TETHERBALL ACTION. Members of the Spanaway Elementary School Family Faculty Club enjoy the fruits of their labor by watching students put recently-installed tetherball poles to good use. Club members also painted basketball courts, handball courts, hop scotch and 4 square courts. Robert Felden led a group of youthful volunteers to complete the tetherball installation 2 weeks ago.

INDIAN BURIAL GROUNDS. County Engineers, while checking the route of an old wagon trail still listed as a country road, ran across this burial grounds located on private property. Declining to pinpoint the exact location for fear of vandalism, the Times Journal found it just East of Elk Plain. Graves are thought to be those of Indian Henry tribesmen. Inset shows closeup of grave marker. W.P.A. workers fenced off area about 30 years ago, and relatives of those buried in the site keep the grass cut.

Cardinal end Jim Penning leaps high to pull in a Woody Harris pass during last week's game with Rogers. Pierce faces undefeated but twice tied Jefferson Friday to determine the South Puget Sound League Championship. More pictures and story inside.

Bottiger Responds To Resident's Plea

For months, residents in the vicinity of Tule Lake Road and Park Avenue have been seeking a traffic light for that intersection.

Because numerous youngsters have been hit while crossing in the crosswalk at Tule Lake Road and Park Avenue, a pair of housewives decided to do something about it. Armed with petitions, they secured about 50 signatures and headed for the County Traffic Engineer. There, they learned that funds were not available for their request.

The housewives, Mrs. Beverly McLaren and Barbara Hoyt, recruited Mrs. Betty Heinzman to help with the cause. Mrs. Heinzman sought the advice of State Representative R. Ted Bottiger who called the matter to the attention of County Commissioner George Sheridan.

Fired with renewed enthusiasm, the trio enlisted PTA workers and teachers who

Loveland Directors Lose Summary Judgment Bid

The attempt to dissolve Loveland Mutual and sell the company assets to the City of Tacoma became a "New ball game" Monday as the result of a court order dismissing both motions for Summary Judgements requested by the Loveland Board of Directors.

The directors were ordered to abide by the Washington State Non-profit Act of July 1969 in proceeding with the sale. However, the Restraining Order previously imposed will continue in effect until the entire matter is heard during a trial set for January 1970.

The court set the conditions surrounding the procedures directors must follow in selling the company. These included: 1. Notice must be given to all members of a meeting for the purpose of voting on the proposed dissolution and sale; 2. A 2/3 vote of the members present must be in favor of dissolution; and a resolution for the sale must be passed by the Board of Directors on that basis.

Dissolution Vote November 24

The Loveland Board of Directors have called a membership meeting for 8 p.m. Monday November 24 at Bethel Junior High School. At that time the matter of dissolution and sale to the City of Tacoma will be submitted to the members for a vote. Previous mail-in balloting has been voided by the court ruling.

Company Records Must Be Bared

The court further ordered that before a final sale can be made, certified transcripts of all Loveland Mutual records must be furnished the court with copies sent to Paul Boyle, attorney for the Committee to Preserve Loveland Mutual and the Spanaway Water Company.

Committee Continues to Oppose Sale

Spanaway Water Company and the Committee To Preserve Loveland Mutual will continue to oppose the sale because of the advantages of operating as a mutual. Attorney Boyle told the Journal Monday. He interpreted the court order as meaning the Loveland Directors will have to do what should have been done earlier.

Committee Plans Outlined

Should members vote down dissolution and sale to the City of Tacoma, Boyle said the Committee will work for new management and new policies that will alleviate the present difficulties and proceed to the benefit of members in accord with the By-Laws. He also said that his clients urge that all members be present for the November 24 meeting.

helped secure 106 more signatures. In the meantime Sheridan investigated the need for the light and on October 17 it was installed.

From their experience, the women have deduced that elected officials are far more responsive to the requests of citizens than appointees. And now that the light has been installed many parents in that area feel a little easier about their youngsters crossing the intersection enroute to school. However, Mrs. Heinzman pointed out that some still use Tule Lake Road as a drag strip.

