Troop 33 Wins Title In Local Scout Inspection

Results of the recent National Roll Call and Inspection of the Boy Scouts, covering troops in the Midland, Parkland, Collins, and Spanaway districts, have been announced by Neighborhood Commissioner Howard S. Willard, who conducted the inspections on behalf of L. L. Ames, district commissioner.

Highest aggregate honors and the neighborhood commissioner's plaque were won by Troop 33 of Parkland, sponsored by the Brotherhood of Trinity Lutheran Church, James M. McGuire, scoutmaster. Being 100 per cent uniformed, Troop 33 scored 1298 points out of a possible 1400, or 92.8%. They also scored 100 per cent in troop and committee attendance and 80 per cent in parent attendance, and 100 per cent in subscriptions to Boys Life. Troop 33's aggregate score was 84.7.

Inspection points were based on troop attendance, (10); committee attendance, (10); parent attendance, (5); advancements in rank, (8); troop program goal, (35); camping,

(10); Boys Life subscriptions, (7); and uniform inspection, (20).

Troop 34 of Spanaway, sponsored by Clover Creek Post 118, H. R. Bradshaw, scoutmaster, placed second in aggregate score, nosing out Troop 42 of Larchmont by a fraction of one per cent. Uniform inspection score of Troop 34 was 89.5%. They also took honors in camping, with an average of nine nights in camp per boy. The Explorer Scout unit of Troop 34 also took first honors as the best uniformed and smartest looking senior scout unit inspected. Aggregate score for this troop was 80.2.

Troop 42, sponsored by Edward Rhodes Post 2, James Phillips, scoutmaster, came in a close third with a score of 80.05. First honors were captured in scout advancement and troop program. But for the fact that the troop is now in the process of acquiring new uniforms and that a very poor representation of troop committee members was present, Troop 42 could easily have carried off first honors, Commissioner Willard observed.

Troop 92, sponsored by Collins Grange, and Troop 30, sponsored by James Sales Grange, both made fine showings, but were lacking in uniform appearance and committee and parent attendance.

It is stressed by Commissioner Willard that a very excellent program in scouting has been instituted, wherein a boy may join the Cubs at the age of eight, Boy Scouts at the age of 11, and Explorer Scouts, the new senior scouting program, at 14.

Parents are urged to encourage their boys to become affiliated with one of these groups, and are invited to attend the scout meetings with their boys, and to partake actively in their scout advancement work.

The South End scout calendar looks something like this: Troop 33 every Thursday evening at 7:30 at Trinity Church, Troop 30 every Wednesday evening at 7 at the Sales Grange Hall, Troop 42 every Thursday at 7:30 p.m. at the Scout Hall, 9628 East B, Troop 34 every Thursday at 7:30 p.m. at the Spanaway Scout Hall, and Troop 92 every Wednesday evening at 7:30 at the Collins school.

New Elk Plain Church Gets Land

A deed to land on which a new church will be built was given by Mr. and Mrs. Thorn Tibbits to the Elk Plain Community Church at a meeting of the newly-organized group last Wednesday.

Articles of incorporation, prepared by Earl V. Clifford, attorney for the group, were signed by the church officers, Harry R. Hutchinson, pastor; Thorn Tibbits and W. L. Gilstrap, deacons; Mrs. Doris Crim and Mrs. Lester Cruts, deaconesses; Edward Castle Sr., Gordon Johnson, George Dorfner and Ben L. Kuper, trustees.

Another meeting was held last night to adopt a constitution.

BROOKDALE 4-H SEWERS RE-ELECT DOROTHY STUART

The Brookdale 4-H Sewing Club held a meeting Tuesday evening, Oct. 12, at the home of their new leader, Mrs. E. M. Krumm.

An election was held and Dorothy Stuart was re-elected president. There was a short program and refreshments were served.

FLIES TO ATTEND FUNERAL

Carl Korsmo of Airport Road, left by United Airlines last week to attend the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Emma Hanson, who had passed away suddenly at her home in Oak Park, Ill. Mr. Korsmo is expected back in Parkland this weekend.

Mum's the Word As Parkland Men Plan P-TA Frolic

The secrecy surrounding tonight's Parkland P-TA meeting will be shattered when the undercover committee of male parents in charge present the group's annual Dads' Night program. At that time, anything can happen and it probably will.

There have been many whispers as to what is forthcoming, but they seem to have been mainly misdirection. Only official pronouncement is that the Pops of the community plan to show the ladies how they think P-TA should be run. Eight o'clock is the time for the unveiling.

