1961 Summer Playground Season Comes to Close

Summer's fading has brought an end to the 1961 Franklin Pierce School district — Pierce County Park Department jointly sponsored summer recreation program. A ten week playground season was in operation at James Sales, Dawson Playground, and Gonyea Park. An average of 200 children a week took part in various activities at each play area. Nine weeks of continuous swim instruction was offered at Tacoma's South End Pool with bus transportation provided by the Franklin Pierce School District. Numerous county-wide special events such as the Pierce County A.A.U. Junior Olympics, Playground Fair, and the all county visitation to Pt. Defiance Park attracted large numbers of local youngsters.

Summer Wedding For Midlandite

Miss Dorothy Wuestney exchanged wedding vows with Frederick McPherson, Saturday evening, August 19th, in a double-ring ceremony in the Faith Temple Church. Rev. O. P. Hansen solemnized the nuptials before an altar banked with two large baskets of pink and white gladioli. Two candle trees were filled with lighted pink and white tapers.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wuestney. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. David McPherson, of Midland.

Mrs. Roy Hickman, sister of the bride, was matron of honor; and bridesmaids were Mrs. Archie LaForge, sister of the bride, and Mrs. James Beckwith and Mrs. Robert Jamerson Jr., sisters of the bridegroom. Mr. James Beckwith, brother-in-law of the groom, was best man; and ushers were Robert Jamerson Jr., Bill McPherson, brother of the groom, and Bill Wuestney, brother of the bride.

Candlelighters were Sandy Hickman, niece of the bride, and Christie Gilliam, cousin of the bride; and their escorts were Danny LaForge and Danny Hickman, nephews of the bride. The ring bearer was George LaForge, nephew of the bride; and flower girls were Debbie Ladwig, cousin of the bride, and Jill Jamerson, niece of the bridegroom. Soloist at the wedding was Mrs. Wesley Haverland, aunt of the bridegroom.

The couple had chosen the wedding date as close as possible to the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McPherson, grandparents of the groom. A reception immediately following the wedding was held at the church.

The week prior to the wedding, a shower was held in honor of the future Mrs. McPherson, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David McPherson, with Mrs. James Beckwith and Mrs. Robert Jamerson Jr., as co-hostesses. Many lovely gifts were received by the honored guest. Also a groom's dinner party was held at the McPherson home for members of the bridal party on Saturday, August 12th.

After a short honeymoon, the couple will reside in Midland.

Golden Anniversary

A special invitation is extended to all friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. William H. McPherson, to an Open House being held in honor of their golden wedding anniversary, at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. David M. McPherson, next Sunday, August 27th, from 2 to 5 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. McPherson were married August 31st, 1911, in New Westminster, B.C., and made their home in North Vancouver, B.C., until 1914 when they moved to Tacoma, and they have lived in Midland for the past 17 years.

Besides their son, the McPhersons have six grandchildren and two great-grandchildren, all of whom will attend the anniversary party with their families. A special guest at the celebration will be Mrs. McPherson's 91-year-old mother, Mrs. Jennie Pederson.

Play School To Meet

Allen Speaks on Aircraft Problems

William M. Allen, president of The Boeing Airplane Company, put it very simply in an article which appeared in that company's monthly magazine when he said, "In brief, the challenge before the domestic manufacturer of transport aircraft is not simply one of offering the airlines a supersonic transport, but it is one of providing them with a new increment in speed and economy which will clearly offer advantages over airplanes in the present inventory."

Mr. Allen estimated that to construct and flight-test a prototype supersonic transport would cost approximately one hundred million dollars exclusive of engines.

A gentleman is one who is never offensive unintentionally.

Well, I'm sitting here feeling pretty good this week. Maybe humble is more in keeping with my feelings, for beyond a shadow of a doubt I found out that I have friends by the gross thruout Pierce County.

