Cabinet Shop Burns To Ground

TIME TO MOVE OUT — John Farren, Spanaway-Elk Plain Fire Chief, turns off the engine pressure as he reaches for the truck door when it became obvious that the paint and thinner was close to exploding 15 feet away.

$50,000 Damage To Uninsured Building

Fifty thousand dollars damage was the result of an explosive fire at the cabinet workshop of Les Kleinsasser, Route 2, Box 2615, Spanaway, Thursday morning.

According to eye-witness reports the one-story wood frame building was completely burned within 20 minutes after the alarm was turned into the Spanaway-Elk Plain Fire Department.

The main hazards of the fire, according to Chief John Farren, were 11 55-gallon barrels of laquer, thinner and paint stored in the building, which exploded into a 200-foot funnel of flame.

Apparent cause of the blaze was a light bulb explosion while it was being cleaned.

The building, which was a total loss, was not insured.

Chief Farren and Dave Willis, fireman, were assisted by fifteen volunteers including Sonny Beegle, Curt Parsons, Dwight Dejarlais, Bob Landgrebe, Vic Leslie, Darrell Dugan, Richard Vanzanter, Tom Bramhall, Jim Gray, Morey Farmer, Ken Kuper, Ben Kuper, Connie Larson, Jim Sartain and Dick Sacco.

Other fire calls in the Spanaway-Elk Plain District last week included:

