Welcome!

*Who'er has travel'd life's places 'round,
Which'er his travels seemed best;
May sigh to think how oft' he has found,
His warmest welcome at a sangerfest.*

THE host choruses have tried to anticipate your interests and needs. Our hope is that we may all be stirred to new heights of happiness as we commemorate our Centennial, fellowship with our Pacific Coast and Norway associates, recognize Erling Stone's 78 years of dedicated service, and thrill to the singing and its accompaniment by the South Dakota Symphony.

Again, we bid you WELCOME!

Dear Norwegian Singers Association of America
Sangerfest Convention Attendees:

On behalf of the citizens of South Dakota, welcome to the 1992 Norwegian Singers Association of America Sangerfest. I am pleased to have the opportunity to extend my greetings to those of you who have traveled great distances to attend the convention.

I am sure the hospitality of citizens from our state will make for an excellent convention. The program's organizing committee has worked hard to make your stay pleasant and enjoyable. While you are in South Dakota, please take the time to take part in the many events this state holds for their visitors. South Dakotans are very proud of the many attractions our state offers.

We are pleased so many talented people have dedicated their time and effort toward entertaining both visitors and fellow South Dakotans through the beauty of music. As you celebrate 100 years of Norwegian male choral singing in the United States, please accept my best wishes for a successful convention. May your experience be a source of renewal and enrichment for all participating.

Very truly yours,

GEORGE S. MICKELSON

GREETINGS !

It is my pleasure, as Mayor of the City of Sioux Falls, to welcome you to the Norwegian Singers of America Sangerfest. Sioux Falls is privileged to have in our midst the Norse Glee Club and the Minnehaha Mandskor, and we look forward to the Sangerfest. We share your excitement, and enjoy the enthusiasm you display at these events.

We appreciate the opportunity to acquaint you with the beauty of our community and our proven record of hospitality.

Good fun and friendly folks are a way of life in our city. While you are here, I encourage you to visit the many exciting attractions that Sioux Falls has to offer such as the Great Plains Zoo and Delbridge Museum of Natural History, our namesake, the beautiful Sioux Falls on the river, and the many parks which are so inviting this time of the year.

We invite you to discover the numerous amenities Sioux Falls has to offer its visitors, from the quiet intimacy of a superb dinner in one of the city's finest restaurants to many offerings of entertainment and cultural interests. Take the time to look us over.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Jack White". The signature is written in dark ink and is positioned above the printed name and title.

Mayor

GREETINGS! Welcome to the Norwegian singers from all over the United States, including those from the Pacific coast and Norway. This is a special milestone in our history — as we celebrate 100 years of Norwegian sangerfests in America.

A highlight of this celebration is the dedication of this Centennial Sangerfest to Erling Stone who has lived 98 years of this history and has served the NSAA for the past 78 years.

The host committee from the Minnehaha Mandskor, the Norse Glee Club and the Grieg Male Chorus have worked diligently to make this event special.

Serving as your President has been a truly great honor for me. Enjoy Sioux Falls and the sangerfest and have a safe trip home.

Clarence Dybvig
President

Everett also has the distinct honor of hosting the first West Coast Sangerfest in 1903. Since then, Everett has hosted eleven Sangerfests.

The Lyric Club, ladies' auxiliary, has provided support and encouragement for many years, and is an important factor in the success and popularity of the congenial Everett chorus.

Guest Soloist

Roy Samuelson

There are, in our contemporary musical field, some musicians who defy classification, mostly in the realm of singing. One of those versatile artists is Roy Samuelson, who can be in turn a basso cantante, basso profundo or Heldenbaritone. When he came to America as a very young man, he impressed everyone as a beautiful lyric baritone. As such, he studied at Brigham Young University, singing mostly Mozart and Belcanto roles. Military service interrupted these studies, although he took advantage of excellent instruction by a fine private teacher in Wurzburg, Germany, where he was stationed. To this day he credits Mr. Joseph Heuler for his early vocal training and his awakened interest in singing and music. After his discharge, Mr. Samuelson returned to Utah, participating in the rich musical life in that state and benefitted greatly from regular coaching with Carl Fuerstner. After a summer at the Music Academy of the West in Santa Barbara, working with Lotte Lehmann and Maurice Abravanel, he enrolled for graduate studies at the famous Music School of Indiana University as a student of Paul Matthen.

By then Roy's voice had gained depth, range and power; as a consequence, some of his first operatic assignments at Indiana University were Scarpia in Tosca, the Dutchman, and Amfortas in Parsifal (at age 28). The next several years led to a variety of baritone roles such as Barber of Seville, Valentin, Rigoletto, Amonasro, and many others. Later, as the voice darkened naturally to a true bass baritone, he was also able to sing actual bass parts like Sarastro, Ramphis and Commendatore, while still keeping Amfortas and the Figaro-Count in his repertoire.

