Committee Hears Facts About Plan

The Citizens Committee for Sewers for Parkland moved into high gear Monday night at a meeting in which the facts of the upcoming bond election were presented.

Dr. Charles O. Evans, co-chairman of the committee with Dr. Anders Ramstad, presented the case to the Committee. Clayton Peterson, vice-president of Pacific Lutheran University, gave the Committee a run-down on the various aspects of the District plans for attaining the sewer system. Members of the committee in attendance at the meeting were: Dr. Jack Schnoor, Peter Ristuben, Carl Lindgren, Charles Peterson, Dick Deveraux, Joe Running, Ray Kelfisch, George Potter, Arnold Hagen, Olaf Jordahl, Ole Kittleson, John Hoke, Mel Pederson, Ed Brown and Cliff Korsmo. Other active in the committee are Sam Harris and Verne Ashford.

Among the points brought out at the meeting was the progressive character of Parkland. Possessor of one of the finest fire departments in the state;

A water company which is noted for its excellent service, high water quality and low rates;

One of the best street lighting systems in the state;

The top branch library in Pierce County;

And a fully accredited and nationally recognized

University.

It was also pointed out that a Yes vote on the proposal would mean:

That the commissioners could begin to develop working plans for a sewer system, but also,

No construction could be started until all property owners have the opportunity to discuss proposed assessments on property at two public hearings on the assessment roll, and until a majority of the property owners had agreed to form a Utility Local Improvement District.

The vote on November 6th will give voters in the Parkland Sewer District the opportunity to approve, will provide funds for sewer mains for all properties, a collection system and 36" trunk line to a treatment plant to be constructed for the treatment and discharge of the effluent into salt water in accordance with state laws and regulations.

The bonds issued for the construction of the system, if approved, will be paid off from revenues from the system and not from general taxes, it was pointed out.

Another point made at the meeting was the rising cost of sewer construction. Since the district was formed in 1954 costs have risen at least 35%, according to the experts who are estimating costs for the project.

Nicest Neighbors Apologize For Accident to Dog

Special to our Parkland Spanaway readers. Do you have a medium-sized white dog, with brown or black spots that has been injured recently?

A dog of that approximate description ran suddenly in front of a slow-moving car near the D&W Garage at 164th and Pacific Avenue last Sunday afternoon, and suffered undetermined injuries. The driver of the car and his wife stopped and searched for the dog over a several block area, but were unable to locate it. The family feels that the dog was quite possibly a child's pet, and wish to apologize for the accident and to make restitution, if possible.

Inquiries can be made to the Times Journal.

PLU Graduate Designs Device To Speed Tests

Richard S. Olsen, a Pacific Lutheran University graduate, has teamed with an Oregon State University professor to develop a check valve which will simplify and speed up chemical laboratory projects.

Olsen, who finished PLU in '59, and Walter Meyer under whom he is doing graduate work at OSU, have invented a valve which makes possible a continuous process of ion exchange. The resin used in ion exchange has posed problems in the past, and the check valve developed by these two men cuts down on the time involved in ion exchange and increased the efficiency of the operation.

The work of these two men was featured in the Sept. 17, 1962 issue of "Chemical and Engineering News," the professional publication of the American Chemical Society.

Olsen is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Robert C. Olsen, 821 S. 124th St. Dr. Olsen is professor of chemistry at PLU.

Storm Damage Severe As Area Hit By Winds

Storm Leaves Wide Area Of Destruction

Damaged extensively by the "night of the big wind" Parkland, Spanaway and other areas in Southeast Pierce County were being repaired and put back into order this week.

With winds of over 85 miles per hour recorded during the height of the storm the pride of the area, its tall trees, were whipped and smashed to the ground with the result that looked as if a berserk giant had wandered the area flailing the forests as if at so much tall grass.

With the damage being reported from all parts of the area, reports indicated that other parts of the County suffered more concentrated damage.

The Wind Blew—

Power and Phone crews were still cleaning up on Tuesday and prospects were for getting back to normal. Some power lines were still out of service and phone lines will take some time to repair.

Power companies indicated that crews have been on long shifts since the storm hit and were getting to the problem areas as fast as possible. Phones in south Pierce County were still out in many areas Tuesday, but crews were working to repair the damage.

