

Garfield Street To Be Re-Surfaced Soon

Writer Points Out Another Side of Housing Problem

Editor, Prairie Pointer:

For some months past you have seen fit to lambast the members of the National Association of Real Estate Boards, the American Legion and banking institutions, in your weekly paper. It seems queer to me that you have failed to quote both sides of the situation as a community paper should do.

It is always amusing to others when one person or a small group of persons place themselves up as authorities on subjects of which they know nothing—but merely presume that rumors are facts. It is also amusing for persons to maintain that they are better informed about someone else's business or profession than the person in that business, whether it be personal matters or business or politics.

You personally denounce President Truman for his acts, and then say in the front page editorial that he was forced to denounce the powerful real estate lobby for their efforts to keep the control of your home and mine in our own hands instead of in the hands of individuals on the government payroll who are afraid of losing their jobs.

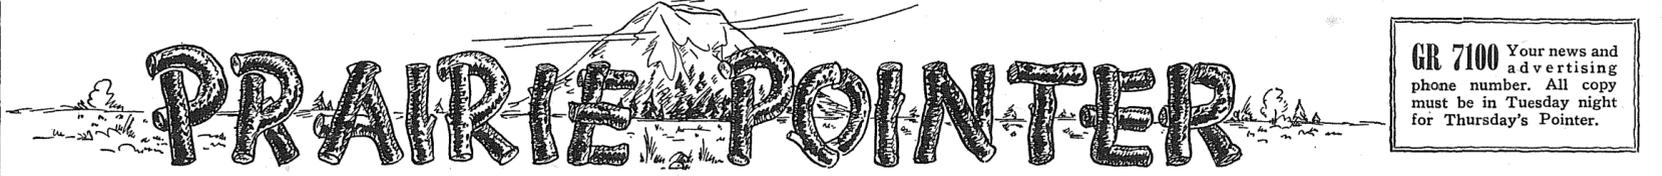

I should like to know what is wrong with the American Legion? It seems to me that it is an organization that has a lot of good ideas for the good of the country and communities in which it has memberships. As to the Legion being reactionary since Hoover chased them out of Washington, D. C.—I will say that in 1935 when my brother-in-law was commander of a Legion post, he talked to me quite a bit about the Legion's plan to prevent war by conscripting Money, Men, and Munitions equally. That would have taken the profit out of war and was not passed by the Congress while F. D. Roosevelt was president. Did the Legion criticize the accomplishments of the Spanish-American War Veterans and the G.A.R.?

With thousands of properties frozen at depression rent levels, and with no relief offered through the years of rent control, while every other commodity on the American market was permitted to raise its price level to meet increasing costs of production and operation, it is about time some federal agency restored to the owners of property an opportunity of breaking even on their investments. It is to the eternal credit of the property owners and to the everlasting condemnation of rent control, that these same property owners stayed put with an average overall increase in five years of control of but 3%, while other commodities skyrocketed as much as 400%. To accuse property owners of chicanery because the Congress finally realized that they, too, were American citizens whose property had virtually been confiscated at the outset of rent control, makes one wonder at the calibre of thought which finds fault with the action of Congress in passing this much-needed legislation, and at the vicious fight that has been made on the landlords during the war years.

While it is true that some greedy persons did things which were wrong, that is no excuse to smear an old and honorable profession whose dealings have been open and above board, and whose standards of ethical conduct prevented them from descending the depths reached by those who thought it all right to take away a man's property and force him to rent it at a losing figure, while permitting, on the other hand, other necessities of life to soar to prices almost beyond the reach of ordinary citizens. If anyone thinks the law which was passed offers much relief to the average landlord, he has another think coming. However, little as it is, it shows that Congress is finally aware of the sorry plight of the many millions of small property owners throughout the nation. It may even be that the time will come when the bureaucrats will realize that a property owner is one who is entitled to a fair return on his investment in the same degree as are the operators of other businesses, whatever be their lines.

If you want to criticize continually, why don't you criticize the newspaper industry and do what you can to improve that type of our life? I sincerely believe that realtors, bankers, Legionnaires and others who are thinking people are constantly trying to improve conditions for the country, so why don't you string along and try to bring out the good points of something once in a while?

JENNIE L. PALMER,
Member of National Association of Real Estate Boards.

