Spanaway Improvements On Ballot

EARL SOLIE, Spanaway Elementary School principal, points to outdated master fuse box servicing brick building of Spanaway School complex. Wiring throughout the building is in poor condition and presents a constant fire threat. A pictorial evaluation of the condition of the structure and report of the school propositions facing Bethel voters Tuesday, January 23 can be found on page six.

County Residents Might Be "Mouse" Of Merger Plan

By EM MATSON

A few years ago, there was considerable agitation for someone to build a "better mousetrap." Yet the same basic design that grandpa used is still the best we have today.

Now, the thing that is in dire need of improvement, some say, is the way we govern ourselves at the local level. It has been charged that we have too much duplication between county and city governments, and we would be better served if somehow, a consolidation of sorts took place.

If such a plan materialized, it is hoped that the plight of the central business district might be solved and the suburban and rural residents would get in on some of the "goodies" enjoyed by the city dwellers.

Unfortunately, there appears to be a king-sized 101 mm flaw in this new theory. Many of those who participated in the mass exodus to the rural areas did so because they were "fed up" with the benefits offered by the metropolitan incorporated areas. And they don't want one dime of their tax money channeled into strengthening the downtown area.

Is it up to the unincorporated areas to support the cities taxwise? When the cities now crying for help incorporated, they did so because they felt better services would be provided more economically. But this not always has been the case.

Tacoma, for example, changed its form of government in order to hire an expert to provide the answers. Yet, a financial problem still exists.

The city fathers are taking their problems back to the drawing boards, hoping to design a better "mousetrap". We hope that their county cousins aren't slated for the role of the mouse.

Bethel School Board Report

By E. W. (Doc) Webster

Due to the fact our meetings have been lasting until midnight we voted to hold two meetings per month. This was the second Board of Directors meeting this month and it lasted until 1 a.m. I guess you can't win.

All of our board members were present along with Superintendent Dr. Gramann and F. Olson, clerk of the board.

The call for bids on the three class rooms at Spanaway should be ready by our next meetings, according to Dr. Gramann.

Plans for the Thompson Elementary are coming along fine and the importance of approval of the two propositions we vote on January 23rd was stressed.

We received a shocking report of a girl that peddled dope to a fellow student at our school.

To parents I would say this is a national tragedy and we must not hide our heads in the sand, but face the facts of life. Anyone caught peddling dope in our school will be expelled.

Anyone using it on conviction shall be severely dealt with. I can not say in print what should be done to those adults that would furnish this stuff to children. There will be a more complete report on

Open House Slated At Humane Society

The Tacoma-Pierce County Humane Society has announced that dates are still available for any youth group, i.e., Scouts, Campfire, nursery, and public or parochial schools, to tour their facilities located at 2608 Center Street, Tacoma.

"This program of humane education has been in effect for over four years and thus far, approximately 20,000 youngsters and their teachers or leaders have taken the tour," according to Jeanne Werner, director of humane education.

Hotel-Motel Training At Clover Park

Hotel-Motel and Institutional Housekeeping classes will again be offered by the Clover Park Education Center beginning January 29, 1968, because of increased demand by area employers. Graduates of the courses will be trained to fill current openings in motels, hotels, hospitals and nursing homes.

Each course is 7 weeks in length and includes 4 weeks classroom and laboratory training, followed by 3 weeks on-the-job training. Classroom

Councils of Government Conference Slated At PLU

The work done by regional governing bodies will be emphasized Friday, Jan. 19, when Pacific Lutheran University hosts its second Conference on Community Planning.

The all-day affair will concentrate on explaining how regional councils, consisting of members from local governmental units, solve problems of mutual concern.

"The purpose of Councils of Government," said Dr. Lowell Culver, director of the conference, "is to promote a sense of harmony and cooperation among the governments of an area, and to seek the solution of metropolitan problems through mutually agreed courses of action."

Four speakers will address

PBA Slates Annual Dinner

Date for the Parkland Roundup and the "Man and Woman of The Year" choice will be announced by the Parkland Business Club at its installation dinner meeting January 20th.

Date of the roundup will be determined upon availability of the stock, according to officials of the club.

Harold Lloyd will take office as president; Dayle Colison vice president; Irene Clemens treasurer, Clara Starr recording secretary; Ellen Hunicutt corresponding secretary, and Charles Cook as a new board member.

Clayton Peterson is slated as master of ceremonies. Dinner will be at 7:30 p.m. with the business meeting beginning at 8 p.m.

Library Can Help With Tax Problems

If your tax returns are posing problems, you may find self-help in Parkland Community Library's current material on taxes. Recently acquired are three publications, two of which are issued by the Internal Revenue Service, that are designed to help in filing tax reports.

To help individuals make out their income tax reports the Service has published "Your Federal Income Tax," 160 pages that include explanations, an example of a filled-in return, and a comprehensive index.

For the businessman is the 1968 edition of "Tax Guide for Small Business." Within this booklet's 159 pages the Internal Revenue Service has compiled information for self-employed individuals, and for corporations and partnerships about income, excise, and employment taxes.

Also available at the library is J. K. Lasser's well-known tax-guide "Your Income Tax."

hours are 9:00 to 2:00 daily.

Minimum age for enrollment is 17. Applicants should be in good health and interested in working with people.

For more information, contact the instructor, Mrs. Patricia Deal at Education Center, JU 4-7611. Registration applications are being accepted now.

the conference. They are Mayor Woodrow W. Dumas, president of the East Baton Rouge (La.) Parish; Walter A. Scheiber, executive director of the Metropolitan Washington (D.C.) Council of Governments; Minneapolis Mayor Arthur Naftalin; and Warren Schmid, executive director of the Association of Bay Area Governments, of Berkeley, Calif. Following the 8:45 a.m., registration and introductory remarks, Dumas will speak on "The Politics of City-County Consolidation in Baton Rouge." He will be followed by Scheiber, whose topic is "The Metropolitan Washington Council of Governments."

After lunch Naftalin will address the group on "Intergovernmental Cooperation in Metropolitan Minneapolis." The last topic, "Regional Cooperation in the San Francisco Bay Area," will be delivered by Schmid.

