The new Board took over in February. Inga Carmack stepped down as Treasurer. Thank you so much for your two years as President and then three years as Treasurer. We really appreciate your terms in office and the great job you did.

New on the Board, but not to WRA, is Nina Kurrle as Vice-President, and Carol Voigt is back in her old job as Treasurer. New member, Kim Neel, has taken over the Library from Elizabeth Estep. Everyone else is staying at their old jobs. Thanks from the bottom of my heart. I know we will have a good year.

Note that the April 25 Meeting is a week later than usual. Hope to see you all there. Tacoma, Olympia, Bremerton areas are to bring potluck. We will be showing a film on the Os style of rosemaling; and please bring 'show and tell' items.

We still need someone to organize the North Meeting in June. It will probably be held at the Nordic Museum in Ballard.

The Spring Major Workshop with Lois Clauson will be held at Julie Ann Hebert's home May 11, 12, and 13 and in the Gudbrandsdalen style.

Sunhild Mulbakken's plate will be the raffle item.

Happy Painting,
Marlene Echaniz, President

Dear Fellow Rosemalers,

If you haven't already done so, please call Karen Bell, of Embla Lodge #2, Daughters of Norway, to confirm space for sales of rosemal items, if you wish to sell at this year's Festival: 24 April, Pacific Lutheran University, in Student Center, from 11am-3pm. You can get any of your questions answered and also let her know number of tables you desire. As we'll be considered "Vendors" this year, you will pay 10% commission/total festival sales, dollar amount, to the host lodge, which is Embla. If checks need to be sent (I think Chris Engstrom will be there) after the festival, send to Chris Engstrom, Embla Treasurer, 2053 N. Fremont Street, Tacoma, WA 98406.

Thank you, Carol Voigt
