Bethel School News - This Issue

DAN KRALIK, Bethel Teacher's Reading Workshop instructor, lists what 3rd graders say they like and dislike about reading. Student statements were used to demonstrate how teachers can gain a better understanding of a pupil's reading problems. Picture was taken during a five day reading workshop held for new teachers in Bethel School District. Story and pictures inside.

Sewer Annex Filed

An intention to annex a 64.5 acre addition to the South Suburban Sewer district has been filed by the district commissioners with the Pierce County Boundary Review Board.

Intended to be annexed is Area VIII, adjoining the present district on the south, covering the area from 124th St. S. to 132nd St. S. from Park to Yakima Streets and from Tule Lake Rd. to 132nd St. S. from Yakima to J. St. and from Tule Lake to 130th St. from J St. to Spanaway Loop Rd.

Petitions signed by landowners of more than 60 per cent of the land area have been secured, Clayton Peterson, district president, announced.

In filing the necessary documents, Peterson said, "We are pleased by the evidence of continuing interest in securing sewers for the Parkland area. We have two other areas under petition and have had many inquiries from people interested in setting up additional annexation areas."

"The commissioners have always encouraged landowners in adjoining areas in their efforts to become a part of the sewer district."

The district president added, "In the past few weeks a number of contradictory and conflicting statements have been made by people who, according to their own statements, wish to dissolve the district."

"Apparently these people have not understood that to dissolve the district is to destroy the one chance this area has to get sewers in the foreseeable future."

"These people have stated that the county can do the job cheaper and better," Peterson continued. "This does not jibe with the facts as stated repeatedly by the county commissioners. The simple fact is that the county is just beginning to prepare a comprehensive plan and this plan will be concerned only with interceptor-disposal facilities."

"As has been stated many times, the county must rely on districts such as the SSSD to provide customers in order to put its program into operation. The county must have the districts to collect the sewage from homes and businesses."

Peterson indicated that he had recently met with engineering consultants who are preparing the county plan along with representatives of other governmental agencies interested in sewage collection and disposal in Pierce County.

"There was strong and definite interest on the part of all present to cooperate to solve this pressing problem," Peterson explained. "The difficulty that exists is that none of the other groups are yet able to cooperate with us. Lakewood Water District must have its comprehensive plan ap-

Recordings For Local Libraries

New phonograph records were among the materials delivered this week to the Parkland and Midland Community Libraries from Pierce County Library headquarters.

Two recordings of the New York Philharmonic, conducted by Leonard Bernstein, were the highlight of the delivery of six albums to the Parkland library. Among the records going to Midland was Lee J. Cobb in his famous leading role of Arthur Miller's popular play "Death of a Salesman."

Among new books at Parkland is "Occupational Outlook Handbook", for 1968 and 1969, published by the U.S. Department of Labor. The foreword of the handbook, written by Secretary of Labor Willard Wirtz, states that this handbook "with its broad coverage of occupations and industries, seeks to define the various facets of the 20th Century world of work. In doing so, it serves as a basic tool for helping prospective workers to make intelligent decisions about the occupational course they will follow."

proved by the voters before it can be implemented. We hope this approval will be forthcoming in the November election.

"Our plan is designed so that it can be integrated with the Lakewood system," he added.

"Developing a sewer district to the point where service can be provided to the members is a long and difficult process. We had to start from 'scratch' but the progress has been significant. All of the legal steps have been fulfilled. The district has already annexed seven areas. Our plans have been approved in principle by the necessary bodies."

"The major deterrent at this time is the lack of the federal funds needed for construction," Peterson added. "These funds are held up by a ruling from Washington, D.C., that allocations can only be made when local planning is coordinated."

"This coordination cannot be completed until other agencies such as Lakewood Water District and the county have the legal power to proceed."

"This means we must wait for them to reach the same level of development that SSSD has achieved," Peterson said.

Bethel Prepares For School Opening

Tuesday, September 3rd, all students in the Bethel District will be back in school. Registrations are expected to be complete by August 30th for new students entering the district.

Schools are open from 9 a.m. to noon and 1-3 p.m. through Friday for registration. Kindergarten, 1st and 7th graders need a physical examination prior to opening of school. Physical forms are available at doctor's offices.

Kindergarten and first grade students must be five and six years old respectively, by September 10th, to be eligible. The Early Entrance program, initiated last year, will be continued however and information regarding this program can be obtained from the local elementary schools.

Lunch prices have been increased 5 cents and brings the cost to 35 cents for the elementary and 40 cents for the students in grades 7-12, and 50 cents for adults. Milk will be 5 cents for students and 10 cents for adults.

