They Promise - We Hope

Now that the Primaries are behind, there is one political promise we are all waiting to hear from each of the candidates—the promise that, win or lose, they will remove all their political posters. Each election year we are forced to look at pictures of candidates with VOTE FOR SMITH, VOTE FOR JONES, VOTE FOR BLACK underneath.

Once the election is over, must we still stare at these same faces for four years or until the weather finally washes them away?

Do you candidates doubt that they will last four years? We'll be glad to point out several posters from the campaign four years ago, still prominently displayed.

How about it, fellows? Let's hear this one campaign promise. And you good citizens who pledged this and that during the primary campaign—but lost—how about showing what good sports you are by removing your old posters. Do you think our request is at all unreasonable? We'll be watching those posters.

Attention. Mothers

Mothersingers of the Franklin Pierce district are seeking new members. All mothers of this district are invited to come and sing with us at Central Avenue school Monday evenings from 7:30 to 9 o'clock. If you are a bathroom soprano (or alto), do your practicing with us. For further information, call me at GR 8886. Mrs. Eberlein

Dinner Planned As Benefit For Playground

Luigi, (Parkland's Luigi, not the Luigi of downtown Tacoma fame) has volunteered to prepare a delicious six-course Italian dinner for the Parkland Business club members, other residents of the area, to be held Oct. 20, all proceeds to go to the Parkland Playground fund. The place for the dinner will be announced.

The dinner will be an all-you-can-eat affair, with delicious Italian spaghetti, fried chicken and many other good things, so save your appetite and watch the Times-Journal for further announcements.

Who is Luigi of Parkland? We don't know, and even if we did we wouldn't tell. Luigi will be unmasked at the dinner.

Slave Auction Crazy, Mixed Up, Hilarious Affair

By Jack Brown, Slave No. 76
The Slave Auction Friday night developed into more fun, more surprises and more free coffee and doughnuts than residents of the area have seen in one long while. The venture sponsored by the Parkland Business club was a huge success profit-wise as well, with the playground fund increasing by $671.31, less the relatively small expenses.

From the results of the bidding, you may very well happen to witness the following amazing spectacles: Harry (Mystery Man) Sprinker lugging your groceries from the Bargain Basket counter out to your car; Sheriff Harold Bird washing windows down at the Dryer Mortuary; Frank Stojack picking chickens or making deliveries for Armstrong Poultry Co.; M. A. Stephenson having lunch with Attorney General Don Eastvold and then touring the capitol with Mrs. Hugh Rossellini as guide; Kent Erickson pushing a load of horse manure down Pacific avenue trying to sell it, with Otto Gomache standing by to pocket the proceeds; Howie Snowden polishing the bar at the Shamrock Tavern (maybe they'll even make a bartender out of him).

Jennie Grodovic opening her home for the Times-Journal Christmas party, with Trav Dryer as butler and Helen Johnson as maid; Roger McDonald chauffeuring Ruf LaCrosse and Dorothy Fletcher to—where'd you say, girls? Spokane? Dolores Brown making pies for Al Soine; Connie Erickson saddle soaping Donna McKewen's saddle.

Del Cheney tripping the light fantastic with Flaggpole Kitty sometime next February—the next weekend Bud Mathies will square her around; Al Soine enjoying a breakfast on Burt Murtrie's breakfast hour.

How mixed-up can things get? Oh, brother, must I go on? Try this one for size: When you order a load of lumber from Brookdale Lumber Co., don't be surprised to see vivacious Betty Anderson driving the truck, and when your neighbor orders a load of lumber from the Anderson Lumber Co., don't be surprised if it is delivered on a Brookdale Lumber Co. truck with their driver at the controls. Had enough? No? Okeh, here we go with more events you may soon witness: Jack Whisler accompanying Del Cheney on one of his wild mountain horseback nightmares; Mrs. Honeywell, editor of the—please rise and bow twice to the east—Times-Journal, baby sitting at the Ray Bartley home; Morrie Anderson putting the finishing touches on (Continued on Page 4)

McKewen Covers Active Club Now On Year Schedule

Wes McKewen, staff photographer for the Times-Journal, is in Oregon today (Thursday) to cover the dedication of the gigantic new McNary dam. It is expected that he will bring back a fine story of the impressive ceremony in which President Dwight Eisenhower formally dedicates the dam and starts the fifth of the ultimate 14 generators. All are scheduled to be in operation by the end of 1956.

