Parkland's Bachelor Now A Benedict

Art Bernsten and Vivion Stimson were married Wednesday, July 12, at 3 p. m. and left that evening for British Columbia where they spent a week taking in the beauty of Canadian parks and scenery. While on their honeymoon they spent some time in Victoria and Vancouver and returned Wednesday, July 27, just in time to catch the last bus home.

Vivian has two daughters, Beverly and Ginger. The happy Bernstens now reside at Brookdale apartments. Parkland has lost its bachelor shoemaker but has gained a family in return. Good luck Vivian and Art! . . . is the wish of all your friends.

Rainier Park Bill Passes House

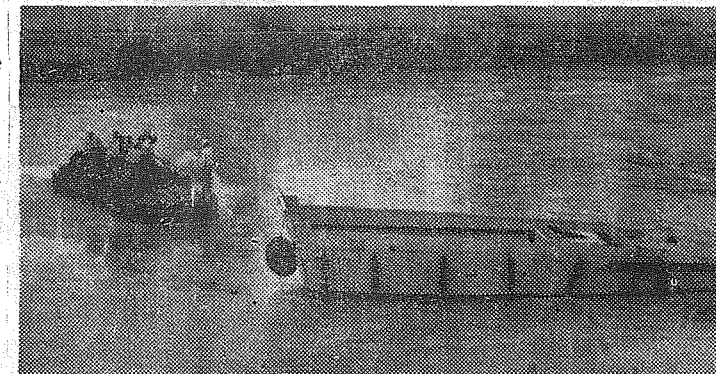

A measure introduced by Rep. Thor Tollefson which authorizes the Secretary of Interior to purchase the facilities of the Rainier National Park Company received favorable action by the House of Representatives July 27th. This measure has been under consideration by the Public Lands Committee for almost four years. It is anticipated that as a result of this legislation, new and more adequate facilities and services for summer and winter trade will be provided at the park.

Laborers Needed Through August

W. C. Harrington, Manager of the Employment Security Department, states today that there will be no let down in the demand for agricultural workers through the month of August. The bean harvest will be one of the biggest and best we have had. Bean pickers are already reporting substantial earnings on the first picking. Blueberry picking, starting this week, will require 300 pickers by August 7. Several raspberry fields will be through this week. These growers should urge their pickers to help a neighbor or contact the Farm Labor Office. There are several good fields of raspberries that will continue picking for another ten days.

Harrington states that the bean growers will follow a similar day-haul used by the berry growers. The Tacoma and Puyallup Farm Labor office recruit help between 6:00 and 8:00 each morning. Those wishing to drive out can get prompt referral through these offices.

OPERATION SNAFU RECOVERS STOLEN ARMY SAFE

It all began when your Mid-County Foreign Correspondent, operating on the Puyallup River Front, spotted "unusual activity" in the vicinity of the Puyallup River Bridge near Fife.

Troops were deployed along the river road, on the bridge and in the river. This squad was fishing, with two soldiers operating from a small row boat. Equipment being used was too large for salmon, too small for whales. Your reporter was interested.

A question directed at the Sergeant in charge drew a military reply which roughly translated means "No Comment", or more accurately, "Mind Your Own Business."

But, to make a long story short the fishermen hooked their game. The "fish" it was rumored, had all the markings of a military safe, dumped over the side of the bridge it is reported, by colored soldiers who had attempted to collect "army pay" in advance without the formality of signing a military payroll. This, for the uninitiated . . . is highly unethical in army circles.

This buried treasure, located at the bottom of the Puyallup River, had to be recovered. Without fanfare, and in the best traditions of the service, a Navy LSP steamed up the Puyallup, whose waters were swollen from melting snow and a high tide. It was "full speed ahead and damn the sand bars."

