Knorr-Daniels Rites in Charming Setting

Luther Memorial Lutheran church was the scene of a charming candle-light wedding Saturday evening, Aug. 23, when Miss Ann Irene Knorr became the bride of Allen Daniels. Parents of the two are Dr. and Mrs. Erich C. Knorr and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Daniels. Dr. Knorr read the impressive double ring service in a lovely setting of white gladioli and stock, ivy and ferns.

Given in marriage by her brother, Robert C. Knorr, the pretty bride was gowned in Chantilly lace over satin with long train and finger-tip veil. Miss Rosealma Stutzman of Seattle was maid of honor and Mrs. Robert Carl Knorr matron of honor. Other attendants were Miss Stacia McKendry, Mrs. Harold Schrupp, Mrs. Richards Daniels and Miss Marilyn Schwinn.

Richard Daniels acted as best man for his brother. Ushers were Richard Hawley, Edward Bond, Walter Johnson, Donald Leonard and Gerald Roth. Mrs. Burt Raymond was the soloist, with Mrs. Robert Dightman at the organ.

The reception was held in the Student Union building at Pacific Lutheran college where Mesdames F. W. Young, Anna Reiman, Walter Daniels, Stanley Willis, Jesse P. Pflueger and Lorne McKendry acted as hostesses, assisted by many young friends of the bride.

The new Mrs. Daniels graduated from Clover Park high school and attended PLC for two years. Her husband is a graduate of Lincoln high school and Washington State College. After a honeymoon trip to Canada, the couple will welcome friends at their home in Tacoma.

Much delightful entertaining for the bride marked the weeks preceding her marriage. Social affairs in her honor were given by Miss Stacia McKendry at her Lake Steilacoom home. Mrs. O. L. Roeder at her home at Northgate in Seattle, Miss Marilyn Pflueger at her Parkland home and Mrs. Rosealma Stutzman at her home in Seattle. Dr. and Mrs. J. P. Pflueger gave a garden party in Parkland and Dr. and Mrs. Knorr entertained the bridal party at their Parkland home.

MASS MEETING CALLED TO PLAN POLICE PROTECTION

A special meeting was held at Parkland last week to discuss ways and means of securing adequate police protection for the Parkland-Spanaway area. At present the section is served by a privately operated patrol service in addition to coverage by the county sheriff's office. The meeting opened with a question from Walter Young addressed to County Commissioner Harry Sprinker: "Can we have a deputy stationed in our district full time?"

Sheriff Harold Bird explained the present situation. In his campaign two years ago he had promised better service to this district and states that he has made a study of the area and has a map with all crimes pinpointed. There are 40 people in the sheriff's office, with 1700 square miles to protect with four cars. The tasks of these few patrol cars are too numerous to mention. Bird stated that the county commissioners have been very cooperative and have given him six extra men since he went into office. Orting, Gig Harbor, Buckley and Eatonville have police cars that work very closely with the sheriff's office.

Mileage on cars is five times what it was under the former administration. Bird showed that he needs more men but additional funds are not available now. He has asked for three inside jailers. His men now average 60 hours per week, with no overtime pay.

Sheriff Bird claims that the service is better than ever before and says that Pierce is a clean county with no gambling, slot machines or vice, with no law infractions tolerated. He says he is trying to do a decent job and has no apologies to make. He believes that his office is doing the best job possible under present circumstances. He works close with the military.

Bird has a fine recommendation for C. K. "Red" Hancy, merchant patrolman of the area, who helps the department in many ways but cannot be subsidized by the county because of lack of funds. He recognizes Hancy as an outstanding man in his field. Private subscriptions to Hancy's service are not sufficient to maintain it further.

It was pointed out that the population of Pierce County has increased 55% in 10 years and that assessed valuations has shown a sharp increase only within the past year. The county budget will not permit any added police protection this year, however.

Attending were Sheriff Bird, E. M. Krumm, Commissioner Harry Sprinker, Bill Black, Jack Neeley, Roger McDonald, Francis Nordyke, George Brewer, Ken Jacobs, George King, Mr. Modahl, Wes McKewen, Bill Rightti, Del Totten, Red Hancy, Mr. Curtis, Jack Brown and Jim Loring.

