

Thanksgiving Message

By
Dr. S. C. Eastvold, President
Pacific Lutheran College
Parkland, Washington

Thanksgiving has ever been the language of Christian people. When the fathers of our country came over the great ocean and settled in a new and strange country, they were ready and willing to perish in what was a great wilderness. However, they looked not only at the forests, lakes, streams and the potential fields, but more especially, they looked up into the heavens and cried unto the Lord from whom they expected their help, and they testified that God did hear their cries and did look on their adversities with loving kindness and tender mercy. In the midst of many trials, they praised the Lord and testified that He was good and that His mercies endure forever. The pioneers who founded our country and laid the foundations thereof, looked to God as their redeemer and confessed that He had delivered them from the hand of the oppressor.

When they came, they found no great cities, no well-planned highway system, no police force to protect them from evil doers, no institutions in which to deposit their belongings. They wandered around in the great wilderness, with no city in which to dwell, being both hungry and thirsty, with their souls overwhelmed within them. But even until this day, they remain models because they confessed before the Lord His loving kindness and His wonderful works before the sons of men.

Today we have the golden corn torn from the husks and on our tables with wheat bins full and ripened in the bin. We have autumn days both bright and glorious. What could be more natural as descendants of the early pioneers of America than that all of us present our ardent praises and offer prayers of deepest thankfulness to the God who gives with bounty and thus bowing down in gracious kindness to our needs.

We have countless homes in which each one of us has a place to dwell, and where we may feel secure and sheltered. We have health and love and friendship in abundance. Let us thank God and pray that these precious gifts and heritages and freedoms may endure a long, long time. Let no morning dawn without a grateful heart and let no evening close without a re-study of the blessings that may well return us to pure content. Certainly the Lord has blessed us far above many others and therefore we should rejoice and love the hand by which these gifts are sent.

Again this year we send to all the readers of this fine newspaper the blessings of all of us at Pacific Lutheran College.

S. C. EASTVOLD, President

Annual Christmas Coloring Contest Starts

Novel Event For The Kiddies Sponsored By 22 Local Stores

The Times Journal Christmas Coloring Contest gets off to a flying start this weekend, bigger and better than ever before. This popular event, which originated several years ago, will be sponsored by 22 prominent business firms of the area, nearly twice as many as in former seasons.

Especially attractive prizes are offered by all the sponsors and every child in the district may submit an entry at each of the 22 stores participating. All youngsters from five to 14 years of age are eligible. In awarding the prizes, judges will take into consideration the age of each contestant, thus giving the little tots an equal chance with the older boys and girls.

The contest features two full pages of outlined pictures, 22 in all, to be colored by the young "artists," who may use water colors, crayons or any medium they wish. The children will probably want to cut the pictures apart before starting to color them, but this may be done after coloring if desired.

Space has been left below each picture for the name, address and age of the contestant, as well as the name of the business firm sponsoring that particular space.

When finished, each picture will be taken to the store sponsoring that space and deposited in a contest box provided there. Each store will chose its own judges and their decision will be final.

As soon as this week's Times-Journal is delivered at the homes the young artists may go to work; when their pictures are finished to their satisfaction they may take them to the stores where the boxes are provided for entries. The contest closes Dec. 14 and the names of winners will be announced in the Dec. 19 issue of the paper.

The contest is a timely event which will enable 22 talented

WHAM! When two cars enter the intersection at the same time, one of them reportedly traveling at high speed, something's got to give! On Thursday afternoon at 119th and South I street that "something" was a 1950 Studebaker car, driven by Glenn L. Sullivan, 16, of 516 South 117th St., which ended up a total loss. The other car involved was a Mercury Monterey, driven by Lois A. Torgeson, which was damaged to the extent of some $250. According to State Highway Patrol Officer Gil Paulson, who investigated the accident, witnesses reported that the Sullivan car was traveling very fast and failed to give the right of way to the other vehicle, which was on the right. Striking the side of the Mercury, the Studebaker is said to have hurtled over it, and rolled over coming to rest some distance on the other side. By some miracle, both drivers and a passenger in the Mercury, Joan Susan, escaped practically uninjured.