I knew I had friends and readers of this column but I didn't realize the scope of the readership. It sort of scares me. From time to time I've had someone tell me they read this column, they like it or words to that effect and although thankful for the warm words I have not considered the impact possible on a large majority of the population of one given area by such a column. To discover that there are many who regularly read and heed this column makes me pause and give due consideration to the fact that I certainly can ill afford to be wrong about what I write or treat the meat of my subjects in a frivolous manner without regard for fact.

Anyway, to get on with it, let me thank each and every one of you who showed a deep concern over the story in last week's Times Journal which could be misinterpreted to lead you to believe that I had sold out and was pulling up stakes.

I regret that we did not give a little more consideration to the story so that it could not possibly be misinterpreted. It seems that the misinterpretation was carried clear into the daily as well, they were kind enough to correct it the next day, however.

The facts are rather simple. I have leased a portion of my building, plant and the Times Journal and McChord Observer and Parkland and will hold the reins to this paper and the McChord paper. There is no sale involved as erroneously announced.

I've been asked countless times now whether I will continue this column. To be honest with you this change-over presents the perfect opportunity for me to get out from under this job which to a person of my meager mentality means a lot of work. I didn't say anything about it last week because I wasn't sure that I wanted to take the time each week to write this when I could be working on the Northwest Flyer, so I didn't commit myself. However, due to all the phone calls and words of encouragement from you, I plan to continue writing this column until one of the newcomers is well enough established in the community to know of its problems and has the time to dig into things each week. Until then I'll continue to shoot off my big mouth hoping to stimulate thinking in a direction that I feel will benefit us all and help preserve that which our forefathers handed down to us . . . our freedom.

Silence may be golden but sometimes it's just guilt.

Anyone who believes that a solution to a nation's medical problems is to put government in charge should read, word for word, an article in the July issue of Nation's Business by Dr. E. Lloyd Dawe.

Dr. Dawe—physician, surgeon and psychiatrist—is of English birth. He received his medical education in London, served four years as a medical officer in the British Army, and entered practice under the British National Health Service—the government body which administers England's program of socialized medicine. Subsequently Dr. Dawe left England in disgust and now practices in Connecticut.

His article deals with the experience of doctors and patients under the Health Service, and it is a sorry story indeed. Doctors are fined for prescribing drugs they believe their patients need, but which are not on the government's official list. In order to earn even a modest living, a doctor must handle an excessively large number of patients. There is a heavy burden of paper work, taking up time that should be given to practice. Hospitals are over-loaded, simply because they are "free"—that is, supported out of taxation—and so patients, particularly elderly ones, are shuffled off to them instead of being cared for at home by their families.

So it goes, with Dr. Dawe citing chapter and verse. The sum total is a serious downgrading of the medical services available to the majority of English people.

Dr. Dawe warns of the grave dangers that lie in proposed Congressional bills to give our own government substantial powers and responsibilities over medical care. His conclusion: "In this country I have found freedom of action and professional choice. Now I feel I am practicing in the best existing system in the world. It is not perfect. But we are striving to make it better. And the best medical care can be given only in the system where a doctor is not a government clerk but an individual with professional dignity and freedom."

I'm certainly inclined to agree with Dr. Dawe. At the present no one in our country goes without medical care because of lack of finances. This is as it should be for if we are to mother the world we certainly must see to our own as well, however, those of us who are not impoverished have a freedom of choice in the medical care of our families. We can join medical bureaus or buy medical insurance if we wish to finance our medical problems on a month to month basis, or we can elect to be absolutely free of any medical expenses until the need arises. Above all we are not herded into one big nation-wide clinic that we must pay for whether we use it or not and be faced with the fact that in time of need there would most certainly in time come to be a question as to the quality of professional service available under such a system.

As I see it, it's a cinch that the cream of our medical profession would never be satisfied to become just a cog in a government mill and would soon do as Dr. Dawe did, that is, look for some other place in the world to practice in, where initiative and personal effort would have a meaning.

