D.E. Kremer Named To Franklin Pierce Post

Donald E. Kremer, principal of Ferndale High School, Ferndale, Washington, was appointed principal of the Franklin Pierce High School at a special board meeting May 28th. Kremer replaces Bill Whitesel who left the Franklin Pierce post to accept a position of director of personnel for the Federal Way School District.

Kremer has been principal of the 900-pupil Ferndale Junior-Senior High School for the past four years. Prior to this service he was vice principal and head basketball coach at Walla Walla High School, where he also was a teacher and head of the Social Studies Department at Walla Walla High School for three years.

Kremer holds an M.A. Degree in Public School Administration from Central Washington State College, a senior high school principal administrative credential, is a member of the National Association of Secondary School Principals, the Washington Association of Secondary School Principals, the Washington Education Association, the National Education Association and the Ferndale Education Association.

He also is an active member of Lions International, President of the Northwest League Principals Association and President of the Whatcom County Administration Association.

He is married and has two children, ages five and eight.

F.P. Grad Ordained

Robert Olsen, Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. Robert Olsen of Parkland will be ordained into the Lutheran ministry next Sunday, June 9 at Trinity Lutheran Church at 2:00 o'clock, p.m. The officiating minister will be the Reverend Erling C. Thompson, pastor of Trinity.

Mr. Olsen has lived in Parkland since 1947 when his father was appointed to the faculty of Pacific Lutheran University. He has been an active member of the church and the Boy Scout movement. He was graduated from Franklin-Pierce High School and Pacific Lutheran University. His theological training was received in Wartburg Seminary at Dubuque, Iowa.

The public is cordially invited to attend the service and the reception following in the Fellowship Room of the church.

When the Washington State Legislature passed the school negotiation bill, little did they realize the problems that were being dumped in the laps of the State's educators.

Unfortunately, public school administrators and local school boards are neither staffed nor funded to cope with the time consuming details accompanying employee negotiations. Schools have been geared to educating youngsters at the minimum expense to district taxpayers.

Other than the teaching staff, the average school employee group is not properly equipped to effectively bargain on its own behalf. The interests and responsibilities are diversified, and in most cases, organization is difficult.

To deal with these various groups, and analyze their numerous detailed demands, has detracted from the administrators basic educationally oriented duties. Officials from both Bethel and Franklin Pierce Districts have indicated to this writer that employee negotiations have become a time consuming monster.

Teacher organizations, following state-wide guidelines, have professionally negotiated to better their income status. They have made their requests based on district budgets, and abided by school board decisions though they seemed adverse.

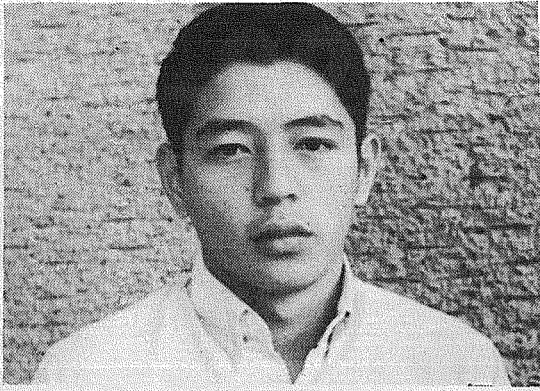

The non-certified employees (non-teaching) have no statewide organization tuned to school procedures. Because some work a four-hour day 9 months of the year, while others are 8-hour a day full-time employees, they have very little in common as a group.

It seems that some relief might be granted to school boards and top administrators by placing non-certified employees in the Civil Service System. Salaries, job descriptions, retirement benefits, and other data relative to employee relations would be drawn up by the State Civil Service Board, and sent to local school directors for final approval.

Since an employee in Pierce County has essentially the same type of job as an employee holding a similar position in Spokane County, we feel the civil service approach might be well worth exploring.

At least it would appear to be a more professional way of solving employer-employee disputes than abusing sick leave privileges.

