Blaze Leaves Midland Family Homeless, Not Hopeless

THIS WAS A HOME—Fire brought sudden disaster to the family of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Horton Jan. 4 when their cozy home at 906 East 97th street was completely gutted. Furniture, personal effects, clothing and household appliances were lost. But the Hortons soon discovered that they were not alone, nor poor. The immediate response of their kindhearted neighbors and friends proved that they would receive help in their efforts to rebuild their home—and their way of life. In addition to many gifts, large and small, already proffered, the Hortons will receive all proceeds from a public benefit given for them by the Midland Firemen's Auxiliary at the fire hall Friday evening, Jan. 22. —Photo by McKewen.

THOUSANDS THRILLED to the spectacular aerial program put on by flying groups Sunday, August 26, at Thun Field as a benefit for the Tacoma Civil Air Patrol. Parachute drops by the Rainier Parachute Club, a display of antique planes, go-cart races by local TV and radio disk jockeys and the appearance of Brake-man Bill as a special treat for the kiddies made the event a memorable occasion. Parkland Rexall Drug has long enjoyed an important place in its field and maintains a full-time prescription service. Dick Devereaux Realty, member of Multiple Listing Service was honored as high producer in value for that service in 1958. The firm is also a member of Tacoma Real Estate Board.

(Sophie) McCullough of John Mahon Road climaxed her flying training at the Spanaway Airport with her official solo flight. Three times she took her plane aloft, flew the prescribed pattern and made perfect landings, the only calm person on the field last March. New to the flying game, Mrs. McCullough is nevertheless the mother of four grown children and is the grandmother of nine youngsters. Her husband has been flying for many years and the two are members of the Signal-aires Flying Club with three planes based at the Spanaway Airport. Slim says, "remember: Your first lesson is free at Tahoma Flying Service."

Franklin Pierce Urges Registering

Registration is now open to all eligible new voters of the Franklin Pierce School District. Books close Feb. 5 throughout the district.

New voters, who will vote for the first time March 8 in the district or whose qualifications have lapsed, are asked to call LE 7-0211 for information. Supt. Edwin L. Nelson said there are no location changes from last year's list of precinct registrar changes.

Pierce County residents who have transferred from another precinct in an unincorporated section of the county may address a postcard to Election Supt. Don Perry, County-City Building. No transfers will be accepted after Feb. 23, according to Perry.

Franklin Pierce School Board members voted Jan. 4 to place three propositions on the ballot March 8. Proposition I calls for a 12-mill building levy, the second issue asks for six mills for maintenance and operations. Third proposal asks for two mills to provide kindergarten support.

The building levy would raise approximately $56,000 to be used to acquire new sites, help with the construction of the junior high and make improvements of building sites.

According to Nelson, the six-mill maintenance and operations excess tax is necessary to hire additional teachers for the 400 new students expected next year. Pierce experienced a seven and one-half percent increase in enrollment, largest in history, this year.

The state legislature cut 30 percent of normal state aid to kindergartens. Administrative Assistant Robert C. Richardson said that passage is necessary if we are to maintain an adequate kindergarten program as part of the total educational system.

Flying

With JEANNE

No one wanted to fly with Jeannie this week, so there isn't much to say. The snow was and is beautiful, but the flyers weren't too impressed with flying in it, so what did they do but go skiing. Quite a few of the Ramier Parachute Club and other pilots from Thun Field went to Paradise to enjoy the snow in the true style of the northwest. For those who did get up for local flights it was calm, beautiful and clear. Bob Birch and Frank Bristow made a scenic cross-country flight of the area. The Western Travelers had a very interesting meeting Friday night. All Pilots and people interested in flying are always welcome.

With JACK BROWN

Once again I am taking the liberty of presenting a guesstatorial. This is an article that I feel should be read and re-read in every home in America.

The morals of America are besieged today by an unprincipled force which will spare no home or community in its quest for illicit profits.

I am speaking of the unquestionably base individuals who spread obscene literature across our land through the means of films, decks of playing cards, photographs, "comic" books, salacious magazines, paperbacked books and other pornographic products. These forms of obscenity indeed threaten the morality of our Nation and its richest treasure — our young people.

While our schools, churches and youth organizations conscientiously strive to improve the morals and thinking of our juvenile citizens, forces of evil are working on the other side of the fence to contaminate all that we hold decent. The most disgusting part of this assault is that our youth is subjected to lurid exhibitions of obscenity in many of the places where they seek clean entertainment.

Despite the splendid public service rendered daily by the overwhelming majority of advertising and entertainment executives, a small group of opportunists in these industries are degrading America and its youth. Our young people are literally bombarded with vulgar motion picture advertisements in some newspapers; certain movies have too often made good on the provocative promises in the advertisements; and profanity and rapacity are the main ingredients of more and more screen offerings. A few television producers, too, sometimes break through the veil of decency as if some of them were trying to see just how much the public will stand. Recently, we have seen considerable publicity concerning certain elements in this medium who have sacrificed scruples on the altar of monetary gain.

It is also a grievous fact that drugstores and "sweet-shops," pleasant meeting places for past generations, now display publications which a few years ago would have a place in only the bawdiest of gathering places. These signs of moral decay, tolerated by adults, cannot help but debase the thinking of our impressionable teenagers. Yet, while they are impressionable, American youths are remarkably wise in recognizing pseudo-piety in adults and the sham of a society which condones declining morality.

In 1957 there were nearly eight forcible rapes per 100,000 inhabitants in the United States. In 1958 this figure increased ten and one-half percent, a forcible rape occurring every 36 minutes! This truly shocking and shameful state of affairs is made even more deplorable by the knowledge that sex crimes and obscene and vulgar literature often go hand in hand.

The time for half-hearted, oblique action against dealers in depravity is past. Although their despicable trade reaps $500 million a year, this diabolical business is costing the Nation much more than money. It is robbing our country and particularly our younger generation of decency — it is a seedbed for delinquency among juveniles and depravity among all ages. If we are to survive morally, Americans must search within themselves for the answers to these questions: Have local governing authorities investigated to ensure that laws against smut salesmen in their communities are strong enough? Is the public outcry of sufficient strength to impress local judges with the need of defending morality by sentencing filth purveyors to maximum terms? Are community and civic groups cooperating with law enforcement authorities in fighting this debasing blight?

And — above all — are good citizens teaching their youngsters habits and beliefs which will be as armor against the tainted temptations of muck merchants?

Very truly Yours,
John Edgar Hoover
Director F.B.I.

Canyon Road . . . Community Club Meeting Tonight

The regular meeting of the Canyon Road Community club will be held this (Thursday, Jan. 14) evening at 8:00 o'clock in the Community hall, East 80th and Canyon road. There will be installation of officers, a short business session and a social hour. See you there!

The Backwoods 4-H club met at the home of Jimmy Hoffman with President Edward Kershner presiding. Mike, Edward and Lawrence Kershner and Clifford Coomber reported on the membership club they had attended. Mr. Kershner suggested new ways for the members to help each other and their animals: (1) Assist other officers in arrangements for meetings. (2) Write announcements and reports of club events for the newspaper.
