Plans Indicate Big Success at Meet Of National Union

Delegates Come From Many Norwegian Lutheran Schools In America; All Cooperate To Further Interest

Detailed plans for the national convention of the Lutheran Students' Union to be held at Pacific Lutheran College, March 7-9 are being made by the student and faculty committees. Since this is the first student meeting of this character to convene at P. L. C. and the first national convention of its kind to be held on the Pacific Coast, interest is at a high pitch. The planning indicates that not only are the students and teachers anxious to help make a successful convention, but that it will be successful.

Delegates will come from many of the schools of the Norwegian Lutheran Church of America, including Luther Theological Seminary, St. Olaf, Luther College, Augustana College, and Concordia College. Other institutions belonging to the Union are Red Wing

INCREASE NUMBER OF LIBRARY BOOKS BY 500

This year the library has so far added 500 new books, making the total number of accessioned books 10,390. The new books are in several languages—Latin, French, German, Norwegian, and English. Many of them cost as much as five dollars apiece.

To help accession these books, receive, slip, and catalog them, and keep order in the library and care for the fiction books, Mr. Xavler has fifteen helpers this semester. They are Berger Jacobson, Viola Taw, Glenda Waters, Edna Dagsland, Dorothy Ebersole, Irene Dahl, Stanley Befenssen, Eugenia Crosby, Marjorie McGovern, Emma Kaaland, Marie Vandinburg, Anna Avers, Arthur Olson, Harold Gray, and Grace Gard.

SCHOOL COOK TELLS AND WHAT SHE EXPERIENCES

"Mrs. Hinderle, what do you think of the students at P. L. C.?" she was asked.

"They all seem like a flock of sheep to me," she said. "I'd hate to put in print what I think of some of them. The gr at majority are grown-up men and women, but there are a few that act like two-year-olds."

The biggest difficulty of a cook is to get variety, according to Mrs. Hinderle. In planning her meals she tries to vary the combinations so that one day she can please the taste of some students and at other times that of others. In ordering for dinner she first finds out what kind of meat she can get and then plans her vegetables accordingly. Regardless of care in planning, there still are students who say things at the table that are complimentary neither to the cooking nor the cook. Concerning this, Mrs. Hinderle said, "Those who complain most are nearly always such as come from homes in which they have had the fewest advantages."

Mrs. Hinderle has been connected with the school for quite a number of

Thirty-Two Make Year's Honor Roll

Distinctive List Has Nine Members; Increase of Ten Over Mid-Semester Reports

Thirty-two students, an increase of ten over the mid-semester list, have finished the last eighteen weeks' work with the honor average of "B" or above. Of this number seven are from the Liberal Arts department, sixteen from the Normal department, and the remaining nine from the High-School department of the college.

The distinctive honor roll claims eight from this list, of which one is Liberal Arts, three Normal, and four High-School students. To make the distinctive honor roll one must have no grade below "B", while the honor roll requires an average of "B".

Those making the distinctive list are: Normal—Ruth Brown, Florence Warren and Ella Williams; Liberal Arts—Irene Dahl, High School—Dorothy Bodley, Edgar Larson, Clarence Monson, and Alice Roe.

The honor roll consists of Normal department—Mildred Seven, Eugenia Crosby, Leona Forsberg, Olaf Hageness, Miriam Heimdahl, Margaret Holmberg, Ruth Jacobson, Christine Johnson, Sena Johnson, Emma Kaaland, Gerhard Molden, Thora Rasmussen, and Marin Vandinburg; Liberal Arts department—Herman Anderson, Inga Goplerud, John Goplerud, Elvera Hokenstad, Harold Myhre and Stella Krohn; High-School department—Nedra Dubbig, Dagny Hermostad, Henry Holm-Jensen, Jens Rikshelst, and Gilbert Sdov.

THINKS OF STUDES

years. She worked in the laundry for four years and cooked part of the school year in 1921 and during the summer of 1921.

It was during the summer of 1921, while she cooked for those working in the endowment drive that she had many interesting experiences. One day Dr. Pankoke, who had charge of the drive, promised strawberries and short cake to all the workers who reached a certain goal. They reached it, but in the excitement of the drive Dr. Pankoke had forgot to tell the cook about it. Imagine her astonishment when at eleven o'clock at night thirty-three men marched into the dining room asking "Where's the shortcake?" Mrs. Hinderle met the situation admirably by serving strawberries and cream with their cake!

