SHADY ACRES RESIDENCE AIRPORT DEDICATED

BIDS DUE—The opening of bids on the 1.5 miles of Highway 5G from Ainsworth Avenue to Pacific Avenue have been included in the specifications for the project. 270 working days have been allowed for the project after the awarding of the bid. Two bridges over Park Avenue and a structure

Bids Called On Highway 5G Extension

Bids will be opened on July 17 by the State of Washington Department of Highways on projects which will total an estimated $3 million and will include the 1.5 miles of Secondary State Highway 5G from Ainsworth Avenue to Pacific Avenue.

Plans for 5G call for grading and paving the entire section of highway in the project and for the construction of a bridge over Park Avenue and a structure to connect the project with Pacific Avenue at about 108th Street. Also included will be structure to take Ainsworth Avenue traffic over the new state highway.

The road will be paved with asphaltic concrete. The cost of the project is expected to run between $750,000 and $1 million. Work will start in about 3 weeks after the awarding of the bids and is to be completed within 270 working days.

MAIN STREET—This is Shady Acres, taken from a plane approaching the newest community flying strip in the Northwest in Southern Pierce County. The 2,050 foot strip will be the 'main street' of a flying community, with 35 home sites spotted around the new field. The airport was developed by Harold LeMay and Jack Brown, and lies about 3 miles southeast of Spanaway Airport.

Paul's Shoes Has Birthday In Spanaway

Paul W. Chalk, proprietor of "Paul's Shoes" in Spanaway, is celebrating his 16th year in the shoe business in this area.

Paul originally tacked up his "Open for Business" sign in 1946 in the McCann Building, now housing the Bargain Basket. But growing business caused the need for a larger building so he moved to his present location at 161st and Pacific. He added to his shoe stock, making it the largest shoe store in the southend.

A World War Two veteran, Paul served three years in Europe with the 10th Armored Division.

His hobbies vary from photography, cartooning and oil painting to fishing and boating.

Trademarks at Paul's store include his friendly smile, shoes to fit every customer at prices to fit every pocketbook.

An important factor in the growth of his business has been his expert shoe repair department, capably managed by Don Carpenter. Marie Woracek is Paul's efficient clerk, and his wife, Nelda is often on hand to help customers with their selection, also.

"Help Jerry" Events Start In Collins Area

The Collins Community "Help Jerry" Committee is planning a series of fund raising events designed to help with the mounting medical expenses of Jerry Garrison, seriously injured when he was run over by a tractor and facing a long confinement at Lake-wood General Hospital.

The Collins folks promise an ample selection of baked goods for the two-day bake sale scheduled at Summit Thriftway starting at noon Friday, July 13th.

In addition, Franklin Pierce school friends and scout buddies will be seeking donations for the sale of a registered miniature poodle puppy provided by the Martindale Kennels of Milton. The puppy is valued at $150, and committee members urge Collins residents to react generously to this appeal.

Requests for more information or offers to help should be directed either to LE7-6235, LE7-7350, LE1-0406 or LE7-8473.

Prairie Riders Plan Play Day Sunday

The B&B Prairie Riders invite the public to participate in their first Play Day, which is scheduled for Sunday, July 15, beginning at noon with a grand entry, at the B&B Stables, located about 2-1/2 miles east of the Roy "Y" on the mountain highway.

There will be an admission donation of 50¢ with an entry fee for the ten events: 50¢ for one game, or $2 for all.

Games will include pole bending, barrel race, key hole race, walk, trot and get, apple bobbing, trailer races, scurry, sweetheart race, western trail and musical sacks.

Dance For Hoedowners

"Howdy Partners" square dancers will hold a dance Thursday, July 12th at 8 p.m.

The popular dance, "Maple Leaf Rag" will be the feature review for the workshop period, instructed by Mr. and Mrs. Willis Dodge. Other rounds will also be reviewed.

Hosts and hostesses are Mr. and Mrs. Roy Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Dodge and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hanson.

Brown, LeMay Open New Development

Shady Acres Airport, a flying community development in Southern Pierce County, was formally opened at 10 a.m., Thursday, July 5, when Otto Wicklander landed his plane on the hard surface runway.

The idea for the residential airport, which is not a commercial landing strip, was hatched early this year, lots were sold and shares of the strip were parceled out and the construction was begun by March. The strip was the brain child of Jack Brown and Harold LeMay of Parkland, more than 35 residential lots were set out around the strip.

