Woodland Boy Scouts Have Many Activities

Woodland Boy Scout troop No. 174 is off to a fine start for a busy year. On July 8 Chairman Clancy Moore, Int. Rep. Ben Ruyle, Explorer Advisor Russell Matthews, A. S. M. Dick Lane and Committee-men Larry Bartolone and Harold Hanson met at the home of Scoutmaster George Newcomer to discuss and form new policies for the troop. New policies resolved on had to do with advancement, attendance, dues, troop meetings, courts of honor and special get-togethers with the boys' parents; also new policies on admittance of new boys to the troop. A tentative program with many highlights was planned for the year. Mr. Goodell, commissioner of a neighbor troop, sat in on part of the session and gave some valuable pointers on Scouting. Mrs. Newcomer served refreshments.

Ten of the boys were at Hohobas, the Boy Scout summer camp on Hoods Canal, from Aug. 3 to 9, at which time the boys received instruction in swimming, marksmanship, boating, forestry, wood lore, trailing, cooking, camping and hiking. Included in the party were Bob Matthews, Jim McManus, Buzz Norwell, Don Spencer and Peter Parks, Explorer Scouts; Robert Williams, Steve Kenworthy, Dennis Moore, Bruce Moore and Bill Newcomer, Boy Scouts, and Scoutmaster George Newcomer, who had as good a time as the boys. The boys said they had a wonderful time and plenty to eat, too. Each boy is allocated to a tent.

New Franklin Pierce High Opens Sept. 3

First classes for the new Franklin Pierce high school will meet on Sept. 3 at 8 a.m. For a short time classes will be held in the Parkland grade school building. Unforeseen delays have made it impossible to open the new high school building for the opening day of school. It will be ready for use, however, within a few weeks. Meanwhile, the schedule will be as follows:

Grades 9 and 10 will meet in the main building at Parkland from 8 a.m. to 12 noon and grade 5 will have classes from 8 a.m. to 12 noon in the 4th grade rooms in the wing.

Grades 4, 6, 7 and 8 will have classes from 12:30 to 4:30 p.m.

Grades 1, 2, 3 and kindergarten will observe regular school hours, beginning at 9 a.m.

The reason for the double-shifting of grades 4 and 5 is that the high school students cannot use the small seats required for 5th graders.

Teacher assignments and bus schedules will be announced next week.

Newcomers to the district are reminded that any high school pupils in the families should register at the Parkland school this week or next. Those attending high school from this district last year need not register till the opening of school.

PLC OFFERS NEW PIANO COURSE

For some time Pacific Lutheran College has keenly felt the need and heard the many requests for a program in music for all students desiring piano lessons, but who are below college age. Under the direction of Mr. R. Byard Fritts, the music department staff, the PLC Preparatory department is now becoming a reality to provide the finest type of piano instruction for students of any age group, whether they be beginners, or have had previous training. Announcement of this opportunity has been awaited by many parents and young musicians in this locality as the answer to requests that have come in from all sides, and promises the very best musicianship for those who take advantage of it.

Tuition costs are being set at the lowest possible figure with the plan that this program will serve the community as a public service. Lessons are to be $1.50 for a half-hour period once a week, payable in advance to coincide with the school semester system. Each lesson may be scheduled at the time best suited for each individual student, either after school on week days, or on Saturdays. This scheduling may be done during registration time on the campus, dates to be announced later. Further information may be had by calling or writing Mr. Fritts, or the Registrar's office.

In order to facilitate preliminary arrangements, the coupon below should be filled out now and mailed to the College. In all fairness, those applying first will be given preference in the event that a large registration might mean that some would have to be turned away until facilities could be expanded further.

NEW BUS SERVICE ASSURED SOON IN PARKLAND AREA

Bus service in the Parkland and Spanaway area now appears to be assured as the result of the concentrated efforts of a group sponsoring the proposition. A meeting of all those interested was held Friday evening in the Home & Farm Bureau offices.

The B-Line Transit Co. is now incorporated for $50,000 with Les Wallace, Jim Loring and Bob Owen as the incorporators. These three men, with Bill Black and Jack Brown, are the acting board of directors with Brown as chairman. Black, vice chairman, Mrs. Jim Loring, secretary, and Ed Stevens, treasurer. Appointed to these offices, they will serve until a permanent organization of the company is effected at the Oct. 1 business meeting.

Stock holders in the newly formed company are practically all public spirited business people of the Parkland area. While they are convinced that the transit project will be successful and profitable, they are primarily interested in obtaining for the community adequate transportation facilities which will promote its development as a trading point and home center.

