Wash. State Agriculture Department Announces Public Hearing Aug. 5

Washington State Department of Agriculture Director, Joe Dwyer, announced today that a public hearing to consider proposed changes in five State Department of Agriculture regulations now in effect and one new proposed regulation relating to animal disease will be held in Olympia at 10:00 a.m., Wednesday, August 5, 1964. The hearing will be held in the Main Conference Room of the General Administration Building, Olympia. Interested persons may request copies of the proposed regulations from the Animal Industry Division, P.O. Box 120, Olympia.

PLU Appoints Former McChord Commander

Col. Vernon L. Stinzi, former commander of McChord Air Force Base, has been appointed to the faculty of Pacific Lutheran University as an assistant professor in business administration for the coming school year according to an announcement today by Dr. Robert Mortved.

Dwyer said that the proposed revisions in three of the regulations are a direct result of the progress made in the eradication of brucellosis and tuberculosis in cattle. With the very low incidence of brucellosis and tuberculosis in Washington cattle and the added safeguards against introduction of infection into clean herds, it is felt that relaxation of testing certain classes cattle could be accomplished at this time along with provisions to perfect tracing to herd of origin on the Market Cattle Testing Program.

Dwyer explained that with regard to the other two proposed changes in regulations, one has reference to the reporting of diseases by veterinarians which is strictly an up-dating of the previous order; the other is a change in the wording of the registered quarantined feedlot regulation for clarification only.

PSNB Ranks In 298th Place

The Puget Sound National Bank jumped 17 places among the some 400 national banks in the United States and now ranks as the 298th in size compared with 315th a year ago, according to a list compiled by American Banker, the industry's daily paper.

Puget Sound's deposits were $115,762,684.00 as of June 30, 1964 - an increase over $104,020,038.00 a year earlier. There are approximately 13,511 banks in the United States.

A.E. Saunders, president of the Bank, remarked about these gains with a great deal of pleasure and said, "If this pattern of growth is continued, we will experience another record-breaking year in all departments."

The new proposed regulation to be discussed, Dwyer said, is the result of the passage of a law by the 1963 Legislature permitting issuance of a limited license as a Public Livestock Market for the sale of horses and mules only. Under the law, the department is required to write regulations governing the operation.

Rummage Sale

A Rummage Sale, sponsored by the Kapowsin Rebekah Lodge 241, will be held August 7 and 8 at 114 West Pioneer in Puyallup. On Friday the rummage sale will run from 9 a.m. until 9 p.m. and on Saturday the hours will be from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

County Planning Commission To Meet August 4

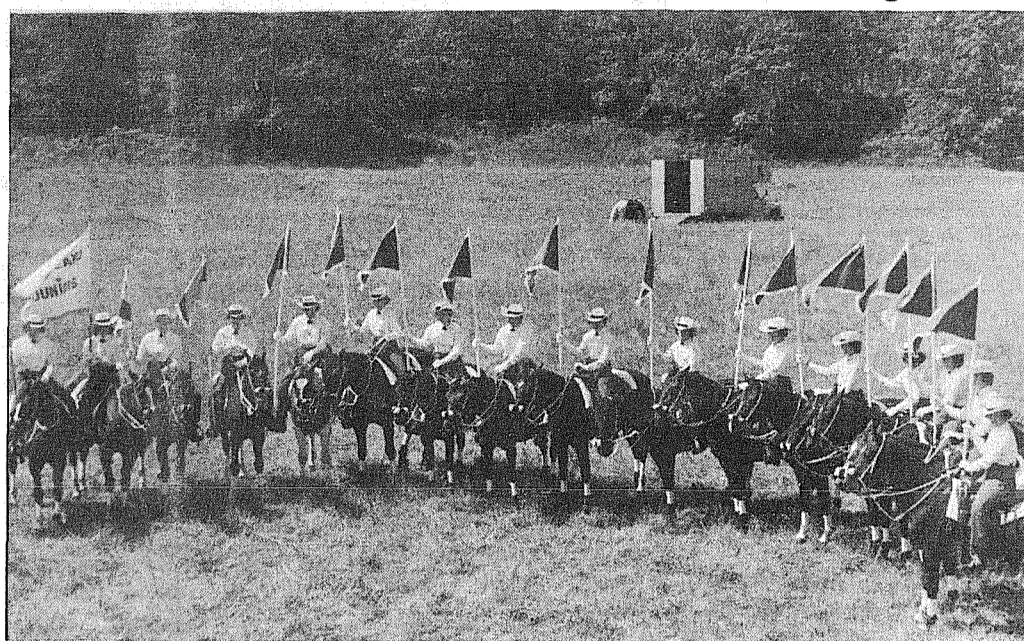

There will be a meeting of the Pierce County Planning Commission on Tuesday, August 4 at 2 p.m.

The two requests for zone changes interesting the residents of this area are Case Z 32-64, being petitioned by Iris Inman McLaughlin. The request is a zone change from SR-9 Suburban Residential to RHM Multi-Family Residence at the location which reads as follows: Property with a depth of 756 feet along the north side of South 84th Street beginning 331 feet east of Pine Street and extending east 260 feet.

The second is Case Z33-64 by petitioner Lee D. Allison. The request is for a zone change from G-General Use to C-2 Commercial at the location which reads as follows: About 14 acres with an approximate depth of 1000 feet along the west side of Waller Road beginning 640 feet north of 112th Street and extending north 660 feet; in the Midland area.

Also of interest to local residents is Case Z29-64 by petitioners E.W. and J.B. Veverka who's request is a zone change from G-General Use to SA-9 Suburban Agriculture at the location which follows: Properties in the Sumner Heights District bounded by Sumner Heights Drive and Edgewood Drive East, including land along the east side of Edgewood Drive East beginning at the intersection of Monte Vista and extending north approximately 930 feet.

Round-Up Parade Entry

THE PARKLAND JUNIOR RIDING CLUB is one of the many organized riding groups which will add color and entertainment to the Parkland Round-Up to be held on August 22 and 23. Entries are now being accepted for the Round-Up Parade which will begin at 10 a.m. on August 22nd.