Last year's edition of Dads' Night featured an array of dress-draped ads, who split sides and shook rafters at the school, sending P-TA members into a tizzy with their interpretation of the P-TA theme, "World Mis-Understanding Begins at Home."

Of course there will be the regular business session conducted by Mrs. Woody Cline, but she promises to make this part of the doings short and snappy to turn the floor over to the fathers for their dizzy antics. She warns that even the most stolid P-TAs are apt to go into hysterics when the men take over.

Incidentally, Parkland school is supplying baby sitters at the rate of 25 cents per hour. Parents may call GR. 7235 to secure a baby sitter for the evening.

Do You Want a Refrigerator?

Would you like to own a new 1950 model nine-cubic-foot Crosley Custom Shelvador refrigerator? If you would, just tell Parkland-Brookdale Electric why in 50 words or less, and you may win one.

F. J. Nordyke, local Crosley dealer, announced this week that some person in this area will receive before Christmas a brand new Shelvador simply by completing the sentence, "I think you should give me a new 1950 Shelvador because . . ."

The gigantic contest began this week, and all entries are to be in the hands of Mr. Nordyke by Dec. 1, or mailed by Nov. 30. Persons wishing to enter may get their blanks at Parkland-Brookdale Electric.

Judges will be Morris Ford, school superintendent; Herbert Socolofsky, president of the Parkland Light and Water; and Arthur Swindland, Parkland bank executive. The winner will be notified by mail or phone.

Participants may submit only one entry in the local dealer's contest. However, they may also send an entry to the national division of the double-barreled Crosley million dollar give-away. In the national contest, the first four prizes are $10,000, $5,000, $2,500 and $1,500 in cash plus a complete Crosley electric kitchen. The next 20 awards are complete Crosley electric kitchens, and the next 100 are 1950 Shelvador refrigerators.

Since judging of the national contest will be separate from that in local contests, winners in the local contests will not necessarily be winners in the national. A green blank is used to enter the national contest, and a pink one for the local contest.

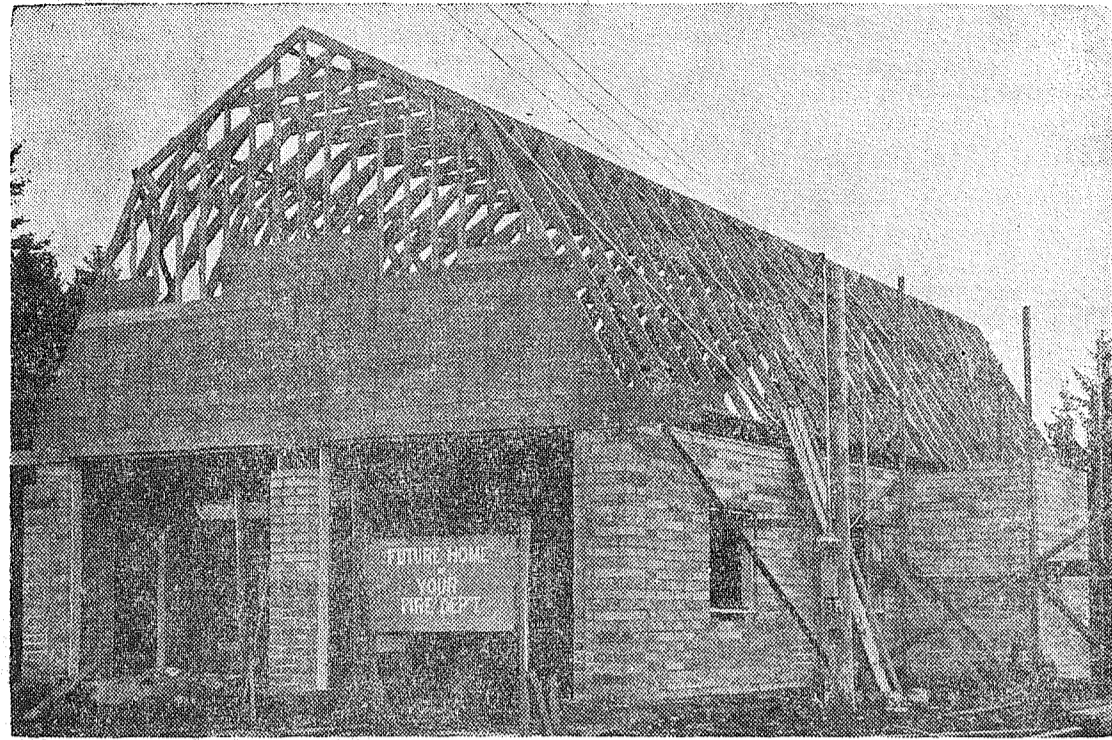

Mr. Nordyke is stressing that there is nothing to buy, nothing to learn, no box tops to send in. Furthermore, he invites all South Enders to visit his Parkland-Brookdale Electric shop at 13022 Pacific Avenue to look at the 1950 Shelvador and get ideas to use in the contest.

