Drivers Get Honors For Fine Safety Record

Although a garbage truck driver's name is seldom seen in the newspapers, a group of these men were honored Saturday night at a banquet which is becoming an annual newsworthy event in this area.

The annual Safety Award Banquet for the employees of Harold LeMay Enterprises was held at the Firs to honor the men who drive every day as if their lives depend on their skill and carefulness.

Eleven of the drivers were given certificates for the year. Harold LeMay, in commenting on the standards for safe driving awards in company get more strict and that it was a real tribute to those honored to be awarded their certificates.

Winning awards this year were Vern Lyons, Dayton Green, Tom Fuller, Chet Gunderson and Ken Collins, both for three years, Willie Biggerstaff and Bob Fore, both for four years.

Six year records were honored when John Hartsell, Floyd Cowan, Bill Jensen and Gene Murat were given certificates and Savings Bonds.

Each year the firm honors two men for their honesty, personality and driving ability and this year Floyd Cowan and Kenny Collins were named as men of the year.

Sgt. Bob Rupp, of the Washington State Patrol, presented an award to Harold LeMay for his good driving record.

Among the guests at the banquet were: Sgt. and Mrs. Bob Rupp, Mr. and Mrs. John Stender, Sgt. and Mrs. Tom Precious, Mrs. Marie Folsom, and Mr. and Mrs. William McCallum.

Game Man Gives 3 Point Program To Help Hunters

With the opening next week of the major part of hunting season, Gene Fennimore of the state game department, issued, along with a round-up of the game situation, a three point warning to hunters.

He said that first of all, a respect for private property is imperative. When private rights are not respected much of the hunting territory open this season will be closed to hunters in the future. "First get permission to hunt from the owner," he warned, "then be sure to do no property damage."

Fennimore said the second precaution hunters should observe is fire regulations and restrictions. With exceptionally fine fall days, the fire hazard is higher than normal.

The third point to aid hunters is the issuance by the game department of three pamphlets available wherever licenses may be obtained. These pamphlets are: The Game Management Unit Descriptions which describe the deer and elk areas shown on the 1963 hunting pamphlet; the Upland Migratory Game Bird Hunting season and Bag limits; and the 1963 Hunting Seasons and Game Bag Limits.