A 3 p.m., question-and-answer session on policies of metropolitan cooperation will include all four speakers.

Culver, assistant professor of political science at PLU, said the enrollment for this conference has been expanded to include members of the Committee on Local Government of the State Legislature; the Legislative Council; the County Boards of Commissioners in the Puget Sound area; the Puget Sound Governmental Conference; and freeholders from King County.

The purpose of the series of conferences is to acquaint area governmental and community leaders with the manner in which communities in other metropolitan areas have cooperated to meet their common problems.

"Pierce County has many problems brought about by rapid population and industrial growth," said Culver. "PLU, in cooperation with the Planning and Community Affairs Agency of the State of Washington, has started these conferences to seek solutions to our urban problems."

The first of the conferences, held last November, dealt with metropolitan problems in general, and also with those existing in Pierce County. The next two, to be held in the spring, will involve just Pierce County representatives.

Old Treasures On Sale At PLU

Woodcuts and manuscripts from the 15th and 16th centuries are on display in the gallery of the Robert Mortvedt Library at Pacific Lutheran University.

The show will be on display through the end of January. Gallery hours are from 8 a.m. to 10 p.m. daily.

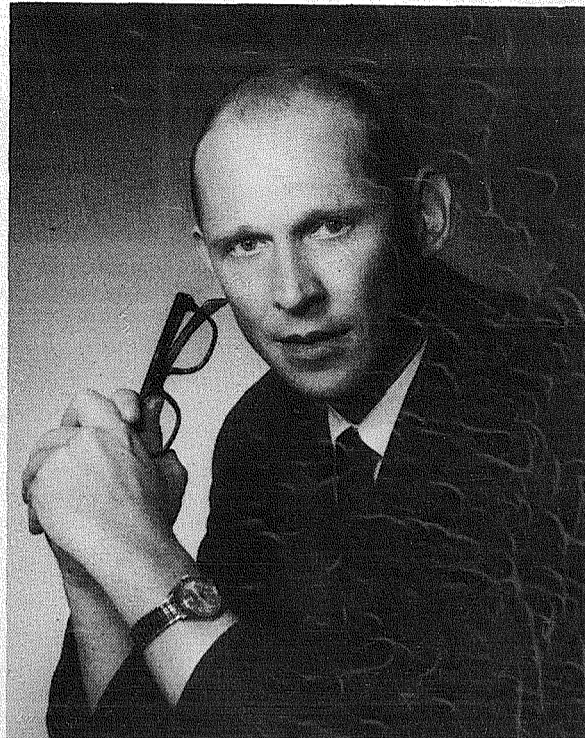

Included in the exhibition are examples of early woodcut illustrations that decorated pages in early Bibles and books. In addition, there are examples of near-eastern and Indian manuscripts. The manuscripts range from small pages of medieval books to large music sheets.

All items in the show are for sale.

Journal Editor Becomes Author

A book covering Puget Sound Indian tribal legends, written by Times Journal managing editor Em Matson, has been accepted for publication by the world-wide publishing firm of Thomas Nelson and Sons. Matson learned of the acceptance in a letter received late last week.

The publication will climax three year's research of local Indian history by the author, who was assisted by Swinomish Chief Martin J. Sampson.

Em Matson

son. Sampson translated chants, interpreted carvings, and explained tribal dances to outline each legend in the book.

In describing the contents, Matson states the stories tell how Indians first settled Puget Sound; how some landmarks came to be; why Western Washington wildlife took the forms they did; and a number of legends telling of early tribal life.

During the research project, Matson found that many of the early legends had passed away with the people who told them, and without the benefit of a written record. These were the stories told by songs and dances, and usually at family or tribal gatherings.

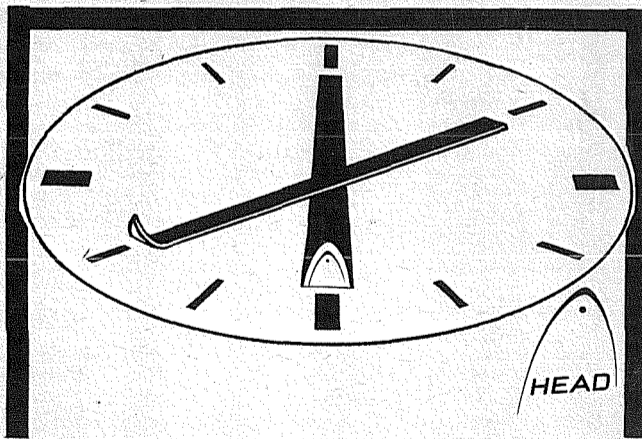

"This book," Matson explains, "is an attempt to save a small portion of a rapidly diminishing culture for all to enjoy."

The book will be illustrated with detailed pen-and-ink drawings and color photographs. A release date has not yet been announced.

Times Journal, Mutuals Co-Sponsor Cooking School

Inspiration for entertaining and family fare is coming to the Parkland-Spanaway area via the Food Arts "Americana" program February 19, sponsored by Elmhurst Mutual Power and Light, Parkland Mutual Light and Water, and the Times Journal.

Two sessions are slated, one starting at 1:30 p.m. and an evening program at 7:30 p.m. Both will be held February 19 at Keithly Junior High School.

"Cooking should be fun." So says home economist Betty G. Nelson who with her associate Helen E. Brady produces the two hour cooking show. Because it is something they have to do, many women look on cooking as a chore.

With the many new electrical appliances and some simple but different recipes, many homemakers have discovered that cooking can be creative and enjoyable.

"We've all heard of the women who go out and buy a hat to chase away the blues," states Mrs. Nelson. "A less expensive and more rewarding outlet for temper, frustration, or blues is to bake bread, try an exotic recipe, or have a coffee klatch."

Each person attending will be given a recipe booklet and can follow the recipes as they are prepared on the stage by Mrs. Nelson. In addition to many prizes to be awarded during the show, most of the food prepared will be given to those in the audience.

As an added attraction, hostess and company dinner fashions will be modeled during the program.