Among the dignitaries at the dedication ceremonies were: William Gebenini, State Director of Aeronautics; Cully Coffman, Department of Aeronautics Safety Engineer; Melvin R. Olson, head of Building and Zoning Dept., Pierce County; Art Swindland and Earl Dryden, of the Parkland branch of the National Park of Washington; and Bob McMahon, president of the Pierce County Chapter of the Washington Pilot's Association.

The airport, 150 feet wide by 2,050 feet long, was open for only moments before it had its first transients landed. A family of fliers, visiting the World's Fair, decided to set down on the strip to await clearing weather before resuming their trip home. The Murray Hillman family, of Los Angeles, were not aware they had landed on a strip which was only a few minutes old.

The airfield enables fliers to take more advantage of their hobby, in that they will be able to live at the strip and keep their planes at their homes.

The developers pointed out that the strip is in no way a commercial flying field, since there is no fuel available, no tie-downs or repairs.

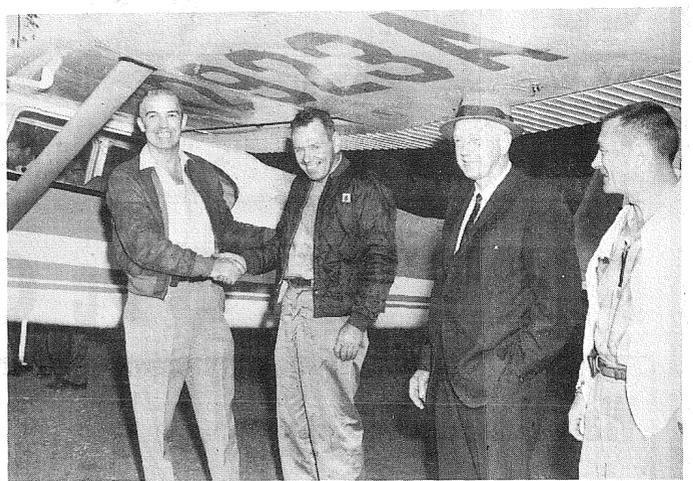

As Jack Brown put it, "Just the main street of a flying community."

A summer vacation is to be enjoyed. Don't strain yourself to impress others or to prove you're still the athlete you were at 20.

FIRST LANDING—The Murray Hillman family, of Los Angeles, are greeted by Jack Brown, right, as the first transient aviators to land on the Shady Acres airport, which was dedicated only minutes before Hillman decided to wait out a rain squall. The Hillmans were returning to Los Angeles from a visit to the World's Fair.

OFFICIAL GREETING — William Gebenini, left, Washington State Director of Aeronautics, offers his congratulations to Otto Wicklander and Melvin Olson, of the Pierce County Building Department and Cully Coffman, Dept. of Aeronautics Safety Engineer, look on. Wicklander was the first to land aboard the new Shady Acres air strip.

Bethel Junior High, student Patty Mason, Mr. Alfred L. Powers, student Arlene Powers of Morris E. Ford Jr. High, Mr. John Piper of Baker Jr. High, student Sheryl Jones, Principal Mrs. MacLennon of James P. Stewart Jr. High, student Paul Buckholtz, and Lions Club President Millard Evans. Cathy Harshman of Keithley Junior High was unable to be present when the photo was made. —McKewen Studio Photo

Fifteen year old Jerry Garrison of Bingham Avenue who is in Lakewood General Hospital with traction on his left leg, is to have another x-ray soon. Jerry was run over by a tractor two weeks ago last Friday at 12:15 p.m. and quite seriously injured. He is in good spirits but gets lonesome and would appreciate receiving cards or notes from his friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Lanway are moving this week end to Monroe, Washington where he will be nearer his work.

Palmer Hanson who has been visiting aweek with his sister, Mrs. Grace Bernhardson, and family of Bingham Ave., left Friday for his home in Santa Monica, California.

Rev. Robert Pottinger and a group of 11 young people went for a hike to Van Trump Park and Comet Falls in Mt. Rainier Park last Saturday. They ran into lots of snow. The group included Jack Hurst, Patricia Pottinger, Jerry Bosquette, Dennis Carlson, Sue Morris, Karen Carlson, Pamela Zrieze and her cousin Donna Fikkink, who was visiting her from Minnesota, Dale and Bill Seaburg and Dietmar Frey.