Foreign Exchange Student Announced For High School

E.J.T. BUENCAMINO

Name and nationality of the Franklin Pierce High School Foreign Exchange student for the ensuing year was announced Tuesday, by the Parkland Chapter of the American Field Service president, Coralie Johnson.

Edmundo Jose T. Buencamino, 16, will arrive from the Philippines to live with the Wilber Roberts family for his school year.

Buencamino is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Eduardo Felipe T. Buencamino. His father, an attorney, is serving as a member of the Provincial Board of Bulacan (Bulacan being the town where they live and Provincial board apparently city council). Mrs. Buencamino is director of a Vocational School for Women.

In his statement, applying for the AFS scholarship, the young Filipino, states: "While I respect and admire the outstanding records and leadership of my elder brother in the San Miguel High School, I would like to be known as Pop Buencamino, who is eager and hopeful to work and strive as an individual. Let not the excellent records of my father, mother and brother affect my chances in life. A family can all be good and successful in all ventures."

Outlining his strong aspirations for the grant, the student proclaims: "This program offers the best opportunity for a teenager to live and learn the everyday lessons in life in a foreign land which can help promote brotherhood among nations."

"I would like to observe and experience the American way of life and to learn its history and culture. I would like to meet other youths and show them how a Filipino boy thinks and reacts to various issues and activities."

Listing his extra-curricular activities, the new Franklin Pierce addition is president of the San Miguel High School Junior Republic, Editor-in-Chief of the school organ, patrol leader in the boy scouts, commander in the cadet corps, head delegate for the C.M.L.I. convention, a member of the Columbian Squires and team captain of the high school tennis group.

References written by various people at the high school he now attends, list him as outspoken, an individualist, frank and thruthful, jolly, faithful, extremely likeable, and a perfect choice for a goodwill ambassador.

Eduardo Felipe T. Buencamino Jr., 17-year-old brother of Edmundo, is presently a foreign exchange student at Menomonee Falls, Wisconsin.

The Buencamino family also is a sponsor of foreign students and now have a student from Farmer City, Illinois, residing with them.

When the Roberts family heard the long-awaited news of the student, reports indicated they were elated and can hardly wait the arrival.

Synod Organization Celebration Slated

On Sunday, June 9, Parkland Evangelical Lutheran Congregation will join with other congregations throughout the United States in observing the 50th Anniversary of the reorganization of The Evangelical Lutheran Synod.

The Evangelical Lutheran Synod, formerly known as "The Norwegian Synod" was organized as The Synod for The Norwegian Lutheran Church in America in 1853. In 1917 the Norwegian Synod was merged with the United Norwegian Lutheran Church and The Hauge Synod to form the Norwegian Lutheran Church in America which is now a part of the A.L.C. "The American Lutheran Church." A minority group of the Norwegian Synod refused to go along with the merger in 1917 because of their conviction the articles of agreement on which the union was based compromised the true teaching of God's Word. In refusing to enter the merger this minority group of congregations and people lost their property consisting of schools, colleges and a Seminary, but they retained their spiritual heritage.

In the month of June, the year 1918 this minority group met in convention in Lake Mills, Iowa, to reorganize on the basis of the old Synod constitution and to carry on this name and its spiritual traditions. The Rev. Bjug Harstad, Pastor of Parkland Lutheran Church and founder of Pacific Lutheran University, was elected the first president of the reorganized Synod which then consisted of but seven congregations and a few hundred members. The Evangelical Lutheran Synod has grown to number 77 congregations with 15,000 members. These congregations conduct several elementary schools, a High School, College and Theological Seminary. Two congregations are located in the Tacoma Area, others in Massachusetts, New York, Michigan, Illinois, Iowa, Wisconsin, Minnesota and the Dakotas. Festival services at Parkland Lutheran will be at 10:30 a.m. All are cordially invited.

