Land Of Saga And Song

NORWAY, where its storm-browed and rampired coastlands breast the perpetual onslaught of her Northern ocean, belongs to the primordial data of Earth. The land itself has an ageless and legendary complexion, a racial heritage forever rich in prodigies of the human mind and men's adventuring.

Norway entered upon the arena of history with the advent of the Viking Age about the 7th century, AD., its people possessing an advanced and original culture, with a long tradition of favored poets and a wealth of poetic expression.

The great Mythology of the Norse had a firm and abiding influence on men's thoughts, way of life, and ambitions. Its numerous and restless pageantry of Divine Beings represented in their various aspects a spiritual affinity to the powers of nature and the complex forces of human life.

The introduction of Christianity in the 10th Century did not deter but rather heightened the almost explosive drive of the Viking Age, until its decline in the 12th Century. All through this great era of the North, Norway played her important role, which saw her ships widen the world's borders by discovery and settlement of new lands, and the opening of sea-roads toward the West which dramatically affected the future of Europe and the rest of the world.

Even today, in our modern age, her people seem still to possess some of the racial genius of the past, together with the inherent qualities of their natural environments. They still know the challenge and the irresistible lure of ships and Earth-embracing seas. About them is a trace reminiscent of steadfast mountains, the forests and moors, the valleys and highland fells, and skerries and islands, and Northlands adrift on the bosom of time through summer and sun.

Again Norway has resumed her place in the top rank among the nations. She has once more mothered a host of eminent persons, including Statesmen, Explorers, scientists, scholars, and artists, together with great poets, novelists and dramatists; also immortal music from the hands of her composers.

This creative exuberance affected the dreams and aspirations of people in every walk of life. The lyrics of the poets and the music of her mighty tune-smiths needed the voices of singers to be heard and appreciated. Soon every hamlet and town in the land were filled with song, and group-singing became a social and cultural asset to every community.

Wherever a Norwegian would fare in the world the song of Norway was dear to his heart. From the East Coast of America, and onward to the Middle-West, and finally to the Pacific Coast this heritage of music and song swept with each succeeding wave of immigration.

Male Chorus singing has been an integral part of Norwegian affairs in all the Coast cities for almost three-fourths of a century, and continues as an important factor in presenting and infusing a part of our cultural heritage into the life of our Western world.

Since the year of 1902, when the different singing organizations of the Coast organized the Pacific Coast Norwegian Singers Ass'n, there have been successive Sangerfests sponsored every year, with few exceptions, in the various Coast cities, culminating this year in Seattle, as the Fifty-First Sangerfest.

Why Should I Join?

S/N membership  means the uniting of men  and women  of Norwegian backgrounds  in furthering the ideals of Norwegian traditions. It means working together for social  enjoyment, community betterment, cultural appreciation  and individual  improvement.

The President's Greeting

It is my personal pleasure to welcome members and friends of the Pacific Coast Norwegian Singers Association to this, our fifty-first Sangerfest in our fair city of Seattle.

The rendering of Norwegian singing and folklore to our American brothers and friends, is a tradition we must uphold and pass on to future generations. May you enjoy the fellowship of your brother Singers attending this Sangerfest and carry back to your local choruses a renewed desire to strive for better harmony in singing and in relationship with one another.

To those newer Singers attending their first Sangerfest, may you grasp the harmonious spirit of your older brother Singers.

Program Notes

MIN DEILIGSTE TANKE. Most beautiful of Thoughts. The fading autumn leaves gather and spin them in, in my last song, most beautiful of thoughts. Leaves of memory, though faded, they cheer me—most beautiful of thoughts.

ULABRAND. A song to the memory of the intrepid and fearless pilot Ulabrand, who gave his life in his heroic effort.

VACKRA SKY. Beautiful Cloud whither goest thou? Beautiful Cloud.

BRUDEFAERDEN I HARDANGER. The Bridal Procession on the Hardangerfjord. The song describes the beautiful landscape, towering snow-clad cliffs and mountains, the deep blue of the fjord and the joyful singing of the Bridal Party.

HALLING. Hei, jump up and shout, and turn you about! Hei!

KLARA STJAERNA. Twinkling Star in heaven's deep blue, do not hide your eye to me. To the realms where you shine my soul is longing.

DEN STORE HVIDE FLOK, "THE GREAT WHITE HOST." Behold a Host arrayed in white, like thousand snow-clad mountains bright. Their voices they in worship raise, before the throne of God, "mid Angels" song of praise! This religious poem is from the prolific pen of the Bishop H. A. Brorson (1694-1722). The music, a Norwegian folk song arranged by Grieg, is one of the finest examples of Norwegian sacred music.

JAEGERSANG. The hunter's song, and the sound of his horn floats through the forests re-echoing in the stilly night.

LANDKJENDING (Land-Sighting). The poem is by Norway's great writer Bjornson and the music by the immortal Grieg. It is one of the most popular male chorus songs in the world, depicting the young Hero-King Olav Trygvason's return to his native Norway and the first impression of land he and his followers got from the gleaming mountain peaks and thundering waterfalls as they sailed in through the deep blue fjords in the shimmering sunlit air. In the solo the King gives profound expression for his belief, that here was home and here he would raise the Cross which should lift his spirit high and strong like the mighty mountains! His men intone the prayer, carrying the song to a grand soul stirring finish.

In Memoriam

Fortunate are those who through the long roll of the years have enriched their spirit with a wealth of fond and precious recollections. These are in truth the golden keys which open wide the portals to bygone days, and the unforgettable and never-dead past.

For the past is a dream within a living dream, bright with myriad glimpses of festive hours, with songs and singing, with glittering concerts and events, with comradeship and friendship, which made us brothers in spirit, in the close-knit and harmonious activities of a chorus.

Each Chorus in the Pacific Coast Norwegian Singers Association has counted many a grand and talented person among its members, and though they passed from this life, they left to us an invaluable contribution of great aims, enthusiasm and leadership.

Let us dwell on them in our thoughts, and bless their memory for what they gave to our hearts and minds in their joy of song and the radiance of their spirits.

CONCERNING THE FRONT COVER

History does not relate, nor does saga suggest that Leif Eriksson's striped-sailed Dragon ever reached our Pacific shores. Nevertheless, his descendants, as well as those of his Viking compatriots, invaded the area in vast numbers, found it beautiful and pleasing, and made it their home.

Soon, through the efforts of a small group of these descendants, Leif's likeness, as created by the skilled hands of our own director in chief, will be gazing regally across the waters of Puget Sound. Who can say: Perhaps his spirit will be aroused by Sangerfest tradition and will join lusty voice with ours in the beloved songs of the Northlands.

We wish to express our appreciation for the good will and support of friends, societies and business firms in making this program possible. This cooperation is necessary for a successful Sangerfest, and we are grateful for their assistance. Kindly help us show our appreciation by patronizing the firms which have given their support.