Definition of a bachelor: A guy who has to get up early in the morning to make enough cash to stay out late.

One fact of life that challenges the laws of economics concerns the girl without principle drawing the most interest.

First thing for the gardener to do in selecting trees for his brand-new suburban yard is: stop and consider more than the immediate benefits.

How tall might it grow? How large a spread will the mature tree have? Will it be resistant to tree diseases prevalent in this area? Is it being planted for shade or for beauty? Is it hardy?

Your suburban nurseryman has the answers—and the trees—most likely to meet your needs. Consult him before you plant.

Be careful with lawnmowers. When using electric mowers, do not cut grass when it is wet. With power mowers, extreme caution should be observed when removing objects stuck in the blades. Turn engine off.

The three basic rights guaranteed under the rule of law are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. How can we enjoy these rights?
First, men and women must WANT these rights. There are many who are willing to go without some of their rights rather than bear the responsibilities that go with them. Furthermore, a lot of us are all for our own rights but don't much care about those of the other fellow. But our own rights are safe only for as long as we are willing to go to the defense of the rights of others.
Second, we must have a government genuinely concerned about the rights of the people and willing not only to state what these are but to enforce them. Millions of people are living under governments that have no such policy. We in America do have such a policy.
Third, there must be the necessary facilities for doing the job under the rule of law.
These we have in our courts of law—the representatives of the vast judicial system of our state and nation. Our courthouses are the cornerstones of the structure of government under law. Everyone in the courtrooms of the nation—the judge as presiding officer, the lawyers as officers of the court, and other citizens as litigants and jurors—share the responsibility of preserving, strengthening and passing on to future generations this judicial system which unconditionally guarantees equal justice under law.
For those living under the yoke of communism, the sight of a courthouse stirs fear and hopelessness. It evokes dread

Fence Line Feeder Plan Ready

By George Purcell
You beef cattle producers might be interested in a new plan I just received for building a Fence Line Feeder. I have pictures showing details of construction of this feeder and also of a newly designed bulk self-feeder silo. You may order direct from: Farm Building Plan Service, Agricultural Engineering Building, Oregon State College, Corvallis, Oregon. The charge is 25c per sheet plus a 35c service charge. Plan number is 5854—one sheet.
You also may be wondering soon about how to wean your calves. Rather than going to all the work of weaning each calf at different times, you might consider the more practical method of determining first of all when is the average seventh month age of your calf crop, then on that day separating all your calves from the mothers.
Too, you may be wondering how to clip your animals for the fall fairs. Clipping should be done 6 to 7 days before the show so that the clipped hair will lose its stubby appearance.
Not all animals are clipped. Usually custom decrees the following:
Steers:
(1) All tails clipped.
(2) Heads clipped if naturally polled or dehorned (clip the outside of the ears, but leave the inside untrimmed).
(3) Horned heads not clipped.
Breeding Cattle:
(1) Aberdeen-Angus — heads (but do not clip either the inside or the outside of the ears) and tails clipped.
(2) Shorthorns (both horned and polled). Neither tails nor heads clipped.
(3) Herefords (both horned and polled). Tails clipped; heads not clipped.
MISTAKE: If someone has suffered a nasty fall, rush over and help him to his feet.
FACT: If a fall victim has broken a bone, trying to help him up may increase his injury or even kill him. In the case of a broken rib, for example, moving the victim may cause the rib to poke his insides, like a screwdriver. If the patient starts to get up by himself but shows severe pain, suggest that he remain where he is until a doctor arrives.
We have no quarrel with the good citizens who are intent on building back yard bomb shelters. They would certainly be an improvement on caves if mankind ever chooses to embark on another prehistoric era.

One of the editors across the way hit it good in Las Vegas, we're told. He went down there with his $6,000 Jaguar and came back in a $45,000 Greyhound.