Central Avenue Forms Pre-School

A special committee of Central Avenue P-TA members has been making plans to organize a pre-school group for Central Avenue. The first meeting of the new group will be held Wednesday, Oct. 26, at 2 p.m. at the school.

A get-acquainted luncheon will precede the business meeting. Mrs. C. A. Spreen, chairman of the Pierce County Pre-school, and Mrs. Ernest Marcy, pre-school section leader of the Tacoma City Council of P-TA, will take charge of business and inform the group of the Pre-school activities. Officers will be elected and Mrs. A. W. Millard, president of the Pierce Council Council, will be on hand to install them.

Hostesses will be the Mesdames George Wangelin, Ross Boynton, and Ranghill Peterson, Mike Latterall, V. E. Redmond, and Emil Ripoli.

Summit's New Fire Hall Is Taking Shape

It has been a long and tedious process, but the fire hall for the Summit-Woodland-Collins fire district is rapidly taking shape. Work, which began last January, has been on a purely volunteer basis, and donations from residents, plus funds raised from various community projects, have financed the entire construction.

Most of the work has been done by the 15 volunteer firemen, especially on weekends. Another "work bee" is scheduled for this Saturday and Sunday. All available manpower in the district is urged to turn out, to speed up the completion of the hall.

The new building, located near the intersection of Airport and Canyon roads, will include sleeping quarters, a kitchen, sanitary facilities, and an auditorium upstairs for community meetings.

More money-raising projects to finance the construction are billed for the near future, including a delicious ham dinner which will be officially announced soon.

Commissioners of the fire district are Ray Gogan, E. W. Purdue, and H. J. Lee. Andy Ramsay of the Summit View Service is the chief.

Orthopedic Guild Show Saturday

Believe it or not, no less than 90 youngsters turned out to audition for the talent show to be presented this Saturday night at 8 o'clock in connection with the annual carnival sponsored by the Parkland and Sylvia Storaasli Orthopedic guilds. The doors open for the carnival at 5:30.

From this huge array of talent, Mrs. Stan Willis and her committee have selected the best acts, and promise that "a good show is in store for you." Judges in the Saturday night finals will be Mrs. Anne Kemp of the Midland guild, Mrs. Walter Young of PLC, Mrs. Olai Hageness of Sylvia Storaasli guild, Mrs. Earl Platt of the Parkland guild, and Mr. Eric Nelson of Sumner.

General chairman of the whole affair is Mrs. Robert Burt, who is assisted by Mrs. E. J. Perrault and her committees.

The bingo booth will be engineered by Morris Ford, Al Turner, and Jack Spence. Loads of good prizes have been secured. The carnival will feature games for young and old, a fish pond, and hobby, sewing and handicraft booths.

The "food fair" cafeteria supper will include hot dogs, potato salad, baked beans, home-made pies and cakes, ice cream and coffee. This will be sponsored by Sylvia Storaasli guild, Mrs. William Storaasli, chairman. Working with her are Mesdames T. M. Daniels and Virgil Bergh.

Other committees include: Tickets, Mrs. William Garnet; games, Mesdames Edward Hinderlie, Lester Storaasli, W. D. Johnson, Morris Ford, Al Turner, and Jack Spence; sewing booth, Mesdames Marv Tommerwik, Marv Harshman, and Marty North; fishpond, Mesdames Harold Anderson, I. M. Ulberg, and O. E. Morken; ticket sales, Mesdames Mel Pedersen, Lorna Greer, and N. I. Willis; and publicity, Mrs. Paul Bondo.

Mrs. Edwin Ellingson of Everett spent the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. Bryson. The Ellingsons are former residents of Parkland, and are now connected with an ambulance service.

Oh, Deer Me! What a Bunch of Sharpshooters the South End Has

Even though it is "the light of the moon," South End hunters are still bringing in deer by the ton to the Parkland Lockers for processing. And A. J. Stern, boss of the establishment, points out that the best hunting is still to come, when the deer will be feeding during the day.

Since the beginning of the season a week and a half ago, 54 deer have been brought to the Parkland Lockers.