School Issues Fail To Validate At Polls

Roger Lincoln Wins Board Seat

Light voter turnout in the county areas helped contribute to the defeat of proposed school issues, but a large no vote doomed improvements to the County-City Building.

Roger Lincoln, Spanaway contractor, was the apparent winner in a hotly contested race for Bethel School Director District One seat. Other school board races in the Bethel and Franklin Pierce Districts candidates ran unopposed.

The Tuesday, November 4 election was a black day for schools. All three propositions proposed to Franklin Pierce voters fell about 200 votes short of validation, although they received a large majority favorable vote. Proposition I (M&O) registered a 74.9% yes vote, Proposition II (bonds) received a 68.5% yes vote, while Proposition III (buses) has a 70.58% majority.

In Bethel, Proposition I was given a 60.8% yes vote but failed to validate by about 400 votes. Proposition II (Bonds) was accorded only 54% of the vote.

The proposed enlargement of the parking facilities and other improvements to the County-City Building failed to meet the approval of voters. Although the measure had a slight simple majority, a heavy no vote defeated the issue.

Early returns from other Puget Sound Districts indicated schools fared poorly in their money requests. In neighboring Tacoma a surprisingly heavy no vote defeated a levy request, gaining only a 54% favorable margin.

Similar trends developed in Seattle where sufficient voters turned out to validate but the school issues received only a 57% majority. A 60% majority is required.

Back-To-School At Bethel High

Bethel Senior High School opens its doors to parents and interested friends at the annual "Back-to-School Night," tonight Thursday, Nov. 6, beginning at 7:30 p.m. During the evening adults will have the opportunity of visiting the students' classes. Class bells will signal the beginning of the "classes" and students will be available to guide parents to the proper room.

The evening will begin with a 7:30 p.m. assembly in the gymnasium. "Following class visits we invite our guests to refreshments in the lunchroom," according to Earl W. Platt, Bethel High School principal. Students will bring home a copy of their class schedule today so parents will be able to attend the same class sessions as their sons and daughters.

Good News For Non-Readers

There are an estimated 7,000 adult illiterates in Pierce County! The Tacoma Area Literacy Council offers interested individuals the opportunity to reduce that number.

Help is needed on both sides of the fence. The only qualifications needed to teach adults to read and write are patience and understanding. The actual training in the Laubach Literacy method is a nine-hour workshop spread over a two or three day period.

Assistance is especially needed to locate adults who cannot read. Even though their number is substantial, they are almost invisible. Often an adult is embarrassed to admit illiteracy, and does not realize there is help available.

The Laubach Literacy program, developed especially for adults, is taught on a "one to one" basis. Teachers are available without charge, for any adult wanting to learn to read and write. This help is also available for those adults wishing to learn English as a second language.

Anyone interested in participating in this program may contact Miss Mabel Lowd, GR 4-7451.

Capt. Miller Honored

FORT LEWIS, WASH. — Captain Norman C. Miller, 23, of Tacoma, has received the Army Commendation Medal for heroism while serving as an advisor to South Vietnamese forces.

Captain Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clemens F. Miller, 10101 24th Ave. E., was District Senior Advisor in Phu Yen Province. Last March 15, his unit's headquarters compound was attacked by an enemy platoon. Explosions twice knocked Miller to the ground but he continued to direct his Vietnamese platoon in the battle.

When a machine gun emplacement was knocked, he raced across an open field under heavy fire to help the gunner remount his weapon. The enemy force was finally driven off.

Captain Miller, now assigned as chief of basic training actions at the Infantry Training Center here, is a 1964 graduate of Franklin Pierce High School.

F.P. Offers Special Passes For Senior Citizens

Gold activity passes good for all athletic events and performances at Franklin Pierce and Washington high schools are now available to all citizens 65 years of age and older who live in the Franklin Pierce School District.

The passes are available from the activities directors at both high schools and from the office of the superintendent of schools.

The first passes, according to Dr. Edward E. Hill, superintendent, were presented last week to Dr. Anders Ramstad, 78, of 400 Wheeler St., a retired Pacific Lutheran University professor, and Tony J. Cruse, 79, of 9318 Portland Ave., a director of the Parkland senior center.