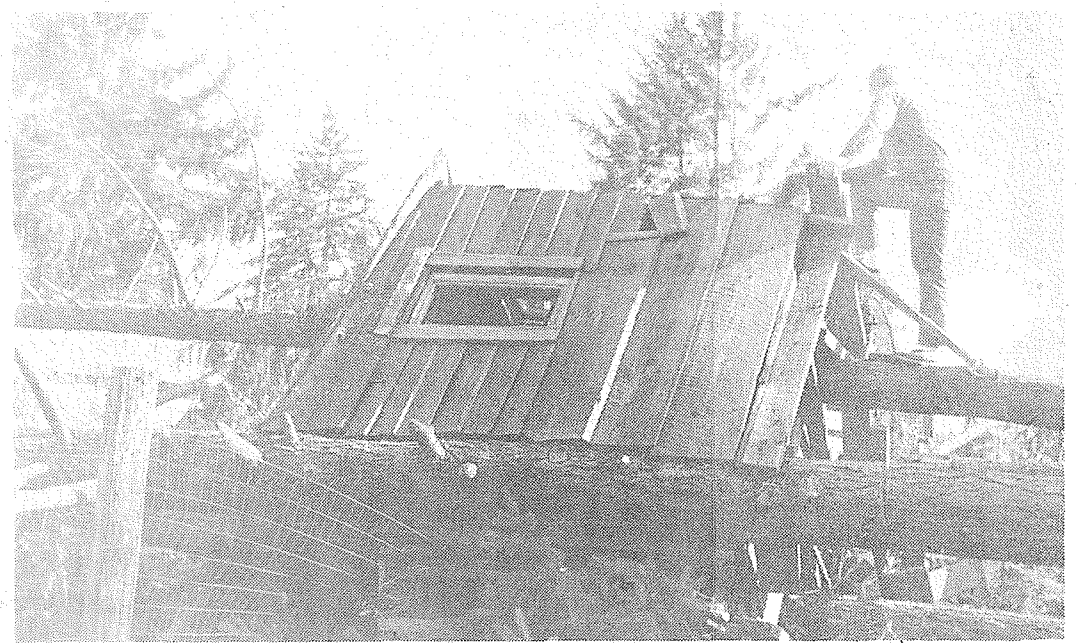

The litter from the storm was being gathered up and burned in efforts to dispose of the trash left by the seven-hour blow.

Fire chiefs in the County protection district warned householders to be careful in their burning efforts.

ARCHITECT'S DRAWING shows two views of the proposed parish educational building of the Parkland Evangelical Lutheran Church which will be built to replace the school building which has been in use since 1903. Ground-breaking ceremonies are planned for Sunday, October 21, at 10:30 a.m. The structure is at 123rd and Pacific Avenue. Rev. Hans Theiste is the pastor of the church and Boyd Wermiedahl is principal of the school.

Ground-Breaking Ceremonies Planned For Parkland Lutheran Addition

Ground-breaking ceremonies are planned for Sunday, Oct. 21st at 10:30 a.m. for the new Parish Education Building of the Parkland Evangelical Lutheran Church at 123 and Pacific Ave. Construction is expected to begin shortly thereafter.

The new building, to be erected by Don O'Neill of Tahoma Home Builders, will replace the school building used since 1903.

The Parish Education building is designed for multi-purpose use and will accommodate the Sunday School classes as well as the eight grades of the elementary school operated by the congregation.

The large Parish Hall will serve for all social events sponsored by the various organizations of the congregations, entertainments and dramatic productions.

Johnson-Austin and Associates designed the structure and worked out all the construction details. The building is 40' x 90' and with exposed basement and grade level superstructure will contain 7200 sq. feet of floor space.

The upper level will have three large class rooms located on the south side of the building, each accommodating 25 students. Adequate cabinets for storage, work tables, wash basin, bulletin boards and black boards as well as best type students desks will be furnished for each room.

Along the north side of the upper floor will be the two wash rooms, a supply storage room, a receptionist's office and the office of the principal.

Wide halls will divide the upper floor and a breeze-way will connect the upper floor with the main floor of the present sanctuary.

A large stage and a modern kitchen are features of the basement. Folding doors will separate Sunday school classrooms from the furnace room, janitor space and wash rooms.

Cost of the building is set at $65,000.

Parkland Evangelical Lutheran Church was organized in 1892 under the leadership of the Rev. Harstad, pioneer Lutheran pastor in the area. The congregation is affiliated with the Evangelical Lutheran Synod. The present church structure was erected in 1948 while the Rev. Walter Gullison was pastor.

In 1958 the present parsonage was built. Rev. Hans Theiste is the pastor and Mr. Boyd Wermiedahl is school principal.

Your Growing Garden

Harriet Kennedy

What an appropriate week to do a column on pruning - right after Mother Nature beat us all to it during last Friday night's wind storm. Again this has proven that when we neglect to prune and care for our shrubs and trees, nature will take over, in this case, quite ruthlessly. Reporters who covered the storm beat said that the early seasons storm following a cool summer caught the large deciduous trees while they were heavy with foliage. This gave the wind more density to push against to topple over the trees. Other reasons for the disaster to both conifer and deciduous trees was because the trees had been neglected through the years. The ones which had been fertilized regularly, watered properly by neither drowning them nor allowing them to dry out, and pruned properly, including topping them when necessary, did a lot better during the storm.

We live in a tall tree country and we love it. The Fir trees especially look so strong and stately yet are so often shallow rooted, many of them have weakened cores. Those who have any kind of tall trees close to buildings or utility wires can be in real trouble during wind storms of even lesser velocity. It is better to replace them before they get too large either with the same type of tree or, preferably, with ones which will not grow as high.

Even when trees are growing at a safe distance they should be examined to see if they are sound. They too should be topped, pruned and cared for.

First get a good tree wound preparation from your garden shop, for ALL cuts must be treated. All cuts must be smooth and flush with the trunk or smooth and slanted down and inward when cut next to a bud. Large broken off limbs that must be cut back to the trunk should still be cut off in sections so that the bark will not rip back down the trunk. Cut down about 1/3 through the limb, then an inch closer to the trunk cut upwards until the limb drops. The last cut should be no further than one foot from the trunk, then make your final cut smooth and flush with the trunk.

Prune all broken, dead, dying, bruised, those injured from disease or insects, and those which are rubbing against another branch. These are always the things to prune first. The tall trees that were uprooted are gone for good, but the smaller shrubs may be saved. Sprinkle natural rock agricultural minerals generously on the exposed soil and roots. Add compost that is mixed with soil and replant the shrub. Water with liquid seaweed and top with mulch. If fairly young trees were uprooted but the roots not damaged too much you can take a chance on saving them too. Just be sure to start from scratch preparing a big deep hole in the manner described in a recent column in the Times Journal. It is of utmost importance to first check the roots of all uprooted trees and shrubs to see if they have been torn or injured. If they have, then these must be cut above the injury with a clean smooth cut and dust with the minerals.

