

Parkland Civic Club To Gather Tonight at 8

In the olden days, the town crier would trudge up and down the streets, ringing a bell and shouting "Town Meeting Tonight" to the citizens within earshot.

Parkland, too, has a town crier, but this town crier has gone new-fangled—he rides in an airplane. This Thursday afternoon, unless it rains, Parklanders will hear a voice from an airplane flying overhead, announcing Thursday night's session of the Community club.

This novel way of publicizing the civic event is the idea of President W. W. "Woody" Cline. A plane equipped with powerful loudspeakers is chartered from a Puyallup field, and is steered over the entire community several times, spreading the glad tidings during the process.

The gathering at the Parkland school will be called to order at 8 p.m. Members will hear a letter from Commissioner Harry Sprinker about his proposed solution for some of Parkland's traffic problems.

Sprinker is suggesting the installation of a blinker light at the college end of Garfield Street. Park Avenue, Pacific Avenue, A Street, Airport Road, and 116th Street will be considered arterials. Stop signs at all other intersections from 102nd Street to Brookdale will be removed.

Furthermore, the stop signs left standing at all entrances to the six arterial streets will be enforced by county police with fines for violations. Also enforced will be the maximum speed limit of 25 miles per hour. These new traffic regulations will be aired at a public hearing at the county court house next Tuesday.

The committee planning the Community Club "Hoedown at the Bar-N" will report on progress being made on arrangements for the Oct. 29 event at Sunshine Hall. The big affair will last from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m., and will feature not only dancing, but also

That Smorgasbord Is Tomorrow, 5:30

It's smorgasbord time at Trinity Lutheran Church. The Ladies Aid will start serving in the church parlors at 5:30 this Friday afternoon.

Just for the fun of it, we looked at the menu, and here's what it looked like:

Meat balls and gravy, baked salmon, cold sliced baked ham, pickled herring, baked beans, potatoes, cabbage cole slaw, buttered string beans, molded fruit salad, cranberry relish, spiced peas and beet pickles, spiced prunes, fruit soup, cheeses, hard-boiled eggs and anchovies, lefse, fruit bread, rye bread, hot rolls, sliced tomatoes, jellies and jam, and cookies.

General chairman is Mrs. Anna Fenney, who is assisted by Mrs. Carl Kosmo and Mrs. Leonard Halvorsen. Hostess is Mrs. E. B. Steen.

Waitresses will be Mary Olson, Shirley Skinner, Janet Klippen, Joan Benson, Naomi Roe, Alta Bakken, Laurie Cowden, JoAnne Klippen, Pat Pollan and JoAnne Nodtvedt. Proceeds will go to the new parish house. Tickets are $1.25 for adults and 50 cents for children under 10.

DADS' NIGHT THURSDAY

Dads' Night will be observed at the October meeting of the Parkland P-TA to be held on Thursday evening, the 20th, at 8 p.m. in the school auditorium. Mrs. W. W. Cline will preside over the business meeting, at which time the National Parent-Teacher Magazine drive will be launched and reports given.

cider, coffee, donuts, hot dogs, and other refreshments, as well as entertainment and bingo. Proceeds will go to the Parkland library fund.

There will also be a report from the committee in charge of beautifying the war memorial tennis court grounds. The three garden clubs of Parkland—Monte Vista, Crystal Springs, and Violet Prairie—are co-operating under the chairmanship of Mrs. Ray Renwick to complete this project.

After adjournment, Sylvia Storaasli and the Parkland Orthopedic guilds will serve home-made pies and coffee. Sports movies will be shown.

Employees Living Outside City File Suit Against Civil Service

Superior Court will schedule a trial soon to decide whether the city civil service commission has the power to force city employees to make their residences within the city limits.

The question, affecting more than 75 employees, including many from the Parkland-Midland-Spanaway area, was asked in a suit brought by Edward J. Taylor, a lineman helper of 9708 Park Avenue, against the civil service commission.

In an interview with the Times, Taylor, who lives just one block outside the city limits, explained that the commission had issued an order saying all city employees living outside the city limits must move in before Jan. 1, 1950.

"A good many employees had the backbone to contest the order," Taylor continued. "We believe it to be in violation of our civil rights to tell us where we must live. This court trial will get it straightened out once and for all."