HONG KONG, B. C. C. (FHTNC) -- Raymond G. Leber, boilerman fireman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Leber of 101 South 162nd St., Spanaway, Wash. visited Hong Kong, June 12, while serving aboard the attack aircraft carrier USS Midway.

a - Wondering and a - Wandering with Jack Brown

I've been getting a little education concerning different dances. In Hawaii I asked an instructor how they taught the young girls to do the hula. He told me confidentially that they place a belt around their middle. On a piece of string they hang a penny from the front of the belt. On another piece of string they hang a coffee bean from the back. The girls are then instructed thus: Quote . . . "One, two, three, bounce that penny . . . one, two, three, grind that corn, etc., etc."

I spent the last weekend in Canada and while there came across the instructors view of how to teach the twist. The student is handed a lighted cigarette, and a turkish towel. They are then instructed thus: Quote, "Throw down the cigarette, now, one, two, three, stomp out that cigarette. One, two, three, dry your fanny, one, two, three, stomp out that cig-- etc., etc." I knew there had to be some method to it, and I must say, it really works.

There is a never ending stream of people in our country who seem to think that the government should give them more and more. They seem to fail to realize that the government is not an earner but merely a spender . . . a distributor of our taxes. Anything that President Kennedy, or any other president, says he will give to the people he must first take from us. In such a process we inevitable grow poorer, for the vital point that many miss is that money comes from all of us who still have the ambition to work for a living and not stand around with our hand out.

Just remember that every joker you know that is laying around, too lazy to work, and living off welfare or any other hand out has his hand in your hip pocket.

Recently I saw a known deadbeat in the line up at the liquor store. It sure gave me a pain to see him walking out with a quart of giggle water bought on your money and mine. As far as I am concerned I think it should be made a felony for anyone on dole to use the money for liquor or cigarettes. It's bad enough to have to feed them without having to feed their habits as well.

So I'm bitter . . . At least if I buy a jug of hooch it's my money and none of my neighbors that goes to pay for it.

On the brighter side of life I ran into an incident Sunday that made me rather proud to be an American for I saw somewhat of a revival of the old pioneer spirit of neighborliness. Pulling up to the gas pump at Port Angeles I saw some new faces around the airport. In fact I saw a whole lot of them.

On asking about the health and whereabouts of the man who normally gasses my plane and runs the airport there, I was told that he, his wife and six kids, were in I daho to a family reunion for the day and that the people who were running the cafe and pumping gas were members of a local club who had literally shanghaied the family into a plane and sent them on their way, assuring them that they would mind the store while they were gone.

They may not have been fast nor sure, but with customers pouring their own coffee, checking their own oil and gassing up, everything was running smoothly. And best of all a hard-working family were taking a well earned day off.

Further questioning revealed a fact that I was sure of. This was about the only day off the airport manager and his wife and family had had in many a moon. Upon hearing that they, the family, would like to attend a family reunion, aviation club insisted that they take off and some 24 members turned out to run the airport and cafe while they were away.

That, my friends, could only happen in America.

Spanaway News

Mr and Mrs. William Righetti have had house guests Mr. Righetti's sister, Mrs. Walter Janicki from Canonsburg, Penn. and a niece Miss Sara Kay Waugh of Fredricktown, Pa.

Deepest sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Anderson on the death of Mrs. Anderson's mother.

Mrs. Edna Beuhlman has been entertaining guests from Hawaii. A week ago Mrs. George Hewitt of Hilo Hawaii and Miss Clydie Spone of Honolulu were her guests. They visited the Fair, went to Victoria, B.C., and visited Mt. Rainier. Mr. and Mrs. Kiyu Nada and family of Hilo, Hawaii visited this week. They also went to the Fair, Mount Rainier and plan to go to Westport.

Mrs. Beuhlmann met her house guests on her trip to Hawaii two years ago. Mr. and Mrs. Willie Koch of North Hollywood have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Robert McCullough. They are also visiting the World's Fair and many relatives.

Many friends will be glad to know that little Patty Symmons is improving since her brain operation several months ago. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Symmons.

Waring Davies Ends Boot Camp

SAN DIEGO, California, (FHTNC) -- Pvt. Waring E. Davies, USMC, son of Mr. and Mrs. E.W. Davies of Route 1, Spanaway, Wash. was graduated, June 14th, from recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, San Diego, Calif.

The 11-week training cycle emphasizes physical conditioning, customs, and courtesies, hygiene and sanitation, basic military subjects and the history and mission of the Marine Corps.

During the rifle range phase, marines are introduced to the M-1 rifle, the Browning Automatic Rifle and the .45 caliber pistol.