During the same summer all the workers made a trip to the mountain, taking their pantries and, incidentally, the cook with them in a car. Mrs. Hinderle managed to serve a dinner, which she had contrived to keep hot on the way, and watermelons, which she cooked on the glacier.

Forensic Activities Start for Season

Teams Work for Two Months Collecting Material for Coming Debates

With only a little over a week until the first debate of the season the varsity debate squad is working hard every day to make their arguments ready for presentation. Although the debate turnout was not as large this year as last, several of the members on the squad have had previous experience in debating and should ably represent Pacific Lutheran College in the field of argumentation.

A great deal of time has been spent in reading up on material, the debaters working two months gathering facts and arguments before they began to write their speeches.

Although a definite schedule has not been arranged as yet, Evelyn Soltun, debate manager, states that letters have been received from most of the schools that will debate us this year.

The first debate will be held on February 21, when the men's affirmative team meets Seattle Pacific College here. On the same day our women's negative team debates that school at Seattle.

On February 26, the women's negative team meets a group from Belinham Normal here.

Eighteen Students Try Pedagogue Art In Cadet Teaching

There are eighteen student teachers this semester, according to Miss SURRUP, supervisor. The student teachers are working in several different schools in Tacoma, Spanaway and Parkland. The student-teachers are as follows: Spanaway—Sena Johnson in the primary and intermediate, Beanca Jorgensen in the intermediate, and Berger Jacobson in the upper grades.

At the Horace Mann school, Tacoma—Marjorie McGovern in the fourth and fifth grades; at the Park Avenue school, Tacoma—Leona Forsberg in the fourth and fifth grades, Fred Walter in the fifth grade and a special group. At Larchmont—Christine Johnson in the primary grades, and George Cronquist in the intermediate grades. At Fern Hill—Gladys Jorgensen in the sixth and seventh grades, and Freda Tvet in the third grade. At Parkland—Mrs. Warren in the fourth grade, Irene McCullick in the third grade, Muriel Vetter in the eighth grade, Martha Sizer in the third grade, Palmer Storie in the fifth and sixth grades, and Ruby Lovren in the fourth grade.

COACH OLSON

Mountain Trip Set Two Weeks Earlier

Washington's Birthday Is Date; Two Buses Hired to Take Students on Party

Students who signed up for a mountain trip this year will be able to make the trip two weeks earlier than was originally planned, according to Fred Lee, chairman of the committee which is arranging for the short excursion. The date, first set at March 1, has been changed to February 22, Washington's Birthday.

At first, the committee had figured on hiring only one bus with a capacity of 35 persons, but because the number of students wishing to make the trip far exceeded this number, another truck has been ordered from the Rainier National Park Company. Fares are being collected from the students as they sign up. The total number who have paid their fares in advance is now 65, and many more desire to go. The trucks will leave school at six o'clock in the morning and will probably return at six o'clock.

REV. SHURSON PREDICTS PROSPERITY FOR PACIFIC LUTHERAN COLLEGE

On Tuesday, January 28, Pacific Lutheran College had a distinguished visitor in the person of the Rev. H. O. Shurson, of Minneapolis, the treasurer of the Norwegian Lutheran Church of America, who is now on the coast to resume the work of completing the church deficit campaign, started in 1924, but discontinued because of the many college endowment drives at that time.

The Rev. Shurson's stay was short, from 8:00 to 7:30 P. M.; yet he took time to give the reporter some interesting facts as to the feeling in the East towards our school and the possibilities of a great future for it.

"I am convinced," said Rev. Shurson, "that the future of this school is assured with the present increasing attendance. I am really surprised how

Next Few Days to Bring Four Stiff Games of Season

First Game Tonight With C.P.S. Reserves; Astoria Champs To Come Here Friday; Closely Matched

By Harold Gray

With C. P. S. as their opponents, the Gladiator hoopsters under the direction of Coach Olson, will tonight on the Logger floor play the first game of a heavy schedule which is to be run off in the next five days.

Besides tonight's game the P. L. C. team will play Astoria High School on Friday night in the P. L. C. gym, and Mt. Vernon Junior college on the following evening at Mt. Vernon. To wind up this strenuous schedule the Gladiators will face the Yakima Junior college on Monday, February 24, on the P. L. C. floor.

According to Olson, this is the most strenuous part of the schedule on the Gladiator calendar for the current year. As the members of the team have been going at top speed lately, they should make a clean sweep of this series.

