Clean House For Safety, Fire Chief

By Bud Larson
Parkland Fire Chief
In cooperation with the Parkland Development Association, the Parkland Fire Department will assist in every way possible to help make this clean up a success. We in the fire service would like to point out that many homes and lives are lost because of fire hazards allowed to accumulate in the home, all of these hazards can be easily removed by having a family cleanup program in the home and, surprisingly enough, will take very little time.

Start in the attic and work down until every part of the house is covered, storage in the attic should be eliminated and in no case should papers, tree decorations, and that type of material be near heat sources.

In the downstairs area clean all closets of old clothing and boxes and other burnables that you don't use, search the kitchen for hidden sources of trouble by looking in the concealed storage areas, around chimneys and flues, pipes, etc.

Basements and garages need a real going over as they usually get all the junk that comes from other parts of the house. Remember cover all the areas that are hidden. These are the real danger areas. If you desire to bring burnable debris the fire department will have an area Saturday, May 2, located at 123rd St. near Jay street for this purpose. If you have other materials perhaps some agency such as Goodwill would be happy to pick it up. In any event please keep your home clean and safe from fire. You will benefit by not only having a safer home but a much better looking home.

On the outside of the home check for debris piled near buildings, old grass growing up around fences, garages, and outbuildings. Clean all the outside areas and above all put your trash burning barrel in a good safe spot and keep it safe by rigid rules for all the family.

Scouts Will Aid Clean-Up In Community

Parkland's Clean-Up Campaign will get a big boost this week as the Scouts begin throwing their weight into the drive. Their first effort will be to call at each home in the area to inform the residents of the pending clean-up, at the same time they will be asking for all bottles, rags, papers, old cars, hot water tanks, car parts and other pieces of scrap metal.

The P.D.A. Clean-Up Committee strongly urges all citizens to respond wholeheartedly and give the Scouts all cooperation possible as they move to clean up our community. During the coming week the Scouts will canvass the entire area with their message. Actual pick-up will be on Saturday, May 2 from 9 to 1. The Scout Troops will furnish their own trucks and will go ahead of the other main clean-up truck crews. Remember, the Scouts will pick up salable material and the clean-up crews will take the refuse. Please sort your material accordingly. Don Schroeder, Master of Troop 30, will be coordinating the Scout activity. Phone LE 7-3190.

Spring Carnival Slated For Skiers

A spring ski carnival at Paradise Ski Slopes will be sponsored by Totem Skiers of Tacoma Sunday, April 26. Interested merchants are donating trophies which will be awarded for the children's races. These races are for ages 8 and under, 9 to 11, and 12 to 14. There will also be trophies for the main event, the Grand Slalom Race at 1 p.m.

Clean-Up Campaign Off To Hot Start!

THE PARKLAND CLEAN-UP CAMPAIGN will get off to a roaring start during this week when Assistant Fire Chief Chet Kirk sets fire to this old Parkland landmark. Kirk is shown here as he explains methods the fire fighters will use to assure safe burning of the structure. Looking on are a few of the business and civic leaders of Parkland, who have joined together in an all-out effort to provide a cleaner and more prosperous Parkland area. Left to right: John Austin, American Institute of Architects; Milton Nesvig, Pacific Lutheran University; Dr. Mortvedt, President of P.L.U.; Earl Dryden, National Bank of Washington; Chet Kirk, Parkland Fire Department; Dr. Charles Evans, Parkland dentist; and Ray Manges of Monarch Door Company, and Chairman of Parkland Development Association Clean-Up Committee. Major thanks for this potential improvement go to Dr. Evans and Pacific Lutheran University. (Separate story to appear later.) The building on Garfield Street, midway between "C" St. and Park Avenue, was built in the 1890's, and was known as the E. O. Erickson store. The last business to operate here "Schnieders Used Furniture" has now moved to 214 So. 125th. Soon now, memories of the large old white building will begin to fade as the new Dental Clinic of Dr. Evans takes its place. —Photo by Dugan

ANOTHER SUBURBAN RENEWAL PROJECT (Parkland style) makes news this week. John Austin, American Institute of Architects, and treasurer of the Parkland Development Association, is shown here discussing with other P.D.A. members the job of removing this old house to make room for the new Johnson - Austin Architectural building. The site is directly West of the Puget Sound

Bank building. According to Austin the new structure will also be designed to augment the artistic values of the area. P.D.A. members looking on are, from left: Earl Dryden, Dr. Evans, Ray Manges, Austin and Chet Kirk. Sketches of the new building will be released soon, according to Austin. —Photo by Dugan

Big Week For Buyers As Daylight Hours Increase

This week in the Times Journal circulation area promises to be quite an exciting one. Wednesday the "other" World's Fair opens somewhere back east, Sunday daylight savings time begins, and from the 25th through May 2nd is National Baby Week (see story on this page).