Parkland Business Club To Have Picnic At Lake Sunday

PLAN GAMES AND CONTESTS

ALL MEMBERS, FRIENDS INVITED TO PICNIC AT "LITTLE SPANAWAY"

The Parkland Business club picnic, replete with contests, games and promises of good food, will be held Sunday, July 20, at "Little Spanaway," it was announced by Jack Brown, committee chairman.

Bring Lunches

From noon until 2:30 the program calls for swimming and the eating of lunches. Everyone is expected to bring their own lunch, it was stated. From 2:30 to 3:00 there will be a business meeting.

Many Games Planned

Following the business meeting at 3 o'clock a series of games is planned. Beginning with a sack race for children from 6 to 12, the program will involve everyone present. There will be a tug of war, with six men on each side, followed by a bike race between the two fattest men in the club. No names were mentioned for this event.

Then there will be a pie eating contest for all children under 15, and apple bobbing for all children regardless of age.

Contests for Ladies

The ladies will have an opportunity to show the power of their voices in a "husband calling contest," and their mechanical ability in a tire rolling race.

Other features of the afternoon will be a peanut hunt for children under 6, and a three-legged race for fathers and sons.

The winners of prizes will select their rewards from the grab bag, the committee stated.

Judges for the games and contests will be Charlie Fulwiler, Forest Leonard and Don Knapp.

All members of the club and their friends are urged to attend the picnic.

Mrs. Margaret Lunke and Mrs. Evans are also members of the picnic committee.

Five Persons Hurt In Tule Lake Crash

One person was seriously injured and four others suffered cuts and bruises in a two-car crash Sunday night. Mrs. Ruby H. Gardner, Steilacoom, wife of Maj. Ray Gardner of Fort Lewis, suffered a crushed chest and lacerations and was taken to Madigan General hospital by Pierce county deputy sheriffs.

The accident occurred near Park avenue on the Tule Lake road. Mrs. Gardner's son, Joseph, 18, was driving when another car, driven by J. W. Nell, 3317 South Madison street, allegedly passed a stop sign and ran into the side of the Gardner car. Nell was held on suspicion of negligent driving. The accident was reported by Deputy Sheriffs Russ Wall and Cliff Tolson.

Neither the driver of the Gardner car nor the other two children suffered serious injury although 9-year-old Barbara Ann was also taken to Madigan hospital. Two passengers in the Nell vehicle, Mike Shilley, 19, of 7229 South Tacoma Way, and Kenneth Elmer, 20, of 7622 South Park avenue, were taken to St. Joseph's hospital. Elmer was released after first aid.

Officer Tal Roberts of the Washington state patrol, was in charge at the scene of the accident and made the investigation.

Second Term Opens Monday at College

Pacific Lutheran College will open the second term of its summer school next Monday, July 21. During the first term, now ending, there was a total of 238 students enrolled. The second term is likely to have an even larger enrollment, it was stated by college officials. Thus far, alone, the enrollment for summer school has exceeded any ever recorded by the college.

Morris Ford, superintendent of Parkland schools, will be one of the members of the faculty for the second term. Some of the teachers who taught the first term will remain during the final term, and a number who did not teach the first term will be added to the staff for the second term.

Summer school will end Aug. 22.

Pictorial Edition Progressing Well

PARKLAND FIRE DEPT. TO ISSUE FIRE PERMITS

Persons Wanting to Build Open Fires May Get Permits From Fire Commissioners

The Parkland Fire Department will be able within the next two weeks to issue permits for starting open fires in the boundaries of Fire Protection District number 6. Previously, the permits could be issued only by the state. It will then be possible for individuals wishing to start fires to apply directly to any of the three fire commissioners, Clarence R. Marsh, Fred M. Danielson and E. W. Beitz, for the permits. The department is cooperating in this measure with the state forest service.

Thanks District

The Parkland department issued a statement this week thanking the people of Parkland for their excellent record in keeping the fire hazard at a minimum this summer. While the national average for fire losses is higher this year than last, the Parkland area has a good record thus far. Last year the approximate loss for the entire country was some $600,000,000, while this year it is expected to reach $750,000,000, according to the fire department.

Brush Fires

The Parkland firemen answered a number of calls during the past week. Fires reported were as follows: July 8, on Tule Lake Road, 6 blocks west of Pacific avenue, a brush fire, no damage; July 9, Airport and Kay street, a grass fire, no damage; July 11, Clover Creek road, 1/2 block east of Pacific avenue, a grass fire, no damage; July 13, west end of Morton street, a grass fire, no damage.