Like Paul Revere, your Mid-County Journal Foreign Correspondent did his best to warn the boys in blue of the fate of the Battleship Missouri. Communications were inadequate however, as the Journal photo clearly shows. Like its big sister the Missouri, the Navy's LSP found that it takes wheels for dry land operations. You just can't trust the Puyallup.

Puyallup Hi-Lights

Puyallup's city council will study a model ordinance from Baker, Oregon, recently passed to curb delinquency. This ordinance, a copy of which was brought to the attention of Councilman William Thayer, places the responsibility for delinquent minor children on the parents and provides both fines and jail sentences as teeth to the measure. Thayer said the adoption of the ordinance in Baker, Oregon has worked wonders in curbing delinquency in that city.

City Attorney Leslie Jochimsen said it was questionable if putting a widowed mother in jail would cure an errant son. The council asked Jochimsen to draw a similar ordinance for Puyallup and a study of the measure will be made at a future meeting.

An emergency ordinance to appropriate monies for the completion of the city hall was laid over. Councilmen William Loughlin and Lloyd Moss voted against the measure since they stated no provision had been made, as far as they could ascertain, for erection of a practice tower for the fire department. The present drill tower must be removed and a new one is imperative to the local fire department is to retain its high rating, the two councilmen contended.

Return From Vacation
This past week has been a very hectic one for Big John Mostved, Senior clerk at the Parkland Post Office. At 4 a.m. Friday, John was rudely awakened by the Stork, who delivered seven Shepard puppies, while Doc John (the temporary veterinarian) stood by, ready for any and all emergencies. When John came to work that morning his nerves were shattered and he was suffering from fatigue. However, he is now back to normal. A hearty "Well Done," John.

Rev. and Mrs. C. A. Pellett of Parkland just arrived home from a ten day vacation trip up north where they visited with relatives and friends in Bellingham and Birch Bay, also Whidbey and Orcas Island.

INSIDE SCENE
From The Capitol
By GORDON NEWELL

The threat of Communist aggression has already put units of the Washington National Guard on orders for active duty and the recent special session of the legislature established machinery to create a state guard in the not unlikely event that all of the National Guard is called into federal service.

All of which makes it timely to review the charges which Governor Langlie made against General Enslley Llewellyn, Washington state Adjutant General, in his attempt to remove him from office last year. You have to take your laughs where you can get them in times like these.

Aside from a certain amount of trivia, such as a charge that the Seattle Field Artillery Army, which is built along lines similar to the Great Pyramid of Egypt, was a fire trap, the governor's complaints about the adjutant-general boiled down to something like this:

A. He had recruited the guard up to something approaching full authorized strength too fast to suit the governor.

B. He had provided new armories and training facilities too fast to suit the governor.

C. He had enrolled combat trained officers in the guard when there were no funds available to pay their uniform allowances, which had "embarrassed" the governor.

The state had a top man in the top guard spot in General Llewellyn. During the last war he served in almost every theater of operations, and he had a chance to see the Russians in action at the upper level. He also learned something about how the doughfeet earned their pay while collecting a Purple Heart in Normandy.

He was close to a lot of our top military leaders as well as to a lot of our combat soldiers. He foresaw what was coming, and he built up the ground and air arms of the Washington National Guard as fast as he could to meet the challenge which he knew was coming.

Instead of being given a medal which he deserves, for this accomplishment, the governor of Washington used it as a pretext to try to fire him from his job, and to keep military headquarters barred to him when the courts ruled that he is legally entitled to hold that job.

The governor has been on questionable ground throughout this deal and in the light of present developments his charges become really funny. Or rather, they would be funny if they didn't indicate that he is willing to play politics with the welfare and safety of the people of the state of Washington.

Most state agencies experienced an unprecedented turnover of employees when the present "good government" administration took over, but none received a cleaner sweep than the state department of licenses.

Veteran workers were fired in wholesale lots and were replaced by employees politically acceptable to the Langlie organization. The result has been a considerable degree of what might charitably be termed "confusion."

