

By Clarence LaCrosse These Boy Scouts again get a bit of limelight. It seems that they and the American Legion contribute a good share of the better type of entertainment to the community. Last Saturday was the night selected by Post 228 of the American Legion to stage a ball for the benefit of the scouts. Proceeds of the occasion went toward sending the three members of the troop to Valley Forge, where they will participate in the National Jamboree of scouts to be held at that place. The boys will leave Thursday at 11:00 from Milwaukee Station downtown. Good luck, boys, and have fun. We here at the Times were glad to have helped as much as we could in furthering this good cause. Breseman ls Still Missing Twenty-three days have elapsed, out the $250 reward posted last week for information leading to the discovery of Eugene Bresemann still remains unclaimed.

Over 500 circulars picturing and booth; Arnold Ellingson, cleanup; Ed describing the missing Spanaway bus Hinderlie, publicity, and Miss Amelia driver have been printed and distributed to every post office in Washington and to all the larger communities in the states between California and Montana.

> The Pierce County sheriff's office has been putting a tremendous amount of effort into the search under the leadership of Detective Captain Clarence Otto. Last week, the captain drove 200 miles through Enumclaw, Morton and Ohanapecosh to investigate scattered rumors that Bresemann's 1947 Chevrolet had been seen there.

> Otto wasn't satisfied with just drivng through the towns. He drove into many of the side roads, making inquiries and leaving information about Bresemann. All of Bresemann's old hunting and fishing haunts were thoroungly combed.

Also last week, following a report that the missing car had been spotted in the Spanaway area, an airplane and helicopter from McChord Field were dispatched to facilitate the search.

completely baffled by the disappearance. However, Otto says he has a hunch that the missing man is still within five or ten miles of his home on Military Road. He probably didn't have more than $50 with him when he vanished.

The last time Bresemann was definitely seen was at 12:52 p.m. Memorial Day. A friend chatted with him at 9th and Pacific in Tacoma, at which time Bresemann was supposedly on his way to work with the transit

One close friend insists that he saw Bresemann on the 4th of June, and another claims he saw him last Wednesday at 17th and Tacoma Ave. Neither report could be substantiated. Every day the family and the officers are getting more worried about Bresemann's safety. Capt. Otto said he plans to launch a foot-by-foot search of Pierce county. He hopes to get the aid of Fort Lewis soldiers in covering the vast military reservation. The $250 reward can be claimed by anyone, police or civilian, except tion personified. Does he know what happened to the Federal site? He makes a flat statement that it is so snarled it can't be released. What a pity that he does not confer with people who know the answers before he goes to print. He also decides that the Bowman site is ideally suited, he deliberately decides only a few trees need to be removed. Perhaps he plays the game of baseball and football differently than most, maybe he has devised a way to leave trees in the playing area. He says we build a Alice Randall, Prairie Flower Garden for adult community activities as well. He also takes upon himself a distinct role of partisanship, when he stated proponents of the Castle site tried to keep the Bowman site off the ballot. My thought was it was the School Board which decided that issue. He also remarks that Mr. Reed played a nefarious game in selection of the election boards; why doesn't he print the actual facts, in this respect? He doesn't tell you that the reason for community activity on the polling places was that the first proposal only called for balloting to take place at Spanaway and Roy; which later was changed to also include Elk Plain and Kapowsin, and finally that polls would be open in all precincts. This latter procedure seems to perturb him no end; maybe the editor feels neglected in that all the people in the district will be allowed to choose the building site rather than the editor of the Parkland Times.

set this young man up in business Because he met his home loan payments promptly, this young man established bank credit at NBW. So, when opportunity came his way, he was able to borrow the money necessary to buy out a going business. This is just one extra advantage in financing your home through NBW. Before you take the first step toward home ownership, see an NBW mortgage specialist. He will show you many other advantages, and set up a loan program, in advance, that will be custom-built to fit your budget. No obligation, of course.

WELL, HERE IT IS, FOLKS-that Graham Road site you've been hearing so much about during the past month. VELL, HERE 11 IS, FOLKS—that Graham Road site you ve been hearing so much about during the past month. It and the Pole Line Road Bowman site are the two being offered to voters of the Bethel School District as the location for the new, long-needed $750,000 high school. It consists of 60 clear, level and well-drained acres nine-tenths of a mile east of the Mountain Highway. The tract is part of a farm owned by E. W. Castle and is presently sowed to oats. In the inset is Ernest Jensen of Spanaway, who took the Times photographer up in his Aircoupe. Next week's Times will present an air view of the Pole Line Road site.