Admission to the cooking schools will be by ticket available free at any one of the sponsors.

"We are always pleased to see a number of men attend," Mrs. Nelson said. "We also look forward to a large number of women employed outside the home to be present for the evening show."

Plans for a Parkland-Spanaway area cooking school were discussed last week by (l-r) Betty Nelson, Don Visser, Helen Grady, and Al Raber. The school, scheduled for February 19, will be jointly sponsored by Elmhurst Mutual Power and Light, Parkland Light and Water, and the Times Journal.

Openings Available At Clover Park

Class openings are still available in the Basic Retailing and Cashier Checking course starting January 22 at Clover Park Education Center. The 18 week course prepares men and women to be employed as cashier checkers or retail business clerks in all types of businesses.

Students attend classes for three hours daily and are employed in local business establishments for part of each day for practical training. Through this "Earn While You Learn" feature, graduates are well qualified and sought after by business employers.

Easter Seal Dates Set

The dates of March 1 to April 14, Easter Sunday, have been set for the 1968 Easter Seal Campaign in Washington, it was announced today by T.B. Mitchell, Kennewick, president of the Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children and Adults of Washington.

During those weeks a widespread appeal for funds will be made by scores of county and local Easter Seal Committees throughout the state to finance treatment and rehabilitation for crippled children and adults.

Last year, nearly 1500 persons received help in this state from Easter Seal societies in addition to the several hundred children who attended the four Easter Seal summer camps.

The society's primary source of income is from the annual campaign during which appeals for contributions are made to the public through the distribution of Easter Seals and other special promotions.

Nationally, Dinah Shore, film, TV and recording star, will be serving as national campaign chairman.

Slogan for the 1968 drive is "People have got to help people."

In addition to the annual fund appeal, the Easter Seal Society also sponsors a year-around Easter Seal Home Safety Crusade as a public service activity.

CASH IS OBSOLETE

It's a fact. You can forget about cash entirely when you have a Citizens checking account.

There's no longer any need to pack it around to pay bills down at the hardware store, the market or the doctor's. No more fear of loss or theft.

No more change to make.

And a Citizens checking account gives you a personalized way of paying bills as well as a reliable receipt of every purchase or payment.

(And your cancelled checks are great at this time of year for income tax purposes.....verifying every deduction and claim.)

Yes, you can forget about cash with one of our checking accounts. In fact, you can begin saving it, perhaps, in one of our insured savings accounts.

Spanaway Memoirs . . . Boom Town Fell

(Editor's Note: This week the Spanaway Memoirs visited with George King, a long-time resident of the Spanaway area. Photos and information on the Southern Pierce County area are still being sought by the writer for future issues. Feel free to call LE 1-0223.)

By Sandy Ingram

Seventy nine years sees a parade of changes in any area, but Spanaway seems to have had more than its fair share of them.

When the railroad decided to put a line from Tacoma to Portland, Spanaway became a boom town. There was plenty of water and land, and early residents were prosperous in their homesteading, according to King.

When the line got to the 174th Street grade in 1893, it was decided not to take it any further and the township was turned upside down. "Things were plenty rough," said King.

"There was no relief in those days, you had to get out and scratch, or do without, but there was the depot at 161st and Park," he added as if in consolation. "The farmers would come in with their cauliflower, cabbage and potatoes to take them to market via the train, 'Old Betsy'."

For farmers further out toward the mountain, Eatonville, Ashford and Elbe, there was a stage line with a team of four horses which brought them into Spanaway. From there they took the train.

Old Betsy stopped running soon after the tragedy in Tacoma on July 4th, 1900, according to the pioneer. "Everybody went to Tacoma on July 4th, they really new how to celebrate it. They used to race horse-drawn fire engines up and down Pacific Avenue.

King's father came to the area first. His mother followed via the Canadian Pacific railroad and then by boat to Tacoma with seven children. George King was the youngest of the seven, he was one and one half years old when they came here from Minnesota.

In Spanaway (the main) trading center was not Pacific, but, the two blocks from 161st and Park to 163rd and Park. King owned the meat market, which stood where the Spanaway Fire Department is now until it burned down, along with two whole blocks on June 10, 1922.

Recalling the fire King said, "Two fire engines came from Tacoma, one went down by the lake and pumped water to the other one, but it was no use the blocks were burned before they arrived, it was nice of them to come all that way though."

Other business establishments in the area were the dry goods store, run by Mr. Shriner; the blacksmith shop, owned by Bill Johnson and Don Lindley and the big feed store and warehouse.

Sat thinking of some of the times they had, the old-timer began to chuckle, "I guess we were pretty wild kids," he said. "People used to say 'if you can get through Spanaway, you can get through anything.'"

"The adult generation then thought of us as the adult generation now thinks of today's teenagers," he reminisced. "Times don't really change do they?"

