The Bethel Booster's Club will again honor the team members of the Bethel Braves and their parents when they hold their annual Football Banquet at the Bethel Senior High School, Saturday evening, November 19. The banquet will begin at 6 p.m. Sam Green will present the program for the evening. Those wishing to attend may make reservations or obtain tickets at the Bethel Senior High School. MD Campaign Needs Support Times Journal Announces Paper Service

BARGAIN BASKET Clerk, Leland Wicklein, receives Muscular Dystrophy campaign poster and contribution boxes from Pierce County Sheriff's Reserve Patrol members, Fred McPherson (left) and Darrell Dugan.

The pressing need to halt the progress of muscular dystrophy was stressed today by Pierce County sheriff Frank Stojack, 1960 honorary chairman of the MDA campaign, as he urged area residents to give active support to this week's "march for muscular dystrophy."

The annual house-to-house canvass — conducted by volunteers throughout the nation on behalf of Muscular Dystrophy Association of America, Inc. — is taking place in Pierce County this week, climaxing Sunday, Nov. 20. About 1400 volunteers are taking part in the campaign here, Sheriff Stojack said.

There are more than 200,000 victims of the mysterious, crippling disease in the United States. No cure or effective treatment has yet been found for the malady which cripples its victims by progressively destroying muscle tissue. The disease can strike anyone, regardless of age or sex. The job of distributing campaign posters and counter canisters has been taken on by firemen in various communities in the county and by sheriff's deputies and sheriff's reserve patrol members in the rural districts.

Dads, did you have a paper route when you were a boy? We at the Times Journal are sure you will agree that a paper route is certainly one of the essential factors which help a growing boy achieve the responsibilities he so often lacks during the period before he reaches manhood.

Many Calls
The Times Journal has received countless numbers of calls from parents, and in some cases from the youths themselves, about the possibility of paper routes being available.

We are now happy to announce that very shortly a few Times Journal routes will be delivered by paper boys. As the weeks progress, more and more routes will be converted.

$10,000 More
By distributing the Times Journal in such a way, we will, through salaries, be distributing approximately $10,000 a year in the Parkland area.

Jack Brown, publisher of the Times Journal, himself being the father of two newspaper-carrying boys, well realizes the responsibility-building habits which are derived from such experience.

Mr. Gunn Here
Jack has recently lured Mr. Robert Gunn from a position in Staten Island, New York, where Bob was previously a junior counselor at the Mission of the Immaculate Virgin. He is now the circulation manager of the Journal, and will be working with the paper boys when they deliver their routes. Bob will be interviewing prospective applicants in the Times Journal office, 14620 Pacific Ave., this Saturday. He'll be on hand all day, so if your son is interested in being a paper boy, we urge you to drop around and see us.

When Joe went into the army he left his typewriter with his friend, Bill, telling him that the typewriter wasn't paid for and the store which sold it might try to repossess it. Sure enough, two months later the typewriter store sent Bill notice that it was going to repossess Joe's typewriter. On the same day, Bill got a letter from the small Loan Company, which said it had a mortgage on Joe's typewriter and would pick it up the next day. Bill was worried. The store told him it would sue him if he gave the typewriter to the loan company and the loan company threatened to sue if he released it to the store.

Do you think there is any easy way out for Bill?
The answer is that Bill can relieve himself of liability to the store and the loan company by starting a suit against both of them and depositing the typewriter in court, to go to the company which proves its claim to it. In the suit Bill must disclaim any interest in

With JACK BROWN

I just read an interesting and unusual news story concerning a group of union workers and union officials. The union men concerned are employed by a company which manufactures various kinds of electrical equipment used in automobiles and boats. But high costs had made it necessary to close one of its plants unless some kind of remedial action was taken. Company officials proposed an incentive pay plan under which going wage scales would be maintained but the productivity of workers would be increased. In other words, it became a matter of more work for the same pay check.

The result: Union officials approved, and the union membership voted for the plan almost unanimously. The plant will be kept open, its production increased, and the jobs involved have been saved.

