Spanaway and Parkland Grid Outfits Win

Three quick pass plays from Delbert Brown to Tommy Peterson spelled defeat for Midland Junior High as the Parkland Junior High gridsters mashed Midland 19-0 last Thursday afternoon on the PLC gridiron. One of the plays was good for 60 yards.

This was Parkland's first football contest under the new Parkland coach, Eldon Kylo, who won Little-Al American honorable mention two seasons ago while playing on the Pacific Lutheran team. Kylo praised the playing of Delbert and Tommy, and said that Tackle Bud Loska was outstanding in the line.

The Parkland midget eleven, mentored by Paul Larson, added to Midland's humiliation by bopping the Midland small fry 12-0.

Coach Sam Green of Spanaway school seems to have moulded a powerful football club this year. In their first game, the Spanaway Spitfires outplayed Edgemont in every quarter to walk away with a 34-0 triumph.

Standing out were John Kerr, captain; Eugene Curbow, and Charles Brandfas. Most of the yardage was gained through successful passing. Spanaway completed a high percentage of its aerials.

BIRTHS

Last week's issue of the Times pointed out that during the preceding week there had been three girls and only one boy born in the community. This week, the Times, with terror, is forced to report that the feminine trend is continuing; three more daughters but only one son have arrived this past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee A. Nelson of Spanaway were greeted by a new daughter at Tacoma General, Sept. 23. The stork delivered two more females the following day, one to the Robert N. Johnsons of Route 7, Box 90, and one to the Harry F. Evans of Spanaway.

It wasn't until Sept. 28 that Mr. Stork finally delivered a son. The recipients were the Frederick L. Hendricksens of Route 4, Box 22-A.

MIDLAND SCOUTS TO HAVE VESTURE RITUAL

Vesture ceremonies for Scout Troop 84 of Midland will be held Monday night at 7:30 in Midland Hall. Parents and friends are cordially invited as new Scouts will be inaugurated. An executive from the Tacoma Scout office will be on hand to present the charter to the group.

Scoutmaster James Peterson announces that the regular Scout meetings have been changed to every Monday evening at Dawson fieldhouse. All boys 11 to 14 years old are welcome to join.

Midland Church Has Conference

In progress this week at the Emmanuel Home Church at 98th and Polk in Midland is the 11th annual Fellowship of Prayer conference. The conference began Tuesday and will close Sunday. Meetings are being held every evening at 7:30. Three sessions are slated for Sunday—at 11 a.m., 3 p.m. and 7:30 p.m., with luncheon being served after the morning service.

Main speaker during the conference is the Rev. A. B. Ost, nationally-known evangelist director of the Christian Fellowship Union, which is conducting Christian work in southern Texas and Mexico. He comes directly from Mexico and is bringing with him many pictures showing the work at the different missions.

Pastor Ost is well known to members of the Midland congregation because he has spoke there every year since 1939. The Rev. Thure Moberg, pastor, stresses that the meetings are open to the public.

Marymount Band To Play At Victoria

The 36-piece marching band of Marymount Military Academy, located east of Brookdale, has been invited to appear at a centennial celebration in Victoria, B. C., and at a ball game in Olympia in forthcoming weeks. The band will make the trips by bus.

Other activities are in full swing, too. This afternoon, the Marymount gridsters, coached by Frank Sresen, are making their debut against Fife.

Marymount is a boarding school for fifth to ninth grade boys, with the enrollment limited to 100. It is sponsored by the Dominican Sisters, with Sister Mary Michael as principal.

PLC Enrolls 969

Enrollment at Pacific Lutheran College has hit a grand total of 969—61 more than last year's record enrollment, Dr. Philip Hauge, registrar, disclosed this week.

Men outnumber the women almost two to one in the student body; there are 628 men and 341 women. A breakdown of the registration figures includes 259 freshmen, 214 sophomores, 184 juniors, 204 seniors, 18 fifth year education, 64 specials, and 26 extension students.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hedlund were honored last Friday on their 25th anniversary. Entertaining for their parents were Mr. and Mrs. LaMonte Hedlund and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Hedlund. Many gifts were presented to the honored guests. Decorations carried out the silver anniversary theme. Guests were: Messrs. and Mesdames Oscar Hedlund of Spokane, A. C. Johnson, Henry Loggett, Al Grodvig, R. B. Summers, James McGuire, C. M. Olson and the Misses Jo Ann Palmer and Linda Olson. Miss Sharon Hedlund, granddaughter of the honored guests, was also present.