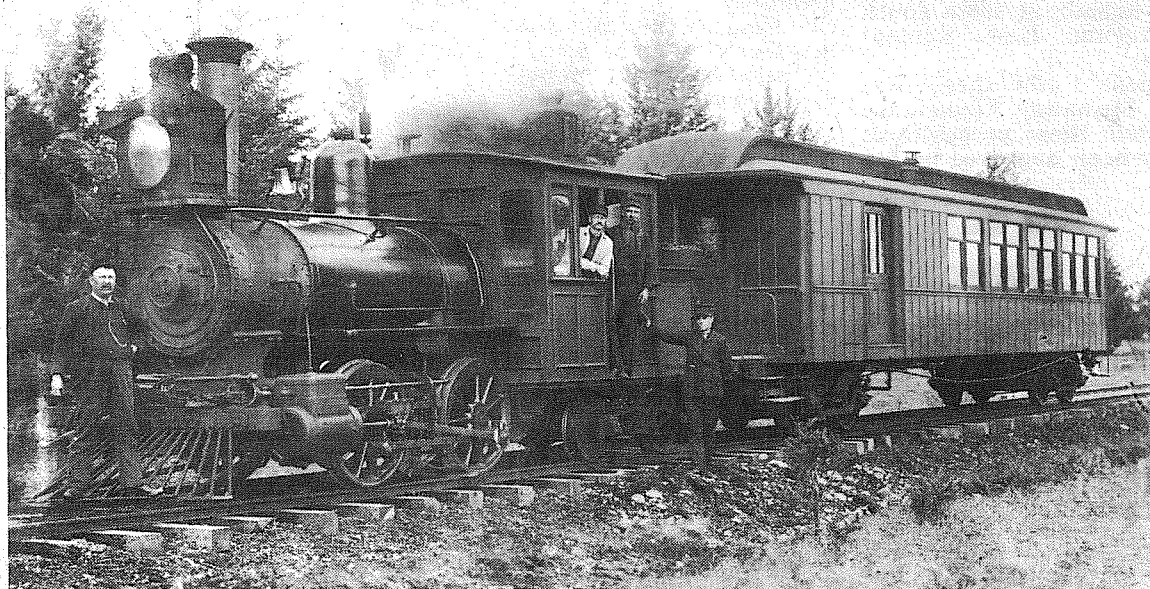

One of the 'happenings' of his teen-age years was when a movie was made, or at least part of it, in Spanaway. "There were about 10 soldiers," he remembered, "but, by the time the movie was cut you would have thought there was 100. The men ran out of the barn, around the side and into the back door and back out front again."

There was plenty of animals around the area, according to King. The deer were plentiful and you didn't need a license of course there were seasons, but deer were plentiful.

"I've seen a lot of changes," he pondered, "why I remember when the street car would come out here with a trailer on back just crowded with people. Spanaway was ahead of Parkland then."

I find it hard to drive my automatic transmission car down a four-lane highway past a golf course and up-to-date stores and picture the scenes as described by Mr. King, but as he sat and remembered and occasionally chuckled at the obvious reputation the youngsters received then I wished I could have visited with them once and then come home to my modern, automated life, just for the conveniences!

See you next week.

"OLD BETSY" showed up at last. Last week a photograph of a street car which took the place of the old train was displayed in the paper in error. This is the real thing. This print was made from a glass plate negative found in a shed owned by George Brooks, 160th and Pacific, and was printed through the courtesy of Darrell Dugan.

AA Slates Information Meetings

First in a series of public information meetings to be staged by the combined groups of Alcoholics Anonymous in Tacoma will be held Saturday evening Jan. 20 at 8 p.m. in the main auditorium of the Tacoma Public Library, South 11th and Tacoma Avenue.

Purpose of the series is to acquaint the general public with the program of AA which, in a little over three decades, has helped over a half-million individuals recover from alcoholism.

Speakers will relate some of their experiences as problem drinkers, their attempts to achieve sobriety, and subsequent recovery through AA. Saturday's speakers include two women from Seattle, a former State Delegate of AA to the New York headquarters, and the Rev. Ernest Durham, a long-time "friend" of AA in Tacoma.

"AA growth locally has not kept pace with other similar sized communities, and we feel a critical need for wider dissemination of the AA story," said a spokesman. "Our definition of an alcoholic and approach to the problem is dramatically different from the popular concept and we try to demonstrate this through these public meetings."

There is no admission charge for Saturday's meeting and refreshments will be served. Because the Tacoma Avenue entrance to the Library closes at 6 on Saturday, entry to the auditorium is through Court D.

13 Per Cent Increase In Social Security

The changes in the social security law signed by President Johnson on January 2 will mean a benefit increase of at least 13 percent in the social security checks of about 39,000 men, women, and children in the Pierce County area. This will mean a yearly increase of benefits payable in this area of approximately $4,600,000 according to Jack V. Chastain, Tacoma District Manager.

The Social Security Administration's high speed electronic computers are figuring the increases for all 23,700,000 social security beneficiaries around the country and will finish the task in time to include the increases in the checks delivered early in March.

Beneficiaries need not take any action to get the increase. It will be sent to them automatically.

Residents of the Pierce County area can expect the first increased check on Saturday, March 2nd, one day earlier than the usual 3rd of the month delivery of social security benefit checks. Under a recent arrangement with the Treasury Department and the Post Office, social security checks are delivered a day early instead of a day late when the 3rd of the month falls on a Sunday or holiday.

Some social security beneficiaries will receive more than a 13 percent increase. The minimum benefit for workers retiring at 65 is increased from $44 to $55.

The average benefit payable to a retired worker, about $86, will be raised to $98, an increase of $12 a month. The average couple's benefit, now $145, will go up to $165; and the average widow's benefit will rise $11, from the current average of $75 to $86.

The last increase in social security benefits amounted to 7 percent, and was effective January 1965.

Under the amended law, maximum payments to families now on the social security benefit rolls will go up from the currently payable maximum of $309.20 a month to $322.40.

Bethel Voters Face Special Levy

10 Mill Levy For Elementary

By Sandy Ingram

Because of the increase in growth in the Bethel School District, 23 per cent in three years, the district is now eligible to receive matching funds on the basis of a ruling of the State Superintendent of Schools, Louis Bruno, relative to emergency state matching funds, according to Dr. Fred M. Gramann, superintendent of the Bethel Schools.

The 10 mill levy that is proposed on the January 23rd special election is the one stipulation for the matching funds. If the proposition is passed the Bethel District will be eligible for $1,200,000.

Two propositions are being offered to the Bethel voters next Tuesday.

The first is the 10 mill levy, $145,000, "for building, constructing, replacing substandard facilities, and adding to Spanaway Elementary School."

Proposition No. 2 is for $42,000 (approximately 3 mills) "for the acquisition of additional school sites."

The first part of the Spanaway School was built in 1927 and in 1945 temporary buildings had to be put into use.

Under the authority of Bruno a survey was made and it was determined the cost of making the school sound would be $100,000. The Fire Marshall's office has declared the older parts as UNSAFE.