Taylor was chosen to appear for the other employees. He has lived at his present address since 1942. Howard Carothers, former city corporation counsel, filed the suit on the employees' behalf. He holds that the commission isn't empowered by the city charter to regulate an employee's place of residence after he has been hired.

However, Taylor told the Times this week that the Civil Service Commission realizes that it has made a mistake and is willing to have it straightened out. He said that the attorney had told him he didn't expect any trouble in winning the case.

Community Chest Drive Is Underway

Solicitation began this week throughout the South End for the 1949 Community Chest drive. Colonels of the Parkland district, Mrs. Inga St. Clair and Mrs. J. U. Xavier, report that still more volunteer help is needed if this area is to reach its quota.

"Majors" that have already accepted responsibility are Mrs. T. O. Svare, GR. 5279; Mrs. Ira Tisch, GR. 8877; Mrs. Ernest Harmon, GR. 6896; Mrs. Carl Hedlund, GR. 7198; Mrs. G. Haakenson, GR. 7000; and Mrs. William Johnson, GR. 5669.

Anyone who may feel they have a little spare time should call one of the above majors and offer their assistance. It is hoped that next week's Times will be able to report a complete list of majors and captains.

In 1947, the Red Feather campaign netted $875 in Parkland, and in 1948, $1,130.

$135,000 School Job Starts At Midland

Work began yesterday on the $135,000 eight-classroom wing of the Midland school building. And what a far cry the new addition will be from the old two-story wooden building it will replace.

The 186 by 65 foot addition, designed by Lea, Pearson & Richards, Tacoma architectural firm, is the last word in school design.

The exterior brick and wood shingle pitched roof will match closely the present building. But the sashes will be steel instead of wood. The exterior walls of the classrooms will be practically all glass.

Floors of the new addition will be concrete slab covered with asphalt tile. On the ceilings of the rooms and corridors will be acoustical tile. Considerable use will be made of built-in cabinets, and there will be a sink in every classroom. Chalk boards will be of a light green shade.

The modern lavatories will feature glazed block walls, tile floors, and modern plumbing fixtures, including wash fountains instead of basins.

There will be usable space on the second floor for a future library and visual aids rooms.

The contracts for the addition were approved at a recent meeting of the Franklin Pierce school board. To Warner Construction Co. went the basic bid, including remodeling of the present building, for $86,900. Howard Chapman Plumbing & Heating Co. won the plumbing and heating contract with their bid of $27,947, and Carl T. Madsen Electrical Co. was selected to do the wiring for $7,975.

Of the total cost, $93,600 is being furnished by the state, and $41,504 by the district. This is the third addition to the present building. A wing was added to the west of the basic four-classroom structure, and a gym was added to the south.

The half-century-old wooden schoolhouse on the southeast corner of the grounds, complete with a tower, will be razed as soon as the new east wing is ready for occupancy. In the meantime, it will continue to be used, although the stairway and hall will have to be lopped off to make room for the new construction.

Famous "Theater On Wings" Here To Play At PLC

Harold Winston, a man who once played juvenile roles in a Shakespearean repertory company, has big plans for the American theater. He hopes to bring back to the American cities and towns the legitimate theater.

Mr. Winston's recently formed "Theater on Wings" will present Tennessee Williams' "Glass Menagerie" Friday, at 3:00 and 8:30 at the Student Union building on the campus of Pacific Lutheran College.

Contrary to most road companies which require a box car or two for their scenery and props, Mr. Winston and company travel exclusively by air. The entire cast, along with the necessary props and scenery fit neatly into one airplane.

This mode of transportation is made possible by a revolutionary idea which Mr. Winston conceived while grappling with a camera tripod. "I thought of a camera tripod of aluminum and played with the idea that out of strips of aluminum a portable stage setting could be constructed. We have done just that and our total scenery weight is less than 500 pounds."

The basic set can be used for five or six different plays. It takes only a few minutes to assemble the collapsible aluminum rods and to stretch the fabric scenery over the frame.

Mr. Winston, Theater on Wings director-producer, has had a long career in the theater and in films. He was associated with Frank Capra at Columbia Pictures, Warner Bros., and at M-G-M for nine years and assisted in the shooting of many films including two Academy Award pictures.

The Theater on Wings cast includes: Barbara Ann McKenzie, a native of Boston, Mass., who has studied with the Metropolitan Opera Company, and has appeared in several New York productions.