New Traffic Laws To Be Enforced

Going into effect almost immediately in Parkland will be a new set of more stringent traffic laws. This was announced Tuesday morning at a hearing at the Pierce County courthouse.

In hopes of curbing Parkland's growing traffic problem, the county sheriff will start to enforce a maximum speed limit of 25 miles per hour throughout the entire community, and 15 miles on Garfield Street.

The county commissioners also recommended the elimination of many of the stop signs. They explained that now there are so many stop signs in Parkland that the average motorist hardly stops for any of them. Under the new setup, Park, Pacific, A Street, 116th, and Airport Road will be regarded as arterials. Stop signs at intersections of all other streets will be removed.

Commissioner Harry Sprinker also suggested the installation of a blinker light at the corner of Garfield Street and Park Avenue, in front of the college.

COLLINS GRANGE SLATES HALLOWEEN MASQUERADE

The Collins Grange is sponsoring a masquerade dance Oct. 29, at 9 p.m., at the Grange Hall. Ghosts and goblins will walk that night and prizes will be given for the most outstanding costumes. Everyone is welcome to come and enjoy the fun and good music is promised.

All money accrued from this dance will be used to enlarge the present Grange dining room which is very inadequate. The committee in charge is comprised of the Mesdames John G. Gorow, Lyle Parker and Ranghill Peterson.

Mrs. Robert Burt of Violet Meadow Street is general chairman for the Orthopedic Carnival and talent show which will be staged Saturday evening at the Parkland school. The annual event is under the auspices of Sylvia Storaasli and Parkland guilds for the benefit of the proposed children's hospital for the Tacoma area.

Com. Chest Drive Hits 27% of Goal

Midland Is First To Go Over Top

BULLETIN—Just as the Times went to press yesterday afternoon, Mrs. Robert Clinton, colonel of the Midland Community Chest campaign, phoned to report that Midland had just gone over the top. This is the second consecutive year that Midland has been the first district in the county to reach its goal.

With the campaign now in its second week, Parkland has still contributed only 27 per cent of its quota for the 1949 Community Chest, Colonels Inga St. Clair and Mrs. J. U. Xavier reported to the Times. However, they are encouraged by the fine response shown by many residents, and hope that Parkland will be able to top its quota of $1,000.

To date, $263.47 have been turned in. Some sections haven't yet been contacted at all, but will be before the end of October.

Most sensational news about the Community Chest drive in the South End right now is that Spanaway had reached 88 per cent of its quota of $200 as the Times went to press yesterday afternoon. Miss Alice E. Randall, colonel for the district, said that she hoped to go over the top today. Assisting her have been Miss Marie Huth and Mrs. Louis Symmons.

Last year it was the Midland-Harvard-Summit district that won the award for being the first residential area in the county to raise its quota. Last year's chairman, Mrs. Hansler, is aiding Mrs. Robert Clinton to put Midland over the top again. Also soliciting is Mrs. James Evans. This trio has already collected about $300.

Majors working in the Parkland district are Mesdames William Johnson, Carl Hedlund, Ira Tisch, T. O. Svare, G. Haakenson, and Ernest Harmon, and Mr. John McBride, a student at PLC.

Captains in the intensive campaign are Mesdames A. H. Hance, W. J. Colbentz, Frank Healy, John McCaffrey, Leonard Halvorson, N. Peterson, Frank Bryan, Robert Binkly, Mike Wutz, Harold Leraas, M. Munson, L. B. Richardson, Art Swindland, Art Daniels, and Earl Rau, and Messrs. M. P. Hokenstad, Chester Ottness, Ted Lund, and Calvin Johnson.

It is pointed out that Parkland ought to be able to raise at least $1,000 this year because the community turned in $1,130 last year. The best way for residents to help the drive and the 35 welfare agencies which are its beneficiaries is to be at home with the welcome mat out when the Red Feather solicitor calls.

Evening Meetings At Tabernacle

Featured at a series of evening meetings now in progress at the Spanaway Gospel Tabernacle at 6th Street are the Rev. and Mrs. P. R. Nichols from California and Miss Delores Galloway from Montana. Besides speaking, they are also playing the bass viol, vibraphone, and accordion at the meetings.

Rev. Stanley Weddle, pastor, says that the series will continue with sessions at 7:45 tonight and Friday night, and at 7:30 Sunday night. He remarked that he has been pleased with the excellent attendance.

The Sunday school, under the leadership of Superintendent Clarence Johnson, recorded an attendance of 191 last Sunday morning. This number is expected to go even higher. Sunday school is at 9:45, and morning worship at 11 a.m.