It was suggested that the desired improvement in local protection might best be attained through the cooperation of the various business, community and service clubs of the area. The business and community clubs of Spanaway and Parkland were well represented at this first meeting and will be prominent in a second session, called for Thursday, Sept. 11, the place to be announced. All other clubs of the area are asked to send representatives and the general public is asked to attend and assist in solving this problem of urgent importance in the district.

Parkland Preschool

The first fall meeting of the Parkland Preschool will be held Tuesday evening, Sept. 8, at 8:00 o'clock in the auditorium of the Parkland school, it has been announced by Mrs. Edward Perryman, president. The program chairman, Mrs. Fred Bartlett, has as her first speaker of the year Miss Frances Seacore, kindergarten teacher, who will give a report on the activities of the kindergarten children. Several members of Preschool will also give short talks that will be of great interest to new and old members.

A special invitation is extended to any new families that have moved to this district recently and it is emphasized that Preschool meetings are for the mothers and fathers of all children up to and including kindergarten age.

Lacamas Fair

The Lacamas community is holding its 17th annual fair Saturday, Sept. 6. An interesting program is planned for the whole family during the day; no admission charge. There will also be a very interesting program in the evening, starting at 8:00 o'clock.

QUOTABLE QUIP
An East German official showed a visitor around his office. Seeing an instrument that looked like a telephone but had no mouthpiece, the visitor asked in surprise, "How can you talk into that?" "I don't have to," the official explained. "It's my direct line to Moscow. All I do is listen."

The hired girl at the summer camp had been sent to the brook to fetch a pail of water, but stood gazing at the flowing stream, apparently lost in thought.
"What's she waiting for?" asked her mistress.
"Dunno," wearily replied her husband. "Perhaps she hasn't seen a pail-full she liked yet."

The man says he's read so much about the bad effects of smoking he's decided to give up reading.

MOSTLY ABOUT HORSES

Northwest Hitching Post, your newly published horse magazine for Northwest Horsemen... we hope you will like the show and the many fine events which have been designed for your pleasure and the better enjoyment of your sport of riding. We will do everything we can to make the show an event which you will enjoy. A lot of our good friends are working hard with us to give you the best possible.

Del Wright has been very cooperative in permitting the use of his arena and facilities for which we are very grateful.

See you all this Sunday at the Bar-None Race Track at South 84th and Pine... The show starts at nine o'clock promptly... Grand entry.

Bring your gaited horse... we have a class designed for it... a pleasure class with any natural gait of the horse permitted.

The Alton Boys are a'ropin'

One of the finest arenas in the entire area is right out at the Firs where Loyde and Speck Alton are spending a lot of time roping calves in their newly organized calf roping club which is drawing the interest of quite a few of the local ropers... the boys have done a fine job of erecting a full sized arena... they are planning on lights for the winter months. Neither of the brothers are a slouch when it comes to welding that loop of theirs either... they both enjoy top billing in any arena...

SAFE DRIVERS—Safe driving awards were earned by eight drivers of the 567th Motor Vehicle Squadron. Here are four of the men who earned the award for operating an Air Force vehicle over two years without an accident. They are: (from left) A/2c Walter C. Gross, S/Sgt. Carl Bratton Jr., S/Sgt. James W. McElroy and S/Sgt. Robert K. Estep. The others were not present for the picture.

Safe Driving Awards Given To 8 MVS Men

Eight drivers of the 567th Motor Vehicle Squadron received safe driving awards last week, earned by operating Air Force vehicles over the two years without an accident.

Actually, to get this award a driver must have driven 5000 miles without an accident of which the eight men more than accomplished.

The eight men receiving the commendation were: S/Sgt. Robert K. Estep, S/Sgt. James W. McElroy, S/Sgt. Carl Bratton, Jr., A/2c Walter C. Gross, A/1c Remmer Barnes, A/2c Arlyn F. Wolanski, and two civilian drivers, Lloyd Lawrence and Ray E. Cross.

Colonel William L. Turner, base commander, said that these men have set a fine example, directly or indirectly saving the Air Force many thousands of dollars through their safe driving habits.

WALLER ROAD

By MRS. VERNE FOGLE
GR. 5210

Waller Road residents are reminded to come out and vote Sept. 9. As we are consolidated with the Puyallup school district, it is our duty to do so. The school district is requesting five mills for school transportation. Looking back to last year, we will remember the "no bus" situation to get the children to and from school. This is your chance to help supply Puyallup with their own school buses. If your name was on the petition, let it also be a vote. The school district also requests 12 mills for the building fund, another situation that needs your vote.