Visitors Inflate Midland Population

The Clarence Johann home has had the appearance of a "Trailer Village" of late as they have enjoyed, along with all their neighbors, the influx of summer visitors. Mrs. Johann's parents Mr. and Mrs. Leon Endicott of Warren, Arizona; her brother Donald Endicott and family of Yuma Arizona and her sister, Mrs Stanley Ernst and family of Palo Alto, California, were all here for two weeks. Leon Endicott spent some of his childhood in the Olympia area and then in his teens moved to Tacoma, where he remained until 1919 when the family moved to Warren Arizona. This was his first visit back to the northwest and the first time any of the rest of the family had visited our beautiful country. They were thrilled by it and made plans for returning soon. The visitors were entertained royally by friends with a barbecue at the Parkland home of Mr and Mrs. James Hartley assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Walter Howland, and a dinner party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Olson former Midland residents.

Mr. and Mrs. William Brenner and sons, Billy and Johnny, have moved from the Midland district and are now living near 73rd and Waller Road. Now visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Sheppard is Mrs. Sheppard's father, Maximilian Ruff, of West Berlin, Germany. This is the first time he has met his son-in-law, and his four grandchildren, Mark, Michael, Karen, and Christy. Another guest at the Sheppard home is Mrs. Agnes Bachen, long time friend of Mrs. Sheppard. The Sheppard's have taken their guest to Grand Coulee Dam, Lake Chelan and the Columbia Basin. They plan to visit Mount Rainier and the Seattle World's Fair; and went to the ocean beach at Westport last week-end.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Sallee are Mr. and Mrs. David Bar and daughters, Noreen and Mari-Lu, from Spokane Washington. They plan to attend the Seattle World's Fair. They went to Mount Rainier last week-end.

Mrs. Russell Benoodt and son, Leslie, have just returned from a five-day visit to Ellensburg, where they visited with Mrs. Benoodt's mother and step-father, Mr and Mrs. Milton Glover. Mrs. Glover returned with the Benoodts and took in the Seattle World's Fair last Friday. Mrs. Glover also visited her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Mout, in Spanaway.

Members of the Thunderbird Patrol of Midland's Boy Scout Troop No. 84 enjoyed a field trip to Traffic Court last Friday, July 6th. Attending were Scott Highland, Donald Becker and Mark Sheppard. They were accompanied by Mrs. Frank Highland, Mrs. Joe Mika, and Jeff Highland.

Members of the younger set now working at Paradise Inn on Mount Rainier include the following Steven Sallee kitchen; Mike Carrel busboy; Judy Shoe waitress Priscilla Pedersen, waitress, Sue Pedersen, Souvenir Shop and Carolyn Hill Souvenir Shop.

INCREASE YOUR HOUSE POWER SAVE $50

ON TACOMA CITY LIGHT'S WIRING ASSISTANCE PROGRAMS

This happy homemaker is pleased with her home's increased electric capacity. How about the wiring in your home? Does it need upgrading?

Overloaded circuits, insufficient outlets are sure signs of low house-power. That means your house has inadequate wiring . . . means trouble with electric washers, dryers, ranges, and other appliances. With low house-power, these electric servants can't perform as they normally should. And you suffer the added inconvenience of blown fuses when you use too many appliances at one time.

First step to take in resolving a low-housepower problem is to take advantage of City Light's Wiring Assistance Program. Save fifty dollars by installing a 150-ampere service entrance with 30-kilowatts capacity, using city-approved electric water heater.

City Light also will provide fifty dollars when you install modern electric cooking and automatic electric water heating, changing from a two to a three-wire service; or by meeting requirements for a Gold Medallion Home. (Offer applies to City Light customers only.)

County Agents Can Compete For Scholarships

Two scholarships are being offered to county agricultural agents in Washington who want to attend university extension courses in communications.

Winners of the scholarships, sponsored by International Minerals & Chemical Corporation, will be announced August 25 at the annual meeting of the National Association of County Agricultural Agents.

IMC said the award are designed to enable county agents to further develop their abilities to communicate the latest agricultural ideas and developments to farmers.

The IMC-sponsored program is administered by the Federal Extension Service and the NACAA. A total of 10 awards are made, two each in Georgia, Michigan, New York, Texas and Washington.

Women Like Wood Kitchens

Kitchen news was made this month with the announcement of one of the country's largest kitchen manufacturers that a line of wood kitchens would be added to their metal line.

Demand for wood kitchens women discover all the advantages, reports the West Coast Lumbermen's Association.

Women like wood cabinets and paneling in their kitchens, the lumbermen report, because wood is warm to the touch; it does not accumulate moisture as metal does nor is it cold and clammy to the touch like steel.

