Regulations For M-2 Zone Outlined For Frederickson

A second industrial area proposed by the Port of Tacoma is being held-up at the re-zoning hearings because of differences of opinion on what type of restrictions should be put on the potential industries.

The Port has requested a re-zoning from "G" (General Use) and SA-1 (Suburban Agriculture) to M-2 (Heavy Manufacturing), of the property in the Fredrickson area.

Through the Port's attorney, James Mason, the request is for 650 acres to a zoning which allows all types of heavy industry without restrictions.

Robert Eveleigh, county planning director, told the commissioners he thought the county should recognize this as a suburban industrial area and different from the Port area.

He recommended the land be zoned as MP-Industrial Park, a zone that allows the same uses though it places restrictive standards on such nuisance factors as air pollution, glare, noise, vibration and smell.

The MP zone would also require screening around the periphery of the land, whereas the M-2 zone would not.

Mason said the port would be glad to work with the planning staff to set acceptable standards but said: "Frankly we (the Port) can't live with MP zoning as it is now."

Mason advised that the Port had no particular buyer in mind, but felt that large scale industrial firms could be attracted to the area because of its ready access to rail, gas, power, projected freeways and a good labor supply. He said that a study had been conducted to establish a new area for the Port's expansion, and it was pointed out that the comprehensive plan has designated this area as industrial for many years. Mason further stated that the industrial area would provide benefits both as a large employer and as a good tax base.

Mason specifically mentioned that restrictions on glare, smell, vibration and noise would be unacceptable to the port. He added that the Port, as a public agency, should have the discretionary power to judge the desirability of an industry to the county.

The Pierce County Planning Commission has proposed a revision to the M-2 heavy manufacturing classification.

The revised code is basically the same as the old one, except it adds:

AIR POLLUTION: All properties in this zone shall conform to the standards set forth by all state, regional and local laws relating to air pollution from smoke, dust, dirt, fly ash, airborne solids, odors and toxic gases or matter.

NOISE: Sound emanating from facilities with the zone shall be muffled so as not to become objectionable due to loudness, intermittence, beat frequency or shrillness. Sounds emanating from rail and truck switching and loading areas shall be subject to the same standards as the industrial facilities when operating in the area between the hours of 10 p.m. and 7 a.m.

The Port and the County planning staff members had reached agreement on most restrictions on any industry that may be located in the Fredrickson area, however, Eveleigh requested that the above schedule of industrial noise limitations be included as a condition of the rezoning.

The Port officials, including Port Manager Roy Perry, objected to the schedule "because we don't know what impact it will have."

Hearings will be continued at the County on April 22nd.

1968 Drive For A Cleaner Parkland Slated For May

"Spring Cleaning" has a slightly different meaning in Parkland. In this area it does not mean just house-wifey chores, but instead means everybody "IN" for a community-wide clean-up.

This year's "Parkland Clean-up Campaign," the fifth to be sponsored by the Parkland Development Association, has been set for May 8th, 9th, 10th and 11th.

During those four days residents will be able to get rid of old, accumulated garbage free of charge at the County Dump. Also available will be free pick-up of garbage from residences.

This year's "local dumping" will not be on the property adjacent to the Parkland Fire Department as usual, but on the land between the Rodeo Grounds and Gonyea Park, 135th and J Streets.

Officers for this year's event include Henry Hetle, general chairman; Don Visser, recruiting chairman; John Hartsell, truck chairman; Dr. Ralph Hansen, banners, insurance, erection and removal chairman; All McNanis, area captain chairman; Vern Voss, junk car chairman; and Sandy Ingram, publicity.

PBA Sets Meet Date

The Parkland Business Club will meet at 6:30 p.m. April 17th at the Brookdale Inn, 13021 Pacific Avenue.

Guest speaker of the meeting will be Tom Cross, director of Pierce County Parks and Recreation. Cross will explain the Pierce County Parks system and will outline plans for the future to insure plenty of recreational area here when the population increases. He will discuss with Parkland Business Club members the outlook for Gonyea Park and Rodeo grounds with the objective of formulating a new lease of the rodeo grounds by the club from Pierce County.

The main difficulty of working out any such lease is that of liability insurance.