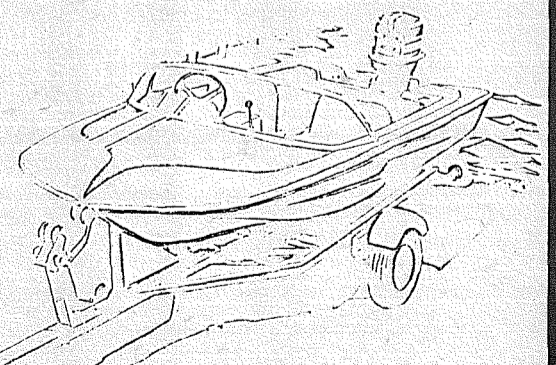

MARK BROWN, 1967 graduate of Bethel High School, will have the distinction of being first student body president elected at Clover Park (soon to be Ft. Steilacoom) Community College. Brown and seven others were selected for student government offices in balloting held last week. He was active in student government at Bethel High School where he served as editor of the school newspaper.

Volunteers Needed For Library Service

Books enrich the soul, refresh the spirit, widen horizons, and provide endless entertainment. Books are going into nursing homes in suburban and rural areas of the county. They are provided by Pierce County Library, but they are transported and circulated among residents of the homes by volunteers. In order that more than a minimum residents receive books, the service must have more volunteer assistants, according to Carl Holland, supervisor of Pierce County Library's service to nursing homes.

As the service swings into the second six months of operation, twelve nursing homes are being served. A popular feature of the service is the monthly showing of six-teen millimeter films. Until now, Mr. Holland has managed this aspect of the service in addition to his supervisory responsibilities. Now, volunteers are relieving him of half the film program.

The greatest need in volunteer assistance is for persons who could give four hours a week to take books into the nursing homes. After inservice training, these volunteers visit with residents of the home, discover their interests and find books that fulfill these interests. Sometimes they read aloud to groups or individuals.

Persons interested in volunteering for this service may obtain further information by phoning Mr. Holland at Pierce County Library, BR 2-6214.

Winners Named

The majority of more than 17,000 young readers in the Pacific Northwest have chosen "Mouse and the Motorcycle", by Beverly Cleary, to receive the Young Reader's Choice Award for 1968.

The vote for this award is taken each Spring among school children of British Columbia, Idaho, Montana, Oregon and Washington by the Division of Work with Children and Young People of the Pacific Northwest Library Association. The author receives the award at the "Author's Breakfast" session of the annual PNLA meeting, to be held this year August 14-16 in Vancouver, B.C.

This year, 818 children who borrow books from the Pierce County Library system cast ballots for their choice. They voted "Gentle Ben", by Walt Morey into first place, with "Mouse and the Motorcycle" second in line. In third position was "Ghost in the Noonday Sun", by Sid Fleischman, while regional votes placed "The Velvet Room", by Zilpha Snyder, which was fourth in Pierce County, in this place.

Given in the order that Pierce County's young readers chose them, the other runners-up were: "Drop Dead", by Julia Cunningham; "Empty Schoolhouse", by Natalie Carlson; "Bushbabies", by William Stevenson; "Soldier and Me", by David Line; "Durango Street", by Frank Bonham; "North to Freedom", by Anne Holm; "Matthew Looney's Invasion of Earth", by Jerome Beatty.

WINNER — Frank Zlock, center, whose entry for the name of Chester Thompson, Elementary School, was chosen, receives a hand shake from the principal of the new school, Will Damrau, after the $25 check was presented by Mrs. Ohlund, treasurer of the Bethel Association for Better Schools.

Community Church Site Dedication Slated For Sunday

Elk Plain Community Church dedication and ground-breaking ceremonies will be immediately following the morning worship service on June 9th.

The church was started in 1949 in the Elk Plain School. It was moved to the present site, land donated by Mr. Castle and Mr. Tibbitts, in 1951.

A second building was added in November 1959 with Rev. Verne Slater as pastor. When Rev. Slater left in 1961, Dan Cooper became lay pastor until the Village Missions supplied leadership in 1965 in the form of Rev. Sam Bellanti, who was called back to the Mission this year.

The new pastor, Arnold Dalk, will dedicate the site.

Openings Announced In Teacher Program

Several openings still exist in Pacific Lutheran University's two-year teacher-intern program, announced its director Dr. Arne Pederson.

