MEDITATION

WHY—EASTER?

The disciples had failed to heal the disordered mind of a boy. Jesus did it. His disciples asked, "Why could not we cure him?" And He answered, "If ye have faith as a grain of mustard seed . . nothing shall be impossible unto you."

Trav Dryer

The Master's teaching and His miracles, even, were not sufficient to instil that seed of utter faith into the souls of His disciples. He was still a man to them.

That is why He had to allow Himself to become a martyr, be crucified, apparently die as all men had done before Him. Then, on that glorious Easter, He arose, Master over Death as well as Life, and His followers realized as they couldn't before that this was indeed the Divine Master.

Then was born that spark of absolute faith in the presence of which nothing was impossible. All obstacles were overcome, His Church was established, and His teachings were passed down to all generations.

"I am the Way, the Truth, and the Life . . . !"

That is the message of Easter.

Local Firm Will Aid Fern Hill Plan

With plans to build a community center at Fern Hill well launched, the project will be given a nice assist this weekend when Ted & Bill's Service, 8808 Pacific avenue, donates the entire profits of its Friday business. Pochel Distributing Co. is cooperating with the service station in this generous gesture.

Organized as the Greater Fern Hill association, the group has as its leaders Claude Stafford, president; Dan O'Leary, vice president; Carl Walden, financial secretary; Mary Stafford, secretary, and George Packard, treasurer.

Working on the plan since last January, those in charge hope to build a community center next to the Fern Hill library, to be used as a meeting and recreation center for both youth activity and adult groups of the community.

Further details of the special offer of Ted & Bill's Service will be found in advertising space on another page of this newspaper.

Country Woman's Club

The Country Woman's club is meeting today (Thursday) for 12:30 luncheon at the home of Mrs. Robert Lee of Spanaway. UNITED CHURCHES PLAN SPECIAL EASTER SERVICES

Palm Sunday was an outstanding day at the United Methodist church of Parkland-Spanaway. At the afternoon service the total number of baptisms was 36 and 52 were admitted into full membership.

There will be a candle-light communion service in the sanctuary at 7:30 on Good Friday.

Easter Sunday will begin with a Galilean service on Lake Spanaway with the Rev. Harold C. Williams of Epworth church, Tacoma, as the speaker. T. H. Algeo, trombonist, will give an instrumental Call to Worship and play "The Holy City" as a special number. Immediately after the service, Easter breakfast will be served in the Parkland church dining room. The Galilean service will begin promptly at 6:15 a. m. and all are welcome.

Sunday school hour will be as usual at the Spanaway Methodist Community church, beginning at 9:45 a. m. The Easter morning worship will be at 11 o'clock. The male quartet will sing the special number, the pastor will bring greetings. Trav Dryer will deliver the Easter message and Mrs. Raymond Turner will preside. The people in the Spanaway community are cordially invited to this inspiring Easter service.

Two identical services will be held in the Parkland Methodist church on Easter Sunday morning, the first at 9:30 and the second at 11. Special music will be rendered by the choir, Orville D. Weeks directing. The pastor of the United Methodist church, Rev. Alexander Pollock Aiton, will deliver the Easter message. His theme will be "Eternity In the Heart." Between the two services, the choir will enjoy refreshments at the parsonage. Besides the two services, arrangements are being made so that in the event of an overflow crowd at either service, the entire proceedings may be heard through amplification downstairs.

Parkland Preschool Election Monday

The annual election of officers will be the highlight of the business hour when Parkland Preschool meets at 8 p. m. Monday in the school auditorium. Mrs. A. J. Stern will preside.

Mrs. David Freeman, program chairman, has obtained as guest speaker Miss Frances Wiley, nutrition expert of the Washington State Dairy council, who will talk on "Nutrition for the Preschool Child."

A bit of the theme for this April meeting will be inspired by the April 1st date— come and see what foolishness is in store.

Hostesses for the social hour are Juanita Foster, chairman; Geneva Barlow, Jean McKinnon, Verna Weeks, Shirley Taylor and Bernice Mitchell.

The Preschool wishes to thank the public for the fine response in the silver offering taken at the kindergarten program on Friday evening, when $100 was collected. The money will be doated to the school for handicapped children.

Girl Scout Cookie Sale Now Completed

In the recent Girl Scout cookie sale, first place in the Parkland area went to troop No. 247, selling 610 boxes or 61 boxes for each member of the troop. Mrs. Gilbert Peterson was the cookie chairman, Mrs. Ray A. Johnson assisting.