For participants in the Thirteen Week Shop-At-Home And-Save program, it means another chance to deposit a coupon that might win $800.00 worth of merchandise and services. It also means forty chances to deal with forty businesses in the area who are offering special bargains for each of the thirteen weeks.

With one more hour per day to enjoy, sports equipment, home brightening materials, clean up items, say nothing of spring clothes, flowers, and food for fun are among the attractions of this week.

Readers are invited to turn to the Shop-At-Home-And-Save page of this issue for a complete list of this week's bargains. That all-important coupon is there again, too.

Board Elects 'Doc' Webster New Chairman

At the Bethel Directors April 7th meeting, E.W. 'Doc' Webster was elected chairman in the board's annual reorganization action. Francis Olson was reelected Clerk.

The new chairman said he "urged the public, as taxpayers and parents, to attend all board meetings to see how funds and policies are presented for school usage." He further stated that he would like to appoint "just one advisory committee to the chairman — every man, woman and child who is interested in the cause of education."

Mr. Webster said the next meeting of the board would be Tuesday, May 5th at 8 p.m. in the Bethel High School library. Included on the agenda of the meeting will be a school policies discussion.

In a budget hearing at the last meeting, a preliminary general fund budget of $1,552,230.35 was established for 1964-65. This is an increase of $127,431.00 over this year's. The building fund budget was set at $58,000.

The board also adopted the 1964-65 calendar. School opens September 8 and closes June 10th. One hundred eighty school days are established for students—183 for teachers. Regular holidays and school vacations will be observed; Spring vacation Thursday through Monday, April 15-19, 1965.

Youngsters To Register Here

Registration in Bethel District Elementary Schools for next year kindergarten pupils will be the week of May 4-8. For entrance the child must be 5 on September 10th. Advance registration helps the child and parents familiarize themselves with the school and aids the school in planning. Parents may register in the office of their area elementary building any day of May 4-8 week. Lacomas Roy kindergarten parents are asked to register at the Roy School.

County Could Lose School Districts By Committee Plan

Consolidation of Pierce County's 19 school districts with the loss of three of these districts is currently being considered by the Pierce County Committee on School District Organization. With only one meeting between the original presentation of the plan and the June 1st deadline for presentation of its decision to the State Board, which will in turn present it to the legislature, the committee must make the decision at its May 11th meeting. The Secretary for the committee told the Times Journal reporter that minutes of this meeting could not be made available by mail for study of the proposals suggesting a "summary" might be mailed instead. In order to obtain more information the reporter contacted the Chairman, E.W. Webster.

Orle Atkinson, member of the committee has offered the following proposal for consideration: alignment of four school districts in Pierce County. (1) Tacoma, Ruston, University Place, (2) Steilacoom, DuPont - Fort Lewis, Anderson Island, Clover Park, (3) Weyerhaeuser, Franklin Pierce, Bethel, Eatonville, (4) Puyallup, Sumner, Edgemont, Dieringer, Orting, Fire, and the alignment of Peninsula to go to Kitsap County and White River and Carbonate to King County.

Members of the committee who were present when this plan was presented were Chairman, E.W. Webster, Roger E. Elder, secretary; Atkinson, Fred Henry, Frank Ainsley, Mrs. Gladys Peterson and Mrs. Maxine Meyers. Not present were Mrs. Betty Ostenson, James R. Paulson and H.P. Schinnell.

The secretary said the state legislature had requested surveys to decide on desirable decisions as early as 1957. Since that time, he said, "two or three plans have been accomplished." He said the State Board of Education must have the current plans from all 39 Washington counties by June 1st, after which they will present these plans to the legislature.

When questioned about the meetings, Chairman Webster said they were not closed sessions since no meeting of public officials on public business could be legally closed. He said interested taxpayers and parents were welcome to attend and voice their opinions to the committee.

Outstanding

OUTSTANDING SCIENCE STUDENTS, Randy Bulger, Sue Bondo and Steve Spencer, all juniors at Franklin Pierce High School, have been awarded National Science Foundation grants for advanced study in science this summer at the University of Puget Sound.

Families To Be Honored For Service To Children

Foster families from this area have been invited to the Annual Spring Party to honor Pierce County's licensed full time foster parents. This party, co-sponsored by the State Department of Public Assistance and the Quota Club, will be held April 23, in the South Park Community Center. More than 450 persons representing 230 licensed homes who care for 350 children have been invited.

