

Garfield Street Parade Set for Saturday, October 4

PARADE UNITS ARE COMPLETE

OVER 175 CHILDREN WILL PARTICIPATE IN DEDICATION PROGRAM

Final plans for the dedication of Garfield street have been worked out as Parkland gets ready to officially open her main business thoroughfare with the first parade in her history.

The first car going to the reviewers' stand will be that of the speakers, Mayor C. Val Fawcett, Commissioner Harvey O. Scofield, and someone representing Dr. S. C. Eastvold. The second car will contain members of the civic committee and will include Bert Ray, Cliff Olson, Herb Socolofsky, and John Richards.

The parade, led by the fire department, will follow the speeches and cutting of the ribbon by Commissioner Scofield. Three drum majorettes from the Parkland school and the college band will be the next unit in the parade.

Pet Parade Next
The pet parade and bicycle units will be next. The children have turned out in big numbers for the occasion. More than 75 of them will display their pets and more than 100 will decorate their bikes and follow in the procession.

School buses from the college and Concordia and decorated floats and trucks from local business concerns will complete the parade.

The firemen will give a pump and water display to show the effectiveness of the department's equipment at the close of the celebration.

Flame Destroys Poultry Building

The building of the Pacific Poultry Company was burned to the ground Wednesday afternoon in the second big fire of this area during the past week. The alarm was turned in at 1:45.

Several thousand dollars worth of brooder and refrigeration equipment were destroyed in the fire as well as some poultry. Firemen from Spanaway and Parkland were unable to save the building due to lack of water.

The building, a 125 x 50 foot frame structure, is owned by Mrs. Grace Kuntz and located in Brookdale, just behind the "Little Diner."

The fire occurred just before the Prairie Pointer went to press. More details will appear in next week's paper.

S. C. Eastvold To Attend Conference In Middle West

Dr. S. C. Eastvold, president of Pacific Lutheran College, left for the middle west on Tuesday evening, where he will attend a Lutheran Faculties Conference at Gustavus Adolphus College in St. Peter, Minn.

He expects to visit Northfield and attend the football game between St. Olaf College of Northfield, and Luther College of Decorah, Iowa. The two teams are rivals of decades standing.

Doctor Eastvold will preach also at two services in the Nokomis Lutheran church, Minneapolis, Minn. During his stay in Minneapolis, he will have conferences with insurance agencies in connection with the various phases of the insurance problems at Pacific Lutheran College. It is unofficially stated that about $800,000 worth of fire insurance is carried on college property in contrast with less than $100,000 carried in the summer of 1943.

While in the middle west, Doctor Eastvold will confer with prospective teachers to take care of the ever-increasing faculty load at the college. He will also take part in a number of circuit rallies in the North Dakota district in connection with the United Mission Advance program in the Evangelical Lutheran church, which is an appeal for $2,000,000 for home and foreign missions.

PLC TO FACE ST. MARTIN'S

LUTES HOPE FOR THIRD WIN AFTER 19-0 VICTORY OVER CPS LOGGERS

As a fitting climax to Parkland's celebration of the completion of Garfield Street, many South End grid fans will descend upon the Tacoma Stadium Saturday night to watch the PLC's Gladiators vie with St. Martin's College in their first league tussle of the 1947 season.

The Lutes looked impressive in their two pre-season games, humbling St. Olaf 14-0, and last week blanking the Loggers from the College of Puget Sound 19-0. Over 12,000 people saw the PLC-CPS game.

In PLC's chapel program this morning, the Tacoma Young Men's Business Club's Totem Pole was presented to the Lutes as a trophy of their victory over the Loggers. They will get to keep the pole until next year's game, when it will again be given to the winner.

St. Martin's has lost twice this season, both times to strong teams, Bellingham and Linfield. However, in previous seasons the Rangers proved themselves capable of staging some mighty surprising upsets, so PLC coaches Tommervik and Harshman have been drilling their squad hard this week in preparation for Saturday's tilt.