This group of union workers and officials, and the company, faced and solved a problem in the one sound way. It is a problem which is becoming more and more general in a long list of industries and enterprises. Wages and other payroll costs go up and up — while manhour production goes down or remains static. Then the competitive power of the industry involved becomes steadily weaker — particularly when it must meet foreign competition. Layoffs and plant closures become unavoidable.

Let's have the highest possible wages and working conditions in this country. But we can only have them, without serious unemployment, if we have maximum production for each wage dollar.

"The average husband worries about what the government spends and what his wife spends. The difference is that he's not afraid to criticize the government."

"Quite a lot was heard in the recent campaign about 'going forward' from both parties. It didn't impress me much. This country was going forward no matter who became President. In the United States, it's the people, not the President, who furnish the motive power and determine the pace. They do, that is, if they retain the freedom to make their own decisions and to take the initiative."

A very real danger, when "going forward" becomes a political issue, is that we will automatically assume that the government will do all the leading, will determine just what percentages of annual growth we should have, and will take the necessary steps to achieve the goal. In other words, government will give the orders and we, the people, will obey. That is the way things are done in dictatorships. But if they're done that way here, we'll be through as a free nation in which government is servant, not master.

America has made its choice. Let's get "with it and with them" regardless of our own political ties and let those who now represent us in government work for us and not visa-versa.

Summit . . . Little League Meeting Tonight

Central Avenue Little Leaguers, prospective Little Leaguers, and parents are asked to attend a meeting in the Central Avenue School cafeteria tonight at 7:00. Boys must be 9 years old by June 1, 1961 and not over 13 by September 1, 1961. The meeting is called to disclose the plans for the three Little League benefits that must be undertaken to raise money to equip our many teams. Five teams were playing last year, but is expected to be increased to seven or eight teams this coming Spring. The minimum of playing equipment for a team costs between $100 and $150. With equipment owned to support three teams, it is hoped that enough money can be raised to equip the remaining teams.

Raffle tickets for a 1947 Chevrolet panel truck will be on sale from now until the drawing December 10, as well as, cans of Mrs. Leland's Old Fashioned Golden Butter - Bits (these are delicious). It is hoped that you will support our teams by buying raffle tickets and cans of candy. The candy is in a nicely decorated canister can, that is ideal for Christmas giving.

Watch for details on a benefit luncheon to be held December 10th at the Summit Youth Center.

Toys
Central Avenue Preschool Mothers Club will meet Tuesday, November 22, 10:00 a.m. in the Summit Youth Center. Mr. Bill McDermott, from a local toy store, will present a very timely program on educational toys. With Christmas around the corner and everyone wondering what to buy the small fry, this will be an opportunity to see what type of educational toys are available and how they will help your child.

Everyone is asked to bring Christmas ideas, as well as, your neighbor. Baby sitting will be provided, so we'll see you the 22nd. There will be a Youth Center dance Friday, November 18th, from 7:30 to 10:00 p.m. for grades 6 thru 9. Admission is 35 cents with the proceeds going to the Summit Youth Center.

Around seventy - five Summit area youth attended the Halloween dance with many clever and interesting costumes. First prize was given to the baby, Barbara Tennent, who came dressed in a nightgown and nightcap and with a baby bottle in hand. The door prizes were awarded to Jim Hart and Linda Brackenberry.

Mr. Ed Hendrix will call the squares at an open dance sponsored by the Summit Youth Center, Saturday, November 19, 8:30 - 12:00 p.m. at the Youth Center. Everyone is welcome. Bring your own snack. Coffee and tea will be served by Mr. and Mrs. Ken Fuller and Mr. and Mrs. Serle Hart.

Thanks
Central Avenue School election co-chairmen, Dorothy Lucas and Mary Austin, would like to thank the four precinct chairmen and their committees for the work performed on the school election.

Oops!
The Summit Stock Raisers 4-H group Halloween party-meeting, mentioned last week, host should have read Mr. and Mrs. Ken Fuller. Our apologies are extended to the Fuller's. Club members would like to publicly thank the Collins Livestock Club, who paid the complete expenses, for the marvelous time the group had at the skating party November 10th.

Accidents
Miss Sylvia Anderson was treated in St. Joseph's Hospital for leg lacerations and bruises after she was injured in a three-car crash in Tacoma last Tuesday.