Naomi Stevens, a UCLA graduate, who has done radio work since 1937, and who played in every production at the Circle Theater in Los Angeles for the past two years. Miss Stevens has been acclaimed by the Los Angeles Times.

Five Hedlunds Bag 5 Deer As Season Begins

The Carl Hedlund family of 119th Street, Parkland, is one family that will be eating plenty of venison this winter. Carl Hedlund, his two sons, Gerald and LaMonte, of Parkland, and his brother Oscar and his nephew Walter of Spokane went into the Cascades Sunday and brought back four deer. Everybody but Oscar bagged one. The following day, he went out and shot one, too.

A. J. (Slim) Stern of Parkland Lockers reported to the Times that 25 deer had been brought in for processing on Sunday and Monday, the first two days of the hunting season. Fourteen of these were brought in on Sunday. This compares with a total of 14 deer brought in on the first two days last year, only six the first day.

Other lucky hunters include Martin Berger, L. E. Loveland, O. J. Williams and Captain Smith, each of whom left two deer at the lockers. Nimrods-bringing-in one deer each were Les Storaasli, Dan Coss, John E. Wehr, Jack Brown, Ed Perryman, Walter Franklin, John Ploggsma, J. C. Baker, Arthur Smith, Mrs. Paul Johnson, Pat Gallagher, and Leo Reilly.

Stern commented that all the deer were in good condition. Cleanest kill of all, believe it or not, was made by Mrs. Paul Johnson. Biggest deer so far is the four-point 200-pounder bagged by Carl Hedlund.

Parkland Jr. High Defeats Dupont 13-0

The Parkland Junior High touch football team won its second straight title, dumping Dupont 13-0 last Friday afternoon on the PLC greensward.

Coach Eldon Kylo commented that the whole team turned in good performances. He was particularly pleased by the improvement shown in the Parklanders' running attack. One of the touchdowns came via the overland route, the other through the air. The Parkland defense was virtually airtight.

Paul Larson's Parkland Midgets also won Friday, defeating the Dupont Midgets by a 27-0 tally.

A. M. Freeman, resident of Parkland for 17 years and a life-long shoe salesman, died last Wednesday. Funeral services were held Saturday. (See obituary on Page 2)

Kapowsin's New School Dedicated By Wanamaker

Dedication ceremonies, preceded by a barbecue, were held Sunday, Oct. 2, at the new Kapowsin grade school on the McDonald road just past the Meridian intersection.

A crowd of approximately 400 interested residents of this and adjacent communities enjoyed the barbecue dinner, inspected the new school building, and attended the dedication formalities.

The program which was under the capable direction of Mrs. John Kinney, was highlighted by the flag raising led by Kathleen Reardon and John Nelson, representatives to Girls' and Boys' State. Mrs. Pearl Wanamaker, state superintendent of public instruction, gave an overall picture of the condition of public schools in this state today, and problems to be faced and successfully handled in the near future.

The invocation was given by Rev. Morland Adell. Mr. Duffield, music instructor at Kapowsin High, led the singing. Greetings and introductions were made by Mr. Homer Anderson, superintendent of Bethel School District.

We were greatly pleased to have Mrs. Ruth Bethel, our county superintendent of schools, with us.

Introduction of the grade school staff were made by Mr. C. H. Bardwell, principal, and introductions of the high school staff were made by Mr. E. W. Platt. Mrs. Fred Erickson, P-TA president, introduced past presidents and executive board and members of the school board.

We are very pleased with our new school building, which has on clear days, one of the most magnificent views of the mountain to be seen anywhere in the state.

Ford to Speak at Collins Dads' Night

Central Avenue P-TA will celebrate Dad's Night, Oct. 19. From 7:30 to 8 p.m. will be a parent-teacher conference hour, when parents may discuss the problems of the "small fry."

Business will get underway at 8 o'clock, with Mrs. Emil Ripoli presiding. Lyle Catt, program chairman, will introduce the superintendent of the Franklin Pierce district, Morris E. Ford, who will speak on "Our Dad and Family Life."

Special music will be furnished by the Hungry Five, an instrumental group from Puyallup directed by Edward Krenz. The eighth grade dads will be hosts for the evening.

Recreation Attracts 323 First Week; Other PTA Activities Galore

By MRS. ROBERT HANER

Opening week of the Parkland P-TA's recreation program found 323 persons in attendance. Those who didn't register for textile painting last week may do so this week. Instructor Leonard Smith would like to see more men out to take part in the dads' recreation program, 8:30 to 10 p.m. every Tuesday.