The team will be somewhat handicapped in tonight's game, as they are playing on the C. P. S. floor, which is somewhat larger than their home floor, but the Gladiators are looking for victory, since they beat the Logger Reserves the first time they met this season by 29 to 19 score.

The game Friday night promises to be one of the best of the season. The Astoria team has won the state championship of Oregon for the past two years and has been playing up to par.

212 ATTENDING P. L. C. FOR SPRING SEMESTER

With an increase of twenty-five over the number attending school here last year at this time, the enrollment for this semester totals two hundred and twelve. Six states, three foreign countries, and Alaska are represented—Montana, North Dakota, Idaho, Oregon, Washington, and California; Norway, Canada, and Madagascar. The point farthest north from which students come is Sitka, Alaska; the one farthest south is San Francisco.

many students you have here, and how many states are represented.

"There is a feeling among the people of the Middle West that this school is needed on the West Coast. The school has the good will of the church people at large.

"In the future there should, be no question as to finances. There are plenty people of means on the West Coast who will feel that their money cannot be used to better advantage than to endow a chair or give larger sums outright to make it possible for the school to overcome its present difficulties in view of the fact that the future of the school is assured. The young people of the West Coast shouldn't forget the tremendous importance of this school, and they, especially, should rally to its support."

NEW NEWS STAFF

This issue of the Mooring Mast is being published by a new staff, the first one ever picked in mid-year at this school. Although some of last semester's crew are still working on the paper, several changes have been made and quite a few members added.

The new staff has been chosen in order that those on the staff last semester, especially the college sophomores, who are leaving school this year, might work on the first yearbook to be published at Pacific Lutheran College. Because of all the work required on the annual, it was thought inadvisable that students holding responsible positions on that staff should also work on the Mooring Mast.

The members of the new staff take this opportunity of greeting all the readers of the paper and pledging themselves to put forth every effort toward publishing a paper that will be of value and interest to its readers and a credit to the school.

OUR POPULARITY

Now again, at the beginning of the second semester, the increased enrollment of our school comes to our attention. With a total of 212 students this school continues to teem with possibilities for development.

The development campaign is progressing and promises a great future for the school, but what is more important or at least equally important to boosting the development campaign is to attract new students to our school. And this can be done only by proving its worth to the world. Proceeding on this assumption we can conclude that the steady increase in attendance is a result of the increasing popularity and a realization of the worth of our school.

LINCOLN

"It is for us, the living, rather to be dedicated here, to the unfinished work that they have thus far so nobly carried on. It is rather for us to be here dedicated to the great task remaining before us; that from these honored dead we take increased devotion to that cause for which they here gave the last full measure of devotion; that we here highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain; that this nation shall, under God, have a new birth of freedom; and that government of the people, by the people, for the people, shall not perish from the earth."

Today is Lincoln's birthday.

THE OTHER TEAM

We have at P. L. C. an organization which is just as much a part of the school as any athletic team. This is the debate squad.

Day in and day out the debaters toil at their task, striving towards perfection, hoping that sometime they may be able to bring a little prestige to their school in debate circles. They work probably more than any other organization.

There is no one to cheer them on as in football and basketball, no one to compliment them on a good bit of work, unless it be the coach.

Still these debaters are undoubtedly working harder and accomplishing more than any athletic team, getting valuable experience and helping their school.

The first debate of the season is just in the offing. Wouldn't it be a good idea to show the debaters our appreciation by turning out to help them win?

Boys Play Thriller With Mount Vernon

Victory of 9 Points Places Lutherans at Better End of 22 to 31 Score

A thriller in every respect was the victory the Gladiators put over the Mount Vernon basketball five on the local floor the evening of February 1. Throughout almost the entire game the scores never differed by more than 1 or 2 points. The half ended with the Lutherans in a 12 to 11 lead. Only during the final minutes of the game were the locals able to sink enough baskets to give them a safe lead. The final score was 22 to 31 in the Parklanders' favor.

Although a minute Mt. Vernon forward and last year's all-state performer, was without a doubt, the outstanding play of the game, Milton and Colton were doing fine work for the Gladiators, with 8 points and 7 points, respectively, to their credit.

The Lineup:

P. L. C.	Mt. Vernon
Johnson (6)	F (4) Anderson
Colton (7)	F (7) Minihan
Milton (8)	C (2) Lippert
C. Munson	G Ness
Palo (3)	G (3) Thompson

Substitutes: P. L. C.—Gardlin (5); R. Munson, Thonson, Nyman (2); Mt. Vernon—Barclay (2), Murray (2).
Officials: Referee—Hopkins, Tacoma; Scorer—Cronquist, Timer, Lee.

