

EDITOR, POINTER:

During the war the "big oil companies" invested approximately one hundred million dollars in oil installations in the Mediterranean area. Uncle Sam looked at the investment with favor, feeling that it would be quite an advantage to have a supply of vitally needed gasoline and oil so close to his operations in that part of the world.

At a recent Congressional inquiry two amazing facts were

1. These oil corporations (U. S corporations) sold gasoline to the British navy for three cents a gal-

2. At the same time and at the same place of delivery, they charged the U.S. navy six cents a gallon for their gasoline.

These greedy and to say the least, disloyal, corporations are not satisfied with that graft but are now asking through President Truman and the Congress that four hundred million dollars, of your tax money and mine, be used to protect this foreign investment of theirs, which, since the end of the war is of no advantage to the equipment, E. W. Beitz, commis-U. S. Then to add insult to injury, and to show their utter contempt for the millions of common people who are by all odds their best customers, since the price we common folk pay for their gasoline is about six hundred percent more than the British navy pays them, they immediately advance the price of gasoline and oil, and are school will be open from 8 a.m. to now contemplating another ad- 8 p.m. vance.

No good business man would spend four dollars to protect one dollar of his own, but when it comes to spending four dollars to protect one dollar which belongs to the other fellow, well I'll be -. Surely there is another answer to this; it's too silly to be the final conclusion.

Certainly the continuation and perpetuation of the present monarch of Greece, whose Hitler worship is well known, can't be the be a combination of all these reasons, none of which contain any real merit except for the direct Oil Interests, the British "loan beneficiary of the program, i. e. the under control," Beitz continued. sharks," or the King and Queen.

Maybe Henry Wallace is right "eh what."

So far we have only considered the monetary phase of the "deal," which can only lead to a huge loss of U.S. cash.

One of our Senators has said that he has decided to support the program since he finds that only a few men from the army and navy will be sent to Greece and Turkey but woe be to every Congressman who votes for this "smelly" deal if a single life is lost through it, or it leads to hostilities in any going to the hot lunch fund.

NAME OFFICERS PRIZES LISTED

$25 FLY ROD INCLUDED AMONG ITEMS DONATED BY PARKLAND FIRMS

Prizes for the first annual Spanaway lake fishing derby ,sponsored held and the carnival that is set by Parkland Business club May 17, were announced this week by Walter E. Young, president.

A $25 fly rod heads the list. Others include line, reel, creel, camp stove, sleeping bag, bicycle and many others promised by Parkland and neighboring merchants.

Headquarters for the event, which promises to be a yearly affair for the South End. will be the Spanaway lake pavilion.

Considerable discussion has been prevalent in the community during the past week since the contest was announced. Any fisherman with a license is eligible. No license is needed by youngsters for whom a special contest is planned.

Hours will be from sunrise to The club plans to popularize the South End as a sporting center. Many have enjoyed the advantages of the area for years, but sportsmen will welcome others to take part in the sport of dipping into Spanaway where every type of piscatorial variety awaits the gast of a line, Young claims.

More plans will be available next week.

C. M. McNEAL TALKS ON "JUVENILES" TO JAMES SALES GROUP

By Lucille McKenney An educational talk on the subect, "Social Responsibility for Juvenile Delinquency," was given by C. M. McNeal to the James Sales Grange on April 17. Mr. McNeal is a probation officer of the Pierce County Court for Juveniles. Because of this association, Mr. Mc-Neal was able to present facts of this vital issue. conomic conditi justment in society have their influence on the juveniles as well as broken homes, Hollywood idols, alcohol, and other causes. Instinctive and learned behaviors are the two types of manners that youths follow. According to Mr. McNeal, many of the learned behaviors are not of the most favorable nature and may lead to juvenile delinquency. In some homes the actions of the parents serve as a bad example because their activities are not of the most constructive type. Another example that is followed is that which the screen idols provide. Some of the idols' examples do not teach the highest type of morals.

After explaining the causes and effects of the learned behaviors, order to help correct the situations existing we should take our own responsibility and see that constructive action be taken to overcome some of the obstacles. PURCHASE OF BUS TO MEET LAWS OF STATE

Spanaway voters will go to the polls Saturday to decide a school bus issue that has been a keen topic of conversation during past months.

At least 90 ballots in favor of the proposal must be cast for the measure to carry. Proponents for the purchase of a new bus point out that the present vehicle was built to carry 52 students but is burdened at present with more than 100.

They claim the state is beginning a drive to enforce conformity with laws that restrict bus loads to the number of passengers for which vehicles were built. If the measures fails, students within a two mile radius will have to walk, it is said.

Polls are open from 1 to 8 p.m. The bus for picking up voters will be in operation.

PARKLANDERS IN 3-ACT PLAY

"January Thaw" Due At Lincoln School May Second, Third

"January Thaw," a riotous 3-act comedy, is to be presented at the Lincoln High School auditorium on May 2 and 3 at 8 p.m., by the senior class.

The play was adapted by William Roos from the novel of the same name by Bellamy Partridge. The plot evolves around two families who claim ownership to the same home. The play will be of special interest to Parklanders because two local boys, Dale Keller and Malcolm Soine, are taking part in it.