Inger Tonette Circle of Trinity Lutheran Church will meet next Thursday at 12:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. S. Hinderlie. The meeting will start with a luncheon. Mrs. C. S. Fynboe will be the assistant hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul A. Spencer and son Max from Aberdeen and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Brattie from Eatonville were Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Dahl.

Mary-Martha Society will meet this Thursday evening at 6 at the home of Mrs. E. O. Totten, with Mrs. Olai Hageness and Mrs. Bud Storaasli as co-hostesses. Devotions will be led by Mrs. Emil Johnson and the roll call will be answered with a Bible verse from one of the major prophets. Mrs. E. B. Steen will lead the discussion on the Church of England and offshoots.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Dahl and family have returned to Parkland and are making their home at the former Preus residence on 127th street.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Magnusson and son Clifford were dinner guests on Friday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Olson.

Mrs. William Berwold was guest of honor at a pink and blue shower given at the home of the E. O. Tottens. Guests invited were Messrs. and Mesdames William Berwold, Peter Velsick, Arnold Olson, Robert St. Clair, Peter Westby, Joseph Soltis, T. H. Olson, Olai Hageness, and Misses Emmy Colton, Esther Velsick, and Mrs. Robert Wiesner. Games were played and a buffet lunch was served. Little Donny Hageness presented the honored guest with the gift.

DEATHS

Arthur C. Hart, 56, Route 7, Box 618, the son of a pioneer Washington family, died enroute to a Tacoma hospital, Sept. 24 and was buried Sept. 29 in Mountain View Cemetery. He was the son of Mrs. Jenny Brown Wells, one of the first settlers in the Puyallup valley.

Active in all Masonic circles, Mr. Hart was past master of the Fern Hill Lodge, and was also connected with the Order of Eastern Star, the Ivanhoe commandery of Knights Templar, Affifi Temple of the Shrine, and other groups. He is survived by his wife, Calla V. of the home, three children, and seven grandchildren.

Mrs. Ernestine Binter, 75, of Midland, died last Thursday in a Tacoma hospital. Born in Russia, she came to the United States 42 years ago and has lived in the Tacoma area for 23 years.

Surviving are three sons, Rudy Elgner of Midland, and Alex and Albert of Portland, three daughters, Josephine Elgner of Midland, Mrs. John Atkinson of Pacific, Wash., and Mrs. Dan Baron of Portland. The funeral service was held Saturday at the C. O. Lynn chapel.

TRINITY LADIES ANNOUNCE SMORGASBORD, OCTOBER 14

All picnics in the South End should circle October 14 on their calendar, because that's the date of the semi-annual smorgasbord sponsored by the Trinity Lutheran Ladies Aid in the church basement.

Serving of the Scandinavian goodies will start at 5:30 p.m. Proceeds will go into the building of the new parish house.

• • Freedom Goes Where The Newspaper Goes •

Is it merely an accident that those countries that have a free press, also have a free people? Most Americans realize it is more than coincidence. They have learned that the right of newspapers to seek out and publish the truth without fear of reprisal is their only opportunity to know the facts on which they may exercise their freedom of choice.

This is the essence of true Democracy.

• REDISCOVER YOUR HOMETOWN •

Freedom of choice starts where people live and work. There have been vast changes this past decade . . . not only in the world and nation, but also in our hometown. And . . . more are on the way. ## Times Gets Hearty Welcome As Only Newspaper in South End

Judging from the congratulations and telephone calls the Parkland Times has been receiving all week, the citizens of the South End like their new paper and believe that it fills an important niche in the community.

"It's the best-looking newspaper I've seen in this community since I moved here five years ago and you can quote me on that," said Jack Quill, postmaster of Parkland, commander of the American Legion post, and president of the Parkland Kiwanis Club.

"You never realize how important a hometown newspaper really is until it ceases publication for a while," commented Mrs. Alfred Seaman.

Bert McMurtie, highly-respected columnist on the late Tacoma Times and now a news commentator on KTBI, gave the Parkland Times an unsolicited plug on his broadcast Monday noon and praised the two young publishers for the fine paper they had put out.