Brookdale Resident Found Dead in Home

A gun lying near him, the body of Charles Olson, 58, was found in his home at Seward and Park streets, Brookdale, Tuesday morning by John Frederickson, a neighbor, it was announced by the Pierce County Sheriff's office. It was evident that he had taken his own life in a despondent mood.

It was known that Mr. Olson, a long-time resident of the community, had suffered ill health for many years, and only Monday had quit his work at Fort Lewis because of his physical condition. He had no known relatives.

A veteran of the first World War, he was a member of Wild West Post No. 91 of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. The body was removed to the Buckley-King Funeral Home, where funeral services will be conducted at 1:30 p.m. Saturday by Post No. 91, assisted by Rodger Lunde Post, V.F.W.

MASS MEETING AT SPANAWAY

WILL HAVE SPEAKERS FROM SEATTLE AND PARKLAND ON JULY 24

Interest in the proposed water district is running high in Spanaway. Immediately following the announcement of the election last week, came word from the temporary water commissioners, Martin Gibbons, H. F. Guinn and John Rohr, that a mass meeting had been called on the matter on July 24 at the Spanaway school at 8 p.m.

Open to Everyone

"Everyone is urged to be present," Mr. Guinn said. "This will be the last opportunity for public discussion before the election on August 16th."

Guinn stated also that the Pierce county health department would be represented at the meeting, and that Stanley Rosso, president of the Parkland Light and Water company, would either come himself or would send a member of the Parkland company to outline the way that organization is being operated. Mr. Parker of Parker and Hill company, in Seattle, the engineering company that prepared the 1942 financial estimate, will be present.

All present will have the opportunity to question the speakers. Details of the extent of the district to be served, the functioning of the water system and the method by which funds would be raised will also be covered at the meeting.

SEEK METHOD TO IMPROVE SPAN. FISHING

Business Club President Receives Letter From Game Dept. Outlining State's Plan

It was announced today by Walter Young, president of the Parkland Business club, that he had received a reply to a letter written by the club to the state game department regarding the improvement of fishing in Spanaway lake.

The letter, signed by Lewis R. Garlick, fish biologist of the department of game, follows: "Reference is made to your letter of July 3 regarding the dearth of fish in Spanaway lake. The department of game is very conscious of the potential possibility and the desirability of making Spanaway lake a very productive body of water."

A Complex Problem

"The problem in Spanaway lake is exceedingly complex. The usual management practices of planting large fingerling rainbow trout have been very disappointing. In 1945, 1946 and 1947, approximately 74,000 fingerling from 4 to 6 inches were planted."

Screening Lake Outlets

"If planting alone would provide fishing, we certainly would have put this lake into production. From our studies of other lakes it is evident that heavy plantings of rainbows coincident with the screening of lake outlets will eventually provide good fishing. At the present time we are seriously considering a program of this nature in Spanaway lake. Upon completion of other hatchery units in the Pierce county area more fish will be available for carrying out this program, and plans are now being made for a screening project in the outlet of the lake providing that the nature of the outlet makes this screening possible."

"I wish to assure you again that the department will do everything within its power to provide good fishing in Spanaway lake."

EASTVOLD ENDS LENGTHY TOUR

Attends Church Celebration And Meeting of College Presidents, Deans of Religion

President and Mrs. S. C. Eastvold returned this week from an extensive trip to North Dakota, Wisconsin and Minnesota.

Among the places they visited was Parshall, North Dakota, where Eastvold organized two churches while serving as a pastor there some 25 years ago. The churches located at Wabek and Raub, were observing their silver anniversary, and Dr. Eastvold participated in the ceremony.

"That country was like a garden," he commented. "When I left 25 years ago the people were so poor that the 'wealthy ones' were wiring their old Fords together to get out of the area—and the poor didn't have money enough even to do that. Now, they are living in affluence and wealth. There is over $3,000,000 in bank deposits in the town, and $3,000,000 more in war bonds."

To Milwaukee

Leaving North Dakota, Dr. and Mrs. Eastvold journeyed to Milwaukee to attend the International Luther League convention, in which more than 4,000 delegates participated.

Attends College Presidents Meet

Then the Eastvolds went to St. Olaf's College, Northfield, Minnesota, for a meeting with a group of college presidents and deans of religion to study the problems of college administration, and of relating Christianity to the colleges. Dr. Eastvold invited the group to hold their 1949 meeting at Pacific Lutheran College.