Visiting
Many Woodland people will recall the Robert Lasher family who were so active in community affairs here prior to moving to Oregon. While visiting relatives in the Brown's Point district recently they also contacted several friends and neighbors in this area. Mr. Lasher was treasurer of the Youth Council and Grace was very active in Preschool work.

Health Improved
Word has been received from Jess and Nila Gray that Arizona climate has been very beneficial to Mr. Gray's health and they are buying a home at Phoenix and will remain. Until June they lived on the corner of Airport and Woodland roads.

To Wenatchee
Julia Ann Williams left Thursday for Wenatchee where she will make her home this winter and teach in the junior high school at East Wenatchee. She graduated Aug. 13 from Central Washington College of Education at Ellensburg where she received her B. A. in education.

Mrs. Louise Smyth Passes
Mrs. Louise Smyth, 80 years old, passed away at her home Saturday after a long illness. She was the mother of Mrs. Dan Anderson, grandmother of Mrs. Karl Cordes and great-grandmother of Coral, Danny and Christy Cordes. She is also survived by two sons, Earl Bradley of Portland and A. A. Bradley of Tacoma; a daughter, Mrs. Grace Temple of Seattle, and a sister, Mrs. Sadie Barber of Olympia, 11 grandchildren and 14 great-grandchildren. She was affectionately known as "Dearie" to her family and many friends here. We wish to express our sympathy to Mrs. Anderson and the Cordes family.

Little Michael Bartolatz celebrated his third birthday Aug. 27, with his family. He, his brother, Ricky and his mother all had the measles. Better luck next year, Mike. Let's have that party planned then.

When a woman puts her arm out the car window to signal, the only thing you're sure of is that the window is open.

Quotable Quip

The Soviets may claim to have invented the automobile, but they are too much to the left to claim the line down the middle of the road.

He had choked her. She was dead. There was no question about it. He had listened to her dying gasp. Now she was dead, cold as the hand of death. Yet in his anger he was not convinced. Furious still, he kicked her again. To his amazement she gasped, coughed, then began to hum softly. "Just a little patience is all it takes, John," said his wife from the back seat.

"That girl you were out with last night was sure ugly, wasn't she?"

"Ugly? Man, when a snake gets drunk, he sees her."

Americans Are Rolling Up Their Sleeves!

Armed Forces Blood Donor Program
CALL YOUR RED CROSS TODAY

Career girls and carpenters . . . truck drivers and teachers . . . bankers and bakers and pretty homemakers—everybody with a conscience is rolling up his and her sleeves to help meet the crisis of a depleted blood reserve.
Your Armed Forces are short 300,000 pints of desperately needed blood this month. Men, your men, on "Heartbreak Ridge" have been hit. Tomorrow it may be at some other place with a strange name. And maybe the blood won't be there. And the fighting man who might die . . . will die.
Your Defense Department and your Red

Cross have reminded you that blood is needed. Let a bomb be dropped near us and you might need it. Secretary of Defense Lovett says the situation is perilous. Our top military men in Korea say it's perilous. Our local defense organizations plead with us to wake up!
Why not join the thousands of Americans who are giving blood, giving it regularly, cheerfully! It isn't painful. Trained personnel make it easy and even pleasant.
So roll up your sleeve . . . Your Armed Forces need your blood. How about making an appointment . . . today!

Shaking Hands

with Don Eastvold

This issue of the Times-Journal being the last publication prior to the primary elections, I am going to do what no politician should do, try to predict the outcome of the elections on both the Republican and Democratic tickets.

These predictions are based solely upon the political sentiment which has been evidenced in the many counties we have visited during the course of this campaign.

29TH DISTRICT
Republican

FRANK JOHNSON
Republican
Candidate for the Legislature
25th District

Resident of Pierce County 23 years; member Midland Improvement club and Midland Fire District; also member Pierce County Fire District Commissioners Association.

FAVORS
Better schools; better fire protection; old age pensions; change in Industrial Insurance and ADC laws raising payments to meet cost of living.

