Bus Service For Parkland ON D. EASTVOLD; And Spanaway Loop Areas

The B-Line Transit Co., formed by Bill Black and Jack Brown, local Parkland businessmen, announced that it will begin a bus service Monday, July 21, to serve Parkland, west of Pacific avenue, and the Spanaway Loop area.

The new service will be a shuttle service with routes from 4th and Pacific in Spanaway, around the loop, districts.

They will operate 19 round trip routes daily, with five round trips on the Spanaway Loop road. This new service will enable residents of the area to ride direct to the Parkland post office, Parkland bank, 96th and Pacific and to Spanaway At present. to one mile or more from existing bus

Buses will connect with the Tacoma Transit lines at 96th & Pacific and at the Parkland post office. Mc-Chord Field workers will be able to ride to McChord from any place in the area as the new service will also connect with the Tacoma Suburban lines on Sales road. The new company has obtained two large modern buses to serve the public. White uniforms have been selected for summer wear. Time-tables are being printed and will be distributed from the buses and through local stores, a copy appearing elsewhere in this paper.

Local merchants, seeing the opportunity for an excellent advertising medium and willing to cooperate with the new company wholeheartedly, have contracted for advertising space in the buses

Mr. Black came to Parkland in early 1950 and has since operated the Parkland Grill and the Garfield Street TV. Mr. Brown first made his home in Parkland in 1947, at that time purwhich appeared in the Sunday Ore-gonian and many other papers. "State Senator Donald W. Eastvold of Wash.," chasing the Parkland Cycle Shop, later establishing the Mt. Hiway Ski Lodge and Northwest Armored Car service with Mr. Owen. In 1949 he entered the printing and publishing business and is today co-owner of LaCrosse Printers and the Times-Journal with Clarence LaCrosse.

Both of the Navy veterans came to realize the great need for additional bus service in this area and decided to do something about it. Thus the B-Line Transit Co. was born.

The new company has filed with the State Department of Public Service for a permanent franchise. The date for the hearing has not been set. With the support of the various clubs, schools and residents of the area there seems to be little doubt in loca ninds that the department will ac favorably on the application. Public acceptance of the service will undoubtedly be the deciding factor in the life of the B-Line Transit Co. The Tacoma Suburban Lines and the Tacoma Transit Co., whose lines manager for the Tacoma Chamber of Commerce, has offered full support of the Chamber. Many prominet people of Parkland, Spanaway and Tacoma have filed letters with the Washington Department Transportation urging that the B-Line Bus company be given a fran-chise. Most of these letters reflect the opinion of service clubs and other organizations of the community.

E. M. Krumm, president of the Parkland Community club, said, in part: "Our population has grown in recent years to the extent that we feel we are ready forthe service such as these men are offering." Speaking for the Kiwanis club of the Parkland area, Morris Ford, president, states as follows: "Many of our people find it very difficult to carry on business in our area because of distances involved. The proposed line would allow people to shop during midday hours instead of waiting for the famiy car to come home at 5 o'clock or later."

As superintendent of the big Frank lin Pierce school district Mr. Ford i especially pleased at the prospect of the new bus service. He says: "There is at present no transportation for children to the west of the Parkland school. Many smaller children would use the service for safety Jack Quill, Parkland postmaster, is in a position to evaluate the needs of the district probably more accurately than any other one person. He de-"I feel well qualified to pass on the merits of this application, both from my knowledge of the utter lack of adequate transportation facilities in this area and my affiliation with the North Coast Transportation Co., a major transportation system in the Pacific Northwest, now the Northwest Greyhound Lines, I served as superintendent of transportation from 1927 to 1942, with direct supervision of service between Seattle and Portland, with headquarters at Tacoma.'

There will be a capable woman in charge of the children for the bus ride and at the lake.

The only charge will be 10 cents for the round trip. As many mothers are afraid to have their small children cross Pacific avenue alone, children living east of Pa-cific will gather in the parking lot by the Parkland theater and will be escorted across the busy thoroughfare.

The supervised baseball games will on the Parkland school grounds Tuesday and Thursday evenings from 7 to 9:30 o'clock. Children are asked to bring any available balls, bats and gloves.

Bus Service

Serving the entire area to be bene fited by the new bus line, as well as much outlying territory, the National Bank of Washington, Parkland branch, bank of washington, rarkiand branch, is particularly interested in the project. Speaking for the bank, A. C. Swindland, manager, writes: "There has been a crying need for a system that would include service to the busi-ness districts and residential areas not now covered."

Believing that the people of Spana-way are vitally interested in a community bus service, Theo. S. Stansbie secretary-treasurer of the Spanaway Business club, writes: "This service would reach areas that have long been handicapped by lack of transportation and we feel that this service would not only be appreciated by the residents of these districts but would also in-crease property values." Mrs. Donna McKewen, chairman

f the public affairs committee of the Parkland area Altrusa club, says: "Parkland no longer being a small own but a fast growing community, is in great need of better bus service. We people of Parkland are glad at this time to see someone progressive enough to bring just that to the com munity."