Many trees and shrubs should not be pruned at this time, but because of the storm we'd better cover the whole pruning problem in the next one or two columns.

State Patrolmen Tie For Nation's Highest Traffic Award

The State of Washington has long been acclaimed the safest state in the West--and rightfully so, because official records prove Washington's highways have less deaths per miles of travel than any of the other Western States.

Not being satisfied with this honor, Chief Roy A. Betlach charged up his Officers last year by telling them such a record wasn't good enough yet. "Although our record in Washington is good on a comparative basis," Betlach said, "people are still being maimed and killed by irresponsible drivers." Betlach told each Officer he wanted a more concerted effort to stop the accidents. Obviously his men took him seriously, because it has just recently been announced that the State of Washington has tied for first place in the nation for an award given for Police Supervision in traffic during the year 1961.

"Naturally we are pleased to receive this honor," Betlach stated, "and we are certainly thankful for those lives which may have been spared by the efforts of our Officers. Of course, we cannot help but realize that the public itself should share in this honor --for without their co-operation our job would be fruitless."

The State of California and North Carolina were the other two states which received the coveted honor among police departments. The three states received a grade of 95% out of a possible

Heart Aids To Be Used In Classroom

Three thousand Tacoma and Pierce County public and private school pupils will soon be using Heart Association materials in their Health classes, Mrs. Bruce Brown, School Health Chairman for Pierce County Heart announced today.

In the past three weeks Heart volunteers have packed and shipped materials for over a hundred classrooms ranging from the first through ninth grades. The materials are designed to teach the student how the heart works and how to care for it.

Mrs. Brown announced the Heart materials are also available to Cub Scout, Boy Scout, Brownies, Blue Birds and Camp Fire groups who wish to use the aid in their health studies. The Heart Association speaker's bureau will provide physical speakers for classes if requested.

Aids for teachers include large wall charts of the heart and of the circulatory system, "take apart" heart models, films and science projects on the heart and circulatory system. Teachers also received guides to working with the cardiac child in the classroom.

Aids for the students include notebook size charts of the heart and circulatory system, notebook size pamphlets about the bloodstream, and "Heart Puzzles" which the student and teacher can use to test the student's knowledge about the heart.

Any city or county, public or private school teacher who wishes a supply of the teacher and student materials may request them by calling the Heart office.

Variety is said to be the spice of life, but it's mono-cary that provides the groceries.

Batali Shows Wrinkle In Politics

Dino Batali, Democratic candidate for state legislature in the 29th district, has introduced a new politicking technique into his notably original and vigorous campaign, the periodic position paper. From now until the election, Batali, of the dinosaur trademark and slogan, He Won't Let You Down, will issue single sheet statements outlining his position on all vital issues affecting the voters, contrasting his stand with the voting record of the incumbents, who, says Batali, "let us down."

The first position paper affirms Batali's stand for consumer protective legislation, a positive approach to combating juvenile delinquency, fair and adequate compensation for workmen injured on the job, low cost public power, equal employment opportunity for all, distribution of farm surplus food to the needy and for periodic review of pension plans to make them realistic in the light and current needs.

of duty in the Midland Fire Department. Also honored was Deputy Chief Albert Bombardier and his wife, Viola, who also have been active in the Fire Department for the past twenty years.

The Auxiliary acted as hostesses, with Mrs. William Shanahan chairman, assisted by Mrs. Albert Bombardier, Mrs. Walter Olsen, Mrs. Richard Johnson, and Mrs. Edward Burness.

Charter members attending were Mr. and Mrs. David McPherson, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bombardier, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Johann, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bassett, Mr. and Mrs. George Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Eshpeter, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Frank Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Bowlin, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Clarke, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lange, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Verner, Mr. and Mrs. John Deering, Mrs. Verna Lloyd, Mrs. Helen Robinson, Mr. Edward Hamilton and Mr. C. A. Stockton.

Firemen and their wives attending were Mr. and Mrs. Donald Kemp, Mr. and Mrs. William Shanahan, Mr. and Mrs. Verne Blauvelt, Mr. and Mrs.

According to the first position paper, both his opponents have consistently voted negatively on each one of these issues affecting every citizen. The documented review of their voting records lists both incumbents as having voted against all legislation bearing on these areas, including consumer protection laws (HB 141, city-financed employee pensions, (HB 279), the highly successful Youth Conservation Corps to combat juvenile delinquency (SB 557), adequate compensation for injured workmen (HB 643), public power (HB 197), prevention of employment discrimination for citizens over 45, (HB 22), distribution of surplus farm products to the needy, (HB 519), and periodic review of cost of living in relation to pension plans (HB 111).

Summing up the two incumbents' identical voting record, Mr. Batali appeals to voters in the 29th to elect him as a "representative you can count on," who "won't let you down."

The entire series of Position Papers are available on request from the candidate, Dino Batali, 2102 Seaview Ave. or SK 2-7465 or FU 3-5427.

Speakers On SJR 21 Can Appear Before Groups

Speakers who can discuss SJR 21, which is on the November 6 general election ballot, are available to appear before service clubs, business groups or other organizations in Parkland, Spanaway or other places in Pierce county, it was announced this week.

