Let's Change That Slogan!

"Freedom is everybody's business!" You've heard it on the radio a thousand times. Maybe you've heard it so often you can't hear it any more. Nothing is easier than to mouth fine-sounding phrases — and stay home on election day because it rains.

Maybe you're eligible for the D.A.R. and had a couple of ancestors on the right side at the Battle of Bunker Hill. So did I; but their ghosts aren't eligible to vote, and they aren't doing a thing about getting better schools for my children.

We get discouraged about the U. N., and we just don't see why those guys can't settle things on the democratic basis of doing what is best for the most people in the long run — but if we'd just look around home it would be easier to understand.

Take the simple matter of selecting a site for the new high school building. Most of us would rather wag our heads in vigorous agreement if you said that the only logical and democratic way would be to draw lines on the map and put the new school where it would be most nearly equi-distant from all parts of the district. That would be only fairness and common sense — oh yes — in THEORY.

But right here you run into that old debbil Human Nature. One group doesn't want the school moved at all because then their kids will have to ride the buses, and they will lose the trade the school brings in. Another group wants the site chosen right close to them so their kids won't have a long bus ride, and they'll get the trade. A third group figures anywhere they put it will be better than the present set-up, so they don't need to spend too much energy seeing that the best site is voted in — even if it means taking the trouble to vote several times.

And the poor kids who now have to spend an hour and twenty-minutes on the bus, morning AND night — they haven't GOT a vote.

If there is any point at which the Little Fellow can make his vote felt, can put and then see democratic machinery in action, it is in the relations of the community to the school — and if there is any more important point, I don't know where it is. But it means pulling out of the old Morris chair on a cold and rainy night to get out to public meetings so we can have sufficient information on which to vote intelligently.

Freedom may be everybody's business, but most of us read that "Let George do it". And then howl about the mistakes of government.

If we had a slogan that told the real truth, it would read like this: "Democracy means a lot of work and a little sacrifice on the part of EVERYONE. Do you want it at that price?" It takes a real American to say YES.

"I'LL BET YOU DIDN'T KNOW"

On Tuesday, March 14th, 1950 the voters in PIERCE COUNTY FIRE DISTRICT NO. 7, commonly known as the SPANAWAY - ELK PLAIN FIRE DISTRICT, will go to the polls and elect a new member to the present board.

This election in past years was held with the general election, but the 1949 Legislature changed the law by the enactment of Chapter 161, Laws of Washington, 1949, holding this election with the school spring elections.

The voters in this district, and persons who might desire to run for the office of Fire Commissioner were informed by a certain letter that was sent on December 20th, 1949 to the supposed Clerk of this particular fire district relative to the same which is enclosed herein.

December 20th, 1949

I wish to call your attention to the coming General Spring Election which will be held in Pierce County on March 14th, 1950. In accordance with the provisions of Chapter 161, Laws of Washington, 1949, your elections shall now fall on the Second Tuesday of March.

If there are any propositions to be presented to the voters of your district on March 14th, same shall be brought to the attention of your Board of Commissioners or Supervisors whose duty it shall be to put the same into ballot form for presentation to this office, to be received here not later than forty-five (45) days prior to election day, January 28th, 1950.

Any person desiring to have their name placed on the ballot as a CANDIDATE must file their declaration of Candidacy at the Auditor's Office, Pierce County, Court House Building. THIS IS THE ONLY PLACE WHERE FILINGS CAN BE MADE.

Very Truly,
Jack W. Sonntag,
Auditor, Pierce County

By (Don Perry)
Supt. of Elections

This particular letter was promptly received by one of the Fire Commissioners, who, in spite of the fact that this letter was addressed to the Clerk of the Board, accepted the same, and deliberately withheld the same from the duly appointed and qualified Clerk of the Board. He promptly filed for this office and asks the voters to re-elect him to this office. His name is the only name that will appear on the ballot.

Do you believe this man is qualified for this office?
Has he abided by the laws of democracy in an open and fair election?

Cheese Filled Rolls For Lent

Frankfurter rolls, stuffed with a savory cheese filling, served piping hot, bring a note of springtime to Lenten menus. The cheese is nourishing, quick-melting pasteurized process American, combined in these main dish sandwiches with a bit of minced onion, green pepper and tomato soup. Pickle slices are the garnish. For good eating and a real meal-time lift, place a bowl of Jonquils on your table and pass a pretty plate of these Cheese Filled Rolls.