A typical family of this area, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Matzek, have been licensed foster parents since 1945. They have found enjoyment and satisfaction from caring for less fortunate children in the community. Their own children have found the companionship of foster children a stimulating challenge. There have been many, many foster children who have found a home with the Matzeks through the years.

The entire Matzek family is interested in Scouting and participates fully in Scouting activities. Mr. Matzek is a Scout Master, while Mrs. Matzek is a Den Mother and Girl Scout Leader. Roy recently received his Eagle Badge which is the highest award given for Scouting. He plans to attend the Valley Forge Scout Camp this summer for additional Scouting experience.

There is a continuing need for foster parents to care for all ages of children. Any interested family should contact the State Department of Public Assistance, Market 7-9141.

Time Flies For Washingtonians Next Sunday

Washington State residents will lose one hour due to daylight saving time which starts Sunday. In George Washington's day, calendars were advanced 11 days. George lost 11 days because Great Britain and its colonies adopted our present-day calendar in 1752. In that year, Great Britain announced the day following September 2 would become September 14 — a loss of 11 days. Because George was born February 11, 1732 his new birthday officially became February 22.

If by some magic George were with us today and called Pacific Northwest Bell's Time-of-Day number Sunday morning, he might strongly object in finding he'd lost more time. "At the tone, daylight time will be . . . and poor George would have lost another hour."

Little League Will Register

Central Avenue Little League will have registration at 10:30, April 25 at the Central Avenue Youth Center, Central Avenue School. In case of rain they still will be able to register as the center will be open. Boys ages 9 thru Jr. High.

Derby Begins

Times Journal Baby Derby is underway once again in celebration of National Baby Week. The biggest bargain of the week will be the first baby born in a participating hospital after midnight, April 25th and before midnight, May 2nd.

To be eligible for participation in the Derby, the new sprout must be born in one of the five major Pierce County hospitals listed on Times Journal Baby Derby page, this issue. In addition to the dates mentioned above, further eligibility will be based on report of the birth to the Times Journal Office so that official records can be checked and the winner declared.

For prizes offered by participating merchants, see the big Times Journal Baby Derby Page in this issue.

AMONG FOSTER FAMILIES to be honored at an annual Spring Party co-sponsored by the State Department of Public Assistance and the

With JACK BROWN

One thing about America and our freedom of speech is the fact that you never know where you'll find humor at the expense of Uncle Sam. The other day I was tooling along at 11,500 feet and as I passed over the Columbia River I could see dust blowing all over the flat land ahead. Even from that height I could see white caps on the river.

I gave Pendleton radio a position report and made an off the cuff remark that from where I sat it looked like a lot of Oregon real estate was changing position. The friendly voice of the radio operator came back instantly with this remark: "Yeah, if it doesn't stop blowing here pretty soon and rain we'll lose our wheat crop and the Russians will starve to death this winter." With my built-in conviction that the Russian wheat deal stinks, this remark gave me a real charge and I was laughing so hard I could hardly hear his message. Just then somewhere else in the blue, someone keyed a mike and another voice chimed in. "Amen, brother Ben."

I should add that this sort of chatter is frowned on by the FCC and from this very fact it would seem that thinking Americans, in the sky or on the land, have made up their minds to stand up and be heard.

Then there was the matronly lady who walked up to the department store information booth and asked the pretty young thing behind the counter to direct her to the perfume department. "Just walk this way," said the info clerk, as she took the lead to bird dog the old gal to the right aisle.

"Heck, if I could walk that way I wouldn't need perfume," the old gal retorted.

Our dealings with the reds keeps bugging me and thus everything I read about it keeps coming back to mind. I read an article just recently that seems to support my thoughts on the matter somewhat, and although perhaps repetitious to the above, let me tell you about it.

As you will remember, just a few years ago the Soviet Union announced to all the world that they would soon surpass the U. S. in every major field of production by 1970. Naturally it has been of concern to all of us, wondering how they are making out and what new threat might be posed by the fulfillment of their boast. The fact that they snagged some of our blackhead leaders into giving them a hand-out at an expense of millions of bucks to us taxpayers made it begin to look as though their plans had gone astray.

An answer to the question is provided by the authoritative "Intelligence Digest," which is published in England and has responsible and proven sources of information almost everywhere. It states: "There was less milk in the Soviet Union in 1963 than in the year before and also fewer eggs. It may be added that three-quarters of all vegetables and four out of every five eggs consumed in the country were supplied by the collective farm peasants from the tiny backyard plots which they have been allowed to cultivate privately. . . ."

"Within the last year, the number of pigs on the collective and state farms has been reduced by half, and meat production in general, which the state had stipulated would be 16 million tons in 1963, did not actually exceed 10 million tons."