children to win worthwhile prizes for themselves or to give loved ones at Christmas. The task of coloring the pictures is easy—and it's fun—and a copy of the Times-Journal containing the special features goes into every home in Southern Pierce county today. As there are many families with more than one child eligible for the contest, the Times-Journal Publishing Co. is providing extra papers to all merchants sponsoring the contest and children may obtain the needed "spares" there. Of course it is understood that no child may enter more than one set of the contest pictures.

Orpheus Club In Benefit Concert In Puyallup 11th

The Orpheus club, long regarded one of the leading male choral groups of the Pacific Northwest, will present a benefit concert in the Puyallup high school auditorium Wednesday evening, Dec. 11.

All proceeds from the 1400 tickets which are on sale by parents of band members and by high school P-TA members, or Mrs. Dwight Robinson, WA 2-7570, or Mrs. Oscar Asmusen, LE 7-4105, will go toward the purchase of new uniforms for the high school band.

The Orpheus club, made up of approximately 80 men from Tacoma and the surrounding area, is now in its 54th year. It is directed by Bruce Rodgers of the music department of the College of Puget Sound.

Its annual concerts in Tacoma, held in the Fifth Methodist church, are virtually always a sell out, with standing room many times. John R. Alkema, Puyallup resident, who is a member of the club and who helped secure the concert for the Puyallup high school band benefit, said this week "I have always wanted to have Orpheus Club present a concert in Puyallup high school. The auditorium here offers such fine background for a concert of this type, that it should be outstanding."

Prosperity note: Last year, according to the Economic Report of the President, employed people took vacations aggregating 70 million weeks, 85 per cent of them with pay. This is a new high.

The Tax Foundation discloses that government spending (federal, state and local) ran at the rate of $13 billion an hour in 1956, as against a comparatively modest $2 billion an hour in 1940.

Stopping on glare ice: The most effective stopping technique, while maintaining steering control, is to pump the brakes. This means apply the brakes quickly (lock them) for an instant, and as quickly completely release them for an instant. Repeat this

Contract Let To Repair Fire Damaged Hangars

A contract to repair structural damage of hangars 1 and 2, which were nearly destroyed by fire last January, was awarded to a Tacoma firm this week according to Mr. S. J. Rybicki, base contracting officer.

The firm, Roy T. Early Company, must begin work on the $464,952 contract by the first of next week and complete it in 9 months.

Two other companies entered bids they were: The Steel Construction Company of Portland and F. T. Crowe and Company, Inc. of Seattle.

In his announcement Mr. Rybicki also said that he expects the two burned-out hangars to be back into full use at the end of the nine-month period. This is one of the largest contracts ever handled by the contracting office, he added.

The McChord fire, which gained nation-wide attention, broke out early on the morning of January 15 this year. Before the base fire department and other neighboring departments could bring the blaze under control something near $4 million damage was done. Most of this damage was in destroyed aircraft parked inside the two hangars.

Early this year an investigation was held to determine the cause.

Unknown, said the board of officers, however there was a strong indication that the fire may have started from faulty wiring.

Repair work will include replacing the metal roofing and galvanized steel siding. Several of the supporting steel girders will be replaced; others will be repaired by a process called flame straightening.

So far this year, $10,415 has been spent in studies to determine the feasibility of repairs of the large structures. Shop areas were put back into use shortly after the fire and have been operating under near normal conditions.

"Side-walk Supervisors" were cautioned today by Sam Fein, ground safety officer, about getting too near the construction work. He asked that anyone watching the operation should stay far enough away to avoid any falling tools.

Warning: Danger . . . Cold, Frost, Snow, Fog All Signposts of Winter

Holiday season means winter is here. When traveling under winter conditions, fog, snow, ice, rain and sleet; allow yourself extra time to cope with these conditions and still arrive at your destination at the desired time.