Cheese Filled Rolls

- 1/2 pound pasteurized process American cheese, shredded
- 2 tablespoons minced onion
- 1 green pepper, chopped
- 1/2 cup condensed tomato soup, undiluted
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- Dash of cayenne
- 8 frankfurter rolls

Blend the cheese with the onion, green pepper, tomato soup and seasonings. Cut the tops from the rolls and scoop out the center of each roll. Fill with the cheese mixture, replace the tops of the rolls and place in a covered baking dish. Bake in a moderate oven, 350 degrees, for 30 minutes. Serve hot.

UNEMPLOYMENT IN SOME AREAS MAY BE HIGH

The economic outlook for 1950 is good but there will undoubtedly continue to be areas and communities where unemployment will be high and suffering acute, Millard Cass, assistant to the under secretary of labor, told the New Jersey chapter of the international association of public employment services at Camden, N. J.

"You are aware of the problems this will create, both for the unemployed and for those who are dealing with their problems. Generalizations about national trends, statistics on overall employment, and predictions of generally good economic conditions will be of slight comfort to the person who needs a job," Cass noted in speaking on "Public Relations and Employment Security."

Cass noted that each local office must undertake a continuing program involving active cooperation with management and labor as well as the general public.

"In the last analysis, however, the best public relations program is efficiency of operation," he said. "Matching a man and a job successfully is your best advertisement. It benefits the worker, the employer, and the community as a whole."

"While we are optimistic about total employment in 1950, we must face the fact that unemployment may very well be higher than in 1948 and about the same as it was in 1949," Cass declared. "During 1950 there may be as many as a million persons added to the labor force. Employment will therefore have to rise substantially during 1950 if unemployment is to be reduced below present levels."

Cass concluded that this constitutes a challenge to everyone. "Those engaged in the employment security program play an important role in attaining the national objective of maximum production, employment and purchasing power," he said.

Public Employees And Retirement Planning

More and more calls are being received here at International Headquarters for assistance in drafting retirement legislation and amendments to existing legislation. More and more local unions have become the prime movers behind the fight for old age and disability protection. Your international considers this a healthy sign of the growth and stability of ASSC&ME unions and believes it is indicative of the social consciousness of the labor movement as a whole.

It is becoming increasingly obvious that provisions for old age and disability are of vital importance to labor in its negotiations with employers. One has only to examine the current industrial contract negotiations to realize that the desire for security and protection in case of accidents or death is receiving attention at least equal to, and in some cases greater than, that given to consideration of wage increases. Such a trend in labor-management relations has certainly been carried over into the field of public employment. Public employees are no less concerned than industrial employees, about this aspect of their future.

Legion Auxiliary Of Clover Creek Works For Community Improvement

NEWS

How do you do, everybody. We, the Auxiliary of the Clover Creek Post No. 118 American Legion, are indeed happy to greet you from the paper of the "Journal", to whom we extend our best wishes for prosperity in their new venture.

The ladies of the Auxiliary will hold their next meeting Friday, March 10, at 8 p. m. in the home of Mrs. Amy Warmald. The Legionnaires will hold their business session in the Spanaway Scout Hall on the same date, after which they will join the ladies for a coffee hour at Mrs. Warmald's home.

The month of March is set aside for Community Service activities, although all our goals are in effect continually.

We wish to invite all women eligible to membership in our group to strengthen our efforts as we try to carry out ideals for Community Service.

Every activity, by which our Community seeks to improve its living conditions finds our Auxiliary "standing by" to help.

We assist in all health drives for the improvement of the health of our citizenry—as the March of Dimes, the Cancer Drive and the Heart appeal. Drives for aid to the Tuberculosis victims as well as for the Crippled Children and adults—are always helped out by the members of the American Legion Auxiliary and now is the American Red Cross drive. You will find our ladies ever in the forefront of every worthy cause.

We have especial interest in furthering our patriotic duties too! So, folks, come out to do your duty as voters. Express yourself on every issue. Be sure that your vote is ever on the side which is the best for the most.

There is also the "Go To Church" movement. Auxiliaries of the American throughout our United States, following the precepts and examples of our Founding Fathers encourage all folks to go to their churches and pray.