Irene Clemens Insurance Agency is working with the County Commissioners in an attempt to arrive at a satisfactory solution to this problem.

Spanaway
Saddles and tack valued at $583.95 were stolen from William F. Stecker, 5102 40th Street East, Deputy Tom Sotak reported. Items included a western saddle, silver bits, and assorted tack.

A pancake breakfast will follow in the school cafeteria.

Board Okays Call For Bus Bids And Sale of GO Bonds

The Junior and Senior High School PTA has disbanded; it was announced at a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Franklin Pierce School District Tuesday night. According to Dr. Edward E. Hill, superintendent of the district, the PTA has elected to affiliate with the PTA Council and not to carry on separately. Serving the schools now is the High Booster.

In other action the board members approved a resolution for the issuance and sale of general obligation serial bonds in the sum of $245,000, adopted a district policy on the role of schools in sex education and gave their authorization for the call for bids on two school buses.

The general obligation bonds are to pay part of the cost of acquiring and improving sites, constructing and equipping new school buildings and making other capital improvements. The bonds were authorized in the special election held in the District on November 8, 1966.

The policy of the role of schools in sex education outlines that the school district accepts appropriate responsibility for reinforcing the efforts of parents to transmit knowledge about the values inherent in the family system and about the psychic, moral, and physical consequences of sexual behavior.

The call for bids on two buses for the district was authorized with an alternate for automatic transmission.

A leave of absence with pay regulation was adopted by the board including a leave of absence with pay of not more than three days in succession when absence is for an expected terminal illness or death of a father, mother, son, daughter, sister and or brother whose residence is elsewhere than in the home of the contracted certificated employee.

According to the regulation a contracted certificated employee may be granted leave of absence of not more than one working day when such absence is caused by the death of family in-laws, uncle, aunt, nephew, niece, grandfather, or grandmother, whose place of residence is elsewhere than the home of the employee, and for whom the employee is not primarily responsible.

Dr. Hill advised the board that it is wise to buy school sites now, while the prices are low. He speculated that in four or five years the prices will at least double.

He added that to take care of the needs of the district at the saturation level the district will need four to six more elementary schools, one high school and two junior high schools.

All building projects are on and ahead of their schedules, Dr. Hill told the board — the contractors are now compacting the soil for the bleachers at the High School.

Foreign Student Chapter Organizes And Plans Drive

The organization of an American Field Service Chapter in Parkland, whose goal it is to acquire a foreign exchange student at Franklin Pierce High School for the school year 1968-69, is complete and $625 of the Chapter's $1,100 goal has been pledged.

The chapter needs a minimum of $750 to get the student so more donations are required.

Although the American Field Service requires only $750, they do recommend that the local chapter have a source on hand to take care of any extra-curricular activities the student may incur, and which do not come under "normal expense" for the host family to bear.

So far the Kiwanis has pledged $250; Jaycees, $25; The German and French Clubs at the High School both pledged $100; the High Booster $75; and the Junior Class at FP, $75.

The Parkland Lions, Parkland Business Club and Parkland Development Association have promised backing to the chapter.

Several families have already filled in applications to be the host parents to the student.

Officers for the Parkland Chapter include Coralie Johnson, president; Carl Spangler, vice president; Miriam Bondo, secretary; Sandy Ingram, finance chairman; R. Coleman, home and family adjustment; John Holzberger, school representative; Sydney Wood, projects chairman; and the vice president of the student body at the high school will be the student representative.

When the student arrives in Parkland, he or she will be available to clubs and organizations to explain the cultures of the land from which he came, a service all of Parkland can enjoy. It is for this reason that an open fund campaign will be held.

Anyone who wishes to help in raising the funds is invited to attend a meeting, to discuss possible projects for the drive, at 7 p.m. April 11th in the Faculty Room at Franklin Pierce High.

Anyone wishing to donate to the fund may do so by sending the donation to American Field Service, Parkland Chapter, c/o Sandy Ingram, P.O. Box 2116, Parkland 98444.

Four PLU Profs Receive Grants

Four additional faculty members at Pacific Lutheran University have received study grants from the Board of College Education of the American Lutheran Church (ALC), announced PLU President Robert Mortvedt.