Resolution Honors Collins Ex-Principal

Whereas: Mr. Will Guilford, principal of Collins School from 1945 to 1949, has announced his retirement from the teaching profession; and Whereas: Mr. Guilford's leadership as principal of Collins school was of great benefit to our children and our community;

Therefore, Be It Resolved: That we, the Collins P-TA, in regular meeting assembled October 11, 1949, express our grateful appreciation to Mr. Guilford for his service to our school; And Be It Further Resolved: That copies of this resolution be sent to Mr. Guilford and to the Tacoma and Parkland papers.

Recreation Club Plans More Improvements for Dawson Field

By MRS. LOIS JOHANN

Dawson Field Recreation Club will meet next Tuesday at 8 p.m. at the fieldhouse. Election of officers will be the main feature on the agenda, with Mrs. Olive Huston presiding. Hostesses for the evening will be Mrs. Ervin Smith and Mrs. Raymond Ellison.

The group announces that the first in a series of fund-raising projects to improve Dawson Field will be a spaghetti dinner and movie to be held at Midland Hall, Friday, Nov. 11. The money raised last spring by the club was used to purchase a set of junior swings and a slide. Now being purchased is a juke box for the fieldhouse.

Members hope to go on from this to make Dawson Field one of the nicest in the Metropolitan Park district. Midlanders must raise one-half the cost of every improvement, the park district supplying the balance.

Fifty members gathered for the meeting of the Dawson Teen-age club at the fieldhouse last Thursday evening. Audrey Archer, supervisor of recreation centers, was present to assist Bill Ellington, director of the teen-age center, and his assistant, Doris Beardsley, in organizing the group into a club with officers and committee chairmen.

Officers elected were Claude Johann, president; Beverly Corrigan, vice-president; Bob Snyder, secretary-treasurer; and Gary Stevens, sergeant-at-arms. The new officers will conduct a short business session prior to the regular weekly activities, beginning with tonight's meeting.

New hours for the center are 7 to 10 p.m. Interested parents are invited to drop in for a few minutes at any time to visit with the leaders and see how the youngsters are being entertained.

Mrs. Erma Bleth, director of Elementary School Counseling, will address the Harvard-Midland Pre-school next Wednesday evening at the Harvard school. Mrs. Bleth's topic will be, "How to Train Children to Get Along Socially." The meeting under the direction of President Mrs. Kenneth Webb, will get underway at 8 p.m. Hostesses for the evening will be the Mesdames Bruce Gamper, A. J. Bottiger and L. L. Markley.

Miss Alice Mae Pearson, daughter of the Adrian Pearsons of Midland, who has chosen Nov. 12 for her wedding to James S. Weaver of Spanaway, was pleasantly surprised at a miscellaneous shower Oct. 12 at the home of Mrs. Herbert Morse in Tacoma. The evening was spent playing games and the making of a recipe book for the bride-elect. Refreshments were served from a lace covered table with a beautiful cake bearing the names "Alice and Jim" used as the center-piece and flanked on either side were white tapers.

Hostesses for the evening were Mesdames Gust H. Lovstrom, E. M. Wichman, Donald F. Taylor, Herbert Morse and Aage Frederiksen. Besides the honored guest and her mother, those present from Midland were the Mesdames Augie Wing, John Baskett, John Peterson, Lawrence Baskett, Nels Johnson, Pete Obenhofer, Gust Lovstrom, Aage Frederiksen and Misses Betty Lou Larsen, Louise Baskett, Carol Frederiksen and Barbara Taylor.

Mrs. Kenneth Alf and Mrs. Stanley Lipke, co-chairmen of the Halloween masquerade party to be given for the school children Oct. 31, called a committee meeting at the home of Mrs. Lipke, Oct. 11, to iron out final details. The committee is urging all children of elementary school age to start planning their costumes as prizes will be given in the various age groups for the funniest, most original and most gruesome costumes.

Attending the Oct. 11 meeting were the Mesdames William Hiller, Frank Novotney, Walter Eshpeter, Bert McKenty, Harold Cook, Lewis McArthur, Bruce Brackenbury, Henry Landin, A. L. Ashcroft, Clarence Johann and Mr. Perry Keithley. Date, time and place of party will be released during the next week.

The Susie-Q traffic signs purchased last year for the school are this week being set up in position by the office of County Commissioner Les Hudson. The four sets of signals were purchased by the Harvard Improvement Club, Midland Improvement Club, Harvard-Midland-Larchmonth Fire Dept., and the Harvard-Midland P-TA. When they are all set they will be at the intersections of 99th and Golden Given Road and 84th and Portland Avenue.