GLADIATOR SCHEDULE FOR NEXT FEW DAYS HEAVY

This year, defeating some of the best teams that Oregon has to offer. This will be the first game of the home-and-home series.

On Saturday evening, the Gladiators will invade the Mt. Vernon Junior college in the final game of the home-and-home series between these two teams. In the first game played on the P. L. C. courts, Mt. Vernon was put down in defeat by the count of 31 to 22. This should be a close game as the northern team should have a decided advantage playing on their home floor.

Monday's game, which will also be played on the P. L. C. floor, should be a nip-and-tuck affair. The Yakima Junior college team has not played any western team so far this season, but has sent home all their local opponents in time to pick their apples. The apple-bowers should have an advantage as the Gladiator team will be weary through their heavy schedule. The Gladiator boys promise that they will not be disheartened, but will show the Yakima boys a thing or two about the name of basketball.

Coach Olson gave the whole squad strenuous workouts on both Monday and Tuesday evenings in order that the team would be in first class condition for this schedule. Since Milton has decided to stay at school for a while longer, the Gladiator team has a very good chance of making a clean sweep of the coming schedule.

MEMBERS OF PLAY CASTS TO PRESENT SHOWS AGAIN

Members of the casts of the three Dramatic Club plays, "Forty Miles and Hour," "Mix Well and Stir," and "The Ghost Story," are practicing for another presentation of these plays.

The dates that have been definitely decided upon for presentation are:
"Mix Well and Stir" to be given at the American Lake Veterans' Hospital on Thursday, February 13.
"Mix Well and Stir," "Forty Miles and Hour" and "The Ghost Story" will be given at the Lake View Sanatorium on Tuesday, February 25.

TO PRESENT GERMAN PLAY
The college and high-school German classes, taught by Mrs. Bondy, will begin soon to practice on a one-act German play, "Karl hat Zahnschmerzen," which they will present in the college auditorium within the next few weeks. The characters have not been assigned.

Quintet Quips

By George Cronquist

Received a letter from "Red" Carlson, last year's football and basketball flash, who is now enrolled in Hamlin University, St. Paul. He tells me the Hamlin football team had a quite successful season, but that the basketball team is not so "hot." "Red" says he will be starting track work February 1. And how that redheaded Swede could jump! Well—success to you, "Red."

The fellows did not go so well when they played Lincoln last Thursday; I'll bet they felt lost on that large floor.

The schedule tells us that many games will be played the latter part of this week and the first of next. According to "dope" they all ought to be thrillers. Let's pack the old gym for all the remaining home games.

Leaving organized sports for awhile, let us consider the mountain trip. What fun we should have, if everything goes as we hope. I hear that Earl Perceval and Al Hauge are experts on the skis. All those wishing special instruction see them at once.

PARKLAND DRAMA CLUB GIVES BENEFIT PLAYS

For the benefit of the Parkland Parkland-Teacher Association, the Parkland Drama Club presented two one-act plays, "A Window of the South" and "Cabbages," in the college auditorium, Saturday night, February 3.

The first play, "A Window of the South," was a drama in which six faculty members took part. "Cabbages," a comedy, had five of the faculty as actors.

Choose New Officers For Dormitory Union

The Men's Dormitory Union elected new officers for the second semester at its regular meeting February 4. Those chosen to serve on the executive committee and to compose the dormitory council were: Reimold Jacobson, president; John Goplerud, vice president; Walter Young, secretary; Fred Scheel, treasurer; and Alvenc Schiermann, sergeant-at-arms.

Girls Meet Second Defeat

The girls' six from the Pacific Lutheran College, tasted defeat for the second time this season, when the strong Yelm basketball team defeated them at Yelm last Friday by a 15 to 12 score. The game was hard-fought, and fouls were frequent.

Gladiators Drop Last Hoop Game To Scrapy Abes

Failing to click in their usual manner, the Gladiators dropped a loose game to the Lincoln High School basketball five on the spacious floor of the Abes, Feb. 6, by a 31 to 19 score. At no time during the entire game did the Lutherans threaten the Abe's lead, which started shortly after Bill Nyman had dropped in a foul shot for the first score of the game. At half time the Abes were leading by a 13 to 4 count and during the second half held on to 10 point lead.

