Voting registrars will be present throughout the Franklin Pierce and Bethel High School districts this week and next to register new residents and accept transfers for the coming school elections on March 13.

Qualified voters that are not registered should do so by February 9th. Resident requirements for new legal age persons and transfers are that the citizen be a resident of the State for one year, 60 days in the County and one day in the Precinct.

Bethel district voters will decide three measures: A $140,000 bond issue for constructing a High School Addition, a $15,000 (2 1/2 mill) special kindergarten 1962-63 operation levy, and a $65,000 (9 1/2 mill) special maintenance and operation levy. All measures will be on the same ballot, with the 40-60 requirements pertinent to each one.

Franklin Pierce's election will be concerned with the following issues: $350,000 in bonds for a building fund involving four additional rooms to Collins, four to Brookdale, three to Harvard and two to Sales; $148,000 (10 mills) for general maintenance and operation for the 1962-63 school year; $44,000 (3 mill) for additional school buses; $29,600 (2 mills) for maintaining and operating kindergartens for the 1962-63 school year.

The total millage for these propositions is 15, or a reduction of five mills over last year's issues, which were passed by the voters.

For passage each item must receive a vote equal to 40% of the 1960 November General Election and must receive 60% yeses of the votes cast.

Approximately 3,500 yes votes by voters in each district are necessary to pass the respective issues.

other benefits at the same time. Tacoma City Light is a major contributor for the spectacular exhibit which occupies 7,500 feet of ground area near the Space Needle and Monorail terminal. The graceful dam is 40 feet high and 75 feet long.

Let Me Tell One: Make Your Voice Heard

American schools probably give the best general education in the world, taking into consideration the mass of children and young people who are given the opportunities to attend.

I don't think we have to take a back seat to anyone in regard to our specialized schooling which is offered in colleges and universities in this country.

We got to this point by being aware of our responsibilities to our youth and by building that educational system over a period of many years.

We've had our critics, and still have them. Some are justified in parts of their criticisms, while others seem to be chronic 'againters'.

To take a completely ob-jective view of the situa-tion, we must spend money to improve our schools. Improvement starts right here at home and, in my judgement, the money is best spent by the local citizens. We hear in the national news that the Fed-eral Aid to schools is al-ready dead for this ses-sion of Congress, so those who were hoping for the 'help' of the Federal gov-ernment will have to await

Neil McLean

It is one thing to be interested in the school and to watch the spending of our tax dollars, and another to oppose all taxes for schools just because we don't want to pay taxes.

You and I don't work for the wages we got a few years ago, and the schools can't operate on the money they got a few years ago.

We pay more for au-tomobiles, television sets, and homes, and the schools pay more for buildings and for teachers and the other things required to give minimum service.

Therefore, when it comes time to increase the money amounts allotted to the schools we should all realize the reasons for the increases.

Every person in the Franklin Pierce and Bethel School districts who qual-ifies should be a registered voter. And every regis-tered voter should go to the polls when the time comes and express his pleasure concerning the schools.

One decision that every person should make is to find out where he stands on the voting register, and do it now. Don't wait until the day of the election, for then it is too late.

What has happened to the spirit of America where schools were put up by the men in the community with their own hands?

When Americans decided on the public school system, against the systems of privilege they had ex-perienced in the countries of their origin, they were interested in everything about the schools.

We still have Americans like that, but their num-bers are dwindling. The ranks of those who don't care, or who actively op-pose progress in the schools seems to be grow-ing all the time.

Somewhere in the Waller Road area is a man who is capable of directing and counselling a group of boy scouts. The Scout Committee is looking for him. As yet they have no information that is of help. If YOU fit the description or can give your time to help a group of boys in the Scouting program, please call William Tharge at LE 1-0571. The need for a scout master is urgent. Parents of scouts met with officials from the Scout office last Wednesday evening at the Grange Hall to talk over the seriousness of the need for a Scout Master and keeping the scouting program intact.