A speakers bureau in favor of Senate Joint Resolution 21 has been set up by the Pierce County branch of the Japanese American Citizens League. Yosh Kosai, 1214 1/2 S. Yakima Ave., Tacoma is chairman.

If passed by the voters, SJR 21 will amend the state constitution by removing an old law which has discriminated against persons of Oriental ancestry in the matter of owning land.

Tak Kubota, Seattle, chairman of the Committee on Abolishing Restrictions on Land Ownership, said SJR 21 would "remove an old, discriminatory law which is out of step with present-day ideas of equality and fair play."

A similar measure got a 50-50 vote in Pierce County in the 1960 general election, and lost narrowly in the state as a whole.

For 60 years the main discriminatory effect of the law has been against Japanese American residents of Washington, including the great majority who are native-born or naturalized American citizens, Kaz Yamane, public relations chairman of the Pierce County JACL, said.

A "Yes" vote on SJR 21 is endorsed by Rep. Thor Tollefson, the Tacoma Council of Churches, the state Grange and state Farm Bureau, the Washington State Labor Council, and many other civic organizations, Yamane said.

Speakers may be obtained by contacting Kosai at FU 3-3311.

Time To Seed Temporary Pasture Land

Need more late fall and early spring pasture? If so, Jack Crawford, county Extension agent, says now's a good time to start doing something about it.

If you have plowed out an old pasture and plan to reseed it next spring, consider seeding the acreage down to Abruzzi rye this fall.

WSU research shows that seeding Abruzzi rye can mean another ton and a half of dry matter for cows this fall and next spring. Early spring growth of rye provides feed and permits the cows to go on pasture earlier without damage to permanent pasture. The rye will also provide valuable organic matter to the soil when it is plowed under before the permanent pasture is seeded. The temporary rye pasture also helps control weeds.

Recommendation of Abruzzi rye for fall planting is based on cereal trials conducted by WSU's Western Washington Experiment Station at Puyallup. The work was done by Dr. Herman Austenson.

Dr. Austenson seeded Abruzzi, Balboa, Tetra Petkus and common rye, Sun wheat, and Gray winter oats on October 11 and harvested them April 24.

Abruzzi and Balboa rye yielded 1.46 tons of dry matter per acre; Tetra Petkus yielded 1.16 tons; and common rye .68 tons. Sun wheat yielded .59 tons of dry matter, and Gray winter oats, .44 tons.

Abruzzi and Balboa rye were 37 inches high when harvested. Tetra Petkus was 28 inches high, and common rye, 14 inches. Sun wheat was standing up 10 inches high and Gray oats, 9 inches.

Land Shows Decrease In Pierce County

Five reports presenting the results of new forest inventories for seven counties in northwestern Washington were recently released by Robert W. Cowlin, Director of the Pacific Northwest Forest and Range Experiment Station, U.S. Forest Service, Portland, Oregon. These new inventories are based on forest surveys completed in 1959 and 1960.

The reports are: Forest Statistics for Pierce County, Forest Survey Report 141; Forest Statistics for San Juan, Island, and Kitsap Counties, Forest Survey Report 142; Forest Statistics for King County, Forest Survey Report 143; Forest Statistics for Jefferson County, Forest Survey Report 144; and Forest Statistics for Clallam County, Forest Survey Report 145.

The reports indicate that commercial forest land area in Clallam, Jefferson, King, and Pierce counties has decreased since the last previous inventory, but has increased slightly in San Juan, Island, and Kitsap counties. One of the major causes of the decrease in commercial forest land area has been the increase in urban development, particularly in King and Pierce counties.

Land Shows Decrease In Pierce County

Since the last previous inventory in 1940-41, the volume of softwood sawtimber shows a substantial decrease in King, Pierce, and Clallam counties and an increase in Jefferson, San Juan, Island, and Kitsap counties. The major decreases have occurred in the more valuable species such as Douglas-fir, western hemlock, and western redcedar. The volume of hardwoods shows a marked increase in all counties.

Copies of these reports may be obtained without charge from the Pacific Northwest Forest and Range Experiment Station, P.O. Box 3141, Portland 8, Oregon.

Canyon Road News

After many weeks of waiting, work on our new Canyon Road began only to be halted by breaks in the water pipes. This report says all is under control and work has been resumed.

Mrs. Fleta Panchot of East 84th St. entertained the Betty Briting Group of the First Christian Church at a 12 noon luncheon last Thursday. Guest of honor was Mrs. Annabell Hollenbeck, President of the Christian Women Fellowship. There were sixteen ladies present.

Miss Fleta Panchot, daughter of Mrs. Fleta Panchot, spent a week with her mother. She makes her home in Seattle where she is employed at Frederick-Nelson.

A surprise housewarming was held on Mr. and Mrs. Richard Rogers last Sunday when about 100 friends and relatives gathered to rejoice over the Roger's new home on Fairveiw Road.

"Send Me No Flowers" is the name of a light comedy being held at the Tacoma Little Theatre Tuesday, Oct. 23rd. This affair is being sponsored by Amarath with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Jackson of East 72nd of Destiny Court and Mr. an Mrs. Robert Akin of Paradise Court as Ways and Means. Come early as there can be no reservations. Adults $2, students 78¢. Host and hostesses are Mrs. Kenneth Lawrence and Mr. Stan Hopkins of Destiny Court and Mrs. Mary Ellen Sambila and Mr. L. Wayne Burchfield of Paradise Court.