For those who wish to survive the hazards of winter driving with the least possible difficulty, these "Caution Clues for Careful Chauffeurs" are offered:

1. Approach curves, hills, bridges, railroad tracks, danger and caution signs with reduced speed and extra care.

2. Drive slowly on slippery highways, turn and brake with care. Before descending steep or slippery grades, shift into second or lower speed.

3. In night driving wipe the mud or snow from headlights frequently; clean the entire windshield often. Sleet on the windshield may be avoided by wiping the glass with glycerine and by raising or blocking up the rear end of the hood to let the engine heat melt the ice.

4. In heavy mist or fog use the headlights with depressed beam. If you get off the pavement, slow down and turn back carefully to avoid a skid or lurch into another traffic lane.

Driving habits and methods are a large part of safety in winter driving, but also very important is the operating condition of your vehicle. All drivers should check or have checked such items of equipment as:

1. Lights, wipers and defrosters - operation and power. (Insure clear vision at all times.)

2. Snow tires, chains, brake linings, hoses and fluid. (Good brakes and traction means greater safety.)

3. Battery, ignition system, points, plugs, etc. (Improves performance, starting and reliability.)

4. Fanbelts, radiator hoses, thermostats and anti-freeze. (Avoid overheating, improve efficiency of motor and heater, insure maximum generator power.)

5. Change to winter weight oil, lubricate all moving parts. (Make starting easier, reduce winter wear.)

6. Check automatic choke operation, use gasoline anti-freeze additive. (Prevent frozen gas lines and hard starting.)

Some additional tips: The Chicago National Safety Council Committee on Winter Driving Hazards offer these conclusions after comprehensive tests:

The better snow tires give substantial advantage in loose snow and slush, but are not much more effective than regular tires on ice or hard packed snow. Tests have shown that reinforced tire chains cut braking distance in half on both snow and ice. With these chains, traction to start is increased up to 7 times over that possible with regular tires on ice. On packed snow, these chains out-pull regular tires nearly 4 times.

According to the National Association of Food Chains, food prices have increased only 14.7 per cent since 1947-49. By comparison, factory wages are up 55.9 per cent.

On the light side: An English teacher offered a pie to the pupil who would write the briefest essay on two of life's problems. The winner used only one word: "Twins."

Monday - Tomato soup and crackers, tunafish sandwich, carrot and celery sticks, cherry cobbler, milk.

Tuesday - Spaghetti, garlic bread, cabbage and pineapple slaw, purple plums, milk.

Wednesday - Baked potato, hamburger gravy, buttered peas, bread and butter sandwich, one-half apple, milk.

Beginning on December 2, 1957, the cost of the school lunch in the Franklin Pierce Elementary schools, will increase from 20c to 25c.

The high school plate lunch will increase from 30c to 35c. The A La Carte items will be as follows: Soups 10 and 15c Filled Sandwiches 20c Bread and Butter 10c Desserts 10c

1/2 pints of milk may be purchased at 2c per bottle to students, and 6c to adults.

These increases are forced upon the District due to the general rise in the cost of food and lack of many commodities from the Federal Government.

Mrs. F. W. Trail Director of Lunchrooms
Neil MacNeil, writing in National Review, says that "We have in the U.S. 116, 743 units of government, almost all of which levy taxes of one sort or another." He goes on to say that there are "116 taxes on a suit of clothes, 151 taxes on a loaf of bread, and around 100 on an egg. The tax-gatherer takes so much now, that he can't leave anything untouched."

"Happy Holiday" Concert Theme

"Happy Holiday", a two-hour revue of sparkling campus talent from Brigham Young University, will be presented in the College of Puget Sound field house on Thursday, Dec. 5, at 7:30 p.m., with special student rates of 50c for high school and CPS and PLC young people. Part of the 90-member cast will journey to Franklin Pierce high school Friday morning to present the assembly program; there is no charge for this performance.