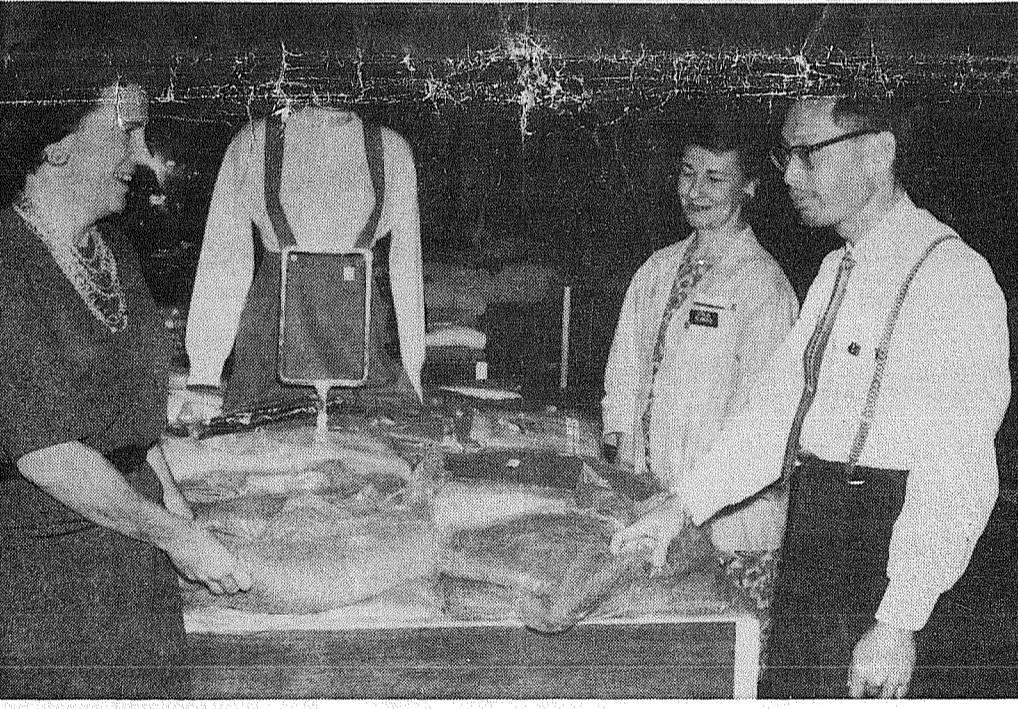

Deer Prognosis
Deer will be about the same population level as in 1962, he said, when 6,600 bucks and 2,270 antlerless deer were taken. Approximately one third of the kill were does in this Pierce, Thurston and Lewis County area. Heavy deer sign, frequent highway kills and many damage complaints all point to high populations in the lowland brush areas.

In Pierce County, Fennimore said, try Buckley, South Prairie, Crocker, McMillin and Puyallup for lowland hunting. Damage complaints are frequent in these areas. The western part of the county (unit 8J on the map) will be open to continuous either sex hunting from October 12 through November 3.

Bear
For bear, many hunters go to the high country, passing up the abundant bear in the low areas. Good high spots include the upper Puyallup and Carbon rivers. Vail and Capitol forests and the upper Tilton, Cispus and Cowlitz are also good areas. One of the better low areas is the longbranch peninsula.

Elk

More Space, Added Staff To Feature Re-Opening Of Shop Mart Store Here

NEW ITEMS SHOWN — Mrs. Josephine Van Orman, left, shows Mrs. Sonja Klinger, and Art Wing, a few of the new items displayed at the Shop Mart store for the grand opening this weekend. Wing announced this week that the newly enlarged independent department store will have expanded department and service. Celebration Slated For This Week

Shop Mart is a new name to Parkland and Tacoma, but it represents an established firm which has expanded both in area and in service to its customers.

Thursday marks the grand opening of the Shop Mart store, formerly the Shop-Ette Department store, at the same location, 133rd and Pacific.

Art Wing, Shop Mart owner, said this week that the expansion had provided more than double the floor space formerly occupied by the firm.

Two entrances, one at the front and a new one at the rear, with check out stands at both, and ample parking at each door, will greatly add to shoppers' convenience.

With the expansion came a complete change in store fixtures. The new, modern displays represent the latest design for department stores and were acquired to give much more ease of selecting the quality merchandise set out for patrons.

With the expansion of floor space, the staff has also more than doubled until there are 23 employees ready and able to aid customers.

SHOES, SHOES — Ellsworth Curnow, operator of the Shop Mart Department Store shoe section, here shows off some of his new merchandise as he readies for the store's big grand opening celebration this weekend. The shoe department has expanded its floor space and will offer many more styles in the new store at 133rd and Pacific Avenue.

Included in the expansion, the Shop Mart shoe department, operated by Ellsworth Curnow, has also expanded its space, put in new fixtures and greatly increased the styles of shoes offered.

With this third expansion in only seven years of operation, Wing expressed his confidence in the area and stated that the growing population of Tacoma and Pierce County deserved the best.

"That is what we are trying to give our customers," he said, "the best in merchandise, best in service and at the best price."

A VERY SPECIAL PARTY was held on Saturday evening, September 28 for members of the Summit Teen Club. During the month of August the Club held money-making projects to raise funds for the expansion of equipment at the Youth Center. The boys raced against the girls to see who could work the hardest and bring in the most money. —The boys won! Honored guests were: Lance Gillispie, Jim Young, Ray Gilbertson, Lloyd Wray, Dennis LaPlante, Gary Benston, Gary Larson, Dennis Jackson and Don Robinson. The hall was decorated with tin cans in remembrance of the scrap metal drive the boys had and cake and punch was served as refreshments. Chaperones for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Slack, Mr. LaPlante, Mrs. Adams, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Reid and Mr. Torbet. The money that was raised by both the girls and boys will be combined and used to purchase furnishings for the Center.

