

PARKLAND POST NO. 228
AMERICAN LEGION
Meetings every second and fourth
Friday at 8:00 p.m. in the Sunshine Hall

The annual installation of officers for Parkland Post No. 228, American Legion, and its Auxiliary was held at Parkland grade school auditorium Saturday evening, September 11. Installing officials, from the Fourth District, Department of Washington, lauded the ceremony as the most colorful of its kind, held to date. The ladies were especially deserving of this praise as they were resplendent in many-colored formals, and beautiful corsages which were made by Mrs. Carl Hoit of Tacoma. Color was everywhere, in the many floral displays and the beautifully decorated tables upon which a lunch was served at the conclusion of ceremonies. Fourth District Commander Alger E. Bragg, Fourth District Vice Commander Wendell Brickert, and Fourth District President Hazelverne Funk and Fourth District Vice President Mrs. Wendell Brickert were lavish in their praise of the completeness of the ceremonies. Visitors were also present from Tacoma, Sumner, Tenino and Spanaway.

The past-president's pin was presented to Mrs. Dorothy Smith by Mrs. Funk. Fred Stovner, Parkland delegate to 1948 Boys' State at Ellensburg, gave a report on the activities at the Boys' State and lauded the efforts of the American Legion in giving the youth of today an opportunity to gain a working knowledge of the American way of life and government. Entertainment was furnished by the newly organized men's quartette, with two excellent vocal solos by Wendell Tandberg and a piano number by Don Shaff.

The annual Parkland Fire Department's dance is in the offing and tickets will soon be on sale. As far as we are concerned it is the obligation of each and every home owner in the Parkland Fire District to buy at least two of these tickets and more if possible. No one can deny the fact that the purchase price of these tickets is minute in comparison with the protection that these volunteer firemen give. They all serve without pay—in fact they give much more than the average person can realize by just volunteering their time. They are on call 24 hours a day, 365 days in the year, just to be available in case of fire. Not only are properties protected but lives as well. Everyone of the firemen is schooled, on his own time and at his own expense, in first aid. The resuscitator is as near as the nearest phone.

All are too eager to take the Volunteer Fire Department as a matter.

Joining Circle

Three local business establishments are now operating under new management:

Edward Garrett, formerly of Cincinnati, Ohio, and Frankfort, Ky., has been settling in as new operator of the Parkland Grill since September 7. Stationed at Fort Lewis during the recent hostilities, with the medical training section, Garrett in 1945 married a Tacoma miss, the former Thelma Bratrud, who finally has prevailed to the extent of getting her husband and their two-year-old son, Michael, established back this close to her home town. A home to settle her family in is what she wants most now. Garrett, who's handling the pans and griddle at the Grill, previously operated a chicken dinner restaurant in Cincy. He plans for the present to maintain the same business hours as his predecessor, Don Knapp. Marilyn Knapp is still the mainstay of the Grill's staff, which Garrett has yet to fully round out. A fresh paint job marks the change of ownership.

New operators of the College Cleaners are Mr. and Mrs. Ray Ludwig of Tacoma, successors to Lauretta Willis. He handles the pick-up service while she runs the shop. They have been in charge on Park Avenue since September 1.

Also under new ownership is the Bungalow, Pacific Avenue eatery.

Hot Subject

E. W. (Fritz) Beitz, local fire commissioner, will ether a batch of sizzling tips to householders, on how to go about setting winter fires without periling person or possessions, when he appears as radio guest speaker on the Parkland Hour, Friday.

Moving Story

R. J. Haner, Parkland jeweler, has acquired the house which has stood these some years on the site of Washington National's coming Parkland branch bank at Pacific and Airport. He's shifting it across the bank's Washington Addition to Parkland to an A street lot, where he hopes to be at home next month.

Do It Now

Clean all pipes and check all chimneys and oil stoves before cold weather sets in. This is a precautionary tip from the Volunteer Fire Department.

Aid Birthday Party Is Tuned to Seasons

A birthday party sponsored by the Trinity Ladies' Aid was held at Trinity Lutheran Church Wednesday afternoon, August 25.

Mrs. Anna Penney, president, greeted the assembled members and their friends. The group then sang "I Ought to Love My Savior." Dr. Ernest B. Steen led scripture reading and prayer. Mrs. Luther Watness sang two solos, "My Heart Is Longing to Praise My Savior," a Norwegian folk tune by Princess Eugenie of Sweden, and "O, Lord, on High," by Mozart. She was accompanied by Mrs. J. A. Watness. Mrs. Ernest B. Steen gave a descriptive talk on the months of the year in their relation to the Lutheran church holidays, seasons, and the old frontier church in Muskego, Wis. The closing numbers were the hymn, "Take My Life and Let It Be Consecrated, Lord to Thee"; The Lord's Prayer, and the table prayer.