First of the junior high P-TA-sponsored activities was the frolic last Friday evening at the school. The potluck supper party was attended by 167 students and sponsors, who thoroughly enjoyed the evening playing games and folk-dancing.

Sponsors and junior hosts and hostesses included Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Thorsen and Delores, Mrs. Gene Russell and Larry, Mr. and Mrs. John Snidt and Douglas, Mrs. C. H. Robinson and Carmen, Mr. and Mrs. John Richards and Johnny, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Olsen, and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Tisch and Elaine.

Next Tuesday, the elementary room mothers will gather at the home of Mrs. Joe Anderson, with Mrs. Neil Gaiser presiding.

On Wednesday evening, the volunteer recreation leaders are to be the guests of the Harvard-Midland P-TA, and will tell about their particular participation in the program. These include Mrs. Frank Lapenski, Mrs. Arnold Ellingson, Mrs. Stanley Rosso, Mrs. Roy Hartman, Mrs. John Smith, Mrs. John Richards, Tom Casto, Leonard Smith, and Ed Rosin.

This week, Tom Lantz, state recreation chairman for the Washington Congress of P-TA, dispatched two students from his recreation class at CPS to interview Mrs. W. W. Cline on the organization of the recreation program.

On Tuesday morning, the Clines, the Roy Kregers, Mrs. Neil Gaiser, and Principal Edwin Nelson of Park-

Slate Baby Clinic At School Thurs.

The Well Baby Clinic sponsored by the Parkland Pre-school will be held at its regular time next Thursday in the Parkland school auditorium. Because two first grade classes are being held in the basement of the Methodist Church, the Well Baby Clinic has been moved to the school auditorium.

Registration of new babies will be from 9 to 10:30 a.m., the clinic itself lasting until 2. Mrs. Richard Simpson, clinic chairman, reminds mothers that this clinic is for well babies and children up to and including six years. Local doctors and nurses will be in charge. For further information, call Mrs. Simpson at GRANite 5357.

land were guests of Bert McMurtrie on his breakfast program on KTBI, to tell about its many activities. Next Wednesday, the "dads" of the Parkland P-TA will appear on the half-hour broadcast, starting at 8:10 a.m.

In the recent balloting for officers, Mrs. Roy Kregger was elected president of the Parkland Mother-Singers, a group which assembles every Monday evening at 7 p.m. at the school. Mrs. Stanley Peterson was chosen secretary, and Mrs. Werner Stay and Mrs. J. N. Engebretsen, librarians.

Mrs. C. O. Olson is the director of Mother-Singers again this year, and Mrs. Stanley is the accompanist. The women are scheduled to appear at the Puyallup P-TA in November. More mothers are urged to join this fine group. Soon the group hopes to be sporting new choir gowns.

SPANAWAY COMMUNITY CLUB RE-ELECTS SMITH

For the second consecutive year, Harry W. Smith was re-elected president of the Spanaway Progressive Community Club. The organization held its annual election at the regular monthly meeting Oct. 4 at the Spanaway school.

For Smith's cabinet were chosen Herman Fuchs, vice-president; Mrs. Alice Peters, secretary; George Ouhl, treasurer; George Brewer, three-year trustee; Mrs. George Brewer, historian.

Holiday For Kids But Not Tutors

Ordinarily, Columbus Day isn't a school holiday, but this year it was, and the more than 3,000 public school students in the Times circulation area got the day off. But it was no holiday for the teachers; they all swarmed to Jason Lee school for the convention of the Washington Education Association.

At noon, all teachers in the area who are alumni of Western Washington College held a reunion luncheon at the New Yorker. Presiding was Perry Keithley, proxy of the Pierce County alumni chapter and principal of Midland school for the past two decades. Assisting in the arrangements was Tryve Blix, a former Parklander, who is now principal of Washington school in Tacoma and president of the Washington State W.W.C. alumni.

October 6, 1949

Parkland Times
Parkland, Washington
Congratulations on your new and fine community newspaper. You are doing an excellent job and I hope you will continue to serve that fast growing community.

The people of the prairie can be proud of this publication. I hope that the residents will appreciate the value of your newspaper.