The game was featured by swift accurate, underhand passes on the part of Spruce and Balcom, Lincoln stars. Oordon, of the Ratspitters, was leader in the scoring, with 8 points to his credit. C. Munson and Palo, Coach Olson's two dependable guards, seemed to work very effectively for the Lutherans.

The Lineup:

Lincoln	F. L. C.
Gordon (7)	F (0) Gardlin
Talbot (8)	F (4) Colton
Buck (1)	G (5) Johnson
Sorboe (7)	C (4) Palo
	G (5) Nyman

Substitutes: Lincoln—Tolefsen, Balcom (4), Gardner (3), Geehan, P. L. C.—Milton (2), C. Munson (2), Thonson (1).

Officials: Referee—Hopkins, Tacoma; Timer—Lee; Scorer—Cronquist.

MISSION SOCIETY CALLS FOR MEMBERSHIP NAMES

The regular meeting of the Mission Society was held Wednesday evening, February 3.

After the devotion a short program was given, which included the following numbers: a vocal solo by Margaret Porath, a reading by Christine Johnson, and a talk by Mr. Ramstad.

In order to have a membership list of those belonging to the Mission Society it was decided to have those students who are interested in becoming active members of the society make application to any one of the four officers: Arthur Olson, president; Warner Quake, vice president; Sena Johnson, secretary; Sigurd Bjeide, treasurer.

Sixth Victory For Girls In Tilt With Mt. Vernon Team

Checking in their sixth victory in seven starts, the Lutheran girls' basketball squad humbled the basketball six from the Mt. Vernon Junior College, by a 46 to 32 score. The local girls outclassed the Junior College pastimers in every department of the game and led at half time by 22 points.

During the third quarter the Mt. Vernon five came to life to score 11 baskets, but were checked during the final frame, when Coach Stixrud sent in her first stying squad. Dorothy Ebersole led the scoring of the game, with 30 points to her credit, while Margaret Holmberg and Eugenia Crooby played well at the guard berths for the Lutherans. Marble and Knudson performed well for the Junior College.

The Lineup:

P. L. C.	Mt. Vernon Jr.
Larson (8)	F (16) Marble
Ebersole (30)	F (16) Knudson
Rasmussen	C (1) Nelson
Munson	C Hildebrand
Holmberg	G Austin
Mohn	G Springer

Substitutes: P. L. C.—A. Roe; D. Roe; Kaaland (8); Dahlberg; Lofthus. Mt. Vernon—Olander.

Officials: Referee—Miss Walter, Tacoma; Scorer, Cronquist; Timer, Lee. The Gladiator girls defeated the First Lutheran Church team of Tacoma on the local floor Feb. 4, by a 27 to 24 score.

Student Interest In National Meet Shown by Article

To show that interest is highly pitched in the Lutheran schools in the East as well as our West for a successful convention of the National Lutheran Student's Union, which will be held at Pacific Lutheran College, March 7, 8, and 9, the following article from the College Chips, Luther College paper is quoted.

At a meeting of the student body held Friday morning, Ernest C. Thompson, Ernest Espelle, and Charles Norby were elected as delegates to represent Luther College at the convention of the Lutheran Student's Union, which will be held at Pacific Lutheran College, Parkland, Washington March 7, 8, and 9. In addition to representing the College, Mr. Norby and Mr. Espelle will represent the staff of College Chips at the sessions of the Lutheran Press Association, which are held on the first day of the convention.

The Luther delegates, together with four representatives elected by Augustana College, Sioux Falls, S. Dak. are the first definitely selected to form the contingent which will journey from mid-west schools to the convention.

A meeting of officers of the Union was held at Minneapolis Saturday to formulate plans for the three-day convention program. Definite announcements are expected soon from Morris Wee, President of the organization, and Rev. N. M. Ylvisaker, executive secretary.

Other schools have also elected delegates, but official reports have not been received from them. As yet no delegates from P. L. C. have been elected, but plans are under way for a very interesting convention.

PLANS INDICATE BIG SUCCESSFUL MEET

Seminary, Waldorf College, Madison Lutheran Normal School, Canton Normal School, Gate College, Central Wisconsin College, Park region College, Pleasant View Luther College, Luther Academy, Outlook College, the Norwegian Lutheran Deaconess Home, and Pacific Lutheran College. The delegates from the Middle West plan on leaving Minneapolis, March 4.

An interesting program has been worked out by the executive committee. On the first day, March 7, the Press Conference will be held, with one session in the morning and one in the afternoon. Charles Norby, of Luther College, is the chairman of this conference.