FIRE DESTROYS MIDLAND HOME

Fire completely destroyed the home and furnishings of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Skelton of 98th and Polk St., Midland, Tuesday morning, leaving them and their five small children homeless.

Damages are estimated at $3,500 for the house and $1,000 for the contents. Skelton, a carpenter, had no insurance covering either the house or furnishings.

Completely Destroyed

The Midland fire department received the alarm at 9 a.m. Tuesday. Flames were already coming through the roof when they arrived and, lacking the proper water supply, they were unable to save any portion of the building.

Fire is said to have been caused by the children playing with matches. The oldest of the children is 6 years old.

At present the Skeltons are staying with friends in Midland. Anyone wishing to donate clothes to the family may leave them at the fire hall or with Mrs. Bruce Eshpeter at GR 8644.

New Shop

A new watch repair and jewelry shop called the "Parkland Jewelers" has moved into the Haner Building on Garfield Street. The new shop is owned and operated by Robert Hanner. The opening of the store has been timed to coincide with the official opening of the newly re-surfaced Garfield street. The store will carry a variety of men's and women's watches as well as gifts and costume jewelry. The Haner building was constructed by Don Knapp and is 25x20 feet, concrete block structure.

New Portrait Studio

A new portrait studio is being opened up in Midland by Mrs. Noel Bain. Mrs. Bain will give some instructions in photographic oil tinting. She expects to open her shop around Oct. 7.

Side Roads Repaired

Not only is Parkland getting its main street paved and sidewalks put in, but the side streets for several miles around are being re-surfaced with oil mat by the county.

Football Broadcasts

Here's an item of interest to all local football fans who attend the football games via means of radio. Pochel Distributing company is sponsoring the broadcast of all home PLC and CPS football games over station KMO.

Where's the Fire

Several different nights in the past week the fire department has dashed out complete with equipment, fastened their hoses to the hydrant across from the old chapel and really gone to work spraying water on surrounding objects. A four alarm fire? No, they're just practicing for the demonstration they're going to give after the parade Saturday. The exhibition makes a picturesque sight under a full moon, with the water streaming high into the air and spotlight turned on the trees.

Paving of Portland Ave. in Midland was started several months ago and is expected to be completed within a week or two, according to the county engineer's department.

The paving will cover a section about a mile and three-quarters in length and also includes the sections of side roads running into the main thoroughfare.

Company's Coming

Oh, I love the town of Parkland,
With its many, many trees,
With its rocks and stones and gardens
And its pretty scenery.

Oh, Parkland, dear old Parkland,
I hope you never be
Like a town like other cities
With its sin and rivalry.

(Editor's Note. The poem used was written in 1932 by a Parkland grade school pupil. It was found in a collection of items written by students. The name or age of the child was not on the paper.)

Written with the simplicity and sincerity of a child, the above poem exemplifies the feeling of every citizen who takes pride in having a beautiful and friendly community.

Parkland residents will have more incentive to keep their community beautiful since the paving of Garfield street, and the repairing of many of the side roads.

Many visitors from other parts of the county, including Mayor Val Fawcett, Commissioners Harvey Scofield, Les Hudson, Paul Newman, will be coming for the official opening of Garfield street. Parkland will be on inspection. Let's show them what kind of a community Parkland is.

Those who have buildings along Garfield street will have an added responsibility for Garfield will be the center of attraction. Trees overhanging the sidewalks will have to be trimmed, and the yards kept extra clean.

Let's give Parkland a haircut, wash her face, and put on her best bib-and-tucker, for company's coming this Saturday.

Let's keep Parkland full of "pretty scenery" the child speaks of in his poem.

Power of the Press

For more than two years the Prairie Pointer has printed news about you. This week, set aside by Governor Mon C. Wallgren as newspaper week, we wish to tell you a little bit about us.

"It is altogether fitting that several thousand communities across the country should set aside a little time to appraise and pay tribute to the local newspaper," writes William N. Hardy, manager of the Pennsylvania Newspaper Publisher's Association.