Visit Children

The high point of the trip was a six-day stay at Lake Lida, Minnesota, where Dr. and Mrs. Eastvold visited their son, Donald, a student at the law school of the University of Minnesota, and their daughter, Eleanor. Dr. Eastvold is looking forward to seeing his son in September, when St. Olaf's College football team plays Pacific Lutheran College here.

Dr. Eastvold interviewed a number of prospective teachers for the college during his trip.

CONTRACT FOR CONSTRUCTION AWARDED BY COMMISSIONERS

LIGE DICKSON COMPANY TO CARRY OUT $23,000 IMPROVEMENT ON GARFIELD AND PARK STREETS. COUNTY STATES WORK EXPECTED TO BEGIN SOON

The contract for the re-surfacing of Garfield street has been awarded to the Lige Dickson Company of Tacoma, it was announced Tuesday by Harvey Scofield, county commissioner. The work is expected to begin within ten days, county officials stated.

Totalling $23,107.98, the contract calls for the re-surfacing with asphaltic concrete of Garfield St. from Park Avenue to the Mountain highway. It also provides for re-grading and surfacing with crushed stone between Sherman and Garfield street, and the construction of a concrete bridge on Park Avenue.

Long-Awaited Development

The letting of the contract is the result of work begun more than a year ago by the Civic Committee of the Parkland Community Club. Under the guidance of Herbert Socolofsky, the committee worked hard to get the construction provided for in the budget of Harvey Scofield, County Commissioner for this district, and to secure the agreement of the property owners involved.

Sidewalks Paid For

One of the steps necessary was to get the agreement of the property owners on Garfield street to provide money for the construction of sidewalks when the construction of the street was complete. More than 98 per cent of them placed the money in escrow for this purpose.

Light and Water Co. Helps

The, the Community Club approached the Parkland Light and Water Company for their support, receiving the unanimous vote of the stockholders of the company instructing the trustees to install more adequate lighting along the street. Attractive light standards have been ordered and are now due.

As well, the company agreed to construct a new water main before the laying of the sidewalk, in order to furnish an adequate water supply.

The work, begun during the presidency of Herbert Socolofsky, has been continued under the leadership of Ray Wenick, now president of the Parkland Community Club.

Other Bidders

The unsuccessful bidder for the construction was Sam Bergessen, Route 10, Box 971, Tacoma, who bid $25,988.72.

FAMOUS PLAY WILL BE GIVEN JULY 23 AND 24

KAUFMAN AND HART COMEDY TO BE GIVEN BY COMMUNITY GROUP

"The Man Who Came to Dinner," a community-college sponsored play, will be presented next Wednesday and Thursday evenings at 8:15 in the Parkland school auditorium.

First Time

This will be the first time that the famous play of Kaufman and Hart has been given in Parkland.

For those not knowing the plot, a few hints might serve to increase their curiosity. Sheridan Whiteside, an ill-tempered lecturer, adored by club women from New York to Tacoma, goes out to dinner at the Stanley home in Ohio. He injures his hip, and is forced to remain with them indefinitely. Through their house comes the endless parade of his friends: convicts, scientists, actors, and the Stanleys must simply stand by while he conducts his business from their living room. Finally, there is open conflict with Mr. Stanley deciding to evict his ill-tempered guest, hip or no hip. It is replete with humorous situations and sparkling dialogue.

Tickets Now on Sale

Tickets will be on sale the remainder of this week and next at Young's Gift Shop, Parkland Light and Water Company and in the main hall of the College. Admission will be 75 cents for adults, tax included, and 35 cents for children. Tickets can also be bought at the door.

All of the proceeds above expenses will be used for a playground fund for Parkland children.

The production is being sponsored by a group of south end business men.

MANY FRIENDS HONOR HAUGES

Group Holds "Open House" To Commemorate Couple's 25th Wedding Anniversary

A committee of friends held "open house" in commemoration of the twenty-fifth wedding anniversary of Dr. and Mrs. Philip E. Hauge at the Hauge home on Sunday, July 13. Approximately 250 callers signed the guest book during the calling hours of 2 to 5 in the afternoon and 7 to 9 in the evening, and many cards and greetings were received from those who were unable to be there.

The ceremonies were held outdoors in the evening with Dr. J. P. Pflueger presenting the guests of honor with a very generous purse as a gift from their many friends. Dr. S. C. Eastvold, speaking on behalf of the College faculty, also presented them with a gift of money. Both Dr. and Mrs. Hauge then responded, expressing their deep appreciation.