Wednesday, November 9, Mrs. Roland Hardt became another Vickers Road resident to be in an automobile accident. A car backing out of a driveway developed brake trouble and subsequently smashed into the Hardt vehicle. Neither driver was injured.

Addie Rau
The Addie Rau Circle of the Summit Methodist Church will meet Monday, November 21, at 8:00 p.m. in the home of Wanda Irish. A program on Christmas gift books will be given by Mrs. C. R. McMillan.

The opening of the Wits End Gift Shop in the Summit View Shopping Center was quite gratifying to Mrs. Lovitt, owner. She would like to express her appreciation and thanks to everyone who helped to make it a success.

He's Ready For Finale

CLUTCHING THE ball is Finlay Hester, Franklin Pierce High School senior offensive end, as he prepares for his final appearance in a Cardinal jersey tomorrow night against Mt. Rainier at the Parkland field.

The Franklin Pierce Cardinals close out the grid season tomorrow night on the home turf against a stubborn Mt. Rainier eleven that has a tendency to hang on right down to the wire.

The Parkland team evened up its season record last week with a courageous stand against the Renton Indians, who sit atop the League standings. The Cards almost topped the Indians, but finally lost 14-7.

Mt. Rainier is two steps above the cellar with two wins and seven losses, but the record doesn't tell the real story. The team has lost more close ones this season than it wants to admit. Just last week, after leading twice in the contest, Mt. Rainier lost a 13-12 decision to Kent-Meridian in the fourth quarter. The previous week the team barely lost a game to the Pirates of Highline, who ride in second place in the league with a single defeat.

The return of fullback Joe Man-cus to the Cardinal offensive team may have been the spark that kept the Cards pushing the first-place Indians for a win last week. However, the running of Mancuso's fill-in in previous games indicates the home team has good backfield punch riding the bench.

Coach Eldon Kylo will probably need all the running, passing, blocking and tackling, his team can muster tomorrow night, however. Mt. Rainier's Dick Kelly spurted 65 yards with a kick return last week to score, and Doug Russ bulled over from the 2-yard stripe for another score as an indication of the team's potential. In nine games this season, Mt. Rainier has tallied 115 points, a 12.8 point average per game. Franklin Pierce has scored 15.7 points per game on the average.

Presently tied for sixth place the Cardinals, even with a win tomorrow night, can end up no higher than fourth place for the season.

Salome Dance Sunday Night

The spectacle of Herod's banquet, including the dance of Salome and her demand for John the Baptist's head, is vividly brought to life by a superb cast of professional actors in "Fate of John the Baptist," a full-color motion picture to be shown at the Emmanuel Baptist Church, 94th and Pacific Avenue, on Sunday, November 20th, at 6:00 p.m. and again at 8:00 p.m.

The Rev. Ed Coy, Pastor, will elaborate on the cultural background of the times in connection with the film.

The film continues the high technical and professional standards which are giving the Living Christ series film a new and important place in Christian teaching. It was first released in 1957. "Our purpose in these weekly showings is instruction, of course," Rev. Coy said, "but the very nature of the story makes every film in the series among the most entertaining motion pictures you ever watched."

The public is invited to all showings.

Pierce Hoopster Hopefuls Again Eye State Tourney

Cardinal basketball hopefuls crowded the maple court Tuesday afternoon as coach Del Schafer issued the call to begin the 1960-61 hoop season.
Prospects for the year are as yet undetermined, but the dreams in Cardinal land are riding high following last year's seventh-place finish in the State AA basketball Tournament in Seattle.
On another front, wrestling coach Dick Larson also called for candidates for the grunt and groan squad this week.
Top contender in the heavy-weight division is Larry Gehrmann, who last year was scheduled for the State tourney in Pullman, but who had to withdraw because of injuries suffered in the District meet. The 250-pound senior is expected to join the mat men following the close of football season.

There's more value, more good-eating meat in...

Safeway Chuck Roast

See For Yourself Why You Get So Much More!