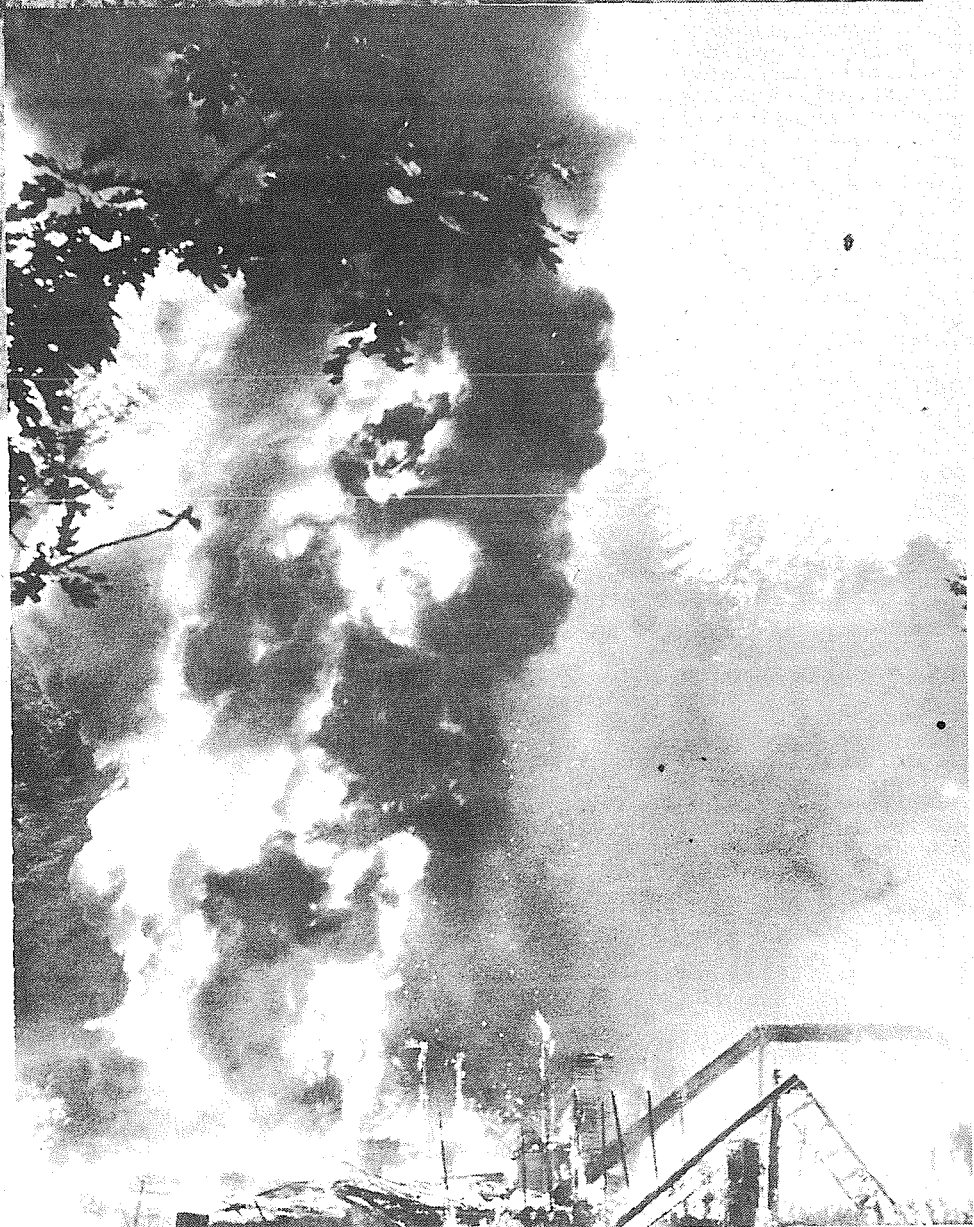

A car fire at 9:47 p.m. at 1500 Military Road on July 22nd.

Children playing with matches at 613 So. 174th on the 24th.

A first aid call to 174th and Yakima, where two persons were struck by a passing car as they tried to pull an injured dog from the road on the 25th.

A car fire at Route 1, Box 1318, July 25th.

July 27th, a resuscitator call to Route 2, Box 2520. Also on the 27th a resuscitator call to 17410 15th Avenue East. A third resuscitator call on that date was to Spanaway Golf Course.

FIRE FUNNEL — This funnel of flames rose close to 200 feet when the 11 55-gallon barrels of paint, thinner and laquer began to explode. Witnesses stated that the heat was so intense that small grass fires sprung as far as 200 yards from the scene.

Petition To Amend Property Tax Law Gains Momentum

Backers of an initiative petition to provide additional exemptions under the personal property tax law, are starting a statewide drive to secure 100,022 signatures by December 1, 1968.

The measure would amend the recent legislative act that requires citizens to list all personal property for tax purposes.

A Committee Against Unfair Personal Property Tax was first formed by a group of Clark County residents to start initiative relief when the Clark County Assessor rigidly enforced provisions of the act, Chairman Donna Alderin, Vancouver, Wash., told the Journal. It has since grown into a statewide organization.

Most county assessors have not required homeowners to comply with the law, Mrs. Alderin stated. She said that Clark County is being used as a test of the new law, and that stricter enforcement is expected to spread to other counties in the near future.

Most objectionable part of the law is the forcing of homeowners to list their personal property for taxation. Many Clark County people had to sell personal items in order to meet the tax, she reported.

Under Initiative Measure No. 34, "personal effects" tax exemption would be extended to all property used or useful in carrying on amusement or recreation activities including but not limited to boats, campers, sports equipment of all kinds, firearms, and hobby collections.

Also exempted would be tools, machinery, or equipment held for the improvement, repair or maintenance of a residence or place of abode and the real property adjacent thereto, where such personal property is held by persons (other than business enterprises) for their exclusive benefit and not for sale or commercial use.

"We are seeking volunteer help to assist in securing signatures," Mrs. Alderin said during a recent visit to the Journal offices. She urged all those interested to contact Pierce County Chairman Tom Terrill, 901-136th South, Parkland.

Mrs. Terry Bowerman, a committee worker who accompanied Mrs. Alderin, pointed out that the people in Olympia will start cracking down on local county assessors should the petition fail. They are now waiting the outcome of signature response before making a move, she said.

Baptist Church Teen Club Dance Slates Forum

The question, "Is there anything a Christian can't do?" will be discussed during the week of Aug. 5-9 in a coffee house forum presented by Immanuel Baptist Church on 94th and Pacific Ave.

The week's question will be approached each night from a different area of daily life. Monday evening the question will be approached from the area of a Christian's social life; Tuesday's forum will try to discover how far a Christian can go morally; discussion Wednesday night will seek to find if there is restriction on the Christian becoming involved in politics and the armed services; Thursday's coffee house will discuss psychic force, from ESP to Ouija Boards.

Friday's session will be the focal point of all previous discussion when the crucial question is tackled, "What is the purpose of the church—and what are we going to do about it?"

Preceding the discussion which begins at 8 p.m., will be a pot-luck dinner at 6:15 followed by an hour of boutique crafts for women and automotive repairs for men; this is a time especially designed for getting people acquainted before discussion time.

The public is urged to attend all the week's activities, but it is requested that only those from 9th grade through adult take part in the coffee house dialogue. A baby sitter will be available during the forum.

