"The Store That Has It"

Have you visited Alder Dam? Here is one of the finest engineered structures in the state and a short distance from our own homes. People in the East drive hundreds, even thousands of miles to see something like this. We who live in this wonderful state take them for granted.

Midland Food Center To Celebrate 2nd Anniversary

Friday and Saturday, Sept. 9th and 10th will see much activity at the Midland Food Center during their gala anniversary event. Many free samples will be served. Free ice cream for everyone, coffee if you need a quick pick-up, cake and punch also. One of the main events of interest will be a game called "Spot" which will be played. There will be a number of spots painted on the floor throughout the store. When the M. C. calls spot on the loud speaker system, everyone will try to get on a spot. Each spot will have a number. Numbers will be drawn and the person standing on the spot corresponding with the number drawn will win a prize. The Crosley Master Showman television set that the Parkland Business Club will award soon will also be on display.