The awarding of the passes, Dr. Hill said, is being done by the two schools in honor of the many senior citizens who in the past have supported school activities. Many are regular fans at the school athletic contests, he said.

Residents Request Elk Plain Rezone

A public hearing on a petition to rezone an area within Elk Plain will be held at 1:00 p.m. Thursday, November 13 in the County Commissioners chambers on the tenth floor of the County-City Building. The land in question is approximately bounded by 192nd Street on the north, the Milwaukee Railroad on the east and southeast and the Mountain Highway and 14th Avenue East on the west.

"At present this land is zoned for general use," stated Mrs. Skip Wilson, 20218 22nd Avenue East. "This means there are virtually no limits to the types of construction allowed. We are proposing a zoning change to a SA-9 rating. This would allow home construction on lots of no less than 9,000 square feet," she continued.

The rezoning petition is sponsored by Dennis Felt of 20318 22nd Avenue East. Felt and other proponents of the petition noted that a majority of residents in the area have signed the proposal.

Dr. Alex Ryncarz, Route 2, Box 2298 Spanaway, pointed out that "residents are concerned with protecting the value of their homes. A number of serious problems will develop if new dwellings are allowed on smaller lots. First, the water supply can be endangered — in fact new home construction on 22nd Avenue East has already lowered the water table sufficiently to require the deepening of at least one well."

"We are also quite worried about sewage disposal and pollution," Dr. Ryncarz continued. "We cannot expect sewers in this area for several years. In the meantime a mass of septic tanks can contaminate neighboring wells."

"Individuals concerned with their present tax rate should also remember that a heavy increase in population brings increased demands on the schools, the fire district and county services but does not necessarily bring in sufficient taxes to pay for these needs," concluded Mrs. Wilson. "The burden of paying for these services then falls unfairly on farmers and other landowners whose taxes increase."

The meeting is open to all interested in the proposal and to any who wish to express opinions on the rezoning.

Furniture Wanted

The Parkland REO office has placed an appeal to Times Journal readers requesting old but serviceable furniture for a 32-year-old Spanaway mother.

The REO has urged the woman to move nearer town where she will be closer to vocational training, and the opportunity to learn a trade so she can support her two children. However, now that she has found a 2-bedroom unit in Salishan, REO Director Audrey Kirk reports she lacks furniture to make the unit a home.

Anyone wishing to donate furniture is urged to contact the Parkland REO office by calling LE 7-4848.

CLANN GAEL will perform at Pacific Lutheran University Monday, November 15, at 8:15 p.m. The 20 young people in the troupe are dancers singers and instrumentalists who bring for the first time in Pierce County the historical music of Scotland and Ireland.

Parkland Lions Prepare For Holiday Season

With the winter closing in and the holiday season rapidly approaching, Parkland Lions activities, thoughts, and services, now turn to those projects as have been associated with the holiday and winter season; Xmas tree sales, Thanksgiving and Xmas baskets, and as always, filling requests for glasses and eye examinations. During the past month and more period, assistance has been given in sponsoring training courses for young hunters, as provided for by the Paul Bunyon Rifle and Sportsman's Club.

A helping hand has been given to the area recreational program for the retarded and handicapped. Many people in the Parkland and surrounding areas may not be acquainted with the local program for transporting the retarded and handicapped to the recreational areas, but it is a worthwhile project and deserving of all community support as, many of those transported have no other means of outside activity.