TB Tests To Be Given Franklin Pierce Students

As a part of the regular health program in the Franklin Pierce schools, first and eighth grade children are now receiving the Mantoux Tuberculin Test, according to Dolores Schmechel, District nurse.

The test is a simple one which reveals whether tuberculosis germs are in the body. Many apparently healthy children have been exposed to the infection, but in most cases the test results are negative. When a positive reading is found, the child is re-tested. A positive reaction, however, does not indicate that the child has tuberculosis, Mrs. Schmechel emphasized.

First graders at Collins, Central Avenue, Midland and Harvard elementary schools are scheduled to be tested Monday. On October 7, first graders at Parkland, Brookdale, James Sales and Christensen elementary schools will be tested. The re-tests, when necessary, will be given two days after the first test. The eighth graders at both junior high schools were tested this week.

The program is being offered free through the cooperation of the Pierce County Medical Society, Tuberculosis Association of Pierce County, University of Washington department of preventive medicine and the Tacoma-Pierce County Health Department.

Hunters! Hunters!

Meet Jack and Jill, a couple of sharp looking shoppers who are stocking up on hunting season staples with the able assistance of local merchants. Hunters who plan to bring home the bacon this season are invited to accompany this happy couple through the pages of the Times Journal for fresh ideas on supplies and where to buy them. Happy hunters can lean back in their chair to do their browsing while Jack and Jill do the leg work. Pretty Jill waxes enthusiastic over smart comfortable sports wear at smart comfortable prices. Jack knows a good boot when he sees one. The transportation problem gets solved to everybody's imminent satisfaction and it now appears that living conditions in camp don't have to be uncomfortable when modern campers are available.

Hunting is safer than ever with new walkie-talkies, bright clothes, modern equipment. Stocking the camp larder is a pleasure with the wide choice of fine foods the couple selects.

When the shopping is over, Jack and Jill are so happy to restoke the old furnace at a local eating establishment that the relaxing nimrods might just jump out of the lounge chair and join them!

Beautiful weather, bountiful game and all out of doors for a pleasuredom will bring out the hunters this season to thoroughly enjoy the sport of the great Northwest.

Smorgasbord To Be Sunday

It will be smorgasbord Grange Sunday from 12:30 time at the James Sales to 5 p.m. Turkey, ham, fish, vegetables, salads and pies will lead off the menu, priced at $1.50 for adults and half price for children under 12. Proceeds will be used for maintenance of the grange hall located at 612 S. 113th streets in Parkland.

Jack and Jill won't worry about fixing their own breakfast, when they crawl out in the wee hours of the morning. As is very obvious, they have found the "Hunters Breakfast" served at the Little Park Cafe to be a delicious start for a wonderful day in the field. Paul Dillinger, cafe manager, chats amiably with Jill, despite the early hour.

With JACK BROWN

The other day I was sitting at a banquet table in Canada flanked on either side by the only other two Americans present.

The program at one point called for a toast to the Queen and the singing of the patriotic song, "God Save The Queen". One of the other Americans brought up the question, under the table, as to what protocol we should follow during this ceremony. Since this man was quite famed as a writer, lecturer and traveler it kind of shook me to have him ask me this question, for the thought had come to my mind and I had decided to follow his course of action.

I immediately put the question to the other American, a Boeing scientist, and he in turn it seems had intended to follow my lead. I happened to remember the old cliché about the drunk who was asked if he drank to excess and who's reply was, "Sure, I'll drink to anything." I don't claim this to be my motto, but at the same time it seemed like the right course of action and I so advised my compatriots.

And so it was that as some 250 people rose to toast the Queen, no one drew heavier on the champagne than we three Americans, but as the song was sung by the general assemblage we chose to remain mute, for our allegiance lies only with the stars and stripes.

As I stood there looking out over the sea of faces lifted in tribute to their Queen, I tried to recall the last time I could remember such a group in America, lifting their voices to sing "America", our equivalent patriotic song. I'm sorry to say that I can't remember the last time and I do believe that I perhaps attend far more social functions in the States than the average person.