The opening of the new Chester H. Thompson Elementary School in November has made it necessary to change the boundaries of Spanaway, Elk Plain, and Clover Creek Schools. These changes were made after considerable study by the principals, supervisor of transportation, and the superintendent. The basic factors influencing the decisions were transportation, the future school located near Crescent Park, and the increasing of the Spanaway School back to 18 rooms in 1969.

The decision to double shift the students at the Chester H. Thompson Elementary was made after considerable discussion and thought. It should be remembered that the schedule for opening the new school was delayed for almost three months when the Bethel District lost some $185,000.00 of Federal money. The decision to double shift for approximately two months means that the students from Elk Plain, Spanaway, and Clover Creek Schools will not be disturbed with the opening in November of the Chester H. Thompson School.

Bethel enrollment opening day last year was 3,946 and climbed to a high of 4,203 by the end of the year. The district is expecting to start school with about 4,350.

Lions Meet

The Parkland Lions Club will have Mr. Me. Conerly of the Tacoma Narcotics Center discuss the "Dangers Inherent in the Use of Drugs" at their 6:30 p.m. meeting at the Brookdale Inn on Tuesday, September 3rd. Mr. Conerly is the Supervisor of Education and Prevention at the Narcotics Center.

Emphasis will be placed on the dangerous increase in the use of drugs, society's irresponsibility in recognizing the dangers and the need for drug education to be a part of the modern educational curriculum.

Auxiliary Slates First Fall Meet

The Spanaway Fireman's Auxiliary has slated a meeting at 8 p.m. Wednesday, September 4th at the fire-hall.

This will be the first meeting of the volunteer organizations' wives since spring. Monthly meetings hereafter will be on the regular date of the first Tuesday.

Sheriff Reports

A young gunman with a shaky hand and nervous facial twitch robbed the SQ-Early Corners Grocery, 10802 South Park, early Tuesday evening and made off with an estimated $100.

Thrusting a small handgun at store owner Mrs. Betty DeLore, the robber demanded, "Hand over the money and don't try anything." He left in a pickup truck driven by an accomplice who didn't enter the store, Mrs. DeLore said.

The robber was described by the victim as being in the 19-25 age bracket with long black straight hair, medium build about 5 foot 8 inches in height, and extremely nervous.

"His hand holding the gun was shaking so badly I thought it would go off," she told the Journal. "I looked down at the counter to avoid seeing it shake."

The gunman also had a nervous facial twitch when he talked, she stated. The robbery occurred about 7 p.m. Investigating officers in-

Early Examination Urged by Eye Society

"It is never too early to have a child's eyes examined," the Washington Society for the Prevention of Blindness warned parents. Small children do not know how well they should see and must depend on adults to make sure their eyes are free from vision problems and disease, according to the society.

This fall, thousands of American children are entering school for the first time. Their eyes will be faced with the important task of seeing to learn. Since 80 per cent of school work is based on vision, it is essential for a youngster to have two good eyes. The preschool age is a critical time for children as far as eyesight is concerned. Vision problems in these years are usually easy to correct.

March to Start Fund Campaign

The Children's hour march on September 5 will start the annual Cystic Fibrosis Fund Campaign for the Puget Sound Area, according to Spanaway campaign chairman Mrs. Arnold Judd.

The Spanaway community is participating in this effort through their contributions to the canisters which have been placed in local business establishments.

Cystic Fibrosis is a recessive genetic disease that affects breathing and digestive organs. Both parents must be carriers of this disease for the child to contract it. Its symptoms are so similar to other and more common childhood ailments that its presence is difficult to detect in its early phases.

In the research and training center at Children's Orthopedic Hospital more than 130 young people received treatment for this disease.

The promise of a simple procedure of detection of cystic fibrosis is now highly probable through a system developed by research pediatrician Dr. Stanley Stamm, and by Dr. Babb of the University of Washington Nuclear Energy Laboratory.

Fingernail and toenail clippings are sent by the family physician of the child's parents to undergo special testing. The test calls for the use of atomic energy and nuclear count of sodium in the nails.

Recently a special $54,000 grant was made to the hospital that will, hopefully, complete the testing and prove the accuracy of the process.

Early detection of the disease is important, as the sooner the diagnosis is made, the quicker special therapies can be practiced that will prolong the child's life.

High Toll Expected Labor Day

This Labor Day more people will be on the roads than any other time of the year except Christmas and Independence Day according to Chief Will Bachofner of the Washington State Patrol.