"Editors and publishers want the public to realize what the local newspaper means to a community, as a service unit unexcelled."

The Prairie Pointer has given all its support to every worthwhile community project and has helped make them successful. We have supported local businesses because a prosperous community develops from prosperous business concerns.

We have done this in the past, we are doing it now, and will continue to do so in the future.

To gather and print all the news in a community such as this would of course be impossible, but with your cooperation we can do our best to print the kind of news you want.

To quote Mr. Hardy again, "Understanding the role of the newspaper in our society, we realize that it is no hollow boast for the press to claim it is 'serving freedom by serving you.' We see that the power of the press is actually the power of the people—the people speaking through the medium of the press."

Prevent Fires Now

Elsewhere in the paper you have read of the home in Midland being destroyed by fire.

It is somewhat ironical that this happened just before October 5-11, the period set aside as fire prevention week. The home was a total loss as far as any material goods were concerned. Let's hope it is not a total loss in setting an example to others to take all precautions in preventing fires.

Check all your chimneys and flues now, that they won't be a source of fires in the fall weather ahead. Keep your matches where small children can't reach them.

A little time and trouble now to take fire prevention measures may save you twenty times as much in property later.

CHOICE is the keynote of today's career

Would you go to Europe, Japan or Korea?
Or would you stay near home? Any man who has had prior service in the Armed Forces may elect to do any of these things if he enlists in the Army now for 3 years or more. He can choose to be assigned directly to duty in Europe or with one of five famous Infantry divisions in the Far East. Or he may choose to be stationed near home for the first full year of his enlistment (where there are vacancies). Men with or without prior service may choose one of the famous combat divisions in Japan or Korea.

Would you select a career in aviation?
This you can do, and be guaranteed the training you choose before you enlist! Only requirements beyond regular physical and mental examinations are that you be a high school graduate, or that you are in the Air Force and can qualify. It's today's great opportunity to write your own ticket in the Air Force.

Would you want to learn to fly? If you are single, 20 to 26½, and have had two or more years of college education or the equivalent, you can become an Aviation Cadet with the U. S. Air Force. Nowhere else can you get better training, for nowhere else is aviation advancing as fast or as far as in our own Air Force.

Would you go to a leadership school?
If you have qualities of leadership, would you want to develop them to their fullest? U. S. Army Leadership Schools are now selecting likely candidates from servicemen to take these valuable courses.

The Army and Air Force are doing everything possible today to help each individual develop along the lines that he picks for himself. Army and Air Force training is thorough and take-home pay is better than most civilian jobs. Opportunities for advancement are wide open to every man in uniform. Make your choice today at your U. S. Army and Air Force Recruiting Station.

The letter, written by Dr. C. W. J. Morris, read: "At present I am supervising the religious work, school work, farm and industrial work and medical work."

"In addition to this settlement of 1050 patients, I must supervise another settlement of 400 lepers at Omu Aran.

"We live on what we call the Mission Compound, an area of approximately 6 1/2 acres. The leper settlement is about 1/4 mile away and, together with the farms, covers an area of about 2400.

"Just now we have about 1085 inmates but 32 are tiny babies and are not classed as patients. There are about 775 males and 280 females but the numbers change week by week as some are allowed home on parole and new patients are admitted.

"Twice a week all the lepers who are able to come to the dispensary are given injections of hydnoecarpus oil. Some, of course, require treatment for other illnesses such as malaria, dysentery, yaws, sleeping sickness, bilharzia, and so on. Tuberculosis is fairly common and many of the deaths among the lepers are due to this disease."

FIRE DEPARTMENT GETS EMERSON RESUSCITATOR

The Parkland fire department recently added an Emerson resuscitator to its equipment.

The resuscitator automatically breathes for the patient, adjusts itself to lung capacity and signals when an obstruction occurs. It is used in cases of electric shock, severe cases of asthma, pneumonia, asphyxiation by smoke or drowning.