The recipients and their awards are Dr. Burton Ostenson, professor of biology, and Maurice Skones, associate professor of music, Faculty Growth Awards; and James Halseth, instructor in history, and Burton Holmberg, instructor in psychology, Future Faculty Fellowships.

Last month the ALC board announced that Grace Blomquist, associate professor of English, had received a Faculty Growth Award to study and travel in Europe the coming summer.

The largest of the five grants went to Dr. Ostenson who will spend the coming academic year studying at several colleges, including the University of Michigan. The biology professor, who will be on sabbatical leave from PLU, will use the library and museum facilities at the Michigan school to finish a research paper on North American mammals.

This is the second leave for Dr. Ostenson who has been on the PLU faculty since 1947. He graduated from Luther College and received both his advanced degrees in zoology from the University of Michigan.

In addition to studying mammals next year, Dr. Ostenson plans to make a study of undergraduate curriculums used by science departments in other universities.

Skones is currently on leave to work toward a doctorate in music at the University of Arizona. The ALC award will enable him to continue through the summer months.

Wilson-Erickson Unite In Spanaway Ceremonies

Mrs. Larry Wilson

Lynn Eleanor Erickson and Larry Wilson were united Saturday in ceremonies at the Spanaway Methodist Church, with Rev. Gordon Harrison officiating.

Miss Erickson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Erickson of Eatonville, wore a floor-length, fashion brocade gown, fitted at the waist and flowing into a bell skirt as her father escorted her to an altar decorated with two spiral candelabra and daffodils. Her veil of layered fingertip bridal illusion was held in place by a crown of seed pearls and she carried a cascade of yellow daffodils.

Wilson, a graduate of Wilson High School and Central Washington State College, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wilson of Tacoma.

The bride is a graduate of Bethel High School and a March, 1968, graduate of Central Washington State College.

Bridesmaids, Mrs. John Crave, sister of the bride, and Gay Whiting, wore fitted, floor-length gowns of yellow crepe with matching hair bows and carried yellow gladioli centered with yellow roses.

Best man was Otis Stelling. Terry Wilson and Lynn Wilson, brothers of the groom, served as ushers.

Miss Deena Sjohn Modahl and Dennis Scott, niece and nephew of the bride, were flower girl and ring bearer.

Mrs. Harry Wilson wore a peach-colored crepe dress with matching orchids. Mrs. Erickson chose a mint green two-piece suit also with matching orchids.

Following a reception at the residence of the bride's parents on Clear Lake, the couple left for a honeymoon at Disneyland.

For the honeymoon trip, the new Mrs. Wilson wore a white wool dress, mint green coat with bone accessories.

The couple will reside in Stanwood, Washington, where both have accepted teaching positions in the Marysville Public School System.

Alfalfa Weevil Gaining

The wandering alfalfa weevil apparently is gaining ground in the State of Washington, says Pierce County Extension Agent Eddie Thomason, and will soon be in its egg-laying cycle again.

The pest has been in the United States since about 1904, but found its way to Washington many years later and into two new Washington counties last year when it was discovered in Clark and Kittitas counties.

Weevil attacks on the alfalfa tips, leaves and buds reduce the legume's feed value, yield, and seed production, thus costing alfalfa growers several millions of dollars damage each year.

After wintering in sheltered places, the weevils begin to lay eggs about May and feed on the first crop of growing alfalfa from the time the plant is about six inches tall until it reaches the early flower bud stage of development.

The green worm, or larval stage of the weevil, grows until the worm length is about 3/4 of an inch and then it changes into an adult weevil. The second cutting of alfalfa also is threatened by the weevil larvae because beetles do not lay their eggs all at once and so the resulting worms can be found most of the alfalfa growing season, says Agent Thomason.

Growers are presently handicapped in the control of the pests because the chlorinated hydrocarbons such as Aldrin, Dieldrin, Heptachlor and Chlordane used to give good control of the adult weevil are not now permitted for use because of a tie-up of these insecticides in meat and milk. Then, too, the weevil had shown signs of resistance by 1960 in many parts of the U.S.

TAKE YOUR FAMILY TO CHURCH THIS SUNDAY

To the Editor:

How overly sentimental and hypocritical can our public officials become?