It didn't take long till the New York City Opera demanded his services in multiple roles like Mephistopheles (Faust), Galitsky (Prince Igor) and Scarpia (Tosca). He also starred in roles such as the Flying Dutchman, Boris Godounov, Hagen (Götterdämmerung), Manoah (Samson) and numerous others in productions throughout the country. Mr. Samuelson's voice by now commands a range from low F to high A flat, sounding rich and brilliant throughout. He continues with guest appearances in Europe (Norwegian State Opera) and throughout America. His roles in the various categories and four languages now number 100, thirty-seven of them at the Indiana University Opera alone, including such major roles as King Mark, Wotan, Hans Sachs, Don Giovanni, and Balstrode (Peter Grimes).. He has sung most of the standard oratorio bass roles and as a recitalist he specializes in Grieg and other Scandinavian masters along with the standard concert repertoire. With all this, Mr. Samuelson, as Professor of Voice at Indiana University, has a busy teaching schedule including private lessons as well as graduate Pedagogy courses.

Guest Soloist

KENNETH MICHAELS resides in Schiller Park, Illinois, with his wife and family. He was born and raised in the Chicago area. Although he has had no formal voice training, the great operatic tenor Lauritz Melchior referred to him as a natural heldonic tenor and offered him a scholarship to study at the San Francisco Opera. Through his association with the Scandinavian societies, Ken has performed as soloist at many concerts and oratorios, including singing for Queen Margrethe and His Royal Highness the Prince of Denmark while they were on tour of Chicago. He has been a frequent soloist with the Norwegian Singers Association of America conventions, as well as with individual groups of the society.

Guest Soloist

MURIAL ELLASON is a graduate of Waldorf College, Forest City, Iowa, where she studied voice with Prof. Odvin Hagen and was a member of the Waldorf Choir. She is the accompanist for the Norse Glee Club of Sioux Falls, a position she has held for nine years. She is at times a featured soloist with the chorus and her husband, Glenn, is a baritone with the chorus. Murial is also an organist, teaches piano in her home, and works part time in the office of East Side Lutheran Church in Sioux Falls where she and Glenn both sing in the choir. She does vocal work and playing for various organizations and churches. Murial and Glenn live on a farm northwest of Sioux Falls. They are the parents of a son, Carl, and a daughter, Ellen, both married. They have two grandsons.

The Story of Norwegian Choruses

By Dr. Ralph Iverson, Minnehaha Mandskor

A Creed of Honor

Let every man honor and love the land of his birth, the country of his ethnic background and the race from which he springs and keep their memory dear.

This creed characterized America's immigrants. Musical heritage of the lands from which our ancestry came are like mirrors reflecting the character of the people and their environment.

European Backgrounds

Male chorus singing had some of its beginnings in Norway. Students, craftsmen and merchants organized choruses in the mid 1800s. A number of strong directors developed a music literature which came from the folk songs of the time, and reflected the nature of nordic life and its environs.

American Choruses and Sangerfests Begin

As the migration to America from northern Europe increased greatly in the latter half of the 18th century, singing societies in the U.S. were first formed along the east and west coasts. This movement later followed the immigrants inland wherever large groups of Scandinavians settled. As individual choruses formed, these groups learned of each other. Song festivals (Sangerfests) were organized to provide for the preservation of the common ethnic heritage, and camaraderie among Scandinavian newcomers. The first Scandinavian Sangerfest was held in Philadelphia in 1887. A local male chorus was joined by a New York City chorus, Normennenes of Chicago, and two choirs from Norway. A National Scandinavian Singing Society was formed. By 1891, the number of Scandinavian choirs had increased so rapidly that when Minneapolis sponsored its first biennial sangerfest in that year it attracted 51 choirs from New York to Seattle.

The Northwest Region Organizes an Association

Attending the 1891 Minneapolis festival was the Minnehaha Mandskor, which had been organized in Sioux Falls in 1890. This new choir was so impressed with the sangerfest that it invited midwestern centers of Scandinavian people to come to Sioux Falls to consider the formation of a regional association to supplement the national associations biennial sangerfests by sponsoring festivals on alternate years not scheduled by the national group. Sangerfests were too important, in their opinion, to hold them only biennially. Those groups meeting in Sioux Falls took action to form the Northwestern Scandinavian Singer's Association (NWSSA). It held its first sangerfest at Sioux Falls in 1892 with 10 choirs participating. In 1902, Sioux Falls again hosted the NWSSA biennial festival, by this time 30 societies attended, each having 15 to 30 regular members and several had an equal number of passive members. Six of the choirs were from South Dakota, five from Iowa, ten from Minnesota, two from Wisconsin, two from North Dakota, and four from Chicago.