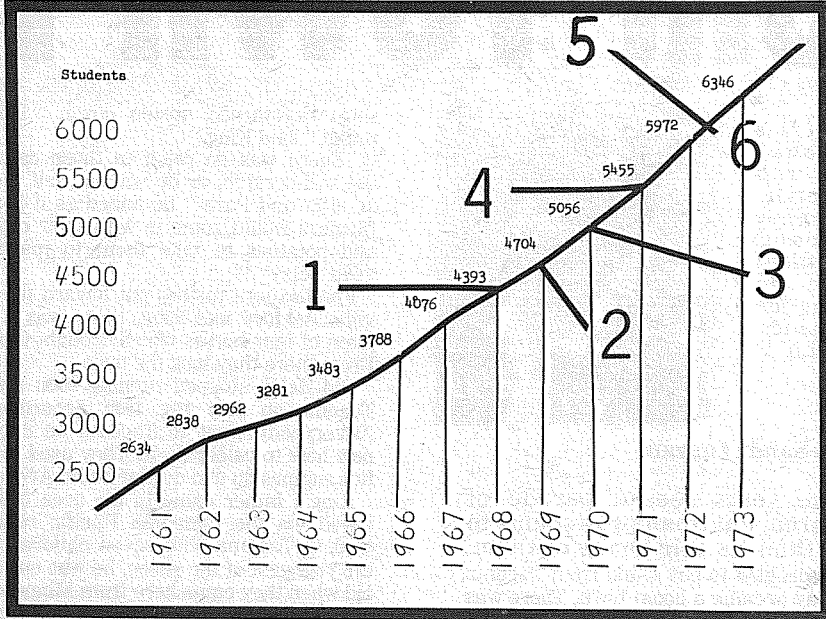

Lighting is extremely inadequate and yet the present wiring system prohibits any addition.

Future school sites must be obtained as soon as possible, said Dr. Gramann, who pointed out the 200 student difference between the first and 12th grades in the district at the moment.

At present there are 357 children enrolled in kindergarten, 382 in Grade 1; 339, Grade 2; 355, Grade 3; 343, Grade 4; 353, Grade 5; 314, Grade 6; 313, Grade 7; 341, Grade 8; 290, Grade 9; 279, Grade 10; 239, Grade 11; and 183 in Grade 12.

The district has 2,443 elementary pupils in five schools, 654 in one junior high and 991 in one senior high.

The goal of the district is for Kindergarten through 5th in elementary schools, with no more than 500 children to a school; 6-, 7- and 8th-grade in middle school and 9-, 10-, 11- and 12- in senior high.

PROJECTED PROGRAM — The graph points out the student growth in the next few years along with the proposed building program of the district. See related story for identification of the building program.

The graph shows the projected building program of the district. The numbers stand as follows:

Open the 18-room Thompson Elementary School, at 159th South and 5th Avenue East. Student capacity 500.
- Open phase 1 (the three-room addition) of Spanaway Elementary School. — Both these propositions have already been approved by the - voters.

- 2: — 1969
Open the new middle school on the south 15 acres of the Thompson Elementary Site — this is also approved.

Replace the brick building and wooden structures at the Spanaway Elementary — the proposition will be voted on January 23rd.

The rest will be submitted to the voters at later dates.

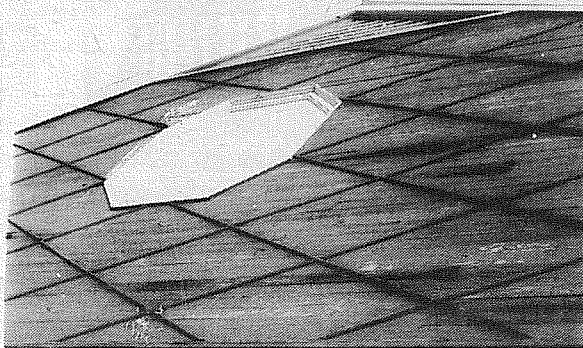

Add 10-15 rooms to the present High School.

4: — 1971
Open a seventh elementary school.

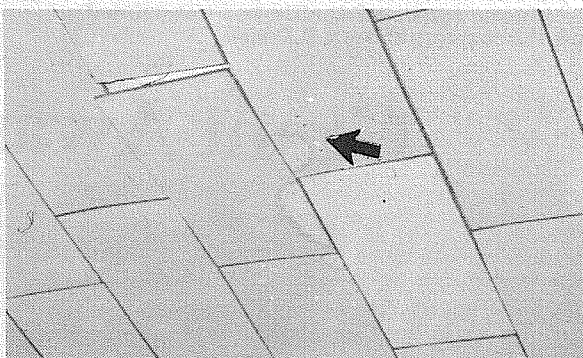

5: — 1972 or 1973
Open a third middle school.

6: — 1972 or 1973
Open the first part of a new high school.

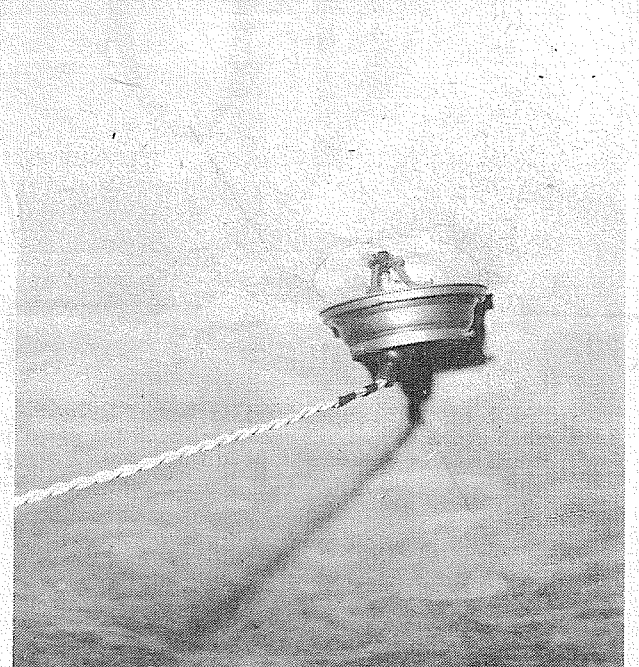

It is undecided at this point which will be first, the third middle school or the second high school.