Mrs. William Schmechel, public health nurse for the Franklin Pierce School District, was at the regular board meeting of the Harvard-Midland P-TA, Oct. 11, to present to the officers and chairmen a list of the most needed items for the health room at the Midland school. This information was then relayed to the P-TA at Wednesday's meeting.

Chairmen making their reports and assisting with various problems were the Mesdames Clarence Johann, Edward Jackson, Charlotte McClatchey, Floyd Davis, Fred Rousseau, Robert Sharpe, Arthur Cunningham, James Taucher, Howard McFarland and the Messrs. Perry Keithley and Albert Reihns. Mrs. Davis was hostess for the evening.

BAZAAR AND DINNER AT FERN HILL TEMPLE

The annual bazaar and dinner of the Ivy Auxiliary, O.E.S., is billed for this Saturday evening at Fern Hill Masonic Temple on Park Avenue.

The bazaar booths will open at 3 o'clock, with tea towels, aprons, pillow cases, miscellaneous items and baked goods for sale. A roast beef dinner will be served from 6 to 7:30 p.m., which will be followed by bingo.

WELL BABY CLINIC

In progress today at the Parkland school is the Well Baby Clinic, sponsored by the Parkland Pre-school. Registration of new babies is from 9 to 10:30 this morning, the clinic itself lasting until 2.

Local doctors and nurses are in charge of the clinic. Mrs. Richard Simpson is chairman.

New Prexy Outlines Goals of Auxiliary

At the first meeting of Clover Creek Unit No. 118, American Legion Auxiliary, under the leadership of its new officers last Friday, Mrs. Mable Hart, newly-elected president, outlined the year's work, which includes hospital service, rehabilitation, child welfare, community service, and Americanism.

"Each goal is a full-grown job in itself," Mrs. Hart commented, "but each auxiliary member is pledged to carry out her full share in reaching each goal set, as well as solving each problem which presents itself to our auxiliary. We desire to cooperate with other community bodies in bettering our way of life and teaching the principles of true Americanism."

Members of the group were pleased by the unexpected visit of the president of the Fourth district, Mrs. Marie Brickert of Tenino, who expressed approval of the unit's activities. Afterwards, the auxiliary members were joined by members of the post and the commander of the district, Mr. Brickert, for a social hour and refreshments at the home of Mrs. Amy Wormald.

Spanaway P. O. Has Carrier Vacancy

The U. S. Civil Service Commission has announced an examination to fill the position of mail carrier at Spanaway. The examination will be held at Tacoma, with the deadline for the receipt of applications set for Nov. 10.

The exam will be open to citizens of the United States who are actually residing in the territory served by the Spanaway post office, and who have lived there for at least one year. Application blanks can be obtained from the Spanaway post office or from the U. S. Civil Service Commission at Washington 25, D. C.

On a standard daily route, the salary of a rural carrier is $2,470, with $20 per year additional for each mile on his route. He is allowed an equipment maintenance of seven cents per mile for his car.

Local Firemen Are Having Dull Month

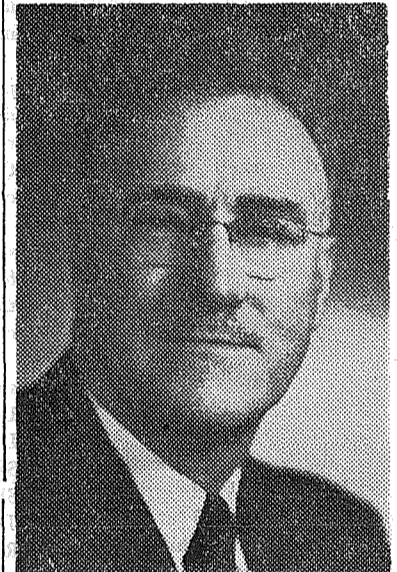

Apparently Fire Prevention Week has had some effect, because the South End hasn't had a bad fire for several weeks. Chief Dave McPherson of Midland reports that the only alarm so far in October was caused by an overheated stove at 98th and McKinley last Wednesday, with minor soot damage resulting.

Five calls have been answered by the Parkland smoke-eaters, three of them chimney fires on Oct. 4, 5 and 17. The men and their red trucks rushed to extinguish a log fire at 136th and A Street, Oct. 10, and to take a look at an overheated floor furnace on Oct. 14. No damage was caused by any of these fires.