So, dear readers, you note that the month of March set aside for Community Service studies, is one of active study, as well as participation on the part of every member of our organization. We realize, we are "our brother's keeper"—and to that end, we solicit your membership in our American Legion Auxiliary. For further particulars call Mrs. Mabel Hart, President, at GRanite 8172.

Club Sponsors Project

Determination to undertake a long-term community project has stirred the Rocky Ridge Ladies Club into action. Since the recent consolidation of school districts has released the out-dated Rocky Ridge school building for other uses, the women decided officially at their Feb. 22nd meeting to assume responsibility for the place and to renovate it for community use.

This club, which has been in continuous existence for over 20 years, met on Washington's birthday at the home of Mrs. Alice Moorten.

Among the first problems to be met were those of acquiring legal proof of responsibility. Mrs. Mary McFadden and Mrs. M. Jones, Committee Chairmen; inspection and planning for wiring, and discovery of what classes are now available for instruction in arts, crafts and recreation. Mrs. Carl Gaul, chairman.

Any women living in the Benton - Rocky Ridge area will be welcomed into membership, and may inquire of the new president, Mrs. Thelma McArthur, phone Graham 441, as to time and place of the next meeting.

Rubber In Your Roads May Stretch the Highway Dollar

Laying a rubber road in Virginia. Particles of natural rubber are mixed with the asphalt surfacing to increase wear and reduce skidding.

It costs nearly a billion dollars a year to keep America's 3,300,000 miles of present highways and streets in repair, to say nothing of building new ones. So it is no wonder that highway engineers and tax-payers are watching with keen interest a new idea in road surfacing that may cut millions of dollars off the annual road repair bill.

The idea is to mix particles of natural rubber with the asphalt surface coating on a road. The Dutch tried it 12 years ago, and found that it made the road stand up better under winter cold and summer heat. A test rubber road in Holland, after 12 years' use under heavy traffic, is still in good shape, while adjacent strips without rubber have had to be repaired twice. In 1949 four states—Ohio, Virginia, Minnesota and Texas—laid test strips of natural rubber-asphalt paving. If these prove as successful as highway engineers hope, a new era in road construction will be here. And in addition to extra wear, these rubber-surfaced roads have proved that they reduce skidding. A free booklet describing these rubber roads and the tests which are being made can be obtained from the Natural Rubber Bureau, Dept. N100, 1631 K St., N.W., Washington 6, D. C. It is called "Stretching Highway Dollars with Rubber Roads."

WESTERN BAND LEADS IN AMATEUR CONTESTS

Ronnie Harrison and his Western Band are now in top position on Amateur talent contest, with three consecutive wins. The band has been classified as finalists and will compete in finals for the Grand prizes. Standing in second place is Susan Harren who does an acrobatic number. Miss Harren has one win in her favor and also has a good chance of becoming a Grand finalist. "Stars of Tomorrow", amateur contest, which is featured at the Parkland theatre every Tuesday evening is managed and produced by Ernie Allen, who acts as M.C., and Jerry Becker, who does an occasional act of his own. Any and all amateur talent wishing to compete on our stage can get necessary information at the Parkland theatre from the management.

Facts prove that women's life expectancy rose from 51.1 years in 1900 to 69.5 years in 1945. There are also fewer "unclaimed treasures" as only 25 per cent of the women are now unmarried while in 1900 the average was 31 per cent.

Accurate-Cost-Of-Living Index Is Labor Goal

The Labor Department's Bureau of Labor Statistics has begun collecting information in 11 cities as the first step in the revision of the Bureau's Consumer's Price Index . . . formerly known as the "Cost-of-Living" Index.

Under the terms of a recently enacted appropriation, the Bureau is directed to review and, as necessary, to revise the index, which is the official measure of changes in prices paid by city families for the goods and services they buy.

The revision will require collection of information on characteristics of about a half million dwellings in United States cities, detailed records of expenditures from upwards of 20,000 families; and the collection of more than 600,000 price quotations from thousands of retail stores and service establishments. The job will take about 3 years.

Beginning in mid-November and continuing through February, 1950, the Bureau of Labor Statistics will make surveys of the characteristics of representative dwellings to adjust the index of rent changes, which is part of the Consumers' Price Index, to take account of the higher rents charged to houses and apartments built after 1946, the rents for which are exempt from rent control.