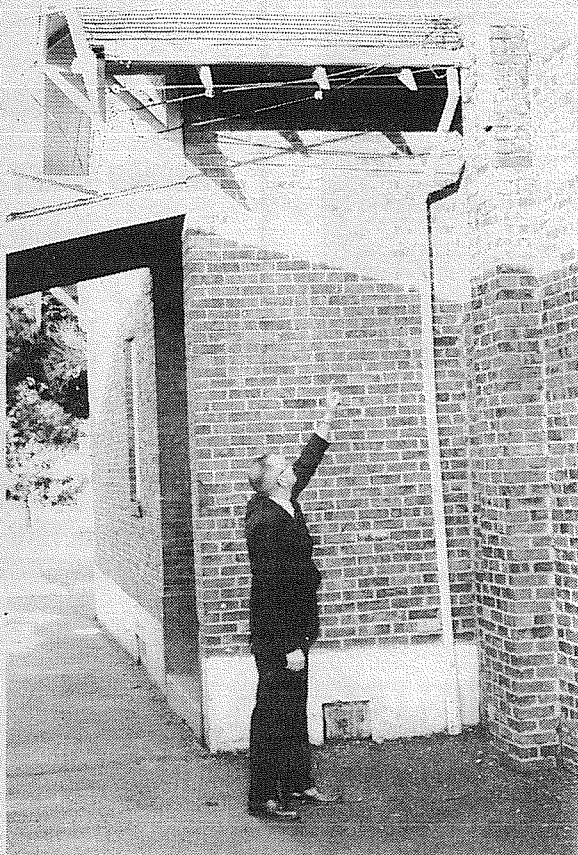

Wood Siding on upper portion of portable built in 1945 has started to break loose due to dry rot.

LEAKING ROOF has caused classroom ceiling tiles to break-a-way.

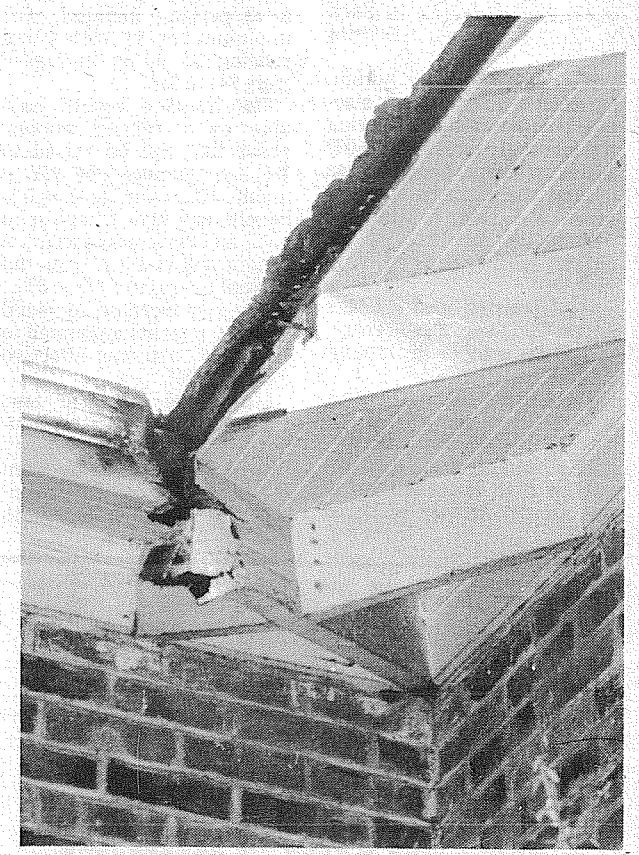

SOURCE of power for library lighting is extension cord plugged into unused light receptacle on old gym balcony.