From the President on down they seem to be acting in panic over the death of a Negro leader who was a controversial figure in life, and in death is being made a martyr.

Violent death is regrettable certainly. It happens daily in Vietnam on the war front, yet little concern is shown but rather taken for granted.

Following orders from above, flags were flown at half mast for days, something that should be reserved for national leaders. It appears this was not done just to honor the deceased, but to pacify so-called Negro leaders and trouble makers in the states.

It did not fulfill this service however, as rioting and killing was rampant. Officials went so far as to close the schools in honor of Mr. King. It will be recalled this was not done after the death of our former President John F. Kennedy.

Memorial services were held on the steps of the Capitol in Olympia. This has not been done for our boys who are being slain and maimed daily on foreign soil and not by their own choosing.

The President called off peace talks, which were deemed to be bonified. If he was sincere about this it should have been of utmost importance, instead the time is now being used to influence an emotionally aroused Congress to pass on laws which require sober and careful study.

A former F.B.I. undercover operator, Julia Brown, a Negro, gave several speeches in the area last year alleging that King had Communist affiliations. It is therefore a slap in the face of the soldiers in Vietnam to ask that flags in the war zone fly at half mast.

Common sense is badly needed and should not be replaced by emotionalism, especially in public office.

Editor
Pierce County Herald and Times Journal

Dear Editor:

Mrs. Irene Stanley's letter in your March 21 issue raises some weighty questions about South Suburban Sewer District's annexations. They should have been addressed to the Legislature rather than the sewer district.

First let me point out that South Suburban Sewer District is a public body, organized under and governed by State Law. Sewer commissioners must at all times act in accordance with the law. Their important actions require the approval of various county and state officials and boards, including, in varying contexts, the County Commissioners, Boundary Review Board, State Pollution Control Commission and health authorities. Sewer bonds cannot be sold if the law has not been strictly followed.

From its inception South Suburban Sewer District has taken the advice of its own retained attorneys and its eminent bond counsel. In all situations impinging on Pierce County the attorneys have regularly consulted with the Prosecuting Attorney's staff. I can state with confidence that no illegal act has been committed by the District or its commissioners.

This letter, insofar as it deals with matters of law, has been checked by counsel and can be relied upon as an accurate statement of the law in effect at the times referred to.

All annexations to South Suburban Sewer District were made under a law which dated back to 1953, except for one section which was passed in 1941. It has now been superseded by a 1967 act, but we are here concerned with what was done under the 1953 Act.

In dealing with the sewer district, those who wanted sewers had a choice of two principle methods. They could (a) secure signatures on a voters' petition, which required signatures of 20 per cent of the voters in the area to be annexed, plus approval of the sewer commissioners, plus approval of the County Commissioners, or (b) secure signatures of the owners of 60 per cent or more of the land area, plus approval of the sewer commissioners, plus approval of the county commissioners. No election is required or provided for if this method is used.

Both methods are equally legal, made so by the same sections of the same statute. The second type of petition was presented, the first type was not. If any group in a particular area had presented a petition of the first type it

Tacoma Most Drug Conscious In Nation

Tacoma-Pierce County rates No. 1 among all the areas in the nation in total community interest and involvement in its drug problem, the national coordinator for the Narcotics Addiction Program reports.

Edith Jungblut, who heads up the Office of Economic Opportunity project in eight U.S. cities, made that observation following a two-day tour of the facilities and operations of the Tacoma Narcotics Center.

"The involvement here by citizens and agencies is wonderful," said Miss Jungblut, "and Tacoma has every right to expect gratifying results from this joint attack on the drug problem."

Tacoma was the final stop in Miss Jungblut's eight-city tour which included NAP facilities in New York, New Jersey, Washington D.C., Puerto Rico, San Antonio, Chicago and Los Angeles.

"Why was Tacoma picked as the site for the $534,000 demonstration grant by OEO?" she was asked.

"We didn't have to go out and look, Tacoma came to us.

TACOMA NO. 1 — Edith Jungblut, national coordinator for the Narcotic Addiction Program of OEO, goes over progress reports of Tacoma Narcotics Center with Dr. Herbert Leibowitz, left, and project director R.J. Robertson. After inspection tour, Miss Jungblut called Tacoma the top city in U.S. in community interest and civic support in fight against drug abuse.