- 1 Note the large proportion of lean meat to fat and bone. We never "rob" a chuck roast of lean meat (as some do) to be sold as boneless beef at a higher price.
- 2 There's bone, of course, but it's carefully trimmed. Grandma tells us that the juices flow through the meat from the bone help give pot roasts their perfect flavor.
- 3 Just enough fat is left on a Safeway chuck roast to make sure it will cook tender, flavorful and juicy and have that rich brown color you want in your pot roasts.
- 4 It's cut from USDA Choice Beef. Only beef judged by expert U. S. government graders to be of fine-eating quality is awarded this high grade.

Lime Pie Filling Is Nutritious and Good Eating Roy Grange Elects Officers For 1961

BY DOROTHY MADDOX
Good looks, good nutrition and good eating—these are qualities that make fresh limes so popular. Try this recipe to get the taste of lime combined with sweetened condensed milk in a pie that is of good cutting consistency and easy to make.

Can be made with cookie crumb crust or a baked pie shell. The filling needs no cooking. The meringue is peaked in a wreath around the edge or piled lightly all over the surface.

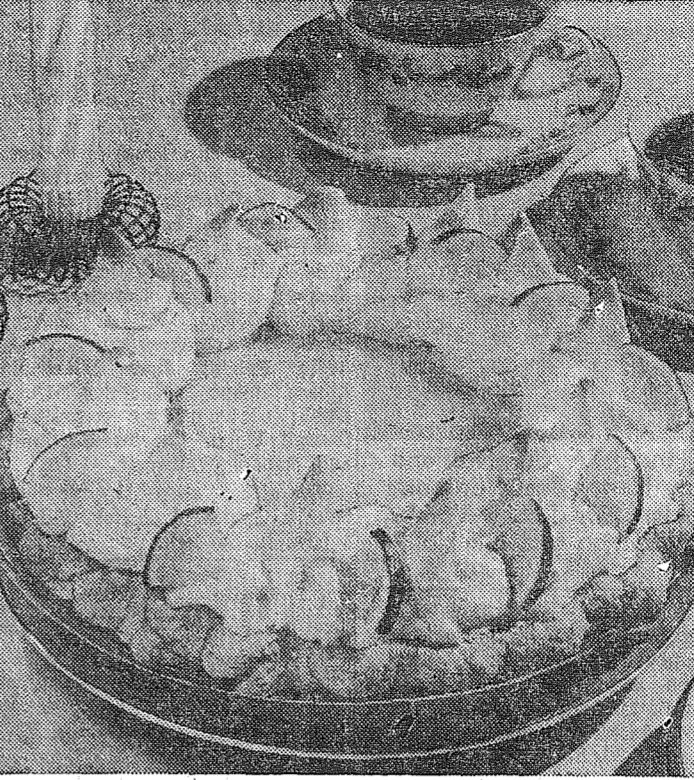

Magic Lime Pie (8-inch)
One crumb or pastry pie shell (8-inch), cooled; 1½ cups (15-ounce can) sweetened condensed milk, ½ cup fresh lime juice, 1 teaspoon grated lime rind, 2 eggs (separated), few drops green vegetable coloring (if desired), ¼ teaspoon cream of tartar, 4 tablespoons sugar.

Put sweetened condensed milk, lime juice and rind, egg yolks and vegetable coloring into mixing bowl. Stir until mixture is well blended and thick. Pour into cooled pastry or crumb shell.

Beat egg whites until frothy. Add cream of tartar; beat until almost stiff enough to hold a peak. Add sugar and beat until stiff but not dry. Pile lightly on pie filling and seal to pie crust all around (this will prevent meringue from shrinking). Bake in slow oven (325 degrees F.)

untill top is lightly browned, about 15 minutes. Cool before serving.

Here are other suggestions for using fresh limes: Lime sherbet made in mechanical refrigerator with chopped pistachio nuts; fresh lime sponge pudding—lime gelatin base with beaten egg whites and whipped cream added, molded in a pudding mold. Ever try serving a scoop of fresh lime sherbet in a cantaloupe half?

Delicious lime filling makes this pie good to eat. Decorative lime slices on meringue make it attractive.