Stockholders of the company will meet at 8 p.m. Friday, Aug. 22, in the offices of the Home & Farm Bureau, at which time a temporary organization will be completed and plans for the operation of buses will be discussed. It is expected that regular bus service will be inaugurated in the very near future.

Those in charge state that routes and schedules are being worked out which will not only enable people to get to and from the stores of Spanaway, Parkland and vicinity, but will carry them into Tacoma with free transfers to another line. Customers may also transfer for McChord, Madison, Mt. Rainier Ordinance Depot and other points.

City-Co. Bldg. Need Told In City Chambers Tuesday

At a joint meeting of the City-County officials and the twenty man advisory board recently appointed by the commissioners it was revealed today that the unanimous opinion of those groups is that a new building is needed by the city and the county to house the new proposed City-County building.

Big John Anderson, Tacoma's popular major spoke out in strong approval of the proposed building before the joint committee.

Mayor Anderson also indicated that the City Council members were in favor of the construction of such a building and that the body has no definite plan in mind as to where it will be built. It will support any site that is decided upon by the joint committee it was indicated. Big John also noted that the county newspapers were very cooperative in the matter and that most of the sound reasoning and publicity of the proposed building had come from those sources.

Recent public statements by a local leading newspaper that the plan lacked planning and foresight brought strong comment by the mayor who immediately stated that the construction of a City-County Building had been given much thought and planning by a group of leading citizens and businessmen of the city and county for the past four years.

The present city hall and the court house are both old structures and are very dangerous and inadequate to the needs of an expanding city and county it was pointed out. Repairs to the court house alone would exceed any figure within reason. Records are not safe nor are facilities adequate.

Another meeting of this group is planned for next Tuesday morning at 10:30 in the city hall council chambers where more plans and discussion will take place.

Roger McDonald, president of the Parkland Business Club is representing this area on the 20 man board. Mr. McDonald points out that the construction of this new City-County Building is of considerable importance to county residents and Parkland Area. The final selection of the site is of paramount importance to county residents.

GOP Hosts to Kids At Pony Park Aug. 23

Saturday, Aug. 23, will be a big day at Pony Lake park for all youngsters in Pierce county when they will be guests of the Republican precinct committee of Pierce county. Free rides for the children will begin at noon and last until sundown.

John A. H. Berry and Richard McGradie are co-chairmen of the committee which includes Frank Quinn and members of the Pierce County Speaker's bureau with Charles Griffith as chairman. Distinguished visitors will be on hand to greet the children and their parents.

Pony Lake park is located on the Old Pacific highway between North Puyallup and Sumner and has for the entertainment of the children real live points, a miniature train, airplane rides, a ferris wheel and boats. There are no picnic facilities but a concession booth will sell coffee, pop and hot dogs. Free ice cream will be served to the children.

All youngsters and their parents in Pierce county are invited to this affair. Contact your Republican precinct committeeman for free tickets.

McDonald on Advisory Committee

Harry Sprinker, our commissioner for the 2nd district has announced that Roger McDonald, president of the Parkland Business Club will be the representative from the Parkland Area on the advisory committee to the County Commissioners and the Planning Commission in regards to the planning of the new City-County Building which will go on the ballot this coming election.

In order that the Commissioners, the City Council, The Planning Commission may have advice and information from all over the county on this vital problem a twenty man advisory board has been appointed of which Roger is one.

They will submit recommendations to the board which will help in the final presentation of the proposition to the public in the coming election.

The need for a County City Building is apparent . . . if the voters of the county say no to building a new court house they will still have to pay a large portion of the cost of a new building in remodeling the present structure to even meet safety requirements of the city and county. Two new court rooms will have to be added immediately which will be an additional expense to a cracker.

Maybury GOP Nominee For State Treasurer

Charles R. Maybury, 1948 Republican nominee for state treasurer, opened his campaign here this week for re-nomination to that post.

Maybury is a former director of licenses and served several terms as chief clerk of the House of Representatives. He is a resident of Olympia and has continuously taken an active part in public affairs there.

Maybury is campaigning on a platform of improved record keeping procedures in the treasurer's office that will give the public more complete information on the operation of state finances. He advocates a reduction in the number of accounts in the state treasury and the elimination of the practice of transferring funds from one account to another to avoid public confusion regarding state financial reports.

EATONVILLE HAS COMPLETED OWN LANDING STRIP

Eatonville, one of western Washington's most progressive communities, has taken another step forward with the completion of a 2,000-foot airplane landing strip, without the aid of federal, state or other governmental financing.

