It's Spelled ``Tormoehlen"'

The proprietor of the newly opened Saddle Shop at 317A S. Garfield, across from the post office, wants to start off on the right foot — with the RIGHT spelling of his name. Dennis A. Tormoehlen says that the weekend's Open House was a big success-with the one exception. Nobody knew how to spell his name because it appeared under his picture in the Times Journal slightly Awry. Let's give it another whirl — Dennis spells the last name T-O-R-M-O-E-H-L-E-N. He also answers to Today I landed at Sun Valley with an appetite Tomato Soup that would do justice to a mule skinner. I borrowed Tunafish Sandwich a car and headed for the nearest eatery, mentally Celery Sticks pricing the menu enroute. I couldn't help thinking Milk prices would be high in that winter wonderland. I stopped at the first restaurant I came to and ordered the dinner special: Ham and beans. The little gal brought me a big man sized bowl of soup and a cup Carrot Sticks of coffee for openers. Next a salad that contained at Buttered Corn Bread least a half pint of cottage cheese with a pair of Orange Wedges pears cuddled up on top of it. Then a bread bowl Milk with two big slices of hot corn bread, a big sesame bun and three chunks of butter. All this followed by chocolate pudding and for Milk 85c and no sales tax. Kind of gives a person hope for the salvation of the U.S. dollar.

Got in a big conversation with a woman at the Cheese Stick airport about flying poodles. Seems she has two of Raisin Nibbler them that take to the air. Anyway after about fifteen Milk minutes of airplane-ing and dog-ing, said lady left the airport and the gal behind the counter asked me if I knew who I had been shooting the breeze with. All I knew was that besides being good looking, the lady was real friendly and a sort of down to earth individual. Anyway I had been gabbing with movie star Ann Sothern all the time and never recognized Milk her. Just goes to show you that people can be people in any walk of life.

FIFTY YEARS OF MARRIAGE was celebrated by Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Crane, 601 South 129th Street, at a dinner at The Top of the Ocean on February 4th. The former Edith V. Trogdon married young Bela L. Crane in Broadview, Montana in 1914. They have three sons, Lawrence T. of Tacoma, Roger B. of Belleville, Illinois, and Richard H. also of Tacoma. They also have four grandchildren. Mrs. Crane retired from work at the Veterans Hospital and her husband retired from the Mount Rainier Ordenance Depot. A yellow copy of the Broadview Bulletin, published February 6, 1914, in giving an account of the marriage, notes that the bride was "central girl in the local telephone exchange", while the groom was manager of a garage. It also mentions the fact that the couple, after a brief honeymoon, "will take up residence in the little cottage built by the groom. -Parkway Photos

In answer to Jack Tanner Bill, I refer you to and ask each of you, whether for or against this Ordenance, to listen to Channel 13 TV Feb. 6 at 7 p.m. Donald Warden of Berkley, California. This man is a dedicated Negro, proud of his race, a prominent lawyer and a lay minister of the Gospel of the Lord Jesus

He is presenting a plan that will be a challenge to followers of Jack Tanner-it will be a challenge to the NAACP to present to the people of this city a report of the funds of this organization and why hasn't their money been used for colleges, education, hospitals, for the

Can Mr. Tanner show Deepest sympathy is ex- where any of his money has tended to the Cecil Bright- been used except for "peace man family on the death of marches" and "racial disturbances"? These are some mighty important items to be considered before you turn your property over to a 'Housing Board" that will definitely, be a discrimination to both the caucasian and the Negro. This man will also speak Saturday evening. February 8 in Tacoma. (We will make a later announcement as to place). Come and hear the other side presented —this is the American way.

Rev. D. W. Blomgren GR 4-1951

Dear Mr. Brown: There have been several letters from college students in your newspaper that are rather frightening and I

At the University of Washington Gus Hall was allowed to speak under the guise of "Freedom of Speech." Notorials—with all the shenan where does the Bill of Rights igans being pulled today and or the Constitution give us attempted brain washing, it the right to practice treason is good to read something and that is exactly what

Now we have students at and don't like to see cuss munity who are wanting to words in a paper, but as a abolish our right to own firegood and "a wondering and helpless to defend ourselves and that would be the first step in allowing a communist take-over.