Annual Round-Up Plans Under Way For Parkland

Don Bowerman, Parkland Round-Up Chairman, announces that the 1964 Rodeo scheduled to be held on August 22 and 23 as part of the Parkland Round-Up will be produced by Joe Kelsey of Tanasket, Washington, who is one of the leading RCA stock contractors and producers on the West Coast.

Five events on the program will have an added purse of $200 each and the girls barrel race will also have a $50 added purse.

The Round-Up will be a two day event with the Rodeo scheduled to start at 1:30 p.m. on both August 22 and 23. This promises to be one of the best rodeos ever held in the Western Washington area with many of the top professional cowboys competing.

The Parkland Round-Up Parade is set for August 22nd at 10 a.m. Among those already having sent in their entries are several Indian Tribes, a stagecoach, covered wagon, surreys, buggies and an eight passenger wagon.

Although the parade will be made up of mostly horses, a mobile band unit will be in the parade line-up plus Lawrence Armstrong of the Parade Committee has invited the Ft. Lewis Band, the Clan Gordon Band and the Shriners Clown Band to participate.

The Round-Up Queen will be chosen from the Rodeo Princesses who will be vying for the honor of leading the parade and other Round-Up festivities.

It's A 'Barn Raising Bee' On Schedule For The Sumner Junior County Fair

There's a real, old fashioned barn raising bee set for this Saturday, August 1st, at the Jr. Fair grounds in Sumner, when all of the livestock buildings will go up in grand style and rapid fashion.

Eight service clubs of the county have donated their services to the Fair for a day to make quick work of getting the livestock barns up and ready for the 16th annual show opening August 13th for 3 big days and nights. They'll all be there bright and early at 7 a.m. Saturday with hammers in hand, ready to put into place the 4 portable cattle barns; the sheep, horse and pony barns; and the chicken needle where the poultry exhibits reside.

There will be 80 men at a time at the fairgrounds from the Puyallup Rotary, Kiwanis and Lions Clubs; the Sumner Rotary; Daffodil, Hilltop and Lakewood Kiwanis groups; and the Orting Lions Club, working in shifts throughout the day to complete the job. The men of the Board of Directors of the Jr. Fair will be working too and the women of the Board will be serving coffee and goodies to the crews. Anyone with a spare hammer and willing hands is asked to join in and help too.

It's all in the interest of helping the 4-H and Future Farmers of America youngsters of Pierce County put on their annual fair, where they put to use the skills they have learned in the past year. They'll be exhibiting the projects they have raised or made, putting on demonstrations, and judging in competition.

For the Jr. Fair, everybody works, and Queen Nancy Wearne of Puyallup and her court of princesses will be no exception. They'll be there Saturday operating the "Bolt Bar", handing out the proper bolts for the right barns. There will be no screws missing for this building bee, it will be a place for everything and everything for every place.

Construction will begin next week on the remainder of the Jr. Fair. The umbrella tents which were purchased last year from the Seattle World's Fair, will go in to place, as will the trade fair booths, concession stands, and the entertainment stages. Fruitland Grange will again erect their dining tent and kitchen; and the Dahlia Show and Capitol District of Garden Clubs Flower show will go into place in the gymnasium.

One building is already up and in place. It's new, gaily painted "Pig Palace", the materials for which were completely donated to the Jr. Fair by the Pacific Lumber Agency in Sumner. All of the hogs entered in the fair this year will be residing in grand style in the spacious new Palace. There won't be a crowded pig in the place.

LeRoy Gruver, Building Supt. of the Fair, and his crew of 4 men, are working extra long hours this week, hauling the portable buildings from their warehouses to the grounds, to have everything laid out in place ready to put up. F.F.A. chapters from Puyallup, Franklin Pierce, Fife and Buckley will be lending a hand too. But with a shortage of available trucks, it will mean overtime work to get the buildings to the fairgrounds in time.

Progress Being Made In Rodeo Queen Search

Entries are now being taken for Rodeo Princesses as many of the local sponsors are still looking for girls to participate in the Annual Parkland Round-Up Queen Contest.

County Tennis Championships

Clover Park High School courts will be the site of the 4th Annual Pierce County Junior Tennis Championships beginning Monday, August 10th. Something new has been introduced this year with the addition of novice events for neophyte tennis enthusiasts in both an elementary and junior division.

Paper Drive

Eagle Scout Patrol of Troop No. 30 of the Parkland area will be staging a paper and rag drive starting Thursday, July 30th. For free pickup of your old papers and rags, call LE 1-1605.

Spanaway Man Winner In This Week's Contest

This week's winning $25 check in the New York World's Fair Bonanza Contest goes to George Tilton, Route 1, Box 1296, Spanaway, VI 7-2256, who deposited his winning coupon at the South End Hardware at 185th and Pacific.

There is still time for you to be a lucky winner so be sure you fill out a coupon and deposit it in the round green box at any participating merchant's place of business.

This week the Grand Prize Apache Camping Trailer will be shown at Parnell's Grocery on Mashell Street in Eatonville on Thursday and Friday, July 30th and 31st.

Len On Crutches Three Days But Refuses To Give Up Ride Eastward To New York World's Fair

Leonard Ott, one of Parkland's two World Fair-bound cowboys, met with a delaying injury last Thursday evening at the Jackson, Wyoming Rodeo Grounds when his horse reared and then fell on Len. For a time it was feared that Len had suffered serious injuries and Ted Friesz would be forced to continue the journey solo. X-rays showed no bones were broken and after a painful three days on crutches, Len and Ted left Jackson for Riverton and points east on Monday morning, July 27th. They expect to be in Casper about August 6th and in New York on October 18th. So far they have traveled about 1,000 miles and will have ridden nearly 3000 miles in the saddle by the time they reach New York. They have been averaging about 35 miles a day.

The Secretary of State of Montana, through one of his aides, presented Ted and Len with a citation and gold medallions. Ted is sending his home - he doesn't pack anything he doesn't absolutely need.

Our two cowboys missed the boat on the letter they are carrying to Gov. Nelson Rockefeller of New York State. While in Jackson they could have ridden a few miles to the Rockefeller Ranch north of there and delivered the letter personally on July 21st as Nelson Rockefeller was vacationing at his brother's J-L Ranch.