This is the department which, among other weird and wonderful arrangements, has an alien who has never made any attempt to become an American citizen on the state payroll as an inspector.

Complaints are also coming from citizens who receive warning letters regarding state patrol and police tickets in their driving record.

Every registered driver has a folder on file at Olympia in which arrests and warning tickets are placed as they come in. When an individual driver accumulates too many he gets a warning letter, and if no improvement is shown he is called to a hearing, at which his driving license may be taken from him.

In theory this is excellent practice, but we keep hearing complaints like the one from a driver who got a letter listing seven violations. Seems that the first of them occurred six years ago. One of them was merely a warning to repair a defective muffler. One a speeding charge, this motorist insists were not incurred by him at all. Another listed charge, he insists was not incurred in 1950, but in 1949.

This man is a responsible citizen with a reputation for telling the truth. On the other hand, we have it from sources close to the top in the license department that these driver record files are badly fouled up.

All in all, it seems reasonable to suspect that the "army" of political employees in that department are putting the wrong arrest tickets in the right folders and vice versa.

Motorists called upon to defend their driving privileges on the strength of somebody else's traffic violations are likely to be very unhappy about the whole thing.

Rumors persist that Langlie is under the weather again, but conflicting reports as to the nature of his trouble. The rumors are born out somewhat by a perusal of the daily press.

Few reports lately of the gubernatorial presence at the usual number of fiestas, church socials and ribbon snippings, in which he delights when up and about. According to our most reliable informants, however, there is nothing seriously wrong with the governor physically.

Clowns, headed by Eddie Hodgini, Fred Wenzel and Bozo Ward will furnish fun for the little folks. King Bros. troupe of dancing horses ridden by feminine riders, will be seen.

There are 600 people with the big show which recently returned to America after a tour of South America. The 150 performers represent eight foreign countries. Twenty-two tents covering 12 acres of ground are used to house the transient city which at night is transported from town to town upon two special convoys.

The performances will be given at 2 and 8 p.m. The doors will open an hour earlier to permit an inspection of the immense zoo or to enjoy a concert of popular and operatic music by Prof. Lee Hinckley's military band.

Portable Dairy—One of the outstanding herds in Pierce county is the group of grade Holsteins in the above photo. The cows are owned by Earnest Hungerbuhler whose farm is located about two miles north of Sumner on Stewart road. A Swiss dairyman, Hungerbuhler now has 47 cows on his 40-acre farm. The animals yielded an average of 431.7 pounds of butterfat for a year, while the average cow in the nation probably gives around 200 pounds. The herd is one of several which will be featured in the Dairy Herd Improvement association's annual report now being prepared.

KOREA . . . WHOSE'S TO BLAME

The man on the street is asking the question, "Who is to blame for the position we find ourselves in on the Korean Front?"

The easy answer is the Truman Administration, or the Army. Neither is accurate.

Truman has consistently asked for "Universal Military Training". He opposed our rapid demobilization which left us unprepared, with no war at the time; but with no peace treaties signed. The country's military leaders have also told us that public clamor for tax reductions and public opposition to military training was leaving us weak and unable to meet our world wide commitments.

Back of our present state of unpreparedness lies a number of mistakes, many of them made by you and me.

In 1945 we wanted out of the service, so we could get back on the job and back to our families. We quite a little too soon. Pressure from the home folks helped and we left billions in military equipment to rot in the jungle. In some cases this equipment was simply dumped into the sea.

In 1946 we voted for the immediate elimination of "controls". We hated controls and we made our point at the polls. The result was inflation and consumption of materials that should have been stock-piled for future trouble.

None of us wanted to fight in China for a Chinaman whose government was filled with corruption; but Russia did support the Chinese "Commies" and "her friends" are now in power.

The favored few, bought up so-called army surpluses and much equipment is no longer available for guard and reserve units. We'll have to manufacture new equipment.