The same weekend last year produced 18 deaths in traffic alone. In the urban areas, 307 persons were injured in or by cars.

"The sign said 70, so I thought I could drive that even though it was raining." "The yellow line was on my side, but I thought I could see good enough to pass." "I looked both ways and couldn't see any cars coming so I didn't see any reason to stop at the sign — I don't know where that other car came from."

"These are only a few of the many reasons people give our investigating troopers as they file their accident report." Chief Bachofner said. "We hope that you won't have the need to give one of these reasons this weekend."

The critical times during this Labor Day period, the ones to avoid if at all possible, will be Friday evening and Monday afternoon and evening. Be especially alert during this holiday.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

In the past few weeks Leo Wilson has made several public statements concerning the South Suburban Sewer District. Last week he charged the commissioners with misleading statements. I think it is time to present

Tony Chase tells it like it is

Anthony (Tony) Chase
U.S. Congress - Republican

"I am opposed to National registration and licensing of guns, because I do not believe it is a legitimate area for Federal concern. It should be done at the state and local level. I do favor a ban on the sale of mail-order guns."

CHASE FOR CONGRESS COMMITTEE

Politics aside, shouldn't we send our best man to Congress?

the commissioners' point of view.

Wilson states in his letter of August 22, "Our aim to reorganize the SSSD is not with the intentions of dissolving the district." But on August 17 he stated in a published news article that "if SSSD opponents won they would dissolve the district in order to allow the county to take over sewer operations in the Parkland area."

The allegation is also made in the August 22 item that the present commissioners are unwilling to cooperate with Lakewood and the county commissioners. In the issue of August 2 last year the Times Journal reported "a meeting was held last Wednesday afternoon and 20 sewer planning leaders representing Parkland, University Place Sewer District, Lakewood and West-side Water Districts, county and state health pollution control and planning agencies and the City of Tacoma were in attendance.

"A desire for all agencies to work together to provide county sewers as quickly as possible was repeatedly expressed at the meeting."

This is only one of many meetings in which we have participated with county officials, Lakewood Water and other agencies. We have consistently offered to cooperate with any or all agencies to solve the sewage problem. The problem has always been that these groups have not yet advanced as far as we have in their planning. As yet they have no legal power to cooperate.

Wilson stated in another published statement dated August 17 that "the county has done more for sewers in six months that SSSD has done in three years."

Just two days before this, on August 15, his letter to the Times Journal said "Why don't our county officials take the initiative and establish a basic plan to provide sanitary facilities to the populace of the suburbia? Is it not possible for them to exercise the leadership that the people need? . . . Now, at this time, if one of our County Commissioners would have the intestinal fortitude to stand up and state simply and emphatically that the county intends to use the provisions of House Bill No. 139 to provide all the people of the Clover Creek drainage basin a basic sanitary system then, and only then, will the proper leadership be established and soe sort of order can be created out of the chaos now existing."

In his letter, Wilson resurrects the old argument that people of the area were denied the right of voting for SSSD. Judge Hardyn Soule answered this question in one of the court cases concerning the district. He pointed out under the law signing a petition was one method of voting since each person had the choice to approve or disapprove the actions of the commissioners by signing or refusing to sign the petitions.

Has Wilson forgotten that Arthur Swinland was duly elected last November at an election of all voters of the district?

Wilson also charges that SSSD's plan would be independent of any county system. He and his associates tried to make this same point before the Pierce County Boundary Review Board. The Board heard a day and a half's testimony on the SSSD plans and voted unanimously to approve these plans.

Wilson also said, "the statement that the county needs customers like SSSD is misleading."

Both commissioners Sprinker and Ramsdell have stated publicly that the county is interested only in a "wholesaling" operation; that means providing only interceptor and disposal facilities. The SSSD would have to provide the collection system. Furthermore, without the customers in the collection system the county could not finance its wholesale operations.

Wilson's statement that "we intend to give every property owner an opportunity to elect representatives of their choice" is untrue. If the election is held, only registered voters in the district will have the choice to vote. Property owners who live outside the district as well as all corporations will not have a chance to vote. These people, who must pay the bill for sewers on their property, will not be allowed to vote. They did have a choice to vote on annexation by signing or not signing the petitions for annexation.

Developing an operative sewer district is a long and difficult process. A great many decisions must be made that will affect the people in the district for many years to come. The commissioners have engaged the most experienced engineering, legal and investment counselors available. We have maintained a continuing discussion of our plans with county, state and federal agencies concerned with sewers to make certain that our planning was in harmony with their plans. There has never been a single instance of disagreement between us.