Harmon Highlights

Jumping back into the No. 1 position again this week, the Iowa Hawks have almost clinched the national championship as far as the Harmon ratings are concerned. With a power quotient — based on past performance average — of 113.5, the high-flying Iowans can sew up the top position with a 26-point win over Notre Dame at South Bend this Saturday.

But if Iowa should stub its toe as it did against Minnesota two weeks ago, either once-tied Mississippi in the runner-up spot or 3rd-ranked Missouri, undefeated and untied, could move in. Ole Miss is idle this week, but the Missouri Tigers battle 7th-rated Kansas in one of the feature games of the day. Missouri is a 7-point favorite close out its regular season undefeated.

Fumbling and fuming in the No. 4 spot after its first loss last week, the Minnesota Gophers will attempt to tie Iowa for the championship of the Big Ten by knocking over the Badgers of Wisconsin. The Gophers are 14-point favorites to do just that.

Ohio State, No. 5, is a 6-point favorite over 17th-rated Michigan; 6th-ranked Michigan State should hand Detroit a 25-point whipping; and Duke, in the eighth spot, should have no trouble winning over North Carolina by 23 points.

Ranked in the No. 9 position, Rice is 6 points too strong for TCU, and the 10th-rated Rose Bowl-bound Huskies of Washington are 17 point favorites to ride over rival Washington State.

The Harmon Forecasts, hitting some of the highest predicting averages in the nation, racked up an .810 percentage last week. There were 102 correct picks, 24 misses, and 4 ties. The season's total read 837 right and 242 wrong (44 ties) for a .776 average.

Taking a look at a few of the teams in the second 10, Alabama, No. 11, has a 51-point breeze going this week with Tampa — and Arkansas, in the 12th position, should take Texas Tech by eleven.

Sitting in the No. 13 spot is that tough four-time loser, mentioned (all too briefly!) in this column last week — the "Spiller-Boys" from Purdue. They'll shellack their Hoosier neighbors, Indiana, this week by 20 points. However, their week to week behavior has been as unpredictable as any team in the nation — running over Notre Dame one weekend, then playing dead to Wisconsin; upsetting Ohio State one Saturday, falling flat against Illinois a couple of weeks later; and finally, upending Minnesota.

November 18 - 24 is National Farm-City Week. It is most appropriate that farmers and urban people take a look at one another's problems and way of life. This goes a long way toward creating mutual understanding.

Here are some interesting facts released by the USDA concerning agriculture position in this country.

The total investment in the business of agriculture exceeds $208 billion—equal to four-fifths of the value of current assets of all corporations in the U.S. The average farmer invests $27,000.00 per worker. For industry the figure is $17,800.00. Productivity of the American farm worker is now growing more than twice as fast as the productivity of workers in industry.

We have grown from a nation in which one out of every four workers had to produce food, to a nation in which one farmer is producing enough food for 24. By way of contrast, Russia today still produces at the rate of one agricultural worker to produce food for five people. This leaves us in a much more favorable position to utilize our working force in industry.

Most people of the world spend half their income for food. We spent only 21 per cent of ours in 1959. After buying food more of our income is left for other purposes.

Often times we complain about how little food a dollar buys. Food costs have risen less since 1947-49 than most other consumer items. The average of all items in the cost-of-living index was 26.2 per cent. For food the increase was 19.5 per cent. Another way to point out this comparison is that in 1939 an hour's pay for factory labor would buy 1.8 pounds round steak. In 1959 it would buy 2.1 pounds.

The farmers share of the food dollar was 38 cents in 1959. In 1940 it was 40 cents. The average income per capita of the farm population in 1959 was $965. For the non-farm population the figure was $2,216. Farmers have been caught in a cost-price squeeze. Lower prices for what they sell, higher prices for what they buy. In order to survive, they have had to increase their production efficiency tremendously. Evidence of this is shown by a 56 per cent higher crop production per acre and output per breeding animal has increased 81 per cent.

The farm population is not asking for sympathy but rather helpful understanding as it tries to solve its problems.

National Children's Book Week! — It's a week set aside each Fall when libraries, schools, and book publishers make a concerted effort to focus attention on the importance of good books for children. Children's Book Week, first celebrated in Boston in 1919, is now a nation-wide observance that brings children and books together.