The recent near hurricane seems to have swept lightly over our community in comparison to others. A large tree belonging to the Everett Peaks' of East 72nd fell knocking over power lines so at this time all residents east of the Peak's home to Canyon Road are out of service. Breakfast was served Saturday morning at the John Folks' hoem on Canyon Road cooked on an old cookstove set up in their patio room.

Graham Sailor Ends Training

Let Me Tell One:

This is Newspaper Week. This week publishers all over the country are taking a look at their product and making the comparison with what it was last year.

For good or ill, each of us has changed, because there is no standing still. We either move forward or we fall back and it is good to take stock and measure progress against the yardstick which means most to each individual, the past.

This should be true of every week in the year, including pickle week and national auto wreckers week.

In looking over our first year as publisher of the Times Journal, not everything I see is good. Neither is it all bad. We are progressing, I think, and will continue to progress as long as we get the much needed support which has been given by the people in this area. Without apologizing or making excuses, I would like to point out that we make mistakes, sometimes very great ones. We also do our job pretty well, and the latter times outweigh the former by quite a lot.

To say that we do a good job is not bragging but rather a compliment to the staff of the Times Journal.

To Darrell Dugan and Val Crowston, advertising salesmen and photographer, dark room habitue (in Darrell's case) and ready to take on the most hair-brained idea that any publisher ever thought up and try it.

To Dave Hibbard and Dick Macelle, printers who have gone a long way with our ideas and have contributed ideas of their own to the production of this paper. Producing as many pages per week as they do is quite a feat.

To Ruth Thompson, news editor, Nina Fields, layout artist, and Lee Wise, who's contribution is so varied as to be almost unclassifiable, and Janice Decker, typist, it would be tough to try to get along without the contributions made by this group.

To Wayne Johnson, circulation manager, without whose efforts a week's work would be in vain, and who cheerfully takes on any and all jobs.

And, last but not least, Chet Chamberlain, who makes sure the books balance, in spite of our efforts to upset the applier on a fairly regular basis.

To our help in times of rush, Eva Chamberlain and Gloria Dugan, our compliments are added. That's our staff and a hard one to beat.

Public Reception Planned For Mrs. Jackson

The women of Pierce County will have the opportunity next Wednesday, Oct. 24th to meet Mrs. Henry M. Jackson, wife of Senator Jackson, at a public reception at the Doric Hotel from 2 to 5 p.m. Hostesses for the event will be Mrs. Morley Brotman, Mrs. Paul Lemcke and Mrs. Martin A. Tetric Jr.

The Democratic Women's Club of Pierce County under the direction of Mrs. Ernest Walk will assist in the arrangements. Mrs. Eugene Carden Jr. of Midland, will pour. The Capitol District Garden Club will have charge of the decorations.

All ladies who are interested in meeting Mrs. Jackson are invited.

Let's Put An End To TAX STRANGULATION

Two years ago, the Legislature voted more than $21,000,000 in extra taxes—right on top of a 112 million tax increase the previous biennium. How much longer are we to allow this condition to exist? Established businesses are being taxed out of existence, unemployment rolls are swelling, and new industries are looking elsewhere for a fair shake. We can lick these problems if we try!

With Jack Brown

I've always wondered what the percentage of hunters was to deer each year and Sunday I got a pretty good idea. I had to go down into Oregon and as I blasted off the Spanaway airport and headed south I remembered that deer season was open and instead of picking up a couple of miles of altitude I leveled off over the tree tops and headed towards Portland, just skipping over the hill tops. Well all I can say is that there just aren't enough deer to go around. Looking down I saw cars, trucks campers and trailers parked on every wide spot on every old logging road in the country. Red hats, yellow hats and fluorescent shirts flashed their brilliant hues up at me from behind every little knoll. It's unbelievable just how many nimrods take to the hills each year and just how close they are scattered thru the woods.

It looks to me like a person nowadays can't miss. If you shoot at a deer and miss you're bound to get another hunter as a consolation prize.

Me? I've just decided to keep my money in my pocket and stay out of the woods. Hunting used to be something you could enjoy in comparative safety but with our population explosion here in the west it has all the earmarks of becoming a dangerous farce.

What a wonderful place this old world would be if we all lived each day so that if something happened to us it couldn't happen to a nicer person.

One of the best things that I think has ever happened is the re-awakening of many of our citizens of late. Quite a few cases have come to my attention wherein a person I know has suddenly decided to stand up and fight for his or her rights as a free American.

Thru the years an apathy towards the slow dissipation of our rights by the public has led many who head various branches of the government and other organizations to think that they can just about cram anything they want to down the throats of those whom they come in direct contact with. It would seem to me that many of these people are in for a rude awakening for unless I miss reading the signs, Americans are slowly coming back to life like a sleeping giant awakening after the "little ones" have trod all over him.

America needs no rable rousers but does need (and I believe is getting more each day) Americans who are finding that their backbone is still there and suddenly are standing proud and erect taking a stand for what they know and believe to be right. Its high time to stop the nibbling away of our freedoms and start reclaiming a few that we have lost. If you believe anything, then believe it so strong that you are not afraid to take a stand on it, and these freedoms will be regained.

I can't help getting my mind in the air this week for once again I feel that each and everyone of you are missing an education. An education this time in the destructive forces of old mother nature. Since the storm the other night I have flown over most of western Washington and Oregon and I'll tell you this, never from reading about it or looking at the few meager pictures shown, will you get any idea of the devastation until you get into the air and see for yourself.