Although I am down here in Texas, I feel very dear to the Times. It was while I was a G.I. at Fort Lewis that the late Mr. Beard and I got the Prairie Pointer started. We slaved many hours trying to get those first issues out.

I am down here running a radio station, a print shop, and editing the state firemen's magazine.

If my subscription ever runs out, send me the bill. I don't want to do without the Times.

Best regards to the folks in Parkland. One of these days the Kiel family hopes to come up that way to spend a summer vacation. By then we hope the TIMES will have become the paper you are striving for. Keep up your fine work.

Sincerely,

School District Has New Nurse

Mrs. Dolores Schmechel of Spanaway has been hired as a full-time public health nurse for the Franklin Pierce School District. Working in cooperation with the public health department, she will watch the health of the 2,200 students of the four schools in the district.

On Mondays, she is at Parkland school. On Tuesdays, she visits Midland and Harvard. Mrs. Schmechel stops at Central Avenue on Wednesdays and Collins on Thursdays. On Fridays, she works in the district at large.

At any time, principals, teachers and parents desiring to contact the nurse may reach her through the Parkland school office (GR. 7235) or at the schools on the above specified days.

It was announced that any child showing signs of a communicable disease or a skin disease such as impetigo, scabies (itch), or ringworm, will be immediately excluded from school, and the school nurse will be notified.

Mrs. Schmechel will soon begin health inspections at the four schools. Before accepting the Franklin Pierce position, she was a public health nurse for two years at Shelton. She is a graduate of the University of Washington.

Clover Creek Legion Auxiliary Installs; New Officers Attend Meet

Last Friday evening witnessed the installation of new officers of the American Legion Auxiliary No. 118 at Spanaway school. Installing officer was Mrs. Marie Brickert of Tenino, president of the fourth district, assisted by the vice-president, Mrs. Jorgenson of Tacoma.

Newly-installed officers included Mrs. Mabel Hart, president; Mrs. Amy Wormald, first vice-president; Mrs. Anne Gunn, second vice-president; Mrs. Naomi Cline, secretary; Mrs. Bertha Bailey, treasurer; Mrs. Blanche Rediske, chaplain; Mrs. Bertha Cooley, sergeant-at-arms; and Mrs. Rose Stimson, historian.

Tribute was paid to Mrs. Irma Long, the retiring prexy, through whose untiring efforts the small auxiliary was able to win a national citation for community service.

Adding to the evening's pleasure was music furnished by a mixed quartet from Jason Lee Junior High, and a group of spirituals sung by a quintet from the George Washington Carver Post No. 222 of Tacoma.

Following the ceremonies, refreshments were served under the direction of Mrs. Amy Wormald. Visitors were present from the auxiliaries at Tenino, Yelm, Shelton, Eatonville, Parkland, and three units of Tacoma.

First meeting with the new officers is slated for this Friday evening at 8 p.m.

Incoming officers of the Parkland American Legion Post and its auxiliary attended the Fourth District conference held in Olympia on Monday evening. The conference was conducted by the department commander of the American Legion and the department president of the American Legion Auxiliary.

Purpose of the confab was to instruct the new officers on the duties of their offices and also to outline the program of the Legion as it pertains to statewide activities for the coming year.

Jim St. John, reporter for the Parkland post, brought in to the Times what he calls an "oops, I'm sorry item":

"Last week's account of the installation of officers for the post and auxiliary neglected to mention the fact that Al Johnson was installed as Post Service Officer, and also that Nelda Fritz was installed as first vice-president of the auxiliary. Mrs. Dorothy Smith should have been shown as having been installed as second vice-president."

BIRTHS

The feminine trend is continuing. This week's birth column reports four more daughters but only two sons. Last week's Times reported three females and only one male.

Included in this week's total are three births reported belatedly by Madigan General Hospital. On Sept. 24, a daughter was delivered to Sgt. and Mrs. Luther Hall of Parkland. The following day, Sgt. and Mrs. Roy Laney of Route 7, were greeted by a daughter. Capt. and Mrs. James Stacy of 116th Street were presented with a son on Sept. 26.

Mr. Stork picked the first day of October to leave a daughter with Mr. and Mrs. Victor Dawson of Route 4, who were waiting at Tacoma General.

At St. Joseph's Hospital, the N. B. Arnolds of 10433 South Ainsworth Avenue were greeted by a daughter on Oct. 2, and the Oris E. Bashers of Parkland, by a son on Oct. 4.