Next week will bring you more on the ups and downs of Ted Friesz and Leonard Ott as they gallop eastwards to the New York World's Fair.

It's all in the interest of helping the 4-H and Future Farmers of America youngsters of Pierce County put on their annual fair, where they put to use the skills they have learned in the past year. They'll be exhibiting the projects they have raised or made, putting on demonstrations, and judging in competition.

For the Jr. Fair, everybody works, and Queen Nancy Wearne of Puyallup and her court of princesses will be no exception. They'll be there Saturday operating the "Bolt Bar", handing out the proper bolts for the right barns. There will be no screws missing for this building bee, it will be a place for everything and everything for every place.

Construction will begin next week on the remainder of the Jr. Fair. The umbrella tents which were purchased last year from the Seattle World's Fair, will go in to place, as will the trade fair booths, concession stands, and the entertainment stages.

One building is already up and in place. It's new, gaily painted "Pig Palace", the materials for which were completely donated to the Jr. Fair by the Pacific Lumber Agency in Sumner.

Smile Awhile With Our Boys

TED FRIESZ AND LEONARD OTT are still smiling and in good spirits in this picture taken in Blackfoot, Idaho, as they started out on their ride from there. Since then, Len has met with an accident and by now is probably still smiling but not quite so broadly. His injuries, suffered in Jackson, Wyoming, were painful but neither Ted nor Len will give up on their ride to the New York World's Fair.

Sweden Being Toured By Marsha Gail Molund

Marsha Gail Molund, daughter of the Elmer Molunds of Vickery Road, is an enthusiastic teen-age tourist in Sweden this summer. Marsha won a 2-month trip with the Western Vasa Youth Tour through the Children's Club, Solstrand No. 7, of the Vasa Lodge of America in Tacoma. On a competitive judging, based on singing, dancing, basic Swedish language and attendance at weekly classes, Marsha scored number one of the five youngsters from Tacoma who are on the trip.

The local five left Tacoma June 27th, boarding a chartered Greyhound Bus, which took them and Seattle-Portland members to San Francisco for the plane flight to Sweden. 50 youngsters, plus chaperones, enplaned for Malmo, Sweden June 30th. They made stops at Chicago, Greenland and Ireland before reaching their destination.

The group are guests of the various Vasa Lodges throughout Sweden where they perform their well-planned and well-rehearsed programs four to six nights per week. Marsha writes she has been homesick only once and that was the Fourth of July.

The group was completing their program of dances and songs, when all the lights were turned off. Each youngster was given a lighted sparkler to hold, and in the flickering light they proudly sang "America, the Beautiful". When the last strains faded away and the lights were turned up, the boys and girls were amazed to see all their companions with tears streaming down their faces.

The children are scheduled for an audience with the King of Sweden at his summer home; a boat trip to the island of Visby (a Swedish landmark); a visit to Upsala University; five days shopping and sight-seeing in Stockholm and final two weeks with relatives. Marsha had an added item to put in her memory book when she celebrated her 13th birthday in Sweden on July 14th.

Mr. and Mrs. Molund plan to travel to San Francisco via Reno with their two daughters, Merel Lee and Paula Joy, to meet the group upon their return to the United States. They will visit with Mrs. Molund's parents and twin sister before returning to Tacoma the end of August.

Marsha will be entering the 8th grade at West Junior High this fall, and is an active Jr. High Camp Fire Girl in the Franklin-Pierce District.

Marsha's parents and twin sister before returning to Tacoma the end of August.

The Vacation Bible School pupils and their families are welcome to attend.

The picnic will be a Pot Luck affair with the ice cream treats being furnished by the Sunday School. Those planning to attend are asked to bring their own table service.

a - Wondering and a - Wandering ...

With JACK BROWN

I was talking to a young friend of mine on the phone the other day and he said, "Jack, some of the things that are happening in our country just rile my guts." Bluntly put, but well put and an expression among our younger men that should be well accepted by all, for it shows clearly the trend in America to preserve Americanism.

Like my friend, I too, get riled up. There are times when I try to convince myself to shut up and bow out. I can't help but think how easy it would be just to pick up some filler matter to put in the space this column takes, save myself several hours of writing and reading each week and keep from getting riled up.

Then on the other hand all I have to do is get a letter from my oldest son, telling me that he's walking down a road in the Philippines where I once walked, ducking lead while fighting for our freedom, and I think of him and my other children and their future and here I go again, at the typewriter. If we all sit on our hands there won't be any future for them.

I see where the president has asked for thirteen million dollars so that (and I quote) the FEDERAL GOVERNMENT can enforce the laws enacted under the Civil Rights Bill.

I just can't seem to stand up and yell "Hooray" over this. As far as I am concerned, there goes some more of my tax money to force me, by law, to do something I have been doing right along. And along with the money goes a big chunk of my cherished freedom that I never expect to have returned to me. This is my main objection.

Then how about those solons who expressed shock and amazement when the skipper of an American freighter reported that the wheat he had just unloaded was being reloaded on a ship bound for Cuba.

Do they think we are so stupid that we will believe that they didn't know. I knew! And you knew! Then how come some joker that's supposed to represent us didn't know, or better yet, how come they allowed the deal to be made in the first place?

I said it before and I'll say it again. That deal stinks. Your money and mine is being used to pay the difference between the world price paid for the grain and the higher domestic price. Your money and mine is being used to pay the difference in U.S. and foreign flag ships to deliver the stuff, and who gets the benefit? Castro! Now isn't that just cozy?

Then how about raising the national debt another few billion? Sure wish I could run my business that way. In Washington there seems to be no qualms about just raising the limit and keep shelling out.

Our government today is the biggest business in the world. Daily, small businesses go bankrupt, proving that you can't operate at a deficit forever. When will realization hit the hill?

It seems there are those who still insist on worrying about my personal life. It's no one's business but my own, yet I have no reason to keep it a secret, so I'll bring you up to date.

My Philippino housekeeper got sick and my mother came down from Pt. Angeles to help out, and since the little gal wanted to go live with her sister in California, I conned my mother into staying on and taking care of the house and my number two and three sons. She did. She likes it. I like it, and we're a happy family.

My kids are well fed, carefully looked after, well clothed and I try to bring them up well mannered. What's wrong with that?

