Housing Shortage?

This problem seems to affect more than just people now-a-days.

In Seattle, the papers stated some time ago, a swarm of bees settled in a tree for want of a better place. After they had finished some combs, they were transferred to a hive. Their problem is solved. At Parkland, Mrs. Stella Jacobs tells of a swarm settling in one of her trees, but they left after three days. Probably they found a more suitable place.

Then last June a swarm settled in J. Xavier's holly tree and they have been industriously at work ever since. Quite a bunch of combs have been finished, but the final solution of their problem is yet in the future.

A "bee-man" will be welcome to solve their problem before real frost sets in to make the workers and their queen more uncomfortable.

Still Flying

After a lapse of a week your flying P. P. publisher is ready to report again. That lapse was mostly due to the fact that I have been doing nothing but trying to learn how to get that Taylorcraft down on the ground in a gently squatting manner. And, brother, for me that has been quite a chore, although I might say that the maneuver is becoming a bit easier. Norm Honde, instructor, hints he will be leaving my side one of these days—so get ready to hide the women and children in your hurricane cellars. I might be slashing the air like a crippled chicken hawk.

Spins

One of the requirements for a private pilot's license is to know how to recover from a spin, and that includes oneself as well as the plane. I was introduced to this maneuver in my last lesson. It is quite an experience the first time out. Honde gave me a demonstration first by nosing the Taylorcraft down sharply in a tight spiral, then by a quick spin. This is done by closing the throttle and pulling the plane's nose up until it quits flying. A stall results and by holding the rudder hard over right or left, whom! down she goes like a whirling dervish. The broad green lands of the Clover Creek area spin crazily as I try to keep my gaze on a landmark. To recover all you have to do is neutralize the rudders and stick. That little old plane snaps right into straight flight and swishes back towards the sky. And what a sensation one gets! My head felt like a ton weight had landed on it. That's from the blood going down as the plane hurries upward.

Not So Bad

Well, after it was all over, I'd say spins are not so bad. The anticipation of that first one is more terrifying than the actual spin. I'll have to admit that I was bracing my feet to keep my knobby knees from cracking each other and my stomach was doing nip-ups. However, that man Honde is a genius at keeping a student calm and explaining away his fears. It's just another maneuver—and that's that.

Beautiful Day

Sunday was a perfect day for flying. Visibility was unlimited with mountain peaks showing all around the horizon, and the fall colors on the ground were exquisite. Certainly if more people would get into the air on such days aviation would be a mighty popular mode of travel. One couple enjoying the beautiful day in the air was Mr. and Mrs. Ray Renwick of Parkland. He handles Ecoupe sales for Mueller-Harkins and had one of those neat planes out for an airing. They flew into Russell's field at Spanaway for a visit before returning to their home field on Sixth Avenue way.

G.I. Training

Wayne Russell, operator of the Russell Flying Service at Forest Grove airport, is a mighty busy man these days. He started the G.I. training program last weekend and now has four instructors working with the students. Planes are taking off and landing every few minutes. Getting this program set up under government supervision requires a host of details, all of which has been keeping Wayne hopping.

SPANAWAY PRE-SCHOOL MEETING ON WEDNESDAY

Miss Clara Chilson, member of the Pacific Lutheran College faculty, will be featured on the program for the Spanaway Pre-school which is meeting on Wednesday night, November 6, at 8 o'clock in the home of Mrs. Lawrence Phie on the Fredrickson Road. Mrs. Guy Weaver will be co-hostess and Mrs. Chas. Newman, president of the club, will preside. Miss Chilson, who heads the college dramatics department, will give a book review.

Christmas cards ordered by the organization have not arrived to date and no word has been received from the manufacturers.

PORTLAND AVE. IMPROVEMENT

ROADWAY TO BE WIDENED, SURFACED IN EARLY SPRING

A road improvement project for Portland Avenue from 72nd street to Airport Road was announced this week by the Pierce county engineer's office. Money for this work is coming from the $993,000 allotted to Pierce county by the Washington State Development Board. Portland Avenue was selected for major improvement because it is rapidly becoming a main thoroughfare from downtown Tacoma to the South End.

Contract for the job will be let in the early spring of 1947 and plans call for widening the road two feet on each side and surfacing it with asphaltic concrete. Survey by the county engineer's office has already been completed and the specifications are being drawn up for approval by the state highway department and planning board.

Road Bettered

In the meantime county road crews have been doing considerable work on Portland Avenue from 72nd to Knapp Road, according to Road Supervisor Al Mullen. Shoulders were cleared of brush and widened and some graveling done. Drainage ditches have also been cleared. Waller Road has received similar attention from the road crews.