PC Library Buys Oldies

Do you cherish a fondness for old films of such notables as W. C. Fields, Laurel and Hardy, Charlie Chaplin, or Carol Lombard? Starting this week, you can obtain them on 8mm film from Parkland Library.

The Pierce County Library has purchased some 150 8mm films, including historical and sports, documentaries, travel, biography, and excerpts from Hollywood film classics. Many of the films have been edited from full-length educational and theatrical films on subjects not readily available on 16mm films.

Mrs. Harry Fuller, audiovisual librarian for the county library, says, "There is great demand for 8mm films because many people don't own the more expensive 16mm sound projectors. Up to now, we have been unable to fulfill this need."

The films are arranged in packets of 30, and will start this week to circulate, rotating every two months among four of the community libraries. They can be checked out on a regular adult borrower's card for a period of one week. They will not be booked for particular dates, but will be checked out on a first-come, first-served basis.

Local Teacher Attends Conference

The responsibility of teachers to provide leadership and direction in their communities was cited by Bruce P. Eckman, Portland, Ore., new president of the 850,000-member Association of Classroom Teachers (ACT) of the National Education Association (NEA), in his opening address at the ACT National Conference being held on the Oklahoma State University campus here July 8-19.

Among the 300 educators attending this conference from across the country was Mrs. Frances Solheim of 763 So. 116th, who taught second-grade at the Dower-Clover Park District elementary school last year.

Mrs. Solheim has served on the Washington ACT board, on the policy committee and program coordination committee. She is a member of the Washington Education Association and the Clover Park Education Association. She also served on the NEAACT Elections Committee.

Eckman called on the teachers to project their influence with a united voice, stressing the importance of teacher involvement in the areas of educational policy development, civil rights, professional rights of educators, and in providing adequate financial support for their professional associations. "We have an obligation," he said, "to communicate honestly, authoritatively, and without fear — to make our views known and our influence felt.

Emphasis of the 11-day conference, held annually, provided leadership training for classroom teachers and expertise in current educational trends and teaching innovations.

Mrs. Elizabeth D. Koontz, Salisbury, N. C., making her first appearance as president of the NEA, challenged the teachers to become educational statesmen, providing blueprints for action to implement educational change. "Until classroom teachers instigate a change," she said, "there will be no change."

Preparation Necessary For Family Outings

The season for family outings is here. And with it comes this seasonal reminder from Bob Bradley, County Extension Forester.

Anyone can get lost in the woods, so be prepared! A little forethought and advance preparation can insure a happy ending to the ordeal.

For one and all heading for a hike, picnic, or camp-out in the woods or mountains, he advocates these safety precautions:

Carry a compass, map, knife, matches in a waterproof box, and a little concentrated food. They'll come in handy if you get lost.

And — just in case — it's also a good idea to review these safety measures with your group: The moment you think you are lost, stop. Then start using your head instead of your legs. Sit down and try to figure out where you are and the direction you came from. Panic is more dangerous than lack of food, water, clothing, or wild animals.

At night or in foggy or stormy weather, find shelter quickly under a ledge or cave or other natural protection. Then build a fire where it won't spread. And keep calm!

Gather a supply of dry wood in case you have to wait. Keep warm until you can travel. Always go downhill when trying to get out of the woods. Walk. Don't wear yourself out by running. If possible, follow a stream, trail, or any old road you may come across. Roads will eventually lead to homes, towns, people.

If you can't go on and must attract attention, make a smoke signal. Throw green branches and wet wood on a fire. A lookout man on a tower will spot the smoke and send help.

But take care of the fire so it doesn't spread. One man lost in a western forest had to flee from his own fire to save his life.

Pears Combine With Cheese For A Continental Salad

Contrast delicately flavored, juicy canned Bartlett pears with a nippy cheese dressing. Top it off with crunchy cashew nuts and you have a mouth watering blend of flavors and textures that can't be equaled.

Old English cheese and cream cheese are blended together with pear syrup and chopped dates, then mounded in the center of each pear half. Chopped cashew nuts go over all. Serve on individual lettuce-lined plates or arrange on a platter to accompany a buffet meal.

Use remaining pear syrup as the liquid in gelatin salads or to flavor dessert sauces. In combination with tangy fruit juices it makes a wonderfully refreshing drink.