Lion Vernon Young as president during the past year of the Washington State School Construction and Maintenance Officials, wound up a very successful year in office at the maintenance officials state convention as held at the Sherwood Inn on October 23rd and 24th. Also, Parkland Lions president, Tom Stephens attended a conference of public school officials at Phoenix, Arizona, during the week of October 18th to 22nd. Any citizens who may be interested in just what Lions are doing and trying to do in the community, are always welcome as guests at the Lions dinners as held at the Brookdale Inn, 131st and Pacific, first and third Tuesdays at 6:30 p.m. Compiled by Lion Ben F. WOMEN'S WORLD

the Second Forty
by Margaret Brookfield

A FORUM ABOUT MATURE WOMEN

Tired Mother
Dear Miss Brookfield:

With a son going on two, household chores, and starting the day at 5:30 a.m., I find that shortly after putting our child to bed I promptly fall asleep when I sit down with my husband to watch television. He gets furious. I have talked with younger women and they have the same problem. I am 40. I have tried everything to avoid dozing off, but without success. Have you any suggestions?

C.L., Haledon, N.J.

Dear C.L.:

You write that you have "tried everything," but have you tried either to plan your chores or ignore the unfinished ones so that you can take an hour's nap in the afternoon when your child does? It might do you a world of good, so let the dusting go. Also, for many people television has a mesmerizing effect, causing them to doze off. Do you fall asleep on those evenings when you don't watch television and have company over instead? You might try keeping a light on while watching television and giving the tube only partial attention, knitting or mending at the same time.

If the daily nap and the suggestions concerning television fail, it may be that you are tired for some medically treatable reason. Talk it over with your doctor the next time you visit him. He may well have a helpful suggestion.

The Pill

Dear Miss Brookfield:

How long can a woman continue to take the birth control pill? I am 37 and am still taking the same prescription given to me by a former doctor. I have since had a checkup by a new doctor and was told I am all right.

B.M., New Iberia, La.

Dear B.M.:

According to medical authorities, the Pill can be taken indefinitely, but as the prescription is only for a six-month period, it is renewable only by the physician when the woman goes in for a semi-annual checkup. You failed to advise us whether you told the new doctor that you were on the birth control pill. When visiting a new doctor you should always tell him what medications you are taking.

Menopausal Symptoms

Dear Miss Brookfield:

I read an article in the local newspaper on the menopause. Can you tell me all the symptoms of the menopause? I am familiar with the more common ones, but I have read that there are 50 menopausal symptoms. Can you tell an anxious woman what they are?

M.M., Long Beach, Calif.

Dear M.M.:

The menopause can cause diverse physical and emotional symptoms. Some emotional ones are so ill-defined that it is sometimes difficult for a physician to know whether a woman's depressed state is, say, due to the menopause — change of life — or to a change in her way of living — specifically, the so-called "empty nest" once the children have grown.

In his book, "The Ageless Woman," now available in paperback, Dr. Sherwin Kaufman takes note of the wide range of physical menopausal symptoms. He writes: "One report, for example, lists 11 specific menopausal symptoms. Another lists no less than 28. I recently reviewed the histories of two hundred menopausal or postmenopausal patients in my practice, each of whom related her own complaints to menopause according to what she had heard or read in various publications. There were almost 50 different symptoms."

Despite what women tell their physicians, there are definite physical symptoms attributed to deficiency of the female hormone, estrogen, in the menopausal and postmenopausal woman. These include: hot flashes, night sweats, insomnia, fatigue, backache, painful sexual relations, and osteoporosis, which is a thinning of the bones, particularly in the spinal column, leading to a shortening of height and the so-called dowager's hump.

We would suggest, however, that the best person to talk to about specific menopausal age complaints is your physician. We cannot list all the symptoms in this limited space, but rest assured that your doctor has heard them all.

Have you a problem as a mature woman, or with one? For advice and help, write to Margaret Brookfield, Information Center on the Mature Woman, 3 West 57th Street, New York, N.Y. 10019.

Arabian Crafts

Here it is — the workshop you have been waiting for — macrame. Macrame is the art of decorative, creative knotting. In Arabia, as far back as early Biblical days, women used macrame to decorate towels and scarves. Using cord and no tools you can create such things as belts, purses, and dog leashes by the ancient method of tying knots in string or cord.

Friday, Nov. 7th and 14th from 9:00 - 11:00 a.m., Mrs. Byron Larsen will teach this special workshop in Macrame at the Tacoma-Pierce County Y.W.C.A., 401 Broadway. Register now by calling the Y.W.C.A., a U.G.N. Agency. The Macrame workshop is open to members and non-members.