Bringing them up by myself may not be easy, but my children certainly are not suffering from the situation. If anything, I believe that they are benefiting, for they most certainly are more self-sufficient than some children from two-parent homes that I know.

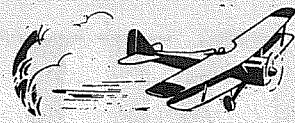

So that's off my chest.

The other day I was standing on a sidewalk in Reno, leaning against a building and watching the world go by, when some reasonably good looking woman walked up to me and asked the time of day. What she had on from her belly button up wouldn't make a handkerchief for a midget, and I admit what I thought of her wasn't "Upper Broadway."

Just then a car pulled up to the curb with a bunch of kids leaning out the window yelling, "Hey, Mom, come on." The gal said to me, "Never mind, here comes my family now," and away she went, leaving me ashamed for having thought her in the wrong category, but on the other hand revolted, in a way, to think that the mother of such a nice covey of kids like that could wander around looking like she just stepped out of the "Irma La Douce" film.

Like I said before, maybe if they just let the women take everything off completely, it may solve the whole problem. After all there is a very good possibility that the nudists have something.

A nudist leader once told me that it's not what a man sees that bothers him. It's what he doesn't.

Thun Field News

by John Thun and John Schell

If you have ever or never heard of a pilot getting down on his hands and knees to pray, you should have seen it the night before the Air Show at Thun Field. But that Aztec idol was completely satisfied and there was more sunshine than they knew what to do with.

Come Sunday morning the people were pouring through the gates and kept coming until late afternoon to watch some of the most spectacular exhibits of showmanship ever performed with planes. The aerobatics thrilled the crowd. The young and old alike enjoyed the parachute jumps, plus the excellent display of antique aircraft.

Those winning trophies were: Merle Replogle, most unique homebuilt plane; Lance Aikins, youngest pilot; Arnold Cassidy, oldest pilot; Don Chessman, flew the longest distance; Lee Davis, oldest plane; Harley Stewart, most beautiful antique; Dave Gauthier won the best homebuilt plane with a Fokker Tri-Plane and he, in turn, gave his cup to the Sorrel brothers, builders of the plane; most original antiques was won by Jim Moss.

John Schell gave several rides to grownups and children alike, during the air show, and later demonstrated the versatility of the Hughes helicopter.

Ross Lemaster and his wife chartered the Cessna 172 recently and flew to Eugene, Oregon and back.

Mr. Schell was also seen giving rides down at Norm's Shell Service in Puyallup at the grand opening, held during the weekend of July 18, 19.

Dick Appelgren of Wolfpoint, Montana, soloed the Hughes helicopter July 20, and has been marked by his instructor, John Schell, as an excellent student.

One hundred and seventy men, women and children from the Western Travelers attended the Tieton Reservoir Fly-In. They arrived in 26 assorted airplanes, trucks, jeeps, cars and what-have-you.

Judy and Bud Blancher drove up to the Fly-In enroute home from a 14 month trip in Europe. The brother and sister pair are from Puyallup and are former Thun Field employees. They worked in Switzerland for eight months of their 14 month European stay.

Water Carnival Set For Aug. 5

Coming events for all playground participants is highlighted by the 8th Annual Playground Jamboree and Water Carnival to be held Wednesday, August 5. Winners of all playground contests for the entire summer will meet and county-wide champions will be crowned in ping pong, paddle pool, checkers, tetherball, jump rope, and other such playground activities. Swimming and canoe racing will be held in the afternoon. The spotlight of this year's jamboree will be on a new event - the 1st Annual Frog Jumping Contest. Local playgrounds have held contests and these winners will leap against each other to determine the County-wide Frog Jumping champ.

The asphalt taxiways between the hangars at Thun Field have been completed and the new four car garage for the field is almost finished.

Merle Replogle has been putting his Tri-Motor through high speed taxiing tests and hopes to put it in the air in the next week or so.

Dick Stark is basing his Stitts Playboy at Thun Field now.

Many cross-country flights have been logged in and out of Thun Field this past week due to the ideal summer weather and flying conditions.

Spanaway Field

Art Hahn, an Air Force navigator, soloed this past week in the Tri-Traveler. Also soloing in the Tri-Traveler were Capt. Eckmann of Ft. Lewis and James Pitzer.

Harold and Irene Johnston returned from Spearfish, So. Dakota in their Mooney last week.

The R. C. Lawsons flew to Roche Harbor in the San Juans last Thursday evening in the Mooney to celebrate their 18th wedding anniversary.

Ross Lemaster and his wife chartered the Cessna 172 recently and flew to Eugene, Oregon and back.

Concert To Be Given Sunday By PLU Quartet

The Ambassador Male Quartet from Pacific Lutheran University, Tacoma, Washington, will give a sacred concert here Sunday, Aug. 2 at 9:30-11:00 a.m. in Bethlehem Lutheran Church, 101 East 88th St. The public is invited. There will be no admission charge, but a free will offering will be taken. Included on the program will be arrangements of familiar hymns, church music classics and well known spirituals.