The size of the city intrigued our planners plus the community interest and civic support of its application made the difference."

Miss Jungblut approved the preventative-type approach used by the Tacoma center and had high praise for the drug forum which recently drew 2,000 parents concerned with drug abuse by their would have had equal consideration.

It is true that the sewer commissioners encouraged the landowner type of petition because it promised faster and less expensive action. After all, once the district was formed it was their duty to try to get sewers built. But it is also true that in at least four of the annexation areas the residents of these areas took the initiative in working out the territory to be included. If they had wanted to proceed by the other method they could have done so. The petitions were circulated by interested residents, not by the commissioners. There is no logical basis on which those petitions could have been rejected.

Any method of deciding on the inclusion of an area is subject to some theoretical objection. Where all voters have an equal voice, those who own little or no property can impose heavy burdens on those who have large holdings. Where ownership of land is the test it is possible that the interest of the majority of residents may be slighted. The law under which the District operated was an attempt by the Legislature to balance these considerations. It proceeds upon the theory that in any thickly settled area sewers are necessary to the public health and that neither group should be allowed to hold back progress forever.

It is interesting to note in passing that when the legislature revised the law in 1967 it provided a third form of annexation, which includes a petition by owners of a majority of the acreage (not 60 per cent) followed by an election at which only landowners may vote.

Under the annexation system which was actually used, 41 per cent of the land ownership in any annexation area could have prevented the annexation of that area.

The suggestion that school directors have no right to commit the school district to paying for sewers is based on a misapprehension of their duties. School directors are charged with the duty of managing school property and have a wide discretion to do so. The cost of building a separate disposal system for the new high school is estimated at $250,000.00. It was the duty of the school board to weigh the cost and efficiency of the separate system against the school district's share of the cost of sewers and their efficiency. They made that value judgment. No evidence has been cited to suggest that it was a wrong judgment.

The law does not set up a conflict between the County and the sewer district, nor does any exist. The County's intended role is that of co-ordinator. The commissioners have indicated that the county will not plan to build collection systems, but will rely on local districts to do so. It has specifically approved the plans submitted by South Suburban Sewer District. The State Pollution Control Commission has also approved these plans.

Construction costs are rising by the month. Whoever can get the shovels working first is most likely to save money for the public. Those who seek to delay progress will pay extra in the end.

Yours very truly,
Robert Mortvedt
Commissioner

children.

Dr. Herbert H. Leibowitz, regional consultant for OEO who accompanied Miss Jungblut on the inspection tour, likened Tacoma's high community interest with the pioneer spirit of the old west.

"Unlike other cities included in our narcotic program, Tacoma still has the old pioneer spirit. Officials and citizens say 'We have a problem, let us help you solve it,' he said.

The Tacoma Narcotics Center, under the direction of R.J. Robertson, will open its first halfway house within two weeks on Fawcett Ave., between 25th and 27th Streets. It is a component of Opportunity Development Inc. (ODI)

Bethel School Board Action

By E.W. (DOC) WEBSTER
Chairman of Bethel Board

The highlight of this delayed Bethel School Board meeting was the approval of the contracts for the building of Thompson Elementary School.

When the federal funds for this project were frozen, an immediate appeal was made to the state board for additional funds. They came through with flying colors and made it possible to go ahead with this project for which we must say thank you. We feel very fortunate in the bids that were made and by the time you read this the Thompson Elementary School should be underway.

Reminding you of the Easter Sunday services, which will be at 6:30 a.m. at the Art Crate field. The service will be followed by a pancake breakfast.

Also I hope you all saw the Daffodil parade. Especially the Bethel Booster float which won the Festival Award. This goes to show you what the boys and girls can do with a little help. The band and drill team did their usual excellent performance.

Thank you goes to Floyd Hopkins for his help and all others that assisted.

Next school board meeting will be at 8 p.m. April 15th.

PLU Student To Attend Geneva Meet

TACOMA, WASH. — A Pacific Lutheran University senior, one of seven delegates named to represent the United States at a week-long student meeting in Geneva, Switzerland, left Thursday (April 4) for a briefing in New York City.