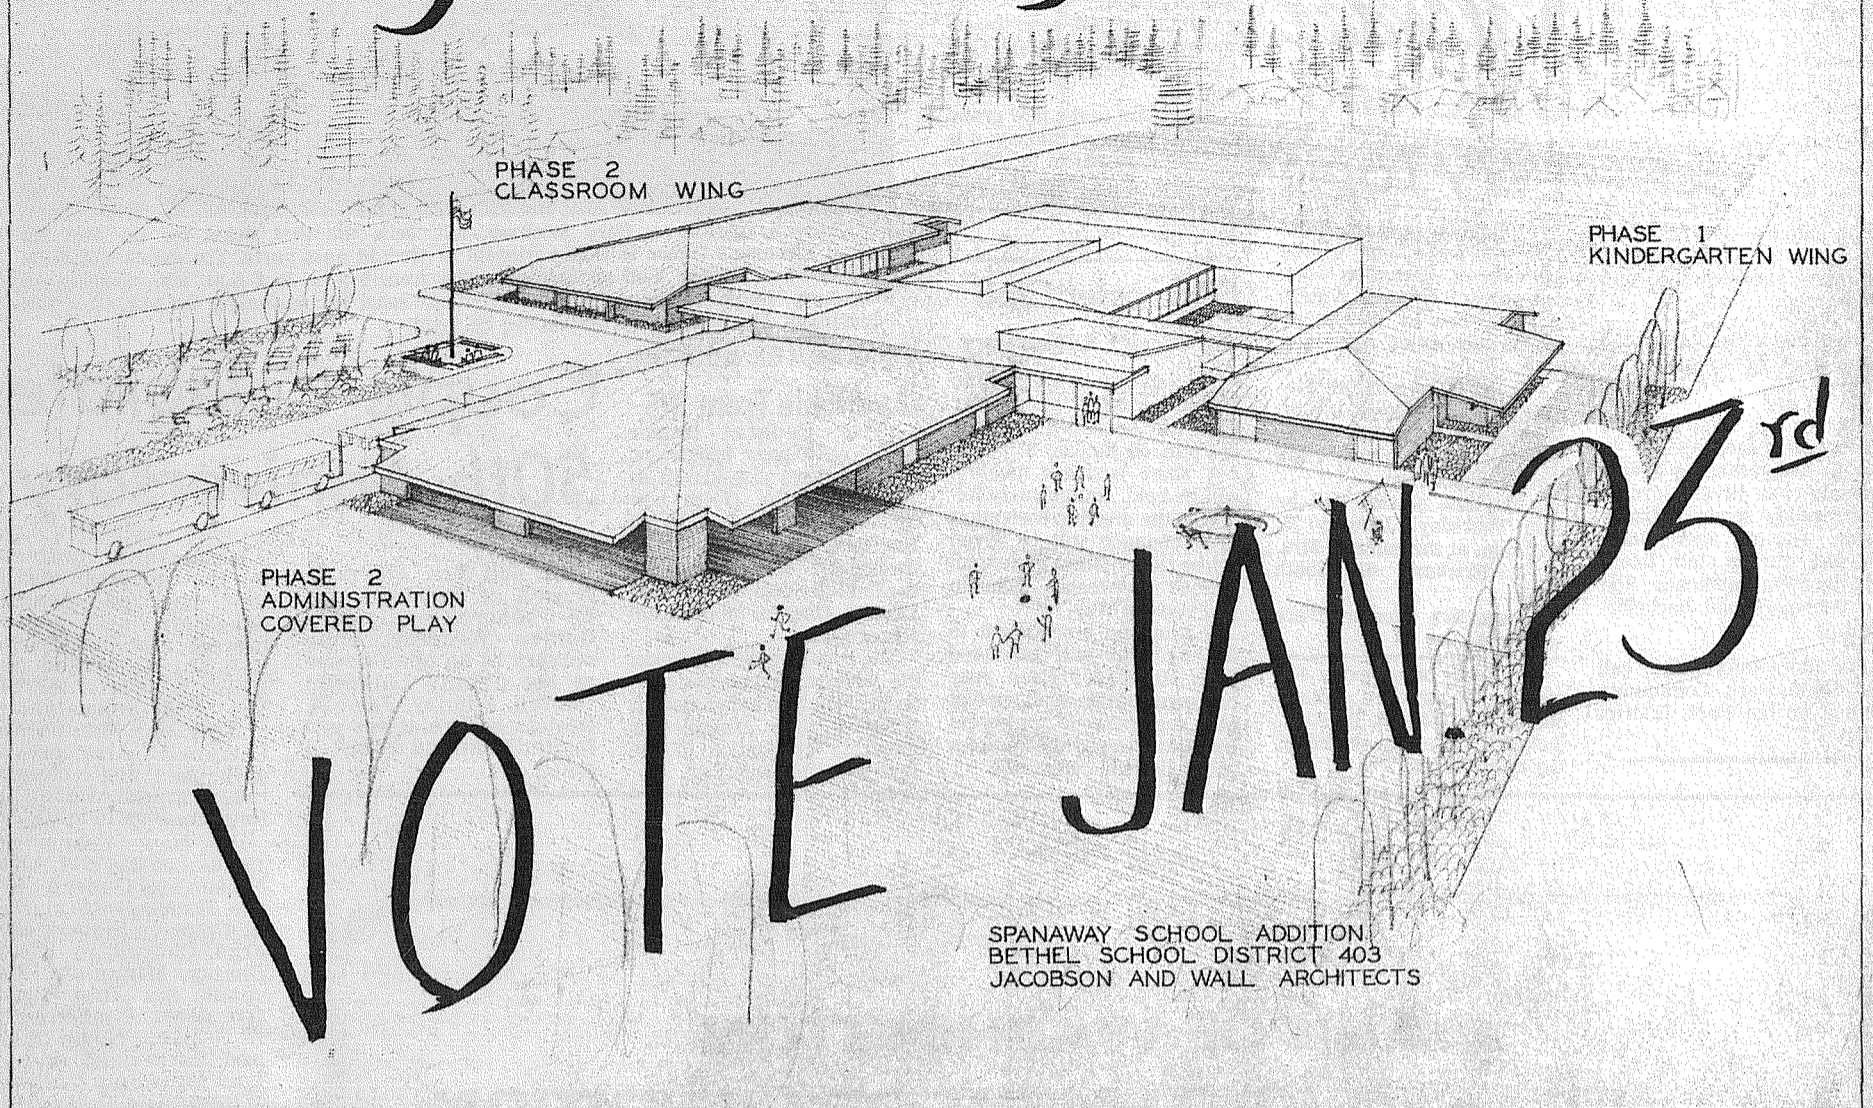

DRY ROTTED EAVES and frayed electrical wiring were called to the attention of Times Journal cameraman by Earl Solie, Spanaway principal.

DRY ROT has completely destroyed exposed rafters causing gutters and drain pipe to drop to the ground. (Lower) Rusted drain pipe stands unattached to gutters, long since the victim of dry rot.

Let's get the job done!

Sumner, Fife Pace

Hoop Squads Seek 4th Straight Wins

Remaining the only undefeated teams in the Seamount League, both Sumner and Fife will be out to keep that record unblemished this Friday night as they continue league play. Sumner, who ran its record to 3-0 in league and 9-0 for the season with an easy 68-40 drubbing of Bethel, travel Friday to take on unpredictable Tahoma.

Fife's big front line will get one of its severest challenges this Friday when they entertain North Thurston. Fife won its third straight Seamount game when they squeaked out a 66-60 win over Foster. Tahoma has failed to win a league game, but only lost 41-40 to a good Tumwater team last weekend. They boast a fine athlete in jumping-jack Paul Barfield. Barfield, who has high jumped 6-4 1/2, handles Tahoma's rebounding and if he gets any support they can be a tough opponent.

Spartans Score

In belting Bethel Friday, Sumner showed why it was standing 9-0 for the season. The Spartans had three persons in double figures scoring wise and had four with 8 or more rebounds. Heading the well balanced scoring attack was sharp-shooter Tom Krueger with 20 points. Following him were Eric Schooler with 17 and Dave Thomas with 12. Schooler, who had jumped in 38 points the week before, was constantly boxed in with 2 and 3 men on him every time he had the ball. He did manage to pull down an evening high, 13 rebounds. Reserve Pat Duffy came off the bench for the second straight week and did an excellent job, grabbing 11 rebounds and hooping 7 points. Mike Shireman and Thomas had 10 and 8 rebounds respectively. The Spartans completely dominated the backboard play, pulling down 58 rebounds to Bethel's 22.