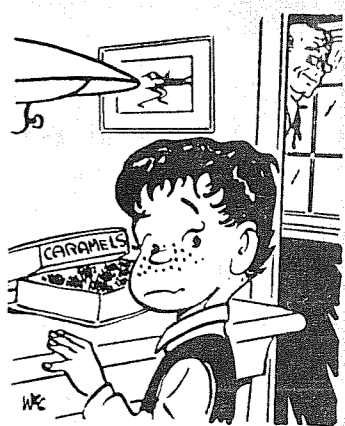

The next meeting of the Waller Road Grange will be Jan. 19 at 8 p.m. Members are urged to attend. Keep in touch with the progress made on the new hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Freeman and son Ronald have transferred Grange membership from James Sales to Waller Road. A hearty welcome was extended to the Freemans by members at the last meeting. Mr. Freeman has been one of the most valuable and dedicated workers of the new Grange Hall. Working for the good of the community is nothing new to the Freemans who live at 7408 E. Vickery Rd. Mr. Freeman was a Scout Master for many years, and also served on the Scout Committee, while his son was growing up and in the Scouts.

Miss Margie Howard is in Tacoma General Hospital where she has undergone surgery that will enable her to walk with more ease. Best wishes for a successful operation are extended to Margie from all who know her.

The Country Parson

"A fellow's conscience seems to work best when he knows he's being watched."

A LIVING TRIBUTE
Many kind and compassionate people live their entire lives with the thought of their stricken and less fortunate brethren. One of the finest and noblest acts that can be performed in behalf of such an individual is a donation to a charitable organization in their name.

A few of the charitable causes to which such donations may be made are, cancer fund, heart fund, hospitals, or the church of their choice.

The funds for cancer and heart research today come entirely from grants and donations by charitable people. The funds given in memory of a loved one or friend is the key that will one day unlock the door to the conquest of man's greatest enemy "Disease".

Donations to these charitable organizations may be made through your local funeral director, clergyman, or simply place a check in an addressed envelope in care of your local Postmaster.

a - Wondering . . . and a - Wandering . . .

The other day I stopped into a local store in Parkland and the proprietor, a friend of mine gave me a clipping from an out of town paper that he had saved for me. I shoved it in my pocket and just now arrived at the opportune moment when I had time to read it over carefully. Here is the way one editor introduces the article, "It might be more humorous except for the fact it hits closer to home than is comfortable." He's so right! The article entitled "Psalm of the Welfare State" follows:

The Government is my shepherd, I need not work. It alloweth me to lie down on good jobs, it leadeth me beside still factories. It destroyeth my initiative, it leadeth me in the paths of the parasite, for politics sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of laziness and deficit spending, I shall fear no evil, for the doles and the vote-getters, they comfort me. It prepareth an economic utopia for me by appropriating the earnings of my grandchildren. It filleth my head with bolgna. My efficiency runneth over. Surely the Government will care for me all the days of my life and I shall dwell in a fools paradise forever.

Today I expect to see America at play in a form quite uncommon. I am in Phoenix and at 1:00 the first International Aerobic Contest held in the U. S. since 1952 is set to get off the ground. Things of this sort always make me wonder how the boys that try to sell communism get around the fact that in a communist state events such as this exist only under government control leaving no opportunity for the individual to arrange meets of any nature on his own. I'll take America. . . with a rodeo in every town, boat races on every lake, air shows at every airport, baseball, football, golf and all the other competitive sports on a free participation basis.

Wouldn't you know it. No snow in Phoenix for 15 years, we get here and it follows us! Everyone in the city has their nose pushed against the window pane this morning. If it has to snow this is the perfect place to do it. There's more thrilled kids per square block here than any other place in the world.

Students Vacation Monday At FP

The students take a vacation, and the teachers stay at school. This is the program for Monday, Jan. 22, in the Franklin Pierce School District.