Refreshments were served, buffet style, from a long table decked with sprays of gladiolus, tall pink and white tapers, centered with a large, beautifully decorated birthday cake. Mrs. T. H. Olson and Miss Camilla Benrud presided at the urns.

The committee in charge consisted of the Mesdames Halvorson, Fenney, Brandt, McGuire, Stanke and Volden.

'Uncertain Weather' Changes Picnic Plans

Incorporation Is Community Club's Discussion Topic

Ross Cory, Community Club president, has called for volunteers to assist in landscaping Parkland's new war memorial, beginning this Saturday, September 18, weather permitting.

Activities are to commence at 10 o'clock a.m. and volunteer workmen are asked to bring rakes, shovels or wheelbarrows, if they have them available.

Effort is also being made to arrange with the workers' wives for a potluck supper following the day's labors.

Dean Mullins, attorney for the town of Gig Harbor, Washington, last Thursday evening advised more than a hundred members of the Parkland Community Club and other interested listeners to look first for two characteristics in considering community incorporation:

1. A compact, closely-settled civic area.

2. A preponderate sentiment for incorporation, without sharp antagonism between those favoring and those opposed. He considered that a municipal government would probably be doomed beforehand if pushed through by a bare majority in a community where the camps of incorporation supporters and foes are closely drawn and irreconcilable.

Prior to the "academic discussion" of incorporation, the club heard a report from its War Memorial committee that $3,602 had been received from the second subscription, more than the $3,050 which had been estimated required to complete the memorial. Plans have now been made to use the extra funds for a paved approach from the street to the masonry fountain and bronze plaque and for seeding to lawn the area surrounding the tennis courts which already have been installed as a part of the memorial.

As soon as the area has been graded, volunteer labor will be called to do the seeding. It is planned to hold a series of Saturday work days, followed by potluck suppers in the school basement. With the lawn in, garden groups will plant shrubs and flowers to complete "a small park as a living war memorial."

It is planned to have all finished, in time for the dedication of the memorial on October 9 or 10.

Political nominees for county office are to be requested to appear before the club at its next month's meeting—to answer questions regarding their candidacies.

Senior Young People Give Christian Play

Scenes portraying times just before and after the crucifixion of Christ were presented by the Clover Creek Senior Young People, recently.

Those participating in the Christian drama were Nancy Boness, Elsie Keene, Elmer Fromm, Omer Roland, Harold Fromm, Bob Parr, Cleora Cope, Georgia Bolieu, Jane McCammon, and Leona Sweet. Richard Rhea had charge of the sound effects.

Musical numbers were presented by the intermediate young people. Solos were given by Carolyn Rhea, Betty Meyer, Shirley Heller, with duets by Betty Meyer and Elmer Fromm and Mrs. Paul Krueger Sr. and Betty Meyers.

Mrs. Paul Krueger accompanied them on the piano.

PUYALLUP FAIR INTEREST HIGH

Exhibits for the 45th annual Western Washington Fair at Puyallup, September 18 through September 26, are shaping up rapidly and hold promise of being the most interesting and varied of any shown in the long history of the big Northwest exposition.

Department heads are becoming very enthusiastic about the entries planned for Puyallup and say that every bit of space will be "filled to the rafters" with the best ever.

Supt. Robert Huff, agriculture-horticulture, says that the county exhibit space will be well represented by Island, Jefferson, Thurston, Whatcom, Mason, Kittitas, King, Pierce, Snohomish, Lewis and Grays Harbor counties. A special exhibit will be shown by the Western State hospital.

Livestock entries are beginning to make department officials scratch their heads wondering where they'll find room to put all of the 800 head of dairy and beef cattle to be shown. The big dairy show will include 200 head of stock entered in the second annual 4-H Washington State Dairy show.

Folk dances, fashion parades, home economics demonstrations, motion pictures and slide films are a few of the other features.

Space in the Merchants' building is all taken, and requests for space continue to be received at the fair grounds. All fair officials point out that interest in the 1948 show is greater than past seasons, and that reservations for grandstand seats are running ahead of the same period for 1947.

Teachers' Tea

An invitation is extended to all residents of the Parkland school district to attend the teachers' reception and tea to be held on Tuesday, September 21, at 2:30 p.m. at the Parkland school.