Continental Pear Salads

- 1 (1 lb. 13 oz.) can Bartlett pear halves
- 1 (5 oz.) jar old English cheese
- 1 (3 oz.) package cream cheese
- 2 tablespoons pear syrup
- 1/4 cup chopped dates
- 1/4 cup chopped cashew nuts
- Lettuce

Chill pears. Bring cheeses to room temperature. Drain pears and reserve 2 tablespoons pear syrup. Place pear halves, cut-side up, on a lettuce-lined platter or individual salad plates. Combine cheeses, thinning a little with reserved pear syrup. Blend in chopped dates. Place spoonful of cheese mixture in center of each pear half. Top with cashew nuts. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

Clothing Fasteners Boon For Children

Notion counters feature a clothing fastener which fastens and unfastens so easily that a small child, an elderly person or a handicapped person will have no trouble using it, reports Miss Bernice Belshaw, county Extension agent.

This fastener is composed of two tapes that press together. To unfasten, just pull them apart.

Miss Harriet Toan, Washington State University Extension clothing specialist, explains how the fastener is made.

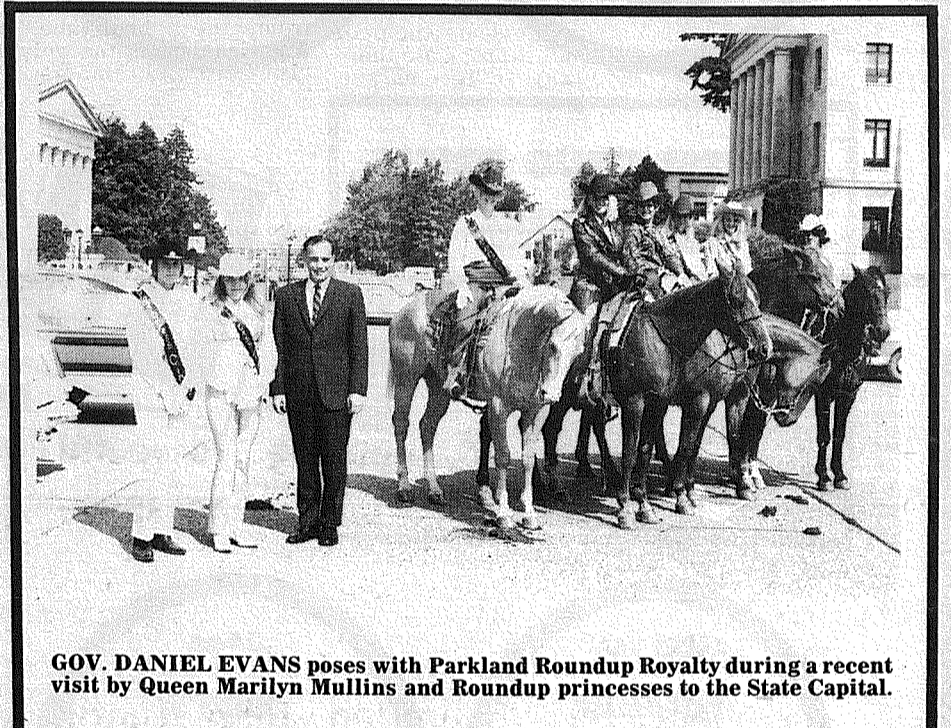

One tape is covered with hundreds of tiny nylon hooks. The other tape is covered with soft nylon loops.

This clothing fastener was invented by a man who studied the cocklebur. He was a great hiker, and a couple of decades ago when he was hunting in the Alps in Switzerland, he brushed against cockleburs that clung tightly to his clothes.

He began to wonder what made them stick. After examining some under a microscope, he discovered they had hundreds of tiny hooks. After eight years of study and research, he succeeded in developing this clothing fastener, patterned after the principle used by the cocklebur.

The fastener has been used on ready-made clothes for several years. It can be bought by the yard to use for home sewing.

To the Editor,
The writer deems it necessary to answer the near column long letter to the Editor printed July 18 and signed by James Brewer. The letter, a reply to one of mine printed in the July 11 issue of the Times Journal, in which he states I called him a Communist. His mind must have been wandering, as nowhere in my letter could he even read between the lines and construe such a meaning. With reference to the pending gun control legislation, I stated "It is very apparent why the 'Commies' want the gun law passed. They are not sitting on their hands while all this clamor is going on." In the lengthy letter Mr. Brewer made no reference to his reasons for supporting Federal gun registration and why he thinks it would prevent gun deaths.