In a sleeper play, Hans Dahl scored again for Parkland with Roger Lincoln making the conversion.

The Midget contest was a closely fought game with Bobby Schibig of Parkland making the touchdown after receiving a 20-yard forward pass from Ronnie Storaa. The conversion was missed leaving the score Parkland 6, Kapowsin 0. The Midget team is coached by Paul Larson.

Midland Cubs Have Costume Party

A Halloween masquerade party was enjoyed last Thursday by Cub Scout Pack 84 in the Midland Improvement Club Hall. Leaders of the pack were hosts. A grand march, Halloween games, candy, cider and doughnuts were highlights for the boys. Noel Bain had charge of the food, Don Kemp led the games and Clarence Johann handled the clean-up. Costume judges were Dave McPherson, Edward Chalberg, and Clay Roley. Delmar Brittain, costumed as a constable, won first prize; Bud Galloway took second prize and Billy Hillier won third prize.

A new den is being formed for Pack 84 with Mrs. Wayne Bullock as Den Mother. Boys of Cub age who are interested in joining the group should get in touch with Mrs. Bullock at 80th Street near Wilkenson Road.

PIONEER SOUTH END MAN DIES

Andrew Anderson, Resident Of Ohop Valley for 58 Years, Leaves Host of Friends

Andrew Anderson, 66, widely known and highly respected resident of Ohop Valley, died at his home Tuesday, October 22, at about 4:30 in the afternoon, suddenly of a heart attack.

Mr. Anderson resided on the homestead established by his father 58 years ago upon his arrival from Norway. Andrew was active in community affairs, serving as president of the Ohop Valley Mutual Light & Power Company for 25 years, as a member of the Selective Service Board during the war and in other capacities. He was a member and trustee of the local Methodist church, of the Odd Fellows and the Grange.

Surviving are his wife, Alice, who teaches in Eatonville grade school; a daughter, Louise, and his father, all of the home, and two sisters, Mrs. John Malm of Eatonville, and Mrs. James Carlson of Bryn Mawr.

Funeral services for Andrew Anderson were held last Saturday at 2 p.m. in the Eatonville Methodist church, with the Rev. Ira J. McFarland officiating. The Rev. W. A. Moore of Tacoma, an old friend of the deceased, assisted. Burial was in the family plot in Bethany Lutheran cemetery under direction of Lakewood Mortuary, Paul Mellinger & Son.

Pallbearers were Fred Kroff, Llewellyn Davies, Fred Boyles, Matheus Kjelstad, Peter Peterson and Ernest Jacobson.

That Mr. Anderson leaves a host of friends was attested to by the huge attendance at the funeral services. Between five and six hundred persons filled the church auditorium and overflowed into the basement. The procession to the cemetery was approximately two miles long.

Skilled Assistance Needed at Fire Hall

Parkland's Volunteer Fire Dept. is greatly in need of more skilled tradesmen to help complete the new fire hall, Clarence Marsh, fire commissioner, said this week. Carpenters, painters and plumbers are needed most in order that the inside finishing can be completed. The station is nearing completion and if enough volunteer labor can be obtained the job can be finished within a couple of weeks. A new wood and coal heating system has been installed.

Any person interested in giving the firemen some assistance are asked to contact Marsh or Fritz Beitz.

SANATORIUM NEED SHOWN

T. B. LEAGUE URGES VOTERS TO APPROVE NEW BUILDING LEVY

The crying need for a new county tuberculosis sanatorium will be met on November 5, if a sufficient number of citizens vote for it at the general election.

Old fashioned, out-of-date, a fire and health hazard, and not half big enough, the present Mountain View Sanatorium has had to handle all the cases in the county for the past thirty-two years.

It has had to do, for there has been no other, even though the number of tuberculosis patients in the county are now double the capacity of the present sanatorium. With 100 patients being given the best care possible, there are at least 100 more who need sanatorium treatment but cannot get it.

Almost as much money would have to be spent in remodeling the present hospital as it would take to build a new one with double the capacity. If money were to be spent in remodeling, the county would still be thirty years behind the times with regard to this essential care.

Spanaway Cubs Halloween Party

Den 1 and Den 2 of Spanaway Cub Pack combined to enjoy a Halloween party last Saturday night in the meeting house of Den 1. This was a costume affair and the games and refreshments were greatly enjoyed.

Present were: Jimmy Scaree, Donald Omot, David Limbeck, Ernest Corp, Clifford Ansteth, Ronald Bradshaw, Kenneth Behling, Richard Hutchinson and John Bradshaw. Mrs. Hayden Stewart was in charge of the games and Mrs. Harvey Bradshaw had charge of the refreshments.