Mrs. Carl Colton, chairman, will be assisted by Mrs. Mel Pedersen, Mrs. Emil Johnson and Mrs. C. O. Olson. Instrumental music will be played during the tea hour.

It Happened In Parkland . . .

Luncheon—Mrs. Jack Mortenson was luncheon hostess Wednesday at her home to the Mesdames Chas. Morstead, Arthur Wood, Cliff Nelson, Fred Shevlund and W. J. Morris.

Traveling—J. B. Richards of Wheeler street left last week on the Olympian for New York City, to be gone for several weeks. He has stop-overs scheduled at: Lancaster, Pa., where for years he was connected with the Hamilton Watch Company; Trenton, N. J., his home town, where he will visit a sister and her family, and Mamonoreck, N. Y., to visit at the home of a nephew, Dr. Charles Mann.

Here for Wedding—The Rev. Raymond Pflueger of Ephrata, Wn., Merle Pflueger of Castle Rock, Wn., and William Pflueger and his family of Hoquiam, were in Parkland for the wedding of their brother, Jesse, to Alice Ford. While here, they spent a few days at the Soines' summer place at Spanaway, where Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Peden of Oakland, Calif., also were guests over the weekend.

CLOSE MARGIN OK'S MIDLAND SCHOOL BLDG.

Three hundred and three Harvard-Midland voters favored the added levy for a new school in the special school election held in that district Saturday, September 11. Only six opposing votes were cast, but the total number of ballots was only 20 more than the 289 needed to put the school levy across.

Closing minute canvassing by the active group supporting the new school is credited with saving the issue.

State Officer Will Address Local PTA At Opening Meeting

Mrs. M. D. Wilkinson, state PTA parliamentarian, will address the Parkland PTA at its first meeting of the fall term on Friday, September 17, at 8 p.m. in the Parkland school auditorium. In addition to Mrs. Wilkinson's talk on "Your PTA," the program will include presentation of the school faculty, executive board and the room mothers, so that all the members may know those who are carrying out the functions of the 1948-49 Parkland PTA.

Miss Gloria Elexson, four time state drum majorette champion, will entertain with several baton-twirling numbers.

Since the local object for the year is to encourage father participation, an invitation is extended by Mrs. W. W. Cline, PTA president, and the executive board to all fathers, as well as mothers, to attend this meeting. Often, PTA is thought of as a mothers' organization, when really it is a parent organization. Many locals have father presidents, vice presidents, and on down through the chairmanships. So, a cordial welcome is extended to fathers and new residents.

McChord Field to Stage Open House On Air Force Day

Highlighting the observance of Air Force Day, September 18, in the Puget Sound area will be "open house" at McChord Field and the landing of two B-29's at Boeing Airport completing a non-stop flight from Japan to Seattle, Col. Fred C. Nelson, McChord commanding officer, has announced.

Activities at the air base will be part of a nation-wide celebration of the 41st anniversary of the Air Force. The Colonel said the primary purpose of such events as the "open house" at McChord and the B-29 landings at Boeing is to show the American public what their Air Force has, and how the public's money is being spent at military establishments.

Organizations taking part in the plans for this are McChord's 62d Troop Carrier Wing (medium), Reserve Training Unit, Aircraft Control and Warning Group, and Military Air Transport Service. Tacoma organizations participating are: the Army-Air Force Recruiting Service, Air Rescue Association, and Air National Guard.

Mother and daughter are now at their home at 132 E. 66th street, leaving the hospital last Sunday. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Walter von Rotz of the Hiway Variety Store. "THIS IS LONG DISTANCE"

How telephone operators route and time your calls

1. Perhaps you've wondered how your long distance calls usually go through so quickly . . . even to small, far-away places. The routing operator is one reason. A long distance operator has just asked her the route to Pilot Grove, Missouri. From her special book she finds it and flashes back . . . "MX Kansas City, TC Boonville."

2. When the call is answered, thousands of miles away, the operator placing the call slips her "toll ticker" into this device . . . known as a calculagraph. When you begin talking, she moves a lever to stamp the time on the ticket. When you hang up, a signal tells her to stamp it again . . . thus recording the length of your call.

3. Your call's roadway, to Pilot Grove—or anywhere—is kept open in this Traffic Control Center. Should major trouble occur on one route, the Center must find another to carry the calls. This is just part of our service job . . . making it possible for you to call across town, or across country, when you wish, as often as you wish.