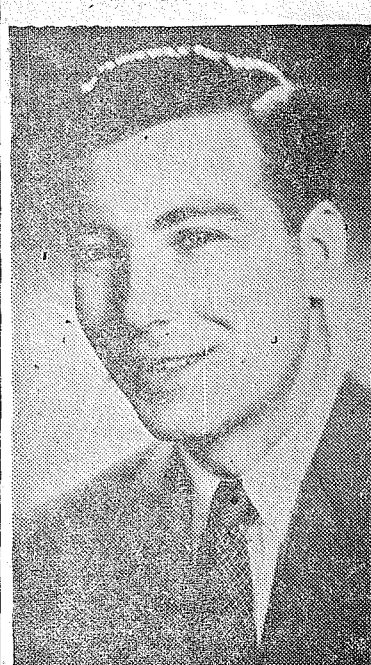

Councilman John Swanson, himself a pilot and plane owner, spearheaded the volunteer effort which resulted in the construction of the field in less than two weeks. Citizens of the community gave their time and equipment to clear and grade the field. The strip was built partly on land already owned by the town and the rest was purchased by Swanson and his brother and given to the town.

The field is expected to be of value in case of emergencies requiring medical assistance and also should benefit business establishments in the area. Previously the nearest airports were Thun field, south of Puyallup, and Spanaway, both about 15 miles from Eatonville. The field will also fit into the network of emergency fields built in the mountain areas by the State Aeronautical Commission.

Construction of a concrete and steel hangar 42 by 45 feet is completed at the field. The field has been well rolled and is in good shape for a newly graded landing area.

Zoning Law Beneficial
In case you don't know . . . certain portions and areas of the highway are zoned as to the type of structures and businesses which can be erected and operated.
This zoning rule and the insistence of the county commissioner Harry Sprinker that it be upheld is responsible for the action of the state in disallowing the idea of construction of oil storage tanks and heating facilities at the Tulé Lake and Mountain Road intersection.
Had the state constructed this odor making plant at the location mentioned the value of property would certainly depreciate considerably in that area besides being obnoxious to the neighbors and an eyesore to the highway.
An objection was made by the residents which was upheld by Mr. Sprinker, which in turn was responsible for the state in deciding to build elsewhere.
The area in question is zoned for residential construction only.
Here you have a working example of some of the services which your county commissioners can and will do for you if you take the trouble to consult with them.

Legion News

Parkland Post and Unit No. 228,
American Legion

The American Legion and Auxiliary state convention came to a close Saturday after a week of hard work and lots of fun. New faces to be seen this coming year will be the officers elected to carry on the work of the organization.

Lloyd Stoddard of Everett was unanimously elected Commander of the Washington Department of the American Legion following the surprise withdrawal from the race of Maurice Nedham of Shelton. Stoddard is a retired Everett businessman, a veteran of World War II and a leader in the Earl Faulkner post there.

Other department officers elected for the Legion were, Mrs. Alice B. Lawrence of East Wenatchee, vice commander; Rev. Albert Forgy of Vancouver, Wash., chaplain; Lynn Robinson of Seattle was re-elected historian; Frank Larosa of Aberdeen, sergeant-at-arms; Clarence A. "Doc" Cummins of Carson, west side vice commander, and Jasper A. Reynolds of Walla Walla, east side vice commander. The delegates chose Yakima as the site for their 1953 convention.

Among the many resolutions passed at the convention were these asking:

1. That the Legislature set up a permanent committee on un-American activities.
2. That weekly flag exercises be held in schools.
3. That American history be made a compulsory subject in the state's public schools.
4. That wards of 500 additional beds be constructed at American Lake Veterans hospital.
5. That the Veterans Administration provide additional funds for G. I. farm loans.
6. That Korean veterans be given the same privileges extended to World War II vets.

Commander James Linder, delegate to the convention from Parkland post, assisted by Walter Fritz, Frank Berry, James St. John, Leonard Blakely and Severin Kittleson, were on hand at all meetings and also participated in the parades.

The many activities of the Auxiliary convention kept the delegates from the Parkland unit busy also. Installation of newly elected department officers was held Saturday afternoon in the Fellowship hall, Masonic Temple, in Tacoma. Mrs. Henry Ahnemiller of Seattle was elected president of the American Legion Auxiliary, Department of Washington. As president, Mrs. Ahnemiller succeeds Mrs. Arthur Von Cadow of Dayton.

Other state officers elected were: Mrs. Anthony S. Walter of Okanogan, east side vice president; Mrs. Byron Thumma, Port Orchard, west side vice president; Mrs. Alex Parke, Grandview, historian; Mrs. Frank S. Evans, Sedro Wooley, chaplain. Mrs. Von Cadow will serve as national executive committeewoman and Mrs. Ellen Sandry of Seattle will continue as state secretary. Mrs. Grace Ellis of Tacoma will continue as treasurer. Mrs. Ahnemiller made the following appointments: Mrs. Myra Bloomfield, Edmonds, rehabilitation; Mrs. Milton Schroeder, Auburn, child welfare; Mrs. Ethel Turnham, community service; Mrs. George D. Rowe, Seattle, publicity; and Mrs. Hazel Abdill, finance.