Incidentally, bonfire season has arrived. Clarence Marsh, commissioner of Fire District No. 6, announces that fire permits are no longer required. However, he warns that persons will be responsible for any fires that get out of control.

Busy Itinerary of PLC President Includes Canada, Idaho, Alaska

Dr. S. C. Eastvold, prexy of Pacific Lutheran College, has a fall schedule which would give most men nightmares. In addition to his college duties of president and business manager, he is an associate director for the United Christian Education Appeal and is constantly in demand as a speaker.

Last Sunday, Dr. Eastvold preached in Fordefjord Lutheran Church in Poulsbo in behalf of the UCEA and spent the afternoon and evening soliciting for the appeal. The Sunday before that, he conducted a similar program in Longview.

Portland will be host to PLC's chief executive this Sunday. Then, two days later, he will entrain for Saskatchewan, Canada, where he is booked for several lectures and addresses. Next Thursday, he will lecture at a seminar in Regina. The following day he will talk at a similar seminar in Saskatoon. That night, he will give the keynote address at a Reformation rally in that city.

On Saturday, Oct. 29, he will deliver three lectures in Saskatoon before the combined seminaries of the Lutheran Church in Canada. On Sunday, Dr. Eastvold is scheduled for three speeches in Edmonton.

Returning to the United States, he will be in Parkland for a few days, and then pack his bags for a junket to Idaho for three more speaking engagements. Sunday, Nov. 6, he will preach at the morning worship in the Lutheran church in Lewiston, Idaho. In the afternoon, he will address a Reformation rally, and in the evening, will speak at a rally in Moscow.

Friday, Nov. 11, he will depart for Williston, N. D., where he will address a joint meeting of all the Lutheran Brotherhoods of the state of North Dakota on Sunday, Nov. 13.

The following week, PLC's globe-trotting president will buzz up to Alaska to spend three weeks on behalf of the UCEA. He will be in Ketchikan, Nov. 20; Fairbanks, Nov. 27; and in Anchorage, Dec. 4. He will also speak in Petersburg. Bon voyage!

Answering promptly—giving others a full minute to answer her call—are first on Janie's list of aids to service.

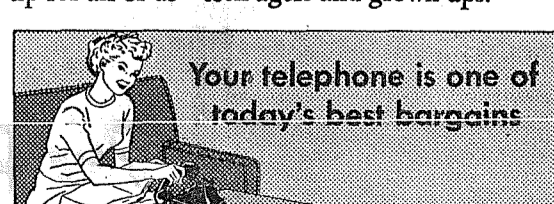

How Janie helps herself to better service

1. "Allowing a little time between calls," says Janie, "gives others a chance to call me . . . and it's a nice party-line courtesy, too." So when she's getting the gang together for a picnic, or for any reason needs to make calls in a row, she waits several minutes between each one. "It's simple to make friends with others on our line. I just use the telephone the way I like them to."

2. Looking up numbers, Janie knows, is really important. "So easy to get them mixed up," she explains. "Why, I was just sure Babs' number was 8145 . . . but when I called her I got the drug store. Turned out her number was 8415. So unless I'm really sure of a number, I'm going to look it up in the telephone book." That's a good tip for all of us—teen-agers and grown-ups.

3. Getting the most from the telephone—and helping others get better service—depends in part on every telephone user. Facilities have doubled in the West in ten years. Your telephone is today one of your most valuable servants . . . saving time, saving steps. And it still does its job for just a few pennies a call.

2 Civic Clubs Salute Times

The Parkland Times, under its new management, is four weeks old with this issue. And all indications more and more prove the contention that the residents of Midland, Parkland, and Spanaway really want to have a community newspaper.

During the week, the Times received two advertisements from two civic-minded groups, the Parkland Community Club and the Parkland Post 228, American Legion, congratulating the editor and publisher on their enterprise, and pledging their support to help keep the paper going. The ads were brought in after members of both groups had voted their unanimous approval.

Many others have also rallied behind the Times. Several leading merchants, including Herman's Food Store, Parkland Pharmacy, and Sunset Furniture, have already discovered that advertising in the Times is the best medium to reach their potential customers.

In answer to many inquiries, the Times would like to emphasize that it is delivered by mail every Thursday to every single home from the Tacoma city limits to Elk Plain, and from McChord Field to Malcolm McClarty Road. Therefore it claims a readership of 15,000 persons.

The Times invites all the residents of this large and prosperous community to make use of this newspaper's columns to publicize events of public interest and all other news items. The Times phone number is GRanite 7100; the mailing address is Box 797, Parkland.