Troop No. 90 was second with sales of over 50 boxes per member. Mrs. Paul Bondo was chairman. Third place went to troop No. 100, with 45 boxes per member; Mrs. Rufus Harvey, chairman.

nI the Brownies division, troop No. 8 sold 638 boxes, over 35 for each member; Mrs. James R. Lewis, chairman. Mrs. Bart Payne was cookie chairman for Parkland area.

A total of 4,387 boxes were sold in Parkland by 159 girls from 12 troops. In addition to a little money for the activities of each troop, receipts from the sales will provide needed improvements at Spanaway Day Camp and St. Albans Camp.

"I KNOW THAT MY REDEEMER LIVETH"

An authority, well qualified to speak, has said: "The resurrection of Jesus Christ is not only the most important event in the history of Christianity, but also the most important event in the history of the world." What he has said is becoming more and more substantiated by factual evidence and in experience every passing year.

No event in history has better evidence to support it than the resurrection. Twenty-three out of 27 books in the New Testament speak of Christ's resurrection as vital and as the central theme of apostolic preaching. It has been said that "to give all the evidences in the New Testament that relate to the resurrection would be to quote three-fourths of its contents."

Any person with a teachable mind who is willing to consider evidence fairly cannot but be fully persuaded of the fact of Christ's resurrection. In fact, if that truth should be rejected, then nothing is true. A soldier who had gone through the stress and strain of the last war and did some hard and clear thinking about this matter, wrote:

If death ends life, then evil must be good,
Wrong must be right, and beauty ugliness;
God is a Judas who betrays His Son,
And with a kiss damns all the world to hell,—
If Christ rose not again.

But, the message of Easter is the report of the two who walked the Emmaus road: "Christ is risen indeed." Easter gives us the right to say with the conviction of Job: "I know that my Redeemer liveth."

Volumes could be written and have been written about the result of the fact that Christ did rise on Easter day. Space allows the mention of only one. From God's side, our redemption has been completed.

It was an interesting experience about two years ago to watch the brick layers put in place the stone archways for the two front entrances to the Parish Houss. They built up the archway on either side,, stone upon stone, curving toward the top until one stone remained to be put in place. This stone was the key stone that tied the archway together and made the whole beautifully complete and structurally strong.

The resurrection of Christ compares with the key stone in God's whole plan of salvation. Every part of Christ's life and ministry was important and essential. But our redemption could not be and would not be complete until the resurrection had occurred. How tragic for all the world if the end had been on Good Friday. Then His life would have been like an unfinished symphony or a partially done but never completed picture.

The resurrection is the finishing touch, the grand climax. Handel's Messiah without the Hallelujah Chorus would not be the Messiah. The redemption would not be the finished work of Christ without te resurrection. It is a glorious truth in redemption's pattern that Jesus Christ rose from the dead on Easter Sunday.

There is more to say, much more. But it becomes necessary to stop here. Hear more of the meaning of Easter and the application of it to your life by attending an Easter service on Sunday. Eternal issues are settled at the response that follows when we are confronted with the message of the resurrection. May you have a blessed Easter.

Mostly About Horses

handling the mike, making introductions throughout the entire Roundup. He will announce at the horse show, at the coronation, etc., besides helping arrange the details of the horse show with B. F. Fluty.

General Chairman — Clarence LaCrosse . . . if there is anything else left to do, I'll do that. By the looks of things there will be quite a few, too. Publicity, parade details, correspondence, etc. GRanite 7100 or GR. 3972 will reach me most of the time.

Sponsors—Tom Law, president of the Jersey Cattle Club, and Roger McDonald, president of the Parkland Business Club, represent the two sponsoring clubs of the Parkland Roundup. They, too, will find plenty to do.

Easter Ride and Easter Services

Something very novel and of considerable interest to the many riders in this area will be the big Easter Day Ride, Breakfast and Easter Services to take place this coming Sunday, Easter 1952. Sponsored by the Washington Horsemen, this event is expected to attract hundreds of riders and other interested individuals in the area.

The ride is scheduled to start from Woodbrook Riding Academy promptly at 10:30 Sunday, where the group will assemble and ride out onto the reservation to the Hole in the Wall, located (I don't know, either), but someone in charge will know. At 12, breakfast is scheduled for the hungry mob which chief cook Kent Erickson and his helpers, Ted McMaken, Wes Moak, Nick Sentio, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Scott will prepare. Brother, are they in for a job. I don't know of anyone hungrier than a bunch of riders. A nominal charge of six-bits each will be charged.