Providing an unexpected extra day vacation between semesters for the students, the day is one of the five previously required by the Legislature for the teachers.

Elementary school teachers will meet at the James Sales Elementary at 9:30 a.m. that day for a special workshop on Elementary Physical Fitness, featuring the physical education supervisor from the Shoreline Public Schools, Paul Smith.

Junior and Senior high school teachers will work within their assigned buildings on individual programs.

The physical fitness program, as planned by Mrs. Ruth Gaume, elementary curriculum coordinator, is part of a reaction to President Kennedy's message to schools on the physical fitness of youth. He suggested that schools:

1. Identify the physically underdeveloped pupil and work with him to improve his physical capacity.
2. Provide a minimum of fifteen minutes of vigorous activity every day for all pupils.
3. Use valid fitness tests to determine pupils' physical abilities and evaluate their progress.

DeJardine Gives Illustrated Talk At Science Hall

Richard DeJardine, a Parkland school teacher who traveled extensively in Africa last summer, will give an illustrated lecture at the Tacoma Zoological Society meeting Saturday evening (Jan. 20) at 7:30 in the Pacific Lutheran University Science Hall. The public is invited.

DeJardine, who lives at 407 S. 120th and teaches at the Christensen school, will show colored slides and give an account of the people and animals in Tanganyika where he spent most of his time. In that country he visited with his sister, Mrs. Loren Rude, whose husband is a missionary.

Highlight of DeJardine's visit was to climb to the summit of Mount Kilimanjaro. Nothing relieves and ventilates the mind like a resolution.

De Rocher, a clerk in the artillery's Battery A, entered the Army in April 1961 and completed basic training at Fort Riley, Kan.

He was graduated from Summer High School in 1960 and worked for the Gale & Blanton Lumber Co. in Orting prior to entering the Army.

Tumwater Falls Park To Open In Time For Record Tourist Season

Establishment of Tumwater Falls Park by the Olympia - Tumwater Foundation was announced yesterday following donation by the Olympia Brewing Company of 15 scenic acres along the banks of the Deschutes River adjacent to U. S. Highway 99 in Tumwater, Washington.

Development will be speeded to make the park available to the public during the big 1962 summer tourist season, according to Adolph D. Schmidt, Jr., president of both the Foundation and the brewery.

The site is one of great natural beauty where the Deschutes tumbles down a gorge and then cascades over beautiful Tumwater Falls, after which the park has been named. The Olympia-Tumwater Foundation is maintaining and restoring all the natural beauty including the addition of fountains, pools and falls along the 1/2 mile of walking trails that are to be constructed. Two foot-bridges will be built connecting the trails on the East and West banks of the river. One of the bridges will be a replica of a wooden truss foot-bridge spanning the picturesque Tumwater Falls that had served the people of Tumwater before the turn of the Century. Also included in the park area, providing another point of special interest to the visitors, are the fish ladders built by the State Fisheries Department in 1953 for the development of the Deschutes River salmon spawning grounds. Governor Albert D. Rosellini has just announced that the State will construct two 20' x 90' concrete salmon holding ponds at the head of the No. 3 ladder which will facilitate handling the salmon during the peak of the run in the fall of the season.

He said today that he expects the new holding ponds and the Tumwater Falls Park will become a major tourist attraction. A special platform will be constructed for a spectacular view of the falls and on top of the Deschutes Gorge. Picnic and recreational facilities will be provided, as well as ample parking space for visitors.

The Olympia-Tumwater Foundation was established in 1950 by the later Peter G. Schmidt. The objects and purposes of the Foundation include the advancement of educational, benevolent, recreational and other public purposes. The Articles of Incorporation are quite broad and allow almost any act that is to the public benefit, providing such is accomplished within the State of Washington. Examples of the Foundation's activities are the beautiful Tivoli fountain on the State Capitol grounds at Olympia, donated to the State in 1953, the University of Washington Peter G. Schmidt Memorial Scholarship and numerous donations to universities and the Crosby family who colleges.