And since it is the merchants who make this newspaper possible, the editor and publisher of the Times urge you to patronize those who advertise in the Times. Tell your dealer that you saw his ad in the Times.

MRS. STEEN TO SPEAK AT QUOTA CONVENTION

Mrs. Ernest B. Steen of Parkland will be the featured speaker at the Sunday morning breakfast session of the district conference of Quota Club this weekend. She will be introduced by Grace Blomquist, PLC teacher, and her topic will be "Significance of Crosses."

The Tacoma Quota Club is host to the two-day convocation, which is to be held at the Winthrop Hotel.

Three candles adorned the cake which Anne Marie Bryson served to 13 little friends Saturday afternoon. Prizes for games were won by Janie Samuelson, Earl Totten, Kenneth Anderson, Jill Johnson, Bobby Bryson. Other guests were Evelyn, Keith, Carol, Karen and Jimmy Samuelson, Kathy Ellingson, Suzanne Murphy, Lois Kay Totten, and Johnny Kunkle.

SPANAWAY SPOTLIGHT

Lillie Pfaff of Mountain Highway has been vacationing at Ritzville with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bennie Pfaff.

Mrs. Jack Hick of Webb Road is still under treatment following an auto accident. She suffered a fractured rib and pelvic bone.

The herd law was approved by the county commissioners for the Fredrickson area. Twenty-three residents had petitioned for the law. Since no one objected at the public hearing, the law was placed into effect.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon A. Michaelson of Route 1, Box 173-A, Spanaway, are announcing the birth of a daughter, Linda Ann, on Sept. 25. The new arrival was welcomed by a brother, Gary, and a sister, Susan.

First social gathering of the season for the Spanaway Community Club will be the party this Saturday evening at 8 o'clock at the recreation building of Metropolitan Park on the lake. On the docket are cats and dancing. All are urged to attend.

Spanaway-Elk Plain Firemen's Auxiliary will stage its monthly card party at the home of Mrs. Harry White of Clover Creek, this Friday evening. Co-hostesses will be Mesdames Robert McCullough, C. B. O'Neill, and Jack Hendrickson. Pinocle and "500" will be played.

Bad-luck families this past week seem to be the Omats and the Prettmans. At the Omat household, everyone was glad to see Papa Oliver home from the hospital, but now Mrs. Omat, Margie, and Donald are ill. Brinda Prettman was severely bitten by a neighbor's dog, and Ronald, while playing at home, cut his leg on a bottle, requiring four stitches.

Elk Plain Parents Club is having its annual school carnival this Friday night at the Elk Plain Grange hall. The public is invited, and a good time is promised for all.

Parkland Eleven Is Grid Champ; Span. Unbeaten

The pigskin aggregation of Parkland Junior High annexed the 1949 championship of the Mid-Pierce County Junior High League Tuesday afternoon by pummeling Dupont 20-0 at Dupont. The Parklanders thus ended their four-tilt season unscored upon.

Last week, they had nudged Vince Keyes' Midland outfit 6-0 in a grueling battle that was completely scoreless until a pass play gave the Parklanders a touchdown in the final minute.

Parkland's mentor, Eldon Kylo, praised the fine playing of his grid-ders, and complimented them for not only their superb defense, but their excellent running and passing offense.

Paul Larson's Midgets didn't fare so badly either. Last week they defeated Midland 12-0, and on Tuesday, they sent Dupont's scrubs to the cleaners to the tune of a 24-0 tally.

Spanaway Junior High's football team was striving for its fourth consecutive victory of the season yesterday afternoon as it invaded the gridiron of Clover Creek school for a contest.

Their third triumph was at the expense of Collins school. The Spanaway gridsters, coached by Sam Brown, clipped Collins 21-7. A week before, a ding-dong battle with Elk Plain had resulted in a 27-14 win for Spanaway. In the season's opener, Edgemont had fallen before the Spanaway onslaught to the tune of a 34-0 spanking.

Cited by Green as sparkplugs of the sensational Spanaway outfit are Denny Modahl and Orland Hardie, who are outstanding tackles; John Kerr at end; and Gene Curbow at left halfback. The club boasts a potent passing attack.

BIRTHS

Only two new arrivals were reported to the Parkland Times this past week. However, they were equally divided among the sexes, one being a boy, the other a girl.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hardy of Spanaway on Oct. 8. Mr. Stork left a daughter with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Reed of 98th and Amherst (Route 13) last Thursday. Both births occurred at Tacoma General Hospital.