But more important to Parkland people than McKewen's account of the dedication will be the pictures he expects to take of the president at this time. Since establishing the McKewen Studios in Parkland he has demonstrated his mastery of commercial photography, especially action shots, and is sure to bring home some very interesting photographs of the President.

Several weeks ago the Times-Journal received an invitation to send representatives to the dedication and Jack Brown, the publisher, felt that McKewen was a "natural" for the job. Not only was he the sole member of the staff who could handle the photography, but, being a war veteran with a fine record of many years of service, knows his way around on an occasion involving the military. After careful examination of his record by security officers, McKewen was sent credentials taking him right into (Continued on Page 4)

Kiwanis Club To Keep Kids Day Sept. 25

The film will be shown in the Midland school gymnasium at 7 p. m., in the Parkland school gymnasium at 2:30. The film will be shown in the Spanaway school Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Popcorn will be sold at cost.

Nebraska Dance

A party dance for all former Nebraskans and their friends will be held Saturday, Oct. 2, at Arlington hall, 72nd and So. Pine St., Tacoma. Bring either cake or sandwiches.

Elk Plain 4-H

The next meeting of the Elk Plain Girls 4-H club will be held at the home of Dolores Otterstad on Monday, Sept. 27. It will be a birthday party celebrating the birthdays of Pauline Darling, Alice Tibbitts, Ellen Clark, Sharron Shannon and Nancy Phelps.

The last meeting was with Pauline Darling Sept. 13, members enjoying a "cook out" over a bonfire.

Many Donors At Bloodmobile In Parkland

The Bloodmobile of the Tacoma-Pierce County Blood Bank is reported to have had a very successful stop at Parkland last Thursday and Friday, with 35 pints of blood added to the critically short supply.

Those in charge of the mobile unit were deeply appreciative of the fine reception given them at Parkland and of the good publicity accorded the project by advertising paid for by nearly 50 business firms of the area. In addition to the newspaper publicity, four firms proffered valuable awards, which were given to persons offering blood.

Kenneth Pottle, 19800 Pipeline Road, Renton, received a $5 gift certificate at McKewen Studio; Ray Leap, Rt. 7, Box 112, Tacoma, $10 savings account at National Bank of Washington; Stanley Hulsman, PLC student, special $15 cake at Patty Ann Bakery; Georgina Clarke, 1301 So. 119th St., pencil with Ronson lighter, given by Johnson Drug Store.

ALONG THE TRAIL

with LARRY KIRKWOOD

The Tacoma Lariettes scored again at the recent International horse show in Seattle with their four-man team winning second place. The honor was especially important after their run of bad luck, horses going lame and what not. Lynn Haakinson did a fine thing in loaning her Stormy to replace a lame horse at the last moment and Stormy deserves a medal for a very fine performance.

Last weekend the Lariettes were again in the limelight, winning the Zone championship ribbon at the Zone show at Rainier. They will represent this district at the big State show at Toppenish Oct. 2 and 3.

The Pierce County Posse is getting ready to attend the big show at Yakima this weekend.

Along the Trail we saw Jackie Wise winning first place in the trail horse class at the Colts and Fillies show... Eddie Mazzuca and Carole Roslie becoming hitched in double harness at the Little Church on the Prairie—another couple brought together through their love of horses.

Lloyd Gilbert

Former pupils far and wide will be saddened to learn of the passing Sept. 17 of their former genial schoolmaster, Edison Rathbone. He was principal of the Alder school for many years, guiding husky sons and daughters of the early pioneers through their 3 R's and giving many the start which now makes them the center of thriving modern activities. He could well be proud of his family, his wife Bessie and daughter, Mrs. Carl Rotter, still reside in Alder.

Recovering Mrs. Fred Duke is convalescing at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Charles Campbell of LaGrande, after a recent operation. She is able to receive callers.