During the awarding of the trophy and awards, the Parkland unit lost the Mary Shepley gavel bell to the Hoodspoint unit. He Hoodspoint unit won the bell by having four more paid-up members for 1953 than Parkland had, although the Parkland unit went to the convention with 100 per cent quota paid for 1953. The Parkland delegates did not come home empty handed though; a citation for meeting all department requirements and an honorable mention for performing duties in excess to requirements was also awarded.

Mrs. Phyllis Blackstone, music chairman for the convention, was presented with a huge floral bouquet following the installation of officers by the out-going department president, Mrs. Arthur Von Cadow, in appreciation of the music played during all sessions of the convention. Mrs. Blackstone played the Hammond organ.

Assisting the four Tacoma units in making this convention a big success were the following Parkland members: Mrs. Blackstone, Mrs. James Linder, Mrs. Walter Fritz, Mrs. Lanz, Mrs. Frank Berry, Mrs. Marion St. John and Mrs. Leonard Blakely.

Commander and Mrs. James Linder left immediately following the convention for a two weeks vacation. Their first stop will be Portland to visit relatives.

THE EASTVOLD FAMILY

Candidate Don and wife Elva holding twins Dawn and Sharon with Dianne and Carl seated below. Jimmy, the eldest boy, was at summer camp.

"The wife and family of every candidate are the hardest working people in any campaign. My wife Elva is running my Tacoma headquarters at 748 Commerce Street in the Winthrop Hotel building. When Jimmy gets back from summer camp he'll start tacking up posters. Even Dianne and Carl are catching the spirit of politics. Only the twins are unaware of the meaning of a political campaign."

HALF A MILLION FEET OF LUMBER TO CHOOSE FROM

Pearl A. Wanamaker, state superintendent of public instruction since 1941, is seeking reelection to this non-partisan office in the coming primaries on September 9.

During three terms in that position Mrs. Wanamaker has gained national and international recognition both for herself and the State of Washington by her aggressive leadership in the field of education. As president of the state board of education, executive officer of the state board for vocational education, and chairman of the state library commission, she has vigorously fought for better schools and has focused national attention on Washington's educational system.

In recognition for her work she was elected president of the National Education Association in 1946-47, president of the National Council of Chief State School Officers in 1950-51, and is currently vice-president of the American Association of School Administrators. She served on General MacArthur's commission for the democratization of Japan's educational system following the war, is now on the joint Canada-United States committee on education and the United States national commission for UNESCO. In 1946 she was adviser to the United States delegation at the first UNESCO conference in Paris.

A graduate of the University of Washington, Mrs. Wanamaker taught both elementary and high school classes. In 1923 she was elected county superintendent of schools in Island county being, at the time of her election, the youngest county superintendent in the country. Later she served several terms as state representative and state senator where she spearheaded school legislation. The Showalter Bill, providing basic state support to school district on a per-pupil attendance basis, and the Yantis-Wanamaker Equalization Law, the greatest single step toward providing equal educational opportunity for every child no matter where he might live, were two of her major legislative accomplishments which since have become standard procedure for school support in many other states.

Because of her outstanding work for the youth of the state she was urged to file for the office of State Superintendent in 1940, was elected then and reelected in 1944 and 1948 by overwhelming majorities.

Mrs. Wanamaker sums up her reasons for her avid interest in education very directly by saying, "I believe that I can best serve my State by serving its children".

WALLER ROAD

By MRS. VERNE FOGLE GR. 5210

Mrs. Milton Telford came from Portland, Ore., last Thursday for a short visit with her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. O'Brien of Vickery road.

Family Party
A family get-together was held last Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Verne Fogle. Present for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Norman Gustafson of Salinas, Calif., a brother of Mrs. Fogle; Mrs. A. E. Gustafson, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Heather and son Fred and Frank Baker, all of Tacoma, and Mr. and Mrs. L. J. McMahon. Mr. and Mrs. Gustafson and daughter Nancy are spending a month with friends and relatives in Tacoma.

Visitors
Visitors at the Rudolph Geise home last week were Mrs. Geise's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Neher from Oakland, Calif.

Guest Soloist
Little Carol Ferch was guest soloist at the recent Heatherland Dance Studio revue held in the Tacoma Little Theatre. She also was on the Roy Gordon talent program at the Temple theatre a week ago and appeared on the KMO program conducted by Mr. Gordon on the following Monday evening.