DEATHS

Algernon Marcus Freeman, 67, a resident of Parkland since 1932, died last Wednesday and was buried in Mountain View Memorial Park Saturday. He had been in the shoe business for 50 years and had been manager of the Custom Boot Shop on St. Helens Ave. in Tacoma.

Mr. Freeman, a member of Parkland Methodist Church and Fern Hill Lodge No. 80, is survived by his wife, Hazel; four daughters, three sisters, two brothers, and 10 grandchildren. Rev. George Cooper conducted the funeral.

Mrs. Mary Thompson Halsten, 95, one of Parkland's pioneers, died last Wednesday in Shelton. Shortly after moving to this area in 1905, she and her husband became interested in Pacific Lutheran College and eventually presented to the school part of the acreage now included in the campus.

Services were held Saturday at Trinity Lutheran, the Rev. E. B. Steen officiating. Pallbearers were J. U. Xavier, T. O. Svare, O. J. Stuen, T. H. Olson, A. W. Ramstad, and E. Antonson.

Hezekiah C. Rice, 98-year-old Negro who was known to thousands of Tacomans in his 40 years as a downtown street sweeper and laborer, passed away Oct. 4.

Mr. Rice, whose home was at Rt. 13, Box 187, Midland, is survived by a son, Lewis; a daughter, Mrs. Martha Williams; and a grandson, Donald Williams, all of Midland. C. O. Lynn Company was in charge of the services.

Methodist Couples Plan Ham Dinner

A ham dinner to be served in the Parkland Methodist Church basement on Sunday, Nov. 6, was decided upon by members of the Couples Club as a way to raise money for the church improvement fund. Mrs. Charles Zittel was named general chairman.

There was a good attendance at last Thursday's meeting to hear Chaplain L. E. Moosley of Fort Lewis tell of his work in occupied Germany. He had many interesting articles to show, including a typical Bavarian man's clothing and hand-made wooden plates. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Sam Brown, Mrs. C. G. Williams and Mrs. Bryan Logan.

BOOSTER NIGHT AT ELK PLAIN GRANGE

Tonight is annual Booster Night at the Elk Plain Grange, with the program beginning at 8 p.m. The program has been arranged by Mrs. Olive Tibbitts, the lecturer, and will introduce as principal speaker, County Commissioner Harry Sprinker, who will talk on "The Grange Challenge."

Guests will include members of the Clover Creek Grange. All others interested are invited also. Refreshments and a dance will cap the event.

Bus Fares Are Raised 2 Cents

A two-cent boost in bus fare, approved late last Friday by the Washington State department of public service, means that Spanaway commuters will soon have to be stuffing 22 cents into the coin box, and Parklanders, 17 cents, every time they go to or from town. Riders on the Larchmont and all other city lines will have to pay 12 cents every time they board a Tacoma Transit coach.

Curtis Hill, president of the transit company, says that the new rate will go into effect as soon as details of collection and a few other minor problems have been solved.

Under the new scale, school children traveling outside the Tacoma city limits will pay a nickel. Students from Parkland and Spanaway traveling to Stewart Junior High or Lincoln High will fork over a dime.

In justifying the fare increase, it was pointed out that "in spite of efficiency in operation, the company's net earnings are low. Additional revenue is essential to permit necessary service improvements, to protect the continued adequacy of service and to cover future increases in cost."

"The Tacoma Transit Co. has been faced with the problems of decreasing traffic due to the greater use of private cars. Also the fact that the tax on gasoline went up 1 1/2 cents per gallon last March, and that the company will be replacing 24 more buses in 1950."

Fire Prevention Is Collins PTA Topic

Collins P-TA observed National Fire Prevention Week Tuesday afternoon by calling on E. W. Perdue, secretary-treasurer of Fire District No. 9, to speak on "Fire Prevention and Safety."

The meeting, first session of the 1949-50 season, was called to order by Mrs. Clinton Riis, after which Mrs. Lyle Parker introduced Mr. Perdue. Robert Hurlburt and Miss Esther Nelson presented their pupils in room programs.

Community singing led by Mesdames Eunice Anderson and E. W. Perdue, completed the afternoon's program. The social hour was in charge of the sixth grade mothers.

The annual Collins P-TA bazaar has been billed for Friday evening, Nov. 18. Attractive yearbooks have been completed by members of the executive board with Mrs. E. C. Cardey as chairman, and were distributed to parents and members.