I have looked down on millions of trees blown down, hundreds and hundreds of roofs blown off and innumerable barns razed. I've seen piles of lumber strewn for miles, looking every bit like a spilled box of toothpicks from the air. Dead animals killed by flying debris dot the fields. Power crews can be seen working everywhere and thousands and thousands of small fires send their bluish smoke aloft as homeowners burn fallen limbs and debris.

My family has seen this and I believe it has been an education to them for I know that the word storm will have a much more significant meaning to them in the future. It's too bad so many of you are earthbound. You miss so much of the good and bad of life that it seems a shame to me and I honestly feel sorry for you and your children.

Abolishing Restrictions on Land Ownership

Proposed Amendment to the State Constitution

to be voted on NOVEMBER 6, 1962

OFFICIAL BALLOT TITLE

Senate Joint Resolution No. 21
ABOLISHING RESTRICTIONS ON LAND OWNERSHIP

Shall the constitutional restriction upon the ownership of land in the State of Washington by certain non-citizens be removed by repealing Section 33, Article II, as amended by Amendments 24 and 29 of the State Constitution?

VOTE CAST BY 1961 STATE LEGISLATURE ON FINAL PASSAGE:
SENATE: 49 members—41 Yeas; 6 Nays; 2 Absent or not voting
HOUSE: 99 Members—90 Yeas; 0 Nays; 9 Absent or not voting

EXPLANATORY COMMENT

Issued By The Attorney General As Required By Law

THE LAW AS IT NOW EXISTS:

The State Constitution now prohibits the ownership of certain land by certain non-citizens.

Ownership of land in this state by non-citizens who have not declared their intention to become United States citizens is prohibited, except where acquired by inheritance, under mortgage or in good faith in the ordinary course of justice in the collection of debts.

The prohibition does not apply to Canadian citizens of those provinces which do not prohibit the ownership of provincial lands by citizens of Washington, nor to non-citizens owning land through a corporation. In addition, the prohibition does not cover lands containing certain minerals and necessary land for mills and machinery to be used in developing those minerals and in manufacturing products from such minerals.

EFFECT OF SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 21 IF APPROVED INTO LAW:

The passage of the proposed constitutional amendment would repeal the existing constitutional prohibition against ownership of lands by non-citizens.

Voters' Pamphlet—Publication and Distribution

Proposed Amendment to the State Constitution

to be voted on NOVEMBER 6, 1962

OFFICIAL BALLOT TITLE

Senate Joint Resolution No. 9
VOTERS' PAMPHLET—PUBLICATION AND DISTRIBUTION

Shall Article II, Section 1, Amendment 7 of the State Constitution which presently directs the Secretary of State to send each registered voter a copy of the voters' pamphlet (a publication containing the laws and constitutional amendments referred to the people together with arguments for and against each measure) be amended so as to require only mailing to each individual place of residence, together with such other distribution as the Secretary of State deems necessary?

VOTE CAST BY 1961 STATE LEGISLATURE ON FINAL PASSAGE:
SENATE: 49 Members—44 Yeas; 1 Nay; 4 Absent or not voting
HOUSE: 99 Members—88 Yeas; 1 Nay; 10 Absent or not voting

EXPLANATORY COMMENT

Issued By The Attorney General As Required By Law

THE LAW AS IT NOW EXISTS:

Presently, our State Constitution requires the Secretary of State to send one copy of the voters' pamphlet to each registered voter.

EFFECT OF SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 9 IF APPROVED INTO LAW:

The proposed constitutional amendment requires the Secretary of State to send one copy of the voters' pamphlet to each individual place of residence (instead of to each registered voter) and further requires that he make whatever additional distribution he deems reasonably necessary to provide each registered voter an opportunity to study such pamphlet.

Proposed Amendment to the State Constitution

to be voted on NOVEMBER 6, 1962

OFFICIAL BALLOT TITLE

Substitute Senate Joint Resolution No. 1
SCHOOL DISTRICTS: INCREASING LEVY PERIODS

Shall the State Constitution be amended to permit school district voters to authorize tax levies in excess of the 40-mill limit at a specified maximum rate for up to four years for operations and/or capital outlay, if the proposition or propositions be approved by a three-fifths majority, and the number of voters voting thereon constitutes not less than forty percent of the votes cast at the last preceding general election in such district?

VOTE CAST BY 1961 STATE LEGISLATURE ON FINAL PASSAGE:
SENATE: 49 Members—42 Yeas; 1 Nay; 6 Absent or not voting
HOUSE: 99 Members—92 Yeas; 2 Nays; 5 Absent or not voting

EXPLANATORY COMMENT

Issued By The Attorney General As Required By Law

THE LAW AS IT NOW EXISTS:

Article VII, section 2, Amendment 17, of the State Constitution (commonly known as the 40-mill limit provision) limits the aggregate of property tax levies by the state and taxing districts, including school districts, to forty mills on the dollar of assessed valuation, except that the voters of a taxing district, under certain specified conditions, may authorize the following levies in excess of the 40-mill limit:

- (a) An excess levy for one year.
- (b) Excess levies sufficient to meet the required annual payments of principal and interest on general obligation bonds issued solely for capital purposes, other than the replacement of equipment, or to refund such general obligation bonds.

In each case, the proposition must be approved by a three-fifths majority of the voters at an election where the number of persons voting constitute not less than forty percent of the total number of votes cast in such taxing district at the last preceding general election.

There are further limitations as to the number of such propositions and the time within which they may be submitted to the people.

