

Western Rosemalers Association | Vol. 38 No.4 | October 2012

from the President

Note from Nina...

Seabeck is "a-commin" —it's nearly in sight. I am excited about this class. Patti Goke is the teacher. The object to be painted is a "chicken" tine. With a bit of luck, it will be done for a Show and Tell at our October meeting.

Our weather this last month has been great; but alas, not much painting because of it. Looking forward and not back brings us to the October meeting held in Bremerton on October 14. Roberta Morrow will be calling for next year's officers. Please consider running. There are only four meetings a year, so it shouldn't be a hard commitment. Nominations are due at the October meeting, and elections will be in January.

URGENT: Needed NOW a replacement for Bonnie Shannon. This is her final newsletter for us. PLEASE someone step up to the plate for the good of our WRA. Bonnie has done a fantastic job. I hope you all appreciate her as much as I do. As we all know, filling another's shoes is impossible. Thanks for a really terrific well done job. Ha det bra, Nina