There is much other evidence of Soviet failure to meet announced goals. An outstanding one was a major cutback in the production facilities of a huge power dam which was supposed to assume the lead in overtaking the vast superiority of American electric capacity.

So, to make up the lack, the Soviet Union is trying to get her needs from the West, through long term loans and credits. The Digest's concluding line: "All that we send will be a direct contribution to our own downfall."

The recent front page pictures, shown nation-wide, of young University of Washington students picketing the hearings on two men who failed to file communist party membership affidavits leaves me pretty cold.

These youngsters are the future leaders of our own country. Regardless of what the words were on their signs, they advocate one thing: peace with the Soviets regardless of cost, even up to and including the ultimate loss of our free way of life.

As far as I am concerned there must be something lacking in our educational structure to allow youngsters intelligent enough to pass college entrance exams, to come to the conclusion that communism has something to offer us or that the Soviets can be trusted.

If I ever catch one of my kids picketing a commission dedicated to the preservation of our way of life, I'll wear the sign out over his skull.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Jack, April 10, 1964

Warmer days are here again and my three year old can barely contain herself. Hot days mean fun in the sun and water and she is eager to go. Our's is a swimming family. In the summer we spend an hour every day at the lake. In the winter we manage to go swimming in the "Y" or the Puyallup pool. Now there's a beautiful place. The people of Puyallup should be commended again and again for their efforts in providing this pool for their school and allowing it to be open to the public for a nominal fee.

The people of Franklin Pierce District could do the same. . . .

Do you remember the wild game dinners and the dance revues held some eight years ago to raise money for a swimming pool fund? A few people worked terribly hard; the amount raised was nothing compared to the cost of a pool, but there was enough for the cost of a special election. An effort was made to get the pool on a ballot. All efforts failed, enough people just weren't interested.

However, in just these few years, times have changed. There are twice as many school children, farm lands have been cut up into Suburbia, the average tax payer is now different, high-mod-erate income class. Where the average home-owner six years ago was reluctant to raise his taxes $5.00 for just one year, the present home-owner might willingly pay twice that to get a community pool.

The gym at the high school was built with the pool in mind. The plumbing is already there, it needs only to be hooked up. The boys' and girls' dressing rooms are situated so that they can be used with the pool. The people in charge of the swimming pool fund will release it, to pay for a special election if enough people show a willingness, so that they can be sure that the money won't go down the drain in an ineffectual election.

All that remains to be done is for the people to indicate their interest. Letters are the Girl Scout Troop No. 84 at best medium. Anyone can sign their name to a petition or pick up the phone, but those who sit down to compose a letter, show the greatest effort and interest, and it's the way the letters pile up that count with those in command.

Jack, the people of the community need you and your paper on the bandwagon to inform and advise in this matter. The School Administration can furnish facts and figures. Can we get some action on this? The longer we wait the more prohibitive the cost will be. It is now twice as expensive to build this pool as it was eight years ago.

We could get the ball rolling this Spring and have a new pool for the students and community by the time school starts in the Fall. Thank you for your consideration. . . .

Sincerely,
Mrs. Les Doyle

Another rummage sale will be sponsored Saturday, April 25th from 10 until 4 p.m. by the Girl Scout Troop No. 84 at 10426 Pacific Avenue.

Tips On

GOOD LANDSCAPE GROOMING

By Howard & Elaine Motteler

Lawns are one of the major problems of any home owner. The work is mainly routine and repetitious. Good lawns can be achieved, however, with a minimum of effort and expenditure. There are several ways to approach lawn care, depending on the type of lawn you want.

Generally speaking, the shorter the lawn the more necessary is frequent watering and fertilization. A lawn mowed quite short — the height of one-half to three-fourths of an inch — requires watering every three to four days. Otherwise severe yellowing and burning will occur. Many lawns are mowed only once a week to the extreme shortness with the result that during dry spells the grass dries back and moss develops during the next Spring.

A more reasonable approach for home owners who wish to mow just once a week is to set the mower to an inch and a half to two inches.

A homeowner must know how deep his soil is before he can set up a watering pattern. A general requirement of lawns where the soil is at least six inches deep is watering to this depth as necessary every six to ten days depending on the weather. Areas shaded by trees require more water than open areas even though evidence of this may not appear readily. The grass doesn't brown in the shade of the trees but neither does it grow well. Also it becomes subject to weeds. (The grass dries back and the weeds take over.)

One way to be certain that the lawn is receiving enough water is to space four or five cans in a line from the center toward the edge of the spray pattern. Generally an inch and a half in a can will indicate a sufficient depth of water saturation where the soil has not been allowed to dry out. It is necessary to check the water pattern only once for soil saturation.