In April, the 41-member chorus placed seventh in regional competition under the direction of Bob Jones, who has himself twice sung in SPEBSQSA International quartet competition and is grooming the chorus toward placing in the top three in regional competition next spring.

HORSEMEN'S NEWS

Over The Fence Rail

By Barb. Menge

Fun Nights

November 1, the second Family Fun Night took place at the Tacoma Unit No. 1. The evening's events began with the two performance classes and ended with a series of fast moving games events. Beverly Wilson judged the performance division and Larry Cockran supervised the game segment of the show. Once again I urge the local horsemen of the area to participate in this informal gathering. The experience and enjoyment are as rewarding as the winning itself. The Family Fun Nights are an ideal opportunity to familiarize yourself and your horse in either the games or performance division. The next Family Fun Night will be held November 29. Results from the November 1 Fun Nights are as follow:

Washington Quarter Horse Show

November 8-9 the Washington Quarter Horse Association will sponsor its annual fall show. Leonard Milligan of Auroa, Colorado will judge the two day show. The show will begin with halter classes on Saturday beginning at 8:00 a.m. and youth classes at 1:00 p.m. Saturday evening will feature Barrel Racing, cutting, roping, and working cowhorse. Sunday will continue with the completion of performance events and the show will end with the presentation of the high point trophy presentations.

The annual autumn show attracts riders from as far away as Canada, California, and Oregon. Spectators are always welcome. The show will be held at the Tacoma Unit No. 1 located on 176th in Spanaway.

New Horse

Bud Root and his recently purchased registered Quarter Horse, Bimbeu Echols are doing very well together. Bud and Bimbeu received the first place award in the Senior Western Pleasure class at the Family Fun Night November 1. Keep up the good showing Bud.

Auctioned Herd Honored

The dairy herd of Maurice DeMuyneck, South Prairie, which was just recently dispersed at public auction, was the leader in the Pierce County DHIA summary for the month of September, announces County Agent Eddie Thomason. DeMuyneck's herd of 29 Holsteins averaged 54.8 pounds of milk and 1.83 pounds of butterfat per cow per day. The herd of Fred Krapf, Graham, was close behind with an average of 475 pounds of milk and 1.80 pounds of butterfat per cow per day.

Honor roll leaders for cows completing lactations in September are: 2 year old - Cindy, a grade Holstein, owned by John and Jack Kominski, Roy, with 18,011 pounds of milk and 737 pounds of butterfat; 3 year old - No. 174, a grade Jersey owned by Cloverleaf Farms, Orting, with 15,933 pounds of milk and 741 pounds of butterfat; 4 year old - No. 16, a grade Holstein owned by Al Houtsma, Spanaway with 20,892 pounds of milk and 760 pounds of butterfat; 5 to 10 year old - No. 11, a grade Holstein, owned by Walter Schodde, Buckley with 18,886 pounds of milk and 890 pounds of butterfat; and 10 years and over - No. 135, a grade Holstein owned by Pete DeVries, Orting with 25,939 pounds of milk and 748 lbs. of butterfat.

Testing and calculation of records was supervised by Washington State University.