The military leaders too, made mistakes, and destroyed some valuable equipment which could have been used now by our troops and allied troops.

Life can be, and often is a Comedy of Errors. The sum total has given us War In Korea . . . in our time.

Let's work together to make it as short a war as possible.

INFLATION WILL CONTINUE

Those planning to build a new home will meet higher costs of construction and increased difficulty in the procurement of building materials. The reasons should be obvious to any builder. Real shortages do exist in certain material lines. These shortages brought on by an unusually heavy peacetime construction program will soon be assisted by mobilization construction demands and hoarding.

Paper, another strategic war material, has already jumped in price. Printers are stock piling and shortages are developing.

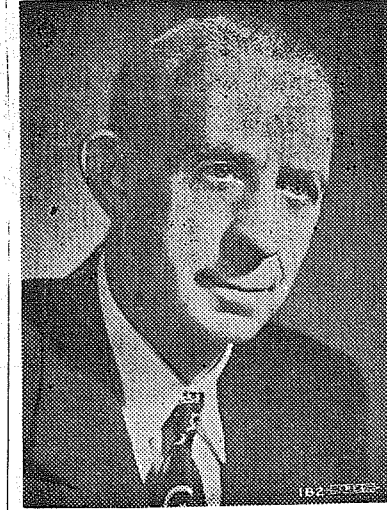

Food is plentiful; but hoarding has started and prices are going up in several lines.

Back of this buying is the fear of war-time restrictions and rationing; but more important still is the certain knowledge that mobilization and war will bring with it inflation and price increases in all commodity fields.

Without price control, retail prices will climb rapidly this summer and fall. That means price controls soon or rapid inflation with new labor demands and strikes.

At best you can expect controlled, but continuing inflation with the price of living going up proportionately.

Sladek Makes Statement

Filing for Sheriff of Pierce County on the Democratic ticket is Joe Sladek. With a lifetime of friends and twenty-five years experience, Sladek says that he can do the best job for the people as Sheriff. Sladek's popularity in the County area over the past twenty-five years has been unequaled by any other law enforcement officer. With fair play and good judgement, Sladek has endeavored to work for the people, and to fulfill the oath of his office, whatever office that might be. Sladek spent 19 years of his service with State Police in Pierce County. From riding horses to riding patrol car Sladek has always done a good job, in law enforcement.

Sladek has also worked as a deputy sheriff for three years in Pierce County, and for the past 3 years has been Constable with the Tacoma Police Department.

Joe Sladek says, "When I am elected Sheriff of Pierce County I can faithfully promise you that you will see a great difference. There will be no more begging for assistance from the Sheriff's office, but instead there will be a 24 hour service that will be given to the people or there will be some new deputies working for the people. Calls for assistance in any emergencies will be answered immediately, and other calls will be answered with the least possible delay. Deputies will be trained to investigate and preserve evidence with the least possible delay."

"I intend also to give the people a decent Juvenile program to eliminate delinquency by giving the children the necessary recreational and religious training through the help of the Churches and clubs. With a Juvenile officer trained to work in co-operation with the various civic organization to set up Scouting programs for girls and boys, and other recreational organizations such as horsemanship and fishing clubs under the guidance of picked neighborhood experts, this can be accomplished.

"It is possible to give more police protection with the same number of deputies, if the deputies are placed in the right jobs. There will be a definite re-organization in the Sheriff's Department when I am elected. For the past four years I have heard not once but many times the complaints that the citizen has had. Each complaint was a good, reasonable complaint, and I have made a point to put these things into my program. It is my opinion that every one has good ideas at times, and I intend to use them. A good reliable and sincere Sheriff will endeavor at all times to please the people that he is working for. I intend to do that by doing the best job that I can learn to do, with your help. All I can say is to Vote for Sladek and see the difference.