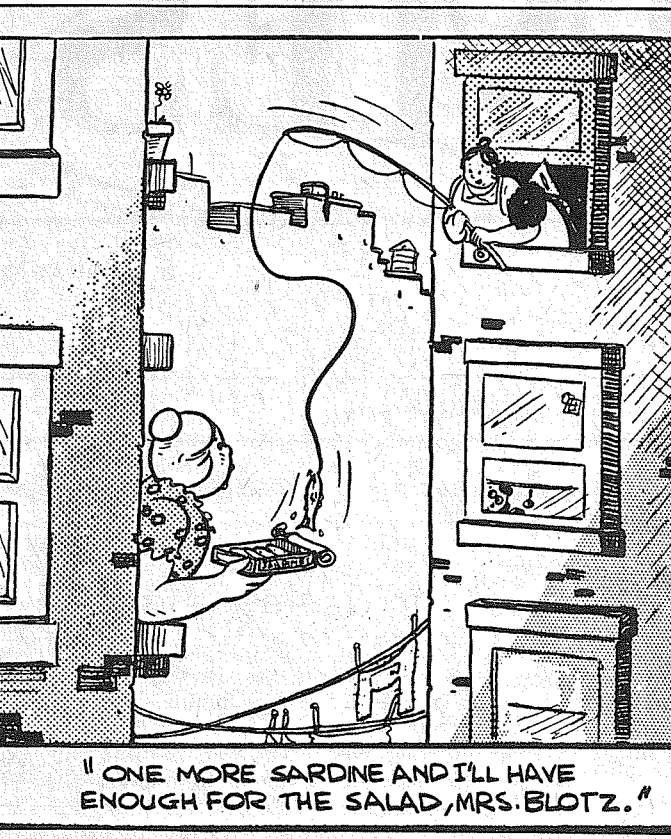

The hymns will include such favorites as "A Mighty Fortress Is Our God," "O God, Our Help in Ages Past," "Beautiful Savior," and "Now The Day Is Over." Among the spirituals the Quartet will sing here are "Mary Had a Baby," "Let Us Break Bread Together," "This Me, O Lord," "Steal Away" and "Climbin' Up The Mountain."

In addition to songs by the Quartet, there will be vocal solos and a devotional talk.

Members of the Quartet include Stephen Cornils, North Hollywood, Calif., first tenor; Eugene Trent, Bremerton, Wash., second tenor; Lynn Ertsgaard, Salem, Ore., baritone; and Richard Nace, Tacoma, Wash., bass.

Each summer since 1952 this singing group from PLU has taken concert tours throughout the West. On their tour they will give over 100 concerts in churches in the states of Washington, Oregon, California, Utah, Idaho, Montana, Wyoming and North Dakota. In Canada they will give concerts in British Columbia, Alberta and Saskatchewan.

LIFE IN THE ROAR by KANE

"ONE MORE SARDINE AND I'LL HAVE ENOUGH FOR THE SALAD, MRS. BLOTZ."

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor:

Although several weeks have gone by, we still feel the loss of our pet rabbit so unnecessarily mutilated. He was a part of our family and had been with us for 4 1/2 years. He was housed in a well constructed hutch in our yard and annoyed no one. But it took only one dog to force open the hutch and destroy him. By the time we heard the commotion it was too late; our yard is fenced all around so the dog was not small.

It seems odd that residents have dogs for their protection or for their children's pets and yet allow them to roam at all hours to destroy and ruin others' property. Their incessant barking is a nuisance, also. Our pet bothered no one and certainly made no noise.

This protest will not bring him back to life, but I am sure I would feel quite guilty if I had a dog that was permitted freedom at all hours and possibly might have been the one who killed another's pet.

We are highly in favor of a leash law being enforced in this area.

Sincerely, Lillian, Michael and Brian O'Shea 904 So. 114th St.

July 10, 1964

Dear Friends: You are cordially invited to take part in the Parkland Round-Up Parade on August 22, 1964. This is said to be the largest western parade in Washington state. Commercial floats of all kinds are most welcome, but the riders should wear western clothes or other western motif.

Businessmen of Parkland and vicinity are especially urged to find and place an entry in the parade. This annual event is an easy and inexpensive way to bring a lot of publicity and good will to our area.

Novelty and musical numbers are needed as well as old time and western entries. Antique cars are most welcome as they serve as spacers between the bands, calliopes, bagpipes, etc. and the large number of horses and riding groups in our parade. The Parkland Business Club as sponsors urge you to fill out an entry blank and return at the earliest possible date.

Sincerely yours, Lawrence E. Armstrong Parade Committee

To The Editor, Times Journal Yes, I'm a so called rightest Democrat and Demo-Republicans holler about, descendant of two Quaker families who don't believe war gets you anything but a scab on the nose.

I became rich working at producing lumber for the U.S. and taking care of two old parents at $4.00 to $6.00 a day. The first war I produced perhaps more different fruits and vegetables than anyone in Pierce County at the government price - often less than cost. During the second war tons went to waste or was given away because no gasoline or sugar to can and after 30 years and 75 had my income taken by condemnation for so called industrial purposes, though never used, at half its value.

I'm not a Commie. One side of the family, old time Americans were said to have operated or helped the underground to free ill-treated negro's. The other was England's oldest and first banking family.

Tips on GOOD LANDSCAPE GROOMING By Howard & Elaine Motteler

An interesting example of the "imbalance" of nature is the increasing number of robins. Gardeners who have tried to raise a crop of cherries, blackberries, huckleberries, blackcaps or raspberries, realize the difficulty of keeping the fruit long enough to allow it to ripen on the tree or bush. One of the main reasons for growing fruit at home is to allow the fruit to ripen fully to attain maximum flavor. It is no longer possible to have tree-ripened fruit unless the gardener maintains a constant vigil to discourage the robins. A young, isolated plant may escape this plunder for a year or two until the robins discover it and train their young where to come in future years.

This is an age old problem. Even in Biblical times youths were stationed in fields to keep the birds out. We have tried many devices for discouraging the robins. Such claimed bird-retarders as tinkling bells, shiny plates and strips of aluminum foil may decorate the tree prettily and add to the festive occasion for the birds, but do not keep them away. Fur set on limbs or even a cat, placed in the trees, doesn't seem to disturb them. Even a person in a tree, unless he vigorously shakes the branch where the robins light, doesn't seem to bother them.

The old method of planting a diversionary mulberry tree near the fruit trees does not work. Mulberries ripen gradually over a period of time. After the birds have eaten the crop of mulberries that are ripe for that day, they go on to eat any other fruit close by. In fact, the mulberry seems to attract more robins than it can feed.

There are a few accepted methods that will protect the fruits. One is to pick the fruit green. Another method is to enclose the bush or tree in a wire screen. Some commercial blueberry growers are doing this.

Another device is to plant a gold, sweet cherry next to a later ripening dark variety. The birds will tend to bother the darker cherries over the yellow cherries. The yellow cherries then ripen before the robins discover their error.