4. When you make a telephone call, you hire a mighty servant to work for you at small cost. And that servant is more useful than ever. In the past ten years, the number of telephones on the Coast has about doubled. We're hard at it to provide more and better service for more people. And each new telephone added makes every telephone that much more valuable.

FAIR BOOKS CIRCUS QUEEN

Elly Ardelty, beautiful trapeze performer from Ringling-Barnum Bailey's famous circus, has been booked to appear at the Western Washington Fair in Puyallup, September 18 through September 26. The Russian-born aerialist was a sensation in France, where she starred in vaudeville and with circuses. Upon arriving in the United States she was signed with the circus here, toured the country and became a sensation wherever she appeared. She has appeared throughout the country, playing in New York and Hollywood. Beautiful costumes, chrome-trimmed aerial rigging and a thrilling climax of head balancing on the trapeze make her act one of the most spectacular on the fair's three-hour day and night show.

Midland Couple Exchange Vows In Ceremony at St. Paul's Methodist

St. Paul's Methodist Church was the setting for a double-ring, candle-light ceremony uniting Miss Dolores Elaine Yost, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. P. Yost, and Mr. Lawrence John Baskett, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Baskett, the Rev. H. J. Bass officiating.

The bride, escorted down the aisle by her father, was gown in ivory slipper satin with fitted bodice and long sleeves coming to a point over the wrist and fashioned with a long train. The full length veil was caught in her hair by a tiara. Her bouquet was of orchids and stephanotis with satin streamers.

Matron of honor to her sister was Mrs. George Richards, in a gown like the bride's, in green. Bridesmaids were Virginia Higdon, in pink, and Louise Baskett, sister of the groom, in yellow. They carried contrasting flowers and wore halo hats, also of contrasting color. A niece of the bride, Linda Jo Yost, was flower girl and wore yellow. Candelighters were Mrs. Francis

Yost, sister-in-law of the bride, and Kay Temple, both in blue. Best man for his brother was Theodore Baskett. Ushers were Francis Yost and Nicholas Yost Jr., brothers of the bride. Ring-bearer was little Larry Richards, nephew of the bride. Harvey F. Stell, accompanied by Mrs. Celesta Hostetter, sang "Because" and "At Dawning."

For the reception, which followed in the church parlors, the mothers of the bride and groom wore navy with gladiolus corsages. At the urns were Mrs. Anna Gilmor, grandmother of the bride, and Mrs. John Olson, aunt of the groom. Mrs. E. F. Ostrand served the wedding cake and Mrs. Thomas Cragan and Miss Audrey Richards were in charge of the gifts. For going-away the bride chose a pink suit with navy accessories and orchid corsage.

The couple motored to Vancouver, Canada, for a short honeymoon. They both attended Midland schools and are graduates of Lincoln high. Their home will be in Midland.

of fact organization—in fact there is record of their being criticized for some of their activities, the annual dance being one of these—never once stopping to think of how they can be helped and shown appreciation. Don't wait until the firebug nips your happy home to allow yourself to be awakened to the fact that here is one of the finest, if not the finest, equipped and trained rural fire departments in the state of Washington.

Parkland Post No. 228, American Legion, is going all out in support of the Volunteer Fire Department in this, its annual social and fund-raising campaign. We feel sure that among our membership we have those who appreciate their services and are on the fighting line with them. Firemen, you don't have to ask us to buy your tickets, we'll be there without an invitation—we've been looking forward to it.

CLOVER CREEK POST NO. 118 AMERICAN LEGION Meetings every second and fourth Friday at 8:00 p.m. in the Spanaway School

The latest news items from Clover Creek Post No. 118, American Legion, and its Auxiliary are in this "colyum." So read it regularly to hear all the news and gossip thereabouts.

We hear that the comrades at American Lake Hospital are still enjoying the Carnival held last week. It was a big job, but a wonderful experience to witness the pleasure the hospital-bound veterans found in the fun provided for them.

The ladies of the Auxiliary conducted a dart throwing booth. Hundreds of the comrades played, winning prizes for their efforts.

Chaplain William Lee Bailey presided over a bowling alley whilst he "barked" out his specialties like a professional. His breezy wit and good humor entertained everyone. More than 600 comrades had fun at his booth and are saying "Come again, Bill, we'll be lookin' for you."

The Auxiliary unit has been invited to enter its Legion convention banquet "daffodil parade" table decoration as an exhibit in the Fourth District display at the Puyallup Fair. The motif of this table centerpiece was illustrative of the projects carried on by members of the unit, including such activities as Hospital and Community Service and Civic participation. Needless to say, the ladies are pleased at the compliment. Good enough! They worked like beavers, and deserve it all.