OLSON POINTS FOR CENTRAL

P. L. C. GRID COACH EXPECTING TROUBLE IN GAME HERE SATURDAY

Coach Cliff Olson, Pacific Lutheran's champion warrior, had a new worry this week: Central Washington, PLC opponent in Saturday's Winco crucial in the Tacoma Stadium, looked bad last week.

"They're better than that," the Lute mentor moaned, cautioning his charges against over-optimism as they returned to practice at Parkland following a week's rest. "They were under wraps."

Sources from Ellensburg admitted that Wildcat Coach Johnny Lundahl had his team under wraps, but he nearly wrapped 'em up too tight, as the Centrals barely scraped through with 7-6 win over St. Martin's. The victory put the Wildcats more solidly in first place with three wins against no losses. PLC is tied for runner-up honors with Eastern Washington at two wins and a tie.

Win Important

A win Saturday night can send the Parklanders to the head of the Western Intercollegiate Conference.

A muddy field kept the Wildcats pretty well on the ground last weekend and Cliff is sending his Lutes through rigid practice sessions against the Wildcat running attack. At the same time, he bore down on the Gladiator aerial offensive with plays designed to find the same gaps that St. Martin's pass-pitching Frankie Sinclair uncovered.

All the Lutheran cripples are healed except Harold (broken hand) Fallstrom, whose starting tackle assignment is slated to go to big Jack Proud, the scrappy freshman from Stadium. Logan Blades has been ruled out of football this season by the physician and Bob Andrews will take over at left end.

Game time here Saturday is 8 p.m., come drought or deluge, and Cliff is hoping, for once, for the former.

Probable starting Lutes:

Captain Paul Polillo and Andrew, ends; Eldon K y l l o and Proud, tackles; Pete Peterson and Elmer Peterson, guards; Don D'Andrea, center; Frank Spear and Duane Rose, halfbacks; Jack Bratlie, quarter, and Jack Guyot, fullback.

Spook Party for Junior Hi Girls

Members of Parkland Junior High Girls Club gathered last Friday for a Halloween party in the school gymnasium, gaily decorated with cornstalks, hay and pumpkins and centered by a big scarecrow. In the entrance was a crepe paper cobweb on which was hung a large black widow spider made of cloth and crepe paper.

After an initiation of new girls, complete with witches, ghosts and scares, games were played. Refreshments were served in the lunch room which had been decorated with orange and black crepe paper. The centerpiece at the head table was a clever doughnut man which Janet Klippen, vice president, had made.

Committees in charge of arrangements for the party were as follows: decorations, Janet Klippen, chairman, assisted by Marlyn Reed, Jaquie Gunns, Shirley Skinner, Ann Stovner, Marlyn Rosso, Jackie Parkinson, Nancy Hall and Helen Lien; food, Gladys Cavin, chairman, assisted by Rosemarie Bohn, Lorraine Wellan, Marilyn Jensen, Marlene Ziegler and Eddie Jung; games, Martha Presba, chairman, assisted by Earlene Summers, Joann Huchtsoen and Marie St. Clair; cleanup, June Wellan, chairman, assisted by Wilma Chapman and Marian Myers.

Police Chief Talks At P.T.A. Meeting

Puyallup's police chief, Arial Archer was the featured speaker at the meeting of the Harvard-Midland P. T. A. meeting last Wednesday, October 23, at Harvard school. His topic was "Bicycle Safety."

Considerable discussion prevailed regarding forming of a Campfire Girls group. Mrs. Palmater, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. E. Morud, Mrs. E. C. Robinson, Mrs. Ayers, Mrs. Wayne Bullock and Mrs. Jensen were chosen to get detailed information on the matter.

Mrs. Wayne Bullock was unanimously elected to fill the office of second vice president, vacated by the resignation of Mrs. Marion Madsen.

"Recreation and Health" will be the topic of a talk by Miss Nora Hall of Puyallup at the next meeting of the P.T.A. on November 20 in Midland school auditorium. She was a speaker at the P.T.A. state convention in Wenatchee last spring. Also on the program is a tumbling demonstration by girls in Mrs. Vivian Sterling's Midland school of physical education classes.

FIREMEN HAVE ACTIVE NIGHT

One False Alarm and One $2,000 Fire Run Down By Parkland Fire Dept.

Parkland firemen had a busy night last Wednesday and also one that could have been well nigh disastrous because of a false alarm. At 9:30 p.m. the fire department received a report that two houses were burning in the Brookdale area on West Fogg street. All firemen were called and both trucks rushed to the location. A diligent search proved that some malicious person had turned in a false call.