A captivating and delightfully entertaining all-family variety show, "Happy Holiday" was accorded special recognition last year from Walt Disney for a performance rendered during a tour of Southern California. This year, the show is touring Idaho, Washington and Oregon.

"Happy Holiday" is a continuity production developed around the holidays of the year. The cast consists of top talent from all parts of the United States and from several foreign countries.

Special attractions of "Happy Holiday" include: Veteran ventriloquist Roy Baumgart, who appears with his canine friend "Rin Tin Tin" and a smart-alecky sidekick "Lucky."

The "Y's Men", BYU's top band of 15 pieces, which will provide the musical background and will offer special numbers.

The "Downbeats", six charming coeds singing five-part harmony.
Petite Ballerina Frances Mansuy, featured soloist in the spectacular "Christmas in the Air" finale.

Versatile Bob Farrell, accomplished impersonator, and lovely BYU Coed Sherri Magnusson, talented tap dancer who gives out with a mean Charleston.

"FLYING SAUCER REPORTS"

Presented weekly as a public service by the Bargain Basket

Washington, D.C., 10/7/57—That shiny object an Alaskan scientist saw Sunday, Oct. 6 may not have been the Russian satellite or its launcher but a snooping UFO, according to "Washington UFO intelligence." Retired Army Major Wayne S. Aho, head of the group of UFO enthusiasts, said this possibility will be discussed in the next issue of the publication "Little Listening Post." It will point out, he said, that "for years UFO's have been known to hunt atomic installations and follow rockets and missiles." As a result of Russia's startling success in launching a satellite, he said, "governments will now turn more openly to study of unidentified flying objects in hopes of learning the secrets of their mysterious powers."

Calvin, Oklahoma, June 11, 1956—"About forty times larger than an 11-story building and covering about 15 acres of ground and burning like a cinder," is the way a 21-year-old Calvin, Oklahoma garage operator described an object he said was traveling south at a slow rate of speed. He said it made no noise and gave off no heat. It came as close as a quarter of a mile before disappearing behind a hill.

The garage operator said his 20-year-old wife and her sister, 19, were returning from a trip to Holdenville and first noticed a glow around 9:30 p.m. It looked like a house burning, he said. "The longer we watched the brighter it got," he explained. We drove about five or six miles and finally stopped to watch it. My wife was asleep in the back seat when we stopped, and I woke her up. She said she had seen the moon before and went back to sleep.

"My sister-in-law and I sat there and watched—it kept getting closer. My wife woke up again and this time she started crying. She said it gave her the impression something was going to happen, or something was going to speak to her from it." He said the object started moving towards the car and the two women started yelling for him to get out.

"I wanted to stay and watch it, but it kept getting closer and I decided we had better go on," he said. "We had been watching for nearly 15 minutes. He said they drove on and the mystery object started moving towards the car for several miles, dipping out of sight only when they neared the Calvin Bridge. "I stopped the car several times and each time the object also stopped," he said.

He described the object as being "egg-shaped and appearing red hot at the top, and shedding a light underneath, enough to light up several acres." He said it appeared from the Lamar vicinity. When last seen the brilliant object looked to be less than a quarter of a mile away, but was farther when first spotted, according to the mechanic. It just shot away on a wild tangent and disappeared behind a hill. Another witness, on his way from Wetumka to Calvin, said he thought he saw the object at a distance but kept on traveling and did not stop to look.

Weather officials in McAlester and communication authorities at the McAlester airport said no sightings of the object had been reported. They said no aircraft were scheduled for the area at that time.

The mechanic said he has no idea what the object might have been but said it scared his wife and sister-in-law. "My sister-in-law started reading the Bible when she got home but couldn't find any explanation," he said. At the time of the sighting, he said there were no clouds in sight and the moon was off in a different direction and could be seen at the same time.

