkland P-TA
Annually sponsors a Spring Fair and holds a Teachers' Reception in the fall.

1940-41—Purchased lunch room range, cooking utensils, silverware and dishes for school; 1941-42—loaned $200 to school lunch room for food purchases, bought more dishes, gave skating parties, entertained county P-TA Council; 1942-43—volunteered help for lunch room, bought more lunch room supplies, helped buy piano for school assembly hall, aided war activities; 1943-44—bought war bonds;

1944-45—Bought more war bonds, purchased 16 mm motion picture projector and screen for school use; 1945-46—paid for public address system and its installation throughout school (using savings of several years), had six years of National Geographic magazines bound in leather; 1946-47—organized room mothers, instituted annual Christmas tree for younger children, bought flower bowls;

1947-48—Purchased food mixer for school kitchen, donated $250 as co-sponsor in state recreation program for summer playground activities. During the past eight years, the group has won eight certificates of merit.

Parkland Pre-School

In January, 1946, secured establishments of kindergarten, assuming responsibility for rent and maintenance of quarters. The kindergarten was so successful that the next year it was taken over as part of the regular school.

In January, 1947, instituted Well Baby Clinics; 1947-48—made purchases of records and curtains and carried on other such projects for the kindergarten, began paying for major gym equipment for the kindergarten—this project being carried on at present.

P-TA Is to Hear Supt. Wanamaker At Meet Tonight

The four district Parent-Teachers groups within the recently consolidated local school district—Harvard-Midland, Collins, Central Avenue and Parkland—will hold their first joint meeting this evening (October 21) in the Parkland School Auditorium, when they will be addressed by State Superintendent of Public Instruction Pearl A. Wanamaker.

Parkland P-TA will be the host group, with eighth grade room mothers doing the honors. All four district presidents will preside. As it is expected that the full membership will wish to hear Supt. Wanamaker, arrangements have been made to provide baby sitters through the Parkland school. Sitters will be available only during the meeting tonight and only to allow parents to attend. Parents should call Granite 7235 to arrange for a sitter.

Cline Takes Over Helm of Parkland Community Club

Announcement by Ross H. Cory, president of the Parkland Community Club, that he has purchased a home at Browns Point and will move there shortly, as soon as he and Mrs. Cory have completed disposal of their home here, overshadowed scheduled business at last Thursday's regular monthly meeting of the club.

In the forced change of leadership, Vice-President W. W. Cline will succeed to the presidency relinquished by Cory. Mr. and Mrs. Cory have lived in Parkland for two years and the active part they have taken in community life is evidenced by his elevation to the presidency of the Community Club within that short time. Cory is associated with General Mills, in Tacoma.

Heading the regular program at Thursday evening's meeting in the Parkland school was Tacoma's Chief of Police Bob Marshall. Chief Marshall gained the sympathetic interest of the representative group present with his description of the "youth guidance" approach to the problem of combating juvenile delinquency now in use by his department. He favorably contrasted this educational program with old time billy club methods of handling straying youth. One apparently successful experiment he said has been worked into the program is the Junior Patrol active in Salishan area.

Entertainment features of the evening easily won the audience. The entertainers were baton-twirling little Miss Marvinee Cline, second prize winner in the recent Orthopedic Guild Benefit Talent Show, and Mrs. E. J. Perrault, Talent Show chairman, who presented some of her accomplished characterizations.

Business of the meeting included discussion of by-law changes, plans for dedication of Parkland's War Memorial, which took place last Sunday, and appointment of a committee to work with committees of other local organizations to obtain a supervised playground and park for Parkland.

Spanaway Post's Annual Jamboree

The third annual Jamboree of American Legion Post 118 will be held Friday, October 22, at 8 p.m. in the Spanaway school. The committees in charge of the affair have put in time and thought and assure everybody a pleasant evening. Everyone is welcome.

There will be booths to attract and entertain both young and old. Gift bar, snack bar, grab bag, etc., The Garden booth will offer favorite plants from the neighbors' gardens. The bakery booth will sell pies as good as mother made. You can get your "fortune" for a piece of silver and the Romany lady in charge promises that she knows "all the lines." Refreshments, in plenty, will be offered for sale by Mrs. Amy Warmold.

Some lucky folk are to receive some very exceptional prizes. Among these prizes is an elegant pop-up toaster presented by two local comrades, the O'Heane Brothers, who manage Texaco in Spanaway. Other prizes include two Firestone deluxe tires, a General Electric steam iron, hydraulic automobile jack, sheets and pillow cases, and an electric clock.

Talks Tonight!