Huckleberry Time Mrs. Mathilda Hedberg and Gust Erickson accompanied the Lloyd Gilberts to Mt. Adams for a successful huckleberry trip.

purpose of League and other Youth work in the church; namely to win and hold young people for Christ. The observance also serves to mobilize, at the beginning of the new academic year, all Leaguers, and the counselors for renewed faith and effort.

A further purpose of Youth Sunday is to urge increased support of youth work by the congregation as a whole by emphasizing to parents and adult members their responsibility toward their youth, and by demonstrating the strength and vitality of the Christian youth in today's confused and doubt ridden world.

Next week's Times-Journal will carry a detailed story of the dedication, especially from McKewen's viewpoint, together with the most interesting of the pictures he will have.

While the President's stay at McNary dam is limited to little more than an hour, during which he is delivering an important address, an all-day program for visitors has been arranged and preparations made for a huge crowd.

Legion Marks September For Child Safety

"As the summer vacation ends and school opens, the Legion is endeavoring to impress on the Spanaway area to observe September as Child Safety Month," Post Commander Albert L. Harvey said today.

"In a campaign to save lives and limbs of children, Clover Creek post No. 118, American Legion, is urging all citizens of the children themselves, as well as motorists and others, the necessity of becoming safety-minded," Commander Harvey declared. "Good pedestrian habits among the children of the community can aid materially in holding accidents involving children to a minimum," he said.

Legionnaires are co-operating with school authorities in promoting safety education among the youngsters and strongly urge parents to assist them in every way possible. "Safety education for children does not apply to traffic alone," Commander Harvey pointed out. "Though traffic injuries are the greatest concern, many other accidents involving children are equally important. The American Legion feels that if emphasis is placed on child accidents of all types, during the month of September, a greater awareness of accident possibilities will remain with the youngsters and the public throughout the year."

"I want to urge every citizen of Spanaway to join with the Legion in promoting child safety."

LaGrande — that's making delicious food go a long way, isn't it?
Ed Marek taking Henry Huntley on a half-day's tour in a 35-year-old Ford roadster; Schuyler J. Witt doing handy-man jobs for a half day at the Whisler home; Peter F. Coleman presenting decorated birthday cakes for the entire Frank Madden family for a whole year; Marge Frye doing a half-day's washing for Donna McKewen; Willie Tramm providing his 1 1/2 ton truck for a half day for Nona Stephenson; Harry Behmer doing three hours of yard work for Lawrence Armstrong; Mrs. Jack Erickson baby sitting at the Pete Pietrzykowski house for an evening.

In the confusion I must have missed a good many "sales" Friday night, so if you notice any peculiar goings on just take it for granted that it's some "slave" working out his bargain.

And me? Brother! I hope Chet Cook doesn't have too much furniture to move; come what may, I'm his slave for a day.

The Business club has instructed me to offer a sincere thanks to all, slaves and bidders, for their grand support on this worthwhile event. And a special thanks to Frank Stojack, Harold Birk, Don Eastvold, Harry Sprinker and Burt McMurtry, who went all-out in their co-operation for Parkland's project.

Loses Life On Birthday

EXACTLY 43 YEARS OLD—A tragic automobile accident on Wednesday evening, Sept. 15, ended the life of Edward T. Fisher, Rt. 5, Box 800, Puyallup, who had celebrated his 43rd birthday with his family before leaving for his job at Mt. Rainier Ordnance Depot. He was instantly killed when his car was struck at a crossing on Collins road. The car was carried more than 100 feet by the train. A passenger in the auto, Mrs. Frances Andreasen, was trapped in the wreckage for more than 30 minutes, suffering greatly from fractures of an arm and a leg. She was taken to St. Joseph's hospital. Shown are the badly wrecked car and the body of Fisher, laid on the ground after removal from the shattered vehicle. Photo by McKewen

A setting of white and yellow gladioli and yellow daisies formed the background for the marriage rites, Saturday, Aug. 23, of Miss Joyce Marie Webber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Webber, and Robert Carl Arneberg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Arneberg. The Rev. Ruben Corpey officiated at the double ring ceremony in the home of the bride's parents at Midland. The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a bridal gown of white organdy and a white veil of illusion. She carried a bouquet of orchids. Attendants were Miss Anna Arneberg, bridesmaid and sister of the bridegroom, and Bud Webber, brother of the bride.