An inexpensive water meter (The cost is about four or five dollars) allows you to water with a minimum of inconvenience. It cuts the cost of water use and allows you to water at night or during periods of maximum pressure. A water meter makes it possible to set the water and leave it, assured that it will automatically turn off.

A green lawn need not require an excessive amount of time.

A Second Look At . . . THE BUSINESS CLIME

by LARRY ROE

The annual tax problem of what the restaurant patron may legally deduct as expenses for tips . . . and what the waiters and waitresses must legally claim as earned income from tips . . . may soon be solved by abolishing tipping in favor of the European system of adding a service charge to all checks.

Generally speaking 15% of the individual food check is considered the average acceptable deduction by the IRS for the restaurant patron. On the other hand, waiters contend the average is more like 8%, and becomes almost negligible in many of the lower-priced restaurants throughout the country.

Should the European system of an added service charge be put into effect, the 15% figure would probably be the basis used.

Words to an old song, "How ya gonna keep 'em down on the farm," begins to make sense with some interesting facts compiled recently . . . so much so that Congress, on direct request of President Johnson, plans a full dress investigation of food marketing, with emphasis on the growing concentration of grocery business in the hands of a relatively few large grocery chains.

Somewhere along the way there is far too large a gap in many farm commodities between what the farmer receives and what the housewife pays . . . for instance, since 1953 the revenue from wheat products has dropped 2.2% for the farmer and at the same time has increased 21.8% for the housewife; milk and other dairy products for the farmer down 5.2%, for the housewife up 7.3%; meat products for the farmer down 15.2%, for the housewife up 5.8%; shortening and other fats and oils for the farmer down 25%, for the housewife up 1.3%.

Add to this the fact that farm wage income was exactly the same in 1963 as it was in 1947, $1.01 per hour — while the hourly wage in food marketing firms rose from $1.03 in 1947 to $2.17 in 1963 . . . Or, to phrase it another way — the average investment per farmer is $43,679. When return on this net investment is included, the average farmer still earns less than the average employe in food marketing. The farmer gets $68.66 for a week's work, compared to $86.80 that the employe in food marketing gets for a 40-hour week, and without investing any capital in his job.

After all the facts have been compiled and the investigation completed the answer will still be the same . . . the increased spread between what the farmer receives and what the housewife pays is due largely to the higher costs of labor in processing, transportation, marketing, etc., but that still doesn't answer the question: "How we gonna keep 'em down on the farm?"

Probably by legislation to further subsidize farm commodities, thru increased taxes . . . It's a vicious cycle that, ironically, may be solved by labor paying the Lion's share of taxes to support their own increased demands.

In the next thirty days look for . . . increased pressures to tighten Federal Reserve controls in an effort to curb any inflationary trend . . . more emphasis by the government to convince the taxpayer business is at the highest peak it has been for many years, in an effort to gain prestige prior to the November elections . . . mounting concern by the politicians at losing the majority "white" vote should integration be pressed too hard in an election year . . . and greater activity in the integrationist camp to force the coming elections to become a proving ground for the racial question.

Many families find themselves in disagreement with the bank several times each year over the balance of their checking account. National Bank of Washington customers, however, seem agreeable just about all of the time . . . and they tell us that it's because of our detailed monthly statement. We think you'll agree too, that when you have a checking account at NBW, either regular or Tenplan, reconciling your bank balance with your NBW monthly statement is no problem at all.

Whatever your banking needs . . . a savings account, a personal loan, an auto loan, a safe deposit box, you'll find National Bank of Washington an agreeable place to do business.

CHILDREN SHOULDN'T USE THIS WORD...

MORTGAGE.

IT'S FOR GROWNUPS. It's for almost everyone who buys a house, too. It's a fact of financial life.

National Bank of Washington is in the banking business all the way. One of its most important services to customers is lending money on real estate to finance home purchases, or for any worthwhile purpose.

If you're planning to buy, build or refinance, you should know all the words in the small print. NBW enlarges small type, reduces large payments, removes the mystery from mortgages. It's one more reason why National Bank of Washington is so well respected in the banking business.

It's Not Long-Gone

when You Spend It at Home

NO, you haven't seen the last of the money you spend with local business people...it keeps right on working for you, circulating in YOUR community, creating more trade volume as it passes from hand to hand...and even through your own hands, again and again.

And it's TRADE VOLUME, you know, that makes YOUR business more profitable, or YOUR job more secure...that supports stronger schools and churches...that increases the value of YOUR property and investments...and attracts more good friends and neighbors to help you support and work for community progress.