Incidentally, this week is being observed nationally as National Newsweek with emphasis on the

Spanaway P.T. To Meet Wed.; Safety Theme

By Mrs. Arthur Pietz

Spanaway P-TA will hold its regular meeting next Wednesday at the Spanaway School. The theme of the evening will be "Safety." October is membership month; all parents are being urged to join the association.

The P-TA staged its first card party last Friday, featuring pinochle and "500." Winners for the evening were Orville Thomas and Doris Omat in pinochle, Edith and L. W. Elliot in "500." Mrs. Orville took home the bacon—the door prize. Next P-TA card party will be October 14.

The association is also sponsoring teen-age dancing classes every Monday evening in the gym under the leadership of Mrs. Betty J. Meyers. These classes are open to all Spanawayites from 13 through 19 years old. Parents are also invited to visit the classes any time.

Among the 42,000 spectators at last Saturday's Notre Dame-Washington football battle at Seattle were Bob Steidel of 9th street and Sam Green of Parkland. While they were watching the game, their spouses went shopping in Seattle.

Plans were made for a bazaar to be held some time in November by members of the Spanaway-Elk Plain Volunteer Firemen's Auxiliary when they convened recently at the home of Mrs. Velma Rhone. A hot lunch was served by the hostess before the business meeting. Attending were Lucile Steidel, Laura McLellan, Marion White, Mary Hemmick, Matilda Symmons, Althea Flannery, Olive Tarpenning and Judy and Velma Rhone.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Fowler of Lake Shore Drive spent the weekend at Moses Lake, visiting their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Fowler, Jr.

Elk Plain Grange will hold its annual booster night meeting next Thursday, October 13, beginning at 8 o'clock, with Clover Creek as guest Grange. A good program is being promised by the lecturer, Mrs. Olive Tibbitts, followed by dancing and refreshments.

Harry H. Springer, Pomona master and county commissioner, will speak on "The Grange Challenge" and on county government. This will be an open meeting and friends of the Grange are invited.

Now consisting of 30 students, the Spanaway school band has started its third year. George Barras, the director, states that the band is up to strength except for a few vacancies on some instruments. Tuition is paid by the school. Officers this year are Patty Queen, president; and Ronald Bradshaw, secretary.

Miss Shirley Schwanz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Schwanz of Spanaway, became the bride of John Kanton of Elk Plain at an informal ceremony at the home of Dr. E. B. Steen in Parkland, Sept. 24. Gladys Tabbott of Tacoma and Elmer Thiel of Brookdale attended them. Guests included the parents of the bride and groom and Messrs. and Mesdames Ferd Kanton, Lawrence Thompson and William Zumbuhl, Mrs. Nick Kanton, and Steve Kanton. Afterwards, a reception for 125 people was held at Timberline Lodge. Mr. and Mrs. Kanton spent a short honeymoon at Astoria, Ore., and are now at their home in Tacoma.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Steidel and Mrs. Beulah Ballard were visited by Mrs. Harry Ballard of California last week.

Wayne Pietz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Pietz, was the honored guest at a birthday party last Saturday. A heart-shaped cake and jello were served to a dozen young guests. The afternoon's entertainment included three tap dance numbers by Sandra Lee Christilaw, and rides on a Shetland pony.

Sgt. and Mrs. Luther Hall of Brookdale Apartments are the parents of a five pound, three ounce daughter, born Sept. 24 at Madigan General Hospital. Young Diana May is welcomed by her grandparents, the Carroll Williamsens of Lakeview, and the Robert Halls of Ohio; her great grandparents, the John Lambs of Ohio; and a great-great grandfather, W. R. Rowland of Ohio, who is 103 years old.

PARKLAND METHODIST CLUB TO HEAR CHAPLAIN

Chaplain Lester B. Woosley will speak at the Couples Club gathering at the Parkland Methodist Church his Thursday evening at 8 p.m. He will tell of his work, experiences, and observations in Germany and other countries during the occupation.

Chaplain Woosley was in 18 different countries, and worked with the American Graves Registration Command, which conducted as many as 600 funerals in one week in England and France. The public is invited, and there will be an opportunity for asking questions.