This year National Children's Book Week has been November 13-19. What has the Pierce County Public Library done to observe this special week for children and their reading?

Through the years librarians have found that story telling can get children and books together — so it is stories, stories, and more stories. The Children's Department of the County Library offered story hours at Midland and Parkland on Monday, November 14. A Children's librarian was on hand at Lacamas and Roy on Tuesday for story telling. Tillicum will have a story hour today. On Friday a librarian will go to Wilkeson for a story telling session. Eatonville will have a story hour on the following Monday, November 21. Other communities having County Library branches will have story hours scheduled as soon as possible. There will, also, be in each of the branches of the county system displays of new books for children.

At Pierce County Library Headquarters, 201 St. Helen Avenue, there will be a new children's book display which will be open to the public from 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., tomorrow and Friday. Parents are invited to inspect these books for Christmas buying ideas. The Children's Librarian, Miss Margaret Bixby, will be on hand for reading Counselling and book discussion. The County Library is, also, preparing a pamphlet titled "The Child and Reading" which will be available to the public. In addition, there will be graded children's reading lists given upon request.

Word from the Milk Market Administrator for the Puget Sound area shows base milk is up 5.6 per cent over August a year ago.

At this time 49.2 per cent of the Class I milk is being used for fluid purposes. This compares to 51.6 per cent being utilized for Class I purpose a year ago. This lesser fluid usage always tends to bring the blend price of the milk lower.

This information should point up the necessity of economical production rather than large numbers of cows. Naturally, there is a particular size herd necessary to maintain for efficient use of buildings and machinery. However, many dairymen and perhaps it could be said most dairymen, could use a production testing program such as DHIA to cut off the low producers in their herd. This would help with the over-production problem and actually leave more money in the dairymen's pockets.

Fred Kropf, Pierce county weed supervisor, again reminds persons that castor beans are poisonous. He pointed out that Pierce County families were reminded this week that castor beans are poisonous.

Pierce County weed supervisor, pointed out that the tall, large-leaved plant is often used as an ornamental around homes and farmsteads. Castor beans are also grown in some areas in the state as an oilseed crop.

As most persons know, castor oil is a popular medicine for some ailments. The poisonous constituents in the bean are excluded from the oil during processing.

This time of year when the castorbeans are starting to ripen, children or livestock may try to eat the attractive seeds. The seeds or beans are poisonous to both humans and animals.

Parents are urged to be sure neither children nor their pets have access to the castor beans. After the beans are harvested, they should be stored where they cannot be eaten accidentally by persons or livestock.

$1.00 worth of raw wood stumpage sells for $17.60 in finished wood products. The dollars in between are the economic benefits that accrue to a community when the manufacturing industries are present to upgrade the raw material.

Those additional dollars above the $1.00 paid to the forest owner for stumpage go out as wages for workers and income for companies engaged in harvesting, processing, fabricating, transporting and distributing the forest product. If you don't have sufficient industry in your community to convert your trees into forest products, those extra wood-based jobs never show up and those extra dollars just don't circulate among the people.

County Agent's Corner
The best way to get rid of a tree stump is to kill the tree with chemicals before cutting it down. Otherwise, fresh sprouts may grow from the stump and make it difficult to remove.
Joseph Buhaly, county Extension agent, says this advice comes from Ben Roche, WSU's Extension weed specialist.
Roche's directions for tree or stump clearance are given as follows:
Chop a ring of gashes around the tree at about stump height. Be sure to cut through the inner bark and slightly into the sapwood. Then pour a solution of 2, 4, 5-T in oil into the gashes.
Be sure the cuts are made so they will retain some of the solution. The slash should provide a shelf or cup in the bark.
Make the chemical solution by mixing a pint of 2,4,5-T in about 3 gallons of oil of any type. If a smaller amount is needed, mix at the rate of one part of 2,4,5-T to each 10 to 20 parts oil. This one to 10 to 20 mixture is equally effective whether tablespoons or tea-cups are used for the basic measure.
Trees under 6 inches in diameter can normally be killed by soaking the groundline and the lower 2 feet of the trunk with the 2,4,5-T mixture. The solution should be applied to the entire circumference of the tree.
"The herbicide will normally kill the tree at any time of the year, but the best sprout control seems to come if applied between July and October.
If you have to cut down a living tree and want to kill the stump later, the solution will still work. Apply the solution to the top and sides of the stump with a spray or paint brush.
DIRTY THIEF!
Des Moines, Iowa — A dirty burglar who entered the house of George Romanelli made a clean getaway.
The burglar took a bath in Romanelli's home and also took four pairs of trousers and eight pairs of men's shorts. He left behind his dirty clothes — and a dirty ring in the tub.
OF LITTLE WORTH!
Denver — A bankruptcy petition, which he filed in a Denver court, listed Robert C. Allen's assets as $2,052 and his debts as $44,811. Allen is the author of a book: "How to Build a Fortune and Save on Taxes."