B. F. Fluty, president of the Parkland Riding club, had this to say

'Words alone cannot describe the needs for this service. It is a must if our communities are to continue to Parkland post No. 228, American Legion, was represented by James St. John, adjutant and finance officer, in saying, "It was the unanimous opinion of the post that this will fill a much needed service to the residents. Roger MacDonald, president of the Parkland Business club, says, "This community, one of the fastest grow-ing in the Northwest, is certainly pagued with transportation problems. The present bus service in this area is far from adequate to give satisfactory service to the many homes any dis tance from the present bus route."

ereign state of Washington.' The editor of the Spokesman-Review, another anti-Ike paper, called Eastvold a "39-year-old boy wonder." (Actually he's 32.) However, he admitted that Don "bested such veterans as Senator Everett Dirksen in the now historic fight before the convention.' One AP dispatch circulated across the nation, said, "One man to emerge suddenly into prominence in the fight was State Senator Donald Eastvold of SEATTLE.' (How about that?)

Hundreds of telegrams and letters have poured in on the senator from people who liked what they saw. Most of them misspelled his name. One addressed his wire simply, "Eisenhower Supporter, Chicago."

Eastvold, who returned with his wife and Gov. Langlie amid considerable fanfare Monday night, is invit-ing Republicans of the 29th district to a picnic in his yard tomorrow night at 5:30.

Vacation News
Three members of the Robert Collier family, Mr., Mrs. and daughter, Mrs. Sylvia Johnson, took an extensive trip during the last quarter of June, totaling 1,800 miles. Their first stop was Coulce Dam, Wash., where they rested a day at the home of their daughter, Violet, and son-in-law, A. R. Brechtbill. Violet joining them the next day, they proceeded as a quartet to Vale, Ore., visiting friendly neighbors of 40 years' standing.

On their return, they took in all the natural and man-made grandeur of the finished Columbia River Basin of the finished Columbia River Basin project. They had made the same trip a decade ago, when the vast acreage that recently came under C. R. irrigation was parched land, and now, through harnessing that mighty river, by the creation of Coulee dam—commonly called the 8th World Wonder—has become an astonishingly fruitful expanse. Various shades of green crops are relieving each other: alfalfa, peas, sugar beets, onions and potatoes. This colossal transformation calls to mind the prophecy for our time: "The desert shall blossom as the rose." When the eye beholds a prophecy, it becomes a physical fact.

'Flying Van' Cargo Plane

The "Flying Van," one of the largest twin-engined planes in the world, is currently being tested for the Air Force for future mass production.

Designated the C-119H, it is a larger cousin of the "Flying Boxcar" now being used in Korea as troop and cargo carriers. Its cargo capacity exceeds 15 tons and its capacity as a troop carrier is 62 fully armed men.

One of the details in which the Flying Van differs from the Flying Boxcar is that all its fuel is carried in wo pods suspended from the wings. When the Van is used in cambat areas the external tanks will be covered with a self-scaling substance designed to reduce greatly the fire hazard.

The new plane has much larger wings than the Boxcar, thus reducing the required take-off run and landing speed and increasing the payload. Other new features include a "beavertail" rear door, which divides horizontally rather than vertically and can be opened in flight.

The C-119H is powered by 3,500 orsepower Wright turbo-compound engines and has four-bladed propellors 15 feet in diameter. The wingspan is 148 feet. (AFPS)

You're Losing Money If You Ignore Waiver

ens of thousands of servicemen are osing money by failing to waive their NSLI term insurance premiums.

If you are an NSLI term insurance policy holder, you should request a waiver of premium ) if you have not already done so) from your personnel officer. At the same time you should discontinue your premium allotment. If you don't, you're needlessly throwing away money.

Servicemen who held NSLI term insurance policies should have waived their premium immediately upon passage of Public Law 23 April 25, 1951. Many did not do so, believing that if they waived their premium they would lose some of the benefits of their NSLI

If, for example, you're 18 years of age and did not waive your premium, you're paying 64 cents every month for each $1,000 you have in NSLI term insurance. If you have a $10,000 policy then youre paying $6.40 per

It seems almost impossible, but here is four years since 1948 and the last Olympic games in London. Starting Sunday, July 20, the 1952 games will be under way in Helsinki, Finland. As expected, the United States and Russia head the list of entries. The Russian athletes predict an over-whelming victory prompted of course by Mr. Stalin and his associates, who still insists that the 1948 games were under American domination. Here's hoping for a U. S. victory over the supermen.