Mr. Brewer laments the fact that he could not write me as there was no address on my letter. Had he so desired he could have called the paper or looked it up in the phone book, however to please him the address will be included.

The proposed gun law has now reached the point of idiocy whereby it would prevent farm youths from buying shells needed to eradicate bird and animal pests. I suggest we remember the silly acting legislators in the coming election.

In reflection, perhaps Mr. Brewer observed the emotional trend and dumped his guns in the bay?

As an outsider I have been observing the Tacoma city council drama without amusement but with comprehension that may not be shared by Tacoma citizens, many of whom are confused by design.

It is not petty bickering and it is not a personality conflict. It is part of the titanic battle raging within every organization and governmental level. The issue is simple but grim.

You should be proud that your mayor is a fighter in the face of the three C's of cussing, castigation and crucifixion. Even though it is a minor skirmish in the overall picture, he is engaging your enemies of freedom—not creeping socialism but galloping socialism, for want of a darker red term. The surface eruptions are the crimson tide of the far left that is threatening to submerge free enterprise and democracy, to subjugate the people and expropriate their property. In Tacoma, the kingpin of the windmill creating the wave should be obvious to all.

Make no mistake about it, it is war and the battlelines are drawn in almost every controversy. The

Paul's Sale Marks 22nd Anniversary

From repair shop to complete clothing and shoe store marks the 22nd anniversary this week of Paul's in Spanaway.

Paul first opened a shoe repair shop in the Bargain Basket Building in 1946, adding children's shoes later. The children's shoe sales soon rocketed to a full line and necessitated the move to the present location in 1959.

The increase in services demanded an increase in man-power and the one-man operation has grown to nine employees with the addition of the clothing this year.

Always on display at the store is landscape paintings by Paul to add to the enjoyment of customers.

The anniversary sale will continue until August 15th.

PAUL CHALK, owner of Paul's Shoes 161st and Pacific Ave., points out features of latest back-to-school shoe fashions to store manager Sylvia George. The store will be celebrating 22 years of serving the area with a special anniversary celebration to continue through August 15.

Money Worriers Not Alone Now

Pierce County farmers worrying about rising production costs have lots of company, Frank C. Jackson, said today.

To explain why, Jackson released this analysis of the farm-cost situation just issued by Karl Hobson, Washington State University's Extension farm price specialist.

Farm production costs are rising rapidly and the trend is likely to continue indefinitely. On the national scale, farm production costs hit $34.4 billion last year. And they are likely to increase by around $1½ billion this year.

This rate of increase would be about the same as in 1966 and 1967. But it would be considerably larger than the average annual increase of less than $1 billion for the past 10 years.

Production costs have gone up 57 percent since the mid-1950's. The total increase has been about $12 billion.

Stepped-up buying of production items accounts for about 60 percent of the increased costs. About 40 percent represents rising prices. Prices of farm production items are up about 24 percent since 1955. Farm wage rates are up nearly 9 percent this year over last year.

Taxes per acre of farmland are 7 percent higher this year. This rise is due chiefly to higher assessments based on the continued rise in land prices. Taxes tripled in 1967 or much Pierce County farm land.

Because of increased debt and higher interest rates, interest payable on farm real estate was about 8 percent higher in the first 3 months of this year than a year earlier.

Mounting production costs are harder on operators of small farms than of large farms. Cost-cutting economies can be made more easily on large farms than on small ones.

Farm record returns consistently show, for example, that labor and machinery costs per acre and per unit of output drop sharply with increases in the size of farms.

And in addition:

- * Electric heating equipment costs less to own. Service calls are almost none existent.
- * Electric heating puts all its heat into the home; not up a chimney vent.
- * It's cleaner; no dirt will enter the house through electric wires.
- * It's safer; electric heating equipment offers greater margin of safety than other commonly used heating methods.

Improvements For The Community
When you pay your electric heat bill, you help defray the cost of several community improvements, such as the street lighting system. ## HORSEMEN'S NEWS

Over The Fence Rail

By Ernie & Paulette Cook

The Tacoma Larietts, Pierce County Sheriff's Posse, Colts and Fillies and the Tacoma Unit, sponsored a benefit show for the patients at Madigan July 25th.

The Colts and Fillies presented the colors, and the Sheriff's Posse did a drill that Posse Captain Clem Wulfekuhle calls "Precision Personified."