Pacific Coasts Early Beginnings

Portland was the first of the Pacific Coast cities to establish a Scandinavian male chorus in 1886, with Tacoma in 1888 and Seattle in 1889. These choirs plus others along the west coast formed the Pacific Coast Association in 1902, and held their first Sangerfest in 1903. Carlo Sperati, who later came to Luther College, was the first Director-in-Chief of the Pacific Coast Association. Gunnar Malmin served as Director-in-Chief from 1945 to 1980. On occasion, the West Coast Association choirs have joined the more easterly choirs in sangerfests, such as the one held in Salt Lake City, and when the Seattle chorus celebrated its centennial.

NSAA Formed in 1910

Although one of the purposes of the early choirs was to promote fellowship among all Scandinavian groups, the Swedish choruses left the National Scandinavian Singers Association in 1893 or 1899, and in 1907 the Danish choirs formed an independent society. These actions led the remaining choirs of the Scandinavian Singer's Association to reorganize the NWSSA at its sixth biennial sangerfest held at Sioux Falls, South Dakota in 1910. Henceforth, it was to be named the Norwegian Singer's Association of America (NSAA). This society at one time included 38 affiliated choirs.

Wick Serves NSAA for Half a Century

Unusually capable directors have been the secret of success for NSAA choruses. For instance Professor Frederick Wick directed choirs for nearly a half century, and served as Director-in-Chief from 1920 to 1960. He also started Symphony Orchestras in Sioux Falls, South Dakota and in Sioux City, Iowa, he also assisted in organizing the Sioux Valley Singers Association. This giant was a brilliant composer who produced more than 1000 vocal and instrumental works.

Stone Serves NSAA for 78 Years

Another immigrant, Erling Stone, came to Canton, SD in 1914 and joined the Grieg Singing Society, then directed by Frederick Wick. Mr. Stone's interests and talents led him into the administrative aspects of chorus organization, the development of associations and the sponsorship of sangerfests. He has served the NSAA in a variety of capacities, including three tours of duty as Sanger Hilsen editor, the last tour lasting for 32 years. He is the elected Honorary President of the NSAA. In his various capacities in NSAA, Mr. Stone has gathered a great store of memorabilia. When he resigned as the Sanger Hilsen editor in 1990, he offered these materials to the Sioux Falls choirs on condition that they provide an adequate repository with a staff to catalog the materials. This would entail the funding of such services. The Augustana College Library's Center for Western Studies offered to serve as such a repository on condition that the costs of such services be assured. Mr. Stone also had been given two music libraries. One by Professor Wick, and the other by T.H. Hamann. The Sioux Falls choirs have accepted Mr. Stone's offer and have begun the task for fundraising to endow this repository.

NSAA Publications Media

The NSAA has used two primary means of keeping its membership informed about its activities and actions. At first it relied primarily on the Norwegian newspapers which were located in their service area. Since 1910, however, Sanger Hilsen has been the official bulletin for providing publicity. The Augustana College Center for Western Studies, now posses a complete file of Sanger Hilsen bulletins dating from 1910.

Regional Associations Supplement National Association

After the National Scandinavian Singers Association disbanded, a need was soon felt for opportunities to attend sangerfests annually in some regions. The Sioux Valley Singers Association was organized in 1936 to produce such an opportunity for SD and northwestern Iowa. It now includes the two Sioux Falls choirs as well as those in Canton, SD and Sioux City Iowa. It has continued to be very active. The Red River Valley and the Midwest Associations were also organized and later disbanded. There is one group that is very active in spite of the age of the members, this is the Veteran's Chorus. At each Sangerfest, singers who have reached the age of 60 years and who have been NSAA members for a minimum of 10 years have 3 additional meetings to attend: a rehearsal of 2 or 3 songs; a breakfast for social and business purposes; a performance as a Veteran's Chorus on the 1st night of the festival.

Establishment Dates for Current NSAA Choirs

Of the 38 choirs which at one time held membership in the NSAA, 12 remain active. It is of interest to note the dates of establishment for these 12 choirs. Six were established before 1900 in the years indicated: Brooklyn (1819); Luren (1868); Normennes (1870); Minnehaha Mandskor (1890); Sioux City (1891); Grieg of Canton SD (1893). Two were organized between 1901 and 1920: Nordkap (1909); Minneapolis Norwegian Glee Club (1912). Four were formed in the 1920's: Rockford (1923); Bjornson (1924); Dane County Grieg (1925); Sioux Falls Norse Glee Club (1928).

It is significant to note that no new choruses have been established since 1928 which are still active, a period of 64 years.

Historical Sidelights Cherished by Members

Some of the sidelights of our history which are cherished by the members include these:

- 1939 Sioux Valley Singers Association (SVSA), Erling Stone, President, hosted Crown Prince Olav and Crown Princess Martha of Norway at a banquet at Sioux Falls, SD. 1600 attended.