I can't remember the time when at one of these events we haven't all stood to bow our heads for the asking of Grace. This, in essence, to most is a reaffirming of their faith in the Lord. But what of their allegiance to the flag of the United States of America? Can it be that the type of people I associate with are the only ones who are too busy or care too little to raise their voices in praise of our country? I doubt it very much. I think it is something that for some reason, here in our 'Land of the Free', is being too often overlooked.

Frankly, I sit here at this typewriter, ashamed. I just realized that it's been so long ago that I joined in singing "America" that I have forgotten all the words. Now isn't that a hell of a note for a joker that considers himself a patriot?

Last night was one of those rare clear nights when the haze and fog had been blown away and you could really look up into the heavens and see the stars in all their glory. I stood out by the fence for a few minutes and couldn't help but think of one bit of information that I had gleaned lately putting into absolute fact something that I had heard referred to only in generalities before.

I heard one of the nation's leading scientists state that they now know for a fact that there are over one million constellations such as the one we live in and capable of bearing life in the same form as we know it, out in space.

Thinking back on the past reports of flying saucers, UFO's, etc., that the scoffers have made so much of, to the point that the average person today who happens to witness something similar fears to say anything publicly about it, makes me wonder.

If my mathematics serve me right, we here on earth have forged ahead scientifically to the point that launching men into space is no longer an idle dream, nor is the possibility of visiting other planets, yet with the odds one in a million that we should be the first to do so. Why then should we immediately put aside as illusion or class as impossible the reportings of UFO's that have been made before, some by very reliable individuals.

Looking up into the night skies I couldn't help but wonder, who are we to think that we are so far superior to all the other life that could be out there in space?

I'm sure an observing cuss. A while back I made mention of a sign I happened to see in Idaho that I thought rather clever. Imagine my chagrin to have some one point out the same sign, to the word, in the window of Bob's Place Texaco Service right here in Parkland.

Just goes to show that you should always check your own neighborhood first when you're looking for anything, whether it be bargains, news, views, oddities, or what not.

Congratulations

Farmers Now Eligible New Insurance

Approval of a new package farmowners insurance policy, filed by the Washington Surveying and Rating Bureau, which can save premium money for farmers, was announced recently by Insurance Commissioner Lee I. Kueckelhan. Kueckelhan said the new policy has been approved for use in the state beginning October 1, 1963.

The new farmowners policy combines various property and casualty insurance coverages into one basic package permitting the policy to be sold at a saving to the policy-buyer over the cost of the same basic coverages purchased separately.

Although several variations of property coverage are possible under this program, the farmowners policy principally insures farm dwellings, appurtenant private garages, certain personal property both on and away from the premises, and protects against financial loss from extra costs incurred by living away from the insured premises during periods the dwelling is uninhabitable because of damage from an insured peril.

Winterize Cars Now Advises Chief Betlach

It's not too early to begin getting your car ready for winter, according to Chief Roy A. Betlach of the Washington State Patrol.

The heavy rainy period is practically upon us, with the possibility of freezing weather and snow only a relatively short time away, he said. Each driver should not wait until these extreme conditions set in before he checks his vehicle for winter driving.

Actually, a thorough check should be made of the complete car so that each driver can be assured of driving a safe vehicle during the winter. This means having brakes checked, tires, windshield wiper, lights, horn, exhaust system, etc. All of these things are essential to good, safe driving. No driver is a really safe driver if his car is not in top condition all around.

State Patrol accident records show that faulty tail-lights, for example, can be responsible for a serious accident. On dark, rainy nights when the visibility is poor, it is most necessary that the rear end of your car be well lighted. Other parts of the vehicle are equally important. If they are all in good order, your chances of driving safely are multiplied many times.

Chief Betlach urges every automobile driver to take these steps at the first opportunity — winterize your car — check it over thoroughly, or have it checked by a qualified mechanic. At least that will be one step towards having a safer winter for Washington motorists, he said.

Sunshine Does Not Ripen Tomatoes

Directly, that is, indirectly sunshine is the energy for photosynthesis which in turn produces plant foods, which in turn promotes growth and enables the fruits to reach maturity. County Agent Jack Parsons reports that tomato ripening occurs when the fruit reaches maturity coupled with air temperatures above 50 degrees. The best temperatures for tomatoes to ripen is between 60 and 70 degrees.