On Friday evening, after a reception for the delegates, the first general session of the convention will take place, and the theme, "What Shall I Do With My Life?" Corbin's "S. 15" will be introduced. At the other sessions various speakers will develop this theme from the following angles: "The Basis," "The Challenge," "The Purpose," and "The Response of the Individual."

Dr. J. A. Aasgaard, president of the N. L. C. A. will deliver the convention sermon on Sunday, and a concert by the P. L. C. choir will take place in the afternoon.

Local arrangements include a tour of the surrounding country on Saturday afternoon.

Rehearsals have been started again on the two one-act plays, "Mix-Well and Stir," and "Forty Miles and Hour," which will be given at American Lake Thursday, February 13.

What if you were invited to a weekend party—for the purpose of vamping a man and then found that man to be your ex-husband?

Would it be embarrassing to you, and would it arouse just a wee ache in your heart—if you still (Traitor!) liked him pretty well?

What would you do—faint, cry, vamp him, ignore, or pretend you don't know him?

Small, coquettish Kitty Brown did just that, forgot she knew him completely. There was nothing of the quitter about Kitty.

And what a chase she led him! Poor fellow, who had always been misunderstood, (as all men are.)

"Let us be gay," sang Kitty, as she continued to be just that, until—

Well, the whole dramatic, humorous, and clever little comedy may be found complete in the three-act play, "Let Us Be Gay."

Ask for it in the library; enjoy a fast-moving play, and find out how KITTY settled her disturbing question.

"Let Us Be Gay" is one of our many popular and interesting books.

Take a day off and discover a few.

MOUNTAIN TRIP SET TWO WEEKS EARLIER

ably make the trip to the mountain by nine. The return journey will not start until six p. m., thus giving the party nine hours in which to enjoy itself at the mountain. Each student is advised to bring along two things, a few extra clothes and a little money for lunch, which may be purchased at the restaurant at the park.

Faculty members who will make the trip are Mr. and Mrs. Olson, Mrs. Krendler, and Miss Stuxrud.

A large number of students who have already been up to the mountain this year report conditions for skiing and tobogganing ideal.

Two years ago the school made a trip to Mt. Tacoma which was a success in every way. Last year the affair was postponed so long that the students decided to give it up entirely because they heard that the snow was becoming slippy.

The third-floor dormitory girls gave a farewell party for Miriam Heimdahl Saturday night, February 1.

Mrs. Bondy Has Wide Experiences

Mrs. E. H. Bondy, who has had a full list of interesting experiences during her teaching career in other schools, is one of the faculty members who is teaching at P. L. C. for the first time this year.

When asked how she likes P. L. C. Mrs. Bondy replied, "I like the spirit of the school and am enjoying my work here. I think the junior college makes a fine transition between the high school and the university."

Mrs. Bondy received her high-school education at the Kansas State Normal School. Then she took one year of undergraduate work at the University of Washington in 1907-08, during which time she was a substitute member of the sophomore girls' rowing crew. Later she received her A. B. degree at Fairmont College, Wichita, Kansas. She completed half of her graduate work at the University of Wisconsin and in 1928 received her M. A. degree from the University of Washington.

Mrs. Bondy traveled quite extensively in Europe in 1912-13. When asked how the European girls compare with the American girls, she said, "I can say with Kipling, 'They are sisters under the skin'. We find the same kind of girls in a group there as we do here, but the European girls are much more closely chaperoned than are our American girls. However, with the new era in Europe the girls assume a greater responsibility. They have gone out for outdoor sports and physical training more strongly since the war."

Mrs. Bondy has also had the experience of teaching in a foreign land. She taught English in the 'Tochter Pensionat Lohmann' in Thatern Harz, Germany. She also studied there, taking up French, German, and art. Later she taught in the "Giessemann Tochter Pensionat" in Dresden, Germany. "Teachers are much more respected in Europe than in America," she said. "A boy, on meeting a teacher, will remove his hat or cap five steps before they meet, and does not replace it until he is five steps past her. Also, when the teacher enters the school room, the pupils stand until the teacher is seated. However, with this great respect comes a smaller salary."

Mrs. Bondy has also taught in the United States and traveled in Alaska. For a time she taught in the grades. In 1911-12 she taught mathematics in the high school in Mason City, Iowa. In 1913-14 she had charge of the German department at Fairmont College, and from 1914-1917 she was head of the modern-language department in the Wichita, Kansas, high school. In 1929 she was called to the Pacific Lutheran College, where she is teaching German and French.
