President's Message:

Greetings!

I hope you had a lovely time at Seabeck. I miss being there in the fall, and spending time with you all, but this year I had too many other things happening that week. I'll also miss our next meeting because of conflicts. Think I'm overbooked? Me too!

I've been corresponding with the folks at Fritjov Lodge...the outside of the building is now being painted. They base-painted the window trim boards, although they need sanding and a second base coat. We have an extra gallon of the base to distribute to you who are painting boards for the second base coat and any touching up you may need to do. Nina is kindly distributing boards at Seabeck. Be sure your name gets on the list of who has them! I also have some boards here for those not going to Seabeck. Let me know if you want to paint one. Please stick to traditional