To determine if a tomato is mature, take a sharp knife and slice the tomato. If this can be done without cutting any seeds, then the tomato is mature and can be ripened artificially. However, if the seeds are cut through they are immature and cannot be ripened off the vine. By using this test you can compare and select the tomatoes from your garden that are mature and place them in storage to ripen after frost has killed your garden.

Those who still doubt that sunshine does not ripen tomatoes could try this experiment. Place three mature green tomatoes in containers that keep out light but allow air to enter. Then place the containers at these temperatures — 50, 65 & 85 degrees. After one week remove the containers and be prepared for a surprise. The tomato stored at 50 degrees will be still partially green, the one stored at 65 degrees will be a deep red and the one stored at 85 degrees will be yellow-orange color and all of this occurred without any light. The difference in color at higher temperatures is due to development of lycopene (red color) and carotene (yellow color).

Wildlife Study Will Prevent Forest Damage

Foresters have launched a five-year study of wildlife damage to new forests in Washington and Oregon.

The project is being carried out by four public agencies and 10 private timber companies under sponsorship of the Northwest Forest Pest Action Council. The survey will attempt to place a dollar figure on nibbling by animals on hand-planted Douglas fir and ponderosa pine.

Foresters will establish 116 tests plot of fir and pine this winter in selected areas of Washington and Oregon. One in 10 seedlings will be ringed by a wire screen to protect it from hungry wildlife. By annually comparing growth of protected and unprotected seedlings, foresters hope to gather information for assessing dollar losses to forest regeneration.

One major timber company estimated annual wildlife damage to its timberland at $1 million. However, an official figure for all public and private timber holders in the Northwest has never been developed.

Three Local Students Get College Honors Here

Sue J. Evison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Evison of 512 E. Military Road, Tacoma 44, Wash.; Karen M. Korsmo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford M. Korsmo of 515 So. 119th St., Tacoma, Wash., and Leonard M.

Chance, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard M. Chance of 1202 Brookdale Rd., E., Tacoma, were among 91 entering freshmen who received special recognition Friday at the annual Academic Honors Convocation at Pacific Lutheran University.

Honors at entrance are conferred in a coordinated program of making awards by a number of West Coast colleges and universities which are members of the College Entrance Examination Board. These honors are a recognition of outstanding achievement in preparatory schools and in anticipation of distinguished performance at the college level.

Those who are recognized for honors at entrance have all achieved cumulative grade point averages of 3.5 or better throughout their college preparatory careers.

Honored along with the incoming freshmen were 137 returning students who had made the Dean's List during the spring semester, earning a 3.3 or higher grade point average.

Fourth Year Of Shows Brought Here Soon

The Broadway Theatre League of Tacoma, Inc., sponsored by the Beta Sigma Phi Sorority Chapters in Tacoma, has scheduled four Broadway plays starring major actors for the winter season. The first, "A Thousand Clowns" will be staged November 6. The plays will all be presented at the Temple Theater.

The league's membership drive opened October 1. Tickets will be sold at the Temple Theater box office from noon to 8 p.m. daily, except Sunday, until October 12.

"A Thousand Clowns" was written by Nebbish cartoonist Herb Gardner. It is the story of a television comedy writer trying to raise his "quizz kid" nephew and stars John Ireland.

The second play, scheduled for December 2, is "A Man for All Seasons". The play won the New York Critics' Circle Prize as the best play of the year. It stars Robert Harris.

March 10 is the date for the third play to be presented which will be "A Funny Thing Happened On The Way To The Forum". This is a musical based on the comedies of Plautus.

The fourth play will be "Lady Audley's Secret or Who Pushed George", scheduled for March 25. This is a melo-drama starring Anna Russell.

This is the fourth season for Beta Sigma Phi International Sorority to bring live Broadway plays to Tacoma. Profits from the sale of tickets are donated to variety of worthy charities.

At a recent election of Graham Auxiliary of District 21, all the incumbent officers were re-elected. Mrs. Dolores Barnhouse is president; Mrs. Nauna Jorgenson, vice president; Mrs. Sue Curtiss, treasurer and Mrs. Jeanette Reynolds, secretary.

