Petersburg Lutheran Celebrates 100 Years

Petersburg Lutheran Church
Image ©2004 Donel Judy

Petersburg Lutheran Church was organized in 1913, through a remarkable series of events. This year marks the tremendous milestone of 100 years as a Lutheran Congregation!

PLC has been celebrating their 100th Anniversary throughout the year, using the theme "Celebrate and Serve."

November will see the actual anniversary of the first worship service of PLC. In remembrance, an Anniversary Dinner is planned. The program will include hymns sung in Norwegian and a reenactment of the organization of the church. Bishop Shelley Wickstrom will be joining the festivities.

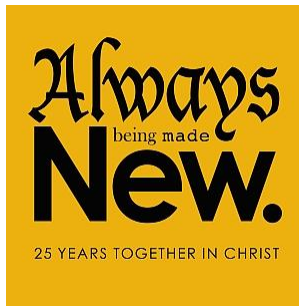

PLC Sanctuary

PLC continues "To Know Christ, to Grow in Christ and to Show the love of Christ".

The town of Petersburg and PLC have a fascinating history. Read more about it here.

Pastor Petersen Parting

The Alaska Synod bids a fond farewell and blessings to Pastor Glenn Petersen and his wife Carol. Glenn has accepted a pastoral position at Mountain View Lutheran Church in the Southwestern Washington Synod. The Peteresens will be leaving Alaska around the 12th of November. Please pray for safe travels and blessings for Glenn and Carol as they begin ministry in a new location. Cards and mail may be sent to:

Alaska Hunger Team

The Alaska Hunger Team is leading the way for alleviating the stresses of food insecurity for many people across state of Alaska. Motivated by Christ's compassion for the poor and young, the Team has initiated incredible grassroots programs to care for the undernourished.

From garden education to summer lunch programs, read about their incredible work here.

ASWO Board Vacancy

The Alaska Synodical Women's Organization (ASWO) has a board vacancy to serve until the next convention in 2015. Any woman who is a member of an Alaska Synod congregation is eligible to serve. ASWO's mission is: "We as diverse women of God, respond to God's love by sharing the gospel, cherishing creation, and encouraging each other's growth in faith."

ASWO meets once or twice a year in person, but more often via teleconference. Please prayerfully consider serving. If you have questions or would like to serve, or have a recommendation, please contact Sue Delgado, ASWO President, at suzydel7032@gmail.com.

Help for the Visually Impaired

If watching TV, matching clothes or even reading this article are a strain on your eyes, the Alaska Center for the Blind and Visually Impaired has many ways to help. But don't keep squinting at this newsletter- Click Here for an eyesight- friendly flyer with all the information you need.

If someone in your congregation or family is struggling with visual impairment, the Alaska Center for the Blind and Visually Impaired has created a helpful resource for determining the symptoms of vision loss and what you can do to help. Find that resource HERE.

Clinical Pastoral Education Extended Unit

The Spiritual Care Department at Providence Alaska Medical Center is starting an Extended Unit of Clinical Pastoral Education (CPE) training to begin in January 2014. This opportunity is aimed at those involved in other ministry outside the hospital and who may not have the availability to devote to the intense CPE Residency of 40-hours per week. The requirement for the Extended Unit is to be present Monday and one day/night a week for on-call ministry. Anyone interested can request an application from the Spiritual Care Department by calling Spiritual Care for more information, (907) 212-2990, or email karen.quirk@providence.org. The CPE program at PAMC is a hospital-based CPE program accredited by the Association of Clinical Pastoral Education with headquarters in Decatur, Georgia.

GRAMMY for GOOD

Do you know a talented, young musician who is dedicated to making a difference through music?

The Partnership at Drugfree.org, in conjunction with the GRAMMY Foundation® and MusiCares®, is in search of young musicians (ages 14-18) to compose or create an original song and/or music video that promotes and celebrates healthy living and/or appropriately depicts a story about drug abuse. In efforts to raise awareness of addiction and recovery, the Partnership encourages teens to submit their powerful messages of struggle, hope and triumphant healing. Contest winners receive a trip to the GRAMMY Awards and more prizes. Submissions must be postmarked no later than December 2nd, 2013. Learn more here.