After the Sheriff's Posse's drill, they and the Larietts competed in Goalie Goalie, Camus Prairie Stump Race, Pairs Class, Hangman, Sweetheart Race, Pole Bending by Pairs, Bareback rescue, and Water Race, while the units own Larry Kirkwood announced.

The highlights of the games were when Marty Berger bit the dust in water race, and when Carol Stecker was left dangling from the tire by Clem Wulfekuhle and his horse Sandy, in Hangman.

After the games the Tacoma Larietts performed their night drill in which the arena lights are turned off and special lights are used to show off fluorescent equipment.

The Larietts use a fluorescent American flag in their night drill, that is believed to be the only one of its kind in existence. The Lariett Club flag is also fluorescent, as are the bridles, breast collars, leg wraps, lariats, and the riders' neckties, as well as the yoke and cuff on their blouses.

The show was enjoyed by everyone audience and participants alike.

Longacres News

Longacres celebrates its 35th anniversary Saturday and three-year-olds with direct designs on the $20,000-added Longacres Derby August 18th receive their final major test for the big one in Sunday's $7,500-added Spokane Handicap. It is at a flat mile, one furlong shorter than the Derby route.

Considered the second leg of the Longacres "Triple Crown", the Spokane 'Cap' will have its 31st running next Sunday. The Tacoma Handicap at 6 1/2 furlongs, won this year by Great Descretion and New Concept in two division runnings, was the first jewel of the local crown.

Sparrow Castle in 1960 and Kings Favor in 1966 are the only two horses ever to win all three major open three-year-old races.

Virtual "king" of the local sophomores this year is Great Descretion. The magnificent Irish bred, owned by the Elttaes Farm, has yet to suffer defeat in four starts at his home grounds. The big gelding appears capable of handling all distances. In its most recent appearance, the flashing runner overpowered a top stakes field of older horses while annexing the Independence Day 'Cap at one mile. Running time was 1:35 4/5.

Certain to command plenty of attention is the Great one's arch rival, Mr. Q. D. The two have met twice, but not since Mr. Q.D.'s nostril second finish effort to Great Descretion in the Tacoma. Mr. Q. D. with three victories to his credit seeks revenge Sunday.

Judy B., a filly and third finisher to older lady horses in the Belle Roberts 'Cap, is back for another test Sunday. The sleek performer was a three length winner over top sophomores in an allowance test a week ago.

Count The Green, famed invader from north of the border is expected back to renew rivalries in the Spokane. Count The Green was a smashing second finisher to Hemlock Hustler, an older colt, in the Speed Handicap.

Other probables include Fervency, Secret Trust, Yakima Princess, New Concept, Royal Fusilier and Batita Cross.

Longacres 35th anniversary celebration is ticketed for next Saturday. The first field of horses thundered over the Longacres racing strip August 3, 1933. Several surprise events are planned for the patrons to honor the occasion.

Special events for the week: Tues - Seattle Newcomers and King Neptune Race

WALLER ROAD—Orting in the 10 & Under division, and the Eagles in the 12 & Under class won championships in the annual Waller Road Grange Fair Little League baseball tourney Sunday afternoon.

Orting dumped host Waller Road Blues 11-3 for the crown after dumping previously unbeaten Albertson's in Saturday's opener 2-1 in an extra inning battle. Waller Road reached the finals by blasting the Woodsman 21-2.

In the 12 & Under race the Eagles scored five runs in the final frame to dump Waller Road 8-7 after trailing 7-3. Saturday the Eagles came from behind to beat the VFW 11-8 while Waller Road scored nine runs in the last inning to down Orting 10-5.

Special Program Nets $1,516 For Kidney Fund

ANYONE SEE THE ROAD? Spinouts at Spanaway were the order of the day during their special "Race for Life" program last Sunday. The mighty midgets proved to be no exception as the entire field gets crossed up in the east turn.

FOREIGN INTRIGUE. Foreign stocker number 007 ran the final lap of their heat race with "blinkers on" when its hood popped open. The car finished 4th despite the handicap.

SPANAWAY — Over 2,700 fans turned out in bright sunshine to make Spanaway Speedway's Race for Life program a roaring success last Sunday. Fifteen hundred and sixteen dollars was raised to help Mary Busek and Joe Black obtain needed care through the kidney fund. Black's financial requirements went "over the top", his share topping the needed $10,000 mark.