Farewell Party Honors Couple Bound for Korea

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Field of E. 72nd were host and hostess at a Farewell Party held at the Canyon Road Club last Sunday. The occasion was in honor of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Armstrong who are leaving for Korea where Mr. Armstrong will be with the Custom Service there for the next two years. The Armstrongs will leave Sept. 1 for Honolulu for a short vacation, spend a few days in Tokyo, and then travel to Seoul, Korea.

Guests
Mr. and Mrs. Tom Folk entertained Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Rogers of Aberdeen last week.
On Crutches
Mr. Lester Robinson of Bentley Road is getting around on crutches these days. He says he'll leave baseball to the youngsters after this.
Champion
In the private fish derby held at Westport between the Jack Leis' and the John Sauriol's, Gert Lee took top honors with her 23 lb. salmon. Lou Sauriol got the booby prize—a dog fish.

Congratulations
Our best wishes are extended to Miss Donna Mae Robinson and Mr. Robert A. Richardson upon the announcement of their engagement. Donna is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Robinson of Bentley Road, and Robert's parents are Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Richardson of Buckley. A beautiful bridal shower was given in Donna's honor by her cousin, Mrs. Bernice Ashlock.

Congratulations are also in order for Miss Linda Edith Munsey and Mr. Kenneth Lamont Barnes upon their engagement. Linda is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Munsey of Canyon Road and Kenneth is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Barnes of Puyallup.

Briefly on Beauty

Cleansing Problem
Here's help for enlarged pores: splash your face with cold water after each washing. Never use hot or steamy water if your pores are large. This will only relax the skin and add to the condition.
And remember, it's important to keep your skin thoroughly clean since enlarged pores can cause trouble when plugged with dirt.

Clean-Up Day Preparation For Lacamas Fair

Sunday, Aug. 27, is set for Clean-Up Day in preparation for the fair at Lacamas on Sept. 9. Pot lunch will be served at noon. With everyone turning out to help it will not be a burden on the few, and all can have a good time as well. Display racks and tables, tie stalls for cattle, pens for poultry, lunch counter arrangements and judging arena must be set up. Please bring your own tools. Also lawnmowers will be needed. There is also need for an electrician.

It was a "Blue" week for the Lacamas youngsters who entered exhibits at the Southwest Washington Fair. Bug Buddies 4-H Club brought home 14 Blue Ribbons. Eleanor Trusler, Henry Trusler, Larry Smith each had three; Nick Broz and Rex Dickey each 2, and Elsie Trusler 1. Mix Masters exhibits were Elsie Trusler 1 blue and Eleanor 2 blues on their baking. They are all ready for the Lacamas Fair on Sept. 9.

On Saturday evening, Sept. 12, Gail Loveland and SP4 Roy Reeder Jr., were married in a lovely garden wedding at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Loveland. Little Leaguer

By Hank O'Neill
The distance from short to first base is over 100 feet. For that reason the shortstop must have a very strong arm. If he has a weak arm it should be at least 98 feet long so that he can hand the ball to his first baseman.

Many Little League shortstops must think they are real pitchers. They spend a minute or two getting organized to throw, take the full windup with a double pump and then fling a long, change-of-pace curve to the first baseman with the runner safe by ten minutes.

A good shortstop throws the ball as soon as he gets it. He also throws the ball as straight as a snake in a waterpipe. You and the first baseman will be friends for a long time if you don't tie him into a pretzel trying to catch curve balls.

Practicing to catch grounders is one of the best things a shortstop can ever do. (By the way, if a shortstop can't catch a grounder, he won't have to worry a lot about throwing.)

The shortstop has a lot of territory to cover. He must be able to go to his left or right faster than peanuts at a monkey convention. In real life the shortstop plays many other positions than his own. On certain plays like a bunt, he becomes second baseman, or third baseman. Almost all the time he is a fourth out-fielder. Then too, he must be ready to back up almost every player on the field.

The shortstop should know how and when to make a double play. For most Little Leaguers this play is so difficult you should cheer even if the other team does it.