Although this is not bowling season the people of the Northwest who wit-nessed the match between a team of eastern stars and a team of Seattle and Tacoma topnotchers certainly had a thrill last Monday night in Tacoma. Heavenly Kick

This eastern team is composed of Lee Jouglard, the 1952 Bowler of the Year, sporting a 211 average; Buzz Fazio with 214, Fred Bujak and Bill Bunetta with 209 averages and Tony Lindemann at 207. How are those for yearly bowling averages? Frisco Barnett and Ted Tadich represented Tacoma in the match. It is fantastic how these fellows murder pins.

You baseball fans that are following the City league play are undoubtedly familiar with the injury jinx that hit the Spanaway club. Well, it seems that last Friday night at Tiger park against South Tacoma, Manager Chuck Loete was forced to change the lineup due to these injuries. In order to field a team, he shifted the regular first baseman to the catching position. the third baseman took over at first base, the second baseman moved to shortstop, the left fielder filled the second base spot and the shortstop, Jim Rediske, did the pitching chores. Believe it or not, a new pitching sensation in the form of Mr. Rediske was discovered. Behind his terrific hurling Spanaway knocked over the South Tacoma team, 10 to 5. You fans that missed this game missed the show of your life. Everybody went home happy including the Spanaway boys, since this was their first victory in

New radio relay to Seattle extends coast-to-coast telecasts to all the West in time for the conventions.

"Live" TV now spans the West

New radio relay brings convention telecasts to all West Coast viewers

On July 7th, the Bell System's radio relay system and coaxial cables enabled the TV networks to bring the Republican Convention to the nation's television viewers—who will also see the Democratic Convention on July 21st. It is now possible for all West Coast TV stations—from San Diego to Seattle—to carry these important national events as they happen. To accomplish this, Pacific Telephone engineers made special changes in the coaxial cable between Sacramento and Portland. They also rushed the installation of a new radio relay link from Portland to Seattle so both could be used together for the transmission of television network programs over this 745 mile route.

The nationwide radio relay system is only one example of how we are constantly improving telephone service while holding the cost of service down-keeping it so low, in fact, that a telephone call remains one of today's best buys in any budget - your home's or your nation's.

With the completion of Pacific Telephone's newest radio relay facilities, 99% of the nation's television viewers can be reached by network programs - making it possible for any event of national significance to be flashed visually across the nation in a fraction of a second. Telephone calls too, are carried by radio relay. Later this year, for example, the Pacific Northwest radio relay link will carry 132 simultaneous "through" calls—but that's only a fraction of its ultimate capacity. Important for convenience and entertainment, the radio relay system is even more important today when the telephone is hard at its biggest job-keeping America strong.

Spanaway 26K Club Is Meeting Tonight

The next meeting of the 26K Republican club will be held this Thurslay evening at the Spanaway fire hall nd a good program is assured. Senator Don W. Eastvold will give first-hand report of the national onvention at Chicago and will also peak as a candidate for the office of ttorney general of the state.

Other speakers will be Dr. Homer Humiston, John Prins Jr. and Mrs. Thomas Swayze, who are to be candidates for state representatives in the 26th district.

George M. Brewer, program chairman, announces that U. S. Senator Harry P. Cain is scheduled to appear at Spanaway Aug. 14. Full details will be published at a later date.

By Clarence LaCrosse

The eyes of the world have been ocused onthe outcome of the Republican National convention in Chicago during the past week . . . Many na-tionally famous persons have contributed to the final results of the nom-ination of General Dwight D. Bisen-hower as the Republican candidate for the highest office in the United States . . . However, in all the con-vention and the United States there was no more a prominent role played than that of Parklands number one citizen. Senator Donald W. Eastvold

. . And in all probability one of the top men in the entire Republican party because of his energetic and intelligent approach to a highly controversial problem of the National con-

Without the hard work and coninuing ambition put into the task of scating the legally selected delegates from various states by Senator Don Eastvold it is problematical whether or not sufficient votes would have been cast on the first ballot enabling General Eisenhower to enjoy the distinct honor of being nominated on that ballot . . . An honor which comes to few in their political careers.

I, for one of many, consider it a distinct honor to have a man of Don's caliber and integrity and the will to fight for what he considers right to be one of our delegates besides repre-senting us in the State Senate.

As Don turns to the problem of waging a campaign in the state primaries this year for the very important position of attorney general of the state of Washington, it is with the active support of thousands of his friends both here and elsewhere in the state. It is not always easy to attain one's goal in these battles against the well- established machines in power, therefore Senator Eastvold will need more than ust moral support if he is to be

Despite zooming general living expenses, the cost of liquefied petroleum gas has remained relatively stable, "spot survey" by LP-Gas Information Service, Chicago, among nation's dealers reveals. In contrast to an average rise of 63% in all items contained in U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics cost of living index, LP-Gas rates increased only 7% in ten-year period ending April 15, 1952. Also known as butane, propane, bottled and tank gas, the fuel is used principally in farm, small town and surburban areas.

vision, the LP-Gas business has registered its greatest advance since World War II. Total gas marketed has nearly quadrupled, spurting from 4,528,230,960 pounds in 1945 to an estimated 17,384,000,000 pounds last year. Approximately two-thirds of the 1951 output went for household.