As one aspect of the revision, the Bureau will examine the cities covered by the index to determine which cities should be added to make the index more representative of the U. S. urban population. The present index is confined to large cities. The Bureau will investigate the possibility of covering smaller cities and extending its indexes to parts of the country now largely not covered.

Tax Levy To Be Voted At Election March 14 For F. P. School Building

Discussing school finances and status of Franklin-Pierce high school, Morris E. Ford states that the cash balance of the four combined districts has been reduced from $29,990.77 to $7,403.48 in four years time, brought about by increased costs due to larger enrollments. Of this balance, $4,000 had been set aside for the purchase of transportation equipment, leaving an actual cash balance of about $3,000.

Schools are required, Morris continues, to operate chiefly on state money based on the total days' attendance of the year just past. Whenever an extremely fast growth occurs, it becomes necessary to educate these increased numbers on the money derived from the attendance of smaller enrollments of the previous year. Or, putting it another way, the greater the increase in enrollment, the less money you have to spend on each child.

It is interesting to see how this has worked in our own district, Morris says. In the year 1947, the four schools had an enrollment of 1915 students. In 1948 reached an enrollment of 2020 pupils, an increase of 105. In 1949, we enrolled 2148, an increase of 128, and this year, 1950, we have already passed the 2400 mark and will probably reach 2500 before the school year is closed.

Although these increases in school population mean less money available per child, the demands or expenses are increased by the need for more teachers, more seats, desks, books, buses and rooms. This last item of rooms becomes all important, for without rooms, we are unable to add more teachers or seating capacity to our schools. Here, too, your school authorities are confronted with an additional problem—only money from the building fund can be used for new building construction.

When speaking of building funds we continually meet the question "What became of the money we voted last year?" or "Why not use the money voted last year for more grade schools? Let's answer the last one first. The money voted last year was voted for the sole purpose of bringing a high school into the district and can only be used for that purpose. Now, as to the high school, the money you voted through millage and bond issues will amount to a little over $300,000. This amount was to be matched at a rate of 3 to 1 by the state, and the building when completed would cost in excess of $1,000,000.00, so, as you can see, our own money would fall far short of the amounts needed.

The next question, "What about the state matching money?" At the last session of the Washington Legislature, the schools of Washington asked for $40,000,000.00 to match money already voted by districts such as ours. After much quibbling and little action they decided to handle the problem by having the people of the state vote upon a bond issue, the bonds to be retired from the general fund of the state. Their next move was to postpone this bond election for almost two years, setting the date of this election for November of 1950. The legislators of the State of California were asked for $250,000,000.00 (more than six times our request). They, too, are using a bond issue, but the question was referred to the voters at once and was overwhelmingly carried.

The district must start an elementary grade building program in all four schools if we are to continue to operate on a full time basis, Morris continues. Immediate needs call for completion of rooms at Central Ave. and Collins schools, a lunch room at Midland, and the reconditioning of the Harvard school making it suitable for use. Conditions at Midland and Collins require the laying of black topping in the areas directly behind the main buildings. Although the Parkland school is badly overcrowded, the completion of the new Trinity Lutheran Parish House will furnish temporary relief while a study is being made as to what action would serve the best interests of the entire district.

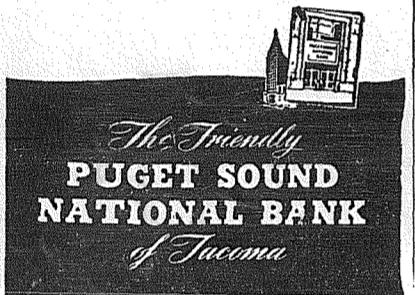

In fairness we must say that the Washington Legislature did, before adjourning, appropriate $6,500,000.00 for school buildings, and, of course, they had no way of knowing that on April 13th an earthquake would cause such damage to the schools that a large part of the amount appropriated would be needed to replace the schools destroyed or damaged.

We have confidence that when the Legislature appropriates money from the $40,000,000.00 bond issue that Franklin Pierce will receive the matching money promised them for their high school construction. And as one of the fastest growing districts in the state, there is every reason to believe that they will find some way to help us with additional grade school space, if we but do our part now and vote 15 mills for grade school buildings at the election on March 14th.

"MISTER BREGER"

"He always was smart, if you recall, at running from one good fox hole to another."