The annual installation will be held Friday, September 24, at 8 p.m. at Spanaway school. Comrade Al Bragg, Fourth District Commander, and Mrs. Hagelvern Funk, Auxiliary president of the Fourth District, will be the presiding officers for this occasion. Further details will be announced in a later edition of the Pointer, although we can say now and here that all the American Legion's friends are invited to share in the evening's pleasure.

Be watchin' this "colyum" for more news of the Legion's annual jamboree, won't yuh?

Dear Editor...

To the Editor:

As retiring president of Parkland Unit 228, American Legion Auxiliary, I wish to take this opportunity to thank the Editor and staff of the Prairie Pointer for their cooperation and splendid publicity they have given our Unit during this, our first year. I feel that the success of many of our projects has been due to the helpful publicity you have given us. Many thanks to you all.

Mrs. Dorothy P. Smith, President, Parkland Unit 228, American Legion Auxiliary.

Editor, Prairie Pointer:

Last Sunday afternoon the managers of Tacoma bicycle shops staged a bicycle race day at Athletic Park. There were about 300 kids taking part in this race, all the way from little tots on tricycles up to 15-year-olds. They had great fun and they carried away all kinds of prizes donated by the managers of bicycle shops and other business places in the community.

This was great fun for the kids who took part. It lacked one important thing, however. And that was the lack of interest and cooperation by the kids' parents.

My wife and I were present at this race, taking our two girls, 10 and 12 years. We noticed that there were many number of kids from Parkland who rode their bicycles 10 miles to attend this interesting event. Personally I feel that the parents of these kids missed an opportunity to give their teen-age boys and girls their support, and the sponsors of this event, like Mr. Jack Brown of the Parkland Cycle Shop, would have appreciated your cooperation in this event by your presence. They all did a fine job in showing the kids a good time and gave them ice cream and pop to drink, too.

An event of this kind teaches the kids sportsmanship and good fellowship in competition. And I believe that parents should take an interest in them. We talk so much about delinquencies these days, but I wonder who are the delinquents, the parents or the kids.

Like so many other things sponsored by up-and-coming organizations to keep the kids' minds clean, the American Legion Post 228 sponsored a baseball team for teen-agers this summer here in Parkland. But their parents, with the exception of two or three, never came to a single game. I happened to be present at most of the games and enjoyed their fellowship a great deal. I never heard the kids use any profane language or smoke cigarettes or anything of this kind at these games. And you parents who had boys in these games should feel guilty for not giving them your support. Think this over, folks, and if you have another opportunity for goodness sake support your kids and support the sponsors, at least by being present at these events.

Mr. May and Mr. B. Schmalenberg, the managers of our Parkland team, and other Legion members spent a lot of time and money too, to help these kids learn a clean sport. And I know that you parents could do more to support these things, which are so important in a kid's life.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Jensen

Ford, to Mr. Jesse Philip Pflueger, Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. J. P. Pflueger. The Rev. Dr. Pflueger, father of the groom, officiated in the presence of 500 guests and the bride was given in marriage by her father.

Miss Marilyn Pflueger, groom's sister, was maid of honor, while other attendants were Mrs. Paul Larson, Mrs. Donald Ford, Mrs. Robert Bernston, Miss Ruth Simonson and Miss Delores Randolph. All wore gowns of pale blue and pink taffeta and carried gladioli bouquets centered with rosebuds.

Mr. William Pflueger was his brother's best man and ushers were Merle Pflueger, the Rev. Raymond Pflueger, Donald and Morris Ford and Gerhart Svare.

The bride wore a bride gown of traditional satin made with a sweetheart neckline, and skirt of French marquisette flowing into a long train. Her veil of imported French net flowed from orange blossoms and she wore the groom's gift of pearls. Her mother wore a gown of wine crepe while the groom's mother was in black crepe. They wore gardenias and pale pink rosebuds.

The bride changed into a forest green crepe dress with beige topper and brown accessories for the wedding trip to Oregon beaches. After September 20 they will be at home in Parkland. Mrs. Pflueger is a graduate of Pacific Lutheran College and attended the College of Puget Sound. She is a teacher at Stewart junior high school. Her husband attended PLC and is a graduate of Capitol university. He is now attending medical school at the University of Washington and is a member of the Alpha Kappa Kappa fraternity.

Filling out an application for dependent's aid, a soldier answered "no" to the question as to whether he had any dependents.

"You're married, aren't you?" an officer inquired.

"Yes sir," the soldier replied. "But she ain't dependable."