Starting with the Democrats and their toughest contest to predict, I should say that Charles Hodde should run strong on the east side of the Mountains, Al Rosellini is coming up fast because of his large expenditures of funds, but the consensus of opinion around the state is that Mitchell is out in front now and will still be there after the primaries on Sept. 9.

The race for Congressman-at-large on the Democratic ticket is confused and none of the seven aspirants stands out as a favorite. I predict it will be a toss-up between John McGutcheon of Tacoma and Nat Washington of Ephrata with a nod going to Nat Washington.

The most bitter campaign on either ticket has been the Democratic contest for Lt. Governor. Art Paulson of Tacoma has asserted that he feels his Democratic opponent, Vic Meyers, is incompetent and not qualified to serve another term as Lt. Governor. Starting late, Paulson has made tremendous inroads into the conceded victory of the incumbent. It is reasonably apparent that Vic Meyers will once again be the Democratic nominee for Lt. Governor.

It is relatively easy to predict the remaining winners on the Democratic ticket. For U. S. Senator, Henry Jackson for Secretary of State, Earl Goe for Insurance Commissioner, Billy Sullivan for Auditor, Cliff Vales for Attorney General, Smith Troy for Commissioner of Public Lands, Jack Taylor; and for State Treasurer, Phil Gallagher.

Governor Langlie has only taken position in the Republican Primary race for Governor. The consensus of opinion around the state is that Governor Langlie is stronger today than he was four years ago and I frankly think he will run ahead of the ticket. Harry Cain has only token opposition and should easily win the Republican nomination but he does have a tremendous struggle facing him in the final election.

On the Republican ticket there are two major Primary contests, one for Lt. Governor and one for Congressman-at-large. The Lt. Governor race looks close, with Perry Woodall out in front. For Congressman-at-large the Republican nominee should be Janet Tourtelotte. The race for the Republican nomination for Commissioner of Public Lands looks interesting and should be relatively close. Name familiarity should help Otto Case but his age will be against him and Johnny Robertson should win. Floyd Oles should easily defeat Thor Romstad for State Auditor; Audley Mahaffey should defeat State Senator Barney Dahl for Secretary of State. It will be nip-and-tuck between Willard Rouse and Charles Maybury for State Treasurer but it looks to me as though Rouse is out in front at this time.

Fred Becker for Insurance Commissioner and Yours Truly, Don Eastvold for Attorney General are sure winners inasmuch as they have no opposition in the primaries. The big non-partisan race for Superintendent of Public Instruction looks as though Pearl Wanamaker will win re-election in the primaries although it could be close.

I hasten to add that the above predictions are based solely on observations we have drawn in our contacts around the state. I have attempted to be objective and in no manner do these predictions indicate personal feelings or opinions.

I have appreciated using the columns of the Times-Journal to bring you the human interest side of a political campaign from a candidate's vantage point. After a two week's vacation following the primary elections, I will be back with you in this column for the weeks preceding the general election.

Jessie Kimball States Platform

Reading time for this is less than three minutes . . . it will be worth it. Dear Voter:

My name is Jessie Kimball and I am here to tell you that a woman's place is in the House of Representatives. I am one of the 137 persons who are seeking political office. As an alert voter, I assume you have studied all of the platforms and are ready to cast your ballot for the right person. Apparently many of these platforms have been purchased as surplus from acrobats.

There is the candidate who is cutting taxes with one hand and is raising pension payments with the other hand. His feat is almost as amazing as the candidate who is against unnecessary spending and immediately votes himself a raise in pay. I have yet to find the person who will come out in favor of unnecessary spending.

As candidate for representative of the 29th District on the Democratic ticket, I have been asked to look out for the interests of certain groups, but nobody has come to me and asked that I look out for the welfare of the people as a whole. Unless I can find a more representative group, I will devote my time to that very special group—the people.

I will show a keen interest in the lobbyists. I will be so interested in them that I will ask for legislation which will make them register and be fingerprinted. I will want to know how much they are making and who is footing the bill for them.

NEW MESS HALL—The 1905th AACSS Squadron moved to a new area last week. Here airmen of the 200 area dine in the squadron's new mess hall established for feeding men residing in that area. Approximately 150 men at each meal. Gaining control of a mess hall will facilitate AACSS operations and personnel due to the many shifts involved in communication duties.

1905th AACSS Sq. Changes Location

The 1905th AACSS Squadron last week moved en masse to the McChord 200 area where it has been provided with complete facilities for administration, barracks and mess.