Trecoma, Washington—10/11/57—A reddish object with glowing tails streaked through the heavens sometime between 5:30 and 6:30 p.m. Mrs. Raymie Koehn and daughter, Gloria Wulver, watched the bright object for 30 seconds at 5:33 p.m. It was traveling northeast, they said. Mrs. John Vukovich said "the whole neighborhood saw the ball." It was trailing reddish tails, she said. At about 6:20 p.m. the UFO made another pass over the city. A Fircrest resident said it looked like "20 stars" all together. The Edwin Rath family saw through binoculars the object "bigger than any star." At first it looked like a star, then it took on a reddish glow," Mrs. Rath reported. Mrs. Rosella E. Anderson gave the following account of what she saw: "It was about 7:30 p.m. I was on my mother's front porch. Then I became conscious of a humming noise. The noise increased. I collected my wits and ran to the edge of the porch as the object passed overhead. Leaning over the support I saw this round disc, humming, and moving away from me in jerking motions like it was being pulled by an invisible string. It came from the northeast and continued in a southwesterly direction."

GIVE THANKS!
In the ever-quickenning tempo of modern living, many of us are taking for granted the many blessings we enjoy in these United States in 1957. We are surrounded by comforts and luxuries unknown even to the very wealthy not too many years ago, we are free to work as we please, live as we please, choose our own religious beliefs—and most of the time we're just too busy to say "Thanks." May we all pause for a little while at this glad season and "count our many blessings, name them one by one," and truly give thanks for all the wonderful factors which enrich our lives.

Frankly Speaking

with Ron Frank

As the football season comes to a close tomorrow and Saturday for most teams, attention begins to shift to the casaba sport, basketball. The cavorting hoopsters make their debut next week in all corners of the nation with several new rules gaining most of the pre-season time in bull sessions.

Fans will find six changes in the rules in effect this fall. Foremost, the one for free throw bonus has been curtailed to make the first six common fouls in each half one-shot violations in college and AAU games. Fouls then would revert to the former rule of awarding a second free throw in the event the first was made. High school followers will find that the one-shot foul limitation applies only to the first four violations since the prep game is shorter in time than the collegiate style of play. YMCA and Canadian contests will also duplicate the high school regulation.

Obvious to most fans will be the change which makes it immaterial to throw-in away from the 12-foot area underneath the basket. The rule has been rescinded to allow a throw-in from any place at either end of the court. Last year, several guards absent-mindedly violated the rule and their teams had to give up possession.

The double-foul has been revised with the shooting eliminated and a center-circle jump called for between any two players from the opposing teams. It eliminates time and the over-emphasis on foul shooting.

Another change, aimed at eliminating goaltending, decrees that players other than the shooters are not permitted to touch the ball on the rim or directly over the basket. This will not prevent the giants from dunking the ball, however.

The rule committee also acted to strengthen the five-second rule and to cut down on "actionless of farcial games" by empowering officials to call time and warn the team deemed responsible. If the warning is not heeded, a technical foul may be called.

A minor change makes a ball thrown over the backboard an out-of-bounds play in collegiate and AAU games where rectangular backboards are used.

Jerry Hoxsey, Tom Smith and Neil Kneip of Clover Park, Geo. Reed and Kermit Jorgensen of Renton, Neil Balsley of Enumclaw, and Dave Reynolds of Franklin Pierce seemed to be the best of the running backs and passers in the Puget Sound Conference this fall.

It was banquet time for local high school footballers with Bethel and Franklin Pierce serving up hearty meals last time.

The Cougars of Washington State were delicious with joy Saturday at Husky Stadium with large delegations from all points east of the Cascades.