Miss Anna Marn Nielsen acted as hostess for the day, and refreshments were served from the table decorated entirely with crystal and silver service and a white floral centerpiece with the following women presiding at the urns: Mrs. Lora B. Kreidler, Mrs. J. P. Pflueger, Mrs. J. U. Xavier, Mrs. A. W. Ramstad, Mrs. John Salater.

The committee in charge of the arrangements were Mesdames A. Johnson, Lora B. Kreidler, O. J. Stuen, G. J. Malmin and Miss Anna Marn Nielsen.

Cub Scouts to Have Picnic at Spanaway

Parkland's Cub Scouts will hold a family picnic at "big Spanaway" park tonight, it was announced by John Richards, chairman of the picnic committee.

Assisted by Harry W. Chambers and Olaf Jordahl, the committee has planned a potluck supper for the boys and their families. Meeting at 5 o'clock, the first hour will be taken up with swimming, followed by the picnic supper at 6.

Local merchants have chipped in to give the boys a real party. Parkland Theater and the Blue Rustic are providing the ice cream, while Clover Creek Market, Gjoerloff's, Parkland Market Center, Gates' Market, Johnson and Anderson Grocery and Parkland Grill are donating buns, weiners, candy and pop. "We really do appreciate the cooperation of these businessmen," said Walter Young, cubmaster.

Mothers are asked to bring hot dishes, salad, coffee and milk.

Following the supper there will be a series of games, with a large number of prizes to be awarded the winners.

Freedom of the Press

Two weeks ago the Pointer took a strong stand on some of the activities of Harry Cain. A good many folks agreed with the editorial—and told us so. We appreciated that. But not all of them agreed—and also told us. We appreciated that, too, because they were as forthright as we were.

On page one, is one of the answers we received, which we believe states clearly and powerfully the opposing point of view in regard to Senator Cain.

The Pointer believes that that is exactly what freedom of the press means—an opportunity to state frankly the pros and cons on any controversial question. We lay no claim to infallibility, and we are glad to have our readers "put us right."

The important thing is that we can and do speak out in this country on questions of grave importance. Whenever—if ever—this country loses its freedom and becomes a dictatorship, it will be due primarily to the breakdown of two of the historic freedoms:

1. Freedom of speech, of which freedom of the press is a large part.
2. Freedom of religion.

Analyze Hitler's technique of gaining power. He hit in a double-pronged offensive at the Church, Catholic and Protestant, and at the press. While the Church never surrendered in full to the dictator, the press did. Had the newspapers been as bold as the great religious leader, Karl Barth, who said, "It would be better for the Church to return to the catacombs than to bend the knee to the Nazi state," the world might have been spared the horrors of the second world war, for it could have exposed Hitler's hell to the people of Germany. Conceivably, such an action might have stopped the Nazis in their tracks.

But the German press lacked courage, and gave in, with hardly a struggle, and Hitler rode triumphantly to power, with what result the whole world now knows all too well.

We thank, therefore, all those who read our editorial two weeks ago. Let us know what you think—that's what we're here for—to give you a free press in a free country!

Sunshine Club Meets—The Sunshine club of the 72nd street area takes up again its work on baby clothes for the unfortunate at this Thursday's meeting in the East F street home of Mrs. Leona Morris and Mrs. Lola Steele. Meetings have been suspended for several weeks this summer when members found themselves extremely busy with summer duties.

In June the club had a first hand chance to distribute their clothes when they gave to a fifth child of a needy 72nd street family. In fact they did it very decorously at a party in the family's home.

To Kansas—To visit their dead mother's parents, Clarence and Margaret O'Neill, children of Eugene T. O'Neill of 7414 Portland Ave., left last Saturday for Kansas. They journey by train and will stay several weeks.

To Yellowstone—Bud Kennedy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elsworth Kennedy of L street, strated on a motor trip from July 4-8 in Yellowstone park with Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Steidel and daughter, Pat. From July 7-13 Mr. and Mrs. Olive Shipton of Golden Given Road carried out a similar trip by motor.

Baseball Team Wins—Midland team's baseball fans received their reward with a 7-5 win over Madigan General Hospital Sunday, but win or lose next Sunday, for attending the game they'll be in on a picnic. This future event is at Dawson Field at 2 p.m. when Edgewood, the league's first half champs, take on Midland's men. Each Midland player supplies enough food for three people for the following picnic, but in case the crowd exceeds this quantity there is the suggestion you will come with reinforcements. The last Sunday game at Fort Lewis brought out Midland's new pitcher, Bob Snodgrass, to pitch only 3-hit ball. Fred Turnbull and Mike Brataovich of Midland supplied other highlights with 3-baggers, but to Moe Turnbull goes the top spot for breaking the 5-5 tie with a hit into left field. This brought in two runs. For more baseball visit Dawson Field at 6 p.m. when two teams of a county league fight it out.