Midland Scouts Hold Vesture Rites; P-TA Mixer Slated for Tuesday

By LOIS JOHANN

Annual roll-call and inspection of Boy Scout Troop 84 was held Monday night at the Midland Hall with Scout Commander Lawrence Ames conducting the inspection, assisted by Stanley Lipke and J. F. Griffith.

Colors were presented by Troop 42 of Larchmont, who also had charge of the vesture ceremony. Nine boys were invested with the badge of tenderfoot scout, and one with explorer scout rank. The badges were presented by the parents to Jerry Wilson, Robert Matthews, Wayne Shilling, Roger Sharpe, Jack Seaburg, Nicky Landin, David Welsh, David Hiller and Eugene Moore.

At the close of the ceremony, scouts, leaders, and committee members were inspected by Commander Ames, and found to have an aggregate score of 550 out of a possible 1500 points. Leaders and committeemen who were inspected were Scoutmaster James Peterson, Assistant Scoutmaster Paul Owen, and Paul Wilson, Henry Landin, Robert Sharpe, Clarence Johann, Frank Johnson, and E. A. Pitzler.

Frank Johnson, representing the Midland Improvement Club, sponsors of Troop 84, was presented the Scout charter for 1950.

Boys between 11 and 16 are welcome to join the Scout troop, which assembles on Monday evenings in the Dawson Fieldhouse.

Ten Midland Cub and Scout committee members met last Friday at the Raymond Ellison home to further plan for a carnival to be held Oct. 28 at Midland Hall. It was announced that three new den mothers had volunteered—Mrs. Clarence Skog, Mrs. Ned Palmatier, and Mrs. Frank Moore.

The roster for new Cubs is also still open; boys between 8 and 11 are welcome.

Fun will be the keynote of next Tuesday's meeting of the Harvard-Midland P-TA when Coach Vince D. Keyes leads the group in the annual "Parents' and Teachers' Mixer" at the school gym. A short business meeting will get under way at 8 p.m., after which the entire evening will be given over to Mr. Keyes. Hostesses will be Mrs. William Hiller and Mrs. Frank Novotney for the kindergarten classes and Mrs. Louis Weir for the first grade at Harvard.

Mrs. Donald Kemp, president of the Midland Orthopedic Guild, has announced that the plans that were made for a luncheon and card party have been abandoned.

The 21 members present voted to have a Halloween party for firemen and their wives Oct. 29 at the Donald Kemp home. Chairman of the party is Joyce Peterson, to be assisted by Bea Turner, Betty Weeks and Helen Robinson. Viola Bombardier, chairman of the Auxiliary share of the Firemen's Ball, reported a successful turnout of volunteer help.

After the business meeting luncheon was served at a table decorated in the Halloween motif by hostesses Bobbie Absten and Harriet Bergmann. The birthdays of Lillian Hansler and Lorene Baskett were honored.

St. John of the Woods Altar Society met at the home of Mrs. David Dickson, Oct. 6 for a business session. Mrs. Walter Corrigan, president, named committees for the card party and social to be held at the Midland Hall, Oct. 21 at 8 p.m. The sewing chairman, Mrs. Ray Smith, displayed the beautiful quilt they had just finished. Plans are being made concerning its disposal some time in November. At the conclusion of the meeting a luncheon was served by the Mesdames David Dickson, Thomas Dolle, John Derig, Frank Deuel, E. E. Edwards, John Erik and Thomas Galivan.

These folks mean business for the West... Pacific Telephone people receive pay adding up to $19,000,000 a month.

Telephone paychecks also come to you

1. Timber . . . paper . . . copper—we have to buy many things to build and run the telephone system. Last year Western Electric, our principal manufacturer and supplier, bought over 20 million dollars worth of materials in the West. More than half of each dollar we take in goes for employees. Most of it is spent and goes into circulation where they work and live.

2. More than 80,000 of those whose savings build the business . . . who own telephone stock . . . live in the West. In return for the use of their money, a few pennies of each telephone dollar go to them. And as they spend it, they also add to Western prosperity. It would probably be hard to find anyone who does not in some way benefit from the money we spend.

Plan Reception For Mrs. Bethel

Plans for a reception in honor of Mrs. Ruth Bethel, county superintendent of schools, and the administrative personnel and school board of the new Bethel school district, were discussed by members of Spanaway P-TA at their board meeting last Thursday.