Women also like the much wider choice of finished they can have in wood kitchen cabinets, the lumbermen say. One popular kitchen wood is west coast hemlock and one of the reasons for its popularity is that it can be finished naturally to bring out the soft champagne coloring of the wood. Another popular kitchen wood is Douglas fir, which has a golden coloring with a slight touch of red. Both of these woods are very tough and will wear well under constant exposures in the kitchen.

Both fir and hemlock are beautifully grained and this lovely texture is one of the features which women like. There is a warm friendliness to a kitchen finished with wood cabinets and wood paneled walls, a good many women have pointed out.

Flying with Jeanne

There may have been fire works some places on the 4th of July but there were none on 1st Lt. James Allison's private check ride. Everything went smoothly and Jim was issued his Private License. Thursday evening Jim treated his instructor, Slim Lawson and wife to dinner at the Lakewood Terrace.

Several dual cross-country training flights were made this last week. Among them Jim Zimmerman flew to Ellensburg, Yakima and return and Raymond Scott flew to Ellensburg and return.

Monday Jack Hawthorn flew to Vancouver, Washington where he made arrangements to enroll in college in Portland this fall.

It's The Law

Bob Brown and John Jones owned and operated adjoining farms. The fence that separated the two farms had existed for as long as anyone could remember, and ran along the section line, or so both men thought.

When the fence needed rebuilding, Jones had the line surveyed. The survey showed that the old fence did not run along the section line, as both men had thought. The old fence line was, in fact, several feet over onto John Jones' land.

When Jones proposed to build the new fence along the section line, Brown objected claiming that he had held this land for over 50 years, and that it was now his, due to the law of adverse possession. He started a lawsuit to prove his claim.

Who do you think owns the strip between the fence line and the true boundary? The Court held that Brown was entitled to the land due to his adverse possession. The court stated that mere possession for 10 years or more is all that the law requires to set up a presumption of ownership under adverse possession.

Possession for the statutory period under an absolute claim of title up to a clearly defined boundary, in this case a fence, will ripen into adversary title, whether the fence is or is not the true boundary. Bob Brown won the case. The fence was held to be the true boundary between the farms.

(This column is written to inform, not advise. Facts may change the application of the law.)

One popular kitchen wood is west coast hemlock and one of the reasons for its popularity is that it can be finished naturally to bring out the soft champagne coloring of the wood. Another popular kitchen wood is Douglas fir, which has a golden coloring with a slight touch of red. Both of these woods are very tough and will wear well under constant exposures in the kitchen.

Both fir and hemlock are beautifully grained and this lovely texture is one of the features which women like. There is a warm friendliness to a kitchen finished with wood cabinets and wood paneled walls, a good many women have pointed out.

Women Like Wood Kitchens

Kitchen news was made this month with the announcement of one of the country's largest kitchen manufacturers that a line of wood kitchens would be added to their metal line.

Demand for wood kitchens women discover all the advantages, reports the West Coast Lumbermen's Association.

Women like wood cabinets and paneling in their kitchens, the lumbermen report, because wood is warm to the touch; it does not accumulate moisture as metal does nor is it cold and clammy to the touch like steel.

Women also like the much wider choice of finished they can have in wood kitchen cabinets, the lumbermen say. County Agents Can Compete For Scholarships

Two scholarships are being offered to county agricultural agents in Washington who want to attend university extension courses in communications.

Winners of the scholarships, sponsored by International Minerals & Chemical Corporation, will be announced August 25 at the annual meeting of the National Association of County Agricultural Agents.

IMC said the award are designed to enable county agents to further develop their abilities to communicate the latest agricultural ideas and developments to farmers.

The IMC-sponsored program is administered by the Federal Extension Service and the NACAA. A total of 10 awards are made, two each in Georgia, Michigan, New York, Texas and Washington.

Mr. Dood-It SEZ:

This little lady was thinking about cleaning her wall-to-wall carpets. "But isn't it hard to do?" she says. "Not with this Clarke equipment, we assured her. All you have to do is put the emulsion in this tank on the handle, give the lever a few squeezes to release the liquid, turn on the scrub brush and the machine will shampoo your carpets. And the results will make you look like an expert. So she took the outfit home, along with a couple of cans of our special coconut oil emulsion that you use with the machine. A couple of hours later she was back — pleased as an astronaut who had just successfully orbited the earth. "Why I never thought I could do it. And such a beautiful job! My rugs look just like new." I had confidence in you all the time, we said. And we know what a fine job this equipment will do. So we can guarantee you'll be happy with your rug cleaning job when you use Clarke equipment and Clarke "C" Emulsion. Try it!