The Teachers Corps program, designed to place 34 teachers into Tacoma's public schools, is sponsored by a federal grant. Eligible college graduates, preferably non-education majors, will teach in elementary schools, work in the community, and study for a master's degree.

Interns selected for the program will receive $75 a week, plus an additional $15 for each dependent. After completing the two-year program, the corpsmen will be eligible for a teaching certificate and a MA in education.

"The purpose of the corps," said Pederson, "is to recruit and train teachers for disadvantaged areas."

PAN CHICKEN — The two chicks in the frypan are feeling quite at home, for that pan acted as their mother for 21 days. The Araucanas chicks were bought as hatching eggs by Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Henke of Spanaway and were placed in the electric fry pan with temperatures ranging from 96 to 102 degrees, and broke their shells in good health. The other six eggs in the frypan are the families latest waifs. The layer of these eggs preferred basking in the sun to sitting on her eggs, according to Mrs. Henke, "so we brought them in and are in hopes we can save them," she said.

PLU Honor Grads Number Fifty-seven

Fifty-seven members of the Pacific Lutheran University Class of 1968 were graduated with scholastic honors.

Stanley Stenerson was graduated summa cum laude

(with highest honors) for having a cumulative grade point average above 3.9.

The 19 students who were graduated magna cum laude (with great honors and a grade point average over 3.6) included Linda Craker, Marian Halvorson, David Herfindahl, John Oakley, Kathleen Bevan, Janet Clausen, Helen Cofchin, Esther Everette, Sharon Gephart, Elizabeth Londgren, Rosalind Olson, Pamela Point, Katherine Simantel, Solveig Sparavalo, Georgia and Marsha Stirn, Sally Williams, Jennifer Braa and Joanne Schnaidt.

Georgia and Marsha Stirn, Tacoma twins, kept up a scholastic tradition they established when they were graduated from Mount Tahoma High School in 1964 with honors for having cumulative grade point averages of 4.0 (straight A).

The twins, who are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer D. Stirn, 6221 South Puget Sound Avenue, have been active in PLU student life. They were members of Spurs, Tassels, Seasprites and LIFT. They lived in the residence halls all four years, but were not roommates. Elementary education majors, they have signed contracts to teach in the Minneapolis (Minn.) schools starting next fall.

Students who were graduated cum laude (with honors for a grade point over 3.3) were John Atkinson, Joann Beckman, John Biermann, Jerry Crawford, Secelia Holte, Richard Knudson, John Leraas, Michael McKean, Michael McMullen, Patricia Nelson, Carol Ohl, Barbara Omdal, William Downey, Barbara Rask, David Sjoding, Steven

Seniors Offered
AG Science Careers

Pierce County high school seniors who are college bound but undecided about a career were offered this suggestion today. "If you are interested in world travel, contact with leading men of science, access to the latest scientific developments, and the personal satisfaction of helping feed the world, consider a career in agricultural science."

In making the suggestion, Frank C. Jackson, County Extension Agent, stressed that agriculture in general and agronomy in particular needs sharp young minds and youthful enthusiasm.

And for young minds looking for "new worlds to conquer", Jackson passed along these comments on careers in agronomy from Dr. Kenneth J. Morrison, Washington State University Extension agronomist.

Our era is often called the space age. Maybe we should call it the agronomy age instead. Increased world population and a growing world food gap offer agronomists an important role in the survival of civilization. The agronomy graduate going back to the farm or managing a farm can contribute directly to food needs by producing top yields.

Or he can use his acquired knowledge to help step up food production overseas as a volunteer in the Peace Corps or in one of the governmental or private aid programs.

Or he can contribute to food needs indirectly as an educator — a teacher or county agent.

An agronomy graduate with an agribusiness option can also contribute indirectly to increased food production by joining one of the numerous firms providing services to farmers.

And for the agronomist with a scientific bent, career opportunities are almost limitless. Possible careers include research and teaching in colleges and universities, research in university, government or industrial laboratories, and opportunities to advance research programs abroad.