A large attendance is being sought because all proceeds go for the newly established Lincoln high scholarship fund.

Tickets in advance and at a reduced rate are on sale at Soine's Antique Shoppe, across from PLC.

A Great Stride Forward

This week invitations went out to several hundred people cordially seeking their attendance at the cornerstone laying ceremonies May first for Pacific Lutheran College's new quarter of a million dollar gymnasium.

This event marks a great stride forward for the college and it is also an event of great significance for the entire South End. The memorial gymnasium will be the finest athletic plant in the entire northwest and its seating capacity greater than most. Already a number of regional basketball tournaments and other competitions are being planned for the auditorium.

What does this mean to Parkland and the other communities nearby, you ask? First, there will be thousands of spectators coming to the games who have never before been here Second, a great amount of publicity will be carried in papers far and wide in publicizing the events.

It behooves all of the people of the South End to recognize what a great asset Pacific Lutheran College is to the community in its cultural and financial aspects, and especially in its spiritual effect as a leading Christian institution.

Dr. S. C. Eastvold, president of the college, and the many supporters throughout the United States are to be congratulated for the fine achievement being dedicated on May Day

Publicity Opportunity

Every business house in the South End has an opportunity to cash in on some good publicity if they will get behind the Parkland Business Club's Fish Derby, scheduled for May 17 at Spanaway Lake.

There is every indication that this event can be made an annual affair, attracting many fishermen from all parts of Pierce County. And when the fishing clan gets red hot on a good derby they will do plenty of talking and spreading the word. According to the local Waltons who spend a good deal of time on Spanaway lake there are plenty of fish of several varieties ready for the catching.

• All that is needed is an attractive list of prizes and this is in the making. Now is the time for all South End folks to whoop the weekend. it up and arouse the competitive instinct of the fishermenlarge and small.

Time for a Check-up

Considerable comment has been heard of late concerning the reckless manner in which motorists drive through the congested communities of the South End. Especially bad is the situation on Park Avenue in Parkland, adjacent to Pacific Lutheran College. A pedestrian in these parts is confronted with speeding cars, wild-eyed truck drivers and then to top it off a horde of motor scooters dodge in and out to harry a lowly

It has been suggested that the state patrol or some of Sheriff Croft's deputies could put in a few worthy hours checking the traffic hereabouts. A couple of arrest slips placed here and there would slow up the whole tribe of speeders.

Where Does The Telephone Strike Stand Today?

Because you, as a telephone user, have an important stake in the issues, we'd like to give some straight answers to questions you may have about the strike situation up to date.

1. Why Is There A Telephone

The unions made large demands. We could not agree to these demands but offered to extend contracts while bargaining continued. But the unions refused. We then offered to arbitrate the basic issue, wages. The unions again refused and went

2. What Are the Unions Demanding?

They are demanding scores of changes in contracts which would, if granted, amount to an increase of more than $100,000,000 a year in the cost of telephone service.

This amount is five times our 1946 earnings. It would make our payroll alone larger than all the money we took in last year.

3. What Do These Demands Mean to Telephone Users?

The union demands equal $45 per year added to each telephone bill . . . a 40 per cent increase in all telephone rates.

4. How Well Are Telephone Employees Paid Now?

Studies show telephone wages are in line with those paid for other jobs on the coast requiring similar skill and training . . . telephone wage rates now average 58 per cent above the 1941 level. Here are typical examples:

OPERATORS: Even a girl right out of school starts at a basic rate of $30 a week while learning -in small towns, $28 to $29. Actual earnings are higher due to overtime and premium pay. There are frequent pay raises, too. At the end of the first year the new operator can be earning over $1,900 a year. A supervising operator can earn over $2,700 per year working a 5-day week. PLANT MAINTENANCE MEN: Actual earnings of many experienced men last year were more than $5,000.

The basic rate for inexperienced men is $34 at the start and scales up to $72. Overtime and premium pay are in addition.

5. What Other Benefits Do Employees Get?

Among other extra advantages are paid vacations up to three weeks depending on length of service . . . holidays with pay . . . sickness and death benefits . . . pensions . . . good working conditions.

And telephone work is steady work . . . the kind a person can count on.

6. Why Can't the Company Agree to Union Demands?

Wages and other costs of service are paid by the people who use the telephone. We can't give blanket agreement to the unions' huge demands because we cannot justify them to our customers who pay the bill.

7. How Has the Company Tried to End the Strike?

We wanted to extend the liberal working contracts while bargaining continued. But the unions refused. We repeatedly offered to submit the wage question . . . the basic issue . . . to arbitration. But the unions continue to refuse.

We have offered the unions a practical plan to settle the strike . . . a plan that is fair equally to our employees, investors and customers.

8. When Will the Strike Be Over?

We don't know. But we believe that no matter how long the strike lasts, it is in the public interest to face it rather than to capitulate to the unions' huge demands which would require large increases in telephone rates.

Meanwhile we will continue to do our best to handle your calls.

Calls from dial to dial telephones, which make up the bulk of calls in many cities, are completed without interruption. Many calls which require the service of an operator are also being completed.

Many telephone company people are working days and nights on strenuous shifts to keep service going. We appreciate this loyalty.

We wish to thank the public for their helpful cooperation during this troublesome period.