Schooler Boxed

Bethel opened the game with a box and one zone defense in hopes of stopping the Seamount leading scorer — Schooler. Krueger quickly ruined that strategy as he consistently hit from long range. Putting Krueger's long range sharpshooting, Lindsey Bemis' pin-point assists, and a devastating full-court press together, Sumner had little trouble with the Young Braves. Showing a lot of scrap, they pulled away to a 19 point margin at half time and were never headed after that. Talented sophomore Mark Belvin led Bethel with 14 points and 13 rebounds.

Up at Foster, Fife had a much tougher time keeping itself undefeated in League action. Foster pulled away in the early part of the game and led by 4, 19-15 at the end of the first quarter. Fife was able to utilize a half-court pressuring defense to cut the margin in the second quarter and finally secured the lead 32-31 at the half time buzzer.

The second half was a repeat of the first half's nip and tuck play, with the lead changing hands 6 times in the third quarter. The Trojans finally regained the lead, 37-36 and held onto steadily increase its margin to the 6 point victory.

For the first time this season, Fife was out rebounded, but their pressuring defense made up the difference and allowed them to keep the upper hand.

Balanced Attack

A balanced scoring attack paced the Trojans to their narrow victory. Big Fred Swendson and 6-5 Rod Pickering led the charge, both hitting for 15 points. Art Knodel and Greg Smith backed them up with 10 points a piece.

With Fife's win and Mt. Si's second loss, the Trojans have moved another step closer to nailing down the top class A spot in the league. Mt. Si was ambushed by Enumclaw, 65-55. With the Enumclaw victory, Sumner's threat to the Class AA tournament lies with the upstart Hornets.

New Editor On Campus

Pacific Lutheran University's student publication's board has appointed Thomas J. Stuen of Seattle to serve as editor of the campus newspaper, "The Mooring Mast."

Stuen, who is presently sports editor of the weekly publication, will replace Conrad Zipperian as editor at the end of the current semester. The new editor will serve for one year.

Recreation basketball league play will begin on Saturday, January 13th for the 5th and 6th grade boys of the Bethel District.

Victory Over Cards Tightens Race

Puyallup got back on the winning track last Friday when they outshot Franklin Pierce 60-51, thus giving the Cards their first Southern Division setback. Franklin Pierce will be on their home maples Friday, entertaining winless Lakes.

The Vikings and Cardinals are in a second place deadlock with two other teams in the tight Southern Division race. Auburn stands all alone with a perfect 2-0 mark. The Viks or Cards can't afford to lose another game as they continue in the fight for the championship.

In last Friday's game, Puyallup scored 8 unanswered points in the final 2 minutes of the first quarter to break a 9-9 tie and go in front to stay 17-19. Dan Ross broke the deadlock with a lay-in with 6:10 gone in the game. Dan Bogrand, Steve Harlow, and Todd Huber all followed with buckets as the Cardinals went cold and Puyallup had its insurmountable lead.

Puyallup increased its lead to 24-14 on a long jumper by Chris Hoyt in the second quarter, but thanks to some adept free throw shooting by Jim Hadlund, Franklin Pierce began to inch back and only trailed 24-20 at one point. The Cards were quite cold from the field, being able only to sink 6 of 27 from the field in the first half. If it wasn't for an amazing 14 for 14 from the charity stripe the 8 point difference at half time could of been much larger.

Puyallup returned in the second half to begin where it left off, racing to a 12 point lead midway through the third quarter. Not to be outdone, or outplayed, the scrappy Cardinal five began to fight back and closed within four points 45-41, as the fourth quarter began. Mark Korsmo, and Jim Furlong began to find the range to lead the rally.

Bogrand then hit a short jumper to put the Viks ahead by six and Couch Rich Hammermaster called for a stall offense. Going almost two minutes without taking a shot, Puyallup successfully pulled F.P. out of its zone and with Huber hitting his sixth straight free throw, pulled ahead by 10.

Bogrand took scoring honors with 18 points, while Huber followed with 17, 11 of those coming on free throws. Huber also pulled down 10 rebounds to pace the Viks in that department. The Viks outshot the Cards 40% to 29%, although both teams did exceptionally well from the charity line. The Cards hit on 16 of 22 while Puyallup hit 24 of 32.

The Cardinals were hurt when sparkplug Jim Hadlund fouled out with just 2 minutes gone in the final quarter. Two other Cards were evicted via the same route, with Mike Stogsdill going before the first half ended. They were also minus one starter, Glen Harkey being absent with a bad cold.

Coach Del Schafer felt the difference in the game was Puyallup's superior board strength and F.P.'s inability to hit from the field. "We played a pretty good ball game but Puyallup plays tough defense."

The ten-acre site features a grandstand with a seating capacity for 500 persons and an arena for the fitting and showing of 4-H and FFA animals. County Extension Agent Frank Stowe said a stage could be erected for the entertainment portion of the Fair.

The Fair was forced to move from its location on the Summer High School grounds because of the additional school facilities being built. Fair directors are searching for a permanent home for the three-day event.

An expanded night chairlift schedule, new night ski classes, and the introduction of "Ladies' Day" activities were announced this week by Crystal Mountain.

Tuesday skiing until 10:00 p.m. has been added at least through February, according to General Manager Howard Paulsen. The increased schedule provides 9:00 a.m. to 10:00 p.m. skiing on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Fridays and Saturdays. Lift operations on Sundays, Mondays and Thursdays will be from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

At the same time, Crystal's Ski School Director, Jack Nagel, said instruction from the school's regular staff now is available in the evening as well as during the day.

"Both the economical four-week package programs and one-time classes and private lessons are available," Nagel pointed out. "Those interested should call BA 6-4544 or TA 5-5947 or stop at the ski shop or the ski school chalet at Crystal Mountain."

Henceforth, Fridays will be labeled "Ladies' Day" at Crystal, Paulsen said.

Special activities and benefits for women on Friday will include half-price ($1) roundtrip bus service from Enumclaw