That same night, near 1:30 a.m., another call came that a home was afire at 771 South Hendricks street in Parkland. This time the firemen were skeptical fearing another false alarm. However they made the run quickly and discovered that it was the real thing. The home of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Feley was ablaze from a fire that started in a garage adjoining the house. Quick work by the fire fighters brought the fire under control in a short time. Damage was estimated at $2,000.

Fire Chief Herbert Lennes pointed out that had the false alarm come in later than it did the fire apparatus and men would have been on a wild goose chase when the real fire was reported, thus probably causing total loss to the home in Parkland. Both deputy sheriffs and state patrolmen are searching for the originator of the false alarm.

BIG PARADE IN SPANAWAY

FIRE DEPT. STAGING RALLY FOR TURKEY DINNER TUESDAY

There's going to be a great time in Spanaway Saturday afternoon! At 3:00 o'clock the Spanaway-Elk Plain fire department is staging a parade and they are asking all local residents to join in. Banners and noise makers will be featured all of which is by way of a preliminary to the big turkey dinner the Women's Auxiliary is putting on next Tuesday night at Spanaway school.

The parade will form at the fire station on Third and Pacific Streets and will go through Spanaway and up the Mountain Highway to Elk Plain. All organizations, business houses and citizens are urged to participate with their cars and trucks and banners.

The main purpose of this pep rally is to promote interest in the fire department and its work and to get a big turnout for the fundraising turkey dinner on election night.

University of British Columbia Coming to Tacoma Saturday For Game With Loggers

Football with an international flavor will be offered by the College of Puget Sound when the mighty Loggers tangle with the University of British Columbia in the Tacoma Stadium on Saturday afternoon, 2 p.m.

Puget Sound has won one game, tied one and lost two so far this fall and needs a win over the Thunderbirds to stay in the race for second place in the Northwest Conference standings. The game with Willamette last Saturday at Salem, Oregon, which ended with the C.P.S. team on the short end of a 7 to 0 score, handed the Bearcats the 1946 conference title.

A difference in condition occurred at the Logger camp this week when Coach Frank Patrick found all of his players in good shape. This is the first time that Patrick hasn't had to juggle his men, trying to build a strong outfit, while most of his regulars spent the week in the training room having kinks and hurts cured.

"Bulldozer" Warren Wood and his crew of timber cruisers will offer the fans a thrilling contest and again will give Cliff Olson and his Lute scouts a chance to see what they have to offer.

PARKLAND P.T.A. ROOM MOTHERS GATHER

The following mothers attended: Mrs. Clifford Duggan, Mrs. H. F. Skinner, Mrs. O. E. French, Mrs. L. B. Richardson, Mrs. Otto Siburg and the vice president, Mrs. Henry Bernsten.

WELL NO. TWO CONTRACT LET

S. E. TACOMA COMPANY WILL INSTALL ITS OWN WATER FACILITIES

The South East Tacoma Mutual Water Company with offices at Midland, was organized in 1926 to distribute water to its members. Throughout the life of the company it has purchased water on master meters from the city of Tacoma. Since the city increased its rates about 200%, the company has been considering the construction of its own facilities for producing and storing water. The members, who now exceed 800, recently authorized its board of trustees and its construction committee to proceed with that project.

An engineer was retained, plans and specifications prepared and calls for bids published.

Three Bids

Three bids were submitted for the furnishing, drilling, perforating and testing of a 12-inch, deep-well casing for the company's well No. 2 at the intersection of 90th street and Golden Given Road. P. E. Sylte, of Tacoma, was awarded the well contract upon his low bid of $12.00 per foot of casing installed and $8.00 per hour for perforating and testing. Other bids were: N. C. Jannsen, of Seattle, $15 per foot and $10 per hour; also R. & W. Drilling Co., of Parkland, $15.30 per foot and $15 per hour.

R. M. Wade and Co., of Seattle and Portland, was awarded the contract for furnishing and installing two deep-well turbine pumps and motors for $10,131.44. Other pump bids were: Cascade Machinery Co., Seattle, $10,128, and Pacific Pumping Co., Seattle, an alternate bid of $8,450.

Steel Standpipe

Four bids were received for a 295,000 gallon steel standpipe, with and without roof, as follows: Don L. Cooney, Inc., Tacoma, $32,556 and $31,556; Pittsburgh-Des Moines Steel Co., Seattle, $32,675 and $32,075; Western Pipe & Steel of California, of San Francisco, $42,023 and $36,917; Chicago Bridge & Iron Co., San Francisco, $36,210 and $35,275. No award made.

Two bids were received for a 200,000 gallon steel tank on 100-foot tower: Pittsburgh-Des Moines Steel Company, $30,985, and Chicago Bridge and Iron Co., $34,510. No award made.

Consideration is now being given to other forms of water storage than the ones called for in the specifications.