Coach Del Schafer Works On Franklin Pierce Cage Squad

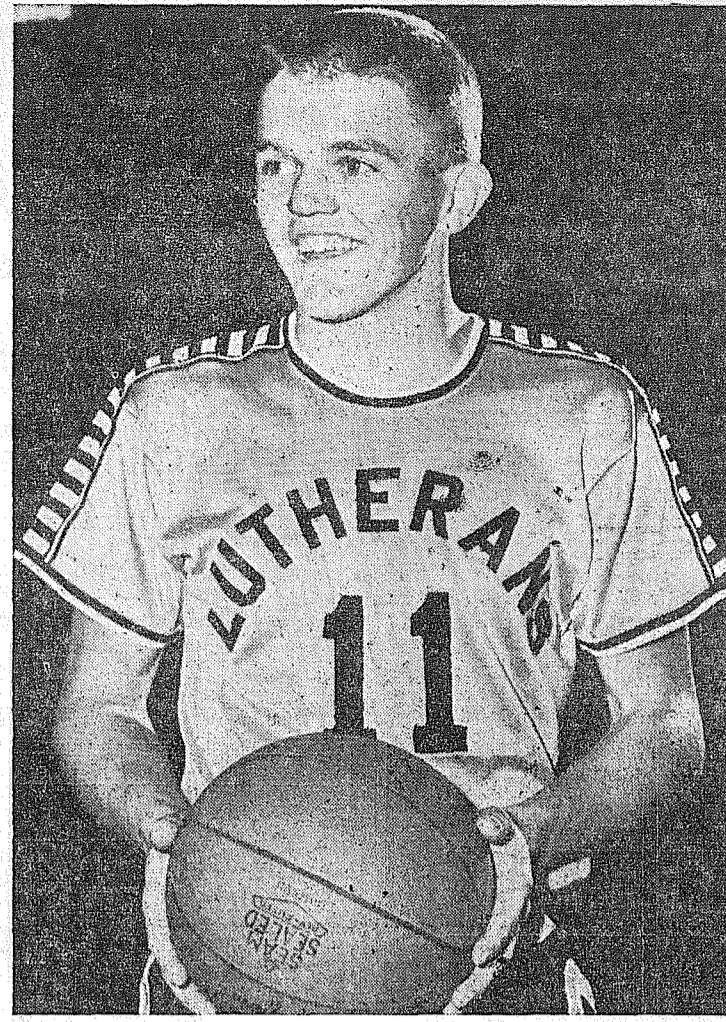

Coach Del Schafer of Franklin Pierce is busily pacing for the basketball opener Dec. 5. The Cardinal basketballers will face the defending Capital League champions, Stadium Tigers, on the home court.

Schafer has five returning lettermen. Seniors turning out are Bob Meade, Dave Reynolds, Jim Toburen, Bill Mahaffey, Ken Raden, Mike Kanton and Gary Gehrman.

Ken Southall, Terry Brink, Ricky Smidt, Gary Rihtarich, Bob Melton, Jim Mancuso, Jay Kinsley and Jon Malmin are the sophomores who greeted the varsity coaches during the first full week of drills.

Juniors Larry Carlson and Reynoir Peterson are two of the tallest men on the squad and could be counted on for heavy action in Schafer's plans. Other juniors working out include Pat Lawler, Bud Hellwich, Terry Schomburg, Bob Spradley, Harold Ostenson, Graham Rolstad, Eddie Dammel, Paul Flatness, Dave George, Bill Jeffries, Dennis Burgess and Bob Ellingsen.

Starters returning include Cal

FAMILIAR FACE—Pictured above is that little mighty might of Pacific Northwest basketball, Roger Iverson, Pacific Lutheran's diminutive guard, who will be cavorting once again on the maples for the defending Evergreen Conference champions. The Lutes make their first start of the season Dec. 4 in the Tacoma Athletic Commission's Invitational Tournament. Iverson naturally will be at his starting guard post.

Bethel Cage Squad Gets Set For Opener With Federal Way

Coach Bob Fincham sliced his basketball squad from 35 to 24 last week as the Bethel Braves prepared for their season opener next Monday against the Federal Way Eagles in the Bethel gym. The Bethel forces then take on the North Thurston Rams at Olympia Tuesday and trek to Fife for the Jamboree in the remaining part of the week's activities.

Coach Fincham has five returning lettermen this year but is sadly lacking in height with no one over the six-foot mark on the probable roster. Three of the biggest men last year from the first five have been lost via graduation and Fincham's task will be difficult.