Taking care of the guest book were the Misses Sharron Eshpeter and Jeanne Steuby. The bride's mother chose to wear a grey suit, while the bridegroom's mother wore a black dress with accessories and both wore corsages of white carnations.

A reception followed with a luncheon served by the bride's mother. Many guests were present, including the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Mary Dayton of California, and aunt and uncle of the bridegroom, Mr.

Spending the Labor Day weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Doug Morris were Mr. and Mrs. Myles Palmer of San Francisco, Calif. Mr. Palmer is Mrs. Morris's brother and it has been 10 years since they have visited in Tacoma. An enjoyable time was enjoyed by both families.

Bake Sale

If you are all tired out from visiting the great Western Washington Fair at Puyallup and haven't time to do your own baking this weekend, come out to Johnnie's Thriftway Store in Midland Saturday and patronize the home-made bake sale of the members of the Midland Orthopedic Guild, starting at 10 a.m. All kinds of cakes, pies, rolls and fancy breads are promised by the general chairmen, Mrs. Clarence Johann and Mrs. Doug Morris.

Orthopedic

Many interesting projects for the coming year were planned and discussed at the first fall meeting of the Midland Orthopedic Guild with the president, Mrs. Francis Hushek, presiding. After discussing the bake sale this Saturday, the main project on the agenda is the coming "Turkey and Salmon Dinner" and County Fair to be held at the Midland Community Club hall Friday evening, Nov. 12. Mrs. G. Lee Galyeen and Mrs. Charles Brouwer are in charge of arrangements for the dinner and Country Fair chairmen will be named soon. All proceeds of these projects go towards the new Children's Orthopedic hospital being built which is now to have a third floor, making 100 beds to be available instead of the 40 originally planned. Mrs. Carl Taylor was thanked for making so many lovely aprons which are on sale in the Water Company office. The hostesses, Mesdames Clay Roley, Don Kemp and Francis Hushek, served a lovely luncheon. Hostesses for the October meeting will be Mesdames Albert Asplund, LaVerne Olsen and George Lind.

Moving to Montana

We are sorry to lose good neighbors and friends like the Charles Pronovosts. After selling his station on South Tacoma Way, the family took a trip to Montana to visit friends and relatives and decided to make it their home again. Mrs. Pronovost was active in P.T.A., Entre Nous and several other organizations. They had two boys in school, Asa in the fifth grade and Ronnie in the second. Their home was on Cherry street.

Breckon 4-H

Members of the Breckon 4-H held their September meeting at the home of Ricky McMaken where final plans were made for the Western Washington fair. At the fair Gary Lincoln will give a demonstration of "Building an Economical Chicken Brooder", and Bob Badham and Terry Bayle will exhibit Yorkshire gilt pigs. The boys in this club have been doing outstanding work, with Ronnie Brown and Dick Badham going to Monroe, Washington, for Poultry judging. While there, Ronnie placed 2nd high in individual judging and Dick 3rd high for individual judging. This was in the Junior division. Leaders for this group are Mrs. Bert Badham and Mrs. Art Lincoln, assistant. Following the business meeting, presided over by President Gary Lincoln, refreshments were served by Mrs. McMaken. The next meeting will be at the home of Gary Lincoln on the 29th of September.

Overlooked

The following article on the P.T.A. union was misplaced or overlooked and, although late, many will be interested in the event.

The annual P.T.A. reunion of the pioneer members of the group was held at the Orin Root home on Cedar street. Following a potluck dinner, a meeting was held with Mrs. Bohl presiding as president and Mrs. Sladek as secretary-treasurer. At the meeting the group decided to invite the children of first descendants to attend, as the group is growing smaller.

This group was started around the year 1921 and holds two meetings a year. Those attending were: Mrs. F. S. Cook and Mrs. Malie McMurchy, Tacoma; Mrs. Ira West, Mrs. Rose Erickson, Mrs. Bill Mayer (Nida Blomberg), Mrs. Joe Sladek and Mrs. G. Hendrickson, Puyallup; Mrs. Hanna Bohl and Mrs. Maude Geddas, Woodland; Mrs. Emma Martin and Sharon Lee Martin, Sumner; Mrs. Ruth Williams, Edgewood; Mrs. Ethel Lincoln, assistant. Following the business meeting, presided years at Woodland, and the hostess, Mrs. Orin Root.