Waller Road
By Mrs. Verne Fogle
GRanite 5210

The annual picnic of the Waller Road Grange families and friends will be held Sunday, August 13th at Point Ohop on Ohop Lake. Grangers please remember the date! Load the family in the car along with a picnic lunch and be there! Ice cream, coffee and cream will be furnished by the Grange Auxiliary. NOTE: (Fried chicken is on the menu.)

The first in a series of meetings of the Waller Road Community Fair Committee made up of members of the Mothers' Club, Grange and 4-H Leaders, was held at the home of Mrs. David Patterson Tuesday evening. Plans were put in order for a bigger than ever Fair this year.

Mrs. David Patterson of East 64th St. entertained the Women's Club of the Reorganized L. D. S. Church last Thursday evening. A stork shower was given the President, Mrs. Clifford Towle. Many lovely gifts were received. Refreshments were served to the 23 ladies present.

A group of boy Scouts of troop 23 spent a week end camping at the Grange Youth Camp on Snoqualmie Pass, formerly known as Rustic Inn. A picnic of Grangers from all counties was held on Sunday. Vern Fogle accompanied the boys up there on Saturday morning. Dick Metcalf going up in the evening to spend the night with the boys. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Freeman went up on Sunday to spend the day. Some anxious hours were put in by all, when Dick Metcalf suffered a head injury due to a fall. After treatment at Tacoma General, Dick was able to go home. He also has a badly sprained arm. We hope you will have a speedy recovery, Dick.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Fogle and daughters, Nancy and Lois have returned to Waller Road again, after a 3 years residence in Montana.

The community was saddened by the death of Mrs. Glen Cornish, last week. She resided at Rt. 11, Box 228-Y. She will be missed by many.

Picnic Basket

Some official or officials must have had the experience we have had so often, of driving and driving for miles without being able to find a place to pull out and eat a lunch. So now there is in progress a development program of over a hundred roadside parks to supplement the half hundred large state parks. These roadside parks are small in area, most of them with a parking space for only about half a dozen cars. They all have picnic tables and waste cans. Most of them are situated at points of special interest with plenty of trees and shade.

The two roadside turnouts just opened for the use of the public are at Alder Dam and Silver Lake on the Mountain highway. Alder roadside park is situated in southern Pierce County between LaGrande and Alder on Highway No. 5. It has a beautiful view of the Nisqually River and Alder Dam. The Silver Lake turnout is closer to Tacoma on the same highway about 12 miles south of the Roy junction. It is a V-shaped location between the old and new highway that affords a cool wooded picnic spot.

More than thirty of these roadside parks have been completed this year. All these Washington roadside parks are distinctly ceive their pay through the kindness of the tax payers and should help them at all opportunities.

"I do not consider it any credit to an officer for making an arrest of a party slightly tipsy a half mile away from his home, who is able to walk and take him fifteen or twenty miles to the County Jail and book him for intoxication.

"When you deprive a person of their liberty you have taken from them all they have.

"Great care should always be exercised when depriving a person of their liberty by arresting them, being sure that the evidence warrants the arrest. It is better to let a criminal escape than to place an innocent person in jail.

"And in closing I say to you, the voters and Citizens of Pierce County, that I will, if elected, give you an honest, capable, clean administration as your Sheriff."

Dick Bodius In Sheriff's Race

Richard L. "Dick" Bodius entered the race for Pierce County Sheriff, this week, and issued the following statement:

"In announcing my candidacy for the office of Sheriff I wish to thank the publisher of this paper for the space allowed me to express my views and opinions of what there should be in a Law enforcement agency covering a territory the size of Pierce County.

"I am a retired Detective of some twenty-five years experience and have made a study of criminology for the last twenty years, and to my knowledge, there has never been a trained detective as Sheriff in the history of the County.

"I am a firm believer that every man working out of the Sheriff's office as a deputy should be a highly trained man in law enforcement work and capable of solving any crime that he may be called upon to investigate.

