Western Rosemaler's Association

COMING MEETING: Sunday, January 25, 1976 3:00 p.m.

Little Richard Sandwich Shop, 117 E. 5th, Olympia, WA
(Coming from the north into Olympia, take exit 105-A - State Capital. Keep on the same road. Take the underpass and you will come up to Capital Way -- turn right -- drive down to 5th -- take a right -- the restaurant is on the right side of the street in the middle of the block. Coming from the south take exit 105 -- State Capital. Follow the State Capital arrow and it will bring you straight to the underpass. From there follow the directions underlined above.

We are looking forward to having Elsa Sjoavaag at our meeting in January. She will speak to us or be part of our program in some way. (Elsa is from Oslo, Norway. She is the author of ABC of ROSEMALING and ADVANCED ROSEMALING, and she teaches rosemaling in Norway.)

We will also have a mini-show of pieces of rosemaling. Will you please bring any piece of rosemaling you wish to put on display? This will be an un-judged show -- one just for everyone's enjoyment.

BELATED THANKS

Due to the lengthy September meeting, Chairman Florence Buck overlooked express-her thanks to the Edmonds committee for bringing the special goodies for the coffee hour. Therefore, she has requested that this be taken care of at this time. As Florence expressed it, "It was delightful."

WORKSHOPS

Elsa Sjoavaag will be in the area most of the month of January. From the 19th through the 30th she will be conducting classes at Pacific Lutheran University. (The tuition for these classes is $260, however, the class is full and closed.)

Though the class at P.L.U. is closed, Elsa has agreed to teach some workshops in the area. The following is the list of workshop dates, times and locations.

Tacoma -- 7411 So. Orchard

Jan. 5, 6, 7	9:00 - 12:00 a.m.	beginners	$18.00

Jan. 12, 13, 14	1:00 - 4:00 p.m.	beginners	$18.00
Jan. 12, 13, 14	7:00 - 10:00 p.m.	advanced	$18.00

For information about the workshops in Tacoma, call Florence Buck, JU4-5392. If you wish to sign up for a workshop in Tacoma, send a $10 deposit to Florence by January 1, 1976 at 9204 Division Lane S.W., Tacoma, WA, 98498.

For information about the workshops in Seattle, call Inger Svendsen, SU2-7366, or Mary Ellerman, 542-1592.

These workshops will be limited in number and will be on a first come basis. Therefore, it is extremely important that you register and make your deposit for the workshop as soon as possible. As the workshops become full, we will take names on a waiting list, but that is all we can do, so hurry.

In the beginner workshops, there will be practice boards painted in the desired colors available for you. If you wish to have a painted object ready to paint, there might be time to do so. In the advanced workshops, you will paint a 13"x17" door panel. Please prepare your own. It may be tag board, masonite, or wood painted in old white. Again it might be possible to paint on an object of your choice if you have it ready.

Following is a map to help you find the location of the Tacoma workshops.

Address: 7411 S. Orchard

Do not attempt to find this address by following Orchard -- it does not exist as a through street at this location. Go west of 74th and South Tacoma Way about $\frac{1}{2}$ mile. It is adjacent to Flett Dairy pasture.

SEATTLE TODAY

On January 9 Elsa Sjovaag and Florence Buck and others who are interested will be in the audience on the Seattle Today show on Channel 5, KING-TV. We will have one minute on the air to tell of the Western Rosemaler's Association and the Rosemaling show at PLU. There are 25 tickets available, and if you would like one, call Florence in Tacoma at JU4-5392 or Mary in Edmonds at 542-1592. We must be there by 8:30 a.m. If you have a costume, please wear it and how about going out to breakfast afterwards?

ROSEMALING SHOW AT PLU

During the month of January, Florence Buck will be presenting a show of Rosemaled woodenware done by the finest rosemalers of Norway. She visited most of these people during her recent visit to Norway. The show will be at Mortvedt Library on P.L.U. campus during the entire month and Florence will be in the library to give information about the artists and sell some of the pieces on each Sunday afternoon during January from 1:00 - 3:00 p.m. Don't miss it! This will be the largest showing of contemporary rosemaling to be on display in this country to date. This will be rosemaling at its best.

NORWEGIAN FESTIVAL AT EVERGREEN

Pat Morgan, Inger Svendsen, and Florence Buck demonstrated and Gurdrun Berg had rosemaling on display at the Norwegian Festival at Evergreen State College on Sunday, November 16. Pat Morgan was on the planning committee. Always fun to go to a festival if you can just find the place!