The auxiliary is planning an "open house" in the new firehall in the near future. There will be a Bazaar Booth as well as a Plant Booth. An attractive ceramic centerpiece will be taken home by some visitor to the open house.

Firemen's Ball
Door prizes for the upcoming firemen's dance sponsored by District No. 21 and Kapowsin-Graham auxiliaries are pouring in from various business people of the area. Gas, oil, lube jobs, dinners and $100 worth of beef are included. Members of District No. 21 and Auxiliaries are being asked to bring one or two items to fill the basket of groceries some fortunate family will carry home.

Vacations
Mrs. Lewis Hague has left for Dallas, Texas, where she will visit the Don Whiteleys and their three sons, two of whom will be meeting their grandmother for the first time. Mrs. Whiteley is the former Beverly Hague, a Bethel High graduate of 1954. She is also a graduate of Tacoma General Hospital school of nursing. We hope those Texans won't brainwash our Mrs. Hague. She has promised to bring back a few millionaires to be divided by our community. Stand back, Gals!

The Elmer Rices of Kapowsin are also vacationing now. We all hope they have a wonderful time.

Home Makers Plan Workshop

Christmas workshop crafts were topics of conversation for the Busy Bees Home Makers Club at their September 25th meet in the home of Margaret Harper.

The workshop will be held at Waller Grange and is scheduled for November 22. As many members of the club as possible will be attending the state convention at Longview October 7, 8 and 9.

Speech Contest Open To All Jr., Sr. High

Junior and senior high school students all over the state are "talking it up" as bells ring for this year's Speech Contest, sponsored annually by the Washington Association of Soil and Water Conservation Districts, according to Kenneth Scholz, Chairman of the Pierce County Soil and Water Conservation District.

"People and Recreation in the Soil and Water Conservation Program" is the subject and the Pierce County Soil and Water Conservation District office at 506 River Road is the place for interested students to contact for additional information. The Soil Conservation Service technicians assisting the Pierce County Soil and Water Conservation District will be happy to furnish brochures and materials to help students in their preparation for this highly competitive event.

Kenneth Scholz says that the local contest is to be held at 2 p.m., October 2nd, at the Puyallup Valley High School. First, Second and Third place winners will receive $15, $10 and $5.

The three students who successfully down all competition from each of the three sections of the state will meet in final combat at the Annual Convention of the Washington Association of Soil and Water Conservation Districts being held this year in Wenatchee, October 31 - November 1 and 2.

Refreshments were served by the board members.

Scouts To Hold Court
Troop 76 will hold its Court of Honor at the Summit Youth Center at 7:30 p.m. Monday, October 7th.

Boys of the troop will be honored with the following awards: In Star Scout (3), First Class Scout (2), Second Class Scout (2), Tenderfoot Scout (6), and merit badges will be presented to nine boys. Also to be introduced will be the new troop officers elected during the past month.

Two Girl Scout Troops
With the new program change in Girl Scouting becoming effective this fall, Troop 93 divided into two troops at a ceremony on September 10th at the Summit Youth Center. Before the fourth, fifth and sixth grade girls were presented to their leader, Mrs. Paul Shirley, they received the new Junior Handbook as a reminder of their days in Troop 93 and to help them get started on their new program. The seventh, eighth and ninth grade girls who remained with Troop 93 also received the new Cadette Handbooks. These were awarded after a rededication by all of the girls. Both levels are very impressed with the new program and look forward to interesting and exciting Scouting for the years ahead.

Both troops are off to a good start having had meetings since September 10th. The Junior Troop No. 113, which meets at the Youth Center Thursday afternoons has also spent a Saturday hiking the Carbon River area, to help them earn their Gypsy badge.

Cadette Troop 93 has spent their Thursday afternoon meetings at the Youth Center planning and preparing for the months ahead. Newly painted paper boxes, located throughout the area, are waiting for your newspapers and magazines to help them realize their new goal for this year, which is an experience in International Friendship, a trip to Victoria, Canada, by boat. They also plan to go swimming once a month. Once a month the girls will meet with an adult who has knowledge that will help them to earn the Photography, Ceramic, Pottery and Reporter badges. They will study the field they are interested in.