Starters returning include Cal

Christoph and Dave Leigh who are expected to be at their customary starting posts next Tuesday. Other lettermen back are juniors Gary Gregg and Ed Hagen and senior Dale Nielsen. Thus Fincham could possibly field a starting five lacking in height but deep in experience.

Yelm and Orting are the two pre-season favorites in the West Central League. Yelm will be led once again by Center Dave Wolfe, standout in the State B Tournament last year.

BOWLING NOTES

Men's leagues last week at Paradise failed to produce any 600 scores, remarkable since the Parkland area bowling center usually has several top marks to report each week. Nevertheless, the competition was keen in the various male leagues and some outstanding individual games were rolled and some excellent scores of 540 and over garnered in three game set-to's.

Only 18 pins short of the 600 mark, Lewis Karpach, substitute in the Commercial League, fired a 198-211-173 in the Tuesday Commercial. Despite Dick Devereaux's 224 light for the week, the Devereaux five were upset by the Rucker Bros. The Rucker forces fired a total pinfall 2649 as to the league leader's 2495.

Rusty Swackhammer continued to pace the bowlers in the Parkland Builders league by tallying a 548 to help his Blue Spruce Service teammates. Swackhammer is the author of the three-game series and single game highs this season with 634 and 232 respectively. Gordie Studholm found the range with a 201 for Friday's top single mark.

Bob Fulkerson, Jim Bowers, and Frank Birklund were running in front of the rest of the parade in the Parkland Merchants league Nov. 18. Birklund took home a turkey by taking time off from his desk duties and hitting the pins for a 575 count and a 205 single game mark. Fulkerson rolled 565 with 204 mark enroute while Bowers felled 551.

Rome Construction ran their season win-loss total to 32-12 and continued to stay in first place in the Monday Merchants League. Barney Cull, Walt Whitney, George Ulleberg, Ray Prunner and Frank Armstrong compose the team which is barely staying out in front of Smalley's Auto Sales. The latter has posted a 30-14 total.

Washington Steel, leaders in the Industrial League, patted Bill Potter on the back Nov. 19 when he boomed out in front of the pack with 562.

Joe Doyle of Paragon Printers, shared the single game top of 212 with Irv Ball of Spanaway Exchange. The printers and Pacific Match are tied for second behind the Washington Steel five-some.

Bungalow Tavern kept its lead intact in the Wednesday Tavern loop with a season's mark of 35-13. Bill Beshlar rolled a 561 and a 215 mark.

Women's leagues featured four marks over 500 in the firing last week with Virginia Raynor's 542 topping all others. Eleanor Carlson and Eileen Andreason posted 518 and 516 respectively.

Bette Page's single game of 201 led the feminine section at Paradise all week long. Other scores included: Arabelle Freuchs, 435 (177); Fran Thomas, 457; Inez O'Brian 486; Bette Page, 481; Rose Earle 460; and Helen Ness 472.

Dave Graves took bantam honors Saturday by spilling 227 pins and Janice Jorgensen continued to dominate the girl bantam with a 213. Graves was picking up on a 3-10 split to pace the pickup department.

Dick Devereaux's 479 was high for the boys in the junior division while Joyce Bluson's 340 led the girl's side of the junior ledger. In splits Jo Heidal had a 3-7, Jerry Benson copped a 5-10 and Jerry Cox performed a neat trick in picking up the 4-7-9.

IN THE HISTORY OF PHARMACY
Bob Vaughan

The housewives of the early colonies brought with them their knowledge, remedies and herbs from their native countries. They planted herbs in the new country but they also used a number of native herbs thus bringing into the medical field Indian drugs, some of which are still included in the Pharmacopoeia.

In 1776 Christopher Marshall, famous American Pharmacist, was appointed by congress to provide for the needs of wounded soldiers in Philadelphia.

Interested in getting more for your record dollar? Why not join a club—and I don't mean a social organization.

Many of the top recording companies sponsor record clubs designed to stretch your money and increase your record collection.