One Well Completed

The company's Well No. 1 at 98th and Jackson, has been drilled and tested and has sufficient capacity for present needs. Well No. 2 was decided upon for emergency purposes as well as for future expansion.

The officers of the South East Tacoma Mutual Company are: Carl Taylor, president; A. P. Easton, treasurer, and W. C. Roley, secretary, who with Gus W. Clemens and Dave M. Malyon, comprise the board of trustees.

The members of the construction committee elected to work with the board on all matters pertaining to the new project are: B. L. Vaughan, S. M. Gaylord, Frank Baskett, Clarence Johann and Ralph Keys.

MOTHERS' CIRCLE

Wednesday afternoon, November 6, at 2 o'clock the Mothers' Circle of Harvard Sunday School will meet in the home of Mrs. George Vance, 84th and Taylor streets. Devotions will be led by Gladys Larson. Everyone welcome.

Hugh Mitchell Is Recognized As Capable Statesman

Hugh Mitchell is almost something new in politics. He is a man who works at his job 10, 12, 14 hours a day—every day.

Political observers, whether Republicans or Democrats, agree on his ability and capacity for work. Drew Pearson, for example, writes of him in his column as "capable and hard-working" and Ross Cunningham in the Seattle Times says: "Mitchell is a hard worker, knows his way around the Capital from long experience and has demonstrated his ability to get things done."

Mitchell's political philosophy is liberal and progressive. He believes that this great, rich country has the resources to assure decent wages and high standards of living to all the people and he is a strong advocate of full and complete development of these resources. He knows that we are living in a scientific age and that with proper vision and management poverty and insecurity are unnecessary.

As a senator's assistant, Mitchell had 14 years experience in Washington, D. C., before he took over the job of senator. He was thoroughly familiar with national affairs and went to work at once for the welfare of the people of his state.

Today Senator Mitchell is nationally recognized as one of the nation's most able and effective statesmen. His office is efficiently operated. He is approachable and the hundreds who have dealt with him directly are amazed at how promptly he gets action.

When monopoly said, "Don't operate war aluminum plants in peace time," Mitchell undertook the battle against monopoly and for the Pacific Northwest. Our war-built aluminum plants are operating today because Mitchell defeated the monopoly which wanted to confine the light metal production of the future to its eastern plants.

That's the way Mitchell works. He knows that we have great resources in this state. He fights to see that these resources are developed for the people of this state. His working record shows that he understands that to build prosperity it is necessary to create new farm wealth and to support it with industry, jobs and payrolls. He is not satisfied to let Washington be a branch office state of eastern industrialists.

To obtain cooperation from the Department of the Interior, Mitchell brought out Secretary Krug and kept him in this state longer than any cabinet member has ever spent in an on-the-ground study of our resources.

Right now the Interior Department has before it two pieces of Mitchell legislation. One is a bill for a Columbia Valley Authority—a measure to develop our resources for better agriculture, better farm markets, better industry, more jobs and more private enterprise, along the lines of the highly successful TVA.

The second measure is Mitchell's bill to create a Pacific Northwest Electro-Chemical Laboratory. "Our future is in technology," Mitchell says. "We need science. Washington can no longer depend on the number of trees logged but on full utilization of every tree. Technicians must bring industry up to date so we can manufacture hundreds of materials out of what is now waste."

As author, promoter and fighter for the Columbia Valley Authority and other bills for the full development of this state, Mitchell has done more than any other person to make the nation familiar with the industrial and agricultural possibilities in the Pacific Northwest.—The Sun.

HOME FOR CHRISTMAS

"You'll be home for Christmas this year," Dr. Hollis Smith, of the Mountain View Sanatorium, informed the young ex-marine. It was indeed good news, for he had contracted tuberculosis while in the service and for that reason had been discharged to a civilian hospital. At the time of his admittance he was in a critical condition, but his determination and cooperation made his recovery exceptionally rapid. Dr. C. R. Reddick, director of the Pierce County Public Health Department, and Dr. Smith were discussing with him his most recent and favorable x-rays; and soon the conversation changed to the subject of the 5-mill levy for a new tuberculosis sanatorium in Pierce County. They all agreed that if the Pierce County voters were to see the present and old-fashioned and inadequate hospital they would give all their support to the measure.—(Photo by Myron B. Kreidler)

Letters to the Editor

Prairie Pointer
Dear Sir:

Inclosed you will find check of $2.00 for my renewal of Prairie Pointer.

I wish to make a few comments on the flying lessons you write about in the Pointer. I am quite well acquainted with Russell's Flying Field for that was my old home. It was to make room for the airplanes that we had to move down here to Yelm. Russell is leasing the ground from Joe Entus and Joe Entus is buying it from me.