There are a few openings in both troops for interested girls. For information for girls in the 4th, 5th and 6th grades, call Mrs. Baxter at LE 7-8412. For girls in the 7th, 8th or 9th grades, call Mrs. Torbet at LE 1-2128, Mrs. Caple at LE 7-8247 or Mrs. Kinton at LE 7-7903.

Interest has also been shown for the girls who are in the 2nd and 3rd grade who could be in a Brownie Troop. If your girl is interested, call Mrs. Torbet or Mrs. Kinton for information.

State Issues Info To Guide Sportsmen To More Game

In the area between the Cowlitz and Green rivers. In Pierce county the Eatonville herd provides a few elk to hunters each year.

Rabbits
The Puyallup river valley provides the best rabbit district in the area. Cottontails are found in small numbers in only a few spots. Rabbit hunters, in particular, are cautioned to get permission of the farmer to hunt.

Birds
Grouse are present throughout the district and Pheasant are estimated to yield about the same kill as last year. Pierce county's most popular hunting spots are the Puyallup and Ohop valleys and the Harts Lake region. In Thurston county the hunter should try Grand Mound, Rochester and Yelm.

Helping Hands

BETHEL JUNIOR HIGH'S newspaper staff and advisor, Mrs. Ann Van Wyck, again participate in Mrs. Edward P. Bynne's annual magazine drive for the benefit of youngsters in state and county corrective institutions. Mrs. Bynne reports that all 1962 and 1963 magazines are needed and older National Geographic's are always acceptable. In addition, the Bethel students are collecting jigsaw puzzles, games, small over night bags or suit cases are especially needed as many of the boys and girls go home for Christmas vacation. Besides their entertainment value, administrators report that magazines serve as classroom and project material all year. When every other possible use has been made of them, they wind up as cut-and-paste material for the youngest children. Room 9-C at Bethel Junior High is the local collection point.

The Franklin Pierce Cardinals take on the Glacier Grizzlies on Friday in the third game of the 1963 season.
Coming off two losses in their first two games, the Cardinals will be pointing for this one to get on the scoreboard with a win.
Coach Eldon Kylo said this week that fumbles at crucial moments and a failure so far to take advantage of opponents' mistakes have hurt the team.
He feels, however, that this year's team is a good one and will make itself felt during the rest of the season.
In last Friday's dedication game for their new stadium, the Cardinals were shut out by Renton, 20 to 0. Renton has been favored this year to win the championship.
Ron Pillo, quarterback, and Armen Asadourian, wingback, scored for Renton.
The Cards stopped the high-powered Renton attack thru-out the first half, stopping one touchdown drive, but the second half surge of the Redskins overpowered the locals.
Brad Peters, Cardinal quarterback, was hurt during the game but should be ready for Friday's setto with the Glacier squad. Dick Chambers, hurt in the High-line loss, should also be ready for Friday night.
One of the highlights of the dedication was the half-time show put on by the band and the yell staff.

Christ's Life To Be Shown In 12 Films

The most detailed depiction of the life of Christ ever filmed is to be presented in 12 episodes of 30 minutes each by the Harvard Church 1611 East 85th, Tacoma, each Sunday evening, starting October 6 at 5 and 7 p.m.
A special showing for the children of the community will be held Saturday mornings at 10:00. Gary Risher, Minister, said this would be the first showing of the complete motion picture series in this community.
The Church will be using their new motion picture facilities featuring a giant 7x9 screen, a special projection, booth which eliminates any noise from the projector, and an outstanding Hi-Fi sound system.
The public is invited to attend each of these showings. No admission will be charged. An offering will be taken.