Get Your Jr. Fair Exhibits Ready Now

If you are planning to enter this year's Pierce County Junior Fair, you must have your entry blanks in to fair headquarters by August 1st. All 4H and Future Farmers of America members of Pierce County are eligible to enter, as are adults in the special open classes of photography, dairy, the Dahlia Show, and Garden Club Flower Show. The only exception to the August 1st deadline rule are the 4H exhibitors of garden, flowers and small fruit, whose entry sheets are brought with the exhibits to be entered the day before the fair opens.

or from the County Agents office at the County-City Building. The adult dairy show will be held at the Fair, Friday, August 14th. To enter, animals must be recognized by a registered Breed Registry Association, or if under one year of age, be eligible for registration papers should accompany the animals at the show. Any youth showing in the youth division may also show in the adult division, providing animal is registered with breed association and additional entry is made by the deadline date.

Entries close at 6:00 p.m., Saturday, August 1st, for the third annual photography salon at the Jr. Fair, according to Fred Richey, Superintendent. This contest is open to anyone in the State of Washington. Entry blanks and information for this show may also be secured from the above stated locations.

Other divisions open for adult or junior participation are the Washington State Dahlia Society Show, and the Capitol District of Federated Garden Clubs sponsored Flower Show. Entries will be received August 12, and 13th in both divisions.

The 16th annual Jr. Fair opens in Summer August 13.

New Grandson
Mr. and Mrs. Pat Munsy of Canyon Road have renewed their membership in our Grandparent's Club with the birth of Kyle Patrick to their son-in-law and daughter Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Barnes (Linda) July 14th. He weighed in at 6 lbs. His paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Fred Barnes of Puyallup.

Home From Trip
Mr. and Mrs. John Folk (your reporter) of Canyon Road with their daughter Sharon and granddaughter Pamela returned from a two week trip which took them to Reno, Lake Tahoe, Carson City and to Tijuana, Mexico. On the way home they visited Disney Land, Knott's Farm, The Wax Museum, and Marine Land. They toured the Mission San Luis Rey and the fabulous Hearst's Castle and ended their trip with the overnight stay with Mr. Folk's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Folk in Hillsboro, Oregon, P.S. Your reporter has decided she should never become a gambler.

Visitor From Minnesota
Mr. and Mrs. Royal Lattrell of Canyon entertained Mr. Lattrell's cousin, Mr. Harvey Lattrell, of North Home, Minnesota, over the week-end. A family picnic was held Sunday at Black Lake so the visitor could meet everyone.

Back from Camp Fire Camp
Mrs. Harry Jackson of E. 72nd returned after a week with the Wakoma Camp Fire Girls near Longbranch. In her capacity as nurse she treated a broken finger and a few minor scrapes and bruises.

Karen's Little Kitchen

France holds a unique place in the hearts of gourmets. If it is true that every country gets the food it deserves, certainly France deserves the finest food. In no other country do the pleasures of the table occupy such an important position, become the subject of so much conversation, and constitute so important a part of the national character. Tips about restaurants are considered as important as tips about the stock market. A Frenchman demands the best, will refuse anything else, and thus by elimination France has the greatest chefs, restaurants, and food. French cooking has become the accepted and classic cuisine of the world.

Many people think of French cooking as being fancy and rich. As a matter of fact, French cuisine has great variety, probably more so than any other cuisine in the world. True, it includes elegant dishes, but the average family eats peasant style dishes, satisfying and full of flavor. The French cook manipulates seasonings and flavorings in much the same way that a conductor would lead a symphony orchestra. He may prepare a daube, using wine, garlic, several herbs and vegetables all blended to give a subtle, rich taste. Or he may emphasize one particular herb in a dish such as chicken tarragon. Roast chicken with tarragon (poulet aux tarragon).

This is a classic dish. In the north of France where tarragon is a garden herb, it is often the choice for Sunday dinner. Choose a fine, plump roasting chicken, or capon weighing 5 to 6 pounds. Rub inside and out with a cut lemon and salt. Put 5 to 6 tablespoons of butter and a good-sized sprig or two of fresh tarragon in the cavity. Or rub a little tarragon in your hand and add it to the butter maxing together before putting them in the cavity. Rub skin of bird with the butter and a little tarragon. Put the chicken on a rack in a roasting pan and roast in moderate oven (375) 20 minutes. Remove and turn to the other side. Baste with drippings and a little additional melted butter and roast again 20 minutes. The chicken should be done. (Test to see if the legs move easily at the thigh joint). Serve with pan juices and sauteed potatoes.

ONION SOUP
(SOUPE A LOIGNON)
1/3 cup butter, 5 onions sliced thin, 2 tablespoons flour, 7 cups stock or 3 cans beef consomme and 2 cans water, 1/2 teaspoon pepper, 6 slices white toast (French, if possible), 6 thin slices Gruyere or Swiss cheese, 4 tablespoons grated Gruyere or Swiss cheese.

Melt the butter in a heavy saucepan, add the flour and mix until smooth. Add the stock gradually, stirring constantly. Add the pepper. Cover and cook over low heat for 30 minutes. Correct seasoning. Put a slice of toast in each soup plate or individual tureen. Place a slice of cheese on the bread and pour the soup over it. Place under the broiler for 1 minute to melt the cheese, if desired. Sprinkle with grated cheese and serve.

FRASES ROMANOFF
(Yield, 4 servings)
4 cups fresh strawberries, juice from two oranges, 3 tablespoons Curaco, 1/4 cup Cognac, whipped cream and slivered almonds.

Clean and wash strawberries. Leave whole. Place in equal amounts in large stem glasses. Blend orange juice and Curaco. Pour in equal amounts over berries. Add whipped cream to taste. Sprinkle with slivered almonds over berries. Add Cognac in equal amounts to the berries. Add whipped cream to taste. Sprinkle with slivered almonds. Serve with a chilled glass of Sparkling Burgandy or Champagne.

CAP Cadets Tour McChord

Summit Notes

Sue Johnson
LE 7-7159

Next Sunday at Summit Bible Mission a big day is anticipated with reorganization of the Sunday School. We are expecting evangelist missionary, Brother Galloway, who in years past held special meetings in this church. Old friends are invited to meet and renew old acquaintances with Brother Galloway. Also a contest with the children will be announced at the 1:30 p.m. Sunday School hour. Children without a Sunday School home are especially invited. A call to GR 2-6629 will make arrangements to pick up those without transportation.

Information and pre-registration forms may be secured at the church office, 9442 Pacific Avenue or by calling GR 2-4824, GR 5-0256.