Back to School

Little Donna Mae Tucker, who underwent serious surgery at the Tacoma General hospital, is home now and back in school.

Mr. Otto Home

Friends will be glad to know that Clarence Otto, who underwent a serious operation at the Doctor's hospital in Tacoma, is now home.

Shows Art Work

Lynn Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Williams of Fruitland avenue, has entered some of his art work in another show. Mr. Williams, now attending the Central Washington College of Education, has entered several shows in the past and has received good notices and prizes on his works. Mr. and Mrs. Ken Wilson, curators of the Cameron Gallery in Fairbanks, Alaska, asked that he show his works in their Gallery. Pieces sent were an oil painting "Swampfire" and a sculptured head "Self". Mr. Williams has previously shown at the Larsen Gallery in Yakima, Fredrick and Nelson in Seattle and the University of Oregon Art Gallery. He is a member of Kappa Pi Art fraternity. Look for some of his work this year at the Western Washington fair.

Marciano Stops Charles

Just as most forecasters predicted, Heavyweight Boxing Champion Rocky Marciano bombed the challenger, Ezzard Charles, into submission last Friday night in the eighth round.

The championship bout was quite the opposite of their first meeting in many respects. The champion didn't waste time in this match and pressed Charles from the opening bell. He landed the heavier leather throughout the early rounds, although he suffered a cut above one eye and a badly cut eye.

Many ringsiders feel that Marciano felt that he must of the Presbyterian church were host to several of the boys and girls of the Junior department of the Sunday school at an overnight camp on Henderson bay. Activities for the group were swimming, games, fireside fun with stories and singing. Those attending were: Judy Davenport, Carol Lincoln, Peggy Root, Carol Cordes, Janet Kirk, Arthur England, Judy Lincoln, Joyce Lincoln, Richard Badham, and Karl Cordes.

knock Charles out before he sensed the severity of the cut on his nose in the seventh round. In any event, he made short work of the challenger in the eighth with some accurate shots to the jaw.

Marciano will take a rest for the remainder of this year and will probably meet the English champion, Don Cockell, early next year.

Huskies Have Close Call

The early season jitters almost cost the University of Washington Huskies their opening game against the Utah Redskins Saturday, but they managed to salvage the victory by a close 7 to 6 score.

The Huskies scored their lone touchdown in the first quarter on a Lederman to Houston pass covering 18 yards.

Although the U. of W. team showed signs of brilliance at times, they need much work before they will be a threat in the Coast Conference. The backfield as a whole were off in timing and handled the ball raggedly throughout the game. Mike Monroe, the big rugged Husky fullback, and Bob McNames were the big ground gainers for the home team.

Monroe was injured in the second quarter, but the seriousness of his injury has not definitely been determined as yet. It was thought at first that he pulled the ligaments near his right knee. Should he be sidelined for some time, McNames will probably take over the full-back spot.

The Huskies meet the University of Michigan next Saturday in Seattle.

Sport Particles

The World Series opens at the Polo Grounds in New York on Wednesday, Sept. 29, between the Giants and Indians. The Seattle Rainier officials are again fumbling around trying to locate a new manager and have mentioned the name of Rogers Hornsby who has been canned from his last few manager jobs and couldn't help Seattle's cause . . . Willie Mays, the fleet Giant outfielder, slapped his 41st homer Saturday, an inside the park homer, no less. Pat McMurtey, Tacoma heavyweight boxing hopeful, will be in for a real test against Chuck Ross this Saturday night at the Armory . . . CPS is favored to take the measure of the PLC Gladiators on the gridiron at Lincoln Bowl this Saturday evening . . . Stadium won the annual Grid-Go-Round Friday night . . . If Ezzard Charles meets the British champ, Don Cockell, before Cockell gets a chance at Marciano, there probably won't be a Cockell-Marciano match . . . Ted Kluszewski, the Cincinnati slugger, has the biggest set of biceps in baseball today and probably of all time. Frank Lancaster is the captain of this year's PLC football team.