State Superintendent of Public Instruction Pearl A. Wanamaker, who this evening (October 21) at the Parkland school, will address members of the Parkland P-TA on the subject: "Education, Paramount Duty of This State."

DEDICATION OF WAR MEMORIAL IS IMPRESSIVE

Sunny weather and the devoted efforts of a great number of Parkland residents were in cooperation to assure the success of last Sunday afternoon's dedication of Memorial Park, Parkland's War Memorial.

The dedication ceremony, witnessed by a fair crowd, was brief and impressive. The address of dedication by Tacoma Municipal Judge Frank Hale was well-timed, his remarks apt and very well received.

A four-man color guard and firing squad of eight Air Force men led by Lt. Edwin L. Rogers was present from McChord Field to add a significant military note to the ceremony. Other color guards attended from the local posts of American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Particularly impressive was the reading of the roll of honor by Ross H. Cory, retiring president of the Parkland Community Club. His pronouncement of the names of the heroes in tribute to whom the memorial is erected was punctuated by volleys of the military salute by the Air Force firing squad. The Community Club is the organization which sponsored the memorial and under the general chairmanship of Herbert Socolofsky successfully carried through the campaign culminating in Sunday's dedication.

Reading of the honor roll was followed by placing of a memorial wreath against the ornamental fountain which, together with two concrete-surfaced tennis courts, forms the War Memorial.

Sunday's ceremony was attended by parents of the fifteen fallen servicemen whose names are inscribed upon the plaque of bronze affixed to the masonry above the drinking fountain. The parents were guests of honor.

Other features of the dedication program were: An opening musical tribute by the Pacific Lutheran College Band, an invocation delivered by the Rev. George W. Cooper, pastor of Parkland Methodist Church, and address of welcome by Dean Philip E. Hauge of PLC, chairman of the dedication committee.

Since the memorial is considered to be a project in which every member of the community has had a part, no acknowledgments of individual effort were offered by the committee. However, Mrs. Ray Renwick, floral chairman, did give particular credit to Mrs. Stella Jacobs and the three local garden clubs for their work in decorating the memorial for dedication and providing corsages for the ladies among the guests of honor.

PARTY GIVEN FOR ELK PLAIN TEAM

Football players of the Elk Plain school were honor guests last Tuesday, October 12, at an entertainment given in the school lunch room by Mrs. T. Tibbets and Mrs. Ross Plumb. Hallowe'en colors carried out the theme. Games were played, with Coach Hubner the winner, then a delicious luncheon was served the boys.

Those attending were: Capt. Kenney Oliver, Dale Tibbets, Terry Plumb, Eddie Williams, Donald Goddard, Richard Field, Aldon Clark, Bobby Kuper, Tommy Aerial and Coach Hubner. Donald Bates and John Thatcher were unable to be present.

Packed Program For Homecoming Week End Ahead

Invitations have been sent out to over 1,000 alumni to attend the annual homecoming festivities at Pacific Lutheran College this coming week end.

The program will open Friday evening with a drama night in the Student Union. Three one-act plays will be presented by members of Alpha Psi and the Curtain Call Club. The coronation of Blanche Kilmer, West Linn, Oregon, junior, as queen of homecoming will be a feature of the drama night. Two princesses have been chosen to attend the queen. They are two seniors, Betty Reiman, Seattle; and Selma Gunderson, Poulsbo.

Concluding the evening's activities a pep rally and bonfire will be held under the auspices of the Pep Club. "Beat Eastern" will be the theme of the rally.

Saturday morning at 10:30 the annual parade will leave Parkland for downtown Tacoma. All organizations and clubs on the campus have been invited to enter floats in the parade. Prizes will be awarded to the two best floats.

In the afternoon society teas will be held in the Student Union. There will be open house in all campus buildings. Coaches Marv Tommervik and Marv Harshman will talk to the men alumni at a meeting in the Student Union recreation room at 3 p.m.

Saturday night at 8 in the Tacoma Stadium the Pacific Lutheran Gladiators will meet the Eastern Washington Savages in an important Evergreen Conference game. Both teams are undefeated and the winner may go on to win the championship.

Sunday morning the graduates will be guests at morning worship services in Trinity Lutheran church, Parkland. Dr. S. C. Eastvold, president of the college, will give the sermon, speaking on the theme, "Is the Lutheran Faith Enough?"

Park Campaign Gets Underway

A long range effort to secure a real park for Parkland, complete with recreation facilities for children and adults, has been launched with the cooperation of nearly all of Parkland's civic organizations.