EFFECT OF SUBSTITUTE SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 1 IF APPROVED INTO LAW:

The proposed constitutional amendment would add a new subsection additionally permitting school district voters to authorize, at a single election, tax levies in excess of the 40-mill limit for a specified number of years, not to exceed four years, for either operations or capital outlay purposes, or both. Such propositions would be subject to the same percentage requirements for voter approval as now govern excess levies.

No school district would be permitted to submit to the voters a proposition to authorize additional levies under the new subsection for any year for which the voters have previously authorized an excess levy under this subsection for the same purpose. However, under certain specified conditions, a school district could submit to the voters at any time a new proposition for the same purpose as a substitute for a prior excess levy authorization made under this subsection.

Temporary Performance of Judicial Duties

Proposed Amendment to the State Constitution

to be voted on NOVEMBER 6, 1962

OFFICIAL BALLOT TITLE

House Joint Resolution No. 6
TEMPORARY PERFORMANCE OF JUDICIAL DUTIES

Shall Article IV of the State Constitution be amended by adding a new section providing that when necessary for the prompt and orderly administration of justice a majority of the supreme court is empowered to authorize judges or retired judges of courts of record in this state to perform, temporarily, judicial duties in the supreme court, and to authorize any superior court judge to perform judicial duties in any superior court of this state?

VOTE CAST BY 1961 STATE LEGISLATURE ON FINAL PASSAGE:
HOUSE: 99 Members—74 Yeas; 0 Nays; 25 Absent or not voting
SENATE: 49 Members—45 Yeas; 0 Nays; 4 Absent or not voting

EXPLANATORY COMMENT

Issued By The Attorney General As Required By Law

THE LAW AS IT NOW EXISTS:

Our State Supreme Court is composed of nine judges who are the only persons authorized to perform judicial duties in the Supreme Court.

Under the constitution, any Superior Court judge may hold a Superior Court in any county of the state at the request of the judge of the Superior Court of such county, and, upon the request of the governor, it shall be his duty to do so.

In addition, by statute, the Chief Justice of the State Supreme Court is authorized to direct any Superior Court judge to hold Superior Court in any county of the state.

EFFECT OF HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 6 IF APPROVED INTO LAW:

The proposed constitutional amendment would add to our constitution a provision empowering the State Supreme Court, by the approval of a majority of its members to:

- (a) Authorize any judge or retired judge of a Superior Court or any retired judge of the Supreme Court to perform judicial duties on a temporary basis in the State Supreme Court whenever it is necessary for the prompt and orderly administration of justice.
- (b) Authorize any Superior Court judge to perform judicial duties in any Superior Court of this state.

Proposed Amendment to the State Constitution

to be voted on NOVEMBER 6, 1962

OFFICIAL BALLOT TITLE

House Joint Resolution No. 19
QUALIFICATIONS OF VOTERS

Shall Article VI, Section 1 of the State Constitution relating to qualifications of voters be amended to reduce the periods of state and county residence required for voting at all elections; eliminate disqualification from voting by Indians not taxed, and allow citizens intending to make this state their permanent residence to vote for presidential electors or President and Vice-President of the United States, after sixty days' residence?

VOTE CAST BY 1961 STATE LEGISLATURE ON FINAL PASSAGE:
HOUSE: 99 Members—90 Yeas; 4 Nays; 5 Absent or not voting
SENATE: 49 Members—35 Yeas; 12 Nays; 2 Absent or not voting

EXPLANATORY COMMENT

Issued By The Attorney General As Required By Law

THE LAW AS IT NOW EXISTS:

Presently, in order to be entitled to vote a person must be at least twenty-one years of age; be able to read and speak the English language; be a citizen of the United States; have lived in the state one year, in the county ninety days, and in the city, town, ward or precinct thirty days immediately preceding the election at which such person offers to vote. *Those Indians who are not taxed are prohibited from voting.

* (Note: While the supreme court has not interpreted this prohibition, the attorney general of Washington as early as 1916 and as late as 1938, concluded that Indians who are citizens are entitled to vote like other citizens under the 15th Amendment to the U. S. Constitution which provides, in part, that the right of any citizen to vote shall not be denied or abridged by any state on account of race. These opinions have been followed by the secretary of state and other election officers of this state for many years.)

EFFECT OF HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 19 IF APPROVED INTO LAW:

The proposed constitutional amendment would reduce the period of state and county residence required for voting to six months in the state and thirty days in the county.

In addition, those persons who can meet all the qualifications for voting except for residence and who shall have resided in this state at least sixty days immediately preceding a presidential election with the intention of making this state their permanent residence, shall be entitled to vote in such election for presidential electors, or on the office of President and Vice-President of the United States, as the case may be, but for no others.

Governmental Continuity During Emergency Periods

Proposed Amendment to the State Constitution

to be voted on NOVEMBER 6, 1962

OFFICIAL BALLOT TITLE

House Joint Resolution No. 9
GOVERNMENTAL CONTINUITY DURING EMERGENCY PERIODS

Shall Article II of the State Constitution be amended by adding a section empowering and directing the legislature to provide a method of temporary succession to elective and appointive offices when because of an emergency resulting from enemy attack the incumbents are unavailable to act and further empowering the legislature to depart from certain constitutional provisions if, in discharging this duty, the emergency renders compliance impracticable?