Michael McKean of Aberdeen, Wash., will represent his country at the 16th annual Conference of the International Student Movement for the United Nations. He will be the only West Coast delegate attending the session.

The seven representatives will meet for two days in New York with members of the United States' delegation to the U.N. Then the students will fly to Geneva where the conference will be held in the Palace of Nations.

Delegates from 122 countries will be in attendance to discuss the issue of "Vietnam and the United Nations." McKean stated that the U.S. students must be prepared to explain the role of their country in the Asian conflict.

McKean, who personally doesn't agree with the U.S. administration's Vietnam policy, said that the American delegates "only have to explain, not defend," its position.

Active in political affairs, McKean served as an intern during the last session of the Washington State Legislature, and he has been a student assistant in PLU's political science department.

Earlier this year McKean organized and conducted the school's first West Coast China Conference that attracted several international authorities on Red China to the campus.

In addition, the honor student serves as president of the senior class, and is a member of Blue Key, national honorary fraternity for men.

DENNIS THE MENACE. Dennis Scott caused a few anxious moments when his open topped superstock spun in front of Bob Short's 17 car last Sunday at Spanaway Speedway. Both managed to return to the race.

Powderpuff Debut Sunday

SPANAWAY - This is the week end Easter Sunday is the day ... Spanaway Speedway will echo to the 1968 debut of the Powderpuff Derby, that wild, wild race with women drivers.

From all indications, there will be a record turnout of both cars and drivers for this season's powderpuff action. And if the driving ability hasn't improved noticeably, Spanaway will look like a disaster area after some sort of demolition derby.

In addition to the Powderpuff Derby, a full slate of A.R.I. superstocks will return for trophy dashes, heats and mains.

Terry Standish upset the odds in last Sunday's program before 2,200 spectators to squeeze out a half car victory over perennial winner Steve Kiser. Standish broke down from 12th position in the 16 car, 40 lap "A" main and broke on top after the 11th lap. Kiser, working his way through heavy traffic, just missed catching the winner at the checkered flag. Dave Rogers, running his 13 car with improved handling characteristics, came in 3rd.

Don Hall (5) finally got back into harness, capturing the 50 lap double "A" main after setting a sizzling early season time trial of 16:33. Jack Kuper chased him across the finish and Steve Kiser claimed 3rd spot.

Longview visitor Leon DeLapp ran into problems thru-out the program, finally winding up with a burned out wheel bearing to eliminate him from a top finish. Local favorite Bob Short also had his share of bad racing luck, tangling with Vern Huson midway thru the main and slowing up because of poor handling.

Pete Burton (62) came a cropper before timing in, wiping out a section of the west fence when he lost control in the corner.

Full results of last Sunday's racing slate was as follows:

AA main (50 laps)—1, Hall; 2, Jackie Kuper, Tacoma; 3, Kiser. No time available.
 A main (40 laps)—1, Standish; 2, Kiser; 2, Dave Rogers, Tacoma. (First place result official; second and third places unofficial.)
 First AA heat (eight laps)—1, Vern Huson, Everett; 2, Dick Saylor, Tacoma; 3, Bob Bull, Seattle. 2:33.14.
 Second AA heat (eight laps)—1, Kuper; 2, Bob Short, Tacoma; 3, Hall. 2:22.25.
 First A heat (eight laps)—1, Roland LaFlash, Tacoma; 2, Wayne Brehm, Tacoma; 3, Dallas Klinder, Tacoma. 2:34.11.
 Second A heat (eight laps)—1, Kiser; 2, Rogers; 3, Standish. 2:25.32.
 AA trophy dash (four laps)—1, Kuper; 2, Leon DeLapp, Longview; 3, Hall. 1:08.54.
 A trophy dash (four laps)—1, Kiser; 2, Standish; 3, Dick Williams, Seattle. 1:11.12.

Coaches Meet Card Thinclads Local Gymnasts Host Vikings Win At YMCA Meet

Bigger and better than ever may be the best way to describe the summer recreation golf program outlined by the Metropolitan Park District and Pierce County Park Department this year.