Committees for joint action on the project have already been named by the Volunteer Fire Department, American Legion Post 228, Parkland Business Club and Parkland Community Club. Other groups are expected to join in the effort in the very near future. The committees are now acting separately and jointly outline a long term campaign and to divide responsibility.

Welcome Mat
A most cordially received addition to the ranks of local retail firms is the Parkland Shoe Store, which is scheduled to open in Parkland Centre in the near future. Owners of the new business are Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur F. Arnold and Mr. and Mrs. Byron H. Brolin, all Tacoma residents. Mrs. Brolin will be manager of the store. She is an experienced shoe salesman and the others members of the firm are not strangers to the business, though both Mr. Arnold and Mr. Brolin will carry on in other occupations. Brolin is connected with Harmon Manufacturing Co., prominent Tacoma furniture firm. Arnold is a teacher at Stewart Junior High School, in his third year there, and has recently begun teaching in the voice department at PLC. He also is choir director at Central Lutheran Church. The Arnolds have a seven-months-old son, Dennis, while daughter Gail, 8, completes the Brolin family. Arnold, originally from Fort Wayne, Indiana, served one and one-half years at Fort Lewis during the war. Mrs. Arnold is from Ohio. The Brolins also are from the Midwest, but have lived in Tacoma since 1940. The Parkland Shoe Store is being equipped to conform with modern trends in shoe retailing and is designed to be comfortable and attractive as well as convenient. Brands to be featured are: Poll Parrot Shoes—a full line—for boys and girls; Trim Tred ladies' casuals; Star Brand shoes for men; slippers and rubber footwear.

Set for opening in about two weeks is the Parkland Ice Creamery and Delicatessen, now being set up on Garfield street in the Jensen building. Owners are Mr. and Mrs. K. F. Skutley of Tacoma. They will operate the store at its opening, but contemplate putting in a partner-operator later. They now have a similar store at Fife. As soon as a large array of refrigeration equipment is hooked up, the business will open its doors, featuring its own make of ice cream—in 22 flavors. Soft drinks, fountain specials, dairy products and frozen foods will be stocked and another feature will be catering to parties.

New Owners
Mr. and Mrs. A. Edwin Bergstrom are new owners of the Bungalow Chevron Service Station and Store at Airport Road and Pacific Avenue. They are not new to this area, having lived at Burnell and Airport Road four years ago. Bergstrom, who operates the service station, formerly ran the Meteor Oil Co., at 11th and A streets. The grocery store and fountain is in charge of Mrs. Bergstrom. They have plans for future expansion. Former owners are Mr. and Mrs. Vern Campbell.

County Home Rule

In a previous issue appeared a story about a statewide Committee for County Home Rule, a group of forty-six prominent Washington citizens who are urging passage of the County Home Rule amendment to the state constitution.

The amendment they advocate would give the people of any county the right of Home Rule—that is, the right to write and adopt a county charter or "constitution" establishing a new form of government for their county.

This charter right has been enjoyed by all large cities in the state since 1889. There is no reason why counties should not have the same democratic privilege, particularly since home rule offers the only chance for effecting any basic improvement in county government in this state.

Counties are different. They have different problems. Some are big, some are small. There's King county with nearly three-quarters of a million people, most of them packed into an industrial metropolitan area. Then there's Ferry county, with only 4,200 citizens scattered over a rural setting. It's ridiculous to try to operate two such different counties with the same form of government.

Yet that is precisely the situation for Washington counties under present restrictions in the state constitution. The result has been stagnation in our county government for sixty years.

We have an opportunity to correct this next November 2. That opportunity lies in the County Home Rule amendment, Senate Joint Resolution No. 5.

There is nothing compulsory about County Home Rule. No county needs to write a charter unless it wants to.

County Home Rule offers a freedom long needed by Washington counties. It would strengthen local government and be a step away from the unfortunate trend toward dumping local problems on centralized state and federal governments.

Every voter, when he goes to the polls next month, should carefully consider Senate Joint Resolution No. 5, the County Home Rule amendment.

Dear Editor...

To the Editor:

Taxpayers of Fire Protection District No. 7 are probably wondering what has happened concerning the building of fire-houses at Spanaway and Elk Plain.

The contracts for the construction of these buildings were let, but a small group within the Fire Department has endeavored to stop construction of them, for what no one seems to know. In fact, one fireman, intimidated a contractor and went so far as to threaten to tear down his work if he started construction. As a result, he has declined to carry out his contract.

There should be no place in the Fire Department for such an individual. This type of person is a definite detriment to community progress and should be eliminated from the Fire Department.