ROPE FOR A SWING
Enough rope for a swing means to this and other Korean boys—enough to eat, some kind of something to wear, some love and some teaching. That's all Jung Kuk SUL needs. Seven-year-old Jung was a beggar on the streets of Seoul, Korea until rescued by Mr. Lee, head of the Holy King Orphanage supported in part by American donations provided through one of the orphan programs of The American-Korean Foundation. The Emergency Orphanage Fund of AKF is used to meet urgent needs while plans are being developed for some type of income-producing activity so Korean orphans can eventually become somewhat self-supporting.

LINDA SCOTT writes
For Women Only
Are you giving your complexion the best of care? Not unless you wash your face properly. Here are five hints for better complexion care through proper face washing from The Lindsay Company, leading manufacturer of home water conditioners. First, be careful of the soap you use: soap that's too strong can irritate the skin. Second, don't use a wash cloth; instead massage the soap onto the skin with your fingers and use an upward motion to give facial muscles a "lift." Third, when rinsing, splash water on your face, starting with warm water and finishing with cold to stimulate circulation. Finally, be sure to use soft water; it prevents drying soap film from being left on your skin.
Do you open a bottle of perfume and then board it? If so you have a costly habit. Once a perfume bottle is opened the alcohol content slowly begins to evaporate—gradually changing the delicate balance of ingredients, altering the scent of a lovely fragrance. In order to protect expensive perfumes, wipe the neck of the bottles before using to prevent dust particles or other foreign objects from entering and spoiling the blend's delicate balance. When you close the bottle give the stopper an air twist to make it as air tight as possible.
Would you like to cut the time you spend washing dishes in half? Don't worry, we're not suggesting a kitchen speedup that would have you breaking your best china and glassware. The easy way to cut dishwashing time is to stop towel drying dishes. If you've tried this but find your dishes dry streaked with soap film, you've got a hard water problem. According to The Lindsay Company, this problem can be stopped by using soft water which does away with soap film. Dishes washed in soft water air dry sparkling clean and bright.

THE AMERICAN WAY
Many persons are fearful of being called as a witness in a court action and often avoid or attempt to avoid being called to testify.
This fear of being a witness is understandable since there was a time when abuse of witnesses was permitted. But the abuse of witnesses has been outlawed for many years.
At one time in England, however, it was customary to subject a witnesses' whole life to investigation in an attempt to discredit him by going into old follies, misdeeds or marital embarrassments. A witness then truly had reason to fear going on the witness stand. Modern court procedure has almost completely eliminated the harassment of witnesses. An actual conviction of the witness may be shown to discredit him, but even then he can avoid the details of his conviction by admitting there was a conviction, or he may explain if he wants to do so.
Of course, the witness may be asked questions to test his memory and observation power, because many people are inaccurate, even when well intentioned. Also, any fact which might cause a witness to be prejudiced is subject to inquiry, such as relationship to the parties to the suit, or the existence of a feud or hatred for a party to the suit.
If a witness is intending to lie on the witness stand, he may well be apprehensive about testifying, but a person who intends to tell only the truth was nothing to fear in going on the witness stand. The courts cannot function without witnesses, and our form of government cannot function without impartial courts. Therefore every person should consider it his or her duty to serve as a witness in court actions whenever called up to do so.