Honored at Shower
Mrs. L. F. McMahon (Bunny Fogle) was honored guest at a blessed event shower held for her last Wednesday at the home of Mrs. George May. Mrs. Gilbert Carlson was co-hostess. Many lovely gifts were presented by the guests. Following the opening of the presents the hostesses served refreshments.

New Son
A baby boy was born Aug. 14 to Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wing (Dixie Heinz) now residing with her parents in Tacoma but well known in the Waller Road district. The baby has been named Gary Allen.

Birthday
Friends and relatives of Mrs. Paul Juelling of Chering road dropped in last Friday to help her celebrate her birthday. Present were Mesdames Jo Kemp, formerly of Waller road; H. Jensen, A. Carlson, H. Cannon, Alice Johnson, Axel Johnson, Pauline Jensen, Gilbert Carlson, Richard Pullin, Marie Therkelsen E. Sloane, Helmut Juelling, Edith Sullivan, Bert Reuse, Ellis Anderson and George May, Julie Lou Juelling and the honor guest.

Community Fair Sept. 5
Once more things are humming around the Waller Road community as preparations are made for the annual community fair Sept. 5 in the Waller Road hall. Mrs. Ellis Anderson is general chairman with Mrs. Rudolph Geise assisting her as co-chairman. Others serving on the committee are Grangers, Mothers club members and 4-H leaders. They are Mrs. Henry DeMecker, in charge of advertising; Mrs. J. O'Brien, acting secretary; treasurer; Mrs. V. Fogle and Mrs. F. Swanson, tickets. Others on the committee are Mrs. William Tharpe, Mrs. C. W. Laham, Mrs. R. Sorenson, Mrs. E. Thompson and Mrs. W. Spiller.

Each year these organizations plan a community fair to give all residents the chance to display the products grown in their gardens. Our only desire is to see an entry from every family fortunate enough to be able to raise a garden. For our fair to be a success it needs the support of the community as a whole. Don't let us down. Plan to enter into this community project. We want a wonderful display of canned fruit and vegetables and baked goods as well; there will also be a floral exhibit.

As an added attraction for this year, there will be a baby show and contest. A silver loving cup will be awarded as first prize; a silver baby spoon and a silver spoon and fork set will also be given. We feel that with so many lovely babies in our district it would prove to be a very popular attraction. There will be three age groups: Up to six months, six months to one year; one year to two years.

In the hobby division, there will be a special feature this year also. We are having a favorite snapshot contest. Each entry is to be pasted on a sheet of paper, with name attached. With a prize. Tickets will be made, we wish you to share it with the many people who attend the fair. This is one feature that has grown with the fair. Last year we had very interesting displays in many different hobbies.

As in previous years, there will be exhibits of fancy work, baking, 4-H exhibits, school exhibits, displaying the work of the school children. There will be booths for many games, the usual sale of pop, ice cream and popcorn. In general there will be a carnival atmosphere that will delight the heart of grown-ups as well as the small fry. Plenty of carnival hats will be available, as well as other novelties.

The grand prize this year will be a beautiful bedspread, lovely blanket, two sheets and a pair of pillow cases. What lady wouldn't be happy to win such a prize. Tickets will be available soon. You do not have to be present to win this grand award but for the many other wonderful prizes you must be there.

The doors will open at 5:30 with the serving of an old fashioned home cooked dinner, the menu including home baked beans, hot dishes, a variety of salads, dessert and coffee and milk, each serving priced at 10 cents.

In this project, we have the wholehearted support of all of our merchants, who have donated many wonderful prizes each year. Also, many merchants in Puyallup and Tacoma have generously helped out. Now we ask that you keep Sept. 5 as a special date on your calendar and do your part in supporting your own community fair. It is open to the public and all are assured of a good time.

Distemper Epidemic

Dr. Van Hoesen of the Pacific Avenue Veterinary Clinic has informed me that the current epidemic of distemper among horses of the area is very serious. So many people have reported that their horse has been coughing and having a running nose that I began making inquiries and found that it was not an occasional complaint but practically the entire horse population of the community which was becoming affected with the malady.

Don't kid yourself . . . it is serious and could result in the death of your horse if allowed to continue . . . Dr. Van Hoesen states that the disease if caught early with certain preparations can be practically stopped overnight, however as is the case with most people, they allow the running nose and cough to go on thinking that it will go away . . . If during the time the horse is infected he should become overheated or sweated up it is quite possible to develop into a serious condition or even death to the animal.