Kitsap Posse Invites Riders To Gymkhana

Kitsap County Sheriff's Posse's annual Gymkhana is scheduled for October 6 at the Silver Spurs grounds adjacent to the Kitsap County Fair grounds. Show chairman Bob Eason and Bob Rose invite riders from this area to participate.
There will be trophies and ribbons to four places for the 19 games and two performance classes. There will also be a competitive drill with a large trophy and ribbons to four places.
A beef barbecue will be served on the grounds from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Forest Taxes Scheduled For Clarification

A public meeting to clarify forest taxation is scheduled for Thursday, October 3rd, at 8 p.m. The meeting, sponsored by the Pierce County Farm Forestry Association, will be held at the Purdy Community Hall in Purdy on the Peninsula.
Richard Junk, forester for the Pierce County Assessor's Office, will speak about forest taxation in the county. Topics to be covered are the ad valorem and classified land taxation methods and a review of recent and proposed changes in the forest taxation structure.
There will be ample opportunity for questions to be answered; also, written material explaining forest taxation in Washington will be distributed.
This should be a fine opportunity for woodlot owners to become more familiar with a phase of woodland ownership that vitally affects them.

MYF Sponsor Carwash

one having rummage may have it picked up by calling WA 2-6759 or LE 7-5210. Please wash and iron if possible all washable clothing. This will be greatly appreciated. All household articles

Halloween Coming
The Waller Road Grange will sponsor an all community Halloween party at the hall. This will include a Weiner roast. The committee in charge is making plans for the best party held in years. Details will be forthcoming.

Hospitalized

Booster Night
Booster Night for Waller Road Grange is set for October 18. All neighbors and friends are invited to attend.

New Citizen
It's a boy for the Harold Pedersons! Proud grandparents are the J. M. Pedersons.

Correction
The Community Service Contest in which Waller Road Grange placed third was a contest sponsored by the National Grange and Sears Roebuck Foundation. There was no connection in any way with the Western Washington Fair.

Waller Road entered in competition with over 140 other granges of the state. It is a contest of community services. The report in book form was submitted by the Community Service Committee of which Mrs. Fogle was chairman.

This is a note to correct the previous write up.

Seventy-Fifth Birthday Celebrated By Family

Mrs. John Folk LE 7-5801

Mr. and Mrs. Bernie Fritz of Canyon Road, were host and hostess at a dinner party celebrating the 75th birthday of Mrs. Fritz's father, R. M. Griffin of Tacoma, last Sunday. Attending were his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gifford, his grandson and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Griffin, and his great-grandson, Gary Griffin. A great granddaughter, Carrie Lynn and another great grandson, Todd Solberg, and Mr. and Mrs. Miller of Puyallup. Two sons, Richard and James of Tacoma, were unable to attend. A note of interest is that Mr. Griffin was an engineer on the Northern Pacific with his son, Frank, as his fireman. He retired and Frank is the engineer with his son Gary as his fireman.

Newly Weds
We wish to offer our congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hedberg (Alice Ann Titlow) who were united in marriage by Judge Waldo Stone at the home of Joseph's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hedberg, Saturday, Sept. 28. Mary Alice is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Titlow of E. 72nd, and Joseph is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hedberg of Tacoma. Joe's brother, Fred, was the best man and Miss Lynette Burgess, of Puyallup, maid-of-honor. The happy couple will make their new home at 2316 Bridgeport Way. Alice graduated from Puyallup High School and attended Yakima Valley College.

The Titlows seem to be our new family this week. We hear that Joe, who is attending Bowdoin College, in Brunswick, Maine, has been pledged Phi Upsilon and has turned out for Freshman football. Joe is majoring in Structural and Architectural Engineering. Margaret Titlow has been elected assistant director to the Capitol District of Garden Clubs and the Awards Chairman for the Washington State Federation of Garden Clubs. She recently attended the three day school on Horticulture and Flower Arrangement held at Wells Hall.

Luncheon
Mrs. Wilma Folk of Canyon Road was hostess at a pot-luck luncheon for a group of some workers, celebrating the end of the Fair. Attending were the Mesdames Kitty Miller, Ruth Rupe, Stella Miller, Carol Johnson, Tillie Durrin, Beatrice Dugaw, Bernice Harbor, Alice Vaars, Mary Bastron, Delaine Ronoy, Elinore Coates and Juanita Hickok. All were glad the Fair was over but each is looking forward to meeting again next year.