Stumpage Prices Will Be Lower

Stumpage prices on National Forest timber offered during the early part of 1962 will be at a lower level than during the last six months of 1961, J. Herbert Stone, Regional Forester, said today. This will result in part, he said, from use of a lower index value as the base, or starting point, in appraisal calculations and in part from new realization value tables developed for peeler grade logs.

The present adjustment, Stone explained, affects both Western Pine and Douglas-fir Region appraisals. It is by no means, he said, a radical change for either region because frequent downward adjustments have been made during the past two years.

For the Western Pine Region the major factor causing the change is recognition of a downward trend in the long-term average selling value for lumber products produced from ponderosa pine. For the Douglas-fir Region two factors are responsible. One is recognition of a weakening of high grade peeler log values and the other the adoption of a trial basis of a closer relationship between appraisal base indices and the current index for lumber and plywood. The latter is similar to the "quartile" method of appraisal base selection which has been used for pine appraisals during the past year.

Current practice in both the Pine and Fir Regions, Stone said, is to make sale prices subject to price adjustments keyed to movement of lumber and plywood index prices. Price corrections are made quarterly and amount to 50 per cent of the index changes either up or down.

Curtis To Name Princess

Closing days of January and the first week of February will be crowded with nine afternoon and evening selections of candidates for princesses of the 1962 Puyallup Valley Daffodil Festival.

Eliminations throughout "Daffodil-Land" are now in progress and the public will get its first view of the queenly-prospects on the evening of January 24. On that evening Curtis high school (University Place) will select its candidate to the royal court.

This marks the first year for Curtis, Bethel and Mt. Tahoma (Tacoma) high schools being eligible to name princesses to the Puyallup Valley Daffodil Festival court. Interest in the communities is running high and it will not be until the night of February 5 that the entire court will be completed.

Final selection of the successor to Queen Carmel Mackin of Puyallup will not be made until April 2, opening day of the 1962 Festival, in colorful ceremonies in Sumner's Spartan Hall.

Orting's candidate to the royal court will be selected the evening of January 25. Bethel will name its candidate January 26. Evening selections are being planned for Sumner, January 29 in the high school auditorium, and Clover Park has tentatively set the evening of January 30 as its date. Puyallup, with two candidates for the title of queen will hold its elimination the evening of January 30 in the high school auditorium according to word from Festival Director James Blair, Jr. of Puyallup, members of the Festival's royalty committee.

Fife will move its princess selection into February, with the selection being held the night of February 3.

Princesses from Stadium, Lincoln, Wilson, and Mt. Tahoma high schools will be chosen in the afternoon, with ceremonies starting at 1:30 p.m., February 5, in the University of Puget Sound music recital hall.

Franklin Pierce high school is planning ceremonies at the high school on the afternoon of February 6.

Resolve, and thou art free.

The family of Mack Lyons wish to thank all of those friends for their expressions of sympathy, the kindnesses and the very beautiful flowers.

An old-fashioned pie social will be sponsored by the Lacamas Community Club in the hall on the Harts Lake Loop Road January 26th at 8:30 p.m. An old-fashioned pie social will precede the meeting of the community club the regular meeting night was changed to the second Tuesday of the month, making the next meeting fall on February 13.

Know Your Schools:

Handicapped Children Get Special Aid In FP Schools

For many years the people of the Franklin Pierce School District have been supporting their schools in educating all the children of the area. "All children" will include, by the fall of 1962, an increasing measure of responsibility for over three hundred young people, who, for several reasons, will have difficulty in taking part in our regular school program.

Some of these children are the blind, the hard of hearing, the cerebral palsied, and cleft palate. Others who are part of this group will be restricted in their school activities through birth injury, serious illness, or cerebral damage -- all contributory factors which prevent these children from utilizing the usual educational program.