Bethel Wins

Sub-District

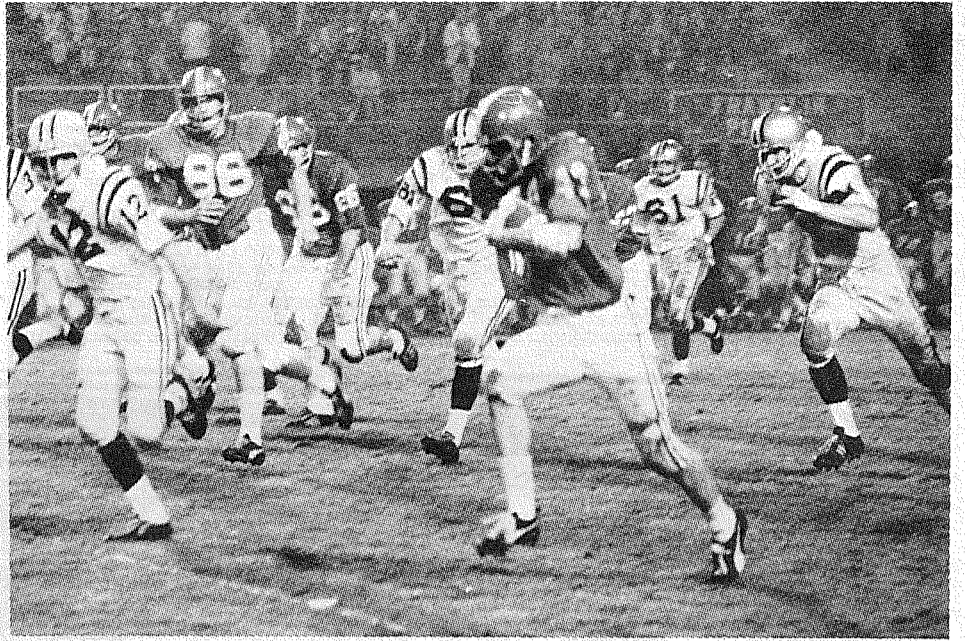

The Bethel Braves raced to victory Thursday in the Seamount League Sub-District Cross-country meet.

Placing first for the Braves was Mike Smithlin followed by Bob Nylander 10th, Stan Adkins 13th, Terry Browning 15th, Norm Cox 19th, Jim Conant 20th, and Steve Brown 41st. The team score of 58 edged out Curtis's 63, the only team to beat the Braves in the League this season.

Individual titlist Mike Smithlin toured the course in near record time of 12:56. Smithlin and Curtis's Hargodon paced the field throughout the race. With 300 yards to the tape, Smithlin opened up at 15 yard lead. Hargodon challenged with only 100 yards of cinders remaining but found Smithlin's patented kick too much.

"This team goes out 100 per cent to win. These guys have worked very hard all season for this and they are happy to get this one," commented Coach Wisness.

The runners had a few hours to enjoy the Spoils of victory. At 6:00 a.m. Friday the runners began preparation for the District meet Saturday. Race time will be 10:30 a.m. at Evergreen High School in the Highline District. The top 4 teams and top 10 individual runners will advance to the state meet the following Saturday.

SCORING PLAY. Rick Tripp, Franklin Pierce wingback, broke loose for a 41 yard touchdown run last Friday to start a string of 7 TDs for the Cardinals to overwhelm Rogers 48-0. Tripp scored again later in the game on a 12 yard run.

LONG GAINER. CARDINAL FULLBACK Kirk Hopkins is pictured starting a 38 yard scamper that ended on the Ram 15 yard line during action last week. Hopkins netted 156 yards in 11 carries to help his Franklin Pierce teammates outclass Rogers 48-0.

Patriots

Face Eagles

Washington Patriots will seek their second victory of the season when they meet the Federal Way Eagles Friday at the Franklin Pierce District Field.

Both teams are tied for seventh place in the won-loss columns, although the Patriots hold the edge in defensive statistics. The contest will mark the final appearance of the Washington eleven during the 1969 season.

Last week Washington came within a point of tying, and two points of upsetting Auburn. The Trojans slipped by the Patriots 8-7.

Hans Woldseth scored the Washington TD on a short run and Bryan Guame booted the conversion.

WWJ Vets To Elect

Parkland Barracks and Auxiliary 9121 World War I Veterans, will meet Tuesday, November 11 at the James Sales Grange Hall for a noon potluck luncheon. Business meeting will start at 1:30 p.m. with the election of officers.

Franklin Pierce

At Jefferson

In Title Bid

The Franklin Pierce Cardinals will meet the Jefferson Raiders at Federal Way Friday, and a win or a tie would give the Cards undisputed claim to the South Puget Sound title.

The undefeated but twice tied Raiders edged Lakes last week 12-8. Franklin Pierce downed Lakes in an earlier contest 14-0.