County Agent Jackson invited students interested in agriculture in general or agronomy in particular to drop by the County Extension office for more information and a look at career leaflets from Washington State University.

Grange Convention Slated June 10-14

State Grange Master A. Lars Nelson will present a Matron of the Year award to Mrs. Hazel Walk, leader of the award-winning Waller Road Junior Grange at the State Granges 79th annual convention slated for June 10 to 14 on the campus of Whitworth College, just north of Spokane.

About 2,500 delegates and visitors are expected to be registered during the 5-day meeting, Nelson said.

Senator Henry M. Jackson and Governor Daniel J. Evans will head the list of speakers on Monday, the opening day. An annual cooperative conference will be addressed by H. M. Olsen, Seattle, Executive Secretary of the Washington Council of Farmer Cooperatives. Other speakers during the week will include Fifth District Congressman Tom Foley of Spokane, State Agriculture Director Donald W. Moos of Olympia, Charles W. Hodde of Vancouver, Director of the Pacific Northwest River Basins Commission, and Ermil Jerome of Meridian, Idaho, representing the National Grange as a member of its Executive Committee.

Preliminary events Sunday, June 9, will include statewide bowling and softball tournaments and the finals of three Grange talent contests in which winners of six district contests will compete for state and national honors.

A parade in downtown Spokane, featuring Junior Grangers and Youth Groups, will precede the regular Session which opens Monday afternoon. A public reception Monday evening in the college auditorium will feature welcoming speeches by Mayor David Rodgers, other civic officials and Grange leaders from five northeastern Washington counties.

The Grange being a fraternal as well as a farm organization, the first four evening sessions will be devoted mainly to ritualism. Biggest attendance will occur Thursday evening when the sixth or State Grange degree will be exemplified for several hundred initiates. Such classes have numbered as many as 1,380. The Spokane County Grange will initiate in the fifth or Pomona degree.

Wednesday night's ritualism will feature the first degree by Stevens County Granges, the second by Fertile Valley Grange of Pend Oreille County, third by Spring Creek Grange of Lincoln County and the fourth by the Spokane Valley third and fourth degree drill team.

State Grange Master Nelson

will deliver his convention keynote address Tuesday morning, followed by Agriculture Director Moos. Foley's speech will be heard Tuesday afternoon.

Junior Grange members from Spokane, Stevens and Lincoln Counties will present their ritualism and an entertainment program Tuesday evening under the direction of Mrs. Thora Dick of Orondo, state superintendent of Junior Granges.

4-H Fair Slated Saturday

The Spana-Park Community Fair has been slated for Saturday and Sunday, June 8-9, at the James Sales Grange in Parkland. Home Economic exhibits will be judged beginning at 10 a.m. Forrestry, Natural Resources, Garden, Flower Arranging, Photography and all other exhibits will be judged in the afternoon.

The fair is sponsored by The Spana-Park 4-H Club, under the leadership of Mrs. Winona Graves, as a "learning" fair for all Pierce County 4-H'ers. Awards are not important at this Fair, she said, since this is where youngsters learn how to properly prepare their exhibits or acquire necessary animal showmanship techniques.

Saturday night the club is sponsoring a teenage dance with live music from 8 to 11 p.m.

Sunday's action will include poultry, dogs and livestock judging, which is slated to start at 1 p.m. Anyone interested in entering exhibits may call VI 7-7197 for information.

Mayfair To Host Ballgame, Supper And Street Dance

There will be dancing in the streets in the Mayfair district Saturday to celebrate the new street lights installed by Elmhurst Mutual Power and Light Co., according to officials of the Mayfair Association.

The Mayfair residents will first get together for a baseball game from 4 to 6 p.m. at the County Park with turnouts for residents only. The game will be followed by a potluck supper on 137th Street, which will be closed to traffic for the event.

A teenage band, "See Thru Trio," will play for the dance, if the weather permits.