Summing it all up . . . it looks like this: Keep your horse away from other horses, don't water your horse where others have drank and don't work the horse if it shows signs of coughing or running nose . . . and to avoid further complications contact your vet immediately.

Thanks Dr. Van Hoesen for the advice . . . we appreciate it.

Kitsap County Fair Horse Show
The show mentioned in the Kitsap County Fair Horse Show sponsored by the Silver Spur and Kitsap Saddle Club to be held on the 23rd and 24th of August at Bremerton at the Fairgrounds. Judge for the event will be Ed Heinemann of the Washington State Horse Breeders Association.

As a special treat and of interest to many from this area will be the fact that George Prescott of the Ellensburg Rodeo Association will be the master of ceremonies. George is the voice that you hear annually at the greatest of shows hereabouts. The Puyallup Valley Fair. (Western Washington Fair to you). He has announced rodeo events throughout the entire Northwest with outstanding results. Shucks! I'd go to the show just to hear George announce . . . but there is a lot more than just announcing at this highly contested horse show which is a state show by the way for those of you who only show your horse at state shows.

A two day event, the show starts at 8:00 p.m. DST on the evening of 23rd with Open jumping, English Pleasure, Larry Lewis Exhibition, under 14 and 18 equitation, barrel race, relay (teams of 4), open five gaited class, pair class (E or W) Stock horse class, Ladies side saddle, Pole bending (individual), Trailer race and Rainwater Indians exhibition.

Sunday afternoon at 1:30 you can see a stock alley jumping, Road hack class, Western pleasure class, Possé relay, Equitation (Western under 14) Parade Horse Class, Trail Horse Class, Open five-gaited class, parent and child class, Pole bending, (teams of 4 Arabian Costume Class).

It will be a good show and tough competition with hundreds of the Northwest's finest horses in attendance. You will enjoy the show and if you win you can well be proud. See you there.

Visit to Lawrence in Portland

Took time out Thursday, to take a quick trip to Portland to see a few advertisers about the Hitching Post and to visit the Lawrence Saddle Company. Brother Frank went along . . . we had a good and interesting time at the Lawrence Company.

Mr. Muckleroy, superintendent of the Lawrence Company, took time out from his busy job to show us around the huge plant. We were particularly interested in the portion of the plant where the saddles were made so naturally spent most of our time there. It was quite a revelation to see how some of the finest pieces of leather in the Northwest are put together piece by piece until they finally emerged from the end of the line a bright shining example of outstanding craftsmanship and handwork of the staff of skilled workmen who proudly produce them.

I'm not going into detail here as to how the saddles were made, inasmuch as it is quite a story in itself and also because I am planning a trip to Pendleton soon to see the famed Hamley plant and their methods of production . . . we are also planning a feature story complete with pictures in a future issue of your new Northwest Horsemen Magazine. The NORTHWEST HITCHING POST . . . hope you will want to read it when it comes out.

Northwest Hitching Post Show Sept. 7th

Yep, that's right, your newest horse magazine has entered the show business. On Sunday, September 7th, starting at 1 o'clock you will be treated to the horse show of horse shows for the season. After watching all the other shows in season we feel that we can now present a show with only the features you like . . . precision . . . non bickering of officials . . . clockwork presentation . . . no lost time . . . events you will want to participate in. (I'll give you complete listing next week), however right at the moment plan to see fast action, pole bending, teams and individual, stock horse class which will really be something . . . shucks I don't want to tell you everything about it or you will know as much as we do.

Place for this gigantic spectacle of horse flesh will be at the rodeo grounds at the horse and a half ranch just a mile off the highway (Mountain Highway) . . . there will be big signs so you can't miss it. The grounds are large and the footing is good . . . plenty of room for trailers.

When the champion riders arrive back in the Ellensburg arena, they will meet the champion bucking stock; untamed horses fully capable of testing the riders' mettle. Stock contractors Kelsey & Ruppert of Tonasket, and Christenson Bros., of Eugene, Ore., are again picking over their arrays of buckers to ship the cream to Ellensburg.

Other Rodeo preparations for the current year are well in hand, too. The Montie Montana family foursome has been contracted to head the contingent of trick riders and ropers, which also includes twin sister newcomers to Northwest rodeos, Darlene and Lorene Bowyer from Kingman, Kan., who have appeared at a number of other of the nation's largest Western shows, including the Cheyenne Frontier Days and the Fourth of July rodeo at Belle Fourche, S. D. So well is Montana's position as a fancy rider and roper established that hardly more than a mention of his name is necessary to assure the finest Western entertainment.