Crist Keffler, president of Washington Horsemen, tells me the service will start at 1:00, which will be complete with minister, organ, choir. For those who won't want to miss Easter services here is a very good opportunity to have a good ride, breakfast and not miss services either.

For those who want to come but not ride one may be at Woodbrook either at 10:30 or at 12:30 sharp, when a motor cavalcade will leave there. Mr. Keffler will be there to see that you get to the program.

Parkland Club to Meet at Fluty's

Members of the Parkland Riding club and anyone else who would like to come will meet at the Fluty ranch, 138th and Park Avenue, at 9 sharp. We leave right on the dot for Woodbrook. All you have to do is bring your horse. Probably twenty or more will ride from here to Woodbrook. See you there Sunday morning . . . rain or shine the program goes on.

Round-Up Queen

Your committee met Thursday noon at the Bungalow. Roy Vaughan, owner, very graciously offered the place as Round-up headquarters for us. We will meet there every Thursday noon for lunch and a committee meeting until this is over, so you can see we are working hard at the job.

What I was getting around to saying was that at the meeting the subject of the selection of the Roundup Queen came up. It was decided by the majority of the committee that the Roundup Queen would be selected as follows:

1. Any club in the area may submit two candidates for the title.
2. Candidates must be 16 years of age or over and single.
3. Candidates belonging to organized groups may enter; however, organizational uniforms cannot be worn. This is to place every candidate on an equal status.
4. Judges will not be associated with any riding club or group. They will be strictly outside.
5. Five candidates will be selected at the Washington Horsemen Spring Show on April 20th. From the five a Queen will be selected. The other four remaining candidates will be the princesses.
6. Candidates will be selected on horsemanship, appearance and personality.

Each candidate will prepare a very short statement as to why she would like to be queen. She will give these reasons in person at the judging.

Well, folks, that is the way your committee decided the contest. I think it is as fair as could be done.

SPANAWAY NEWS

Mrs. Chet McAtee - GR. 8066

Alfred Warren Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Smith, arrived home by plane Friday night from San Diego Navy Training Station to attend the wedding of his sister Donna.

New at Beauty Shop

Jane Stewart is the new owner of the Spanaway Beauty Shop. She lives near the Roy "Y" in the Spanaway community and has had 15 years' experience in beauty work. She is highly recommended by Mrs. Dorothy Winston, former owner of the shop.

Wedding

Miss Donna Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Marion Smith, and Melvin Elmore were married Saturday evening, April 5, at a small home wedding with Rev. Stanley R. Weddle reading the service. Mrs. Marie Woracek, only sister of the bride, acted as matron of honor, and Ralph Storlie was the best man. The bride wore a white ballerina length dress with fingertip veil, with bouquet of rosebuds and carnations. Mrs. Woracek wore a carnation corsage on her dark blue suit. Mrs. Elmore will live with her parents until she graduates from Clover Park high school. Mrs. Smith wore black with a carnation corsage.

Have Measles

Lois and Arlene McCullough, daughters of the Bob McCullougs, have the measles.

Attend P-TA Convention

Attending the P-TA convention at Fruitland Grange hall Thursday, April 3, were Mesdames Chet McAtee, Bill Walin, Orem, Mabel Patton, Franz Holmes and Pamela Stewart.

Bicycle Inspection

A bicycle inspection sponsored by the Spanaway Business Men's club was held on the school grounds Saturday, April 5. Winners was Joyce Walin in the smaller children's group and Joanne Clink in the larger children's group. Many prizes were awarded in the skill contest.

Guests

Staff Sgt. and Mrs. William Stack of Spokane were overnight guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Walin recently. She is the former Moyle Packard.

26-K Republican Club

The 26-K Republican club will meet Thursday evening, April 17, at 8 o'clock at the Spanaway fire hall.

Air Raid Warning

At 7:30 p.m. Monday, April 21, sirens in the Parkland area will be tested in anticipation of cooperation in the surprise practice state-wide alert some time in May. The three fire trucks will be stationed in different parts of the area and their sirens, and the siren at the fire hall, will be augmented by some type of alarm signal from the bell tower of the new PLC chapel-music-speech building.

Arrangements were made for the test April 7 in a meeting of the Parkland Volunteer Fire department with Trav Dryer, Civil Defense co-ordinator for this section.