I am a dairy farmer and the cows and the airplanes didn't get along any too good together so we had to separate.

I am quite well acquainted in Parkland and surrounding country. I have lived in Pierce county for over 42 years and now I have moved down here to Yelm in Thurston county and bought another dairy farm, but I enjoy reading the Pointer each week and that is why I am renewing it.

Yours truly,
MELVIN T. AABERG,
Rt. 1, Box 140, Yelm, Wn.

Editor, The Pointer

Dear Sir:

Please send me the Prairie Pointer for one year and let me know the subscription price and I'll send you the money. Am living over here now, and want the news from my old home.

Wishing you and the good old Pointer prosperity, I beg to remain,

Yours truly,
W. H. PENNYPACKER,
Wilson Creek, Wash., Bx 4

The Prairie Pointer:

The Cub Scout committee of Pack 34, Spanaway, wishes to thank the Prairie Pointer for the space you have given our pack for publicity. We feel that you have been a big help to our pack in the past year, and we appreciate it very much.

Sincerely,
Mrs. H. R. BRADSHAW.

Editor, Prairie Pointer:

An open letter to all my friends in the Clover Creek, Spanaway, Parkland, Elk Plain, Brookdale and Tacoma area. Greetings:

Am feeling fine and working every day.

Am also bucking the OPA and working against 166, the power trust bill.

To those who think 166 is for the good of the people, I would like to say that when and if, 166 passes, we will see higher power rates than we have ever seen, as the power trust will want to make back the over two million dollars they spent propagandizing the measure and a million or so more. If 166 passes, it will render the PUD's helpless and unable to compete with the eastern power lords.

Even Tacoma Power and Light will be affected.

Let us all step to the polls and cast our vote against 166, regardless of our race, color, creed, or political affiliations.

Sincerely, your former neighbor,
W. H. Pennypacker,
Wilson Creek, Wash.,

TELEPHONES ON POWER LINES

Remote District Will Be Served Via PUD Electric Light Circuits

Six families in the Teanaway Valley, north and east of Cle Elum, will be the first on the Pacific coast and among the first in the United States to receive regular telephone service over electric power lines. The Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company, with the cooperation of PUD District No. 1 of Kittitas County, a R.E.A. line, expects to install the service by early winter.

This new method, known as "power line carrier," is being developed for serving rural areas which are beyond the reach of existing telephone lines. The method involves the use of high frequency currents which hitchhike a ride along an electric power line and hop off at the appointed spot and onto a pair of telephone wires running into the customer's house. Carrier couplers, installed on a power line pole, permit the telephone current to get off at the right place but do not permit the power current to pass. The telephone instrument itself, while it is of special design, looks like an ordinary telephone set.

The telephone company has announced that the equipment for the Teanaway Valley installation has been shipped from eastern factories of the Western Electric company. A pre-production model is being used as Western Electric has only recently begun regular commercial production.

The six families in the Teanaway Valley are ranchers who have had no telephone service at all for some time. It would have required building seven miles of new telephone line in order to reach them with regular suburban service. Under the power line carrier plan, circuits will be provided by the company on its main long distance line to a point eight miles east of Cle Elum. From there conversations will go over the power line which runs up the Teanaway.

Company officials emphasized that while others of the more remote rural districts in Washington are being studied to ascertain the adaptability of this kind of service in the future, it does not lend itself to all kinds of rural service situations.

The six Teanaway ranchers who will be on the new line are Clyde Danko, Anton Corollo, Ed Koch, Jerome E. Controtto, Joe Aimonetto and the Ballard brothers.

Visits in Pullman—Mrs. Walter Coblenz visited her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Johnson, in Pullman last weekend. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson are students at the State College there.

Dormitory Auxiliary No. 2—PLC Dormitory Auxiliary No. 2 will meet Thursday, November 7, at Trinity Lutheran Church. Mrs. E. B. Steen will show her collection of bells and give an interesting talk about them. Music will be furnished by the Girls Trio from the college (Agnes Rolerder, Anita Norman and Miriam Hopp), and by Betty Lou Rieck, violinist. Plans will be made for the annual Christmas tea.

Mrs. Palmer Entertains—Mrs. Stewart Palmer entertained at a birthday dinner for her daughter, Beverly Jean Swanson, on October 24. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hedlund, LaMonte and Gerald Hedlund. Other visitors during the day were Beverly's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John P. Swanson of Parkland.

Buys Spanaway Home—John C. Gibson recently bought the Nygaard home on Fourth street at Spanaway. The purchase was arranged through the Parkland Realty Company.

Violet Prairie Garden Club—Violet Prairie Garden Club will celebrate its 14th birthday at the home of Mrs. Fred Danielson on Friday, November 8, at 1:30 p.m., with Mrs. Floyd Skinner as assisting hostess. The program will be presented by Mrs. T. H. Algeo.