The cape-swinging, Brahma bull-fighting Rodeo clown this year will be Elmer Holcomb, veteran Spokane prankster. Night shows will be held on Friday, Saturday and Sunday evenings of the Labor Day weekend, under the auspices of the Ellensburg Rodeo Posse; featuring calf scrambles, national championship cow cutting, state junior riding and other Northwest team pulling championships. Two-mile long, all horse-powered parades will be routed through the Ellensburg downtown section Saturday and Monday mornings, before the day shows at the Rodeo grounds inside the city. Rodeo tickets, now available by application to "The Rodeo, Ellensburg, Wash.," admit also to the exhibits and activities of the Kittitas County Fair, held simultaneously on adjacent grounds.

Joe Walcott, world heavyweight boxing champion, has signed to defend his title, Sept. 23, against Rocky Marciano, recent conqueror of Harry "Kid" Matthews. The aging champion will be given a return match within 90 days if he is defeated by the young challenger.

Roger Peck of Tacoma captured the 30th annual Seniors' Northwest Golf Association championship in Victoria, B. C., last Saturday. He defeated Ed Eisenhower, the Tacoma attorney, in a 22-hole marathon. Speaking of golf, the U. S. amateur golf championship struggle is in full swing in Seattle this week. The best amateur golfers in the nation are participating in the annual event.

The regular play in the City baseball league ended Friday night at Tiger park, with Spanaway handing South Tacoma a terrific thrashing, 17 to 1. Elmer Thiel hurled a neat two-hitter, and was aided by a 15-hit barrage by his teammates. Old Pilsner topped the league for the second half of play and will meet the Fort Lewis Rockets for the season's title in the near future.

Stan Sayres, Seattle business man and owner of the Sno-Mo IV, has assured the speedboat racing fans that he will have a new boat, the Sno-Mo VI, ready for the season next year. He plans to retire this year's champion of the Gold Cup, Sno-Mo IV, if his new boat is ready next year. The softball season is in its last week of competition at Athletic park this week. The six remaining teams of the tournament are playing a round robin series for the championship and the right to represent this area in the Northwest tournament. Games will be played every night this week.

Make it a date on your calendar right now . . . Sunday, September 7th at Uncle Ned Kennedy's Horse and a Half Ranch Rodeo Grounds. Everyone invited . . . Trophies and ribbons. Purse in the stock horse class.

Parkland Junior Show 14th

The same place will hold the scene of the Parkland Junior Show on the following Sunday it is announced by Adelyn Wickline, Parkland Junior adviser. We will give you the events later . . . this is for juniors 18 and under only in competition. Junior judges assisted by Del Wright.

Labor Day Show

Don't forget the Labor Day show sponsored by Del Wright at his Bar None track at 84th and So. Pine . . . two days . . . Sunday and Monday.

Al Bannerman took first place in the Graham Show Sunday in the coveted Stock Horse (reining) Class . . . Congrats Al . . . a good job.

Northwest Hitching Post

Yep, we are still hard at work on your newest completely localized horse magazine . . . designed for horsemen in the Northwest . . . many hours have already been spent in it's behalf and many more will be spent before it emerges as the Magazine of the Northwest . . . we hope when it is completed it will merit your patronage and subscription . . . in fact we would be pleased to have you take your chance early and show your faith in our adventure . . . we know you will like it . . . Subscription rates are $2.50 per year . . . many of our friends have given their support by subscribing in advance . . . how about it partner . . . have any faith in us?

Ellensburg Rodeo

ELLENSBURG — Although the 1952 Ellensburg Rodeo is still more than two weeks off, several of the "top hands" of the professional rodeo cowboy circuit have given assurance that they will be back in Ellensburg for the Pacific Northwest's big Labor Day weekend show, Aug. 30-31 and Sept. 1.

Already in with their entrance money are Gene Pruitt and Deb Copenhaver, two former Washington state riders; Sonny Tureman of John Day, Ore., and Buster Ivory of Hayward, Calif. Del Haverly, Benson, Ariz. named all-around cowboy champion of the world by the International Rodeo Association in 1951, is also expected to return this year to the Ellensburg "arena of champions," even though he ran into tough going here last year.

Pruitt, former of Tieton, now rides out of Arkansas. He was the Rodeo Cowboys Association world saddle bronc riding champion for 1948. Copenhaver is the current saddle bronc riding king of the rodeo world, named last year by the I.R.A. Formerly of Creston, he now lists Port Falls, Ida., as his home.

Tureman was I.R.A. bareback riding champion in 1948, while Buster Ivory won the bronc riding championship at the Pendleton, Ore., Round-Up in 1951.

When the champion riders arrive back in the Ellensburg arena, they will meet the champion bucking stock; untamed horses fully capable of testing the riders' mettle. Stock contractors Kelsey & Ruppert of Tonasket, and Christenson Bros., of Eugene, Ore., are again picking over their arrays of buckers to ship the cream to Ellensburg.