Award Winners

Local Girls To Represent Co. At Yakima Fair

Of the original 92 contestants in the Pierce County 4-H club Meal Preparation contest from the Fruitland Grange, Wallene Lee and Dorothy Keil are the winners.

Their winning luncheon was served in June to E. Z. Fredricks, P. M. Lemoine, Mrs. A. S. Melovidoff (judge of the final county contestants) and Mrs. Kenneth Keil, Dorothy's mother and leader of these girls in club activities. The luncheon consisted of chicken croquettes, tossed salad, rolls, a baked dessert and coffee and was prepared and served in Tacoma City Light's model kitchen located in the new Tacoma City Light Administration building.

Mrs. Florence Allen, who is with the Extension Service supervising the 4-H club activities, has said, "The 4-H club members have a real advantage by having the experience of working in the model kitchen and learning to use the latest and most efficient electrical appliances."

The girls were judged by Mrs. Melovidoff, director of home service for Tacoma City Light, and scored on a variety of points including planning, buying (they keep within a budget), preparation and management, table setting, serving and manners, and clean up.

Pierce County's winners, Wallene Lee and Dorothy Keil, will represent our County at the Washington State Fair at Yakima Saturday, Sept. 25. Each county sends its representatives to compete for the blue ribbon honors from which two are selected as State winners. These State winners are presented with an award at the banquet given annually by Sears Roebuck Foundation for the County representatives.

Wallene is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Lee, and Dorothy the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Keil.

Hi... Franklin Pierce parents and teachers! This is to be your column. Once a month we will appear here with views and news, and Hi-Booster bits of anything which has happened or is going to happen within our district... and speaking of things which are going to happen... you are all invited to a Get Acquainted Night at the high school, Tuesday, September 28th at 8:00. Entertainment? Yes, just for you... a Flag Ceremony by Explorer Scouts of Post 92, Collins; the Melodies of the Parkland Trio and Chorals by mixed F. P. groups... MMM! sound good?

And, just so you'll have a good idea of what goes (and what doesn't) in the school... Orval Weeks, principal, will tell you about school regulations... and then, all parents will meet all teachers who will be introduced, and you may chin a bit during the social hour about your favorite subject... those wonderful young people who at-

Many Get Free Gas In Novel Contest Here

Capt. J. E. McDade, Box 114, McChord, drove away from Bob's Place with 18 gallons of gas "for free" last week, all because he guessed within 1/10th of a gallon the amount his tank would hold when he said, "Fill 'er up!"

Since the opening of this novel contest, Bob's Place has given away more than 150 gallons of gas. Anyone can get in on the deal by noting on a slip of paper his estimate of what his tank will hold when he orders it filled with gas. If the guess is within 1/10th of a gallon of the amount required, there is no charge.

Others who profited by the contest and amounts they guessed are: Jack F. Kindberg, 16.6 gallons; Leland G. Weaver, 899 So. 113th St., 12.6 gallons; Bert Brown, 11.4 gallons; Mrs. Robert A. O'Bryant, 1624 So. 113th St., 11.3; Clarence E. Reed, 774 So. 107th St., 8.7 gallons; George G. Baer, 906 So. 111th St., 8.5 gallons; G. B. Bremmeger, 10428 So. Sheridan, 6.7 gallons.

The Parkland department has been called on several fires during September. On the 9th at 1:25 p.m. a lumber pile at 220 So. 104th was reported on fire; Sept. 15, 9:30 p.m. an overheated furnace at the home of E. Logan, Rt. 3, Box 803, no damage; Sept. 17, fireplace fire in the home of Joe Otto, 965, East 121st St., damage, $150.

Friends and Neighbors:
A small group of Spanaway and Elk Plain volunteer firemen are doing what you should be doing. They are worrying about how they can get you a new or good ambulance. Through donations from their small group they have made it possible for you to be able to call them free of charge. Resuscitator, diving equipment, grappling hooks and First Aid are all a part of what you can't afford to be without.

Your taxes take care of only the housing and the actual fire fighting equipment. No one but the volunteers drive the ambulance when your call comes in that you are in distress. No one pays that volunteer driver; he is doing his job because he has an interest in his community.