Wilson claims to favor sewers yet, to my knowledge, he has never read the comprehensive plan prepared by the district and he has never attended a single meeting of the commission. He has never discussed the plans of the district with the engineers, the legal counsel or the investment counsel.

It would seem that those persons truly interested in the welfare of the community would endeavor to ascertain the available facts before advocating change.

Sincerely
Clayton B. Peterson,

LDS Bishop Appointed

Byron R. Christensen was named bishop of the Tacoma 7th Ward of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints to replace Bishop Eldon L. Johnston. The new bishop was called to this position by Tacoma Stake President Owen H. Dickson under the direction of the First Presidency in Salt Lake City at a ward conference held last week.

Bishop Johnston was forced to retire from the bishopric when his occupation took him elsewhere. He had served as bishop since the conception of the 7th ward seven years ago. In that time the ward more than doubled in size to its present membership of 770.

Also called to serve with Bishop Christensen were Donald Judkins as first counselor and Clyde Rushton as second counselor. The main task before the new bishopric is the construction of a new chapel which will be located at Portland Ave. and 112th St. E.

Bishop Christensen moved here five years ago from his birthplace, Salt Lake City, Utah. He is employed by a local business and has a wife, Zelma, and four children.

Bethel Teachers Learn From Students

SMALL GROUP questioning was conducted by Dr. John Davis, Central Washington State College, showing teachers how to draw out likes and dislikes from students.

New teachers to the Bethel District 3rd graders told this week, and assisting with instruction were thirty 3rd graders and a like number of high school students.

Purpose of the week-long session was to give teachers a better understanding of teaching reading. Heading the project is Staurt Kimball, District Director of Reading.

Workshop instructions demonstrated techniques that enable teachers to draw out student likes and dislikes. Tuesday, a group of District 3rd graders told what they liked and disliked about reading. Wednesday, similar discussions were held with high school students.

Reasons for 3rd graders liking to read varied from "We can read a book and act out the parts in a play" to simply "You learn stuff". Dislikes listed included "too many hard words", "noisy classroom," and "I don't like to read if I'll miss recess."

The workshop program explained how to translate student likes and dislikes into methods of helping a student improve his attitude and reading skills. Parents who attended the student sessions noted that it gave them an opportunity to see their youngsters in a different light.

Helping Kimball conduct the clinic were Dr John Davis, Central Washington State College and Dan Kralik, Bethel Intermediate Office Counselor.

Over The Fence Rail

By Ernie & Paulette Cook

Two of Washington's hippy population are on their way to California. Cubby and Stonewall Jackson, previously of Seattle, accompanied by their faithful pup Boo Dog, will make the trip on Cubby's sorral horse Prince.

Cubby 18 and Stonewall 23 were married only a short time before they decided to undertake the trip to California VIA Mt. Rainier.

The couple shipped most of their belongings to a friend in California, and packed only the necessities on their horse.

Local blacksmith Fred Kingwell shod Prince for the long trip in the parking lot of the Stagecoach Inn Cafe. Kinwell who has been shoeing for approximately 5 years is now showing horses with Everett Reed on the Spanaway Loop Road.

The Tacoma Unit of Washington Horsemen will sponsor a benefit horse show for the United States Equestrian Team October 19 and 20, at the Tacoma Unit Sports arena on 176th street.

The two day show will consist of games Saturday October 19 and Breed performance classes as well as hunter jumper classes Sunday October 20.

All proceeds from this show will be donated to the United States Equestrian Team.

We hope the show will be well supported by horseman and spectator alike.

Edna Berger and her 5 year old Morgan stallion Shawalla Ringo took fifth place in the Trail Horse class at the Larriet show Sunday.

Longacres News

Two weeks of thoroughbred racing featuring five major stakes events remain on the Longacres agenda before the 35th anniversary season at the beautiful course in the Green River valley comes to a close Sept. 9th.

The five stakes represent $67,500 in added monies yet to be distributed this season.

Three headliners are on tap for the upcoming Labor Day weekend:

- Saturday, August 31, $5,000 Wash. Breeder's Sales Stks.
 - Sunday, Sept. 1, $7,500-added Hilltop Handicap.
 - Monday (Labor Day), Sept. 2, $20,000-added Seattle Handicap.
- For the following getaway week of racing, the stakes are:
- Sunday, Sept. 8, $15,000-added Washington Futurity.
 - Monday (Final day) Sept. 9, $20,000-added Washington Championship.