Ambulance Crew Delivers 2 Babies

This must be the season for at least one kind of record setting, according to Don T. Giles, president of Lakewood - Pacific ambulance. One of the company's ambulance teams, driver Herbert Dempsey and attendant Edward Hogan, delivered two babies during consecutive shifts and within a few blocks of each other over the weekend.

According to the team, this marks the first time for babies on consecutive days in the careers of either man.

The first birth was immediately after the arrival of the ambulance at the residence of Mrs. Thelma Pressey, 8304 So. Pine, early Saturday. "We came for one and left with two, both doing well," the Lakewood driver commented after the 15-minute delivery in a bedroom.

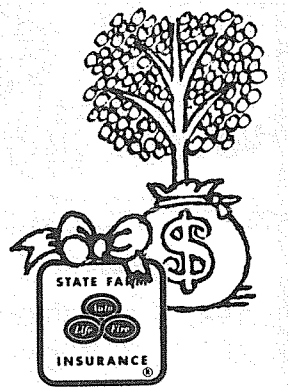

The second delivery in the unprecedented series was early Sunday. The ambulance was dispatched by the Tacoma Police Department to the residence of Mrs. Elmo Butterfield, 8035 So. K, where Mrs. Butterfield was about to give birth.

The ambulance crew decided to get to the hospital, before the stork got to them again, but the baby carrier caught them in the parking lot of the hospital.

The pair described both births as routine, but admitted they would be happy if the incident did not repeat itself for a while.

Mrs. Pressey delivered an 8-pound 1-ounce boy and Mrs. Butterfield a 7-pound 9-ounce boy.

Renton Handicap Sunday

Melmitch, stretch running tornado which smashed to a record shattering win in the Memorial Day Handicap, strikes for another stakes victory next Sunday at Longacres.
The six-year-old gelded son of Six Fifteen, racing in the black and white silks of Herb Armstrong, Harrington wheat rancher, heads the prospective field for the 28th running of the $7,500-added Renton Handicap.
Distance of the headliner is six furlongs.

This race honors the City of Renton, Longacres' home town and long renowned as the "jet capital of the world."

Melmitch, which scorched five and one-half furlongs in 1:02 2/5 for a new Longacres track record in the Memorial, should have little difficulty negotiating the additional yardage of the Renton 'Cap. The gelding finished full of run in the Memorial.

Longacres' track standard for six furlongs is 1:08 3/5 first set by Cold Steel in 1958. The record was (Continued on Page 9)

Tis Cricket, owned by Al Benton, Seattle realtor, is another probable entry Sunday.

Others likely to go post-ward include Mr. Q. D., Sir Gladiator, Kyreen, Freddie B. Jr., Jolly Pirate, Gallant Command, and My First Trip.

Parkland Man Class Winner At Spanaway

With only one incident marring the day, the AmVet Spanaway Hydroplane Regatta was run like clockwork Sunday.

Coming out of the south turn on the Spanaway course, Steve Knudson of Seattle, piloting a 45-cubic inch Hydro, "All Hours," spun-out and topped in the direct path of Eatonville's Pat Bertram's Sidewinder II. Unable to avoid the collision Bertram's machine went up and over Knudson's. The propeller of Sidewinder chopped holes in the cowl and deck of All Hours and had its own rudder transom torn out. Fortunately both drivers escaped injury.

With time, money and work both boats will be back and running full tilt in the near future.

A crowd of more than 2,000 came from as far as Vancouver, B.C. to watch the drivers vie for six class championships.

Only one Parkland boat placed first in the win-down, also a world record winner holding in its class with a speed of 74.380 miles per hour, owned and driven by Harold Mansfield clocked in at 3:50.2 minutes to win over Water Scamp, owned and driven by Ben Lang of Seattle.

The Regatta was presented by the Tacoma Inboard Racing Association and sponsored by the AmVets of Washington. According to reports 50 per cent of the proceeds will be donated to Remann Hall.

Next Saturday and Sunday, June 8-9, the Hydros will be in Spokane at Newman Lake. Starting time will be noon.