The Los Angeles Rams, 1951 professional football champions, battled a star-studded College All-Star eleven for 60 torrid minutes in Chicago last Friday night and finally salvaged the victory 10 to 7. The All-Stars dominated the play in the first half, leading 7 to 0 at the half. The second half was a thriller all the way with the great Bob Waterfield and his understudy, Norm Van Brocklin, leading the Rams to victory. The All-Star lineup included such outstanding stars as Babe Parilli, Ollie Matson, Les Richter, Vic Janowicz and the great All-American fullback from the University of Washington, Hugh McElhenney. Babe Parilli, the outstanding Kentucky quarterback, was voted the outstanding player award for the contest. The victory for the play-for-pay boys increased their margin of victories over the All-Stars. In the overall standings, the pro teams have 11 victories against 6 victories for the college stars.

Nearly 1000 youngsters, many accompanied by parents, turned out last Tuesday, August 12, to meet the nationally famous star of the Hoody Doody TV show, Clarabell the clown, a featured attraction at Soine's Parkland Shoe Store as a back-to-school sales promotion. As pictured above, Clarabell put on a fine show for young fans.

ready planning on the trip next year. Ben Buyle and Mr. McManus helped on the transportation to camp, with Russell Matthews going up on Friday to stay overnight with the boys. Ben went up on Saturday to help bring the boys home. The boys worked for many awards at camp. All won their camp emblems. Steve Kenworthy passed his second class. Bob Matthews worked on his requirements for Life and Eagle Scout and passed his tests for merit badges for swimming and life saving. All other boys worked on their 1st class requirements. Jim McManus had the honor of being nominated for the order of the Arrow. All boys received their Beaver Chips. There's a new rule this year. No boy can carry a knife or belt ax unless he has a Beaver Chip and no boy can have a Beaver Chip unless he knows the proper way to carry, handle, sharpen and receive ax or knife.

There were four other troops at camp and the local boys took active part in camp life, putting on campfire ceremonies. Wednesday night Bob Matthews gave a talk on his two weeks at trail camp in Snoqualmie National forest where he spent two weeks with Explorers from other troops under the leadership of Freeman Cochran, veteran scoutmaster and out-door-man. The boys worked part time for the forest service. Bob was chosen for the order of the Arrow.

Shaking Hands

Don Eastvold

This week we opened our campaign headquarters in Seattle and Tacoma. The Tacoma office is in the Winthrop Hotel building; the Seattle office is in the Music Hall Theater building at 1812 Seventh Ave. Mary Carroll, who is in charge of the Seattle office, together with two volunteer workers, was on duty the first morning the office was opened, when a man about forty years of age walked in the door. He was immediately given the full treatment. Mary greeted him with a smile and a hand shake. Miss Smith pinned an Ikc button on his shirt and Mrs. Brown handed him a handful of pamphlets. The ladies were operating at high gear but were somewhat dismayed when he announced: "Ladies, you're wasting your time. I just came to put in your telephone."

We attended a political rally in Seattle at which all of the legislative candidates were given an opportunity to speak for three minutes. Charles Stokes, a colored candidate for the legislature, was rather chidingly asked by his white opponent whether he expected to get all of the negro votes in the district. Charlie quickly came back with the question: "Do you expect to get all of the white votes?" He went on to say, quite appropriately, that there has been too much emphasis in the last several years on factionalism, sectionalism and a bidding for minority group votes. He quoted General Eisenhower who recently has urged a return to the spirit enunciated by Patrick Henry when he said: "I'm not a Virginian; I am an American."

Last week I participated in a debate with Art Paulson, who is presently a candidate for Lt. Governor and who was the chairman of the Kellogg movement in the state of Washington prior to the Chicago convention. Art and I disagreed on who would make the better president; which party had written the better platform; in fact, we disagreed on everything—with one exception. We agreed that anything would be a great improvement on what we now have in Washington, D. C.

One of the more interesting allegedly true political stories which I have heard recently was told by Sen. Harry Cain at the Kitsap county picnic last Monday night. Evidently Sen. Cain and Vice-president Barkley were discussing in the Senate cloak room what effect the corruption issue would

Girls like the way LeRoi socks look!

• They love the smooth, sleek look of these ribbed, ankle-hugging socks. In a rainbow of Fall shades and white.

• These triple-fold white bobby socks have the bulky look, but are neater and trimmer.

• Both have nylon-reinforced heels and toes for extra-long wear. Perfect for mixing and matching with blouses, skirts, sweaters and slacks.