VOTE CAST BY 1961 STATE LEGISLATURE ON FINAL PASSAGE:
HOUSE: 99 Members—78 Yeas; 0 Nays; 21 Absent or not voting
SENATE: 49 Members—46 Yeas; 3 Nays; 0 Absent or not voting

EXPLANATORY COMMENT

Issued By The Attorney General As Required By Law

THE LAW AS IT NOW EXISTS:

This state has no laws specifically designed to fill temporary vacancies in the various public offices or to otherwise provide for the continued operation of state and local government during a period of emergency resulting from enemy attack. The power of the legislature to enact such laws is limited by the provisions of the State Constitution which cannot be superseded by an act of the legislature.

EFFECT OF HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 9 IF APPROVED INTO LAW:

The proposed constitutional amendment empowers and directs the legislature to immediately provide for the continued operation of state and local government during periods of emergency resulting from enemy attack by prescribing a method of temporary succession to elective and appointive public offices of whatever nature should the incumbents and their legal successors become unavailable.

In addition, the legislature is empowered and directed to enact such other measures as may be necessary and proper to further insure the continued operation of government during such emergencies.

During a period of emergency caused by enemy attack, the legislature is authorized to deviate from certain specified constitutional provisions if, in its judgment at the time of such emergency, conformance to such constitutional provisions would be impracticable or cause undue delay in providing for the continuance of governmental operations.

Hunters Warned Of Fire Danger

Practically all National Forest land in Washington is open to hunters with the advent of regular deer season last week-end, according to Kenneth O. Wilson, U.S. Forest Service fire control chief in the Pacific Northwest Region.

Wilson warned that fire danger may still be high in some areas despite recent storms over much of the state. Continued public cooperation is asked to keep the number of forest fires at a minimum.

By October 1 this year there were 142 man-caused fires in the National Forests of Washington. Last year on that date the total was 195. Hunters were responsible for 53 fires in the National Forests of the state last year. The number is 17 above the five-year average.

Most of the hunter fires occurred when warming or cooking fires were abandoned without being extinguished. Although campfire permits are not required in the National Forests, it is unlawful to leave a campfire or warming fire unattended. A fire should always be put out, no matter how damp the weather seems, Wilson reminded.

Hunter fire incidents are always greater on the east side of the Cascades. Many western Washington hunters go to the east-side areas where rainfall is considerably lighter than in the western zones. It is believed hunters coming from a series of heavier rainfall seasons are lulled into a false sense of security, not realizing how quickly the forest dries out after light rains or cold frosty nights.

UGN Donations For Parkland Over $2,000

Twelve communities taking part in the Pierce County United Good Neighbor campaign touched off their drive at an "early bird" breakfast this week at Scotty's Restaurant in Tacoma. The announcement was made by Russell Garrison, UGN county chairman. The county quota is $58,000. Overall UGN goal is $1,070,000.

Volunteer chairmen, their communities and goals are as follows: Bob Wright, Brown's Point, $600; Mrs. Harold Sanders, Dash Point, $250; Col. G. Cronander, Day Island, $425; Robert, Fife Milton, $3,000; Mrs. Roger J. Stewart and Mrs. Ward Van Arnam, Fircrest, $1,300; Robert Huesers, Mrs. A.E. Betz, Jr., Mrs. Don Baker, and Jenks Rector, Lakes, $16,375; Mrs. Ivan Gregory, Northeast Tacoma, $10; George Potter, Parkland, $2,000; John Espy, Puyallup, $30,800; Mr. Merle Thurmond, Spanaway, $300; Clifford Densmore, Steilacoom, $700; and Dr. Sidney Hays, University Place, $1,700.

Smoking in National Forests is prohibited while traveling except in vehicles on roads. Smoking in the woods can be done without danger if the smoker stops in a safe place and makes sure burning material is out by crushing it on a rock or in cleared mineral soil.

The Forest Service welcomes hunting as one of the major recreational uses of the National Forests, Wilson said, and the annual harvesting of the wildlife resource benefits both the forest and the game herds.

Julia Kaiser High Scorer In Poultry

Julia Kaiser, 4-H member from Puyallup, was high individual scorer in the Junior Poultry Exposition poultry judging contest. She paced her team to first place in the Junior Contest. John Sayers of Riverside was third high individual scorer. Other members were Chris Abshar of Edgewood and Leona Starkel from Fir Grove.

Traffic Deaths Keep Mounting

But WHERE ARE THE MOTORCYCLES?

The incumbent Sheriff has four county motorcycles which cost taxpayers about $2,300 each. They were purchased for traffic safety patrol, but are seldom used for the purpose. Instead, they function primarily as transportation conveniences for some of the Sheriff's deputies. The people know Pierce County's incumbent Sheriff has no Traffic Safety Program — so let's do something about it!

Reseachers Note Reversal On Tax Levies

The past strategic positions of proponents and opponents of special school tax levies are now reversed, according to a statement today by the non-governmental Washington Research Council. The independent organization explained that although it has been necessary for many years for levy proponents to campaign vigorously to get out the vote for some special elections, now the burden of that chore will fall more heavily on persons interested in defeating the levy.

The situation arises from a 1961 law which changed the date of school district special elections from even numbered years to odd numbered years. A special levy election to be successful must poll at least 40 percent of the vote cast in the preceding election — state or district.

Since the school district general election historically gets a smaller vote than a state election, the Council said, it has been advantageous for proponents to schedule special levy elections to follow the district election. The change in the election law has lengthened the "advantageous" time from 8/24ths of a

The completion of the proposed Sanctuary and the retirement of the debt on the new Educational Unit.