Auction Succeeds—The Chinese Auction held by the Y.L.A. at the home of Mrs. Hazel Heyneman was a great success. The members present were Mesdames Frank Hansler, William Gregory, Robert Berntsen, Clara Reid, John Kellson, Ray Renwick, A. Turner, Orville French, Harry Beitz, Morris Ford, Fred Danielson, William Traill, Hazel Heyneman, Robert McCune, Floyd Skinner, Miss Frances Scaree, and Miss Gladys Carlson. And their guests for the day were Mesdames Henry Huseby, Bernice Acton, Carl Elleson, James Hull, Mike Hansler, George Wise, Mike Hayt, Stanley Rosso, Mabel Galbraith, L. J. Packard and Miss Laura Hauge.

Afternoon Guests—Mrs. Paul Spencer had as her guests last Thursday afternoon for an informal get-together Mesdames Neil Gaiser, Jenny Benson, Robert Clark, J. U. Xavier, Myron Stevens, Myron Hoffman, Virgil Bergh, Gilbert Peterson, Albert Tisch, O. F. Dahl and Miss Rena Jermstad.

Visiting in Wisconsin—Mrs. Anna Carlson left a week ago Tuesday for River Falls, Wisconsin and St. Paul, Minn., to visit her daughter, Mrs. Harry Johnson. She plans to stay four to six weeks.

Smith Boy—Mr. and Mrs. Lee W. Smith are the proud parents of a 6 1/4 pound baby boy born on October 26 at the Tacoma General Hospital in Tacoma. The baby has been named Warren Lee, and his father informs us this is the fourth generation of Warrens in the Smith family.

Recovering—Mrs. John Peterson has been seriously ill the past two weeks, but is on the road to recovery now.

Move Into New Home—Mr. and Mrs. Edward Catt have moved into their new home on Anderson road. They have two sons, one going to the University of Washington and the other is teaching at Midland.

Third Son—Mr. and Mrs. Max Parker, living on Collins Road, are receiving congratulations on the birth of their third son, Steven Earle, born on October 17. Their other two sons are Melvin and Keith.

Anderson of Allison Road are the proud parents of a son, Kenneth Paul, born on October 25. He is being welcomed, also, by a sister, Margaret.

Confined to Home—"Oz" Ellingson has been on the sick list for the past two weeks. He was in the hospital for four days but is home now and on the mend. He expects to return to work in another week, but the thing that's been hard for "Oz" to take is the fact that he had to cancel his hunting trip to California because of this illness.

Fractures Bone—Donald Rediske, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Beckman of Brookdale, fell and broke his collar bone while playing at school. He's had his arm taped to his side, but now he is wearing it in a sling and feeling very proud of it, too.

Here From Chicago—Donald MacGregor of Chicago was in Parkland Sunday to visit with his sister, Mrs. A. C. Binkley. They enjoyed a family dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Binkley and Mr. MacGregor made a number of recordings by the family which he took back to Chicago for his father to hear. He left via plane Monday.

Emergency Operation—Beverly Milligan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton R. Milligan, 1067 Walker street, underwent an emergency appendectomy in Tacoma General Hospital Tuesday night. She is recovering nicely.

Elk Plain School Adds Classroom

Due to the growth of the student body at Elk Plain school, the school board decided to convert the lunch room, which has become inadequate, into a school room. Mrs. Norma Brown has been hired to teach the second grade and a part of the third.

The Elk Plain Grange has rented its kitchen and dining room to the school where the usual lunches will be served. Mrs. Ida Howe has taken over the preparing of the hot lunches.

School board members hope that in the near future, funds will be secured to enlarge the main school building enough to take care of the increased attendance.

Today...busier than ever!

If you sometimes notice a delay before you hear the familiar "Number, please," or "Operator," it's because our switchboards, even at wartime peak, were never as busy as they are right now! Today we're serving more customers who are making more calls than ever before. Volume at times is so great that the operator cannot answer your call as quickly as she would like.

New equipment to take care of all waiting applicants and furnish better service than ever to all telephone users is being made and installed. But it's a big job... and will take time.

Our operators, meantime, are doing everything they possibly can to furnish you the prompt and courteous service you have been accustomed to. Thank you.

80 Turn Out for Cub Scout Affair

The potluck dinner of Cub Pack 33, held Monday evening at the Parkland school, proved to be a big success. About 80 parents and boys turned out for the dinner. The tables had been beautifully decorated by Mrs. Henry Berntsen and the Cubs brought Jack-o-lanterns which they had made to add to the decorations. The den mothers acted as the kitchen committee and served coffee and pumpkin pie.