Sunday's class winners at Spanaway are as follows:

- 280 cubic inch—1, Sundown, Harold Mansfield, Tacoma; 2, Water Scamp, Ben Lang, Seattle; 3, Calypso, John Forbes, Seattle. 3:50.2.
- 266 cubic inch—1, Short Snort, Lynn Montgomery, Seattle; 2, Champaign Lady, Gerald Bangs, Seattle; 3, Hombro, Fred Leland, Seattle. 3:15.4.
- 225 cubic inch—1, Alouette Angel, Bill Allan, Port Coquitlan, B.C.; 2, Gone Whacky Again, Herb Gelle, Seattle; 3, Miss Tide Air, George Henley, Eatonville. Time unavailable.
- 150 cubic inch—1, Hilton Hyper-Lube, Jim Benson, Seattle; 2, Spittire II, Lock Madill, Vancouver, B.C.; 3, Fightin' Falcon, Skip Meredith, Seattle. Time unavailable.
- 145 cubic inch—1, Caribou Belle, Phil Schaffer, Vancouver, B.C.; 2, Running Bare, Dick Nelson, Seattle; 3, Frisky, Bill Ritter, Seattle; 4, All Hours, Steve Knudson, Seattle. Time unavailable.
- 48 cubic inch—1, Voodoo, Jack Philpott, Seattle; 2, Short Snort, Stan Masel, Seattle; 3, Mayhem Too, Arnold Green, Seattle. Time unavailable.

SOME DID YOU KNOWS? Glen Williams' Thoroughbred Terrango Kid, purchased for one dollar ($1), yes, one dollar, is back and is in training at Longacres. He's six years old but Glen has plans to start him this season. This is the fantastic story of an injured horse given up for lost. Glen turned him out for a year, nursed him back to health and he has now a better-than-average Thoroughbred. Keep your eyes open if he starts this season. He could be right up there in the right race.

The former Longacres popular Don Porter family is campaigning successfully in California. Former owner of the deluxe Green Valley Farm in Mabton, Washington, Papa Don is operating public stables. Ex-jockey son Pepper has hung up his riding tack and quit riding. He broke his left thigh in a spill last year and now sports a steel rod inserted through the hip that reaches through the bone center down to his knee. His recovery progress has been good and the rod comes out soon. Pepper is working as a track official in California. His wife, daughter of electronics expert (at Longacres) Johnny Jones, is housekeeping and tending their healthy and sassy daughter.

Hazel Schutz who had horses at Longacres in 1933 is still going strong. She won't admit it but three score and ten plus several more years will pretty well hit her age on the head. She of the flaming red hair still gallops horses for other stables and trains her own stable as well. She feels people are slightly on the lazy side if they stay in bed after 4 a.m.

Hazel rode her first race at 14. Went on to college and taught home economics after graduation. The Wyoming high schools were pretty

Races Featured At Spanaway

BUSIEST INTERSECTION IN TOWN. The crossover at Spanaway's new figure "8" track can become pretty congested when the traffic strings out. This bit of action resulted in a near miss for the daredevil drivers.

lucky. Later she migrated to the Northwest.

She still holds a track record in Havana, Cuba. One of her horses ran three-quarters of a mile in 1:10 flat in 1939. The day she loaded her horses on the boat for the U.S.A. she gave a small boy a job of walking two Thoroughbreds. She forgot? to go back and collect the horses. Some Cuban urchin fell heir to two race horses. Wonder what he did with them? Perhaps deposed Batista, assassinated the same year, could have used these for a getaway.

FOR THE FUTURE: Wednesday, June 5th, BELLEVUE DAY, sponsored by the Bellevue Chamber of Commerce. Sunday, June 9th, Renton Handicap, three-year olds & upward, 6 furlongs, for $7,500 added. This is always a popular race.

SPANAWAY - Full weekend racing has finally come to Spanaway Speedway, the popular oval now slating A.R.I. Superstocks Saturday evening, then returning Sunday with Foreign Stocks, Figure "8's" and three quarter midgets. With just a little break in the weather, it promises to be quite a show.