November meeting were Mesdames Alber Bombardier, Frank Baskett and David McPherson.

4-H Clubs
 Special guest of the Midland 4-H Cloverbuds and the Midland 4-H Cloverettes at a joint meeting Thursday evening, Nov. 21, was Mrs. Florence Allen, County Extension Agent in Home Economics.

Mrs. Floyd Ayers and her daughters, Donna and Joanne, opened their home for this gathering. Joanne Ayers, new president of the Cloverettes, started the meeting with the flag salutes and then introduced Mrs. Allen who explained and discussed with the girls and their leaders and parents two new meal preparation projects being tried out for the first time this year in a few clubs in seven counties of the entire state of Washington to see how they work out and if the members enjoy them as well as learn new things. "Food For the Gang" and "Cookery Cruise" (foreign cookery) are the new and interesting projects. Present at the meeting were Nadine Olsen, Sally Hanson, Kathie Jones, Gloria Meyer, Janet Bombardier, Jane Lawler, Donna Ayers and leader, Mrs. Albert Bombardier; assistant leader, Mrs. Salter Corrigan, and Junior Leaders Valeria Bombardier and Marlene Corrigan from the Cloverbuds. Also Pat Winterton, Anita McElroy, Corrie Miller, Linda Martin, Nancy Bombardier, Marcella Lawler, Julie Johnson, Joanne Ayers and leader, Mrs. Norman Johnson and Mrs. Alfred Winterton, from the Cloverettes. Mothers also present were Mesdames Ralph Jones, Walter Olsen, and the hostess, Mrs. Floyd Ayers.

New 4-H Club
 "The Humming Birds", a recently organized 4-H club led by Mrs. Vincent Dreis, are going to make candles for Christmas as a money making project. They will be all different kinds of shapes, sizes, and forms. Anyone wishing one of these pretty candles may contact the leader or any of the following members: Judi Dreis, Liz Strand, Linda Tom, Sharin Hickenbottom, Pamela Weeks, Cheri Hancock, Marilyn Rogness and Diana Scott. The girls are just getting started on their hand towels for the first article in their sewing project.

Reporter — Marlene Corrigan, LE 7-8545.

At the present time, Columbia's Record Club is by far the most popular. It operates on the basis that when you join, you receive your choice of three free long plays. You are then obligated to purchase four albums from the selections offered during the coming year.

For every two L.P.'s you buy after the required four, you receive a bonus record of your choice. You are also entitled to a bonus record every time you sign up a new member.

Columbia also has another money saving scheme, Buy-Of-The-Month. This operation is entirely through the record shops. Two selections—one pop and one classical—are released for sale each month, at the special price of only $2.98. The following month the albums revert to the standard $3.98 price tag.

Selections available in the past include "Suddenly It's The Hiss," "Wonderful, Wonderful," "Ring Around Rosie," and "For Dancers Also."

This plan has been very successful but is destined to be cancelled in January.

RCA's Save-On-Records club, which closed its membership this summer, did not require any set number of purchases for the year.

It enabled the subscriber to purchase up to three albums every month for only $2.98 each. In addition the member was given three free albums.

Selections released on this plan include "An Evening With Belafonte," "Swinging On The Golden Gate" and "We Get Letters."

Various other labels have held special two-for-one sales and the like. Independent clubs operating on a smaller basis have also been established.

Recent rumor has it that Capitol is readying a new club for a January premier. No details have been announced as of yet, but if and when such a club does materialize, it's a sure bet that it will soon be one of the most popular.

Half-Notes: Just one word about "Raunchy" . . . ugg! . . . Patti Page has done it again "I'll Remember Today." Lately this gal just can't miss . . . Decca is getting set for its annual Christmas success. It's due mainly to Bing Crosby's long plays, although the Four Aces don't do too badly. Love that "The Things We Did Last Summer" by the Four Lads. It's too nice to go anywhere, but the flip side, "Put A Light In The Window," could go.