There are also those who will progress academically much slower than their classmates. Each of these children has the innate right to receive the best education the teaching staff can give them.

In accepting this opportunity, the Franklin Pierce School District has developed a Special Education department, a combination of teachers and specialists who join their talents in working with these particular children. They include a psychologist, a speech therapist, school nurses, and specially trained teachers and administrators.

In such a brief column it becomes necessary to discuss only part of the Special Education division in limited detail: that of the twelve students enrolled in the preacademic program at the Midland School.

At this school we have children who have been diagnosed as neurologically impaired. The medical, psychological, and educational histories of these young people are as extensive and as accurate as can be determined. The portable building at Midland School is being used for the classroom, and the planned program these youngsters are encouraged to develop their confidence and talents. After a year, some children are able to move into a regular classroom, while others may remain longer.

The psychologist, speech therapist, and school nurses all contribute their training to all special education classroom activities. In several cases outside agencies such as Madigan Hospital, Tacoma Crippled Children's School etc., have added their professional consultation to the work of this department.

With public support, the plan of the Franklin Pierce School District can meet the growing enrollment demands. Additional staff members for the Special Education Department would allow us to help students who are now on our own waiting list, plus those future students who will have need of this program.

Keithley Pupils Show Off Talent

No need to turn on the T.V., go to a movie, or flip the radio on when those youngsters perform. The Keithley student body was thrilled by a brilliant display of dancing skills, singing, pantomime, and instrumental numbers last Tuesday. If this is a representation of the younger generation's abilities then the older folks can relax because those students are solid.

Given an opportunity and very little coaching young people showed imagination, skill and great talent. Under the spotlight the jerk in class becomes a virtuoso at the keyboard, the stringy haired girl is another Doris Day, and the Cozy Four Quartet becomes an original find.

To say the least -- the youth are a mixed up but marvelous bunch.

March of Dimes Research Shows Mothers-to-be Must Diet Properly

No doubt many a healthy young mother-to-be has wondered why her doctor puts so much emphasis on proper diet during pregnancy—especially if she's never been ill a day in her life, and she has a yen for wholesome foods.

Dr. Marjorie Nelson, March of Dimes grantee at the University of California, inspects research specimens under the microscope. It's part of her study to determine the influence of vitamin and mineral deficiencies as causes of birth defects.

But there's good reason for it. More and more it's becoming evident that for the sake of her child a pregnant woman must have a diet adequate in vitamins and minerals, particularly in the early stages of the baby's development.

The reason lies in the dread words: birth defects. Until about 20 years ago, scientists generally went along with the idea that birth defects in higher animals—and that includes man—were due to the most part to heredity. So if a baby had picked out the right ancestors, he had a better than good chance of coming into the world perfectly normal, and sound of mind and limb.

Complex Factors Involved
Today, however, doctors know the story is not that simple. An increasing number of studies have shown that a wide variety of factors play a part in the picture. If a mother gets either too much or too little of such vital substances as hormones, oxygen, minerals or vitamins during certain stages of her pregnancy, the baby may fail to survive, or may be born malformed.

Under a research grant from The National Foundation-March of Dimes, Dr. Marjorie Nelson at the University of California has been trying to determine just how the absence of a vitamin or mineral may interfere with normal prenatal development.

She has found that in rats the absence of even a single one of certain important minerals or vitamins during early pregnancy can produce drastic effects.

Apparently nature has set up a delicate balance which a mother's body must maintain. If this balance is upset even for a relatively short time, permanent damage may result to the offspring.

In her San Francisco laboratory Dr. Nelson has demonstrated that even a temporary deficiency of a vitamin such as folic acid during early pregnancy can cause birth abnormalities in these young laboratory animals. The defects range from the relatively minor to the very severe which include brain damage, displacement of intestinal organs, cleft palate or serious malformations of the heart and eyes.