Last Saturday's slate was washed out, but the Sunday program was held in bright sunshine. Kenny Eckright, a Seattle Foreign Stock jockey, brought his 88 car in for the checkered flag, with Jerry Holland (6) and LeRoy Anderson (1) taking 2nd and 3rd.

In Figure "8" competition, Carl Zaretzke (21) of Marysville led the field in the main, with Jim Thornton (69) and Ken Buchanan (17) chasing him across the finish line.

A Puyallup driver, Dennis Long, placed first in TQ midget action, with KTVW's Jim Rogers a surprising 2nd. Stocker Harold LeGault squeezed his frame into one of the small buzz bombs and picked up a 3rd.

The biggest crowd of the season turned out for Spanaway's Memorial Day superstock program, and were treated to some wild, slambang action. The 3,500 racing fans watched Steve Kiser return to the winner's circle in class "A" competition and Don Hall follow suit in the double "A" go-round. Both managed to weather strong challenges from Ken Longley and Jackie Kuper before taking the hundred lap mains. Longley threw a right rear shoe in the heat race, but managed a fast repair job before the main got underway.

Fun Night Slated By Spanaway Club

The Men's Club at the Lake Spanaway Golf Course is planning another membership "Fun Night" for June 11th, according to club president, Stan Standifer.

Action will begin with a 9-hole tourney at 4:30 p.m. featuring longest drive on one hole and closest-to on another. Following the game members will gather at the practice range for a "Golf Clinic" to be conducted by golf pros, Roger Weister and Gordon Hepp.

Sports-Fitness Registrations Being Accepted

Registrations for the Sports-Fitness camps offered by the Pierce County Park Department and Metropolitan Park District at Wapato Park and Spanaway Park June 17 through Aug. 9 are now being accepted at the County Park Department office, 735 County-City Building.

Brochures containing information on the Sports-Fitness camps have been distributed to all schools in Tacoma and Pierce County for boys and girls between seven and 14 years of age.

Four sessions of camp activities will be offered at Wapato and Spanaway parks - June 17-28, July 1-12, July 15-26 and July 29-Aug. 9. A registration fee of $6 per session must accompany the registration form.

Transportation to the Spanaway Park camp from Lakewood, McChord and Fort Lewis only will be available at an extra $2 per session fee.

No transportation will be available for Tacoma youngsters to the camp at Wapato Park.

All-Star Game Set At Cheney Stadium

Ten schools in the Tacoma-Pierce County area will provide the opposition for Tacoma's five City League members in the annual West-Central All-Star double-header Saturday at Cheney Stadium.

The two seven-inning contests will start at 7 p.m. and will match the cream of the West-Central District's seniors against a select Tacoma contingent. Seven players from the twin bill will be nominated for possible selection to the Seattle-State games June 10 at Sicks' Seattle Stadium.

Two standout pitchers will lead the District stars into action. Left-hander Rudy Minch, of North Thurston, and hard-throwing Don Henrichs, of Enumclaw, will draw starting mound assignments for coaches Bobby Adams and Bill Funk. Minch compiled a sensational mark of 42 consecutive no-hit innings during the season and issued only four bases-on-balls during the season.

Henrichs, a right-hander, came off a 1967 season when he had a 0.80 earned run average to post a 7-3 record, including a victory over the University of Washington freshmen on a one-hitter.

Rounding out the District's 12-man squad are catchers Mason Elvrom of Clover Park and Ed Anderson of North Thurston, infielders Bruce Schweikel and Scott Sheehan of Auburn, Jerry Lapacinski of Federal Way, Ed Waring of Bethel and Darryl Dillard of Laughon and outfielders Don Griffith of Lakes, Steve Duras of Curtis and Ed Spandel of Franklin Pierce.

Right-handers Dan Seymour of Bellarmine and Joe Kilby of Lincoln will be the starting hurlers for the Tacoma squad coached by Gordon Brunswick and John Prenger.

The teams will report to Cheney Stadium again at 6 p.m. for infield drill prior to the 7 p.m. starting time for the first game.