From an anticipated increase in the number of teams taking part in adult league play to the addition of four divisions to the County-City Junior golf tournament in August, the program will be the most extensive ever put together by the two recreation departments.

The adult league play program will get its start Wednesday with a meeting of coaches for all Industrial and Commercial golf teams in the County-City Building, Room 741, at 8 p.m. Details of league play, which will start May 20 and continue through July, will be discussed.

The rapidly growing junior golf program, featuring free play each Monday morning at Lake Spanaway and Meadow Park from June 17 through Aug. 12 and the County-City tournament at Meadow Park Aug. 19, will start with registration on May 20 in the County-City Building, Room 236 and Room 735.

A fee of $2 per youngster between 11 and 18 years of age will entitle them to free play on Mondays from 7-10 a.m., free instruction at Lake Spanaway if desired, and entry in the Aug. 19 tournament.

The youngsters will also be required to attend one of three meetings set up prior to the first Monday session. Meetings will be held May 28 and June 12 at Lake Spanaway and June 5 at Meadow Park to acquaint the participants with golf etiquette and other parts of the game.

Course supervisors will be on hand at Lake Spanaway and Meadow Park each Monday to record the progress of those youngsters who wish to turn in their scorecards each week. The most improved players will receive a free course of instruction from associate professionals Rodger Weister at Lake Spanaway or Bill Tyson at Meadow Park.

The climax of the season will be the Aug. 19 junior golf tournament, which is open to all Tacoma and Pierce County youngsters between 11 and 18. Those who did not take part in the weekly Monday program will be required to pay a $1 entry fee.

Players who have established handicaps, will be placed in separate divisions from those who are in the Ten first place finishes and tremendous depth in almost every event sent the Franklin Pierce Cardinal track team to an impressive 93-2/3 to 33 1/3 victory over the out-hustled Auburn Trojans. Clean sweeps in every sprint event including the 880 put the Cardinals in a commanding position early in the meet. Sophomore miler Jon Soine posted a time of 4:43.3 in his specialty to aid the Cardinal cause. The Cards will host Highline tomorrow night on their home circuit, and will meet Puyallup in a re-match on April 16, also at Cardinal country.

Franklin Pierce baseball action gets under way again tonight at F.P., as the Cardinals entertain Stadium on their home diamond. Lakes will travel to F.P. for a league ball-game Tuesday at 3:30.

novice or beginner stages of golfing.

Awards will be presented by the Tacoma Golf Association and refreshments for all players will come from the Tacoma Sports-Recreation Federation at the conclusion of play.

Seven local area gymnasts returned home from Seattle last weekend with a hoard of trophies and ribbons after competing in the YMCA Gymnastics Championships.

The seven, Patti Jacobson, Debby Cheetham, Ronita Anderson, Thomas and Kirk Thorndike and Cheri and Gary Smith, competed against 216 gymnasts, entered in eight divisions, from Washington, Oregon, British Columbia and Idaho.

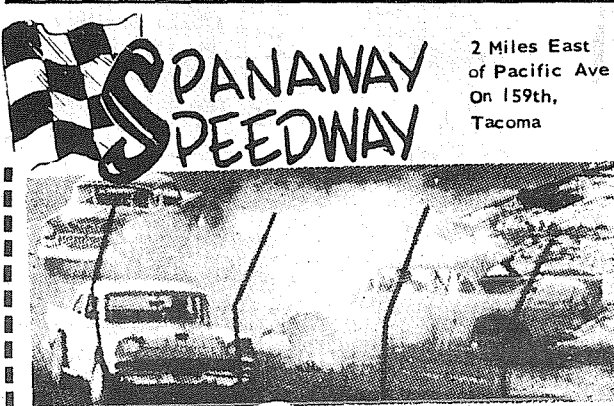

Patti, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Jacobson of 13919 Allen Avenue East, is a sixth grader at Elmhurst Elementary School.

Debby, a sixth grader at Parkland Elementary, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Duane Cheetham of 304 So. 125th.

A sixth grader at Brookdale, Ronita Anderson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Anderson of 305 So. 125th.

Thomas and Kirk are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Thorndike of So. Violet Meadow.

Cheri and Gary are the daughter and son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Smith of 515 So. 132nd.