Also located in the area will be the 560th Band Unit. AACSS will be responsible for the area and Lt. Col. Joseph E. Scoggins, Commanding Officer of the 1905th AACSS Squadron, has gone to great lengths to provide suitable quarters and messing facilities for all personnel.

The entire installation was operational as of late last week. The Airmen were given a preview of things to come by being treated to a breakfast at the Waldorf as the first meal in their new Mess Hall. Gaining control of a mess hall will facilitate AACSS operations and personnel due to the many shift duties involved in communication operations.

The efforts of the Mess personnel are under the hands of T/Sgt. Delmar Massey and his assistant T/Sgt. F. Johnson. The 560th Band Group has volunteered to give out with a little dinner music when it is not traveling.

The new day room will be complete with television and as many facilities as possible are being offered to the airmen.

Sarge Takes Over On First Jet Hop

Korea—A U. S. Air Force master sergeant on his first jet plane ride recently found himself piloting the craft after the engine failed and the pilot blacked out.

M/Sgt. Charles E. Hilt of Parker, Fla., had hitch-hiked a ride from Korea to Japan in a T-33 jet training craft flown by Lt. Robert W. MacDuff of Avenell, N. J.

Lt. MacDuff blacked out from oxygen starvation at 37,000 feet while the plane was traveling at 500 mph. Sgt. Hilt maintained control even after the jet engine quit.

At 13,000 feet, Lt. MacDuff came to, but Sgt. Hilt had to read the instruments for him because the black-out had blurred the lieutenant's vision.

The pilot took over and got the engine started again at 6,000 feet. Then he called a radio direction-finding station to steer him to the nearest base.

CAP Cadets End Encampment Here With Review, Graduation

Nearly 150 Civil Air Patrol Cadets attending a two-week encampment here, completed their training today with a review and graduation exercises.

The review began at 9 a.m., followed by the graduation ceremonies in the Base theater. Parents of the cadets were invited to attend the exercises.

The outstanding boy and girl cadet each received a special award. Each cadet received a certificate of graduation from the encampment. Other award presentations made were: Outstanding squadron, outstanding USAF instructor from McChord (special award, compliments of CAP Washington Wing Commander).

During the encampment the Cadets completed 80 hours training in all phases of USAF operation. Also cadets were given rides in a C-124 aircraft. Six cadets were given rides in jet aircraft as a special achievement award.

Included in their activities of the two-week encampment were a swimming party at Madigan, picnic at Spanaway Park with parents, special church services for cadets, cadet Olympic games and a cadet dance at the Service Club.

Portions of the encampment were filmed to be compiled with other activity shots for future television production.

Fourteen communities were represented in the encampment, including Wala Wala, Seattle, Tacoma, Olympia and Spokane.

its performance in air rescue missions. The Civil Air Patrol is noted for Over 70 percent of all searches in continental United States are performed by CAP members flying USAF on-loan aircraft or privately owned planes under the direction of Air Rescue, officials said.

All of the Cadets and Senior Members attending the encampment here are of the Washington State Wing.

Ramps Off-Limits
Several newsboys have been seen wandering about the warming apron, it was learned this week, and after being warned repeatedly to stay out of this dangerous area have disregarded warnings and are still wandering about the ramp area.
Children are not permitted on ramps adjacent to hangars 1, 2, 3 and 4. Parents of violators will be held responsible.

Air Force Spells Out Policy On Promotion of Its Officers

WASHINGTON—As a follow-up to the recent message sent to the field by Lt. Gen. Laurence S. Kuter, Deputy Chief of Staff for Personnel, regarding officer promotions, the Air Force has issued another announcement explaining the situation further.

At present the Air Force can only promote officers to fill vacancies as they occur and as legislative restrictions permit, the announcement explained. Plans call for the conveying of selection boards this fall to establish "recommended lists."

The number of officers on these lists, however, will be based on anticipated relief legislation rather than present limitations. Relief legislation the announcement indicated "may be enacted in the second half of the fiscal year."

Promotions from permanent colonel to temporary brigadier general are pending, however, because promotion vacancies in the upper grades must be filled if overages are to be avoided and vacancies are to be created in the lower grades.