CAP Squadron Tours McChord

The McChord Civil Air Patrol Cadet Squadron visited several facilities of their base station last Friday as part of their aerospace educational training.

Escorted by USAF Lt. Howard Howe, McChord Cadet Squadron Commander, and Toured Base Operations, Weather Station, Radar Approach Control (RAPCON) and the tower.

At Base Operations, Maj. Emerson E. Heller, Base Operations Officer, briefed the cadets on rules and regulations of air traffic control. He also explained various aspects of flight planning, such as how to cope with mountainous terrain, weather and several other inflight hazards.

Lt. Roger C. Clapp of the Base Weather Station showed the CAP members how weather information is received at the base and the service available to pilots for flight planning.

During their visit to RAPCON and the tower, the group had an opportunity to witness on the radar screens an actual Tactical Evaluation (Tac Eval) in progress. A Tac Eval is a test of the defense capability of a military installation.

Mr. Edward Mateczak, FAA representative, explained to the visitors how an aircraft is controlled by radar from take-off until landing and the coordination between RAPCON and the tower.

The tower afforded the cadets an excellent view of the entire base and the fighter, transport and various other aircraft.

Several students had an opportunity to climb in a T-33 jet trainer. Capt. John E. Collins, Operations Officer, briefed them on the exterior of the T-bird as well as on the capabilities and use

Notice To Korean Vets

Two bills recently signed into law by President Johnson will benefit veterans who hold National Service Life Insurance policies.

More than 90,000 World War II and Korean Conflict veterans in Washington State who hold National Service Life Insurance policies may benefit from an extension of premium waiver provisions. At present the law provides for the waiver of premiums if the insured becomes totally disabled before his 60th birthday.

The new law, applying to all NSLI policies, raises the disability deadline to the insured's 65th birthday, according to John B. Kirsch, Manager of the Seattle Veterans Administration Regional Office.

This provision will be automatic included in all policies. The new law takes effect January 1, 1965.

The second law authorizes the granting of a new total disability income provision which provides a monthly income of $10 for each $1,000 of insurance if the insured becomes totally disabled before reaching his 65th birthday. The present law, Kirsch explained, has an income provision if the disability occurs before the insured's 60th birthday.

This second law also takes effect on January 1, 1965. Service-disabled veterans holding "RH" insurance policies will not be eligible for this new total disability income provision.

Those who are eligible must be in good health. They must file an application and must pay an additional premium.

Kirsch pointed out that application forms for the disability riders will be available this fall. GI policyholders affected will be advised. There will be no need to write the VA, he said.

The Waller Road Word

Mrs. Vern Fogle LE 7-5210

The Annual Waller Road Grange Community Fair, highlighted with the serving of a complete Barbecued Chicken Dinner starting at 1 p.m. is scheduled for Sunday, August 2nd at the Grange Hall on East 64th near Waller Road.

Entries to the Fair are open to anyone interested and will be welcomed as the weather has not been the best to enable folks to have the choice of vegetables to exhibit. Bring the best of what you have. You may call Mrs. Hughes at WA 2-8012 as to the amount necessary.

Competition is needed in the Baking division also. The classifications are sweet rolls, coffee cake, cookies and any others of merit, Junior Division cookies and cup cakes. Canning and sewing divisions are in need of entries as well.

Entries will be received Saturday, August 1st from 7 to 9 p.m., on Sunday 8 to 11 a.m. The Flower Show schedule was printed earlier. The livestock and dairy entries will be accepted on Sunday only as will also the poultry and rabbit entries.

This lively show is open to all County 4-H and FAA Youth. They are judged exactly the same as they will be for the Summer Junior Fair and the Western Washington Fair.

There will be two shows rings and trophies and ribbons will be awarded. The outside activity is scheduled to start at 11 a.m., with the inside activity beginning one hour later at noon. Dinner will be served at 1 a.m. to 5 p.m. with Mrs. Roy Looker in charge.

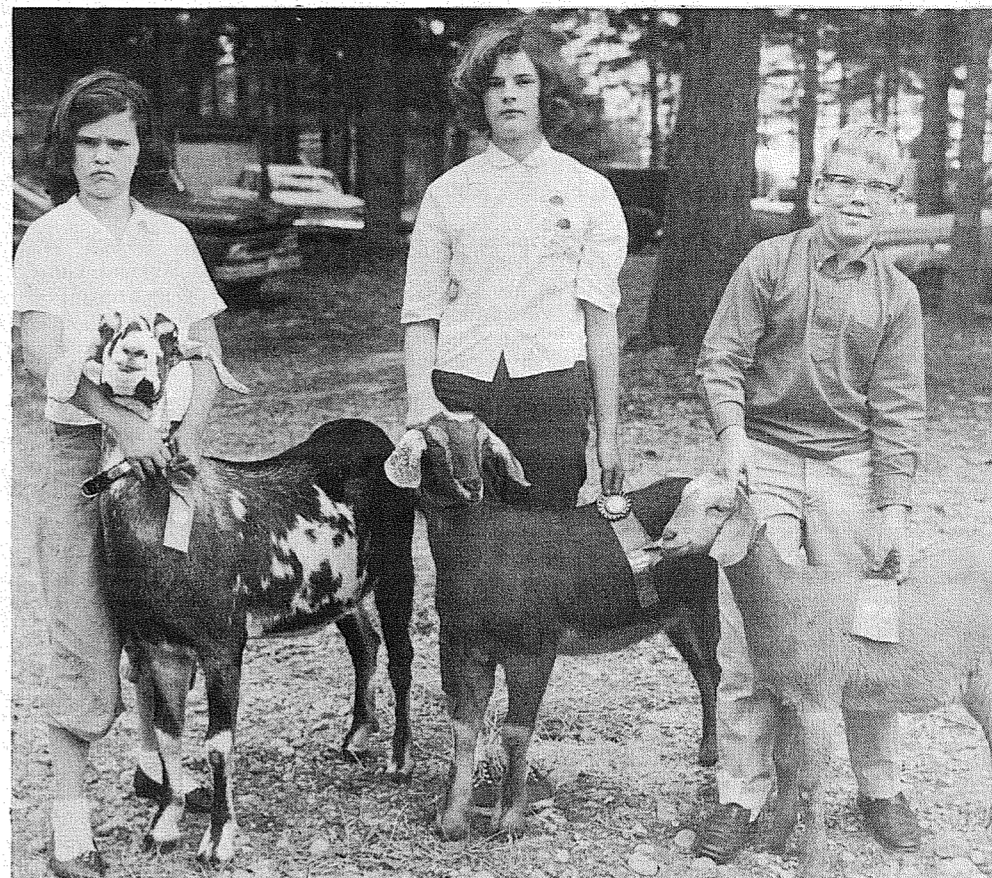

A Pig Scramble will be held in the afternoon for children under the age of fourteen with the winner receiving the 6 week old piglet.