Timing Is Critical
When Dr. Nelson puts the normal pregnant animals on such a folic acid-deficient diet during the second week of their pregnancy, at least 80 per cent of the embryos die or are malformed. However, if she carries out the same experiment about a week earlier or a week later, the adverse effect to suffer no undue effects, thus underlining the importance of proper diet at the critical stages of pregnancy. In a woman, the comparable period of pregnancy extends primarily from the second to the eighth week of the baby's development.

Radioactivity Used
Dr. Nelson has also obtained a high incidence of skeletal defects in young rats when the mother animal's diet was deficient in the mineral manganese. She is extending these studies with support from The National Foundation-March of Dimes using radioactive material in the diet to trace what goes wrong inside embryonic cells to hinder their normal development.

According to Dr. Virginia Appgar, director of the division of congenital malformations of The National Foundation, "Dr. Nelson's project has a direct bearing on the question of birth defects in humans. It is definitely known, for example, that severe folic acid deficiency in a woman can lead to loss of a baby during early pregnancy."

And as Dr. Nelson has pointed out, equally significant, the congenital malformations in the young animals that survive are irreversible. No amount of vitamins given later in pregnancy can undo the damage once a deficiency has occurred during the critical period of pregnancy.

Clinics Are Established
Because of the increasing problem of birth defects—it is now estimated that significant malformations occur in one in every 16 babies born in this country—each year—The National Foundation-March of Dimes has recently established a number of Special Treatment and Clinical Study Centers for coping with this crucial medical question. The Birth Defects Treatment Centers are in Jackson, Miss.; Atlanta, Ga.; Seattle, Portland, Ore.; San Francisco; Little Rock, Ark.; Indianapolis; Morgantown, W. Va.; New York City; Baltimore; and Washington, D. C. These are supported on the local level by The National Foundation's chapters.

In addition, Birth Defects Clinical Study Centers are located in Oklahoma City; Nashville, Tenn.; and Columbus, Ohio. These Centers are maintained on a national level with March of Dimes funds which are being applied by The National Foundation to continue support and expansion of such Centers for the development of total medical care for youngsters afflicted with congenital defects.

Sheet music for "Washington, My Home", official song of the State of Washington, is now available at music stores throughout the state, Robert E. Rose, Director of the State Department of Commerce and Economic Development, announced today.

"Washington, My Home" was adopted as the official song of the State of Washington by the 1959 session of the State Legislature. Mrs. Helen Davis of South Bend, who wrote both the words and music, has assigned all royalties from the sales to the State of Washington, now copyright owner and publisher of the song.

Five different arrangements for voices, an arrangement for voice and piano and one for band accompaniment to choral groups, all by Stuart Churchill, are available. Churchill, formerly with Fred Waring's orchestra, is now on the faculty of Central Washington College of Education in Ellensburg. There is also a concert band arrangement by A. Bert Christanson, associate professor of music at Central Washington.

Mrs. Davis, herself a descendant of a Washington pioneer family, is well known in state music circles as a song writer and author of musical productions. "Wet Me Down in Washington", "Cry Baby Mountain" and "Eliza and The Lumberjack", an adaptation, are other musical Washingtonia by Mrs. Davis.

Proceeds from sales of "Washington, My Home" go into a special fund to publicize the state's scenic attractions and recreational facilities by the Tourist Promotion Division of the Department of Commerce and Economic Development.

Summit News

Carnival time is coming closer for the people of Summit. March 1962 is the date and this year's theme is "Century 21". The Garden booth would like anyone having plants they would like to donate to call Dorothy Olmstead, LE 1-2474 or Eleanor Martinson, LE 7-0438 for pickup.

If cuttings of plants are sent the committee wishes them to be well rooted and all of the plants should be labeled. The Garden shop can use old plants as well. If anyone would like to help in the Garden booth they are asked to call either of the above numbers.