Although the officer strength has increased in proportion to the expansion of the Air Force, the announcement reiterated, the number of general officers has been limited to a strength related to a 68-wing Air Force. With the development of the 143-wing program, Congress has relaxed this limitation.

The promotions will bring the Air Force closer to its requirement and provide additional promotion vacancies in the grade of captain through colonel.

Masters Report Tells Success Of County's Family Court

Working on the principle that families contemplating divorce are "sick" and need the advice of a marriage "doctor" just as the sick person needs the help of a physician, the Pierce County Family Court reported this week that it has helped prevent separations in 305 of the 721 actions filed in the past three years.

Family Court Commissioner Arlie G. Masters indicated that in the remaining 391 cases either divorce or separation followed the consultation between himself and the divorcing parties or the court has been unable to again contact the parties.

Success of the court, established under a state law passed in 1949, has been shown in the saving of an estimated $30,000 a month by eliminating the need for welfare in the homes it helped keep together.

Provisions for the court were made after the state legislature changed the non-support law to make fathers support their families or face felony charges, which could bring a prison sentence of as much as 20 years.

The divorce rate for the state at that time had jumped from one case for every 30 marriages to one for every three marriages, with 1180 divorces to 3160 marriages.

The cases are heard in conference form, with the object not being to determine if drinking, gambling, in-laws or another man or woman is the cause, but to determine the reason why the husband or wife drinks, abuses or chases around.

The court then tries to help the parties eliminate the causes and start the family back toward a normal marriage partnership.

Many Helpful in Bad Night Fire

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford McGee of Rt. 1, Spanaway, have asked the Times-Journal to carry their message of thanks to the many who assisted them Tuesday night Aug. 26, when fire completely destroyed their property. For three years they had been remodeling and rebuilding the old Kirby school and had furnished it, expecting to operate a nursing home. There were only two patients in the home at the time of the fire. Defective wiring in the attic is blamed for the blaze. Insurance will cover only part of the loss.

Special thanks go to the Elk Plain and Spanaway volunteer fire departments and the men from the forestry division at Kapowsin, as well as scores of neighbors who helped in every way and will assist in rebuilding the property.

CANYON ROAD

Mrs. Ed Hoffman was hostess Aug. 24 at a family birthday dinner at her home on East 72nd street in honor of Mr. Hoffman's birthday. Guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hoffman, Ray Hoffman Louis Hoffman, Jr., all of Summit; Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hoffman, of Tacoma; Mrs. LeRoy Bush and children, of Tacoma, Miss Ruth Baker, of Enumclaw; Mrs. Ray Lester, Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Minchew and children, Larry, Kathy and Jimmy Hoffman, and the Hoffmans.

Pearl A. Wanamaker, state superintendent of public instruction since 1941, is seeking reelection to this non-partisan office in the coming primaries on September 9.

During three terms in that position Mrs. Wanamaker has gained national and international recognition both for herself and the State of Washington by her aggressive leadership in the field of education. As president of the state board of education, executive officer of the state board for vocational education, and chairman of the state library commission, she has vigorously fought for better schools and has focused national attention on Washington's educational system.

In recognition for her work she was elected president of the National Education Association in 1946-47; president of the National Council of Chief State School Officers in 1950-51, and is currently vice-president of the American Association of School Administrators. She served on General MacArthur's commission for the democratization of Japan's educational system following the war; is now on the joint Canada-United States committee on education and the United States national commission for UNESCO. In 1946 she was adviser to the United States delegation at the first UNESCO conference in Paris.

A graduate of the University of Washington, Mrs. Wanamaker taught both elementary and high school classes. In 1923 she was elected county superintendent of schools in Island county being, at the time of her election, the youngest county superintendent in the country. Later she served several terms as state representative and state senator where she spearheaded school legislation. The Showalter Bill, providing basic state support to school districts on a per-pupil attendance basis, and the Yantis-Wanamaker Equalization Law, the greatest single step toward providing equal educational opportunity for every child no matter where he might live, were two of her major legislative accomplishments which since have become standard procedure for school support in many other states.

Because of her outstanding work for the youth of the state she was urged to file for the office of State Superintendent in 1940, was elected then and reelected in 1944 and 1948 by overwhelming majorities.

Mrs. Wanamaker sums up her reasons for her avid interest in education very directly by saying, "I believe that I can best serve my State by serving its children."
