Admission

Students desiring academic credit leading to a degree or certification must meet the general University requirements for admission or must present evidence of being prepared for college work. Transcripts or a letter of good standing may be required.

Students who do not meet these requirements may be admitted as special students. These students may be mature, competent individuals who wish to supplement their previous education and practical experience with additional formal education, but who do not desire to pursue a degree program; mature individuals who are ineligible for admission as regular students and who are deemed competent by virtue of their demonstrated ability, or by their practical training and experience, to benefit from the courses they desire to take.

Accreditation

Pacific Lutheran University is fully accredited by the Northwest Association of Secondary and Higher Schools as a four-year institution of higher education and by the Washington State Board of Education for teacher education. The University is accredited by the National Council for the Accreditation of Teacher Education for the preparation of elementary and secondary teachers with the Master's degree as the highest degree approved.

Location

The University is located in suburban Parkland, seven miles south of the city center of Tacoma, Washington. The 126-acre campus is two blocks west of Pacific Avenue and two miles east of Highway No. 99. The main campus is bounded by South 121st Street on the north and South 127th Street on the south, by Park Avenue on the east and South "I" on the west.

Changes in Registration

All changes in registration must be officially made in the registrar's office and completed in the business office. Students dropping courses without making official withdrawal will receive a failure in the course in which they are registered.

Course Numbering

Courses open to freshmen and sophomores are numbered 101-299 and are considered lower division subjects. Courses open to juniors and seniors are numbered 300-499 or above and are regarded as upper division subjects. Courses numbered 500 are open to graduate students only. Courses numbered in the 300's and 400's are open both to graduates and upper division undergraduates. Such courses may be a part of the graduate program provided they are not specific requirements in preparation for graduate study.

The student should have his entire program made up of subjects in the division in which he classifies. In exceptional cases second semester sophomore students may be assigned to an upper division course if the prerequisites for the course have been met. In such cases the course cannot be counted toward the 40 hours of upper division courses required.