Wheeling Squares will dance Saturday, January 20, at 8:30 p.m. at the Summit Youth Center. Hosts and hostesses are Mr. and Mrs. Toby Torbet and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Anderson. Ed Hendricks will call the squares. All Square dancers are welcome.

A benefit dance will be held February 2nd, at the Collins Grange, and is being sponsored by the Summit Youth Center. Tickets are on sale now by many people of the area, ask your friends. The cost of the tickets are $1 and the proceeds will go to a family of the community that is afflicted with muscular dystrophy.

Dance hours are 9:00 to 1:00 a.m. and door prizes will be awarded. For further information or if anyone would like to help sell the tickets they may call Mary Hart at LE 7-6501.

Park Star Attraction

Governor Rosellini today said that he expects the new salmon ponds and park near the Deschutes River to become a major tourist attraction in the Olympia area.

The State Department of Fisheries will build two large concrete holding and ripening ponds for Chinook salmon to better handle the increasing runs. The salmon run is man-made.

The new ponds will be located adjacent to Deschutes Fishway #3 directly behind the Olympia Brewing Company in Tumwater. The area near the fishway has been graded, planted and landscaped by the Olympia - Tumwater Foundation. Land for the park was given to the Foundation by the brewing company. Visitors to the park will observe the fish handling and egg-taking work of Fisheries Department employees.

"The highway bridge at the mouth of the river already has become a tourist attraction," the Governor said. "During the late summer hundreds of persons visit the bridge to watch the salmon. The park and ponds, I am certain, will attract hundreds of additional observers and tourists."

"The Olympia-Tumwater Foundation and the Olympia Brewing Company are to be commended for this distinctive and outstanding contribution to the tourist industry in the state."

It's The Law

Walter and his friend John were drinking together. Walter had lost his job, his wife had left him, and he was bitter and despondent.

"I've got a good notion to commit suicide and get out of this lousy world," Walter said.

"That's a good idea," John agreed. "I've got a gun if you want to use it."

John loaned Walter the gun and Walter tried to commit suicide but only succeeded in wounding himself seriously.

What are the legal consequences of John and Walter's acts?

First, John is guilty of a crime. If Walter had succeeded in committing suicide, John would have been guilty of manslaughter. But even though Walter was merely injured and not killed, John is still guilty of a felony and may be sentenced to the penitentiary for not more than ten years.

Second, Walter is guilty of the crime of attempted suicide. When he recovers from his injuries he may be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by a sentence in the penitentiary for not more than two years.

In addition to being a crime, suicide also may have other legal consequences. For instance, some insurance policies may be voided if death results from suicide. In that event the suicide's beneficiaries named in the insurance policy will not receive the insurance. (This column is written to inform, not advise. Facts may change the application of the law.)

Cardinal Sports

Looking for their fourth consecutive league win the Franklin Pierce Cardinals entertain the Kent-Meridian Royals in what could be a make or break contest for both squads.

Kent, which is now tied with Highline for second place in the Northern Division of the Puget Sound League, is a fast-moving, fine-shooting cage squad. Their attack revolves around guard Steve Richardson and two forwards, Chuck Cretin and Randy Bradley.

Del Schafer, Franklin Pierce's varsity mentor, is expected to start Tom Tommervik and Larry Larson at guards, Tim Sherry and Jim Shoe at forwards and Chuck Smith at center for the crucial contest.

Three Franklin Pierce wrestlers will be looking for their sixth consecutive win when they meet the Puyallup Vikings tomorrow in the Franklin Pierce gym.

Loggers, Lutes Clash Friday

MEET JON MALMIN, Reserve center for the Lutherans. Jon, a sophomore at PLU is an alumni of Franklin Pierce High School. The 6', 6", 185 pound center has seen action in many games this season. —Photo by Richards

The torrid Evergreen Commission honored Albertson recently by selecting him as the "Athlete of the Month" of December. The two leaders, Pacific Lutheran University and the University of Puget Sound, clash on the Lute maps at 8 o'clock.