The five and a half hour program featured seven classes of cars, ranging from the small T/Q midgets through A.R.I. Superstocks, Foreign stocks, full midgets and figure 8's turned out in force and treated spectators to all the thrills and spills of competitive racing.

In figure 8 action, Roger Estrin wheeled his 5 car through the busiest intersection in town to capture the 15 lap main. Wayne Crum grabbed 2nd and Curtis Cochran came in 3rd.

Bill Vincent turned the trick in the T/Q midget 10 lap main, bringing the number 1 buzz bomb across the finish in front of Sully Sullender and John Stevens.

The foreign stock 20 lap main went to Alan Beame in his number 28 Volkswagen, with Jerry Holland 2nd and Ivan Flette 3rd.

Bob Short took the checkered flag in A.R.I.'s Superstock main, beating Ken Longley and Pete Burton over the finish line.

Dennis Long had his midget purring like a kitten to capture their 10 lap main, edging out Eric Gibson and Van Benhan.

In Saturday evening's A.R.I. program, Don Hall continued his quest for season point honors by taking the "AA" 40 lap feature. Jack Kuper claimed runnerup spot with Rick Brock coming in 3rd. Ken Longley enjoyed another winning effort in the 50 lap "A" feature, beating Dave Rogers and Jim Johnson across the finish line.

The Powderpuff Derby, a 15 lap fenderbanger, went to Bobbie Knopp in the 15 car. Darlene Cress managed a 2nd place finish and Dee Brunson 3rd.

Next weekend's slate will see another superstock program Saturday evening, including a Dee Jay race with radio, TV and newspaper representatives.

Sunday's schedule will include Figure 8's and Indy sprint cars, plus sportsmen's modifieds.

A "Soft" Life

While the American people have always been noted for their generosity, we may be going to "an extreme" extreme concerning the guaranteed income plan proposed by some economists.

Believe it or not, the guaranteed income plan would supplement the incomes of persons when their earnings fell below a certain point rather than subject these people to an income tax. Conservative economist Milton Friedman of the University of California believes that this form of guaranteed income would eliminate the need for costly welfare programs.

The welfare programs might be eliminated but the nation's budget would have to be stretched to include an estimated $11 to $26 billion a year to support a guaranteed income plan. It would be impossible to determine the added tax burden to the people of the U.S. for such a plan.

What do people think of this plan? According to a Gallop poll a majority of Americans oppose the idea of a guaranteed minimum income with only 36 percent in favor and 58 percent opposed. It is especially significant that 77 percent of the white and 86 percent of the nonwhite population would support a plan guaranteeing everyone enough work to earn a minimum income.

With the fantastic array of the good things of life spread before us day and night, it is only natural for people to expect too much, too soon in the way of material gains. A great many people are bluntly demanding a larger cut of the economic pie without too great a regard as to how they get it. But just handing money over to people so they can run out and buy a colored television, new suit or the latest "new, improved" box of soap just advertised is no way to run a country.

Waller Road

By Mrs. Verne W. Fogle Le 7-5210

Many stories appear in the papers of destruction caused by children and too few on the good deeds done by others. One worthy of comment was community service by members of Waller Road's Junior Grange last week when they cleared brush and grass from around the fire hydrants in the Waller Road area. Many of these were completely hidden from view. The week before the youngsters gathered garbage from a large section of roads in the area. This is just a small part of the good done by this organization under direction of their Matron, Mrs. Hazel Walk.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Prevost and family enjoyed a 3 week vacation in New Hampshire, visiting with his parents and other relatives there.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Weston have returned after an enjoyable trip to Alaska.

Alabama was the destination of Mrs. Jerrel Boshell and children for a months stay with relatives. 15 years had elapsed since they were together.

A wonderful month long vacation that took them to New Mexico was enjoyed by Mrs. Alvin Ferch and daughter, Carol, who is a teacher with the Seattle Schools.

On the agenda were trips to China Town and Fisherman's Wharf, in San Francisco, Marineland, Disneyland, Busch's Garden's, Knotts Berry Farm, a Harbor trip around Alcatraz Island. An enlightening visit to Haight Ashbury. Las Vegas, Hoover Dam, Carlsbad Caverns, White Sands, Santa Fe and Albuquerque were all spots of interest.

Miss Ferch remained in New Mexico, where she will attend College at Mexico City University, and Mrs Ferch returned home by jet.