The session was held at the home of Mrs. John Newell. Those attending were Mesdames Allan Griffith, William Bagley, John Birkofer, Chet McAtee, Martin Gibbons, J. Wallin, Louis Symmons, Oliver Omat, and Mr. Paul Fread.

Another card party will be sponsored by the P-TA in the Spanaway school lunchroom this Friday night. South Enders will have an opportunity to visit with their neighbors while playing a few games of "500" and pinocle. There will be prizes and refreshments.

The P-TA met last night. An officer of the State Patrol talked about safety. First grade room mothers served under the chairmanship of Mrs. James Grey.

Spanaway Pre-school opened its season with a meeting last Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Lawrence Beckman, with the new president, Mrs. Kenneth Ruve, officiating.

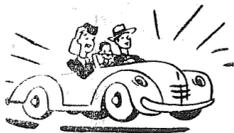

Business included a report on the play which is being sponsored by the Pre-school association and starting the eighth graders. This play is slated for Nov. 18. A committee was appointed to investigate the advisability of establishing a "Well Baby Clinic" in Spanaway. Chairman of this committee is Mrs. Dolores Schmechel, assisted by Mrs. Elsie Frykholm, Mrs. Elmer Krumpus and Mrs. Graham.

A lunch was served by Mrs. Beckman and Mesdames Paul Fread, Ethan Nelson, and Kenneth Ruve.

Next meeting will be Wednesday, Nov. 2, at the home of Mrs. Fread. Co-hostesses for the evening will be Mesdames Doyle Cox, Hubacha, and Frykholm.

Motorists started traveling this week on the newly-completed fourth lane of the Mountain Highway between Orchard Hill and the Roy "Y". The road construction crews have been working all summer, adding a 14-foot-wide ribbon of concrete on each side of the old highway to make the busy thoroughfare a wide four-lane affair all the way to the junction. With this last link just completed, Pacific Avenue from downtown Tacoma to the "Y" is the longest straight four-lane street in the entire Tacoma metropolitan area—about 13 miles altogether.

Widening between the city limits and Orchard Hill was done last summer. This summer, the contractors took up where they had left off. About the only thing left is to convert the Roy "Y" into a "T"-shaped intersection to cut down on accidents.

Stores along the highway have been almost inaccessible for months due to the paving project. But now those days are gone forever, and Spanaway merchants are celebrating by inviting all South End residents to take a spin on the new highway, and stop in and visit them at their friendly home-owned shops. The "map" below will help you locate some of the thriving business that send you a special invitation.

Spanaway Locals

By MRS. ARTHUR PIETZ
Mrs. Ames Ouhl of First Street was hostess for an afternoon party at her home on Wednesday. Those enjoying the games and lunch were Mesdames Mabel Hart, Fay Cooley, Lee Lindick, "Chick" Tye, Shirley Rowan, W. Long, Ray Nephew, Oliver, Bailey, George Ouhl and Dorothy Martin.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Honeychurch of Calgary, Canada, are spending a few days with Mrs. Honeychurch's brother and family, the Ethan Nelsons of 6th Street and Mountain Highway.

Saturday evening guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Smith of Loop Road were Mr. and Mrs. Art Pietz. High spot of the evening was a spaghetti and fried chicken dinner served at midnight by the hostess in honor of Harry Jr., who is leaving Wednesday to return to the U. S. Navy after a 30-day furlough.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Ryan of Spanaway at the St. Joseph Hospital on Sept. 29.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kerr and children of Lakewood, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Henricksen of Eatonville, and Lee Henricksen and daughter were Sunday evening dinner guests at the home of the Jack Henricksens of Lake Shore Drive.

Mrs. M. M. Conklin of Milton, Ore., has been spending a short vacation at the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Japhet of 3rd and Pacific Street.

Three Spanaway residents are on the sick list this week. Oliver Omat, who lives near the Roy "Y," was rushed to St. Joseph's hospital at 3:30 Friday morning, suffering from pneumonia. Mrs. Marie Maracek of 13th Street has been ill with a bad cold and flu. Mrs. Harvey Bradshaw of 12th Street is once again confined to her bed at her home.

Offord Ritz, son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Roberts of Mountain Highway, was hit by a stray bullet in his right wrist while hunting Sunday near National. Fellow hunters rushed him to the hospital.