The UPS Loggers, currently leading the loop with a 3-0 record, dumped PLU, 87-79, in a non-league tilt in December. The Lutherans are 2-1 in league competition. For the season the Lutes have a 9-3 record and the Loggers 11-2.

Saturday night the Knights will be at home to the Central Washington Wildcats, a club which lost to UPS, 71-70, in the last second of play.

There will be preliminary games both Friday and Saturday evenings at 6 p.m. with the undefeated PLU Junior Varsity five meeting City League opponents.

Hans Albertson, the 6-8 center from Sweden, continues to dominate the PLU statistics. The colorful hoopster has canned 210 points in 10 games against collegiate teams for a 21 point average. He leads in rebounds with a 16.3 per game average. Sophomore guard Mary Fredrickson is averaging 16.9 points, senior forward Larry Poulsen, 12.8; junior guard Jim Castleberry, 9.9; and junior guard Dick Nelson, 8.7.

Albertson tops the team in field goal accuracy with a 56.4 per cent mark, and as a team the Lutes are hitting on 46.4 per cent of their field goals.

Major O'Neill Attends 16-wk Class

Army Maj. Clement J. O'Neill, 43, whose wife, Christine, lives at 11014 Lundstrom Dr., Tacoma, Wash., is attending the 16-week associate course at the Army Command and General Staff College, Fort Leavenworth, Kan. The course is scheduled to end May 4.

Major O'Neill is a member of the 25th class to be enrolled in the course. The class, consisting of 410 U.S. Army officers and 33 S. Army officers and 33 officers from 16 allied nations, was addressed by Maj. Gen. Harold K. Johnson, college commandant and post commander, at opening day exercises on Jan. 5.

The college, the Army's senior tactical school, was established in 1881 as the School of Application of Infantry and Cavalry. The associate course was established in 1947 and is designed to prepare selected officers from all components of the Army for duty as commanders and general staff officers.

The class includes 75 Army Reserve and Army National Guard officers on temporary active duty. The attendance of these civilian component officers is indicative of the Army's effort to train and maintain "One Army."

Major O'Neill entered the Army in 1942.

He is a graduate of St. Joseph High School in Rock Island, Ill., and attended the University of Illinois and Cameron College in Lawton, Okla.

Tommervik Talks

"Oh, no! Not another school bond issue! They just had an election! Well, I'm going to vote against it. The schools don't need that much money. I don't see why they can't get along with what they've got! When I was a kid . . ."

"Hey, hold on a minute! When you were a kid doesn't matter! When you were a kid was years ago. We're interested in now. It's people like you who kill the 'Bigger and Better Schools' campaigns. Just because you didn't have all the advantages now available doesn't give you the right to deprive today's school kids of them. Can't you realize that times have changed? And so have teaching methods and subjects taught. They now cover a much wider range than reading, writing and arithmetic. Hundreds of books are needed for reference and text. They need more special equipment for art, the sciences, home economics, shop and P.E. . . ."

"Oh all right! You've convinced me there. But does that explain why they spend so much on useless frills. No school needs that much landscaping. What good are the 'ramblers', the big 'courts', etc? It seems to me that a lot of money is wasted on them. Wouldn't it be cheaper to say nothing of practicality, to build them higher instead of spreading them out? Do they have to be so big? A few years ago two or three rooms served the purpose."

"Sure, today's educational institutions are a far cry from the little red school house of yesterday. Of course they're bigger, there are that many more kids. As for landscaping and construction beauty and costs should be factors worth considering. It's much easier to build a series of single buildings than one with several stories. And it's safer, too. What about fire hazards in three or four story buildings with steps, railings, etc? Pleasant surroundings helps study habits and concentration. "All right, all right! You've made your point. Just let me know when the next election will be held and I'll give you your schools if you will just get in and use the facilities and not abuse them."