Our president saw fit to degrade this country and all true-and I do mean true-Americans by declaring we are full of hate and violence. I, for one, resent that declaration. Just because I do not agree with all the policies of Clarksville, Arkansas former President Kennedy, does not mean I am a violent person or I hate my neighbors because they do not think as I do. And yet, our president did not say we were horrible people when he asked for and pressured our congressmen into a foreign aid bill and a sale of wheat to his liking.

With that type of thinking from our leaders, perhaps we (With Jack Brown) every all should begin to question what type of education is being put forth in our colleges; them. That is what this coun- an American education or a communist education?

> What are our defense department, attorney general, and congressmen doing to allow communism to spread to such a degree that a new group of sympathies toward Castro could begin their destructive type of treason? Our college students had better begin to wake up or they will find they no longer have the right to choose their own careers. Sincerely,

Mrs. J. L. Henderson 407 E. 127th

Jack Brown Times Journal

There is a certain school of "higher" education in our vicinity whose initials begin with "P" and end with "U", the winds of which are beginning to permeate our nether atmosphere. It is a little nauseous but could be bearable if it weren't for the fact that the head men of said institution were among those with hands outstretched in Washington, D.C., fawning on those who administer our tax dollars with a view to grabbing their so-called share.

It's all right to be academically free but let's be consistent about it and carry this freedom all the way They are entitled to their views as a college and as students in the good old U.S.A., but I am not compelled yet for awhile to finance them. Just keep away from the public financial trough, O.K.?

P. M. Smith 10022 E. Amherst P.S. Your Americanism is beginning to show on you just like on a lot of the rest of us formerly apathetic people. Hurrah!

Mrs. Hiegel's Hat Is In Council Ring!

Betty Jane Hiegel

There is an old story that says you can not kill a frog by dropping him in boiling water. He reacts so quickly to the sudden heat that he jumps out before he is hurt; but if you were to put him in cold water and warm it up gradually, he never decides to jump until it is too lateby then he's cooked!

People are just as foolish: take away their freedoms overnight and you have a violent revolution, but steal it from them gradually under the guise of "Security, Peace, Disarmament, Urban Renewal, Open Housing, Metro Civil Rights, or Progress and you can paralize a whole nation — this paralization has to start with a city. The water is getting hot and instead of "jumping" we are "slowly soaking" and enjoying our false security, while OUR Federal Government is slowly getting complete control over our property—our homes—our personal rights. Ladies, Gentlemen, Church Goers, Young People; please put aside your apathy-prepare to use your freedom to save your freedom, while you still have the right of a free election. Don't let anyone tell yoù how to vote! You have a mind — use it — make sure your choice of a candidate

1. A real Red Blooded American.

2. Is in a business that you would morally approve of. 3. Is not backed by anyone for personal gain.

4. Believes in solid principles of Christianity. 5. Will stand for these "convictions" and will not be a "yes" man. Your Candidate for Position No. 4. Tacoma City Council. For God and Country and

our City. Betty Jane Hiegel (Paid Political Adv.)

Girls Earn Honors

PEGGY ELLSWORTH, Jonna Medley, Darlene Haines, Melodie Bixby and Julie Moreau have all earned their First Class Badges in Girl Scouts. This is one of the highest ranks reached by Girl Scouts. Each girl had to first earn Second Class. and then earn ten merit badges, fulfill four requirements, "Fun in the Out of Doors", "You and Your Home," "Citizens Here and Abroad," and "Adventure in the Arts". This normally takes from 3-5 years. Three of these girls have been together in Troop 497, with Mrs. John Medley leader, since they were Brownie Girl Scouts, which is 2nd and 3rd grade. Four of these girls are 7th graders at Keithley Jr. High School. Melodie Bixby is in the 9th grade. —Parkway Photos