1951 output went for household and farm use. The balance was consumed for industrial, chemical Striking evidence of the industry's rapid growth was given in a recent consumer survey by the LP-Gas Information Service which revealed that two-thirds of the families who now have LP-Gas ranges have been cooking with the fuel less than eight years.

The range is the No. 1 appliance in the millions of homes all across the nation equipped for LP-Gas service. Other domestic uses of the fuel are water heating, refrigeration, clothes drying, in-cineration and air conditioning. There are also hundreds of agri-cultural, commercial, industrial and transportation applications.

LP-Gas, the lusty "baby" of the petroleum family, is also known as butane, propane, bottled and tank gas. It is extracted at natural gasoline plants and refineries, compressed into liquid form for ease and economy of transportation and shipped ir pressure vessels by rail, high way and water. Sizable quantities are also transmitted from proand miscellaneous purposes.

Spiral—LP-Gas Prices up Only 7%

CHICAGO—In the face of skyrocketing living expenses in practically all major categories, the cost of liquefied petroleum gas, used principally in rural, small town and suburban areas, has advanced only 7% since 1942.

This was revealed by the LPGas Information Service, Chicago, following a nation-wide "spot survey" among leading marketers of the fuel.

In the same ten-year period (April 15, 1942, to April 15, 1952), the average of all items included in the cost of living index released by the U. S. Bureau of Labor Statistics climbed 63%. Food prices registered the sharpest gain with a 92.3% rise. Other increases were as follows: housefirmical in the cost of living index released

Industry leaders attribute the stability of LP-Gas rates in contrast to the general rise in living gosts to several factors. Among trast to the general rise in living costs to several factors, Among these are: (1) The tremendous growth in public acceptance and use of the fuel with resulting distribution economies; (2) the sharp increase in number of LP-Gas bulk plants throughout the country and consequent reduction in the area served by each; (3) the "incentive" rates offered to customers by most dealers to stimulate the use of new appliances, and (4) various technical and service advances contributing and service advances contributing to greater efficiency and economy. Currently rated by many au-our good fortunes abroad and best wishes for your success in the matter of becoming attorney general of the state of Washington. You can count on us for active support of your campaign.

As one watched the National convention on TV last week it was easy to see that the medium of TV has established itself as a permanent fixture in the homes of the American people . . . To be able to sit and watch history being made as it happened, as was possible through the recently completed TV network, was more interesting and to most people appealing.

Political parties were definitely aware of the fact that the public was riewing their emotion, their every deed, jealously and aspiration

It is conceivable to believe that a properly conducted TV convention could win the election for either party ... People like to see for themselves .. Not only hear what is going on.

I have a change of address card nere on my desk from Chaplain Milton L. Nesvig informing me that he is now stationed at the Naval Receiving Station, Seattle 99, Washington . Many will be interested to know that Milt is back in the states after a very interesting tour of duty in the Mediteranean area. Milt Nesvig, prior to his call to duty by the Navy was pub-lic relations director for Pacific Lutheran college . . . Since Milt receives The Parkland Times-Journal, I'll say, 'Glad to have you back, Milt' . . "Drop in and see our new offices who you manage to get to Parkland."

Have you noticed the new Franklin Pierce high school and its amazing progress? . . . Morris Ford, the superntendent, tells me he expects to move into the new buildings in time for the fall term . . . What an amazing bit of progress to the community to have a high school of the nature of this new school . . Another example of local people and their ability to get things done . . . It seems that our area is full of such people.

Spana-Park 4-H Club Having Busy Season

The Spana-Park 4-H Livestock club The Spana-Park 4-H Livestock club and parents had a big day Sunday, July 13, when a livestock show was held at Jennie Modahl's home, judged by George Purcell, a county agent, and Mrs. George Miller, a retired Jersey farmer. They had quite a few animals to judge, including dairy and beef cattle and one goat. A picnic and swim at Spanaway lake followed the show.

The club will attend the Pierce County Livestock show at Elk Plain July 19 with Walter Haavik and Davd Smith showing steers, Dick Graves showing in the swine class and Diane Smith in the goat class. All will enter the judging contests.

A further trip is planned by all members to the Experiment Station or Field Day July 17. The Spana-Park 4-H club has also offered to help sell tickets for the Washington Horseman association Play Day celebration, the proceeds of which will go to benefit the adult physically handicapped. The tickets are 50 cents each, so if a 4-Her asks you to buy one, help them out. OR SALE—Gibson tractor, 6-horse