Pierce scored a marathon of touchdowns last Friday to hand the expansion team of juniors from Rogers their 8th loss of the year. The Cardinals massed 425 yards rushing and 49 yards passing to rack up a 48-0 win.

Rick Tripp scored twice, Mark Conrad had a pair of T.D.'s, and Rick Shadle, Kirk Hopkins, and Mike Mauri had one each. Conversion points were scored by Mark Conrad and Jay Ketter.

STEVE BENZING, (62), 146 pound Bethel Defensive Guard prepares to explode into an unfortunate North Thurston runner in Friday's contest. Benzing, who regularly gives up between 30 and 50 pounds to the opposing lineman is setting records with his precise, aggressive defensive play. He has the lead in tackles. He has forced fumbles, recovered fumbles, batted down and intercepted passes and caused Bethel Defensive Guard Coach John Ostrander to comment, "Steve is the kind of ball player every coach wishes he had. He is aggressive and fast, and since this is only his Junior year he will be a fine asset again next year." Steve is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J.F. Stroble of Graham.

Braves Scalp Rams

By Bill Hallman

Hitting harder each week, plus getting maximum effort out of every player, the Bethel Braves completed their fourth shutout of the season as they downed the North Thurston Rams 14-0.

"That was one of our better hitting efforts of the season," commented the Braves' head mentor, Ed Tingstad.

Coach Tingstad was especially pleased with the performances turned in by Steve Dawson, Jeff Corbitt, Skip Thiel and Bill Robinson. He also added Steve Bruner, Gary Salter, and Doug Wilson all played well in reserve roles.

Junior lineman Steve Benzing again led the "Big Red" team in tackles as he was credited with 15 stops against the Rams. This was the sixth time in eight games Benzing has led the team in tackles.

Jody Miller was again the big scoring threat for the Braves as he scored on a five-yard run and recovered a fumble in the endzone. Miller also connected on a 33-yard pass play to Dale Failey to set up the second touchdown. Miller is now third in Seamount League scoring, three places up from his sixth place 1968 finish.

"We are still looking for that big offensive night that has eluded us so far this year. If we could put together two complete ball games to end the season we could be nothing but proud and pleased with the accomplishments of the 'Big Red,' stated Tingstad.

Maybe Coach Tingstad's hopes will come true tomorrow night as the Braves will make the long trek to Mt. Si. The Wildcats sport a generous defense which gives up on the average 23 points a game while its offensive is pushing across approximately eight points per contest.

The Braves defense has shutout much stronger offenses and will be trying for their fifth shutout of the year.

A season high in scoring could occur in the contest as the 'Big Red' have four potential scoring threats in their backfield who will be running against the Wildcats whose defense is less than perfect having given up 175 points already in league play.

Junior kicker Steve Sabalaska has added one more way for the Braves to score as he has booted three consecutive extra points.

Bethel will travel to Tumwater the 14th as they try to finish the season as they have played it so far, in a winning way.

PLU Gets New 4 Man Shell

A new four-man shell named after Walter E. Neils of Libby, Mont., was christened Friday by the Pacific Lutheran University crew club. The shell was donated by Mrs. Neils.

Neils, a retired Montana lumberman, former vice-president of J. Neils Lumber Co. in Libby and grandfather of PLU coxswain Ralph Neils, was on hand for the ceremonies. His wife christened the shell.

"I hope I win a lot of races," Neils jibed as he inspected his name painted on the side of the hull.

The shell was built by George and Stan Pocock of Seattle, who years ago purchased their shell-building cedar and spruce exclusively from Neils in Montana.

Also on hand for the ceremony were Richard Neils, a St. Regis Paper Co. executive, and his wife. He is Walter Neils' son and father of PLU's coxswain.

PLU representatives were Dr. Eugene Weigman, university president; Clayton Peterson, vice-president for development; and Jon Olson, alumni director and crew advisor, along with the men's crew team and the newly organized women's team.

"The new shell will augment our program very well," Olson noted. Jeff Dreyer, PLU commodore, pointed out that the four-man shell would make the Lute rowers more competitive with the top crew teams in the Northwest.