The winner last year was George Walk, Jr. He raised the piglet, selling it at butchering age and depositing the profit in his "College Fund".

The Grand Award for the day will be a Rotisserie in a redwood cabinet. Tickets will be available although there is no admission charged to anyone wanting to attend the Fair.

Concessions of all types will be on the grounds to keep the youngsters occupied. Bring the family and enjoy the fun!

Expert Gives Warning Don't Spare The Water

Don't spare the water is the advice of county agent Jack Parsons. When water is needed by a growing plant, whether it be a cabbage plant or the grass in your lawn, it is needed desperately. For every plant it is difficult to tell when to start and when to stop watering.

We certainly cannot tell the need for water down at the root system of the plant by looking at the surface of the soil. Therefore, the ordinary garden spade is the most useful tool that we have in determining when we should begin our irrigation of our lawn and garden. The spade is equally useful in determining when the water has reached down into the soil where the roots of the plants are. And when the water has moved into the soil to the depth of the rooting of the plant, this is the time to turn off the water. On a sandy soil this time may be reached very quickly, while on a clay soil, the time it takes the water to move down into the root zone of the plant may be a long period of time. This, then, is the basic rule for watering lawn or garden. If you have a sandy soil, it will be necessary to water frequently but very little at each application. While on a clay soil, it may be necessary to water for extended periods of time but to water very frequently.

Another problem that we often encounter when irrigating our lawns and garden, is knowing how much water we have actually put into the area. This can be found out by using a flat bottom, straight sided, container that is placed in your sprinkler's pattern. By doing this at the beginning of your irrigation and then checking it periodically, you can determine how much water was applied.

In lawns the thatch layer is often a factor in reducing the amount of water that penetrates into the surface of the soil. If the thatch is deep on your lawn, then you should consider renovating your turf area this fall and/or early next spring. Another the summer. The problem months (July and August) for watering our lawns are the two times that the wetting agent should be applied to your lawn. The wetting agent works on the principle of reducing the surface tension of the grass and soil which allows more rapid penetration of water.

Statement From Candidate For State Senate

I am a candidate for the Republican nomination for State Senator from this district. First, let me say that I propose to represent the people of the 25th district rather than to do the bidding of the governor as the present State Senator has been doing.

The Republican Party and I have gone on record to maintain the dairy herd and other livestock at the Rainier State School at Buckley.

I favor improved education for everyone. It is my intention to promote the opportunity for vocational training for junior and senior high school students as a complete study course. These students could then receive a high school diploma after completing successfully a vocational training program. Only in this way can our young men and women be prepared for the increasing skill requirements and job opportunities in today's world.

I believe we need a "Doctor in the House (or Senate)" to help cure the ills of a sick state. I am really concerned with the lives and happiness of all of the good people of our state.

The Country Parson

I believe we need a "Doctor in the House (or Senate)" to help cure the ills of a sick state. I am really concerned with the lives and happiness of all of the good people of our state.

DR. J. HUGH KALKUS
My wife Bea Ann and I have three children. I have been successful in the practice of medicine as a general practitioner in Fife and Puyallup for almost 20 years. I was graduated from Washington State University and the University of Oregon Medical School in Portland.

I believe in individual responsibility but not in irresponsible individualism. I believe in high wages, good working conditions, and in the right of labor to organize and to bargain for good wages and good working conditions, but I also believe that trade unionism should be the servant of the worker and not his master.

I do not believe in the confiscation of somebody else's property on the false premise that it is "for the public good" as in the urban renewal program.

There are many things to be done. I solicit your support and your vote.

Use Your Lawn Mower Safely This Summer

The lawn mower is a handy, labor saving machine — they are also machines that cause upwards of 75,000 accidents and injuries from their use each year. County Agent Jack Parsons says the rotary type mowers are the biggest offenders in causing injuries. This is understandable when we consider that most rotary type mowers blades travel at speeds between 1800 and 3000 revolutions per minute. Thus, the mower with a blade 20 inches long, traveling at 3,000 R.P.M. would equal approximately 120 miles per hour. Just imagine what would happen if a person were to be struck by this steel blade traveling that fast or by a stone or a piece of wire thrown from this blade. The tragic thing in accidents involving lawn mowers is that they are all necessary. They are the result of carelessness in the use of the mower itself.

Therefore, we would like to suggest the following points to follow in operating your lawn mower safely. First of all, be familiar with your lawn mower and keep it in good running condition. Keep the mower itself clean and the blade sharp. Always keep all the excess grease and dirt from the lawn mower and check the blade before use. Always make sure that your mower is equipped with the necessary safety shields and never operate it unless the shields are in place. Before repairing or working on the lawn mower, always disconnect the spark plug wire. This is especially important before placing your hand under the mower or when sharpening or making a blade adjustment. Always have your mower set at the proper height for the proper mowing situation. If you are mowing rough areas, then set the blade high enough to prevent it from striking the ground.

Diane accepted the award for her troop 296, which had winning entries in the Modern Miss and Baby Doll categories. Mary had a winning entry in the Historical category.

Always start your lawn mower outdoors where there is adequate ventilation and never refill your lawn mowers with gasoline while it is hot or running. Also, when filling your lawn mower tank, never fill it entirely full but leave a small amount of room for the gasoline vapors to expand in. If you do not leave this space, then the gasoline may spill over out of the tank and on to the hot engine and a fire will likely result. Also, when starting your mower, make sure the self propelled mowers are out of gear, always stand firmly and keep your hands and feet away from the cutting blades or the moving parts of the lawn