After the dinner, Dr. O. M. Jordahl, committee chairman, led the group in the singing. Mrs. L. E. Abbott, cubmaster, introduced the den mothers: Mrs. Don Ahrens of Den 1, Mrs. Gene Russell of Den 2, Mrs. V. L. Lucas of Den 3, and Mrs. Marvin Parker, new den mother of Den 4. Walter Young was introduced as new assistant cubmaster.

Den 4 had the most boys present and Den 2 had the most parents. Applications for membership were received from five boys and letters of transfer for three others.

Under capable leadership the Cub Scout program of Pack 33 is off to a good start. Parents are urged to cooperate with the boys in their projects and to attend the monthly pack meetings. Only with the active cooperation of all the parents can the cub program be fully successful, cub officials declare.

Turkey for All Election Night

Final plans for their second annual turkey dinner next Tuesday were laid down by members of Spanaway-Elk Plain Firemen's Auxiliary at a meeting Monday night in Spanaway school. This popular event has been in the making for several weeks and an advance sale of tickets indicates the ladies are in for a busy two and a half hours next Tuesday evening from 5:30 to 8 o'clock when they will be dishing up the turkey and fixin's. However, the cooks have announced that all comers will find plenty of food on hand "Go to the polls and vote, then come and eat," is the word being passed along.

As an added attraction the auxiliary will have a booth where miscellaneous items can be purchased. Anyone wishing to donate "white elephants," a jar of jam, fruit or vegetables can leave them at Her-man's Shurfine, Modahl's or Ted's Place in Spanaway. All items donated will be greatly appreciated, the women say.

A farewell party was given on Thursday, Oct. 24, at home of Miss Mable Packard of 2nd Street in honor of Roy (Louie) Hardesty of Brookdale who has enlisted in the Army Air Corps.

Louie came to the United States from Honolulu last March and made his home with his brother, R. Hardesty at Brookdale.

He attended Lincoln High School for the rest of the year but when school opened this fall, he enrolled in Roy High School where he soon acquired many more friends.

Louie is of Italian-Portuguese nationality and was born in Honolulu. He speaks eight different languages fluently. A few of them being: Japanese, Spanish, Chinese, Portuguese and Hawaiian.

His education was further advanced than most sophomores so this enabled Louie to easily make up for the credits he lost in traveling to America. An example of his fine personality and leadership is that he was unanimously elected president of the Spanaway Teen Age Club and took high honors in the Spanaway Boy Scout Troop.

Louie's many friends hate to see him leave, but wish him the best for the future.

Eik Plain Notes
By Alice Dorfner

ROADS
By E. L. Bower
In conclusion, please permit some constructive criticism which is entirely the opinion of your "Uncle Dudley."

First, there should have been a state law compelling the buyers of tracts of timber—40 acres or more—to construct roads on the quarter lines of each section, where timber is removed. Roads accessible for fire fighting equipment and over which the new settlers care to travel—to and from—to his base of supplies.

This was as essential as it is for the farmer or gardener to prepare his ground when removing a crop for a crop to follow. Once a thing is put off progress may be retarded for years.

Some twelve years ago the property owners got busy and obtained waivers for a right-of-way on the south line of section 14-18-3 a few miles south of Parkland. The county commissioners took the waivers and after spending a considerable amount of money on a survey of a road lost interest, forgot to file the waivers with the state, and subsequently the whole thing became null and void. After five years the land lost its value by reason of a lost road and became a "white elephant" in the hands of the county for non-payment of taxes. Repeating over again the proverb, "For the lack of a nail, the shoe was lost, the horse and the battle."

Today look east as you travel the Mountain highway from the Graham Road to the turn onto the Kapowsin Road, five miles farther south, and all you see is the hideous face of that grisly monster, "Neglect."

Lastly, it's been good to meet all you strong-hearted who have battled the enemy of inconvenience, determined to win in spite of odds. Thanks for the courtesy of the Prairie Pointer in whose columns I was able to meet you—"The strong and the brave."—Concluded by E. L. Bower.

Surprise Visitors—An especially happy reunion was experienced at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Elston when Mr. and Mrs. Mc. Masters of Vancouver, B. C., dropped in. Mr. and Mrs. Elston, as children, had played with the sons and daughters of the MacMasters in Alberta, Canada, and had not seen one another for 24 years.

Guests From Montana—Mr. and Mrs. Joe Mickus have had as guests recently, Mrs. Mickus' brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Johnson and son, from Montana.

Convalescing—Friends of Mrs. Gordon Higgins are happy to hear that she is at home again and convalescing after a recent illness which caused her to be confined in a Tacoma hospital.