The Washington Horse Breeder's Sales Stakes, a newly initiated event, is at six furlongs and is an exclusive for two-year-olds purchased at last year's Wash. Breeder's sales.

Named for the light horse development at Washington State University, the Hilltop Handicap is a contest for Washington bred three-year-olds. Distance is one mile and one-sixteenth. This is the 18th running. The Hilltop 'Cap' nominations for which closed Wednesday, August 28, is expected to draw a large field. Probable starters include Secret Trust, Yakima Princess, Six 'L' Win, Unquenchable, Judgelynn, Batita Cross, Kali Tiki and Breeze Well.

Traditionally run on Labor Day, the $20,000-added Seattle Handicap is a race for three-year-old and older horses at a mile and one furlong. The rich event annually attracts the top contenders from the Longacres Mile, and with an impressive list of California and Canadian invaders on hand, the Seattle 'Cap' should not lack for talent. Likely to go postward Labor Day Monday are Kings Favor, Steel Blade, Uncle Georger, Security Check, Current Account, Island River, Society II, Some Count and The Bagel King.

Mayer J. D. "Dorm" Bra-man will be honorary steward for the 33rd running of the Seattle Handicap.

Mrs. Warren G. Magnuson, charming wife of Washington's senior United States Senator, will be a guest Labor Day.

Special events for the week:

- Wed., Aug. 28, Tacoma Athletic Commission
- Fri., Aug. 30, 101 Club.

Record Purse At Roy Rodeo

The annual Labor Day rodeo will cap the Roy Pioneer Association's 9th rodeo season on Sunday and Monday, Sept. 1 and 2, at 1:30 p.m. both days.

A record number of contestants are expected by the Roy Rodeo committee to compete for a purse estimated to be in excess of $8,000. Contestants from several Oregon rodeos will make competition keen in each event. Trophy buckles will be awarded to the winner of every event.

The bucking bull, Fallout, will be provided by Danny Green. This bull was ridden for the first time on July 4th, at Inchelium, Wash., by an Idaho contestant. Fallout was voted Bull of the Year in 1966 and 1967 by the cowboys of the Northwest Rodeo Association.

Soccer Enjoying Its Increasing Popularity

Soccer is probably, overall, the most popular sport in the world. In the United States, this previously almost unheard of sport, is finally reaching great heights of popularity.

Tourney Starts

In the Puget Sound area, the Tacoma-Pierce County Junior Soccer Association was organized with six teams in 1962. By last season there were 48 teams in 5 leagues. This represents an increase of 800 per cent.

In the Parkland-Spanaway area soccer has also shown remarkable growth. Last year more than 100 local boys took part in the soccer program.

Turnout for the 1968-1969 soccer season has been scheduled for 10 a.m. Saturday, September 7, at Gonyea Field, 135th and J. Streets. All boys between the ages of 8 and 18 are invited to sign-up.

Because of the rapid increase in popularity for Soccer in this community it is estimated that 20 referees will be needed to handle the league. Referee and coaching clinics for all those interested will be conducted.

Boys interested in playing will be required to buy insurance costing $3 for the entire season. Also boys in all age groups should wear

Demolition Derby On Program

The popular stocks have lost two weeks to JupPluvius, and the red hot season point duel between Don Hall and Jack Kuper remains separated by the scant margin of only three. Kuper was out in force for soccer shoes for safety and surer footing.

The first games will be scheduled for October 5, 1968. Final games are expected no later than March 2, 1969. Each team will be permitted to play a maximum of 14 games. The dates provide for regular play to be completed before the final date, with time during the late weeks for makeup games and practice polishing for the Canadian interchange games in early March.

Last year more than 6900 boys participated in a "Hands across the border" soccer exchange program to British Columbia. Last summer the Tacoma-Pierce County Junior Soccer Association sent the first U.S. boys team to England for a three week tour.

despite last Saturday's rain, but the track was judged unsafe by promoters Dick Bonness and Al Reiten.

Spanaway will fill Sunday afternoon's program with a combination superstock and semi-modified stock program with time trials starting at 1:30 and racing at 3:00 p.m. The slate will not only give spectators three full days of racing, but should go a long way in deciding the red hot season point leader contest between Hall and Kuper. Both drivers will no doubt have their cars at peak condition.

Also on tap for Monday's program will be another of the wild and woolly Demolition Derbies. Milt Balzer will be back in an attempt to make it two straight and also pick up another hundred dollar bonus from Bonness.

Saturday will be the last evening slate for A.R.I. superstocks, the cars will return to Sunday afternoon racing beginning September 8th and continue until the end of the season.