During the freezing months of this winter it will be necessary to find adequate housing facilities for the 2,000 gallon tanker, or drain it, thus taking it out of fire service and depriving the taxpayers of that fire protection.

How long are the taxpayers of the Fire District going to stand by, believing the vicious propaganda that is being so promiscuously spread among them? Or, are they going to get behind their duly-elected servants, the commissioners, and give them the support that they justly deserve?

(Signed) D. C. W.

Opening of Christensen's Service, new Shell station here, last Friday and Saturday was accounted a great success. Customers arrived from near and far and more than 1,500 gallons of gasoline was pumped Friday night. Nearly as large a throng was on hand Saturday night for the award of prizes to lucky gas purchasers. The first prize bicycle went to Bill Stilke. Second and third prizes (lubrication jobs) are as yet unclaimed, as are three of the eight handy lighter-lights. The other lights were awarded to Eddie Sawyer, Rudy Johnson, Andy Christensen, Mr. Ray Corbin and Ray Mann. Owner Bob Hansler and station operator Roy Christensen are well pleased with the reception accorded their modern new station.

FOR GOOD GOVERNMENT YOUR CHOICE IS LANGLEIE

Arthur Langlie has demonstrated his ability to make government WORK in the interests of the people as a whole. He has demonstrated his ability to give government efficiency and economy. He has proven his leadership by giving our State the most constructive administration in its history. Throughout the State of Washington, determined citizens are demanding a return to the principles of good government. Join with Arthur Langlie in building a new record of accomplishment.

RETURN LANGLEIE as GOVERNOR

1 1/2 Billion Dollar Road Block!

RAILROADS MUST OPERATE around the clock every day and night of the year.

Although they know this, leaders of 16 railroad unions are demanding a five-day, Monday through Friday, week for one million railroad employees.

They want 48 hours pay for 40 hours work—in itself a 20% wage increase.

They also demand a minimum of 12 hours pay for any work performed on Saturdays, and 16 hours pay for any work performed on Sundays and holidays.

On top of all this they want an additional increase of 25¢ an hour for every employee!

You'd Pay the Bill!

Summing up these demands, they mean that these union leaders seek to force the railroads to give one million employees an annual raise which would average $1500 per employee!

The total cost of this would be no less than 1 1/2 billion dollars per year, which is more than twice the expected net income of the railroads this year.

You'd pay the bill, because if these increased costs are forced on the railroads, they must have still further rate and fare increases.

Demands Unreasonable

These employees have had substantial raises during and since the war. Their average weekly earnings are higher than the average weekly earnings of workers in manufacturing industries. They have more job security than the average worker in American industry. They also enjoy paid vacations, a retirement system and other advantages more generous than the average worker receives.

In contrast with the demands of these 16 unions, which add up to the equivalent of 48c an hour, the Conductors and Trainmen recently settled their wage request for an increase of 10c an hour.

Railroads Run for Everybody—Not Employees Alone

The railroad industry must serve not one but many groups—producers, businessmen, shippers, passengers and the general public—night and day, every day of the year. These unions are proceeding in utter disregard of this important difference between railroads and other industries. Industrial plants can be shut down over weekends and holidays, but freight, mail, express and passengers must continue to move. Everybody who enters railroad employment knows this.

Strike Threat

On September 18, 1948, the leaders of these 16 unions began taking a strike vote. But the threat of a strike will not alter the opposition of the railroads to such unreasonable demands!

IT'S FIRE PREVENTION WEEK WITH TRIMMINGS FOR ELK PLAIN PUPILS
In keeping with National Fire Prevention Week, students of Elk Plain grade school experienced a very realistic fire drill, Thursday, October 7. After a carefully arranged smudge had been made near the chimney, alarm was given and the children, believing a fire really existed, went into action. Mr. Hubner, principal of the school, is to be complimented on the efficient manner in which the buildings were evacuated.
The Spanaway-Elk Plain Fire Department very generously cooperated in this project, bringing the fire truck to the school grounds and extinguishing the "fire."
Chief George Dorfner explained the functioning of the fire truck to the children and the firemen who were present demonstrated the fire-fighting equipment. After the other students had resumed their regular work, the pupils of the first and second grades were privileged to examine the truck more carefully.
The demonstration put on by the fire-fighters, who so generously gave their time to make this part of the program a success, was greatly appreciated by students and faculty alike. Participating firemen were: Dorfner, Ben Kuper, John Ockfen, Mr. Plamer and Sidney Bennett.
Spanaway School divided honors against Central Avenue last Friday (October 8). Spanaway boys took a 6 to 0 decision at football, while the Spanaway girls volleyball team dropped its contest, 2 to 1.