"Murder is an ugly word, but we have a few unsolved ones here in Pierce County. The time to investigate them is when the crime is reported and not thirty days later, which gives the murderer a chance to destroy all the evidence that could be used against him, or her, as the case may be.

"There should be Special Deputies appointed in the far outlying districts with some knowledge of police work who could take care of the situation that arises until a trained man arrives, this would help materially in the apprehension of the guilty parties.

"The deputies working out of the Sheriff's office should always remember that they remarked with triangular signs "Roadside Park Ahead".

These roadside parks are truly a fine addition for any state to make for tourists or their own residents.

If you like bacon and tomato sandwiches try making the sandwiches with crisp bacon and then slicing the tomatoes onto the bacon when you are ready to eat them. Add pickles, potatoe chips, potatoe waffles or canned shoe strings and a Picnic cake with some fresh grapes, and you have a really good outdoor repast.

A Picnic Cake to me is one baked in a long pan with a non-sticky icing put right on the cake in the pan. This makes the cake easy to carry and eat.

Reuben Reports On State School At Chehalis

(Our State Representative, Reuben A. Knoblauch, Chairman of the Interim Committee on State Institutions, writes of his surprise visit to the State Training School for Boys, at Chehalis.)

Thursday morning of last week I read in the morning paper of the 12 young lads who had escaped from the Chehalis institution, so decided that it would be a wise thing to drive down there to see for myself just what the situation was. It was a very worthwhile trip and one of the most interesting inspections that I had made. Because the trip was made so hurriedly, I was able to notify one member of my committee, Arthur Cory, of Chehalis. Mr. Cory, committee chairman in 1947, is also very deeply interested in the rehabilitation of our youth that have gone astray.

The first part of the day was spent in conference with Mr. Murphy, head of the school, and Van R. Hinkle, Supervisor of State Institutions, a very fine and qualified person. Bob Breneman, Administrative Assistant to Mr. Murphy, acted as my guide for the afternoon. Bob is a graduate of Linfield College, in Oregon, is young, and appears to be a very capable person. I got the impression that he was doing a grand job there. At the present time there are about 140 boys in the Chehalis school, ranging from a 10 year old lad to boys of 18 years of age. The average boy is kept there around 9 to ten months, which is too short a time to do a good job of rehabilitating a delinquent into a good citizen. However, the school is not to blame for this as they are on a very slim budget and must take care of a good many boys in a years time. In the past year, about 140 escapes have been made from the school. That doesn't mean that every boy "rambles." (A word that they use for escaping and which I heard many times while there.) Some boys "ramble" three or four times while there. The true fact is that they brag about it and seem to think that the more they take off the bigger "shots" they are. I was able to talk to quite a few of the boys there (in private) and assured them that what they told me would not be divulged to their superiors. Many of them were sent there as a result of broken homes. You might be interested in knowing that I talked to one young lad of 15 who is a son of one of the most prominent businessmen in our state. He is there as the result of a broken home. He had "rambled" three times since being sent to Chehalis. I asked him if he ever wanted to take his place in life as a good citizen and he told me "yes." However, and as much as I wish that I could believe him, 30% of the young lads leaving the school end up in some other type of an institution—if not in our state, then a neighboring one. Over 20% graduate from Chehalis to Monroe, and from Monroe to Walla Walla or Mcneil Island. Thank God the rest of them (or at least most of them) do make a sincere attempt to go straight. Some of the lads I talked to complained about the food and I asked them what was the matter with it. Believe it or not, here is a typical answer: "It isn't cooked right." My question: "What do they feed you?" Answer: "Steaks, pork chops, hamburger, etc." Question: "What are you complaining about?" Answer: "The meat isn't sliced right and we don't like the tin plates the food is served on." You draw your own conclusions and I imagine that they'll be the same as mine. In all of the inspections that I have made, Mr. Venemon was the first person that ever told me to talk with the inmates of an institution and to find out first hand just what they thought. Needless to say, I was very appreciative of his co-operation and was quick to tell him so. Tho I do have the power to do this if I want to, still one doesn't like to take advantage of an occasion. Mr. Venemon knew that I came down specifically to see what the conditions were there and to see why so many boys were escaping. I found out that although the employees there try to observe everything very carefully, it's nearly impossible to prevent a slip-up. You see, there are no walls around the Boys School and an escape can be made quite easily. Frankly, this particular institution shouldn't be considered as a prison and we don't want it that way.