State Will Save

State Treasurer Tom Martin and State Auditor Cliffe Yelle, did a stroke of business on the bonus bond issue which looks better all of the time. The committee saves about 12 million in interest by making it a 24 instead of a 30 year issue. That might appear to be cutting the potential income line rather close but several of the officials privately expect the issue to pay out even sooner than 24 years.

The state got over $5,000,000 last year from the previous two cent cigarette tax. With the tax doubled, sales could drop off ten percent and still produce $9,000,000. This would provide the $4,500,000 for Bonus Bond retirement and leave $4,500,000 to the credit of the General Fund.

The State Finance Committee also feels that 70 million in bonds will be adequate to pay for the bonus, even though the bonus measure provided that 80 million could be sold if needed. If the additional 10 million is needed then the bonds can be sold.

When the 70 million is turned over to the State Treasurer, the Finance Committee is expected to re-invest much of it in U. S. Treasury Notes, which can be sold as the cash is needed.

Officials point out that each million dollars invested in such notes at 1 1/2 percent interest would earn $6,250 in six months. Thus if 20 million were invested for six months, it would net $125,000. This interest could pretty well take care of the administrative overhead in issuing the bonus checks which should start rolling March 1st or before.

Correct Birth Certificate Vital

Everything from inheritances to proof of your American citizenship depends on a correct birth certificate, the State Health Department advised Washingtonians this week.

Yet most people have never checked this important legal document to be sure it's on file and that all information is correct. A recent survey by the Department showed that about one-fourth of all certificates contain errors or omissions.

Checking on the certificate is a simple process and corrections are usually easy to make, Irvin R. Vaughn, state registrar, declared.

To check on your own and your children's certificates, write the State Health Department, 1412 Smith Tower, Seattle 4 and ask for a birth certificate request form. When this is returned with 50c, the records will be searched and exact copy issued to you.

If there are errors they can generally be corrected by a sworn statement from parents or the physician attending the birth.

If no certificate is found, a "delayed certificate" may be filed, supported by evidence from parents, doctor, hospital records, church records, or other old records.

The survey found the most common errors to be misspelllings, lack of given name for the child, and wrong information as to age and birthplace of parents. If the certificate is not correct, errors may impair its value as legal evidence. The older the error, the harder it is to correct, Vaughn said.

BATTLE LOOMS SOCIAL SECURITY

The fight for expansion of social security legislation gets under way in the senate within a week or so.

The battle will begin when the senate finance committee begins hearings on the social security bill which passed the house last fall. And the controversy probably will continue well into the spring.

An adequate social security measure will not become a law without a tough fight. This is the strategy conservatives are expecting to use in beating down a good bill.

They will try to cut the increases in pension benefits which the house increased by an average of 80 per cent.

To Fight Greater Coverage
They will attempt to scale down the house provisions for increased coverage. The house voted to add eleven million persons to the program.

Finally, they will try to cut the proposed increase in payroll taxes which is needed to pay for expanded benefits.

Hearings probably will take two or three weeks. Then the committee will spend at least that much time writing a bill. And floor debate is expected to drag on for some time.

Loaded With Conservatives
The finance committee is loaded with conservatives. Democratic senators include such men as Walter F. George of Georgia, Tom Connally of Texas, Harry Bird of Virginia and Clyde Hoy of North Carolina.

The Republican membership is 100 per cent conservative; Eugene D. Millikin of Colorado; Robert A. Taft of Ohio, Hugh Butler of Nebraska, Owen Brewster of Maine and Edward Martin of Pennsylvania.

The other four members of the committee are Democrats Scott W. Lucas of Illinois, Edwin C. Johnson of Colorado, Robert S. Kerr of Oklahoma and Francis J. Myers of Pennsylvania. They can be expected to vote for this legislation to help working men and women.

welcomed the group and presented Mr. Bradshaw with a fishing rod and reel which was a great surprise. He then presented Mrs. Bradshaw with a rose bud corsage. The new scout master was then introduced. Mr. James Gray introduced a skit by the Cubs. There was an attendance of between 125 and 150 folks.

P.T.A. board meeting was held at the home of Mrs. John Newell. Plans were being made for the P.T.A. County Convention to be held at the Spanaway School April 6th.

The senior group of the 4-H Club made a journey to Midland last week to be present at one of their meetings and maybe pick up a few pointers. Also there was a queen selected to run with other girls from the county for "title of Queen", to ride on 4-H daffodil float. The next meeting of this group will be held at the home of Mrs. L. E. Peck.