Return—Mr. and Mrs. Nap Montgomery, formerly residents of the Larchmont area were in the neighborhood again during the 4th holiday. Besides visiting relatives and other friends they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Kennedy of East L. Montgomery's are from Coos Bay, Oregon.

TINY TOT HONORED

The Women's club of the Parkland Evangelical church held a party in honor of little David Lennart Svedburg's first month birthday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lennart Svedburg at Lakewood on the evening of July 11. Scientists Believe Quackgrass Killer Will Be Found Soon

Steady progress in the field of chemical weed eradication, according to plant scientists of the U. S. department of agriculture, promises ultimate control of many of the farmer's worst field pests. Latest advances have to do with the possibility of control of grassy weeds—such as quackgrass. The weed grasses are not controlled by the now well known 2,4-D.

Recently claims have been made for the effectiveness of IPC (isopropyl-N-phenyl carbamate) as a quackgrass killer. British scientists during the war found this substance, which is in the class of hormone-like chemicals or plant-growth regulators checks or kills some kinds of cereals, members of the grass family, and that many broad-leaved plants are not injured by it. This led to the assumption that at least some grasses including weed grasses, might be killed by applications of IPC, and now researchers at the Plant Industry Station, Beltsville, Md., announce favorable results from its use on mature quackgrass (with stolons or runners) and on quackgrass seedlings.

Evon Hart Married To F. L. Henricksen At Bethesda Church

Two rings were carried by Roger Lee and little Linda Sand was the flower girl at the wedding June 27 in Bethesda Baptist church of Evon Caroline Hart and Frederick Lee Henricksen.

Parents of the bride and bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Ernest G. Hart of Tacoma and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Henricksen of Lake Front Drive, Spanaway. Two hundred friends attended the ceremony and remained for the reception in the lower auditorium of the church.

Against a background of palms, white regal lilies were arranged at the altar and throughout the church pink roses were used as decorations. Seven branched candelabra were lighted by Miss Diane Jenkins, cousin of the bridegroom, and Miss Cheryl Oksness, the first in melon colored taffeta and the second in green crepe. Miss Evelyn Bunn was at the organ and songs were by Robert Lee.

The Rev. Marion Flint officiated at the double ring ceremony. Mr. Henricksen had as best man Gene Davies. Ushers were Gay Henricksen, a brother, and Charles Peterson.

Miss Hart, given in marriage by her father, wore white satin, its lace yoke embroidered with tiny pearl beads, matching the coronet from which fell a veil of silk net. The bridal bouquet was an orchid encircled with rosebuds.

Mrs. Gene Davies, matron of honor, was frocked in pink net over satin and the bridesmaids, Miss Cherrie Hart and Miss Mollie Archer, wore blue and pink, respectively. All carried bouquets of carnations and sweet peas. Mrs. Hart chose aqua blue crepe and Mrs. Henricksen Sr. chose beige crepe for the wedding. Both had corsages of gardenias.

For the reception, the lower hall was decorated in white and pink, the supper table centering an arrangement of sweet peas and pink and white candles. Mrs. Cecil Myers and Mrs. Grace Breeding poured and Mrs. George Rainey, an aunt of the bride, was in charge of the cake. There was music until after Mr. and Mrs. Henricksen left for Vancouver, B. C., by motor. The bride changed to a gray wool suit with white blouse and accessories, a small pink hat and an orchid corsage. After mid-July they will be at home at South 96th and McKinley avenue. Both are graduates of Lincoln high school.

A rally, started by Duane Justice, brought in four more runs in the seventh inning for Spanaway. They held Morton to only one extra run for the remainder of the game, making the final score 7-4.

Home Runs
Highlights of the game were home runs hit by MacDonald of Spanaway and Barrett of Morton. Batteries for Morton were Elmer Thiel and Ed Thiel; Spanaway, MacDonald and Brammer.

Sunday, July 20, will see the Navy team travel to Spanaway park for the second game of the second half of the league series. Game time, 2:00 p.m. Residents are urged to attend as all proceeds will go towards the new ball park.