During the summer months the boys have school classes for half a day and work a half a day. Classes including subjects taught in the Sophomore bracket are taught there. In the fall those higher than the 10th grade attend school in Chehalis.

There is a fine dairy herd and poultry farm at this institution. Much of the food used there is grown by the boys. You'll remember that I spoke of the meats that were served there. That also is the result of the cattle, hogs, and chickens on their farm.

Now, what can we do to better conditions there and do a better job of rehabilitation? In order to get the trained personnel we must pay a better salary. Employees there receive as low as $170 a month. Highly trained men are impossible to find at that low salary. More attention must be devoted to the sports program and in teaching the boys how to be good sports and therefore better Americans. A new gymnasium and much equipment is needed. Yes, I could go on for hours telling you what we need at the Chehalis State Training School. One of the answers to the problems there, with its old buildings, etc., will be the passage of the $20 million dollar bond issue in November. This will take care of much of the needed construction in all of our 13 State Institutions and is a MUST. From now until November I plan on a speaking campaign throughout the state in behalf of this bond issue.

This coming Saturday my committee will make a full inquiry

Johnson for Assessor

Having filed his declaration of candidacy for the post of Pierce County Assessor, Roy A. Johnson, announced today that he is running for that office on the Republican ticket. Johnson, a native Tacoma, and son of a Pioneer Tacoma family, is making his debut in the field of politics at the coming September 12th primary election.

"In my capacity as an owner of property in Tacoma and Pierce County for many years, I feel that I am qualified to speak on the subject of taxation," states Johnson. "Those who pay taxes which operate our municipal and county governments and the school districts of this county, feel that a complete and thorough survey of the taxing situation in the county is necessary in order that a better distribution of the tax burden may be effected. Such a survey is the duty of the county assessor, and, should I be elected to that office, such a survey will be immediately instituted."

"As the result of such survey, equalization of the tax load can be more evenly spread without disturbing the economy of the governing bodies who depend for taxes to carry on the multiplicity of activities necessitated by the remarkable growth of Pierce County and its towns and cities since the 1940 census was taken."

"My many friends throughout the county know me well for my proven business ability, honest and dogged determination those things I have set forth above."

Johnson was born in Tacoma, educated in its public schools and has been self-employed since 1923. He enlisted in the United States Navy during the First World War and honorably served there until 1919.

He is a past commander of Edward B. Rhodes Post No. 2, of the American Legion, is a past chef de gare of the 40 et 8, Pierce County Volture No. 94, a member of the Disabled American War Veterans, Destiny Lodge No. 197, A.F. & A.M., Scottish Rites bodies, Tacoma Elks Lodge No. 174, the Scandinavian Fraternity of America, Pierce County 50 year (Pioneers) Club, the Washington Press Club and First Lutheran Church.

He is married and has two children. His residence is at 304 South Tacoma Avenue.

4-H CLUB COMMUNITY FAIR AND PICNIC AT SPANAWAY

into the conditions existing at the Monroe Reformatory. We will carefully investigate the charges made by a Seattle newspaper in which they accuse the authorities in charge of mismanagement, etc. I can assure you that this will be a fair hearing and not a witch hunt. Our committee is bi-partisan and out to help—not to make political propaganda. We'll spend the night here at Monroe and the next day go on to Sedro-Wooley and inspect the Northern State Hospital. This is interesting and I wish that all of you could be with us on these trips.
